

Starchild 211

Chapter 211: Her Odour

Why? How could this man propose to 108 girls without hesitation?

He is just a bastard who luckily obtained the Water God's favour. Apart from this, he is just a lazy idiot. Even though his power could change the entire world, he still doesn't know to use it.

If I had his power, I would have already... Yun Que shook her head. She didn't want to waste her time on thinking about the things that wouldn't happen.

She was already an adult now. She had known the brutality of this existence. She knew the eternal rule in the universe of "no pain, no gain".

Not everyone had the good fortune to be loved by a god.

"Even the infinite love from millions of people, it wouldn't be more than the love you have granted to him. You have the whole world, but you only love this boy. Even though the world would end in misfortune, you would only offer the boy honour and hope," Yun Que chanted. It was the dialogue from a famous opera in Western God's Domain, but it was also fit for their current situation. She knows just how wide the gap between "Yun Hai" and her really was.

Therefore, sacrifice is necessary.

No matter what shameful things she had done last night, she had achieved her final goal in the end. Even though she couldn't remember the whole event. She still washed her mouth and body immediately after she opened her eyes this morning.

What had she seen and what had she believed? What made her agree to this bastard's proposal?

Submersing in an undue sense of guiltiness, Yun Que blamed herself. Why would I agree to this man's prerequisite, and what had he done to me? She thought with a shudder.

Nothing in the world could make her feel more thrilled, unless it was the "thing" she had never seen before.

She felt nervous and anxious, because she found that there was an unknown "self" lurking in her body. That "self" must be a slutty girl who was always immersed in desire and happiness, otherwise, she didn't think that she would agree to that bastard's proposal due to "love".

"I'm Sorry, I was too rude to that girl last night," said Yun Xi. Unlike Yun Que, who had subconsciously forgotten the things that had happened last night, Yun Xi could remember all the details that was apart from the dreamy feeling.

To Yun Que, it was a painful and disturbing night, which was much worse than the experience in the valley. At the least, she had no choice in the valley. But this time, she was willing to let down her defenses and deceive herself, and did the things she would never want to remember.

To Yun Xi, it was a fantastic, stimulating night.

The mysterious, beautiful Black Moon gave herself to him after getting drunk, exposing her innocent and supple side in front of him.

Her dream was different from all the girls he had seen. Even Yun Xi's childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo, didn't have such a dream.

This girl was strong and independent, because she did not and would not ever rely on anyone. Compared to being the princess to be saved, she preferred to be the prince to save the princess.

No matter where she was from or what race she was, since she had such a belief, she would undoubtedly have a free, wind-blown life. The black artifact Yun Xi had seen last night was the crystallization of her belief and the assurance of her life.

"Black Moon... is a good girl." Yun Xi didn't feel any regret proposing to her, because she was really mysterious, beautiful, and charming.

Even compared to Hua Huo, Milei, Ye Li and El'phyllis, her mysterious charm was still unique.

"Thank you, Yun Que. Your information was right. She is entitled to be my Mist Soul Army's commander. Can I see her again?" Yun Xi looked at Yun Que with expectation.

Waiting for Yun Que's answer, Yun Xi couldn't stop his heart from beating faster.

"No, you won't ever see her again. Never!" Yun Que said decisively.

What a bad joke! I have paid so much, and you still want more... As expected, you are just a scumbag!

If it wasn't for the Water God's quest and this world's future, I would never stay beside such a man.

Why him? Why did you choose him? The great Water God, you must be mistaken or something!

“Oh... I see...” Yun Xi sighed. He had expected it.

The encounter with her was so abrupt, as if the threads of their fates just accidentally crossed together.

Before last night, he had never expected that he would meet her again, especially in the Water God’s world, and signed the special contract with her.

“But, as long as we are still alive, someday we will meet again, isn’t that right?” Yun Xi smiled. He had firmly remembered Black Moon’s odour and appearance in his heart. If they encountered each other again, he wouldn’t miss her.

“No, I don’t think so. You’d just bring disaster to her,” Yun Que retorted. She smashed Yun Xi’s dream without mercy.

You won’t meet “her” again!

After I accomplish the Water God’s quest, I will stay away from you as far away as East is from the West!

Every second I stay beside you is just a kind of torture.

You are my last choice for a mate in the universe to me!

“Hum? Did you wear perfume?” Yun Xi sniffed. He smelled a strange fragrance from Yun Que’s body.

“It’s not perfume! No!” Yun Que spluttered.

As expected, I hate this man! I hate him even more than Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword!

Chapter 212: The Water Mist Field Is Expanding!

“You bastard, go on out and deceive the other innocent girls of this world!” Yun Que said in anger. As Yun Xi looked at him in confusion, he kicked open the wooden door and ran away.

“That bastard! I have washed myself three times and I can still smell his odour on my body. Disgusting!” Yun Que decided to wash herself ten more times today to wash off his damn odour.

She would never forget this disgrace!

“Why was he so angry? He was the person who introduced Black Moon to me!” Yun Xi wondered. Looking in the direction where Yun Que disappeared, he realized that Yun Que was really upset at seeing him today.

Maybe Yun Que is too upright and honest. Yun Xi thought. Since Yun Que didn’t know of my strange Side Quest Four, “To love, Starchild!”, it’s excusable for Yun Que to think that “Yun Hai” was a scumbag.

In fact, Yun Xi also thought that he shouldn’t propose to so many girls. It really sucks. But... there was no way that the Stars would let him stop!

This was the only way the Stars had pointed out for him to save this world!

Browsing the Star System in his mind, Yun Xi sighed again.

There were two main quests. One was to help the Water God and the other was to help the Sky Sword. Because he had been chosen to be the Water God's Apostle, the quest of "becoming the Sky Sword's subordinate" had turned grey.

"Optional Side Quest One: Girl Fights Evil Dragon. A brave girl is looking for an evil dragon! You can choose this side mission after you join human camp."

