Chapter 221: The Queen's True Body

A tsunami roared forward, rushing to the coastline from the sea horizon.

The blue sea trembled beneath that horrible sound. The tsunami was over a hundred metres tall, moving toward the coastline like a wall.

“Boom!” A huge black figure stood on the wave, looking like a storm, like lightning, like a catastrophe!

“How... huge is she?!” Yun Xi looked at the giant creature coming in with the wave. He was totally flabbergasted.

The oppressive sense he now felt, was already at the limit of what common humans could stand. If we're quantifying it, ordinary Lamias could make a human feel “10 units” of fear, but then the giant creature, who was rushing to this place, could cause a “1000 units” of fear in humans.

Her serpentine tail was already over a hundred metres long!

Although her upper body looked human, but actually was also over dozens of metres tall. It wasn't an exaggeration to describe her as a “leviathan like monster”.

Yun Xi knew the Lamia Queen was the King of all sea demons, but... her true body was so huge! It was far beyond his imagination.

“Feya, why are you calling me?” The familiar voice shook the sky and the earth. The tsunami collapsed, turning into millions of water drops at the instant it touched the coastline. The Lamia Queen, who had seen Yun Xi before, drew herself up and looked down at the Lamias.

“Well...” Yun Xi blushed, because the Lamia Queen wasn’t wearing anything.

Maybe it was because she had done strenuous exercise before, for her white skin was flushed pink. The two “peaks” on her chest weren’t saggy due to their enormous volume and weight and were still standing tall like a pair of mellow fruits.

Her underbelly was smooth without overlap. In the middle, was her cute belly button. And when Yun Xi looked down, he saw her long slender tail.

If you overlooked her huge size, she was indeed the most beautiful and mature Lamia woman. Her special charms were much more overwhelming than all the young Lamias together.

“Oh my! The Apostle? Why are you here?” Finally, the Lamia Queen noticed Yun Xi. She looked surprised and awkward.

As the water drops splashed down, the Lamia Queen turned into the beautiful form Yun Xi was familiar with.

“Sorry, I was lost in concern.” Compared to the young Lamias who were too excited, the Lamia Queen was much more calm.

“It’s me who should apologize, because I am the one who came here out of the blue.” The queen’s seductive body was still vivid in Yun Xi’s mind. He could barely look at the queen without embarrassment.

“My daughters, you were over reacting. Don’t you know the ritual of summoning means ‘something urgent is happening’? If I knew it was for our great Apostle, I wouldn’t have come so hastily with my true body.” The Lamia Queen fretted. These little girls were really thoughtless!

The humans who were still alive after seeing her true body could be counted on her fingers.

“We did it because the Apostle wanted to see you as soon as possible.”

“The Apostle’s dictate is of the highest priority.”

“Feya even donated her blood!”

The young Lamias laughed. They didn’t fear of the majestic queen, because half of them were the queen’s direct descendants. Compared to calling her “queen”, they preferred to call her “Mom”.

It’s not surprising for your daughters to act like spoiled children in front of their mother, is it?

“You kids! You are still unmarried and you already dare to disobey your Mom, hmmm?” The Lamia Queen sighed and shook her head.

It seems that I must teach them how to become good ladies. They just came to Caelian several days ago and have already forgotten the regulations of the Lamias.

The ritual of summoning was called "Blood Seal", which should only be used at the most critical time. She thought that they were in danger, so she immediately rushed to this place at full speed.

"Marry? Oh, we indeed need to discuss the date of marriage.", said the young Lamias.

"I think the next full moon night is a good choice. We will all be vigorous at that time.", suggested one of the more mature girls.

"The Apostle wants a lot of brides, and Feya has become his first bride." The Lamias looked at Yun Xi with longing and happiness.

"Well, does he? That's good." The Lamias Queen looked at her daughters in surprise.

At first, she thought that the Apostle would be very "picky", therefore, only the several most excellent Lamias would be able to stand a chance to marry him.

The Lamia Queen thought, "Why does it seem that they all have a chance to become the Apostle's bride? And, why was it Feya? Why was she the first? What had happened?"

"Well... Your Majesty, there is something I need to talk to you about," Yun Xi said nervously. He hesitated for a while at first, but finally pulled up his socks.

Since he wanted to marry the queen, he'd better tell the queen about his Mist Soul Army, so that it would be possible for her to understand and to agree to his proposal.

"Wow? We... are not enough? You want to marry our queen too?"

"You are really...brave!"

"Be forewarned, our queen is special. She is the strongest Queen of the Lamias!"

The Lamias immediately realized what Yun Xi was planning to do. They all looked at him with a strange look.

"You... well, aren't you afraid of me?" The Lamia Queen looked at Yun Xi in surprise.

He has seen my true body and he is still not afraid of me?

Based on her past experiences, no humans could be sane and sound of mind after witnessing her true body.

Humans would instinctively be frightened by giant creatures. Her true body had become many humans' nightmare and made many people go insane.

"Yes. I have no racial prejudices," Yun Xi said sincerely.

