Chapter 201: Turning Point

The Lamia Race and The Mermaid Race were both Water God's chosen races. However, due to their different appearances and living habits, people had different views of the two races.

Mermaids were seen as one of Water God's avatars due to their perfect faces and wonderful songs. They were popular throughout the whole world. Lamias had creepy snake bodies and were several times larger than humans, therefore, they were regarded as a nightmare from the deep sea. No human had the guts to get close to them.

Even though the Lamia Queen was one of the three Water God's High Priests, she couldn't dispel the human prejudices too. Therefore, the Lamia girls just watched the fun and didn't really think that they could take part in the selection ceremony. They didn't think that they were entitled to apply for it because they couldn't have children with humans. To humans, they were absolutely different kinds of creatures.

"In fact, I've had a talk with the Apostle. He said that he didn't mind whether his bride is human or not. Besides, he is unlike other humans because he can have children with any race." Looking at the anxious expressions on the Lamia girls' faces, the Lamia Queen smiled meaningfully and announced this startling news.

"What?! Is it real? He can actually do this!"

"My Queen, you're not joking, are you?"

"Whoa! He's a prefect Apostle!"

It really was amazing news. For a long time, there was a huge misunderstanding between humans and Lamias. Almost none of them dared to believe this news, even though they had heard it from the Lamia Queen personally, who was also Water God's High Priestess.

The Lamia Race and the Mermaid Race both had no males in their races. Their reproductive systems were special: first, they gestated "womb" in their bodies, then they would find strong beings to offer them biotic genes so that they could breed strong offspring.

In fact, the Human Race wasn't a good choice for the Lamia Race and the Mermaid Race because most humans were very weak, so they couldn't impregnate Mermaids or Lamias. Most mermaids and lamias would look for strong sea monsters and obtain their biotic genes to gestate their offspring.

In Water God's world, several special sea monsters were responsible for this task. They were nearly immortal and had obtained a few god powers from the Water God so that they could help the two races maintain a stable population.

Unfortunately, due to some unknown reason, several old sea monsters had all fallen dead asleep. For dozens of years the two races hadn't had any children. .

"We can have children without help from the Sail Jellyfishes?" The youngest Lamia girl looked surprised.

She was the last one who had seen the sea monsters that were called "Sail Jellyfishes". The Mermaid Race and the Lamia Race had relied on the several Sail Jellyfishes to gestate offspring for many, many years, which was so long that they had even regarded it as a natural thing.

“Yes, because his body contains Water God’s power, so he can carry out the same duty as the Sail Jellyfishes. He is a unique Apostle, and all of you can try to obtain his love.” The Lamia Queen looked at the young Lamia girls with an expectant look.

She had seen various emotions in their eyes, including pleasant surprise, itching for a try, nervousness, and uneasiness.

How long, since the last time the same noise appeared amongst Lamias? The Lamia Race had been completely cut off from human world for a long time. It was about time to reappear in front of humans again.

This world didn’t only belong to humans, but belonged to all living beings who believed in Water God.

The Human Race were the masters of the ground.

The Mermaid Race were the communicators between humans and the deep sea races.

The Lamia Race were the representatives of sea demons.

Now, due to an unforeseen opportunity, the three forces in the Water God’s world started to communicate with each other.

The Water God’s world had stopped changing for a long, long time. But now, it started to reform itself again. It was all due to the silver-masked young boy. Based on a human’s standard, he was already a mature man, but in the Lamia Queen’s eyes, he was still a boy.

“If so, I want to have a try!” Finally, a Lamia girl raised her hand.

Yes, this is it. You’re still young, how can you always stay alone in the dark, deep sea! Go outside, go outside! To see the vast world, to see the mountains and cities, to look for the things you are longing for!

“Yes, I want to have a child. Since the Sail Jellyfishes have fallen asleep, then I will choose the Apostle!”

One after another, the Lamia girls bared their hearts. In fact, the Lamia girls were already bored of their days in the deep sea. Almost all of them had experienced swimming close to the coastline at night, looking at the brilliantly lit human world from a distance. However, they had no reason to and lacked the guts to swim close to the bright lit world.

The Lamia Race was ominous, therefore, humans couldn’t live together with lamias. The Lamia girls believed this. However, this time, the situation was different. The young, curious Lamia girls had finally found a good reason to venture into the bright human world.

The Water God’s Notice was posted to all living beings in Water God’s world, which meant that they also had the right to become the Apostle’s brides, so they could find an excuse to go to Caelian, the City of Water.

“Good, good, very good!” The Lamia Queen smiled.

This is it!

No rule actually forbade the Lamia Race to leave the sea, and no human dared to be hostile to the Lamia Race. Otherwise, the Lamia Queen wouldn’t be one of the three High Priestesses.

They built an invisible wall themselves. They worried about being repelled or treated coldly by humans, so they refused to leave the nest. To them, Yun Xi's Bride Selection Ceremony was just the right excuse to let them leave the deep sea and go to the brand new human world.

Therefore, as their elder, I must lead and protect these children who just stepped out of their comfort zones to accomplish their life goals. The Lamia Queen thought in her heart.

Thank you, Water God. This must be your great will, so that the young boy would come here and meet with us.

Chapter 202: The Three High Priestesses

In Water God's world, the Caelian Water God's Temple.

Yun Xi sat at the top of the temple tower looking at the mega city under his feet in silence. Several days ago, the whole city had been decorated with lanterns and colored hangings. The Apostles' coming was much more meaningful to the city than Yun Xi and Yun Que had thought.

Yun Xi wouldn't forget the shocked expression on the three High Priestesses' faces when he and Yun Que had walked into the Caelian Water God's Temple.

The Lamia Queen – the Queen of deep sea races.

The Mermaid Queen – the Matriarch of the Mermaid Race, whose race was taking Caelian as their primary active region.

The Caelian Queen – the human high priestess who was theoretically the highest ranking person.

They were the three High Priestesses who were actually dominating the sea and ground in the whole of Water God's world. The Water God's world was dominated by this alliance. With Water God's temple at its core, Caelian was the center of the world.

The three High Priestesses represented the sea demon races whose habitats were in the deep sea, the amphibious races who could live both in the sea and on the ground, and the human race who were the masters of ground.