Because Yun Xi had joined the Water God's camp, this side quest had become unselectable. However, Yun Xi knew that it hinted that Hua Huo and the twin witches were fighting against an evil dragon somewhere.

"Optional Side Quest Two: The Apostle's Call. A great Apostle has reached this world. Swear your loyalty to her and become a Dragon God's subordinate! You can choose this side quest after you join Water God's camp."

This side quest was still vague, because Yun Xi hadn't known who the Apostle was.

"Optional Side Quest Three: The Truth of the Mist. The people on the island are living in a world that is surrounded by endless mist. Go find the secret and expose the truth!"

The current situation of this side quest is: You have finished the first phase of the Side Quest Three and have obtained the White Emperor Mask's power. Go inside the mist and find the strongest monster: Mist Demon!

To Yun Xi, the Side Quest Three was most likely to be achieved in a very short time.

"Optional Side Quest Four: To Love, Starchild! Life is too short, just enjoy it! Propose to as many girls as possible! After obtaining their marriage contracts, you can have the girls' power. You are never alone!"

It seemed to be a quest that was impossible to be achieved, but Yun Xi had made great progress on this. Because it didn't limit the number of Yun Xi's brides, so Yun Que could help Yun Xi make the "Expansion Plan of A Million Brides" work.

"Secret Quest: ???, This will be available after you have finished three side quests."

It seemed that this quest was lacking information, but... if Yun Xi had had a guess. It was very likely that this quest was about Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword.

"Reading the quests again, I suddenly find that they are really difficult!" Yun Xi had a feeling that he had just taken the first step in a long march, and the first step was accomplished completely due to his 108 brides.

"Let me test how strong I am now." Yun Xi took a deep breath as the Water Mist spread around him.

Black Moon was the first hero ranked bride in his Mist Soul Army, and the power from her had surpassed all the other 107 brides combined. Naturally, she was the most important one as the core of his Mist Soul Army.

For the first time, Yun Xi obtained tremendous power from a hero ranked person. His powers were bolstered.

The first was his visual field. In the past, he could vaguely see the things within the range of ten kilometres with the help of his Water Mist Field. And now, he just stood on the roof and could see the bricks ten kilometres away with his naked eyes.

“Is this the so-called ‘Clairvoyance’?” Looking around, Yun Xi’s pupils contracted. Instantly, he had firmly remembered the city’s terrain in his brain.

He had a photographic memory now, it wasn’t his talent, but a natural ability he had obtained after his mind had been strengthened countless times. It was an ability that was close to the limit of mortals, the ability only the best archers could have.

Not only that, but his breathing and heartbeat had been adjusted spontaneously also.

It wasn’t a secret breathing method like what he had learned from Hua Huo, but a talent learned from countless battles, which had become a natural state of his body.

“Fog up!” Yun Xi raised his right hand. Under his control, the water mist sublimated and arose from the fountains and streams and covered the whole city.

Instantly, Caelian has become a City of Mist. Some girls of the aquatic races had risen up and bathed in the fountains and streams. Now they cheered with happiness.

Yun Xi's Water Mist Field contained a trace of the Water God's power, which was very good for these, the Water God's people's bodies. No wonder that they had an extremely happy look on their faces.

Ten kilometres, twenty kilometres... finally, Yun Xi's Water Mist Field had covered the area in the range of fifty kilometres, covering half of the city inside it.

"Five times larger than before?" Yun Xi mumbled. No wonder Yun Que recommended Black Moon to him. She was surely the strongest one amongst all the girls in his Mist Soul Army.

Yun Xi thought, and in that very moment, Black Moon's Mist Soul had appeared beside him.

She was confident and strong, mysterious and beautiful. After condensing from the mist, she held the black sword in her hand, standing beside Yun Xi like a prince.

Chapter 213: Three Targets

"We meet again..." Looking at the girl in front of him, although Yun Xi knew that it was just a shell formed by mist, he still immersed himself in her dangerous and mysterious aura.

She was different from all the other Mist Souls, because she had a strong determination in her eyes, as if nothing in the world could shake her will.

Yun Xi's heart was beating fast. Unfortunately, she wasn't real. Mist Souls were just a simulation of the real people. It just reflected a part of her aura, not her whole person.

After all, his White Emperor Mask wasn't the almighty.

Where were you from? And why did you come to me?

You wanted to become a prince. Did you get your wish?

Yun Xi stretched out his hand and touched the Mist Soul.

He felt cold on his fingers. It was natural, because the Mist Soul was just an agglomeration of water. This was Mist Soul's unalterable nature, and the reason why they couldn't die.

After all, they were only an army taking the place of real people.

"What am I looking forward to..." Yun Xi couldn't help laughing for his foolish enthusiasm to a mist shape of Black Moon.

Yes, she didn't belong to him. Even though she had agreed to his proposal, Black Moon wasn't his lover.

She was like the cloud in the sky, which could be seen but could never be touched.

The time spent with her, was happy and memorable. However, she still refused to become his lover. Unlike the Starwings Knight girls, she was independent and free.

"You must be carrying a very heavy fate on your back..." Black Moon didn't tell him anything new, but Yun Xi could see it in her eyes.

Her eyes were calm and cold, so beautiful and so dangerous. She must have experienced countless fights.

He had been lured by her eyes, and his heart had been overthrown by her. He was having a sweet dream and didn't want to wake up.

"Then, let's fight together!" After realizing that the Mist Soul wasn't really her, Yun Xi immediately adjusted his attitude with his searing eyes.

Even though they couldn't be a couple, at the least, he had the Mist Soul as the proof of their love.

"Shuffle!" The Mist Soul held the black sword's blade up towards the front with an indifferent look.

Undoubtedly, under Yun Xi's permission, she had become the Mist Soul Army's commander and achieved her goal.

A black flower was blooming in Yun Xi's garden!

Yun Xi didn't know the reason, and one thing he was sure about, that they had never cooperated with each other before. But he could naturally understand the Mist Soul's thinking. As the strongest Mist Soul, she not only had a great executive ability but also could act alone as well.

