

Star of Space 969

Chapter 969 Only three seconds

"Don't think about it now, eat some." Ya Molian handed the dried meat in her hand to her.

If he was alone, it would be okay to stay here for a few more days, but now that Sonny was with him, he just felt sorry for Sonny to suffer with him.

"Um."

Lin Caisang took the dried meat and took a bite.

"Mo...ah!"

Just as she was about to speak, a familiar image flashed before her eyes for only three seconds, so fast that she felt like she was dazzled.

"Mo... King Mo, did you see it? That... was Butler Xin just now?"

She seemed to see Butler Xin, standing not far in front of them, staring in their direction, and behind him, there was a horse grazing.

"It's Butler Xin."

Ya Molian nodded, that person just now was indeed Butler Xin.

"It's really Butler Xin!" Lin Caisang was excited.

If it was really Butler Xin, then that place should have been the real outside just now.

She closed her eyes and carefully recalled the scene that had just flashed by. After a while, she opened her eyes, reached out and took out a piece of paper from her small satchel, and then took out many colored pencils and put them on the ground. .

"Girl, I have some smoother rocks here."

When Jiang Li saw this, he immediately picked up the stone he was sitting on and placed it in front of her.

Lin Caisang immediately put the rice paper on the stone and began to draw bit by bit according to the scene she had just remembered in her mind. Ya Molian on the side was still closing her eyes and thinking about just now. picture.

Everyone stopped eating and came over to stare at Lin Caisang painting. Everyone knew that this was a very important matter.

Whether they can get out of this place depends on whether Ya Molian and Lin Caisang can recall the scene just now.

...

Time passed bit by bit, and after a while, Lin Caisang's painting was completed.

"King Mo, do you think this is the case?"

She handed the rice paper to Ya Molian and asked him.

Hearing her voice, Ya Molian opened her eyes and looked at the painting in front of her, then thought about it carefully, and finally nodded.

"That's roughly it."

"It would be good if you know what it's like outside." Lin Caisang breathed a sigh of relief.

"Girl, King Mo, did you see it just now? Why didn't we see it?" Seeing that they had finished the painting, someone finally dared to ask questions.

When they heard Lin Caisang scream in surprise, they immediately turned around to see what happened, but they didn't see the scenery in the painting in her hand. Could it be that they ignored it?

"The scenery changed so fast, it only took three seconds." Lin Caisang said.

"What?!"

Everyone was shocked.

Three seconds, what does that mean? It is very likely that before everyone sees the exit, the exit will be gone before they have time to react.

With such rapid changes, how could they leave this hellish place?

"Three seconds? Isn't that too fast?"

Some people couldn't help but swallowed, thinking that he might not even have time to lift his feet, and the exit would have disappeared before his eyes.

Someone even raised his hand and wiped his face, feeling that he would definitely die here so quickly.

"How about we give it a try. Those with better kung fu will definitely be able to get out, right?" Someone asked their own question. Although not many people can get out, it is better than all of them dying here, right?