They were the three "Most High" beings of the whole Caelian City, and even the whole of Water God's world. As a matter of course, they were all at the hero-rank.

According to their strength, the Lamia Queen, the Mermaid Queen, and then the Caelian Queen. However, if judging them from their influence, the Caelian Queen was undoubtedly the main leader.

Even though they were the three highest ranking priestesses in the world, they still looked shocked when they saw Yun Xi, as if they had just seen the most incredible miracle in the world.

Yun Xi still remembered their expressions when they saw his White Emperor Mask. The eldest one amongst the three priestesses, was the strongest. The Sea Demon Queen. The Lamia Queen drew herself up and coiled her tail, staring at Yun Xi with her snake-like eyes, which made Yun Que feel downtrodden and even want to attack the queen.

The most elegant one amongst the three priestesses, the Mermaid Queen, supported her harp and covered her mouth in surprise. The harp emitted a round of soft blue light one after another in the air.

The last one, the titular master of all mankind, the High Priestess of Caelian of the Water God's Temple, the Caelian Queen, could barely hold on to the scepter in her hand. She shook, because the scepter in her hand was resonating with Yun Xi's silver mask. One, two, three. The scepter had rung three times, which made the Caelian Queen speechless.

"You're watched by the god..." The Lamia Queen immediately adjusted her mood and lowered her head to Yun Xi.

In this world, even the strongest sea monster couldn't force her to lower her prideful head, but she proactively did so in front of Yun Xi.

"You're blessed by the god..." The Mermaid Queen played her blue harp and sang a song.

The song was the legendary Mermaids Singing, which mermaids used to praise the god.

"You're beloved by the god..." The Caelian Queen raised the scepter and shook the silver aeolian bells on the scepter.

This scepter was granted to her by the supreme Water God. It would only resonate with items of the same rank. The first resonance meant that the item contained god power. For example, Yun Que's Bloody Mask was such an item because it was a Water God's Apostle's identity certificate.

The second resonance meant that the item contained the same amount of god power as the Water God's Scepter. The Caelian Queen only knew of one such item in the whole world. It was inside a temple under the deep sea, and it was called "Sea Demon's Mirror".

Theoretically, there shouldn't be a third resonance, because it would mean that the god power in the item was much greater than the god power in the Water God's Scepter.

The Caelian Queen had never heard of such a thing that had once appeared in this world's history, and therefore, when she heard the third resonance, she could barely believe her ears.

'An artifact that is even more advanced than the Water God's Scepter? It can't be true!' She thought, till the silver-masked young man walked up to the three High Priestesses.

When they saw his mask, they naturally knew that this young man was unique even compared to all the Apostles in this world's history. Deep, thick "Power of Mist" wrapped the White Emperor Mask. As Water God's priestesses, they could even immediately notice the god's aura from the mask.

It was an unprecedented level of charisma!

For the first time in the world's history, a supreme Apostle had appeared. His identity was even higher than the High Priestesses, and he could even be regarded as the god's speaker!

They didn't need more evidence, because the silver mask had already explained everything.

He was the "Emperor"!

Yun Xi and Yun Que hadn't realized the meaning of White Emperor Mask to the Water God's world. After Water God granted Yun Xi the mask, Yun Xi was doomed to be a legend, and the Water God had also told him about it.

“You will become the ‘utawarerumono’. You will become my Apostle!”

And the Star System had also confirmed it.

“You will obtain the fake power of the Emperor after putting on the mask.”

The mask’s power was fake, but, it was just relative to Water God. After all, compared to the immortal god, the power of the Emperor was just a drop in the river of time. However, to the Water God’s world it was absolutely real, which symbolized the supreme god’s will.

Chapter 203: The Girls Are Coming

“Therefore, let’s carry out this plan.” As Yun Xi was still puzzled, Yun Que had finished discussing the inconceivable plan with the three High Priestesses.

“Since this is the Apostle’s requirement, we, the Lamia Race, will support you with all our strength.” The Lamia Queen gazed at Yun Xi with a dangerous look, as if she was going to “eat” him.

“We, the Mermaid Race, will support you too,” The Mermaid Queen answered. She gently smiled and played the blue harp.

“I will obey the god’s will.” The Caelian Queen shook the Water God’s Scepter in her hand, listening the euphonious tinkle of rings.

Start from here, the “Expansion Plan of A Million Brides” swept through the whole Water God’s world like a storm.

With the three High Priestesses as the core, the whole Water God's world had been involved in this unparalleled event. One post after another, and one priest after another announced Yun Xi's marriage event all over the world. The news had spread across the whole world at an unbelievable speed.

There were about ten million intelligent beings in Water God's world. Most were humans, and the remainder were the Mermaid Race, the Lamia Race, and other aquatic races.

The whole world was focused on the Caelian City now and it had become vibrant with life due to Yun Xi's proposal plan. Every day, many aquatic races and humans were coming to the City of Water, Caelian, in groups. Most of them were unmarried girls.

All over the world, Water God's priests were dutifully choosing the most beautiful girls in their parishes and sending them to Caelian. If regarding the whole Water God's world as a garden, then all the residents in the garden had gone into action for Yun Que's plan, and this was what made Yun Xi feel distressed.

"I never said that I would marry so many girls..." Sitting on the temple spire, Yun Xi murmured in a lifeless tone.

He had only wanted to find all the Starwings Knight girls. What went wrong that made I end up in this dilemma? Was it my fault or Yun Que's?

"Are you still thinking whether this is wrong?" A familiar, sarcastic voice echoed beside Yun Xi's ears.

"I never wanted to do this," Yun Xi sighed.

A million brides? He couldn't even image it, not to mention to accept it. Even though these girls had responded to Water God Temples' call and come to Caelian, perhaps none of them had known the truth.

"It's not dependant on your will. We must do it. Otherwise, you, and me, and even the whole world won't have a future." Yun Que coldy watched the girls in the busy streets.

Controlling everything and increasing the odds of winning to the Water God's camp – this was her choice.

Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword, would be an incredibly strong enemy, and Yun Xi's White Emperor Mask would become the major variable that could help them defeat Shaya Longnis.

The Dark Shadow Spider Queen's coming had greatly accelerated the speed of Shaya Longnis' coming. Their original plan had been to find the most suitable bride for Water God as soon as possible, but now, it had become too difficult to accomplish.