"You take them to defend the south, north and western areas, and I will go to the eastern coastline, visiting the Lamia Race." Yun Xi assigned the task in an orderly manner.

Yun Que's Expansion Plan seemed to be imprudent, but it really was built on facts.

Apart from the mysterious dark elf Black Moon, who had become his Mist Soul Army's commander, the remaining three goals were all very important, even to the whole of Water God's world.

On Yun Que's list, the second, the third and the fourth person all had the same identity: the Water God's High Priestess.

It wasn't because of their influence in the world. The sequence was decided based on their power.

The Lamia Queen was the queen of sea demons and the oldest hero ranked being in the whole of Water God's world. Undoubtedly, she was the strongest one amongst the three High Priestesses, so she could be recorded as the second on Yun Que's list.

The Mermaid Queen was the third, and the Caelian Queen, the highest ranking human in the Water God's world, was the fourth.

Yes, Yun Que had already written them on the list a long time ago. To her plan, the power from the three High Priestesses was indispensable.

"Since you're so good at deceiving girls into marrying you, then try your best to capture the three High Priestesses' hearts with the fastest possible speed. Remember, they are very important to my plan. No matter whether they have married or not, you must let them join your Mist Soul Army!"

Looking at Yun Que's familiar handwriting on the business plan, Yun Xi twisted his mouth.

Yun Que, you really misunderstand me! I have never beguiled any girl into marrying me!

But... Yun Que was also right. If he wanted to defeat Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword, then he needed to strengthen his Mist Soul Army to its and his limit. For this, the three High Priestesses were really necessary.

“Three hero ranked High Priestesses. With them, my Mist Soul Army can finally become fully operational. But... I don’t know any of them. How can I propose to them?” Looking at the scarce information Yun Que had collected for him, Yun Xi had no ideas in his mind.

The three High Priestesses were too exalted. Naturally, Yun Que couldn’t find sufficient information about them by any ordinary method.

Now, Yun Xi was reading the Lamia Queen’s information again and again.

“The Lamia Queen is the leader of the Lamia Race. She is already thousands of years old, and has had hundreds of descendants. She is the strongest Lamia in the Lamia Race’s whole history.”

“Marriage status: unknown, because no one has witnessed any male Lamias.”

“Her dating experience should be very rich, after all, she has hundreds of descendants.”

“Anyway, go ahead and have faith in yourself! No matter whether she is a queen or a wife, it shouldn’t be a problem to you!”

Chapter 214: Lamia's Game

On the seashore not far away from Caelian, Yun Xi was sitting on the reef and thinking.

Splash! Splash! Sea waves splashed on the reefs.

“Ah ha ha ha ha!” About a hundred metres away from Yun Xi, a dozen Lamia girls were playing.

However, their game was different from human games.

A one meter blue water ball rotated, rose and fell in the sea with an ear-piercing whistle. It was about half a ton in weight, causing a series of circular ripples everytime it rolled.

These Lamia girls were playing with this frightful water ball with their screw like tails, having an intense competition.

If ordinary people saw this scene, they would be frightened into a cold sweat, because the water ball's weight was over half a ton. If ordinary people got hit by it, they would undoubtedly be severely injured. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to consider it as a kind of “magical weapon”.

However, these Lamias could wrap and pat this frightful water ball with their tails at their command. To them, it was just a method used to practice their control force.

Lamias had a strong tail, enduring physique, and a powerful bloodline. Their strength was even stronger than the green hippo. No wonder that they were called Sea Demons.

After observing for a while, Yun Xi thought that he knew the reason why the people in Caelian didn't like to get close to the Lamia Race.

Compared to the Mermaid girls, who had excellent talent for arts and were approachable, the Lamias looked strange and their strength was very dangerous to humans.

It was said that their method of showing their love was to coil around their lovers with their screw like tails, but their tails were so strong that they could even strangle a hippo easily! Imagine it: an ordinary person was wrapped up by their tail because they wanted to show their love... that feeling of dread and despair could scare away anybody.

The gap between the Lamia Race and mankind was just too wide. Suppose, if a Lamia girl just sneezed, then the person that was coiled in her tail would've been squeezed to death.

However, from what Yun Xi had seen, such a thing wasn't very likely to happen.

The Lamias could control the water ball easily. It showed that they had confidence in controlling their strength.

They were born with such a tenacious strength! Under the tutelage of the older Lamias, they learned how to control their strength through games.

Their long tails looked dreadful to humans, but to themselves, their long tails were the most important battle organs.

They could even move at high speed on the ground with their tails, and their explosive force was also higher than that of a human's ultimate.

"What a strong race!" Yun Xi exclaimed.

No wonder that Yun Que instructed him to propose to the Lamia Queen. The Lamia Race could become a strong force to his Mist Soul Army.

However, Yun Xi felt a bit awkward now, because he couldn't find any chance to intervene into the Lamia girls' game.

Although there were already many dozens of Lamias that had arrived at Caelian, they rarely talked to humans.

They formed several small parties and swam in the streams of the city, exploring around in this old Water God city with curiosity.

Because the Lamia Queen was one of the High Priestesses, humans couldn't refuse them to enter the city, however, they also didn't know how to deal with these appalling, half human half snake creatures, so they could only pretend that these Lamias did not exist.

The Lamias didn't know how to get along with other intelligent species too. Occasionally, they would talk to the girls from the Mermaid Race, but most of the time, they wandered around the city alone.

Yun Xi had searched half of the city, and finally found them on the eastern seashore. He didn't expect that they would not live in the magnificent palaces, but preferred to live in the dark caves besides the sea.

Yun Xi waited in front of the cave for half an hour, then, he saw the Lamias swimming out of the cave. In the lead was several old Lamias, they played a game of water ball on the sea to practice for themselves.

The game's rule was simple: the playground was a narrow rectangle that was about one kilometre long. The Lamia girls were divided into two teams, and the goal was to shoot the water ball into the other team's goal area.