When he met her for the first time, he had realized that she was very dangerous. She was the strongest being he had met in the Water God's world.

However, compared to his ex-girlfriends, she was nothing dangerous. Once he remembered that he was still being wanted by his ex-girlfriends, he immediately had the confidence to overcome all obstacles.

"You are really... a strange child," The Lamia Queen smiled and nodded, "Ok, I will listen to you. Let's go."

Chapter 222: Requirement

What's it like to experience a date with the Lamia Queen?

Well...

The mountainous waves roared inside Yun Xi's ears, as if the heavens and the earth had been reversed. Compared to Yun Xi's Water Mist Field, the Lamia Queen's power was much more furious, like a moving natural disaster.

Fifty minutes later, she had took Yun Xi into the open sea, which was far away from Caelian. And, this wasn't the destination. It was just a starting point.

"Come on, let's go to the Water God temple." The Lamia Queen shook her screw like tail, then, a one-kilometer maelstrom appeared under his feet.

As if there was a black cave that suddenly appeared in the sea, they fell into the maelstrom rapidly.

When the Lamia Queen turned into her human form again, they had stepped onto a world that Yun Xi could have never imagined.

The vault was covered in infinite darkness. Occasionally, some glowing fish swam across the vault.

Millions of tons seawater was completely cut off outside of the building by some unknown power. The Water God temple was under the deep sea where they may have been ten kilometres in depth or more, but it showed no trace of being soaked by water.

The body of the temple was made of rare marble, and over ten stone pillars were supporting the temple's roof mightily.

A big pillar was standing upright in the center of the temple, spreading a special sense of the Water God's power.

"Welcome to our deep sea demon's temple. In fact, this temple is even older than the temple in Caelian. I am the Water God's High Priestess, the guardian of this temple, and the owner of the Sea Demon's Mirror." The Lamia Queen held Yun Xi's hand and rambled on the stone road, introducing the pride of Sea Demons: the Deep Sea Water God Temple.

Humans weren't allowed to enter this temple, because this was the sacred land of sea demons and the homeland of the Lamias.

"The Sea Demon's Mirror?" Yun Xi could feel that something in the temple was resonating with his White Emperor Mask.

It was similar to the Holy Scepter the Caelian Queen held, but the aura on it was much deeper and older.

“It’s a relic for us Lamias and all sea demons. In fact, we Lamias weren’t an intelligent race. We were just some beasts at that time. However, the Sea Demon’s Mirror transformed our life form so that we were close to a human’s. It was the key that has changed the fate of our race,” The Lamia Queen said gently. She led Yun Xi to the sacrificial altar under the giant black pillar.

The same as other Water God temples, there was no idol in the sacrificial altar, because the Water God didn’t need idols to symbolize itself. It was already the supreme god in this world.

On the sacrificial altar, was a blue mirror, reflecting the endless sea in it. Occasionally, Yun Xi could even see some sea demons swimming across the scene in the mirror.

“Apostle, why do you want me to marry you?” The Lamia Queen asked and waited for Yun Xi’s answer.

“In fact, it’s about my White Emperor Mask...” Yun Xi honestly told her his mask’s ability and the news of the Sky Sword’s coming.

“I see. So it explains why I witnessed strange slimes in the deep sea. Is this world going to be changed?” It seemed as if the Lamia Queen had seen what was going to happen through Yun Xi’s eyes.

“So, you need brides to offer you powers? I see. I can lend you my power. I can agree to your proposal.” The Lamia Queen smiled.

“Really?!” Yun Xi looked at the Lamia Queen in surprise. He didn’t expect that the queen would be so approachable.

“But, I have a requirement,” The Lamia Queen gave Yun Xi a mysterious smile and continued, “If you want to obtain my love, firstly, you must love my race. You must accept all Lamias. Only in this way can I believe in you and fight for you without reservation. This is a promise of the Lamias. As long as you can do that, we will keep our promise.”

“Really? Is that all?” Yun Xi looked at the Lamia Queen in astonishment. Gradually, his eyes misted and his face blushed. Why? Why did he think that she was so beautiful at this moment?

“Since you are the only hope of our world, then we actually have no choice, right?” The Lamia Queen’s heart was beating faster, because she was trying to use the Lamia’s occult arts to entice the young man in front of her.

Yun Xi had thought wrong. Compared to his needs, the Lamias wanted him more.

The sailing jellyfishes had disappeared. Under this circumstance, Yun Xi was actually the Lamia Race’s only choice to father the future.

This must be the will of the god. The Lamia Queen believed this without a shadow of doubt.

The world was being changed, and something new was happening. The disappearance of the sailing jellyfishes, the Sky Sword’s coming, and the appearance of the White Emperor Mask were all parts of the world’s fate.

Everything was the great Water God’s will!

“Then, I swear here: I will accept the whole Lamia Race. I will regard all Lamias as my most precious treasures. I will protect and care them with my life!”

Chapter 223: Resonance

“Is this fine?” Standing in front of the Sea Demon’s Mirror, Yun Xi put down his hand.

