Chapter 111: The Big Big World

“Boom!” The big ship, “White Lotus”, ripped through one cloud after another, flying into the sky higher. Soon afterwards, “White Lotus” had flown into the sky and it was over ten thousand meters away from the ground. The boys and girls on the ship were very excited, because they were seeing the clouds under their feet for the first time in their lives.

Even if hero-ranked creatures weren’t very likely to have the ability to fly to this height. Only the ship, “White Lotus”, the “gem of wisdom” that was beyond mortals’ limit, could leap over the distance, flying to this forbidden zone.

The floating ship, “White Lotus”, looked like a huge white lotus inlaid on a floating ship. Every lotus petal was engraved with complicated patterns that made it form a single magical circle. When they linked together, these single magical circles formed a colossal, compounded magical circle.

The three thousand lotus petals were enough to block any hero-ranked creature’s attack. The strongest attack unit in the whole White Lotus Sword Domain wasn’t the master of White Lotus God’s Domain, but the floating ship. After spending over a hundred years to build the floating ship, the air line from the sword handle area to the sword tip area hadn’t even had a single accident.

The Sword Palace’s new disciples were lucky. Several hundred years ago, their predecessors had to walk across the long sword blade area to reach the legendary holy land, Sword Palace. Even though their team leader was an experienced hero-ranked teacher, they couldn’t avoid all accidents. Once, one of the worst accidents had killed about half of the new disciples at that time. After that tragic accident, Sword Palace paid a few decades of their fiscal budget to build the ship “White Lotus” along with Heaven’s Road Palace.

At the center of the lotus, was the core of the floating ship. The twin witches were staying there. Now, Red Lotus was talking about sword skills with Hua Huo. Usually, Hua Huo was very interested in discussing sword skills with Red Lotus. However, she looked a little distracted now. She often turned back and gazed at the girls on the deck.

“What’s up? Why do you care about them so much? These girls are not bad, but they can’t compare to you. You are the most special one,” Red Lotus said. She realized that Hua Huo was absentminded, then also looked at the deck with a doubtful look.

“I have a foreboding,” Hua Huo said. She stared at the several girls around Yun Xi – especially her elder female cousin, Hua Yue.

Why can you occupy the closest place beside Yun Xi so easily? That should be my place! Even though you’re my elder female cousin, I won’t give Little Xi to you!

Hua Yue felt Hua Huo’s scorching sight. She raised her head, waving her hands to Hua Huo with a pleasant look.

“Look! Hua Huo is looking at us.”

“Oh, Hua Huo must feel worried,” Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief. He wasn’t used to Hua Yue’s passion.

Shouldn’t an aristocratic miss be very reserved? Why was she so proactive? Did she find something wrong? My disguise should be flawless.

“Come here, Mei. I found a good place!” Taking the opportunity that Hua Yue was distracted by Hua Huo, Xiao Cao held Yun Xi’s hand and left the crowd.

Xiao Cao's Mortal's Sword talent was a great help. She could always find an interesting place which ordinary people wouldn't discover. Now, they were at the forefront of the ship, where a lotus-shaped figurehead was placed.

It was said that the ships in Western God's Domain often used mermaid-shaped figureheads, but the ships in Eastern God's Domain didn't have this specific requirement. Different sword domains in Eastern God's Domain used different figureheads.

White Lotus's figurehead was a beautiful lotus throne. It was covered in warm white lights, which protected it from any potential storms and moisture.

"Isn't this a forbidden zone?" Yun Xi had noticed the lotus throne a while ago, but when he tried to come here, he had felt that an invisible force stopped him. The force was used to tell them that no one was allowed to enter this place.

"It doesn't matter. I have found a method to enter here," Xiao Cao said with a nonchalant expression.

She casually sat beside Yun Xi, then took off her shoes. Her feet were white and tender. The size of her soles were perfect and her toes were as round as pearls.

"When I was very small, I often imagined what the world outside town looked like. The uncles and aunts in the village told me that if I didn't leave the town, I would miss many good things. As they said, after I left the town, I met many people and learned many things I couldn't learn in the town. In the outside world, there are good people and bad people, there are people who are weaker than me and there are people who are stronger than me. If I didn't leave the town, I wouldn't have known that the world was so big. Look, Mei! This is the sky!" Xiao Cao held Yun Xi's hand and let him sit beside her.

"And we are flying! We are flying in the very, very, high sky!"

Xiao Cao started singing. Her voice was clear and melodious, and her song was naive, but contained inornate sincerity. When Yun Xi heard the song, he felt that there was an invisible hand stroking him, making his heart feel relaxed and peaceful. He quietly watched the blue sky, the clouds which constantly disappeared and appeared under his feet, and the big, bright sun.

Everything was so refreshing and bracing. Unlike when he looked at the sky from the the ground, when he really stood above the clouds, he really felt his insignificance and the boundlessness of the world. Under the blue sky, even the ship White Lotus, which was three kilometers long, also looked like a leaf in the boundless sea.

“Hey!” Xiao Cao was suddenly interested. She bared her feet and jumped around, looking at Yun Xi with a bright smile.

“Mei! Come see more beautiful scenes with me! It’s a very, very wonderful feeling to be beside you!” Xiao Cao said. She opened her hands wide and shouted at the endless sky, “Xiao Cao and Mei will be best friends forever!”

Her hands were small, but in Yun Xi’s eyes, she had hugged the entire sky in her arms. She basked in the golden sunshine, as glamorous as a golden fairy.

Oh, Xiao Cao was so cute.

Chapter 112: The Door in the Clouds

In the gloaming above the sea of clouds, the huge ship, White Lotus, rode the wind and waves, flying towards Sword Palace. The endless sea of clouds swept past White Lotus. The height was already beyond the limit any normal living being could reach. Even eagles couldn’t fly to this height.

Only the sound of air billowing was following White Lotus. During the flight, the ship didn't even have small vibrations. It was more stable than any large ship on the sea.

A day passed, and the feeling of freshness had began to fade away. Many Sword Palace's disciples had gone back to their rooms, practicing by themselves and waiting for their coming lives in Sword Palace. No matter whether they were formal disciples or just alternate disciples, everyone was struggling for their future.

Yun Xi, Xiao Cao, Hua Yue and the other female swordsmen sneaked into the lotus-throne-like area on the bow, which no one was allowed to enter for safety reasons. They watched White Lotus flying in the sky, parting the air like a ship breaking the wind and waves on the sea.

Although the ship was about three kilometers long, but in the lotus-throne-like area at the bow, it was crowded with these female swordsmen. Xiao Cao's stealth ability was like a bug. With her help, this forbidden zone completely opened up to the girls.

"That's too high!"

"Incredible! Is this White Lotus's true speed?"

"Why is it so fast? How can it be so steady at this speed?"