They could beat and bump their opponents with their tails, but couldn't use their hands. No matter what method they were using, as long as they could shoot the water ball into the other team's goal area, their team would get a point.

The competition was intense, because the Lamias were striving with all their might for the win. They had used various hitting skills with their tails, which was really an eye opening experience to Yun Xi.

"Boom!" Occasionally, such a dead sound would echo through the playground. It was the strongest blow from the strongest Lamias. Everytime such a sound appeared, it would mean that one team had scored a point again.

Without using any magic, they simply patted the water ball with their screw like tails. Even so, the water ball had been accelerated to a speed that could smash any human in front of it into minced meat.

"Is it a kind of military manoeuvres?" Looking at them, Yun Xi's forehead was covered with sweat.

If they shot such a water ball on the battlefield, it would undoubtedly plough a long, deep gouge in the ground.

“No. They are just playing, and the water ball is just for training. When we are on the battlefield, we would normally squeeze the water ball ten times tighter than the training water ball.” Yun Xi heard a gentle voice besides his ear, and then, he felt that a cold, flexible thing had wrapped around his waist.

Chapter 215: His Identity was Revealed

The long, screw like tail wrapped around Yun Xi’s waist and felt him with curiosity, making Yun Xi find himself both tickled and annoyed .

He didn’t expect that he would meet a Lamia in this situation, even though this was what he wanted.

Before he had wasted any effort, the Lamia had come to him herself in this “cordial” method, which could frighten ordinary people to death.

“Hey, big brother, you smell good. What’s your race?” This Lamia was the youngest amongst all the Lamias that had arrived at Caelian.

Compared to the older Lamias, whose tails were about six or seven metres, her tail was only about three metres, therefore, she couldn’t join her sisters’ water ball practice, and could only play with a half a metre water ball alone.

When she was playing with the water ball, she found something strange amongst the mist on the reefs.

As the youngest, she was the last one who had seen the “Sailing Jellyfishes”, who were known as the Lamia Race’s great mothers. The memory about sailing jellyfishes was still vivid in her mind, so she could naturally feel the sailing jellyfish like aura emanating from the “creature” in the mist.

Of course, if the other Lamias had touched the mist, they would notice it also.

After all, sailing jellyfishes were the Lamia's great mothers, because almost all the Lamias was born with a part of the sailing jellyfish's gene. In fact, the Lamias weren't turning a blind eye to Yun Xi, but his mist had deceived all the girls' eyes.

If this young Lamia hadn't come to the reefs to play water ball and noticed the mist due to this, Yun Xi wouldn't have been found by the Lamias even after a day.

Because his body was covered by the water mist, the young Lamia couldn't see Yun Xi's appearance with her eyes, so she coiled around him with her tail and touched his body with it.

"This is your hand, and this is your leg. Strange, you are not a deep sea octopus nor a shellfish. Who are you, big brother?" Wrapping around Yun Xi's waist with her screw like tail, the girl asked Yun Xi in confusion.

Deep sea races often covered their bodies in mist when they went onto land, so the young girl thought that Yun Xi could be a deep sea demon. This was also the reason why Yun Xi could cover himself in mist when he was walking on the street, because people thought that he was a deep sea demon too.

"Are you a Mermaid? But big brother, you don't have a tail!" The young Lamia remembered and couldn't think of any deep sea race that was like Yun Xi.

In order to ascertain Yun Xi's true face, she coiled Yun Xi in her tail tightly and moved herself around to face him.

“Ok, I will show myself!” Yun Xi surrendered. It seemed that he couldn’t keep hiding.

Fortunately, he was going to talk to the Lamias from the beginning.

Yun Xi dispelled his Water Mist Field and showed his face to the young girl.

“Your face... I have never seen such beautiful horns...” Looking at Yun Xi’s silver mask in surprise, the young Lamia could sense the special energy in the silver horns on Yun Xi’s mask.

This was the first time, she was so close to the Water God’s power. The god power in the horns was even heavier than the Lamia’s great mothers, the “Sailing Jellyfishes”.

“Big brother, you must be from one of the strongest illusory magic sea races.” The young girl looked at Yun Xi with her eyes sparkling.

As the youngest Lamia, she hadn’t touched anything with such a strong “Sea Demon” feeling before. It was said that there were some rare races living in the deepest seas, who had the ability to change their shapes at will.

“No, I’m not a sea demon, and they are not my horns. Look, it’s just a mask.” Yun Xi told the young girl to touch his silver mask.

“It’s beautiful, and cold. Is it part of you?” The young Lamia licked Yun Xi’s mask with her tongue, then his cheek and ear.

Compared to “coiling somebody in their tails”, which was too intimate as an etiquette, licking each other’s ear was far more intimate an etiquette to Lamias.

“It was a gift from the great Water God.” Yun Xi looked at the young girl. Obviously, compared to the Lamias that were playing the water ball, she was still young in both mind and body. Even so, she still had the Lamia Race’s most striking features: enchanting eyes, vertical pupils and flexible body.

Coiling around Yun Xi’s body with her tail, she could do it as naturally as breathing.

In close contact with the girl, Yun Xi could feel the wonderful touch of her body. Her body was so soft as if she didn’t have bones, which was really disturbing to Yun Xi’s mind.

“A gift from the great Water God? Big brother, can you be that man?” The young girl’s pupils contracted. Due to nervousness, her tail coiled around Yun Xi’s waist tightly.

If Yun Xi was an ordinary person, he would have been squeezed to death.

Yes, the silver mask, a legendary mask which contains the great Water God’s power.

Its name is the “White Emperor”, and only the highest Apostle who is beloved by the Water God can hold it.

He is that Apostle!

“Yes, I’m the Apostle,” Yun Xi said frankly.

Chapter 216: A Small Promise

“Big brother, you are... that... that...” Maybe the young Lamia was too excited, the squeezing of her tail had almost become two times stronger.

Fortunately, Yun Xi’s body had been enhanced by the power from his 108 brides and was being protected by the Water Mist Field, so he didn’t get hurt.