They had no choice but to start preparing to fight. In the face of Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword, they had to do everything to enhance themselves.

Fortunately, this bastard belongs to the Water God's camp. Yun Que thought. He is beloved by Water God, and he can become stronger through proposing to girls. This is really a bug-like ability!

Considering Shaya Longnis' ability, Yun Que had to consider that Yun Xi's ability was something that Water God had up its sleeve.

As expected, the battle between gods was far beyond her and any mortal's imagination. Her, "Yun Hai", and the black-haired beauty, were just three chess pieces on this large chessboard named "the Water God's world". The god hiding behind this world – Water God, and the upcoming Slime Sky Sword – Shaya Longnis, were the real chess players.

However, Yun Que didn't resist it.

Like the sun rises in the east and sets in the west, everything in the universe had its fate. Before she could actually obtain power as a chess player, it wasn't bad to achieve victory as a chess piece. Victory means endless possibility, because the loser won't have a future.

"What should we do next?" Yun Xi counted the beautiful girls on the street under his feet.

There were female pharmacist who wore exotic clothes, fisherman's maidens who wore tropical skirts and necklaces, and priestess who wore sacerdotal robes. Apart from them, there were also mermaids and lamias who were bathing in the fountains.

In the Water God's world, aquatic races and mankind were all Water God's people. Humans were afraid of the Lamia Race because they looked horrible, but humans didn't refuse to become integrated with the girls from other races.

There were already over a hundred thousand unmarried girls that had arrived at Caelian during these days. According to the news from the three High Priestesses, there were still a lot of girls of different races on the road. It was calculated that the sum of girls may really be able to reach a million eventually.

What does it mean? Yun Xi could barely imagine it as he had never thought that he would propose to a million girls.

A million! What should I do?

They were all Water God's believers. Responding to Water God's call, they came here and waited for their fates. None of them had expected such a strange fate was waiting for them.

"You have no choice and can only propose to them all. If your Mist Soul Army can really reach a million, we will be able to defeat Shaya Longnis', the Sky Sword's Slime Army. Therefore, for victory, you must accomplish this mission, successfully proposing to a million girls!" Yun Que said and looked at Yun Xi.

Her voice still sounded calm, but her eyes had undoubtedly exposed her disdain, as if she was looking at a bug!

Chapter 204: The Mysterious First One

"There are a million girls! How could I propose to all of them!" Yun Xi was going out of his mind.

Yun Que's plan had almost destroyed Yun Xi's outlook.

Can anyone imagine it? A man would propose to a million unmarried girls and achieve success eventually?

How can it be possible?! There are a million girls! Even if proposing to a girl needs a minute, then repeating it a million times would need... No, stop calculating the number! I will go crazy!

Even if this was just a dream, a trial world, Yun Xi still didn't believe that he had a chance to accomplish this insane plan. Compared to this plan, the truculent green hippos and the Stone Soldier Army were just nothing. At the least when he had challenged the green hippos and the Stone Soldier Army, he had had the confidence that he would be the last winner.

However, this “Expansion Plan – A Million Brides!” was far beyond his imagination.

“Of course, it’s impossible to propose to them one by one, therefore, you need to be selective, determining your focus targets.” Since Yun Que had prepared to carry out this plan for Yun Xi, she would naturally do her best.

No matter how insane, ridiculous, or absurd this plan was, since Yun Xi’s White Emperor Mask contained that power, then she must help him with all her strength. Only Yun Xi’s cheat-like Mist Soul Army could fight against Shaya Longnis’, the Sky Sword’s Slime Army.

It was right to use all their resources to obtain victory, wasn’t it? Only the winner could record and rewrite the history.

“The focus targets?” Yun Xi sensed an unusual feeling from her words.

“Of course. In your Mist Soul Army, there are some special units, right? These special Mist Soul girls are the core of your Mist Soul Army, and the keys to leading your Mist Soul Army to victory. They are the hero units in your Mist Soul Army. So, if you want your Mist Soul Army to be the strongest, they are irreplaceable,” Yun Que said with clear logic.

Mist Soul Army was a fantastic army that was beyond any mortal’s imagination. No word was overpraised to this matchless army. Because Yun Xi’s White Emperor Mask could create such a frightening army, thereby the Water God’s camp stood a chance to defeat Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword.

Since that was the case, the Mist Soul Army deserved to have the best members. If there wasn’t a “limiting condition”, Yun Que had even wanted to let all the females in Water God’s world join Yun Xi’s Mist Soul Army.

“My... hero units...” Naturally, Hua Yue, Xiao Cao, Hua Huo, and the twin witches appeared inside Yun Xi’s mind.

With the Water God Temple’s help, Yun Xi had confirmed the locations of Hua Yue and Xiao Cao. The same as the other girls, they had also lost their memories and thought that they were natives. However, he couldn’t find any trace of Hua Huo and the twin witches, as if they had never appeared in the Water God’s world. Of course, that was impossible.

Yun Xi had an ominous presentiment. They had perhaps joined the other camp. Besides, Yun Xi hadn’t found Lu Lu yet. He was afraid for this little girl, who was cast upon the horrible desolate island whilst looking for her father.

“Yes, I have made a list...” Speaking of this, Yun Que hesitated for a while, then made her decision quickly.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained. If she wanted to win, she must risk everything. She wasn’t a “chosen one” like the man named “Yun Hai”. She had to pay a real price to win. In order to survive, she had given up any impracticable dreams from a long time ago.

Therefore, this is my own choice!

“You are... really pushy, Yun Que.” Yun Xi should have felt happy for having such a perfect partner, however, there was something he would never accept.

“For victory, I can be unscrupulous. You and I are just two waves in the river of fate, nothing more.” Yun Que turned around and left.

To survive, there is always something that people have to face, no matter whether they like it or not. Yun Hai, we must do it. It's unavoidable to both of them.

The wheel of fortune was still turning.

In the middle of the night, Yun Xi was walking on the street. Thin mist had wrapped his body and covered his mask, otherwise, he would get involved in trouble if he was recognized by others.

He was going to the seashore. Yun Que had told him that the first girl he should propose to was waiting for him there.

To be honest, Yun Xi didn't know how Yun Que had made the ranking list and who the mysterious "first girl" was. But, on Yun Que's list, this girl was the top priority, which meant that Yun Que thought that the girl could be the main core of Yun Xi's Mist Soul Army.