“Yes, that will do. We don’t need more, because you are being loved by the god!” The Lamia Queen smiled and gently kissed Yun Xi’s forehead, “From now on, we Lamias will become your swords and shields, fighting for you. As long as there is still one Lamia in the world, the promise will never break.”

It seemed that the Lamia Queen was really in a good mood. She blinked and teased, “However, I myself still have a small problem.”

“What’s the problem?” Yun Xi asked in a hesitant tone.

She was more mature than all the Lamias. Compared to the dangerous Dark Shadow Queen, she was more calm and leisurely.

Her temperament could only be cultured by time. Her every move and smile could make Yun Xi feel at ease.

No wonder she was the Queen of all Lamias!

“You haven’t proposed to me!” The Lamia Queen pointed her fingers at Yun Xi’s mask and said in a naughty tone.

“Ah!” Yun Xi was dumbfounded.

“Not just me. You haven’t proposed to those girls either, right?” The Lamia Queen said and looked at Yun Xi with a kindly smile, “It’s a very important thing to girls. If you want to marry them, you should say it out loud courageously. In this world, once you have missed your chance, you will never be able to get them back again.”

Yun Xi finally realized it. No wonder that the Lamias were so proactive, but the number of his brides hadn’t increased.

“You are... still too young...” The Lamia Queen held Yun Xi in her arms and put his head on her chest. She whispered besides his ear as if she was tempting him, “Say it, say the magical spell. No girls can resist that spell. Don’t worry, we Lamias have chosen you. No matter what happens, we will be always with you.”

Smelling the Lamia Queen’s pleasant body scent, Yun Xi looked at her in confusion.

This dream trial is too real!

All beings in the Water God’s world have their special characters. They have their fate and make great efforts for their future.

Why is this dream trial so different?

The Stars, why did you make me come to this world?

“I... I want you. I want you to be my bride.”, said Yun Xi. He finally said the magical spell, which was an intoxication to all females.

“Even the infinite love from millions of people, it wouldn’t be more than the love you have granted to him. You have the whole world, but you only love this boy. Even though the world would end in misfortune, you would only offer the boy honour and hope,” The Lamia Queen hummed the old poem Yun Que had chanted.

It was a story about a man who was loved by the god. In the world of despair, only the man was saved.

In order to save the man, the great god gave up the whole world. The god witnessed the world’s death and only took away the man.

In that story, people abandoned their god and chose to step on a brand new road, obtaining a power named “science”.

However, a monster suddenly descended into the world. When “science” could do no harm to the monster when it started to swallow the world, people finally remembered their god.

However, the god didn’t respond to their prayers.

More precisely, the god only responded to one man.

In the dying world, the god only protected that man, because that man had never betrayed his god and doubted his faith.

In the world no one still believed in the god, the man was the god's last believer. Therefore, he became the god's only child.

In the dying world, he was the only person who should be saved. This was the god's decision.

When the world finally came to its end, the people sighed and regretted, and felt jealousy of the chosen one.

This old poem was the last elegy the people in that world had left.

The Lamia Queen looked at the boy in her arms straining with eagerness.

The great god! Since you have chosen this boy, then we will follow your will, becoming his power, no matter what future we will face.

The Lamia Queen thought, then lowered her head and kissed Yun Xi's lips.

Inside Yun Xi's cold mask, the Water God's power naturally spread around and resonated with the Sea Demon's Mirror behind the Lamia Queen.

In the Mermaid Palace, the shell jewelry on the Mermaid Queen's ears suddenly emitted a clear and melodious sound. Obviously, it was also resonating with the Sea Demon's Mirror.

"We have been bested! The Lamias are too cunning!" The Mermaid Queen brandished the trident in her hand with an unpleasant look. "The great Water God prefers me more. Why should they be the first?!"

In the Caelian Water God temple, looking at the white rings which suddenly rang on the scepter, the Caelian Queen showed a complex expression on her face.

"The Lamias have made their choice, we should also decide it as soon as possible. Which way will the world go? The great Water God, you will finally decide your bride?"

Chapter 224: Sweet Whisper

"Hm?" Yun Xi suddenly found that the Lamia Queen's kiss was very inept, as if she was a young girl who had no experience.

Yun Xi had heard it from the Lamias that the Lamia Queen had procreated many descendants. He thought that she would be very skillful at first!

"I... did I do something wrong?" The Lamia Queen noticed Yun Xi's confusion. She blushed.

"Inexperienced" is "inexperienced". She couldn't pretend to be experienced.

“No... nothing...” Yun Xi stared at the Lamia Queen. She looked as if she had become more beautiful after accepting his proposal. She had a very special charm now.

“Then... let’s do it again...” The Lamia Queen vaguely guessed what Yun Xi was thinking. She kissed Yun Xi rashly, as if she was trying to prove something.

Instantly, Yun Xi was surrounded by the queen’s sweet body heat. His body subconsciously remembered the Lamia Queen’s kiss.

When Yun Xi responded to her enthusiasm and kissed her lips, the suffocating feeling made the Lamia Queen tremble.