The girls huddled together and looked around, clicking their tongues at the magical like power the White Lotus showed.

"The ship is about ten times faster than sound velocity." According to the sun's position and the mountains under the ship, Hua Yue had figured out the ship's speed.

It was so fast, but the people on the ship didn't even feel a bit of wind or increase of gravity. It was all due to the magical spells engraved on the ship. The mortals in the sword handle area wouldn't even see such a miracle once during their lifetimes, not to mention understand it.

"So, the ship has flown over three hundred thousand kilometers?" Yun Xi calculated the distance, then surprisedly found that he had travelled such a long distance from the sword handle area.

Most of the people who lived in the small town wouldn't go to a place a hundred kilometers away from their town. To them, their world was only within about a hundred mile radius. After all, only very few people had the luck to use the floating ship, White Lotus.

"That's not a long distance. If you take the star bridge, you can leap across dozens of light years in a day."

"Of course, the star bridges only link the mortal worlds. For security and political reasons, all the god's domains don't allow building a star bridge in their core areas."

"Inside each god's domain, only air units like the floating ship can be called 'the ultimate force'. Even in the whole Sky Sword God's Domain, White Lotus is the only top-class floating ship. Its weapon system can even suppress the whole sword domain. It's the safest mode of travel." Hua Yue explained the special meaning of White Lotus and placidly moved close to Yun Xi.

Her breasts' softness and resiliency made Yun Xi's face turn red.

Is this a special intimate activity between girls? What should he do?

Yun Xi knew nothing about this. He didn't know if he should accept it or refuse it.

The seed was growing!

Yun Xi could clearly feel that due to Hua Yue's intimate behavior, her seed were growing fast.

Why? As a perfect aristocratic miss, her actions were too resolute. Was this also a part of a lady's education?

"Look! The setting sun is so beautiful!"

"Oh! It looks like the sky is burning!"

"Wait! Look at that spot. Is something in the clouds?"

The girls' screams awakened Yun Xi. He raised his head, witnessing the fantastic scene together with all the female swordsmen.

At the farthest horizon, yellow, black, and green clouds formed a tremendous vortex, rotating at an incredible speed.

Red, blue, and purple lightning cheerfully jumped back and forth amongst the clouds. Their lights broke through the rain curtain, illuminating the whole sky as bright as day. The whole world was divided into two pieces by a rainbow-like light.

Half of the sky was covered with lightning and storms. The edge of the lightning was so bright and magnificent. It traversed the line between the sky and the sea, stretching away like a boundless wall. Even if the wall had an end, it must be at hundreds of miles away.

The other half of the sky still looked normal. As if there was a god controlling the lightning, they stopped in front of an invisible dividing line and none of them overstepped the boundary.

On the border line, a blue door was opening slowly.

“What’s this? Is there such a thing existing in the air line?!” The twin witches stood up together. Red Lotus drew out her sword, and White Lotus started to divine.

“The door...” Yun Xi looked at the door in shock.

It was familiar. He was all too familiar with that door. He had seen this door countless times in his dream and imagined what was behind the door. Now, the door had suddenly emerged. Not in his dream, but in the real world. Then, where was the door guardian? Where was that girl who had always appeared in his dream and killed him countless times?

He had never forgotten her three strands of icy blue hair, the sword-shaped ribbon at her waist, and her blue sword which was always put in front of the closed door.

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

Earth-shaking knocking sounds came from behind the door, echoing between heaven and earth. As the lightning flashed and the thunder roared, visible distortions and oscillations appeared on the door, as if something was trying to break the door by force.

“No!”

“I have figured out it! White Lotus, make a turn at full speed!” Red Lotus and White Lotus almost shouted at the same time.

Red Lotus’s battle instinct was warning her, and White Lotus had figured out the danger by observing the chaotic environment. Unfortunately, it was too late. Before the ship, White Lotus, turned, an invisible wave had leaked out from the crack in the door.

“Boom!” The huge White Lotus turned over in the air as if it was a leaf in furious billows.

Chapter 113: Intruder

“Whoaaaa!”

“What’s that?”

“No, no! It’s coming!”

The girls at the bow were the first to bear the shock waves. Even though the ship’s magical defence circle had blocked over 99% of the shock waves, but the remainder still made the ship rotate in the sky. However, that was just the beginning.

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

As the banging sounds echoed throughout heaven and earth, the knocking sounds from the door were becoming stronger and stronger, clearer and clearer. As if there was an indestructible boundary in the air, and now, it was being broken and crushed.

“Everyone, on full alert! White Lotus, entering avoidance mode!”

In all of Red Lotus’s days alive, this was the first time that she encountered such a dangerous event of which she didn’t even know how she could avoid it. No matter whether it was the door which suddenly emerged in the clouds, or the thing which was going to break the door, they were all beyond her capability.

“Sister, be careful! That thing is going to break the door!” White Lotus’s face looked shaky. She had a premonition of what was going to happen.

If it wasn't because of the bright lights emitted from her Star and Moon's Ring dispelling a part of the terrible breath spreading from behind the door, she wouldn't even be able to stand up. The stronger you were, the more danger you would feel. She clearly knew how terrible the thing behind the door was.

"Dammit... How can such a terrible monster come to this sword domain? The world's rules doesn't support it to do this!" Hua Huo's reaction wasn't any better than White Lotus'. The door that suddenly appeared was too inexplicable.

"No, it's not safe here. We should jump off the ship!" Even Hua Huo didn't think that she could beat down the monster behind the door. Even if she tried her best, the best outcome would be to escape with Yun Xi. As for the other people? She could only pray for their luck.

How could the rules of Sky Sword God's Domain support such a monster to come to this sword domain? Was the world going to be destroyed? The door and the monster behind the door were something that absolutely shouldn't appear in this sword domain.

White Lotus Sword Domain was like a waveless pond that was used to keep fish fries, and the monster behind the door was like a great white shark that was suddenly thrown into the pond. No, maybe the monster wasn't just a great white sharp. It could even be more dangerous, like a whale! Even if this kind of creature just appeared in the sword domain and did nothing, its very existence was already able to shake the world's structure, or even make the world collapse.

"Bang!" The seemingly indestructible blue door finally started to collapse under the unknown monster's attacks. A crack suddenly appeared in its center. At first, it was just a negligible crack that could be barely observed. However, as the old saying goes, "A small leak will sink a great ship". Soon afterwards, the second crack, the third crack, the fourth crack... countless cracks appeared on the door.

When the people on the ship saw these cracks with their naked eyes, it was already too late. A gust of waves spread out from the door. Even the ship, White Lotus, which was protected by a compounded magical circle which could block all hero-ranked attacks, was still as weak as a paper in front of the wave.