Who was this girl? Why did Yun Que have such a high opinion about her? Yun Xi was curious about it. In Yun Xi's mind, Yun Que was a serious man and would never bend his principle for selfish ends. Even frustration and crushing defeat wouldn't be able to shake his spirit and will, and he would definitely find the slimmest chance of survival in any hopeless situation.

He had learned his "Mind's Eye" in such a situation. As an archer, his attack was always deadly. Both his battle experience and strong will had let Yun Xi concede that he was better qualified. It wasn't a gap that could be filled within a short period.

Since he was so special, then who was the girl he specially chose for Yun Xi?

With curiosity, Yun Xi arrived at the seashore. Sitting amongst the jagged reefs, the girl was looking at the moon. Her slim figure looked lonely, and her black skin, sharp ears and the black bandages on her body had all exposed her race and identity.

Yun Xi froze. His body couldn't help but shiver.

It's her!

Chapter 205: Familiar and Strange

That night, as if Yun Xi was swimming in a tropical ocean, a sweet and hot feeling wrapped around his body.

She was warm, soft and gentle. Yun Xi had obtained his most amazing experience in that dream, which he hadn't learned during the summer before from the big sister.

So far, Yun Xi still remembered the sweetness of the dark elf's tongue and the marvelous, wonderful time they had spent together.

In her deep pupils, was his wildest desire that was hiding inside his heart, and his emotional expression relaxed after realizing this.

Pain and sadness. Yun Xi could sense a slight feeling of strangeness from her expression, as if she was suffering a great pain.

Her black hair was smooth, and her beauty was breathtaking, but her slim body shivered, and her groan sounded like she was bearing something.

During that night, he kissed her lips under the moonlight, and bit her neck with soft love.

She looked puzzled in his arms, and she always struggled to be free, but his hands tightly grasped her on his knees, and he kissed her in various ways.

His kiss was like the flowers that were falling, continuously dropping on her ears, cheeks, eyes, brows... she sighed and groaned, hesitating whether she should resist this comfortable experience, till he raised her chin and frantically sucked her tongue, she finally opened her eyes wild in fear.

Yun Xi had firmly remembered all her attractive appearances.

Her red lips were cold and soft at first, but soon afterwards, they became hot and smooth from his kissing. He could remember all the details, but... did it really happen? Or was it just his imagination?

Yun Xi couldn't figure out which part was his dream and which part was the reality, however, it was undoubtedly an unforgettable night, and he had decided to bury it in the deepest levels of his heart and keep it unseen. He hadn't expected this... WHY? IS? SHE? HERE?

Who is she? Where is she from? And why would she do it with him that night...

Yun Xi had too many questions, but when he tried to open his mouth, he found himself speechless, because he knew too little about her, and he didn't even know whether it was just a dream.

Was it really just a dream?

Yun Xi had never confirmed his feelings about it, till now, when he saw her face again. Making sure that she was as real as all living beings in the universe, finally, he understood that something had really happened between him and the dark elf girl that night.

Remembering the passionate scenes, Yun Xi's face turned red and hot. He could barely look at the dark elf girl, who was sitting on the reef and watching the tidewater washing across her slender feet.

Basking in the moonlight, somehow, she looked heartbreakingly lonely.

The vast sea and the silver moon formed a romantic background, but she was still alone, as if she had been abandoned by the whole world.

I want to reach for her and ask her what happened that night!

Yun Xi had an unprecedented, strong impulse in his heart.

"Are you there?" The dark elf girl heard Yun Xi's footsteps. She turned around and rose to her feet.

Her round toes were spreading a special young girl's aura. Her skin wasn't the healthy tan but night-like black, but her eyes looked so lonely... no, perhaps it was because she had been used to being lonely, so he couldn't find it in her pupils.

The assassins from the darkness were doomed to bear loneliness and act alone.

"Let me introduce myself to you. My name is Black Moon, a qualified dark elf commander and logistic officer. I have the experience to handle troops. I think I'm eligible to be your Mist Soul Army's commander," The dark elf said, espousing all her advantages.

Yun Hai's Mist Soul Army was the biggest trump card they had. She couldn't just sit quietly and look at Yun Xi wasting this ability.

Therefore, she must control his army, even though she hated to use this method.

But... why is Yun Hai's expression so strange? He looks excited, confused and nervous, as if this isn't our first meeting.

It's impossible, because I'm the "Black Obsidian", the lonely assassin, the Ten Leaves Alliance's elite and a rare dark elf. He shouldn't have seen my real self before.

She was from the darkness and would return to the darkness. Because of the justice she wanted to protect, she never had a long relationship with anyone.

"Black Moon" was just a fake name, but like the name "Yun Que", it also contained a special, old meaning.

In the legend, the Black Moon Prince was the child of the Dark God, just like “Yun Hai” who was beloved by the Water God.

“Black Moon... it’s a good name...” Yun Xi took a deep breath. He adjusted his mood and asked the dark elf girl, “Will you become my bride?”

Black Moon gazed at Yun Xi. Her answer would determine the world’s fate.

She knew that he wasn’t a reliable man. He had the god’s favour but didn’t understand its meaning.

He was beloved by the world and the god. He was the child of god, shining like the sun.

As for her, she had to hide in the darkness and couldn’t even have her own name. She had only her code name “Black Obsidian” and the borrowed name “Yun Que”, and even now, she still had to lie and use a new fake name.

But... it doesn’t matter. She had known it since the day of her birth.

She was always cursed by others, and lived in a world that was full of prejudice and discrimination. She watched the shining world in hell, and protected the “justice” in her heart there.

Only this principle was what she wouldn’t violate or doubt.

Even fighting till the last second, she wouldn't put down the sword in her hand.

For victory, she would be daring and unscrupulous.

This was the path she had chosen, the abandoned one's path of justice.

Chapter 206: Will You Accept Me?

"Yes, I have chosen you. Come and propose to me. I will become the most excellent Mist Soul in your army."

Yes, this was "Black Obsidian", and "Yun Que"'s choice.

He... no, she, for the fate she was carrying, she had to become strong at all costs.

She wouldn't care about other people's opinions, and wouldn't give up on a glimmer of hope.

She wasn't a chosen one like Yun Hai, so she must do her best to enhance herself.