“Yes, I am... Can you let go of me...” Yun Xi literally understood why humans couldn’t fall in love with the Lamias.

No human whose rank was below the hero rank could withstand the Lamia’s strong tail. If an ordinary person fell in love with a girl of the Lamia Race, the only end for that person was being squeezed to death!

Besides, the Lamia Race had the Snake Demon Bloodline, which meant that their copulation time was extremely long.

It was said that snakes could take 12 hours to accomplish a mating without sleep or rest during the period. Obviously, it was impossible to any normal human.

“Oh, you really are the Apostle!” The young girl didn’t release him but coiled around his waist with a much stronger force.

Humans often hold their lovers tightly to show their love. When it came to the Lamias, when they got excited, they would coil around their lovers tightly with their tails.

At this moment, Yun Xi was really feeling the young girl's enthusiasm.

"Well, hello, my name is Feya, Lamia Gorgon Feya. I'm a hundred years old this year, the youngest child of the Lamia Race. My height is six metres, and my breast size is... well, my breasts are not big but are still developing! I like to play water ball and hunt squid. I don't know if I can make you feel satisfied, but... I want to be your bride!" The young Lamia said with a red face.

"I want to have twenty children, so that they can form two teams to play the water ball game. Don't underestimate me, because I'm really good at playing water ball! You can ask my sisters about it. Although I can't join them because I'm too small, but they all call me 'once-in-1000-years genius'! They like listening to my analysis about tactics."

After learning Yun Xi's real identity, the young girl, Feya, became enthusiastic.

She was the boldest and most radical girl amongst all the Lamias that had arrived at Caelian. She was still young, so she hadn't become prejudiced to mankind. She was still full of curiosity for everything.

Of course, "have a baby" was one of the things she was curious about. As the youngest, she still remembered her surrogate mother – a "sailing jellyfish".

After sailing jellyfishes disappeared in the deep sea for no reason, she was the most upset.

According to the Lamia's tradition, she shouldn't come onto the ground and appear in front of the public, because she was only a hundred years old. Compared to the long life she would have, she was still a baby who needed to be protected by sailing jellyfishes.

But, after the last sailing jellyfish disappeared, she had to return to the Lamia's and be brought up by her sisters.

Because she had lost her great mother, the "sailing jellyfish", she was eager to "have a baby" to get rid of the feeling called "loneliness". She was only a hundred years old. She thought that if she had a baby, she would be able to play with her child.

The whole Lamia Race didn't have any children apart from her, therefore, no one played with her all those years. All of the Lamia Race was in a state of anxiety. After all, without the help from sailing jellyfishes, they couldn't produce any descendants.

In theory, they could produce offspring if they could find strong, willing sea demons and obtain their genes, but, the strong sea demons had also disappeared together with the sailing jellyfishes. No one had ever seen one of them in the last dozens of years.

"Err... Feya, right? You are still young. You don't need to consider such a thing so early." Yun Xi looked at Feya, who was so innocent that she displayed all her thinking on her face.

At any rate, I won't marry such a child!

Even Yun Que's insane expansion plan didn't calculate for a child!

A 100 year old human was already old enough, but for the Lamia Race, a 100 year old Lamia was still a toddler, which could be proved by the fact that she wasn't allowed to join in the water ball game.

She can't be my bride!

"Ooo... I'm a hundred years old! I'm not too young! I can have my babies!" Feya threw out her chest in front of Yun Xi, as if she was trying to prove something.

"... No! You are too young!" Yun Xi refused her and moved his eyes away. It would become a crime if he married her!

Even though he needed as many fiances as he could get, but... Feya wasn't on his list.

However, if it was the Lamia Queen... Yun Xi didn't know if he could control himself.

"Whooh! Everyone tells me! I'm not too young! I'm not too small! I will grow up very soon! I'm a genius! A real genius!" Feya cried.

I can't marry him because I'm only a hundred years old? No! Our race doesn't have any rule to prevent puppy love! This is so unreasonable!

"Calm down, calm down. Don't cry." Looking at little Feya's crying face, Yun Xi had no idea what to do with his hands and feet.

Sigh, at the least, I should give her some hope.

“How about this? I will marry you after you become a good woman. Don’t you think that’s good?”

“Really?! Can I?!” Feya looked at Yun Xi in surprise.

“Yes, it’s a promise,” Yun Xi said and nodded. Anyway, the Lamia Race had a very long life. After she became a good woman, hundreds of years should have passed.

Chapter 217: The Excited Lamias

“Then, we need to take an oath.” Feya stretched out her finger, seemingly she was going to draw hook with Yun Xi.

“En... Ah?” Yun Xi stretched out his hand. Feya held his hand tightly and gently bit his ear with her small, white teeth.

Yun Xi felt a slight ache, then he touched the bite mark on his ear.

“Hmm, the oath has been signed, big brother.” Feya looked at Yun Xi with a happy smile.

This ceremony of the Lamias was really strange.

To Lamias, this was a ceremony for love: exchanging the Lamia’s venom in her teeth and her lover’s blood in his body. It represented the oath of “Never to be Separated “.

Human moral principles meant nothing to Lamias. The exchange of bodily fluids was much more suitable than any oath in their hearts.

“Is it okay?” Yun Xi stroked his ear with curiosity. He only felt a slight ache with no side effects, as if he was just being gently licked.

“Yes. I’m satisfied.” Feya smiled happily.

The bite was just a small incident to Yun Xi, but to her and even the whole Lamia Race, it was a giant leap.

“Sisters! Sisters!” Feya happily danced around Yun Xi. She called to the Lamias who were playing the water ball game in a pleasant tone.

The Lamias were resting at half time. Just in time, they noticed Feya’s call.

“What happened, little Feya?”

“Hmm? What’s this mist? Anything good inside it?”

“You look happy. It seems like good things are happening to you, Feya.”

