

Star of Space 944

Chapter 944 Which unlucky guy is it?

"No matter what the quarrel is, someone will definitely come to save me, there will definitely be someone.

When everyone heard a voice, they couldn't help but look up at the man, and then, almost at the same time, they rolled their eyes at the man.

It's good that he came to save them and didn't risk his life here. Moreover, their cave can no longer accommodate more people. If a few more people come, they really don't know what to do.

"Are you talking crazy? Go away and say it!"

At the very exit of the cave, three men gathered around and sat there, lighting a fire with an iron pot on top, but the contents of the iron pot...

The dark green soup has a few pieces of bark floating in it.

When the dark green soup boils, a strong smell of leaves wafts out, making people want to vomit.

But so what, now that they had a bite to eat, dozens of hands would reach out to grab it. This pot of leaf soup would have been robbed long ago if they weren't guarded by a few masters.

"Your Majesty, if you continue to be patient, I believe the Emperor will definitely send someone to rescue us."

When a guard saw that the soup was boiling, he gave a bowl to the master beside him and comforted him.

"call!"

When the man heard this, he just looked at him and then exhaled heavily.

"I just hope that my father will not send anyone here. No matter how many people come to this place, they are here to die. Why bother?"

"this....."

After hearing this, the guard didn't know what to say.

"Brother, do you think Father will..."

'boom! '

Another man was about to ask a question when he heard a dull loud noise outside. This sound made everyone in the cave tremble and shrink further into the cave.

"Brother..."

"Someone has broken in again." The man raised his eyes and glanced outside the cave.

As the whirlpool began to move, purple mist began to float into the cave, but they would not pay attention to the purple mist at this moment, but looked up at the whirlpool.

That whirlpool is very strange. It won't move when no one is near it.

However, once someone gets close to it and it feels the presence of the person, it will continue to spin and generate a strong suction force until everyone is sucked into the vortex.

Many of them were sucked in by it before, with no possibility of coming back.

"I don't know which unlucky guy came to this ghost place again." Another man couldn't help but muttered.

If someone comes, it means that someone will be sucked into the vortex, and end up with an unknown end, whether dead or alive. Thinking about it makes him feel sad, because he has encountered such a situation before.

At that time, if a guard beside him hadn't grabbed him and pulled him back, he would have been sucked away.

But the guard who pulled him back was still sucked away. This was a way to exchange one life for another. He still thinks about what the guard said to him before he was sucked away.

The guard said, let him hide quickly.

At that time, he secretly vowed that as long as he could leave this ghost place alive, he would treat everyone who followed him well.

...

Outside, the huge whirlpool has begun to rotate, getting faster and faster. In the blink of an eye, there is a strong suction force that wants to suck everything into the whirlpool.