After losing the magical circle's protection, White Lotus shook in the air like a feeble girl. It couldn't block the terrible shock waves any longer. The disciples who were living in the ship didn't even know what was happening. They were thrown to the ceiling or the floor at this time. Some of them couldn't handle the pressure and vomited everywhere.

"Be careful!"

"Everyone, hold each other's hand!"

The female swordsmen were all on the bow. They held each other's hands, withstanding the terrible shock waves together. With Yun Xi's seed's help, they perfectly gave full play of their abilities. After gathering everyone's strength, they finally survived the shock waves. However, the most terrible thing was just coming.

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

Glass-breaking sounds resounded in the air. However, the thing that was breaking wasn't glass but the blue door.

“Breaking the void!”

“Forced space leap!”

“Transcended power!”

Red Lotus, White Lotus and Hua Huo shouted at the same time. They said different words, but meant the same thing.

The monster was breaking the void, coming to this world from a place which was maybe ten million light years away. This monster couldn't belong to Sky Sword God's Domain, but an intruder who had the ability to leap through the void.

As a boy who was born in the small town, Yun Xi couldn't image what it was. However, as the future masters of White Lotus Sword Domain and the successor of Sky Flying Bloodline, the twin witches and Hua Huo knew of its power clearly.

As a monster who could break the door... it was at least at the eighth rank, or higher! The strongest person in White Lotus Sword Domain was only at the sixth rank. In this case, the monster was even able to destroy the whole sword domain as easy as a piece of cake!

Countless fragments divided in the sky, turning into beautiful blue light points. However, in Red Lotus, White Lotus and Hua Huo's eyes, they were not beautiful light points but a dreadful sign, an unavoidable disaster.

“It’s coming! White Lotus, give up defence and turn around at full speed!” Red Lotus plunged her Red Lotus Holy Sword into the control platform and immediately turned off the ship’s defence system. Anyway, the ship’s magical defence circle was meaningless in front of the coming monster.

The floating ship wasn’t designed to fight against an eighth-ranked monster. It wouldn’t even be stronger than a piece of paper in front of it. The best choice was to fly away as fast as possible.

“I have projected it out! Its body is about a hundred kilometers long and its weight is as heavy as a star! Impossible to calculate more details!” White Lotus couldn’t believe the monster’s information that she had calculated by using her skill “The Great Circle”.

Such a monster couldn’t be born in any small sword domain like White Lotus Sword Domain. It was too massive. Even if it did nothing and just fell to the ground, it would definitely cause a violent earthquake, which may even be able to destroy the whole sword domain. Compared to the eighth-ranked monster, White Lotus Sword Domain was really too small.

Chapter 114: The Apostle Comes

“Ku!”

“Ku!”

“Ku!”

Unknown sounds came from nowhere, echoing between the heaven and the earth and shaking all people’s souls.

The clouds, lightning, and storms had all suddenly vanished. A silver paranormal creature swam out from the broken door. Its body was over a hundred kilometers long. Its head looked like a translucent diamond with three silver horns. Under its head, at the center of its waist and on the place near its tail, there were three pairs of silver blue wings.

Its tail had three big caudal fins with noticeable wounds on them. Obviously, it was using the tail which was big enough to paddle in the void to knock the blue door. In the center of its diamond-like head, there was a giant silver gem. Its scarlet eyes were gazing at the ship, White Lotus, and the distant horizon.

After it squeezed into the world from the door, the sky suddenly cleared up and all the clouds suddenly vanished. Endless blue spread to the end of the sky, which was so magnificent and gave people an illusion that the world was stopped at this time.

“White flood dragon?” Its appearance made Red Lotus remember the flood dragon race. It was a quite famous race in Eastern God’s Domain.

“No, it isn’t.” White Lotus refuted Red Lotus’s guess. She didn’t think that it was an eighth-ranked flood dragon, for most truebred dragons were only at the hero rank, not to mention half-blood flood dragon race.

“No, it’s not a dragon belonging to Eastern God’s Domain! It is a white holy dragon! A natural fantasy species! The most beautiful holy dragon!” Hua Huo realized the silver dragon’s true identity.

White holy dragon was an extremely rare dragon race. Hua Huo had only read of their record in an ancient book.

The silver gem on its forehead was a rare treasure called “White Dragon’s Crystal”. Due to that, white holy dragon race had almost been exterminated ten thousand years ago. In addition to its White Dragon’s Crystal, its wings, tail, fins, and scales, could all be used to make powerful weapons.

Because their hearts were too innocent, they were betrayed by the humans they trusted. As a result, the entire race was almost exterminated. After that, white holy dragons disappeared from Western God's Domain and had become an old tale.

Who would imagine that a white holy dragon would suddenly appear in a remote sword domain in the distant Eastern God's Domain?!

"It's looking for me!" Hua Huo's eyes suddenly became shrewd.

So, they finally found her. As she had expected, the dragon god wasn't willing to forgive the rebellious Sky Flying Bloodline. In her view, only the dragon god, Asha's Dragon God's Domain, still had a few white holy dragons.

Why were you so cruel? In order to exterminate the dragon race's natural enemy, Sky Flying Bloodline, you actually sent the rare white holy dragon to kill me?!

Sorry, Little Xi, Red Lotus, White Lotus, and everyone, I implicated you.

"This... what..." Yun Xi's mouth parched and his tongue scorched. He dumbly gazed at the huge monster in the sunny sky, as if the lightning and dark clouds he saw just now was just some jokes.

Not only Yun Xi. All the people who were gazing at the great creature were speechless. They couldn't find any words to describe their shock, for the distance amongst their life forms were too great.

“Master, be careful! It is that apostle!” As anxiety swept through Yun Xi’s heart, he heard Mei’er’s voice in his mind.

“Are you kidding me?! You are saying that this monster is the seventh-ranked apostle?” Yun Xi opened his mouth wide, gazing at the dragon in shock.

It was really a beautiful creature, however, its behavior of breaking the door by force and its huge body were enough to disarm everyone’s fighting will. This was one of his ex-girlfriends’ apostles, the enemy he would soon face.

“Well... It has probably upgraded recently... It is already at the eighth rank now... After all, it’s one of your ex-girlfriend’s apostles. Its talent must be very good...” Mei’er whispered haltingly.

“What can I do? I don’t think that I can defeat it...” Yun Xi gazed at the white holy dragon with a desperate look. He found that the biggest crisis in his life suddenly appeared in front of him.

It was more dangerous than the green hippo he had defeated. Even if there were a million green hippos, they would be nothing if compared to the apostle.

How long had he awakened his ability as the starchild? Why did he meet such a monster so early? This wasn’t as simple as a joke! He would die!

“Don’t worry. It should have just known that you are in this sword domain but doesn’t know your specific location. This should be just a regular search. Master, you should be careful. You’d better never turn off your greatsword maid’s uniform. If it finds you, you won’t have any chance to escape!”