Feya’s long tail coiled, moving around to show her nimble and charming body. It was a dance called “The Dance of Enchantment”, an extempore dance the Lamias would dance when they were in an extremely good mood.

“Come on, come on!” Feya’s screw like tail coiled around Yun Xi’s waist again.

“Ok, don’t push me!” Yun Xi smiled bitterly. He thought that he should show himself now.

After having a really close encounter with a Lamia, he realized that there were many mistakes in the information Yun Que had offered him.

The information said that Lamias were all snake like demons, who were extremely dangerous and horrifying. They were strong, arrogant and unforgiving. Once they thought that you were an enemy, they wouldn’t give up before you had been torn into pieces.

Humans and the Lamias were all the Water God’s people, but humans refused to accept the Lamias and to live together with them.

For a longest time, it had become a normal prejudice amongst humans. However, the Lamias were all very strong, therefore, humans could do nothing to them and could only avoid staying together with them.

That being said,, what Yun Xi had seen was a healthy, energetic race. Even the youngest liked to practice every day.

They were not demons who only liked moist and dark caves. They also liked to play under the sun and show their charms to the public.

Maybe their special greeting was frightening to humans, but they didn’t mean to do any harm.

Coiling around their friend with their tails was just their way of saying hello.

“Dispel.” Yun Xi dispelled all the mist around him and walked to the Lamias.

“Look, he is the Apostle! The Apostle our queen mentioned before!” Feya was still tightly coiled around Yun Xi’s waist as she waved her hands to her sisters.

Then, the reaction of the Lamias’ was really an eye opening experience for Yun Xi.

At first, they fell into a shocked silence. They looked astonished and amazed and was at a loss for what to do.

After a while, a Lamia exclaimed, “Oh, is he that... THAT... MAN?”

“I can’t be mistaken. I can feel the great Water God’s power from the mist and his silver mask!”

“Wait, wait, why didn’t we receive a notice?”

It’s strange. Why are they so panicked? Yun Xi felt puzzled. Do I look strange?

Soon afterwards, he knew the reason.

“No! This is too sudden... I... I haven’t put on my most beautiful jewelry!”

“Whoa! Whoa! Don’t look over here! My shell necklace, where is my shell necklace?”

“Go, go, go!”

Quickly, the Lamias swam away. They scrambled back into the cave, overturning their trunks and boxes.

“Don’t take my jewelry, sister!”

“Don’t be silly, we bought it together. First come first served.”

“Where is my ivory comb?”

“Oh god, who stole my pearl powder?”

“Be quick, don’t keep him waiting.”

Yun Xi looked at the dark cave with a dumbfounded look. He couldn’t imagine what was happening inside it.

“Sisters are very happy. They have prepared for this moment for a long time.” Feya covered her mouth and smiled.

Her sisters were dressing themselves up, and she had obtained the Apostle’s pledge of love. She was really proud of herself because she got it first.

“Wait, I’m the first.”

“No, it’s me!”

“Stop quarrelling, let’s battle it out!”

“Boom!” After several fearful explosive sounds, the Lamias finally came out of the cave.

However, there were several Lamias in the first line looking flustered. It seemed that they had a fierce battle before coming out, so that they could find their position in the first line.

“Hello, great Water God’s Apostle. We are Lamias. We came to Caelian in response to your wish.”

According to what Yun Xi had seen, the leader of the Lamias was the strongest in the water ball game.

Compared to Feya, who was still innocent and naive, apparently, the leader understood human etiquette. However, her tail was twirling behind her back, which had exposed the true titillation she was feeling.

Not only was it just her. All the Lamias were looking at Yun Xi with curiosity and excitement. They could clearly feel the Water God's power from his White Emperor Mask.

Chapter 218: Jealousy

"Hello... as you see, I'm the Apostle." As the Lamias looked at him, Yun Xi couldn't stop his heart from beating faster.

He felt nervous, because they were not just some village girls nor the Starwings Knight girls. Instead, Lamias were one of the strongest races in this world.

Although none of these girls were at the hero rank, they were still far stronger than most living beings in this world. Lamias are a race that is at the top of the food chain in this world. Yun Xi thought that even the green hippo couldn't withstand a single blow from them, because their screw like muscular tails could play with the half a ton water ball as a toy.

This was who the Overlords of the deep sea were, the Lamia Race.

"Oh! He is really that man!"

"He speaks! He speaks! We're so lucky!"

"Am I dreaming?"

The girls' excitement was running high. Their eyes were much more pure than any human girls Yun Xi had met, with sparkling lights shining in their vertical pupils.

They look... very happy?

"I wouldn't have guessed it. Sisters, you are behaving very badly!" Feya tittered. Unintentionally, her screw like tail coiled around Yun Xi's waist much tighter.

"Feya, let go of the Apostle. You're being impolite."

"Yes, didn't our queen tell us that we shouldn't coil around humans so casually? Humans would feel scared due to this, so it's impolite."

"Feya, come back. I have some tasty treats for you."

The Lamias noticed the compromising position between Feya and Yun Xi, as a jealous expression came upon their faces.

Why? Feya was the youngest. How had she become the first?

"Humph. My Sisters are all liars!" Feya exposed her teeth at her sisters mischievously. She made a face at them and announced proudly, "I and the Apostle have performed 'the ritual' and have had 'those relations' too!"

The Lamias were all flabbergasted. They all looked at her with a look of total disbelief.

No, it can't be true!

That was what all the Lamia Sisters felt in their hearts.

"Feya, you're still too young. Do you know what you are saying?"

"Those relations'? Do you really understand its meaning?"

"I didn't think that I taught you how to be a liar!"

Feya brought her face near Yun Xi's ear with a naughty look. Then, she softly licked his ear and revealed the scar on his ear.

"Sisters, you are too late." Feya said flatly.

"Whoa! Why? Why?!"

"Feya! Feya has become the first!"

"When did she do it? The Apostle should have just arrived here... oh, when we were playing the water ball game!"

“No! Had I also went to practice with the water ball alone...”