In the final analysis, she was the same as all the other Lamias, because she hadn’t actually had the experience of copulation. The deep kiss was what she learned from human romance novels, however, it was barely worth mentioning compared to Yun Xi’s experience.

She resisted Yun Xi’s tongue not firmly. Under Yun Xi’s persevering tangle, she gave up resisting. Yun Xi’s tongue slid into her mouth and explored around.

Soon after, Yun Xi’s passion influenced the Lamia Queen. They held together and kissed each other, till the Lamia Queen. struggled intensely to gasp for breath.

“This is... strange. Is this the method humans use to share feelings?” The Lamia Queen gasped, gazing at Yun Xi with her watery eyes.

“Yes.” Yun Xi could feel the abundant energy in his body, as if the Lamia Queen had a magical charm, because he just couldn’t stop!

“Come on, love me.” The Lamia Queen bravely kissed him again. Gradually, she was no longer nervous and opened her mouth, welcoming Yun Xi’s tongue. Finally, their tongues tangled together tightly.

It was a sweet, soft, comfortable feeling. The six horns on Yun Xi’s White Emperor Mask emitted lights at the same time.

“Puff! Puff!”

“Wow... Whoa! Puff!”

Is this my illusion? Yun Xi thought that he heard some sound, which he had heard once before.

“Ah... en... en...” Gradually, the Lamia Queen started to grasp his lips. She started to proactively respond to Yun Xi’s kiss. They were both drunk with this exciting feeling.

“Do you want to... copulate with me?” The Lamia Queen gasped as her body started to secrete a special smell.

Yun Xi’s heart struggled, as if it was suffering a summer storm.

Should I go a step further?

The Lamia Queen wouldn't resist him, and this wouldn't be his first experience. After all, he had spent that wonderful time with the dark elf.

"Let's do it for seven days and seven nights!" The Lamia Queen licked her lips and excitedly announced the mating time she wanted.

"Ah!" Yun Xi woke up from his imaginations suddenly. He remembered that the Lamia Race had a different definition about "copulation" than a human!

Even the most common Lamia could hold on for 12 hours, and many of them hoped to do it for three days and three nights.

As the strongest Lamia, naturally, her mating time was much longer. Seven days and seven nights!

"Isn't it enough? If you want, I can hold on for half a month. In order to make healthy babies, I don't mind if we extend the time!" The Lamia Queen gazed at Yun Xi with anticipation.

"Sorry, I don't have time for this!" Yun Xi smiled bitterly.

Shaya Longnis', the Sky Sword's coming had almost entered the third phase. He really shouldn't waste his time!

He had to refuse the queen's invitation, although the queen was really seductive to him at the moment!

"Well, what a pity." Fortunately, the Lamia Queen also realized that it wasn't the time for doing this.

“Then, in recompense, give me one more kiss!” The Lamia Queen acted like a girl in love, behaving in a spoiled manner.

Yun Xi held the queen’s waist and licked her neck. The queen emitted a pleasant sound and stuck out her chest, catering to his behavior.

The world... is too strange! Feeling the soft body in his arms, Yun Xi felt more confused about this world.

“Puff! Puff!”

“Keep on! Keep on! Keep on!”

“Honey, honey...let’s copulate!”

“Wow! Whoa! Whoa!”

A magical voice echoed around and above the old sacrificial altar. A pair of liquid eyes quietly opened inside the Sea Demon’s Mirror, gazing at the Lamia Queen and Yun Xi.

Chapter 225: The Sky Sword’s Footsteps

As Yun Xi and the Lamia Queen whispered sweet nothings of love in front of the Sea Demon’s Mirror, in the dark abyss under the ground, countless green slimes were merging with each other and evolving.

The Dark Shadow Spider was gracefully sitting on her throne of spider threads, looking at the crowd who were kneeling to her.

“Hail to the queen!”

“Our queen will conquer the world!”

“We must help our queen defeat the evil Water God at all costs and declare the glory of the Sky Sword!”

The Dark Shadow Spider Queen lateraled her head and exposed her snow white neck, looking at these people with a scornful smile. Obviously, these people had all been conquered by her charm.

Simple. It's too simple! Compared to how hard she'd tried recruiting “that man”, enchanting these men was as easy as breathing.

She just cast the simplest Charm Magic, then these humans, who were upset about the Water God from a long time ago, immediately surrendered and joined her camp.

They were the Water God's people at first, but they formed a dark cabal, trying to overturn the people's belief in the Water God.

Naturally, they failed, so they became a crowd of “mice” who never dared to expose themselves in front of the public.

The Dark Shadow Spider found one of them, then dragged out the entire organization. She had almost caught all the heretics in her first draft.

“Do you want power?” The Dark Shadow Queen asked and looked at these fanatics. Her fingertip crossed in the air, then a group of green slimes appeared in front of these people.

“Oh oh oh, they are the god’s graces!”

“The legendary Sky Sword’s will!”

“The Water God will die and we will rule the new era!”

In these people’s hearts, Shaya Longnis’, the Sky Sword’s coming was the last hope to save this world from the evil Water God’s hands!

They were revolutionists and rebels, they would overthrow the Water God and rebuild the world!

