Chapter 974 There are so many people you look down upon!

On that side, Ya Molian tightly wrapped around the cloaked man. Although he didn't gain the upper hand, he didn't lose out under the cloaked man's attack. He could deal with it fairly easily.

But the cloaked man seemed to be struggling because he, a spiritual cultivator, was entangled by a person without spiritual power.

In addition, the eldest prince and third prince of Luoyun Kingdom joined in. Although these two people are not as good as Ya Molian, the third prince of Luoyun Kingdom is a man who is used to playing dirty tricks.

After a few fights, he was stabbed three times with hidden knives, which made him grind his teeth in anger.

But when faced with three people attacking him at the same time, he was really in a hurry. With a raised hand, he directly knocked away the third prince of Luoyun Kingdom to vent his anger.

But at the same time, when he knocked away the third prince of Luoyun Kingdom, the sword in Yamolian's hand also stabbed him on the shoulder.

He dodged, and although the sword did not penetrate into the flesh and bone, it still brushed against his shoulder, and the wound was definitely not superficial.

"I can't tell, you are really quite capable, but I'm looking down on you!"

He took a few steps back, covering his shoulders and looking at Ya Molian.

When his master asked him to come here to perform a task, he thought he was overqualified. To deal with a mortal, why should he be a spiritual cultivator? He could just send someone from Qianhuan Continent to pick him up. gone back.

Who knew that this Ya Mo Lian was really not an ordinary person? He almost fell into Ya Mo Lian's hands.

"There are so many people you look down upon!"

Yamolian didn't give him a chance to give in, and she approached him again, and stabbed him again with the sword in her hand.

The eldest prince followed closely, just like the shadow of Ya Molian. When the two swords touched, the cloaked man was able to dodge the sword, but not the next one. At this time, although the third prince was shot away, He was injured, but he flew over again and stabbed him again in the waist.

"Well!"

The cloaked man gritted his teeth, wishing he could take out his hand and just slap the third prince of Luoyun Kingdom to death.

But he really couldn't pull out this hand, because Ya Molian and the Great Prince didn't give him a chance at all. He gritted his teeth tightly and made an assessment of the three people surrounding him in his mind.

It seemed that if he didn't break out at this moment, it would be impossible for him to take any advantage in front of these three people.

"You guys are looking for death!"

He stepped away directly, flew past the three of them, and arrived a few steps away from them. He turned around, gathered a powerful force in his hands, and was about to hit the three of them.

But at this moment, the power in his palm seemed to suddenly disappear and disappeared.

He blinked and looked at his palm in disbelief.

"What's going on? What's going on?"

He didn't believe it. He didn't believe that the spiritual power in him seemed to have disappeared at this moment. What was happening? Such a thing had never happened since he started practicing spiritual cultivation.

Ya Molian stepped forward, put the knife directly on his neck, raised her hand, and pulled off the cloak covering his head, revealing a vicious face.

"How is this possible? What have you done to me?" The cloaked man looked at Ya Molian and asked angrily.

But as soon as he finished speaking, he came to his senses and looked in the direction of Lin Caisang, his gaze seemed to be cannibalistic.