The Lamias all cried, as if they had just been thwarted in love.

This isn't good, and I shouldn't turn a blind eye to their circumstances! Yun Xi thought.

“Well, I do think you are all misunderstanding something? I have done nothing to Feya. We are both still pristine!” Yun Xi explained the fact that he didn't commit a crime with the young girl.

“Yes, it's a secret of the adults. Apart from this, we are guiltless.” Feya couldn't help but laugh.

Shuffle! Shamble! Shuffle! Her words struck a heavy blow to her sisters' hearts. They became more agitated.

Yun Xi looked at the girls in confusion. It seemed that something he didn't understand was happening.

What can I do now?

There is no better way than to go marching forward courageously!

“I want to marry as many of you as I can. Feya won't be my only bride!”

There!... I said it! It was outrageous and shameless, but in the Water God's world, it could be forgiven.

Because it is the only method that I have to save this world!

"Gee?!"

"Is it... for real?"

"So it wasn't fake news after all! The Apostle really wants to have a lot of brides!"

"Feya couldn't satisfy you alone?!"

Yun Xi's words were like a fire in the darkness or the sun in the chilly winter. His words ignited the girls' flames of hope.

There is still a chance! They all thought.

Since he wouldn't only marry Feya, then they still had a chance!

"Cough, not that I mean that Feya couldn't satisfy me, I mean..." Yun Xi felt really embarrassed.

"Anyway, she is still too young, isn't she? I wasn't going to do anything to her now," Yun Xi said. What he thought he was saying, was gibberish.

It was true, but it still sounded like he was deceiving these innocent girls.

Probably they wouldn't doubt his words, because... they were so innocent!

"Yeah! The rumour was real!"

"Apostle, could you be a man who likes... the so-called harem?"

"That doesn't matter," cried out one sister. "We don't mind that at all!" cried another.

"We are confident about our forthcoming 'night activities'!" Another sister confided.

The rest nodding their heads in agreement.

The Lamias looked thrilled. As expected, they wouldn't doubt the Water God's Apostle, so they accepted his words immediately.

"Humph. What a heartbreaker you are!" Feya complained and bit Yun Xi's ear again.

Of course, she had known of this earlier. She just wanted to show off her trophy to her sisters before they found out.

Did I succeed? Yun Xi sighed. If possible, I want to be an upright gentleman. However, the world will not give me such a chance!

Chapter 219: Their Hope

“The Lamias’ support is absolutely crucial to my plan. In whatever manner or way, you must marry them all, especially the hero ranked Lamia Queen! You must stake everything you have, because you are not being given the option of failure!”

Remembering Yun Que’s order, Yun Xi smiled bitterly. It really was a tough task!

Fortunately, he did well... didn’t he?

These Lamias were really enthusiastic about him.

“Hey Apostle, what position do you like? I like the reverse cowgirl position. If we can get married, I hope that our nuptial night can last for three days and three nights...” said the most excellent girl amongst all Lamias present. Incidentally, her breasts were also the biggest.

“I don’t care what position it will be, but I do hope that you can stroke my tail at that time,” said the second girl, who had the longest tail.

When the sisters’ talked, Feya felt confused about the discussion. She was still ignorant to the carnal knowledge of being married.

“Sisters, what are you saying? Don’t couples have babies simply by holding each other? Didn’t our queen go to sleep in the sailing jellyfish’s tentacles, then we were born?” asked Feya.

Well, it was really a Lamia-style.

Yun Xi knew of the process of Lamia’s being impregnated and giving birth. They could have babies simply by sleeping in the sailing jellyfish’s tentacles!

Of course, he wasn’t a sailing jellyfish, so he didn’t have such a fantastic ability. Therefore, if he wanted to make the Lamias pregnant, he had to use a more traditional, skin-to-skin method.

Feya’s sisters had learned this from the queen, and only Feya herself hadn’t understood it.

She was too young, and her sisters didn’t teach her this knowledge, which she couldn’t find in the books either.

“My Sisters’ words are outlandish! Apostle, you, you will teach me, won’t you?” This time, it was Feya’s turn to feel jealous of her sisters.

She could feel a sweet aura amongst her sisters and the Apostle when they looked at each other. (Yun Xi: is completely misunderstanding the situation!)

For the first time, she saw such a happy look on her sisters’ faces. Their bodies were spreading a sweet smell.

The sweet smell was a unique odour of adult Lamias, which she would obtain in the near future since she was still too young.

Feya had to admit that she was still too naive. Her aura was far inferior to her sisters.

She failed to understand her sisters' enthusiastic smiles. With discontent and anxiety in her heart, her tail coiled around Yun Xi's waist very much tighter.

What is it? What is this knowledge I don't know, but my sisters all understand?

Since she had signed the contract with the Apostle, what was this unknowing that still made her feel uneasy?

"Hoo, as expected, Little Feya still doesn't understand it."

"She is too young. It's natural that she doesn't understand it."

"When I heard that she had done 'that' with the Apostle, I thought... So it was just a misunderstanding!"

The elder Lamias whispered to each other with a reassuring look on their faces.

Of course, they weren't conspiring with each other to exclude Feya. They just thought that Feya was still too young to learn "that knowledge".

Even they themselves just learned “that knowledge” from the queen before they came to Caelian.

“Ooo, why don’t you sisters tell me?! What are you talking about?!” Feya gazed at her sisters with her big innocent eyes. My sisters all liked me. Why are they looking at me with an amused look now?

“Well, Feya, you are still young. We will teach you about it after you have grown up.”

“Yes, Feya, you will understand it after you have become a good woman.”

“It would be a comfortable thing to do ‘that’ with your lover... the queen told me so.”

The enthusiastic Lamias naturally revealed their true feelings after knowing that Feya wouldn’t be the Apostle’s only bride.

Maybe they knew nothing about love, however, they were also looking forward to having babies with their “chosen one”.

First, the “chosen one” must be strong, because weak creatures couldn’t offer Lamias the genes they needed.