She cherished the opportunity the Water God had given her, and she wouldn't allow her personal feelings to effect her judgement.

She didn't mind whether Yun Hai was a salacious scum or not, because she knew that he was this world's only hope.

“Well... you... I... can we?” Yun Xi said haltingly, looking at the dark elf girl.

She was different than Lu Lu, Ling Ling and Mei Lan!

Yun Xi didn't know why she was also involved in this world, perhaps she was also one of the passengers on the floating ship, White Lotus, but... proposing to her was totally different to proposing to the Starwings Knight girls!

“Why are you asking? Don't you like underage girls?” Black Obsidian looked at Yun Xi in surprise. She had confidence in her appearance. Dark Elf Race was a cursed race, but after losing their divine spirits, they had also obtained a dark-type physique and charming glamour to compensate.

According to what she had known about this man, he should feel weak to any irresistible and charmingly beautiful girls.

“No! That's not true!” Yun Xi shook his head like crazy. He didn't know the reason, but he wanted to show his most prominent side to her.

The Expansion Plan of A Million Brides and his Mist Soul Army were just the results of the stars' guiding. They weren't his true desires!

One bride was already enough. A million brides... was such a crazy thing that it shouldn't even appear in novels!

What a terrible world this world is!

“You... are special. You’re different than other girls.” Yun Xi tried to stop his heart from pounding. Why? They just stayed together, and he himself had become so strange. Was it because they had the experience of skin to skin? Or it was due to other reasons?

She hadn’t recognized Yun Xi. After all, after wearing the Water God’s Mask, even Yun Xi himself couldn’t recognize who this mature young man was.

“Special... why am I special?” Black Obsidian wondered. This man should think that this was their first meeting. She had took off her mask and withdrew her disguise, to appear in front of him using her true identity – a dark elf – because she thought that he knew nothing about her.

Then why weren’t his eyes saying that? They couldn’t have any contact before!

“In fact... I...” Yun Xi’s lips were dry and his mouth was parched. He tried, but couldn’t speak a word in front of her.

“Raise your head. You’re this world’s hope, so you must believe in yourself. I come here because I believe in you, do you understand?” Black Obsidian felt uncomfortable, but still comforted Yun Xi.

Her plan couldn’t fail. It was a must-be to be the commander of Yun Xi’s Mist Soul Army.

To this end, she wouldn’t allow any error.

“You believe in me?” Yun Xi looked at the dark elf girl. He had touched every place of her skin, but she still didn’t know that “he” was “he”.

“Yes, I believe in you. I believe that you can change this world.” This wasn’t a lie but the truth.

Black Obsidian was sure that Yun Xi was their only trump card to fight against Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword.

When the three High Priestesses first saw them, their expression had explained everything.

You’re watched by the god.

You’re blessed by the god.

You’re beloved by the god.

She didn’t need more evidence and had confirmed that Yun Xi was the chosen one of the Water God’s world.

She must support him, becoming his power, then obtain his power to grab the last victory.

Everything would be worthy, as long as she could win!

To accomplish this, she could even sacrifice herself.

Flamboyant slogans were meaningless, because she needed real power.

Since she couldn't obtain Yun Xi's White Emperor Mask, because it was Water God's charisma, at the least, she would try to secure control of the "Mist Soul Army". Otherwise, her "Expansion Plan of A Million Brides" would mean nothing.

"I will change the world? Do I have the power?" Yun Xi stretched out his fingers and stroked the silver mask on his face.

It was a fake power of the emperor to the god, but to this world, it was the supreme imperial crown.

So, I have to carry this fate on my back after putting on the White Emperor Mask?

"Yes, you're the chosen one, you're the beloved one. For the world, I swear to fight for you. So, propose to me! Let me become your bride!" Black Obsidian bared her feet and gazed at Yun Xi with a serious look.

"If... this is your hope, if this is what you want... then... then... I want you to be my bride!" Yun Xi said with his voice trembling.

It's different... it's totally different... this proposal! I should say it to my first love, I should say it to Hua Huo... Why did I say it so unthinkingly to her?!

Yun Xi's heart beat nervously. He waited for her answer, as if he was really proposing to his most beloved girl.

God, is this world abnormal or have I gone mad?

The great stars, why did you create this plan “To Love, Starchild!”?

“I’m... willing to be your bride. I’m willing to become the commander of your Mist Soul Army.” Black Obsidian let out a sigh of relief.

Finally, I did it.

It doesn’t matter. It isn’t dirty. It’s for victory, I have to do it.

Even though she had had an extremely bad impression of this man.

Chapter 207: The Unsuccessful Proposal

Under the silver moonlight, the dark elf girl gazed at Yun Xi with a firm look, waiting for his answer.

This was just one small step for this world... but was a giant leap for herself.

She wouldn’t allow any failure. At all costs, she must get engaged with this shameless, salacious bastard and obtain that position – the highest commander of the Mist Soul Army.

Silence. A stillness as if death hung over their heads. Yun Xi looked at himself first, then looked at the dark elf girl in confusion.

“It seems that... we failed?” Hesitating for a while, Yun Xi said aloud the truth. He had proposed to the dark elf and she had agreed to his proposal, but the marriage contract still hadn’t been established.

In the list of the Side Quest Four “To love, Starchild!”, there wasn’t the 108th bride.

Yun Xi didn’t know how to describe his mood, because he knew the reason why: She wasn’t really willing to become his bride, just like the mysterious black-haired woman, the Dark Shadow Spider queen.

“Failed? How can it be true?! Shouldn’t you feel weak to any irresistible and charmingly beautiful girls?” Black Obsidian sputtered.

Her plan all depended on whether she could control the Mist Soul Army. If she couldn’t accomplish this step, then this world wouldn’t have a future!

Why? This guy has had so many brides, why would he fail on such a simple thing?

Am I not good enough?!

Speaking of glamour, the dark elf girl had confidence in herself!

“It’s not my problem. I am being forthright with you!” Yun Xi quickly shook his head. He made up his mind to propose to the dark elf girl. This was his most sincere proposal even amongst all his 108 times of proposal.

If she was one of the Starwings Knight girls, he wouldn’t hesitate such a long time.

To him, this dark elf girl “Black Moon” was special. He wouldn’t be insincere, therefore, it wasn’t his problem, but...

