Chapter 942 Choose one yourself

The two cows you got are clearly not bison at first glance, they are domesticated. In a place like Baibind Mountain, where is he going to catch two domesticated cattle?

Doesn't this trick him?

"Mother..."

"Choose one, either go back empty-handed, and then you can directly chew the bark of the tree as the Sixth Prince said before, or you can take these two cows back and eat meat and soup.

Lin Caisang didn't want to hear what he said, so she interrupted him directly and stretched out two fingers in front of him.

"Choose one yourself."

Jiang Zuo: "!!!"

Doesn't this force him? How can he choose? Of course he chooses to eat, otherwise, he can still choose to chew tree bark?

"Then I'd better 'catch' them and take them back," he said.

"That's right."

Lin Caisang grinned and took out two more ducks and handed them to Jiang Zuo.

"Here, take it, today I want to drink duck soup and let the banishment come out." She said.

At this moment, Jiang Zuo could only look at Lin Caisang with a confused face. He stiffly took the two ducks in his hands, took a deep breath, and drove the two cows back.

...

Soon, Jiang Zuo brought back two cows and two ducks.

Looking at these things, although everyone had doubts in their hearts, compared to the fact that they would be hungry later, everyone kept silent in a tacit understanding, and no one said anything.

However, seeing these people having something to eat in their mouths, some people couldn't help but want to curse.

"Damn it, what's going on with these people, where did they get these things!"

The man hiding in the secret just wanted to take advantage of Yamolian's absence and catch all these people, so he went to make arrangements, but saw that there was inexplicably more food in the crowd.

Looking at the two cows, he was so angry that he beat his chest.

They obviously arranged for so many people to meet them just to consume the remaining food they had, but they didn't expect that they could still find something to eat in a place like Baibind Mountain.

"These people... these people..."

It was impossible for him to believe that there would be any cows or ducks on Baibind Mountain. It was simply not possible.

But unfortunately, those people just caught the cow. What on earth is going on?

"Is it Sui Zimo's fault?"

He couldn't help but suspect that this matter might have something to do with Sui Zimo. After all, this person was not an ordinary person. If you wanted to do something small under his nose, you could still do it.

"hiss!"

He let out a heavy breath and looked up at the huge whirlpool ahead.

It seems that it is impossible to drag them anymore to prevent them from reaching the vortex. The things on this group of people cannot be consumed in a day or two.

"Then let you go to Qianhuan Continent together. If you die, you must die together!"

He thought for a while and said quietly.

"Brother Mo Lian, look over there..."

Just as the man was thinking about how to deal with Ya Molian and his party, Lin Caisang and Ya Molian had already seen his figure, although they could only see a vague shadow far away.

But they were still sure that it was the person who had been dealing with them secretly.

"I saw it."

Ya Molian nodded without looking over there.

He had noticed that person a long time ago and followed them along the way. Although he could not always feel his presence, occasionally, he could still feel the person's gaze.