They could do everything in order to kill the god, because this will had been inherited from generation to generation and had become their obsession.

Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword was the key that had released the obsession in their hearts and the flame that had ignited the madness in their minds.

“Come on, praise and accept the coming new era!” The Dark Shadow Queen waved her hand, then, these green slimes jumped to these people’s faces and wormed into their noses and mouths.

“Oh oh oh oh oh!”

“Ah ah ah ah ah!”

“I felt it! I felt it! This is the god’s power. This is the great Sky Sword’s grace!”

These men shivered and twitched, emitting inhuman roars from their mouths. As the Dark Shadow Queen watched them with an enjoyable look, their bodies started to transformed into monsters.

They were not humans from now on.

This was the price of power. After abandoning their human bodies, they obtained high-speed recovery capability, strong flesh and bones and Demon Bloodline. They wouldn’t die even if their hearts had been pierced through.

“Hum, that’s enough for them. After all, they can’t bring me much more value.” Looking at these men, no, green monsters now, the Dark Shadow Queen shook her head disappointedly.

It would be an idiotic nonsense to defeat the Water God with these human traitors, but, if she let them hide amongst ordinary people and sabotage at the right time, they could be of some use.

However, only Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword could lead them to win the coming war!

The Dark Shadow Queen could feel that as more and more special slime units appeared, the speed of the Sky Sword's coming had become faster and faster.

Once the Golden Slime King appeared, the slime network would be finally formed in this world, which also meant the start of the war between the Sky Sword's camp and the Water God's camp.

"Hm? Some people are coming?" The Dark Shadow Queen sensed that a team of humans were getting close to her location.

"Is it here?" A man asked with puzzlement. The next moment, a strange, snow white creature walked out of the darkness and looked at these green monsters with a leisurely look.

"Yes, this is the Sky Sword's base camp."

"We will cooperate with the Sky Sword."

"Is it fine? Yun He?" A man asked.

"Leave it to me. Believe in the god who led us out of the mist!" Another man promised. Soon after, a group of people walked to the Dark Shadow Spider Queen.

"Where are you from?" The Dark Shadow Spider Queen sniffed. Their odours... didn't belong to the Water God's world. They were outsiders just like her!

“We are this god’s followers, and our god wants to cooperate with the great Sky Sword!” Their leader, Childe Yun He said. He measured the Dark Shadow Spider Queen with his questioning eyes.

She is beautiful! Childe Yun He swallowed as he looked at the Dark Shadow Spider Queen’s white skin and deep black eyes. He had been spontaneously seduced by the spider queen’s dangerous charm.

“Agree with them and let them become your subordinates.” A voice suddenly appeared inside the Dark Shadow Spider Queen’s mind. It was the direct indicator from Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword.

“Is it your god?” The Dark Shadow Spider Queen looked at the strange white creature with interest. She could feel a very special power from it.

“Yes, it’s our god, the great Tlahuizcalpantecuhtli!” As an evil god’s Apostle, Childe Yun He had actually become the leader of the Sword Palace disciples and started to preaching.

Unfortunately, there is no alpaca in this world, otherwise, I can sacrifice them to enhance myself to an incredible extent! Childe Yun He thought regretfully.

“Very well, finally, I have some good subordinates.” The Dark Shadow Spider Queen nodded with satisfaction. This strange white creature could be a strong external assistance of the Sky Sword’s camp.

Not only that, On a distant island, several strong hero ranked girls were on a special training mission. They would also join the Sky Sword’s camp after making their choice.

Shaya Longnis’, the Sky Sword’s will was indeed invading and changing this world step by step!

Chapter 226: Escape From the Mist Island

“Roar!”

The giant dragon’s roar echoed between the heavens and the earth. As the overlord of Mist Island, the white bone dragon was having a fierce battle with its invaders.

The bone dragon had died many, many years ago. Only the bones on its spine was still complete, and its wings, feet and tail were all mutilated. However, it still retained a third of its power from before its death.

It wasn’t a low-grade dragon like the male fiery dragon had been. It was a real, legendary dragon from the core area of the Dragon God’s Domain.

It could even annihilate a team of hero rank adventurers if they dared to provoke it. This wasn’t a hypothesis, because it had already happened several times. Many hero ranked adventure teams, who came to explore the Eye of the Storm, had been swallowed after waking it up.

Now, the people who were fighting against the bone dragon, were the strongest partners of the White Lotus Sword Palace, White Lotus and Red Lotus, and Yun Xi’s childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo!

After waking up, they found that they were trapped on the Mist Island. Finally, they encountered the bone dragon, then, the battle between them started and had lasted for half a month.

The battle was really tough, because this dead dragon was the strongest monster in the mist. If you only considered its power, it was even stronger than any of the three High Priestesses.

In the Water God's world, the bone dragon had almost become a symbol of disaster. Everytime it walked out of the mist, it would wreak havoc in this world.

The dragon had died many years ago, naturally, it was hostile to all living beings. When Hua Huo and the twin witches appeared on its territory, it immediately noticed them and launched a rabid attack.