“It’s not your problem. Indeed, your character...” After Black Obsidian cooled off, she had to admit that the “Yun Hai” she knew wouldn’t resist her charm.

“So, it’s my problem...” After making a painstaking analysis, Black Obsidian had finally realized that she herself was the biggest problem.

“The common point of your 108 times of proposal is...” Black Obsidian gazed at Yun Xi with an unbelieving look.

How can it be true? The 107 girls... they were all willing to marry this shameless bastard!

Weren’t they just influenced by his identity of Water God’s Apostle, so they couldn’t refuse him?

How could they be so stupid?! How could they make such a big mistake?!

“Yes, they did so voluntarily. None of them had refused my proposal. If they didn’t really want to marry me, then my proposal would not succeed, and they wouldn’t become the members of my Mist Soul Army. They must accept me from the bottom of their hearts,” Yun Xi said seriously, telling her the truth.

The Side Quest Four “To love, Starchild!” couldn’t be simply accomplished by agreeing to his proposal.

If the girls were being forced, the marriage contract would be invalid.

He had never forced any girl to marry him. They were all volunteering!

“Wait... let me sort out my feelings...” Black Obsidian’s mind was in a mess now.

The things that were happening was already beyond her understanding.

One man proposed to 107 girls and achieved success – except the Dark Shadow Spider queen, all the girls were volunteering to be his bride.

Could such a thing be allowed? Could such a thing really happen?

What’s wrong with this world? Has it been twisted?

If so... it meant that if she wanted to be the Mist Soul Army’s commander, she must voluntarily marry this bastard too.

“Don’t push yourself. It’s ok.” Yun Xi sighed. He had prepared to face this failure.

The dark elf girl, Black Moon, wasn’t a member of his Starwings Knight nor a native girl who admired the Water God’s Apostles.

She was a beautiful dark elf. How could she agree to a strange man’s proposal when they just met for the first time?

Yesterday, they didn’t know each other. If Yun Que didn’t bring her into contact with Yun Xi, they wouldn’t have met each other this night.

Let this night become a sweet dream! Since he could meet the girl on the romantic seashore, Yun Xi had felt fully satisfied.

“Why... how can it be... I... won’t give up!” Black Obsidian ground her teeth and pondered the conditions of success of Yun Xi’s proposal.

It isn’t his problem, the problem is that I must want to marry him from the bottom of my heart. Can I do it?

It was impossible. She hadn’t had any idea on how to have a love affair with anyone. Her fate and justice had determined that she must walk a lonely road.

Love was a luxury that she should never have.

But now, if she wanted to become the Mist Soul Army's commander and obtain the power to change this world, she must love this man and marry him willingly.

"In normal circumstances, it's impossible." Black Obsidian gasped and thought deeply.

I won't give up till the last second! Thinking, thinking, and keep thinking! Black Obsidian, you can't be beaten down so easily.

For victory, you must find a method to accept this man's proposal willingly!

If I can't accept him when I'm under normal circumstances, then... a pinpoint of light suddenly flashed through Black Obsidian's mind, like a lantern in the night.

Right! What if I'm in an abnormal situation?! What if I can't control myself and is in a confused state of mind?

She remembered that night, which she preferred to be buried in the deepest side of her heart and keep it unseen.

Chapter 208: Black Obsidian's Choice

Yun Xi looked at the dark elf with curiosity.

Even now, after his first proposal failed, he still didn't understand what she was thinking.

The encounter with her, the visions of her, and the hot, dreamy night with her... they were all too vague and visional.

If Yun Xi hadn't met her again this night, he would think that that night was just a wonderful and fantastic illusion, and that he failed to distinguish the boundary between the real world and the dream.

Till now, then she appeared in front of him and summoned that memory again.

He and she had spent such a night. He could vividly remember the soft touch of her skin, and...

No, I shouldn't keep remembering this! I can't tell her the truth. She doesn't know that this silver-masked man in front of her is "him".

"Let's go. I think I know a place that can help us solve this problem." Black Obsidian showed him a firm look, as if she had decided to dive into boiling water and walk on fire.

"We... can we really be together?" Yun Xi looked at the dark elf's slim body, wondering if he was still in a dream.

They were so close, yet so distant. He couldn't feel their hearts getting any closer.

She was so beautiful, and so lonely, like a fairy who had become accustomed to loneliness.

"This is necessary, because it's the only solution." Black Obsidian held Yun Xi's hand and frowned.

She had never expected to get into that uncontrollable state again, but she didn't have choice.

Her hand is small! Holding the dark elf's hand and feeling that touch, Yun Xi hoped that this moment would be eternal.

Yes, this is that touch. The things that happened that night wasn't a dream. It was a real memory!

The smooth, soft touch of her skin... it can't be wrong!

Walking on Caelian's misty street, Yun Xi had butterflies in his stomach.

Even though he had covered his true appearance with mist, he still felt that the people around them were looking at him and the dark elf with curiosity, as if they were some rare creatures.

Indeed, Black Obsidian had special black skin. To the Water God's world, she was undoubtedly a very rare creature.

"What is her race?!"

"She is too tanned. No... people can't have that skin by getting a tan!"

"Her skin is charming and beautiful!"

“Is she a girl taking part in the Apostle’s Marriage Ceremony?”

The people on the street were scattered, but they all looked at Yun Xi and Black Obsidian, and put most attentions to the dark elf girl.

“Here it is.” Black Obsidian ignored the people around them and arrived at the place with Yun Xi, a place that “good kids can’t go to”.

“A tavern?” Deep in the night, the tavern was still open. Maybe it was already about closing time. There was only the shopkeeper, an old man, sitting in the tavern.

“I will book the whole tavern. Take out the best wines and you can leave.” Black Obsidian’s voice sounded irresistible.

“Ok, you two customers, enjoy yourselves.” The old shopkeeper looked at the beautiful dark elf, then looked at Yun Xi’s nervous face, showing an explicit smile on his face.

“Pa!” With a snap, Black Obsidian had opened the bottle cap. It was a bottle of tequila that the shopkeeper purposely chose for them. Then, she firmly stared at the “fiery” tequila.

She didn’t carry a Golden Orchid with her, she had to hypnotize herself through quantity.

As an elite assassin, she had never been drunk, so she didn’t know how much she could drink.

