

Star of Space 965

Chapter 965 Leave no one behind!

"It's not that I'm afraid, I just feel that I should be more careful." The great prince said.

They are already on Baibind Mountain, and Neng has suffered enough. Even with a noble body, he has nothing to fear.

But if he could take precautions, he also thought that he should take more precautions. He couldn't be tricked for no reason, right?

"Don't worry, my lord. Unless the man in the cloak has accomplices, he won't recover so quickly just from the shot I shot on him. At least, we can still have peace for a few days. "

Lin Caisang looked at the road ahead and said to the great prince.

"Of course, everyone should be careful no matter what. After all, Baibind Mountain is full of weirdness and danger."

She also warned that if everyone started to get worried because the cloaked man wouldn't show up and didn't care about anything, then they deserved to die here.

"Walk along this blood river for a few more days. If it still doesn't work, then find another way out," she said.

"good."

The eldest prince of Luoyun Kingdom didn't say anything else. After answering, he continued to walk forward.

Not far from them, behind a big tree, a cloaked man was standing there, gritting his teeth and staring at the backs of Lin Caisang and Ya Molian.

He could hear Lin Caisang's words clearly. It was precisely because he heard clearly that his eyes were so scarlet at this moment and he wanted to kill so much in his heart.

He raised his hand, touched the injured area, and took a deep breath.

Lin Caisang was right. Even if he knew where they were now, he couldn't show up to stop them.

Because just from Lin Caisang's blow, the wound on his body was too big. A large area of his body felt as if it had been shaken by a stick, and the flesh inside was rotten.

He had been healing his wounds, digging out the necrotic flesh inside, and looking for medicine in Baibind Mountain.

Now, after finally feeling better from his injuries, he came over to look for people. However, at this moment, he could only watch those people walking down the river.

"Do you think you can go out like this? You are naive!"

So what if we reach the foot of the mountain? If it is so easy to get out of Baiyun Mountain, is it still Baiyin Mountain? Or is it that many people don't dare to venture into dangerous situations?

If it was really that easy to be broken out, the secrets of Qianhuan Continent would have been known to these mortals long ago.

"Wait until I recover from my injuries, and then I will deal with you arrogant people! Then you will have something to look at! I will twist off your heads one by one, leaving no one behind!"

He looked at the backs of the group of people and swore secretly in his heart.

After a few days, Ruya Molian and Lin Caimulberry were as expected, and the Blood River was indeed able to reach the bottom of Baibind Mountain.

However, just as they expected, when they reached the border, the blood river disappeared, without even a drop of blood flowing down.

"stop!"

Ya Molian raised her hand to stop the people behind her from going down any further.

"What's wrong, are you here yet?"

Someone asked and saw the blood river disappear.

"Arrived? Then what are you waiting for? Hurry up and get out!" After hearing the word 'arrived', Sui Zilin was the first to jump out, and the excitement on his face was clearly visible.