Now, the battle had entered its final stage.

"Why is it chasing us?!" Tightly holding the Red Lotus Holy Sword in her hand, Red Lotus gasped with profuse sweating.

"Perhaps it's because it's too ugly!" White Lotus' face looked pale. She was already exhausted.

"Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!" Hua Huo shouted. It wasn't because of the bone dragon, but because of her instinct as Yun Xi's childhood sweetheart: her Jealousy Radar!

A strand of her hair was stretching and wiggling on her head. She instinctively sensed that something very bad was happening in this world, but she couldn't go to stop it!

My Little Xi must be in a big trouble! I should have found him and been beside him by now, but this blasted bone dragon has me trapped here!

"How dare you stop me on way to find my love? You will die horribly!" Hua Huo lifted her sword and adjusted her breath, then said decisively, "Shaya Longnis, I agree to your offer! I will join your camp and fight against this world's god! This world must hate us, then, such a world shouldn't exist!"

Obviously, the Sky Sword heard Hua Huo's words. Green dewdrops dripped down from the sky and permeated into Hua Huo's skin, restoring her physical strength and energy rapidly.

"It seems that the Sky Sword is satisfied with Hua Huo's decision Sister. We should also make our choice." White Lotus counted her fingers, trying to divine this world's secret.

After coming into this world, they were always surrounded by this world's hostility. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been thrown onto the Mist Island and hunted by one of the strongest monsters in this world.

The bone dragon had already firmly locked onto them. Once the bone dragon found them, it would rush them and attack them without any hesitation.

"To be honest, I don't want to make this decision, but... it seems that we have no choice." Red Lotus wiped away the sweat on her forehead.

In fact, when the twin witches and Hua Huo teamed up, they were not inferior to the bone dragon. However, the bone dragon had a very disturbing ability: no matter how many times it had been torn to rags, it could recover within a few seconds. With this ability, it was almost unbeatable!

They had a strange feeling that the world's determination was trying to trap them on Mist Island, so it sent out the bone dragon.

The only way to leave the island was the whispers they occasionally heard when they were fighting.

"I'm Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword. Join my camp and become my subordinates. I will confer you the power to kill this dragon!"

However, Hua Huo and the twin witches didn't accept the Sky Sword's invitation immediately. They beat down the bone dragon over and over again, displaying their strong, and horrible power.

Unfortunately, the bone dragon could also revive over and over again. Apart from this, the island was surrounded by a very strong Magical Ward, so they couldn't leave the island easily. Now, they had really reached an impasse.

"I, White Lotus!"

"I, Red Lotus!"

"I, Hua Huo!"

After killing the bone dragon and witnessing it reviving again, the three girls finally made their choice.

"We choose to join the Sky Sword's camp!"

"Very good! You are making the right choice. This world is a mistake. It shouldn't exist. And I'm the person who will correct this mistake!" Shaya Longnis said. As her voice echoed in the clouds, countless green threads dropped from the sky, shredding open the mist and locked the bone dragon down on the ground.

"Leave! You will become the heroes to save this world. In the name of Shaya Longnis, I confer upon you the power to win against this world!"

Three green gems dropped from the sky and were embedded onto the twin witches and Hua Huo's foreheads. Instantly, they found that the strange feeling of being rejected by the world's determination disappeared.

"Is this the power of a Sky Sword?" Hua Huo felt the power on her forehead. Some flame like emotion was burning inside her eyes.

"Finally, that strange feeling disappeared." White Lotus let out a sigh of relief. Because the world was blocking her, for the first time, she couldn't predict the future with the Great Circulation.

Why? Why is this world so hostile to us? Are we really not allowed to come into this world ?

Chapter 227: The Mermaid Queen's Requirement

In the beautiful, sparkling Shell Palace, the Mermaid Queen gazed at Yun Xi with an unpleasant look. Her beautiful big eyes looked aggrieved as if she was a bad tempered child.

"Why did you choose the Lamias first?"

Yun Xi embarrassedly looked at the Queen and didn't not know what to say.

The Queen's charm was apparently different than the Lamia Queen. Her skin was more white and her temperament was more pure. Apart from her fishtail, she looked no different from a human.

She was a pretty woman, shining and sparkling. When she smiled with her mouth closed and looked at Yun Xi with her innocent eyes, Yun Xi even felt slightly guilty, as if he had just done something wrong.

“I know, I know. I can’t do ‘that’ and last for seven days and seven nights like the Lamias, but, I can do my best!” The Queen complained in a sad tone.

Why? Why did she know that? Yun Xi was dumbfounded. I had never told her anything about what happened between the Lamia Queen and himself!

In front of the Sea Demon’s Mirror, he was captivated by the Lamia Queen’s charm. They didn’t have time to “take their last step”, but they had tried everything up to “that”.

Once the Lamia Queen let down her guard, she behaved like a young girl first awakening to love. She left a wonderful memory for Yun Xi.

“Humph. I will let you see what a Mermaid’s Secret Potion can do! I can do everything the Lamias can do!” The Queen ground her teeth with a determined look.