As a qualified assassin, she wouldn't drink any alcohol and would put all her heart into the mission during the period.

In the past, she had once teamed up with a drunkard. As a matter of course, the drunkard caused a delay in the mission because he had drunk too much, and died under siege.

After that, Black Obsidian was always on guard against alcohol. Even though she always carried the best wine-making material, Golden Orchid with her, she had never tried to drink any alcohol.

She had indeed used the Golden Orchid when she was grievously wounded, but it was just a forced choice.

She had no Golden Orchid now, so, she had to drink to hypnotize herself. She was a person who liked everything to go according to plan and she hated to meet any accidents. So now, she had to commit a crime on herself.

Under normal circumstances, she couldn't force herself to accept "Yun Hai"'s proposal.

Therefore, for victory and for hope, she had to be "abnormal".

"Goo... this..." Yun Xi looked around the room uncomfortably.

Deep in the night, in a closed room, a man and a woman and wine... Whatever Yun Xi thought, he was in a very "dangerous" situation.

“For... justice!” Black Obsidian ground her teeth. She picked up the bottle and poured the liquid into her mouth.

“Wait, that’s tequila!” Yun Xi was flabbergasted after realizing the words on the bottle.

Tequila wine was a fiery spirit made by the juice of tequila. It looked transparent, but had a high alcohol content. Ordinary people would be drunk after a few sips, naturally, no one wouldn’t drink it in this way except newbies.

“What... are you... saying?” Black Obsidian’s eyes looked vacant. She wasn’t completely drunk, but her dewy eyes had made Yun Xi’s heart beat faster.

“Let me drink with you,” Yun Xi sighed. For the first time after arriving at the Water God’s world, he had such a fantastic feeling.

As a baker, he wouldn’t choose strong spirits like tequila. Instead, he picked up a bottle of red wine and sipped it.

In the dim tavern, Black Obsidian had drunk three bottles of tequila. Her eyes had half closed.

“Hiccup... Why? Why is this world so unfair?!” The situation was going the way Black Obsidian had expected. Normally, she wouldn’t say these words, but now, she was showing her deepest feelings to Yun Xi.

Her shy and cute appearance combined to make a fatal attraction to Yun Xi.

Chapter 209: The Birth of the King

She felt as if she had returned to her childhood.

Only corpses were piled up on the inescapable battlefield.

There was no “justice” in this land. She had to struggle for survival and had no time to think about anything apart from this.

Beside her ears, she could still hear the evil god’s roaring. It was extremely ruthless, mocking the whole downtrodden Dark Elf Race.

The chosen people of hell, fear, caves and traps will accompany you all your lives! The people in the soil, wake up and sign the contract with death!

Release the seal! Start singing and laughing! Offer your lives to me!

Come to the “Grand Banquet” I am holding. The evil god’s game was continuing. The despair was spreading.

Then, a red arrow flew to the evil god from the sky. It broke and shattered everything, it burned the earth and ignited the sky.

Ah, it’s her! She is the justice I’ve been waiting for!

The flames from the heroine's arrow burned all the evils into ashes. She sacrificed herself and obtained the victory at last.

Black Obsidian hated herself, because she was too weak at that time. She could do nothing but watch the events unfold.

For that moment, she had understood, that for justice, power was necessary and for victory, one must pay a price!

The so-called heroes were the people who could sacrifice themselves for their justice.

Hence, she wanted to be such a hero. She wanted to protect her justice.

For this, she could be unscrupulous, as long as it was necessary.

She wanted to win. She wanted to obtain the victory more than anyone, because only the victor had a future.

...

"You~! You are really a bastard!" Black Obsidian said drunk. She shook the bottle in her hand and stared at Yun Xi with her bleary-eyed eyes.

“What’s in your brains that would make you accept 107 brides?! It’s so abnormal, and the world is abnormal too! Don’t you feel strange?”

Yun Xi looked at the dark elf in embarrassment.

Indeed. It is abnormal, but... it is the will of the Great Stars! It seems that the Great Stars has a different understanding about “love” than me.

“You’re drunk, Black Moon.” Yun Xi stretched out his hand and touched the dark elf’s hot forehead.

How many bottles of tequila had she drunk? A bottle of tequila could knock out a hulking hunk, and she had lined up a row of empty bottles in front of her.

“Not... not enough...” Black Obsidian stood up with a kind of stagger, then opened another bottle of tequila.

Her mind hadn’t been completely messed up yet. She still knew what she was saying. If she couldn’t make herself lose her sanity, it wouldn’t be possible to accept this man’s proposal.

“Goo!” As if she had given up on herself, Black Obsidian poured the liquid in the bottle into her mouth again.

“Ga!” As if the bottom line had finally been broken up, Black Obsidian felt dizzy, as if the world was twisting and rotating in her eyes.

She seemed pretty well lubricated. Yun Xi looked at the dark elf with a bitter smile.

“I want... to dance... I want to become the most beautiful, unique princess.” Suddenly, Black Obsidian’s eyes became soft and gentle. Throughout the chaos deep in her mind, she became a little girl again, without knowing anything about “slaughter” and “war”.

Anyone could have such a dream. In this particular dream, the world was sunny and happy. As a bloody assassin living in the darkness, she had read a tale and had a fairytale dream. In the dream and her fairytale, the princess with glass slippers was dancing with the prince in a magnificent hall.

However, she refused to accept the absurd end of the fairytale, and only felt envious of the happy time the prince and the princess were dancing together. Even in the fairytale, and in her dream, she didn’t have the extravagant hopes to have a happy end.

So, she only wanted to dance. Giving up everything and putting on the magical glass slippers and the gorgeous princess dress, she wanted to dance with her prince.

“Come here... come dance with me.” Being immersed in her fantastic dream, Black Obsidian stretched out her hand to Yun Xi.

“As you wish, the most beautiful princess in the world.” Yun Xi was also moved. Subconsciously, he held Black Moon’s hand.

There was no music, but there was a fantastic rhythm echoing between them.

“No... I’m not the princess. If I can, I prefer to become a prince to save the world.” Black Obsidian confided.

Even in the dream, she had never hoped to be saved. She knew the ruthlessness of this reality, so she wouldn't rely on anyone.

Therefore, she wouldn't be in love, and wouldn't become anyone's plaything. She refused to become the best princess in the universe.