“Ok... I see...” Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief. So, he hadn’t exposed his true identity and this was just the apostle’s regular search.

Fortunately, the worst situation didn’t happen.

He shouldn’t give up hope till the last second!

“Ku?”

“Ku!”

“Ku...”

The white holy dragon scanned the small sword domain for a while, then suddenly swung its tail.

As if the ship, White Lotus, was just a negligible leaf but not the strongest weapon of the whole White Lotus Sword Domain, the white holy dragon’s tail easily swung the ship down from the sky. After that, the silver crystal on the dragon’s forehead emitted endless lights, wrapping the whole core area of White Lotus Sword Domain into its range.

“Purl! Purl! Purl!” Yun Xi heard the sound of flowing water. He felt that the water was very close, but also at a very far away place.

Eh? Was someone calling him?

“Master! Wake up! This is not good!”

Mei'er's worried voice echoed in Yun Xi's ears. He ground his teeth and strenuously opened his eyes. His mouth was full of the taste of seawater. He wanted to vomit, but couldn't vomit anything.

“Cough! Cough!” Yun Xi coughed on the beach. Mei'er continuously licked his face to help him clean the seaweed on his face.

“We... Did we fall overboard?” Yun Xi vaguely remembered that he saw a boundless sea when the ship, White Lotus, dropped from the sky.

He remembered that the twin witches were casting a protection magic on everyone, and his childhood sweetheart was trying her best to fly towards him at that time. Unfortunately, Hua Huo didn't catch up to him. She was blown away by the floating ship's wreckage. After that, his memory blanked.

Chapter 115: In Stranded

Yun Xi remembered the last scene he had seen before he fell from the sky. The white holy dragon, which was to be one of his ex-girlfriend's apostles, swept its tail, then the strongest air fortress in the whole sword domain, White Lotus, was knocked down, and disintegrated in the air.

The ship's bow and stern were directly stripped from the ship, and the lotus-like throne, which was engraved with countless magical defence circles, also turned into countless fragments, floating and swaying in the sky.

When the ship disintegrated, the shock wave almost stunned everyone on the ship. At first, the female swordsmen were still holding each other's hands trying to withstand the pressure, but they failed. They fell, separated from each other.

"Cough... Is this the enemy I will soon face?" Yun Xi leaned against a coconut tree on the beach, gazing at the massive ship fragments floating on the sea. The most noticeable fragment was the lotus throne that was only 30% of its original size, but still emitted soft lights. It attracted countless fish to come here. Amongst the fish, there even broke out a war to fight for ownership of the remaining White Lotus' throne. Yun Xi could see water columns spraying out of the water from time to time.

"Master... don't be frustrated. As long as you are still becoming stronger and stronger, you will be able to beat down that apostle someday!" Mei'er continuously picked useful materials from the ship's wreckage on the beach. Her mental state was a hundred times better than Yun Xi.

"Well, you really trust me," Yun Xi sighed.

He didn't have his previous life's memory, so he also didn't know how strong he was. After all, he was just a second-ranked swordsman now. He had the confidence to reach the third rank in a short period, but that didn't mean he wanted to face the eighth-ranked apostle. If the apostle found him, no one could save him.

"Master is the greatest presence! This is the reason why the four overlords fight for you. Moreover, if you didn't create me, I wouldn't come to this world!" Several fish were stunned by the shock wave and washed onto the beach. Mei'er held them in her mouth and gazed at Yun Xi with an adoring look.

“I’m really curious about how I could have had four overlord-ranked girlfriends in my last life,” Yun Xi complained about the mistake he made in his last life.

After a while, he regained a little of his energy. He surely couldn’t beat down the eighth-ranked apostle. However, the apostle had disappeared, seeing that it hadn’t found out that he was on the ship. White Lotus’s misfortune was just an accident. It had just gotten in the apostle’s way.

“Anyway, I want to go on living. Mei’er, come back!” Yun Xi whistled, then Mei’er turned into a golden light and flew into Yun Xi’s body.

Yun Xi could let Mei’er stay in his body in the star elf form. He had naturally understood how to use this ability after he awakened his memory as the starchild.

The little star elf had two forms: an entity form as the golden dog, and a virtual body form as the star elf. When Yun Xi first met Mei’er, he didn’t have enough power to let Mei’er turn into the star elf form. This was one of the rewards he had obtained after he completed the formal trial.

“I hope that other people are still alive,” Yun Xi murmured.

He closed his eyes, searching for other people through his seeds. According to his memory, the crash site depended on the location when they were on the ship, which meant that the female swordsmen were very likely to drop into the nearby sea area.

One, two, three... Yun Xi carefully counted the number of the seeds which were still linked with him, then let out a sigh of relief. The protection magic the twin witches cast at the last moment had worked very well. None of the female swordsmen had died. Thirty-seven seeds were still linked with him. That was really something worth celebrating.

Yun Xi vaguely figured out the distance between him and the girls through the seeds. He couldn't clearly feel the twin witches, Hua Huo, Milei, El'phyllis and Ye Li. Obviously, they were at different, but very far away places.

Hua Yue, Xiao Cao and other female swordsmen were very close to him. Even if they were not on the island, their locations wouldn't be far away.

"I need to hurry up and save them!" With the guide of the seeds, Yun Xi used the skill "Quicksilver Motion", running towards a place on the island at his full speed.

Even though they fell from the same place, but due to the white holy dragon's shock wave and the airstream caused due to White Lotus's disintegration, they dropped into different places.

The first girl Yun Xi found was Hua Yue. She hadn't fallen into the sea, but hung onto a large coconut tree. She was in a coma due to the massive impact. Her full breasts were hanging on a branch. Her gorgeous dress was already in shreds and patches, exposing her snow-white skin. If it wasn't because the white light on her body protected her when she fell from the sky, she would already be dead.

"Hua Yue, wake up!" Yun Xi touched her forehead to feel her temperature and anxiously called her name, trying to wake her up.

"Cough... Cough... I... Am I dead?" Hua Yue slowly opened her eyes, then saw a heaven-like scene.

Fresh air, bright sunlight, boundless blue sky, and a black-haired girl who was hugging her in her arms and looking at her with a warm and worried look.

Ah, is this the heaven? Hua Yue thought in her heart. If this was her life after death, it looked pretty nice.

“No, you are not dead. We fell from the sky. Are you injured?” Yun Xi looked at Hua Yue with a worried look because she was still coughing.

“Oh, I’m not dead. Thank you. Are my ribs broken?” Hua Yue quickly realized what happened. Well, this wasn’t heaven, but the girl who was hugging her in her arms was her real angel!

“Staying alive is better than anything, ” Yun Xi comforted her. He had tasted too many deaths. They were really some of his most horrible memories.

