

Star of Space 972

Chapter 972 Finally appeared

"yes.

Butler Xin nodded.

"A few days after you set out for Baibind Mountain, a few people came to the village. They said that they had just come out of Baibind Mountain. The little one asked them about you, and they brought him here. , It is said that as long as you stay here from dawn to dusk every day, you will come out one day.

Where is Prince Mo and the girl? Why didn't they come out? " he asks.

"this....."

Jiang Li was furious when he heard what he said.

If the cloaked man hadn't acted like a monster, the palace master and the others should have come out by now. How come they were the only two coming out?

"Keep waiting, they should be out soon.

However, it was fortunate that Butler Xin was waiting like this. He had to wait for a month. Otherwise, they would really not be able to find the exit right in front of them. Now that there are three of them waiting outside, it should be more obvious. Already?

At the foot of Baibind Mountain, everyone was angry as they watched Jiang Zuo and the two being kicked out.

Every pair of scarlet eyes stared at the cloaked man who appeared not far away from them. His gaze seemed to want to eat them, with absolute murderous intent.

"If you want to go out, have you asked me for permission?" The cloaked man stood not far away and sneered at them.

"Finally, you have shown up?"

Ya Molian pushed Lin Caisang behind her and looked at the cloaked man intently.

"But you made me wait long enough, but you still couldn't help it. As expected, you finally appeared in front of me!"

"What, are you waiting for me?"

The cloaked man looked at Ya Molian and chuckled.

"Sui Zimo, originally, the only person I wanted was you, but since you are so ignorant, I don't mind sending them all to be buried with you!"

"Ah."

Ya Molian sneered.

"Do you really think there are so many of us that we can't defeat you alone?"

As he spoke, he glanced at the people behind him.

They were about to go out, but they were ruined by the cloaked man in front of them. Now they even thought about eating the cloaked man, right?

"You can try it!" The cloaked man looked at those people indifferently.

Are these people worthy of his attention? Of course it's impossible. His opponents have always been Ya Molian and Lin Caisang. Among these two people, one's kung fu is too high, and the other's poison technique is too much for him.

He had to be careful. As long as he took down one of the two people first, the other would not be afraid.

Therefore, with a sharp look in his eyes, his first thought was to take down Lin Caisang who was hiding behind Ya Molian. This woman was not good at kung fu. As long as she was not given a chance to use poison, she could be taken down directly.

His body shape suddenly changed, and he ducked directly behind Ya Molian and stretched out his hand towards Lin Caisang.

"Roar!"

With a roar, before his hand touched Lin Caisang, he saw the head of a black panther, opening its bloody mouth and biting his palm.

He took a breath, retracted his hand, and stepped back.

At this time, Ya Molian turned around and protected Lin Caisang by her side again, while Ban Jue and Ban Wu surrounded Lin Caisang one after another, leaving the cloaked man without even a chance. .

"What's going on?" The cloaked man had not yet recovered from the shock.