It was jealousy. Her cute face looked as if she was a girl whose favorite toy was just taken away by her best friend.

After making up her mind, she took out a bottle of blue potion, then drunk it in one big gulp.

The next moment, something fantastic happened. The Queen’s fishtail gradually become smaller and smaller, until finally, her fishtail turned into a pair of human feet,

“This is...” Yun Xi was shocked into silence. After becoming a human, the Queen looked even more enchanting, even her light blue priest robe couldn’t hide her beauty.

Her ice white skin emanated a flower like fragrance. Her big eyes looked as clear as a pair of blue sapphires.

Under the soft light in the temple, the Queen’s face was extremely beguiling.

“I can agree to your proposal, but, I have a requirement.” The Queen gently blew in Yun Xi’s ear, “Do whatever you have done to the Lamia Queen twice to me. I won’t concede to her!”

From her childhood, she always lost to her best friend, the queen of deep sea demons, the Lamia Queen.

The Lamia Queen entered the hero rank faster than her, and became her race’s leader sooner than her. Even the size of the Lamia Queen’s breasts was bigger than hers.

Due to her racial superiority, humans trusted her more. Apart from this, she had never defeated the Lamia Queen once.

Although she was already the Queen of the Mermaid Race, the Mermaids liked romance, and she wasn’t an exception. She looked forward to having a perfect lover. As a queen who liked to read human romance novels, she had imagined the appearance of her lover countless times.

The man must be very strong. At the same time, the man would be very mature and reliable. The man must accept all her weaknesses and love her without reservation.

The last and the most important thing is: her lover can't be inferior to the Lamia Queen's lover!

Yun Xi perfectly met her requirements. There was only one deviation: he had become the Lamia Queen's lover first!

Why didn't I realize it earlier? The Lamia Queen and I are the best friends from our childhoods. Naturally, she also likes the things I like. Our requirements for our lovers are the same!

When such a perfect man came to her, how would she not want to marry him?!

Probably, when this man first visited the Caelian temple, I and the Lamia Queen had fallen in love at first sight.

As the Water God's High Priestesses, they had no resistance to this man who was beloved by the god!

When they knew his wish, they all chuckled to themselves.

However, I didn't expect that the Lamias would be the first!

How could such a thing be allowed?! This time, I won't lose!

Therefore, I drunk the Secret Potion of the Mermaid's to prove that I'm not inferior to the Lamias.

“I can do whatever Lamias can do!” The Queen repeated. She lowered her head with unease, ungracefully walking to Yun Xi with her newborn human legs.

Her red lips closely covered Yun Xi’s lips. Soon after, Yun Xi’s desire defeated his intellect. He held the Queen’s body in his arms tightly and responded to her enthusiasm with all his strength.

This was what the Queen expected and wanted.

Her body trembled as her lips became hot. She fell upon Yun Xi’s neck and drunk in his kiss.

Chapter 228: The Mermaid Queen Likes Immorality

As if the sky and earth were spinning round, the Mermaid Queen was drunk in her own sweet dream. She had forgotten her identity as the Water God’s High Priestess and her glory as a queen. At this moment, she only remembered the happiness she had found, only when she was in Yun Xi’s arms.

Ah, is this what the Lamias experienced? I can feel the happiness emerging from the bottom of my heart. Is this what they call “love”?

Her body became hot and her eyes became watery. She ground her teeth and groaned.

Yun Xi’s hands roamed all over her body as his mouth kissed her forehead, eyes, chin and breasts.

“Ah!” Through her clothes, the Queen could still feel Yun Xi’s hot breath. She blushed, but she didn’t resist him. Her body had become more sensitive after drinking the Mermaid’s Secret Potion, as Yun Xi kissed her, a thrill went through her spine and directly into her brain.

Her snow white face was covered with a layer of pink. She groaned, unintentionally rubbed against Yun Xi’s hard body.

“Is this what you have done with the Lamias?” The Queen looked at Yun Xi with her watery eyes and enthusiastically cooperated with his moves as her body trembled.

“En...although, your reactions are much more intense...” Naturally, Yun Xi remembered the Lamia Queen’s soft body. Compared to Lamias’ special body structure, the Mermaid Queen’s body wasn’t that soft, but her skin was more tender.

“More intense...” The Queen emitted a seductive groan. She knew that Yun Xi and the Lamia Queen had not only done these things. They should have had a more intimate relationship.

“Then make it become much more intense...” The Queen entreated.

Yun Xi hesitated for a while, then responded to her desires. He gently and slowly held her head in his arms, then softly took off her priest robe, which was already in a fearful mess.

After the last of her upper clothes were dropped to the ground from the Queen’s own delicate fingers, the Queen of the Sea finally exposed her snow white, naked upper body in front of Yun Xi.

Yun Xi didn't hesitate. Instead, he stretched out his right hand and put it on the Queen's pure white leg. Yun Xi's fingers stroked her smooth, silk like skin, and the wonderful feeling made it hard for him to take his hand off.

Yun Xi's hand shook with over excitement. He slowly moved his hand to her ankle and softly rubbed it. Her smooth ankle was so pleasing to the touch, making him like it so much, that he could hardly bear to put it down.