“Yes. You are here, so I won’t go to the afterlife,” Hua Yue said with a smile. She struggled, trying to stand up.

As a knight who had White Golden Rose Bloodline, how could she surrender to her minor injuries! Even if she would die, she would die with vigour and vitality!

“Mei, where are we?” Yun Xi supported Hua Yue with his hand. Hua Yue looked around and her eyes gradually became calm.

“I have good news and bad news,” Yun Xi smiled bitterly. He told Hua Yue his guess.

“The good news is that we are still alive. I think that other people are also alive. The bad news is that this place is probably located in the core area of White Lotus Sword Domain. We all know that this place is a forbidden zone, for it may have legendary hero-ranked monsters.”

“You mean, we are in stranded ?” Hua Yue correctly judged the situation.

“Yes. Not only us. I’m afraid that all the people that had been on the ship are in stranded now.”

Chapter 116: Search and Rescue

“We fell in the nearby area, which means that there may be other people stranded here.”

Hua Yue was really an excellent aristocratic miss who had inherited White Gold Rose Bloodline. She quickly analysed the situation.

“En. They are all on this island and the nearby areas,” Yun Xi answered. He felt the seeds again, making sure that no other female swordsmen were in danger.

However, for some reason he didn’t know, his feeling about Hua Huo’s seed and the twin witches’ seeds were becoming more and more difficult to perceive.

“Well, put me down and let us go look for the others,” Hua Yue said. She looked around and made a decision, “Don’t worry about me. I can still move. The most important thing now is to search for them.”

“Are you really ok?” Yun Xi looked at Hua Yue with worry. He knew that her ribs were broken.

“I have White Gold Rose Bloodline. I’m not that weak a girl!” Hua Yue looked around and found a place which was suitable to be their temporary foothold.

That was a platform on a barren rock-wall, which was a really good place to observe the surrounding environment. Even if they encountered monsters, the terrain could help them resist for a period of time.

Besides, her White Gold Rose Bloodline could let her recover herself ten times faster than ordinary people. She would be able to recover 70% of her power after about ten hours.

“Rip!”

Hua Yue tore her ripped dress to make bandages to bind up her broken ribs. After that, she worked on the platform to build their temporary camp.

As for Yun Xi, he was quickly running towards the backland of the island.

“Go. Look for everyone and save them! Mei, you are the strongest and the best of us. You should know that with great power comes great responsibility!”

Hua Yue’s words were still echoing in Yun Xi’s heart, which really made him look at her with new eyes. So, not all aristocratic misses were hothouse flowers, at least, Hua Yue wasn’t a feeble girl.

“Here!” Soon afterwards, Yun Xi found another girl who was in a coma. She was one of the female swordsmen. Her condition was better than Hua Yue. Although her clothes was also ripped, but she had fallen onto a thick and soft creep cluster which greatly reduced the impact.

“Ling Ling, wake up!” Yun Xi remembered her name. She was one of Hua Yue’s subordinates and came from a declined noble family.

“Whoaaa! Am I dead?” Ling Ling faintly opened her eyes, then saw the blue sky, white clouds, and a black-haired angel.

“You are not dead. Hua Yue is waiting for you!” Yun Xi had a complex feeling. Why did they think that they had died when they saw him?

“Oh, I’m not dead! What a pity. I thought that I was in heaven!” Ling Ling looked regretful, then was helped up by Yun Xi.

“Ai... Gee... Mei?” Ling Ling blushed. She was at a loss in Yun Xi’s arms.

“We can talk later. Let us go to Hua Yue’s place first.”

As the only uninjured person, Yun Xi’s physical strength was still at its peak. He held Ling Ling in his arms and continuously performed Quicksilver Motion. He didn’t only obtain understanding and experience about sword skills from the thirty-seven female swordsmen. Something else also flowed into his heart. Therefore, when he took Ling Ling up in his arms, he didn’t feel that it was inappropriate.

Similarly, Ling Ling also didn’t resist his behavior. She just blushed with her heart pounding heavily.

“Isn’t this my heaven?” Ling Ling glanced at Yun Xi with a sweet feeling in her heart.

“I have found one!” After entrusting Ling Ling to Hua Yue, Yun Xi didn’t take a rest. He immediately jumped down from the platform and started to search for other survivors.

After finding Hua Yue and Ling Ling, Yun Xi felt that he was more familiar with his seed searching system. Within three hours, he had found seventeen girls from the area within a ten-mile radius. However, as he kept searching, he was more and more confused about something.

“That’s so strange. How could we all fall on the same island?”

At the same time, Hua Yue had become the temporary leader of these female swordsmen. She also considered this question. She didn’t know the existence of Yun Xi’s seeds. In that case, she was more puzzled about how Yun Xi could find so many people so quickly.

“In terms of probability, it’s impossible!”

They fell from the ship more than ten-thousand-meters-high in the sky. Even if they were holding each other’s hands when they fell, it was still impossible that their landing locations were so close.

The next ten hours, Yun Xi was still looking for the girls. Not surprisingly, he found almost all the remaining girls. When Yun Xi found them, they were all in a coma with vague white lights protecting them. Some of them fell on trees, some of them were dropped on creep clusters, and some of them were washed onto the beach just like Yun Xi himself.

“Thirty-six people... where is Xiao Cao?” Yun Xi put the last girl he found on the platform, then gasped for air as his brows frowned. By relying on the seeds, he could vaguely judge the distance between him and the girls. In order to find the thirty-six girls, he had almost gone around the whole island. However, Xiao Cao’s seed wasn’t on the island but in the sea. He didn’t know the exact location and could only figure out the general direction.

“You must be tired, Mei.”

“Yes, Mei, you should take a rest. Come here, do you want to drink water?”

“Thank you, Mei. I don’t know what would have happened if we didn’t have you.”

The girls surrounded Yun Xi with concern. Via the threads of their seeds, Yun Xi could feel their sincerity. Their eyes also proved that they weren't lying.

"Thanks. But I must find everyone, otherwise, I won't get to rest!" Yun Xi drunk the cold water. He wiped his mouth, then jumped off the platform again. Since the seed had pointed out the direction for him, then no matter where Xiao Cao was, he must find her. They were a team of thirty-seven female swordsmen. No one could be less.

Chapter 117: Xiao Cao In the Moonlight

Yun Xi stood on the beach, staring at the changing weather with a dumbfounded look.

The distant sky was as dark as ink, portending that a tempest was coming. Wind drove clouds and swallowed the shining stars.

Under the sky, it was the boundless sea. The waves roared and billowed upon the dark sea.

At dusk, the sea should show the most beautiful scene, however, the coming storm ruined everything.

Yun Xi still remembered that the sea was so peaceful at daylight, but now, it exposed its violent side.