Of course, hero ranked Yun Xi perfectly met this requirement.

The “chosen one” must believe in the great Water God, because Lamias were the Water God’s most loyal people.

Naturally, as the Water God's Apostle, Yun Xi fulfilled this point, because he was beloved by the god!

Last but not the least, the "chosen one" must accept the Lamia Race from the bottom of his heart, by not being scared away like ordinary humans.

Alright, Yun Xi also met this point, because he never cared about his brides' race and identity...

The three requirements were all they had asked. They had never wished for more.

Since Yun Xi had perfectly met these three requirements, naturally, the Lamias had a crush on him from the beginning.

When they knew that Feya had become his bride, they seemed almost ready to cry, because they thought that they had lost their opportunity.

But, after Yun Xi said that he didn't mind having more brides, the flames of hope was ignited again in their hearts.

Since Feya could obtain his love, it might as well be me! They thought.

The great Apostle is really considerate!

As expected, you were chosen by the great Water God to change the fate of the Lamias!

Chapter 220: Summon

As Feya looked at Yun Xi with jealousy, the enthusiastic Lamias were chatting their hopes about a future with Yun Xi.

“Apostle, how many children do you want to have?”

“I think having seven children is fine. They can form a team.”

“The Apostle’s children will be handsome and beautiful.”

Only when talking about children, did the Lamias become so excited.

The Lamia Race had had no new members for the last hundred years. The youngest Lamia, Feya, hadn’t finished her childhood education in the sailing jellyfish’s lair when they left, and had to return to the Lamia Race, becoming their most favorite little sister.

Therefore, they also hoped that they could have babies as soon as possible, so that their babies could play with Feya.

“No! The Apostle has promised to me that we will have two teams of children!” Feya was beyond her perseverance.

She was the first, after all! The first one who found the Apostle, the first one who coiled around the Apostle’s waist with her tail, and the first one who had obtained the Apostle’s promise!

She was the first, why were her sisters whispering endearments of love, and baby making talk with the Apostle instead of her?

It is so unfair!

“I can do whatever my sisters can do! Apostle, make babies with me! Immediately! Right now!” Feya threw out her chest. Her bold statement really shocked all the people present.

Yes, this is it! I must be a step ahead of my sisters!

I don't understand the process, but it doesn't matter, because the Apostle must know it. He can teach me!

“Well, Feya, do you even know what you are saying?” Even the boldest Lamia was shocked by her youngest sister's words.

“I heard that your “first time” is painful!”

“You are too young. Your body can't support you while you copulate for 12 hours!”

“Yes, yes, it's too early for you!”

Hey, hey, don't be so straightforward with a child! Yun Xi looked at the Lamias embarrassed, who were trying to persuade their youngest sister.

At the same time, he also realized that if a person's body quality hasn't reached the hero rank, then it was really a bad idea to fall in love with any Lamia, because no ordinary people could copulate 12 hours straight without sleep and rest.

Besides, it sounded like "12 hours" was just the most basic requirement. These "excellent Lamias" were hoping for a copulation time of "three days and three nights" or more!

Yun Xi didn't even dare to imagine what would happen to him if he really married these Lamias.

Probably, they would want me to carry on the responsibility for propagating the entire Lamia race. As for him, he only needed to stay in the cave and repeat the process of "three days and three nights" over and over again.

It would really become a Lamia Festival, but my body would soon collapse due to being "overworked"!

"I'm not small, and, even if it would be painful, I can bear it!" Feya pouted.

She shouted seriously while holding her small fists clenched tightly, "Yes, no matter what will happen, I can stand them all!"

"This is the reason I can't do it!" Said Yun Xi listening to Feya's statement. Yun Xi understood how naive her mental age was.

It really would be a crime!

“Whooooooh!” Feya cried.

Is it all due to my age? She had never thought of that before.

It’s not my fault I’m so “immature”!

“Don’t worry, Feya. You will become a most excellent Lamia woman,” Yun Xi comforted her. He wiped off her tears and smiled, “You should be more confident.”

“Really? Can I become the most excellent Lamia woman?” Feya looked at Yun Xi with longing.

“Yes, believe in me, Feya. You can become the most attractive Lamia!” Yun Xi hesitated for a moment, then said, “Because your body contains a very special energy.”

It was true. The White Emperor Mask had let him find a hidden powerful energy in Feya’s body from the beginning. It was a very powerful energy, but it wasn’t stable. It was being sealed by something, which should be an artifact that was similar to his mask.

Feya was different than the other Lamias, because she was carrying a very special fate.

Maybe if she could release the energy in her body, she would be able to grow up quicker.

Wait, if that came true, then how about my promise? Yun Xi suddenly had a feeling that he was caught up in his own trap.

“En! I will become stronger than my sisters!” Feya smiled through her tears after hearing Yun Xi’s prediction.

This girl’s bad mood was like the summer rain, here one minute and gone the next.

After comforting Feya, Yun Xi asked the Lamias around him, “Can you take me to your queen? I have to ask her something.”

“Apostle, you’re looking for our queen? She is in a nearby sea area, but... do you really want to see her immediately?” The Lamias asked. They felt unusual about Yun Xi’s request.

“Yes, it’s important.” answered Yun Xi decisively.

I have already come here, so there is no way back.

“Ok, let us call the queen then.” The Lamias looked at each other, then formed a circle.

“Feya, please do it.” The strongest Lamia stood in the center of the circle and waved her hand to Feya.

A drop of crimson blood dripped into the transparent water ball in front of her and spread around in the water ball.

“Ha!” The strongest Lamia swung her tail with all her might, whipping the water ball into the sky.

The next second, all the Lamias hissed in a weird tone. At the same time, the water ball exploded in the air.

With his mask’s power, Yun Xi could see the mist from the exploded water ball spreading around in the air. Soon after, the mist had covered a large area of the sea.

Some information contained in the mist was being blended into the sea and spread through the water with an incredible speed.

“Boom!”

A thunderous sound came from a very distant place.
