Chapter 982 Is there such a thing?

Is this a disguised way of saying that her son is not smart? But she really couldn't figure out why Lin'er wanted to kill Su Ri.

"Lin'er, tell your mother, did someone force you? It was Sui Zimo who forced you, right?" She looked at her son and induced him.

"The Queen..."

"Is the Queen trying to absolve King Lin of his responsibilities?"

Ya Molian frowned and wanted to ask questions, but was interrupted by another voice.

Behind him, Imperial Master Suyang walked in regardless of the eunuch's obstruction. His face was full of anger and blackness. He really wanted to beat the mother and son to death!

"Your Majesty, this servant failed..."

"Get out. The emperor frowned and glanced at the eunuch, telling him to get out.

"Slave, please retire."

The eunuch immediately withdrew.

"Master, please be patient, I will definitely take care of this..." The emperor looked at Su Yang, who was wearing plain clothes and hat. Although he felt that he was too bold, there was nothing he could do about him.

"Your Majesty, I can't rest at ease, and I can't calm down. Now that my only son is gone, the Queen is still shirking responsibility, trying to put all the faults on Prince Mo!

The old minister couldn't understand, is the old minister's son really worthless to the emperor and the empress? Not as good as a hair of King Lin? ! "

As he said that, he stared at Suizilin with a solemn and cannibalistic gaze.

But looking back at the approaching age, he seemed not to be afraid at all and turned to stare at Su Yang.

"So what if I killed your son? He deserves to die!"

"Lin'er, what are you talking about?"

When the queen heard her son's words, she was so frightened that she covered her mouth.

He was desperate for his life. He dared to say such nonsense in front of Su Yang. If he really made Su Yang anxious, he could do anything!

"I'm not talking nonsense."

Sui Zilin looked at his mother.

"Mother, don't you know how annoying that Su Ri is? Every time he treats poison, it's like killing a pig, making people unable to sleep. Can't he even endure the pain? I hate such people the most. Yes, you deserve to die!

Moreover, if it weren't for him, that female doctor would have left long ago. How could she have followed this king all the way back to Shaohua City? You don't know how hateful that bitch is. She actually knocked me unconscious with poison. I don't want to come back with her! "

"Is there such a thing?" The emperor looked at Ya Molian.

"Mo'er, you said..."

"Father, you should ask Commander Mo about these matters. He has been guarding King Lin." Ya Molian blocked his words directly.

emperor:"....."

He could only grit his teeth and look at Commander Mo.

Commander Mo: "!!!"

Why is this his business? He obviously didn't do anything.

"Back, back to the emperor, the situation was extremely urgent at that time. The exit at the foot of Baibind Mountain only had three seconds, and King Lin..."

He glanced sideways at Sui Zilin, swallowed, and continued.

"Prince Lin ignored everyone's dissuasion and insisted on breaking in. The girl felt that if King Lin broke in, he would definitely fall into a trap again. After that, we will have to look for Prince Lin everywhere. Then... then Lin will The king was stunned and asked Wei Chen to carry King Lin on his back. "

"laugh!"

After listening to Commander Mo's words, Su Yang sneered coldly.

For such a person, he still felt that the girl who drugged him was wrong, and he took the initiative to knock his son out to treat the girl!
