

Star of Space 990

Chapter 990 Sonny, come here

There was a 'bang' sound.

Suddenly, a powerful force ejected her while she was feeling the Book of Ten Thousand Poisons. The memory in her mind felt like it was about to be broken into pieces. The next moment, she was already standing in front of the jade mirror in the ranch space.

"Sister-in-law, are you out? Why are you so cold? I'll boil hot water for you."

Sui Ziyou saw her coming out and ran over. As soon as he touched her, he was so cold that he retracted his hand and hurriedly suggested.

"No."

Lin Caisang stopped her.

"Ziyou, how many days have I been in?"

That place was always white and there was no night at all. She couldn't estimate how many days had passed. She only knew that she didn't feel sleepy at all, and she didn't feel very tired even if she didn't sleep.

She thought, it must be a few days, right?

"It's been half a month." Sui Ziyou said.

"You don't know how worried I am. For half a month, I can only make some food for you every two days. I'm afraid that you will faint from hunger and no one will care about you?"

She was in the ranch space, feeling as if she was being scratched by a cat, but unfortunately, she couldn't get out or enter the place where Lin Caisang was, so how could she not be anxious.

"Half a month?"

Lin Caisang himself was surprised.

She thought it would only be a few days at most, and the longest would not exceed seven days. Unexpectedly, the stay lasted for half a month. (audience)

"No, Brother Mo Lian must have come back."

She had promised before leaving that she would return to the bamboo hut. With the speed at which Yamo Lian was rushing, she must have been waiting at the bamboo hut. She really didn't expect that she would stay there for so long.

"Ziyou, you don't have to be busy, I'm going out first."

With that said, she flashed out of the Jinzhu space.

In the bamboo house, Yamolian has indeed been here for three days. He has not gone anywhere in the past three days. He is just waiting in the bamboo house, waiting for Lin Caisang to come back.

But after waiting for three days, he still didn't see anyone. He didn't know how he got here in the past three days.

"Palace Master, please eat something first. Mistress will be back soon."

Exian Jue came in with food in his hand. He had already heated the food twice, but no matter how he called the palace master to eat, he just sat there motionless like a wooden man.

"Palace Master..."

There was a 'bang' sound.

The sound of a door opening interrupted Ban Jue's words.

Finally, after hearing the voice, Ya Molian, who was sitting on the chair, made a move and flashed into the yard. The next moment, he saw Lin Caisang who had just come out of the room.

At this moment, although she had a smile on her face, she looked really bad.

Ban Jue put down his food and walked out. When he first saw Lin Caisang, he was really shocked because he saw water drops falling from the tips of his mistress's hair, and on her head, The clothes were all covered with a thick layer of frost.

That look is as scary as it gets.

"Master...Mother, you..."

Where did the mistress come from? How could she become like this? In this season, where could she go to become like this?

"I...I'm going to boil water."

He made a decision immediately and ran towards the kitchen.

"Sonny, come here."

Ya Molian stood in the yard, staring blankly at Lin Caisang. After a long time, he opened his hands and motioned for her to come over.

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang looked at himself, then at him, and shook his head.