At the ends of the sea, the tempest was moving at an incredible speed. Lightning spread through the sky again and again, illuminating the clouds like burned snakes.

"Puff!" The winds were coming!

“Clank!” The storm was coming!

This was the first time that Yun Xi faced a storm’s earth-shaking powers personally.

In the storm, the heaven and the earth were inked, as dark as the winter in hell. The only light was the flashing lightning in the clouds and the white lotus throne floating on the sea.

The smell of the sea came from a distance and rose up through the air. The rain dropped on Yun Xi’s shoulders like it was raining cats and dogs, drenching his maid’s black uniform.

“No! Xiao Cao!” Yun Xi shuddered. He was planning to swim across the sea, but now, he recovered himself in the face of the violent sea storm.

To mortals, once they were drawn into a sea storm, they wouldn’t be survive. Xiao Cao wouldn’t be an exception.

“Mei’er!” Yun Xi summoned his star elf.

“How can I lock onto Xiao Cao’s position?”

Yun Xi anxiously looked at the small golden dog. His only hope now was the Stars’ Love System.

“Do you mean her seed?” As Yun Xi’s system elf, Mei’er could also see the thread between Yun Xi and the girls.

“Yes. She is in danger. I must save her!” Yun Xi ground his teeth. Even if the storm was so horrible, he had no intention on giving up.

He must save everyone!

“Don’t worry, my master. Feel her seed by your heart!” Mer’er jumped to Yun Xi’s shoulder and licked his ear.

“Her seed?” Yun Xi closed his eyes and felt the seed’s direction in his heart.

Was it his imagination? He felt that Xiao Cao’s seed getting closer and closer.

“Eh, It’s not an illusion. Look, she is coming!”

Yun Xi felt then. He not only felt Xiao Cao’s breath, but also including a strange creature’s breath, which was much bigger and amazing.

On the dark sea, a streak of white light beam was emitting lights and quickly moving towards Yun Xi from the far away heavy waves.

As the white light beam moved, the waves were suppressed and the sea suddenly become peaceful. Even the inked sky was illuminated by its light.

Yun Xi could feel that the creature who was emitting the white light beam from its body was even strong enough to dispel the storm.

Although it couldn't be compared to the white holy dragon, it was still a great being that was far beyond ordinary people's imagination.

"Ha!"

A clear voice echoed between the heaven and the earth. The great being in the sea was dispelling the storm.

The storm and winds already blotted out the sky and covered the sun, but now, they faded in the face of the loud, clear and song-like voice.

The crescent moon shined its cold lights on the boundless waves, and a few sparse stars blinked in the dark blue sky.

The sea breezes hummed, and the veil-like moonlight carried the soft night wind, dancing amongst the spindrift on the dark sea.

Between heaven and earth, the white light looked holy and tranquil, as if there was an invisible hand that was wiping off the storm.

"This..." Yun Xi gazed at the miraculous scene. He was really at a loss for words.

Compared to the white holy dragon, this fantastic creature's power of suppressing the storm wasn't that incredible. However, its power was more natural, as if it was really a part of the cycle of natural processes.

A few moments later, several black figures left the white light and swam to Yun Xi.

On the dark water, the several black figures met and parted, sank and swam, but always kept themselves in a loose formation.

Yun Xi could see curved-knife-like dorsal fins on their black back. Every once in a while, they would spout out water from their forehead with "buzz" sounds.

Sometimes, one or two black figures would leap from the water, exposing their oval white spots in the air. Their streamlined bodies gave Yun Xi an ineffable sense of power and speed.

Discontinuously, they made song-like sounds that echoed in the night sky. They sounded like the voice which dispelled the storm.

"Whales?" Yun Xi looked at these big creatures and felt the growing of Xiao Cao's seed. He opened his eyes wide in surprise, because he had seen the girl, who was sitting on one of the killer whales without any clothes.

Her healthy and slender body looked still like a child, and her freckled looked pretty innocent and pure.

Under the moonlight, her skin looked strange but attractive. Yun Xi could clearly see her slender legs, soft and arched feet and her slightly opened toes.

Her belly was smooth and compact, showing a kind of healthy beauty.

Was she Xiao Cao? Was she really the girl in Yun Xi's memory?

Her body was so energetic as if something in her body was suddenly released after the disaster. Her temperament had undergone drastic change.

Not only her temperament. Her power had also changed. She was already at the third rank now.

What had happened to her while she was missing?

Chapter 118: Bite

What happened?

Where had she changed?

Yun Xi checked Xiao Cao's seed, trying to find an answer.

Soon afterwards, he found her changes.

Xiao Cao's seed:

Mortal's Sword (perfect): The person who held this sword had practiced the mortal's sword skill to the limit, due to that the person would be able to learn any high-level sword skills two times faster than ordinary people.

Mind's Eye (incomplete): A kind of insight learning from practice and exercise. It could help the owner analyse the environment and catch the tiniest opportunity to reverse the situation.

Combat Intuition (partly awakened): This ability could help the owner analyse the battle trend and respond to it in advance. At any time, the owner of this ability could use 100% strength.

Persevering Heart: The grass-like girl had a persevering heart. It could help her open the door to a higher rank.

The Great Road (partly opened): In the long river of fate, some people were blessed by the Goddess of Fortune. Even if they were still mortals, they were fated to create legends.

After reading the last information, Yun Xi realized that he was witnessing a new legend's birth. She was going to step on her own great road.

Xiao Cao was blessed by destiny itself. She had made the first move of her legend.

Her natural posture and renewed temperament were the proofs of her rebirth.

Yun Xi still didn't know what had happened to her, but he could see her changes.

"Mei! Mei! Mei!"

Yun Xi was lost in his thought, till Xiao Cao jumped off the black whale she rode, ran to him and called him. He finally returned to the real world.

"Ah, Xiao Cao... Welcome back!" Yun Xi hesitated, "Sorry, I don't know what to do at a time like this."

"You can just smile," Xiao Cao answered, "Sorry to keep you waiting!" She deftly stood on her toes, then held Yun Xi in her arms and kissed him. She put her small tongue into Yun Xi's mouth and forcibly stirred.

"Ooo!" Under Xiao Cao's surprise attack, Yun Xi unconsciously put out his tongue. After feeling that, Xiao Cao enthusiastically sucked his tongue.

"!!!" Yun Xi heard Xiao Cao's breathing and groan, feeling that her body was so soft as if she didn't have bones.

Xiao Cao's kiss was a little strange. After swallowing plenty of Yun Xi's saliva, she tried to use her tongue to touch every corner of Yun Xi's mouth.

A large amount of sweet saliva flowed into Yun Xi's mouth. Some of them flowed out from the corner of his mouth, hanging in the air like a silver wire.

“En!” Finally, Yun Xi struggled and put Xiao Cao away, for her kiss had almost made him suffocating.

