Chapter 977 A knife in the heart

"Um.

Ya Molian glanced at her, and after responding, she stared at the scenery outside again.

...

A few hours later, it was already dark, but Yamolian still accurately fixed the scene at the exit.

There is no other reason, because Jiang Li and Jiang Zuo outside have already lit the torches and built a fire to remind people inside, so it is easy for others to know.

Of course, without Ya Molian's quick response, they would still have to wait.

Soon, everyone arrived at the village at the foot of Baibind Mountain. Butler Xin had already ordered people to prepare delicious meals and was waiting there. As soon as everyone arrived, they could eat hot meals directly.

In response to Jiang Li and Jiang Zuo's request, the dishes were all vegetarian, but everyone had never eaten so happily.

"Eat more."

Yamolian picked mulberries and picked vegetables for Lin while eating herself.

On the other side, Sui Zilin, who had just woken up, secretly glanced at Lin Caisang. He was always afraid of being poisoned. He wished that Lin Caisang would disappear. Anyway, everything she wanted had been completed, and he had already saved.

However, they learned from Commander Mo that they actually had to go all the way back to Shaohua City.

There was no other reason, because there was still Su Ri who needed Lin Caisang to cure his poison, and Lin Caisang came from the Imperial Prefect's Mansion.

Until this moment, he even had a grudge against Suyang of the Imperial Prefect's Office. He couldn't find anyone, so why did he go to find Lin Caisang, who was such a scourge? And suffer!

He really wanted to kill Su Ri directly!

After resting for a night in the village, many people said goodbye and went back to their own countries. Ya Molian and his party were the only ones left in the village.

On the third day of rest in the village, Lin Caisang once again treated Su Ri's poison. Listening to Su Ri's wails and howls, Sui Zilin almost smashed the food on his lips in anger.

One night, he couldn't sleep well because of Su Ri's roar. Until he got on the carriage, he could vaguely hear Su Ri's roar, because he felt a shadow in his heart.

Departing from the foot of Baiyun Mountain and returning to Shaohua City, because the important matter has been resolved, everyone is not walking in such a hurry, and the carriage's speed has also slowed down a lot.

However, because Su Ri was not kidnapped or knocked unconscious on his way back, he escaped a few more times and was caught all the time.

Sui Zilin eagerly wanted to return to Shaohua City quickly so that he could file a complaint with his father and let Lin Caisang and Ya Molian receive the punishment they deserve, but they were delayed for a few days because of Su Ri.

The shadow of the roar, plus the fact that he had to meet Lin Caisang every day because of the sun, and he was delayed for a few days.

And beside him, there were several guards who were muttering dissatisfaction with Su Ri in his ears every day.

Finally, when he was approaching Shaohua City, the prince, who was about to turn a new year, lost his temper. When no one was paying attention, he took the guard's knife and stabbed Su Ri in the heart.

Moreover, it was done in front of everyone.

Seeing this scene, Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment. He couldn't believe that this was what Sui Zilin would do.

Because she originally wanted to live directly in Prince Mo's Mansion after returning to Shaohua City, she had been riding in the same carriage with Ya Molian, while Sui Zilin was riding in the same carriage with two guards. She had no idea what was going on. .
