

Star of Space 938

Chapter 938 We can't just let it go!

"You can't rush out so recklessly again, I understand."

After thinking about it, he warned her again.

"Okay, got it."

Lin Caisang nodded helplessly.

Isn't this a special situation? What can she do? We can only take one step at a time and see what happens.

"Brother Mo Lian, I just saw a figure. After I took the python in, he was standing far away, but he disappeared after a while."

She sat next to Ya Molian and leaned against the tree pole.

When she first saw it, she thought she had seen it wrong. After the man disappeared, she came back to her senses. She must have seen it right. There was indeed a person standing there before.

"So, that python is indeed controlled by someone." Ya Molian said coldly.

"right."

Lin Caisang nodded.

...

While Ya Mo Lian and his party were recuperating, on the other side of Baibind Mountain, a man in a black cloak was standing under a tree and punched the tree pole with his right hand.

"hateful!"

He gritted his teeth, thinking about the scene just now.

When the python he was raising was lost by the woman, he actually didn't see what was going on.

Because that white light was so dazzling that he couldn't even open his eyes.

"Who is that stinky girl?"

He couldn't help but wonder, who could this woman be, and why could she make the python he had raised for many years disappear? That was his pet, the pet he was most proud of. It had helped him do so many things and completed so many tasks.

This is such a pet, but it was reduced to nothing by that woman.

He brought the python here just to let it wipe out all the people around Ya Molian, so that only Ya Molian was left alone, so that he could do what he wanted to do next.

Who knew, but that stinky girl appeared out of thin air and disrupted his plan!

"No, we can't just let it go!"

Ya Molian must go to Qianhuan Continent, and he will not let go of those stinky girls who dare to disturb his head and kill his baby!

The man loosened his fist on the tree pole, propped up the tree pole with his palm, and then walked forward.

Without the python, there are plenty of monsters on the White Blind Mountain that he can use. None of these people, except Ya Mo Lian, can even think of reaching the whirlpool alive, let alone leaving the White Blind Mountain!

Although everyone was injured to varying degrees, they were still able to move forward with support one by one.

At this moment, Yamo Lian and the others no longer had any other thoughts. They looked at the direction where the purple mist was thickest and walked towards the highest point of the mountain top.

"It's better to walk slower."

Lin Caisang supported Ya Molian, and the two walked side by side, watching Ziwu getting closer and closer to them.

"That's right there?"

Looking up, you can see a super large vortex in mid-air, and the purple mist is being rotated out bit by bit as the vortex rotates, floating in the air.

The Sixth Prince looked there and said to everyone.

"Why do I smell a fragrance? Is it coming from the purple mist?" he asked.

"impossible."

Lin Caisang shook his head and directly denied what he said.

If this fragrance was wafting out of the purple mist, then they should have smelled it before. After all, the purple mist didn't just come here. When they first entered Baibland Mountain, they could already see the purple mist. It's foggy.