"Yeah. If it's what you want, you can be the prince." Yun Xi could feel that the barrier between them was melting like ice.

She was shining at this moment and was very much brighter than anyone else. She was like a perfect gem that was born out of the darkness, dazzling and sparkling.

No matter how she thought about herself, a prince or a princess, her charm had made Yun Xi's heart beat faster.

Under the dim light, her lips looked sweet and irresistible, just like the scent Yun Xi remembered that night.

"Therefore, you play the princess! I won't accept to be proposed as a princess, but... if you are the princess and I'm the prince, it's okay." Being drunk in her dream, a "genius" idea suddenly popped out from Black Obsidian's mind.

Yes, the solution is right here. Oh, I'm really a genius! Since I don't want to be the princess, then I will become the prince!

“As you wish.” Yun Xi looked at Black Moon gently. He didn’t want to wake her up from her sweet fantasy.

“If you like, then, I, the princess, will propose to the great Prince Black Moon!”

“Yes, I’m not the princess. I want to be the king, to conquer all and dominate all, even if my crown will be stained with sin! All mankind, show your loyalty to your king!” Black Obsidian raised her right hand, then, a transparent sword appeared in her palm.

The sword was forged with her justice, her victory and her belief. It was a sword of justice and sin.

She named it “Black Moon”. It was her lifetime of sin and her glorious crown.

It was either a sword or an archer. It was her special artifact.

“Yes, I present my loyalty to my king!” Yun Xi looked at Black Obsidian with his bleary-eyed eyes, then, he gently covered her mouth with his kiss.

Chapter 210: The 108th Bride

The moment Yun Xi kissed Black Moon’s soft lips, the Star System in his mind erupted with brilliant lights again.

His 108th bride was different from the first 107 brides, because she had become a strong hero-ranked woman.

No, it wasn't the hero ranked field power that her Water God's Mask had granted her. She was already a real hero. Especially after confirming her belief and persistence.

After walking across endless battlefields, and being stained with blood, for the justice in her heart. Black Obsidian finally achieved her dream.

Become a hero!

She had finally surpassed the limit of her flesh and blood. Stepping on the road leading to immortality.

Black Obsidian wouldn't give up hope until the very last moment, and would always do her best to find the slimmest chance of survival from countless dead ends.

Black Obsidian was such a hero. Even though she had been drunk, she still didn't dream to be a princess. Compared to being a princess to be saved, she preferred to be the prince to save everyone else.

Yun Xi respected and responded to her hopes. He proposed to her, not as a prince but as a princess.

Yun Xi gently kissed her, like a dragonfly skimming the surface of the water. His kiss was continuous and soft, arousing the very deepest memory in Black Obsidian's heart.

She had always attempted to forget that memory, but her body had remembered it firmly. Gradually, she relaxed and opened her mouth, relinquishing to Yun Xi's probing tongue.

His tongue explored her small mouth and finally found her tongue in this lubricious world. Then, they forgot everything and drunkenly played with each other's tongue. This sweet, soft feeling was so comfortable, it was as if their bodies were melting.

"Puff..." After this fairly intense kiss, Black Moon took a deep breath and looked at Yun Xi with her drunken eyes.

"My... princess..." Black Moon said.

"If that is your wish, my prince." breathed Yun Xi.

Their genders and characters seemed to be exchanged at this moment, but they were both inebriated, so they didn't think that it was so strange.

This was the prince and the princess's dance party. Holding each other's hands, they had forgotten everything.

"More... I need more." Black Moon's whisper was sweet and seductive.

"As you wish." Yun Xi lowered his head and kissed her again.

This was a sweet and soft kiss, and it would be a very, very long night.

The young girl had taken off her shell and exposed her most supple part, becoming a girl who dreamed to be a "prince".

And the young boy had also responded to her as the “princess”, wisely offering her a sweet dream as the “prince”.

Just like the fountains all over the city, this night was filled with bubbling happiness.

Yun Xi could feel the acrid taste of tequila in his mouth. It seemed like Black Moon was pouring the tequila into his mouth with her mouth. Just before Yun Xi fell into a deep sleep due to drunkenness, he vaguely heard a familiar spell.

“Trace... on...”

“Oww!” Yun Xi, feeling that his head was swollen and so painful that he couldn’t even maintain the Water Mist Field around him.

“Are you awake? Congratulations, you have obtained the strongest bride.” Yun Que’s voice suddenly reverberated inside of Yun Xi’s ears.

Yun Xi wasn’t sure about if it was an illusion, but... Yun Que’s voice sounded much colder today, as if he was reluctantly talking to a filthy thing.

“She... aren’t you the person who introduced her to me?” Yun Xi shook his head carefully and tried to remember what happened last night.

Black Moon's passion still remained between his lips. He still remembered her cold mouth. He would never feel tired if he were to repeat the process of making it hot again!

But, what had happened next? Yun Xi could vaguely remember that he held her in his arms, then that strange feeling appeared again. He failed to confirm if it was a dream or reality. Did we cross that last boundary, or was it just another illusion? Yun Xi didn't know, but his body felt very comfortable, as if he just tasted the most wonderful fruit last night.

"Yes... I let her walk into your tiger-like mouth and become your victim," Yun Que said reluctantly, as if he were punishing himself.

Even if it was for victory, that price was too high.

This guy didn't warn me that his brides must be willing to marry him! If I had known that earlier, I would have spent more time working out a plan... but, the result probably wouldn't change. Yun Que sighed.

Yun Hai was the sole owner of the White Emperor Mask, and so, the only one who had the potential to defeat Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword. As long as this fact didn't change, she had to sacrifice herself, no matter how unreasonable the whole event was.

Last night, she made herself drunk, so that she could deceive herself into accomplishing that "impossible quest".

Even now, she had no interest in remembering what had happened last night, and what despicable method that bastard had used to deceive her into accepting his proposal.

She had buried this memory in her deep subconsciousness.

She was drunk at that time, so she wasn't herself. She was just an innocent little girl who was drunk and cheated last night.

She couldn't accept it, even after she found that last night, she had entered the fourth rank without any warning.

It should have been a memorable time in her life, but due to the things that happened last night, it had become an indelible blot staining her life.

Therefore, she hated this man all the more.

No one could be more contemptible than this man in this world!