Who?! Who taught Xiao Cao such an erotic style of kissing? He was almost dried up!

Looking at Xiao Cao, Yun Xi couldn't believe that she had changed so much!

In his memory, Xiao Cao was a girl who was clumsy in daily life and only focused on practicing her sword skill.

“Not enough...” Xiao Cao seemingly didn't want to give up. Even Yun Xi had pushed her away, she still launched the second offensive.

“Wow! Wow! Wow!”

“Patter! Patter!”

“Oh yeah! Oh yeah!”

“Go! Go!”

Was it his illusion? Yun Xi felt that there were other people. They were peeping at him and making inexplicable sounds.

Xiao Cao seemed to be encouraged by someone. She opened her mouth again. However, Yun Xi had covered his mouth with his hands. In that case, she could only put out her small tongue to help Yun Xi clean the saliva on his neck.

As her smooth, soft tongue licked and her warm lips brushed through, nothing was remaining on Yun Xi's neck.

As she licked, Yun Xi's heart suddenly beat faster. His neck felt a sharp pain, because Xiao Cao was biting on his neck, for he refusing her kiss.

"My friends are saying that if you still resist, I can bite you," Xiao Cao said dangerous words with an innocent face as she gazed at Yun Xi's eyes.

Yun Xi didn't know if it was his illusion, however, when Xiao Cao said that, a sense of love exposed on Xiao Cao's face, which made her look more pretty.

"Bite? How?" Yun Xi covered his neck with his hand, but didn't see any malice in Xiao Cao's eyes.

"Like this." Xiao Cao slightly opened her mouth.

Her eyebrows raised, which looked so soft as if it was drawing the same soft curves in Yun Xi's heart, making him feel itch.

Stand on your toes, find the target, then bite on it – This was the perfect strategy Xiao Cao's friends were telling her.

“Yes, friends! Your best friends! The friends you want her to stay with forever!”

“Yes, don’t relax your bite!”

“Yes, you must be active and enthusiastic! She is a pretty trustworthy friend. You should never let her go!”

“For mating and love, you... Cough, for you friendship, you must be proactive!”

“Ah... Ooo...” Xiao Cao didn’t doubt her friends’ words. She bit Yun Xi’s lips again and enjoyed the feeling.

Xiao Cao, what was that bad friend? How could you teach my Xiao Cao so many wrongful knowledge!

Xiao Cao, break it with that bad friend! The great road was still waiting for you. You shouldn’t be slatternly!

Yun Xi felt his lower abdomen grow hot. One of his body part was going to raise its head.

No! I can’t expose my identity here! The apostle is still near. I can’t remove my disguise now!

However... I can’t hold on any longer! For god’s sake, Xiao Cao’s healthy and flexible breasts were pressing my chest! They are a pair of all too powerful weapons!

“Whoaaa!”

“Patter! Patter!”

“Pa pa pa pa!”

Under the moonlight, they peeked at the black-haired girl’s perplexed expression, translucent skin, soaked maid’s black uniform, and...

“Puff!”

“Puff!”

“Puff!”

A lot of blood spurted into the sea and dyed the water red.

Chapter 119: Tropical Temptation

After another long, gentle, sweet kiss, Yun Xi was finally freed from Xiao Cao’s offensive attacks and escaped his fate of being drowned in kisses.

No! I must stop her! If she continued, Yun Xi doubted how long could he stop one of his body part’s raising. He took advantage of his height, decisively holding Xiao Cao in his arms.

Because Yun Xi was a head taller than Xiao Cao, he could easily take her whole body in his arms, stopping her wild attack in this weird manner.

“Xiao Cao... You are wrong! We are friends, but... but you can’t do this to your regular friends!” Yun Xi strenuously suppressed his desire and tried to persuade Xiao Cao at the same time.

“Regular friends can’t do this? Then what kind of friends can do this?” Xiao Cao asked with curiosity. Her tongue softly touched and slipped around Yun Xi’s neck, making him shiver as if he was getting an electric shock.

“Well... I, I have very few friends...” Yun Xi didn’t know how to answer her question.

He had tried this game with his childhood sweetheart many times, but none of them were as fervent as Xiao Cao.

Xiao Cao’s mysterious friend, what had you taught Xiao Cao?!

“Puff! Puff!”

“Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!”

“Yo-ho! Yo-ho!”

Yun Xi heard strange sounds again.

By the way, wasn't the temperature around him too warm?

The storm was just dispelled and now it was really a sunny day. However, Yun Xi felt hot as if he was in a tropical rainforest.

Xiao Cao was hugged in his arms at this moment. She was like a colorful fish who was emitting bright lights, catching Yun Xi's eyes tightly.

Yun Xi's hands touched Xiao Cao's skin. Her skin was so smooth and soft, not like a civilian at all. Yun Xi remembered that her skin was rough due to her hard life and too much practice.

What had exactly happened to Xiao Cao when she was missing?

"I... I also don't have too many friends. So, I'm glad to know that you are willing to be my friend, Mei!" Xiao Cao said. Her voice was quiet and gentle, as warm as a strand of grass in the tropic sea.

Why is Xiao Cao so cute?

What is this feeling in my heart?

Isn't the temperature around me too high?

“Puff! Puff!”

“Pa pa pa pa!”

“Drip! Whoa! Drip!”

Again. What is the sound exactly?

It didn't sound like the water or the waves slapping on the beach, but come from a more far away place in the deeper water.

“Hvwalar!” The several whales leapt out of the water and passed by each others. The water they carried formed a big heart-shaped symbol in the air.

“My new friends are saying that I can't let the chance slip. Mei is my best friend!”

Xiao Cao said firmly.

As a girl from a remote and poor village, she didn't have any teacher or legacy.

She was like a strand of grass in the wild, practicing her sword skill all by herself.

She valued her friends more than anyone.

Especially Mei. After taking a strand of her magical black hair, her whole world was turned upside down.

If Xiao Cao was like a strand of grass in the wild in the past, then Yun Xi's seed was like a drop of sweet dew, making her vibrant with life.

Xiao Cao appreciated Yun Xi's seed so much. She didn't good at speaking, so she just kept her gratitude firmly in her heart.

Friend is important.

Mei is special.

Therefore, I want to be her best friend. I want to stay with her forever.

"Eh. We are best friends."

Yun Xi could only accept her. After all, who could refuse such an innocent girl?

Even if Xiao Cao didn't have his seed, she was still an attractive girl.

Who would not want to have such a friend?

“Mei is my friend!” Xiao Cao smiled. She didn’t take further steps, because that was all her friends had taught her.

“Bang! Bang! Bang!”

“Puff! Puff! Puff!”

One giant, gratitude balloon after another shot up from the sea. They exploded and sprayed in the air, reflecting different color.

Deep purples and bright reds.

