Chapter 981 You deliberately harmed Liner

"Yes, yes, little one, go and get ready.

Butler Xin quickly went to prepare what Suyang said.

On the other side, Ya Molian directly escorted the tied Suizilin into the palace gate. Commander Mo followed behind him, not daring to say a word. He didn't even dare to reply if someone asked him about it along the way into the palace. words.

In the imperial study room, as she had received the news early in the morning that Sui Zilin was going to attend court today, the queen was also there, happily waiting for her son to return safely.

When did he know that, after waiting and waiting, his son was tied up by Yamolian Wuhuada and escorted back.

"King Mo, what are you going to do? You are so presumptuous, why don't you untie him quickly!" The queen almost jumped up and went to untie her son herself. Seeing such a scene, the emperor's face did not look good.

"Mo'er, what are you doing?" he asked Ya Molian.

"Father, you don't need to ask your ministers about this, let's ask Commander Mo." Ya Molian glanced at Commander Mo who followed them into the royal study.

"Commander Mo?"

Hearing this, the emperor looked at Commander Mo.

When Commander Mo saw this, his knees softened and he knelt down towards the emperor.

"Your Majesty, Prince Lin...killed Mr. Suri of the Imperial Prefect's Mansion...outside Shaohua City...in full view of everyone." As he spoke, he glanced at King Lin, and then looked back at the ground. .

"What?!"

The emperor stood up from the golden chair, crossed the table and came to Commander Mo.

"Can you say that again!"

"Your Majesty, this matter is absolutely true. All the people who were traveling with me saw it with their own eyes. His Royal Highness Prince Lin... indeed killed Mr. Suri. The girl didn't even have time to save him. She watched Mr. Suri helplessly. Dead."

Commander Mo said again.

Even if he had the intention to cover up for Sui Zilin, there were so many people watching, and the guards of the Imperial Prefect's Mansion also saw it with their own eyes. King Lin couldn't shirk this matter even if he wanted to.

"You are talking nonsense. How could Lin'er kill Su Ri? They have no grudges..." The Queen finally recovered from the shock and rushed towards Commander Mo.

The emperor grabbed the man and fixed him to his side.

"Queen..."

"Your Majesty, Lin'er would not do this. He has always been sensible, how could he... It must be Sui Zimo, it must be him who framed Lin'er, Sui Zimo, tell me if it was you, it must be you who deliberately harmed Lin'er. of!"

Although the queen was immobilized, she still wanted to pounce on Ya Molian like crazy.

You must know that the national preceptor Suyang has a very important position in the Wei State. Moreover, he is only a son like Suri. Now that Suri is dead, even if he risks his life, he will make Suri's murderer pay for it with his life. .

"Queen, please be careful. I, the king, have never even spoken to Mr. Suri and Prince Lin on this journey. How can I frame Prince Lin?" Ya Molian just glanced at the queen lightly and said.

"What's more, King Lin killed Suri in broad daylight, and everyone saw it. Moreover, he also admitted it personally. It was Suri he wanted to kill. What does it have to do with this king?

What benefit will killing Su Ri bring to this king? If I wanted to kill, I would not choose such a place to make myself infamous. Even a smart man would not choose such an environment to kill. "

he said.

"you--"

The Emperor's Empress felt a bad breath stuck in her chest.
