Chapter 97 The person who killed you!

"Besides, Ling'er went out to find a miracle doctor. He will be back soon. When Ling'er comes back, we will still need Dr. Liu, a woman who specializes in making troubles. If she dies, she will die.

Hearing this, Mr. Gong's eyes sharpened and he finally made up his mind.

"You go down first and let me think about it carefully."

"Yes, I will retire."

Seeing that her goal had been achieved, the woman retreated obediently.

Under the dark moon and high wind, the man who was running directly stopped outside Hongling Town, looked at the wall that was not too high, and jumped up.

On the other side, Lin Caisang in the thatched hut was finally delivered to Capt. Wei and a group of patients. They were able to have a moment of peace. They planned to rest for a while before studying the blood in the bowl.

There was silence all around, except for the chill brought by the cold wind blowing across my cheeks.

"call."

She took out a sesame seed cake prepared by Lin Changfeng for her from among the golden beads, took out a bowl of water, and ate it slowly. She couldn't help muttering about this weird illness and what made her unable to do it. An incomprehensible poison.

I can't figure it out, I can't even think about it.

In fact, Lin Caisang didn't know much about poisons. As a descendant of a family of traditional Chinese medicine, she could tell at a glance who was poisoned, but when asked what kind of poison those people were poisoned and how to solve it, she was a little confused. .

After all, in modern times, the most you can do is to detoxify snake venom, scorpion venom, etc. Where did these messy poisons come from that she had never seen before? It almost blinded her.

It was only after accepting this task that she deeply felt that her knowledge and understanding of medical skills was still not enough.

At least she was really helpless when it came to poison.

"It doesn't matter. If you don't understand, just learn slowly. When the time comes, ask Yu Jing if there are any good jade books for me to read." She muttered a few words and took a bite of the sesame seed cake in her hand.

"Well, the sesame cakes made by Brother Changfeng are..."

While eating, I couldn't help but praise the biscuits that Lin Changfeng made for me. I can't say enough about the taste, it was so delicious! However, before he finished speaking, he felt a bunch of gray-white things scattering towards him.

With quick eyesight and quick hands, she reached out and covered her mouth and nose with the mask she brought.

When she looked at the sesame biscuit in her hand, she couldn't tell what it looked like. It had clearly turned into a poisonous biscuit. She was so angry that she was trembling all over as she looked at those people who were pointing knives at her fiercely.

"Who are you?"

These people have eaten the heart of a bear, or have the courage of a leopard. I wonder if there are many people from the county government in Hongling Town now, and they actually dare to attack her, a doctor who comes to treat illnesses and save people?

You want everyone in Hongling Town to die, right?

"Kill your people!"

The leader, wearing a gray short shirt, covered his face, said something to Lin Caisang, then picked up the big knife in his hand and slashed at her.

"I go!"

Lin Caisang was startled, and nimbly dodged to the side, and directly hit the man's face with the sesame seed cake in his hand, covering his face with poison. The man immediately screamed, and he didn't know whether it was a hit. Even though I was poisoned, I was still frightened.

She turned around and ran to the other side of the hayloft.

"Captain Wei, Capt. Wei, come and help!"

Even though she had fat arms and legs, she would still be at a disadvantage against these vicious people, so she could only cry out for help.

What else can I do if I don't ask for help? It's not like those people have a knife in their hands. Besides, even if she is given a knife, she may not be a match for these people. It's better to escape!