Emerald green and dark blue.

White gold and not pink.

Various color and different shapes made the small beach looked like a aquarium, full of dreamy atmosphere.

“Is that your friend?” Finally, Yun Xi persuaded Xiao Cao to put on the clothes which he temporarily made by using leaves. After that, he looked at a location in the sea.

“Yes. A very, very beautiful new friend. But she is a little big.”

Xiao Cao nodded. then pointed at her own skin, which was obviously more smooth and delicate than past.

“She let me drink her milk. Delicious and good for health.”

Milk? Very big? Thoughts thronged Yun Xi’s mind. That contained abundant information.

“Ha!”

“Hi!”

“Puff! Puff!”

Giant water waves shot up from the sea. The mysterious creature who carried Xiao Cao to the island started to dive. After a while, the creature and the several whales disappeared in the horizon.

“Has she gone? What a pity. I want to let Mei drink her milk too!” Xiao Cao waved her hands to them with a regrettable look.

“What... is its race exactly?” Yun Xi gazed at the sea. In the end, he still didn’t know what Xiao Cao’s friend was.

“Hum... My friend, has big breasts. She is the biggest. Vey beautiful, very soft, and take care of me very much!” Xiao Cao said with a natural look, although her ambiguous describe really made Yun Xi feel confused.

However, this was not a problem.

Xiao Cao had come back.

He saved all the thirty-seven female swordsmen! No one was less.

Yun Xi held Xiao Cao’s hands with a bright smile, walking on the way leading to their camping ground.

“Help! Help me! Whooooh! Anybody here? Please help me!”

Suddenly and surprisedly, Yun Xi heard a pitiful, cute and heart-touching voice.

Chapter 120: Silver-haired Girl

“Hmm?” Yun Xi stopped, looking at the place the voice came from.

Are there other people on the island?

Yes, it is possible. Although Yun Xi had only found these female swordsmen on the island through his seeds, but it was possible that other people on the ship, White Lotus, also drifted to this island.

After all, White Lotus carried over a thousand of people. Except for the twin witches and Hua Huo, who he had confirmed that weren't on this island, it was very likely that there were other survivors here.

"Xiao Cao, let's go to save her!" Since he had already saved thirty-seven people, then there was no reason for him not to save more.

"Eh!" Xiao Cao nodded, but her eyes looked very vigilant.

Soon after, Yun Xi followed the voice and found the only survivor apart from the thirty-seven female swordsmen.

"..." Yun Xi looked at the girl with a weird look, because the girl was gingerly hiding on a tree, and the monsters around the tree were... several little animals Yun Xi was very familiar with: squirrels.

"..." Xiao Cao grasped Yun Xi's hands, motioning him to wait for a while.

Don't misunderstand. She wasn't fear of the several little animals, who looked not dangerous at all and just surrounded the tree with curiosity. She was on guard against the girl, who should be their save target at first.

This was the same reason why Yun Xi stopped.

"Well... Who are you?" Yun Xi asked with a careful look.

That was a girl whose clothes looked very exotic. No people in the Whole Eastern God's Domain would wear like that.

She wore a big silver headwear on her head, which looked like a pair of silver bunny ears. Three silver blue gems were studded on her forehead and her ears.

Yun Xi saw a big necklace on her neck, which said "No. 001" on it. He could see a broken chain that was still hanging on it.

Not only her neck. Her shoulders, arms and waist were all constrained with similar restraints, which made her look like a prisoner who just escaped from the jail.

In addition to these restraints, she only wore a dress which was as thin as a nightclothes. She didn't even wear shoes!

Her naked feet were restricted by a pair of cold fetters. Maybe she felt cold, her cute toes curled like cat's paws. She looked shy and cute.

Her translucent legs were smooth and soft. Yun Xi looked down and noticed her feet, which were so perfect and flawless.

Her five toes curled, forming four slightly bent curves, as if they were five flower buds in early puberty.

Under her strange, big silver headwear, her face looked as delicate as a cute porcelain doll. Plus her innocent eyes and timid expression, she was as lovely as a timid rabbit.

Yun Xi noticed that there was a blue trace in the middle of her chest. It was a condensed ice crystal, which shouldn't have appeared in this season.

"Whooh! Help!" The girl didn't see Yun Xi and Xiao Cao. She covered her head in her hands, crouching like a hedgehog on the tree.

"..." Yun Xi looked at the small tree, which was about two meters tall and was shaking due to the girl's weight and action, then looked at the several squirrels, who were merrily jumping up and licking the girl's soles.

Well, did she really need help?

"That's strange..." Xiao Cao murmured.

Yes, that was too strange. Yun Xi was sure that this girl wasn't one of Sword Palace's candidates.

Her exotic clothes and ruby-like eyes were too conspicuous. He would have noticed her if she was on the ship.

Yun Xi didn't think that she was a native. In his view, her headwear should be very valuable. Probably it wouldn't be cheaper than White Lotus's Star and Moon's Ring.

Besides, the ice blue trace on her chest was also suspicious. This was a tropical island but it was still frozen here. It couldn't be something ordinary.

Although Yun Xi couldn't judge her power with his naked eyes, however, he didn't think that the several squirrels, who actually could do no harm to her and seemingly just wanted to play with her, would be a threat to her.

Even if a three-year-old child wouldn't be scared by squirrels. Why was she so scared?

"Whoohh! Help me! That's tickling! What monsters they are! Terrible!" The silver-haired girl finally noticed Yun Xi and Xiao Cao. She gazed at them with a pathetic look.

"Sigh..." Finally, Yun Xi couldn't bear to see girl's tears. He whistled and tapped the ground with his feet.

"Hiss!" The squirrels happily ran to Yun Xi. They were not afraid of human at all.

Yun Xi picked off several wild fruits from the tree. The several squirrels joyfully ate them and ran away.

"Whoohh! They are finally gone!" After seeing the squirrels leaving, the silver-haired girl finally had the guts to climb down the tree.

"They are just squirrels. You don't need to afraid of them," Yun Xi comforted her, but still didn't relax his vigilance, because he didn't see a speck of dust on her body. No person would be still spotless after falling from the sky.

Hua Yue broke her bones and Xiao Cao lost her clothes. If the silver-haired girl fell down from the ship, she couldn't be unscathed.

“No, no, no! They are horrible demons! They got in my dress, did this thing and that thing to me! Whooooooh. They were bullying me!” The silver-haired alleged these squirrels’ crimes with tears in her eyes.

“They are just squirrels...” Yun Xi was dumb and didn’t know how to comment her words. Were you a princess, living like a flower in the greenhouse in your life? Why are you so innocent and timid?

However, judging from her headwear, probably she was really a princess. This headwear... was she from Western God’s Domain?

“Thank you. I’m Mumu. Can you tell me where I am?”