The Queen shyly put her white jade like feet in front of Yun Xi. With a sudden compulsion, Yun Xi's warm palms held her left foot carefully, as if it would fly away at any time!

No matter how long he looked at or stroked her toes, he couldn't get tired of it!

"Do you like my feet?" The Queen asked Yun Xi with a very seductive voice.

Yes, this is my weapon, I've drunk the Mermaid's Secret Potion. It's my trump card that I can use to defeat the Lamia Queen!

After all, the Lamia Race doesn't have this kind of fantastic potion. At this level, I have a special treasure that the Lamias would never have!

"Yes." Yun Xi fascinatedly looked at the Queen's crystal white legs and her graceful body.

"After we have married, I will let you do whatever you want to me. It will be a much better experience than what you have experienced from the Lamias." The Mermaid Queen put her feet on Yun Xi's legs and enticed him, "Now, do what you have done with the Lamias to me."

At this moment, Yun Xi only wanted to cry, but failed to shed a tear.

Really? It was embarrassing to remember what I have done with the Lamia Queen. Do I really need to do them again?

In the crystal clear sea palace, they held and kissed each other as their souls went to a spiritual paradise together.

The Queen emitted cute sounds from her mouth, enjoying the happy time with Yun Xi.

Oh, he must be the best lover!

The Queen was drunk with her unethical game. Everytime she remembered that she was playing with the Lamia Queen's lover, she couldn't stop the thrill of stealing another person's lover from going through her spine.

Lamia Queen, I'm not inferior to you. Since you can obtain the best lover in this world, I can obtain him too.

Do you remember? When we were still young and talked about what we would do when we fell in love.

"I will devote myself to my lover with all my heart and soul," the young Lamia Queen had said at that time.

“I will do whatever for my lover, no matter how shameful it will be,” the Queen remembered her answer.

It must be a crime to steal my best friend’s lover.

However, why am I so excited?

Chapter 229: The Bell Is Ringing

The Mermaid Queen’s cute sounds echoed inside the old palace. On the sparkling surface of the water, the waves of love were rippling.

“Puff! Puff!”

“La la la la!”

“Ooo ooo oooOOooo!”

The whispers which had appeared in the Lamia Queen’s palace also echoed in the water, as if it was singing.

The next morning....

“Does this mean... the two High Priestesses have all accepted my proposal? Did Yun Que already expect this result?” Looking at the Queen who was sleeping soundly beside him, Yun Xi smiled bitterly.

Except for the last step, he and she had done everything last night.

I can't be an upright gentleman any longer!

However, why did the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen trust me so much? Even though I'm the Water God's Apostle, they still behaved too credulous, as if they were just two naive young girls.

If I really was a scumbag, they would have had a very heart-rending ending.

“Sorry. I hope I won't become a bad memory for you,” Yun Xi sighed and touched the Queen's face with his fingers.

On his White Emperor Mask, there were already three different hero ranked auras inside three horns.

The first was from Black Moon, the mysterious dark elf and the commander of his Mist Soul Army.

The second was from the Lamia Queen, the Queen of Sea Demons and the Water God's High Priestess.

The third was from the Mermaid Queen, the queen of the Mermaid Race and the Water God's High Priestess.

It seemed that every time he had a hero ranked bride, the White Emperor Mask would naturally project the bride's aura inside one of the horns.

Their power had indeed been overlapped onto Yun Xi's body and their Mist Souls had also become the hero units in Yun Xi's Mist Soul Army.

"I proposed to you because I need your power. Can you forgive me?" Yun Xi felt guilty for his behavior.

The Stars above, is this all really necessary?

Maybe Yun Que was right. I'm no good as a so-called emperor, because I don't have such a wild ambition.

However, this world's god still chose me and conferred to me the false power of the emperor mask.

I have to take the responsibility for that and move forward.

"I forgive you. I will forgive you for whatever you have done or will do." The Queen opened her blue eyes and looked at Yun Xi. She knew he was going to leave.

"You have the right to do that, and whatever you will choose to do, remember that I will always be on your side. This is a timeless promise of mine."

Yun Xi shook his head.

She didn't understand. This isn't a real world. She, the Lamias and all the people in this world are just living in a dream. Maybe it is because this dream is too real, I had almost thought that I had really come to an old world and married these beautiful girls.

"Nothing is true, everything is permitted..." Yun Xi muttered in a sad tone. He helped the Queen tuck herself in bed and embarked on his journey again.

"When I dream of a butterfly, do I dream of being a butterfly? Or did the butterfly dream of being me?" The Queen looked at Yun Xi's back and showed a strange smile on her face, "My god, the future you are looking forward to is coming!"

"Puff! Puff!"

"Yeah! Yeah!"

"Wait... for..." A voice came from nowhere, echoing around the Queen's ears with the fresh smell of the sea.

In Caelian, the City of Water, the bell of blessing was ringing through the skies. After finding where it was from, people looked at the Water God temple in surprise.

This bell of blessing would only ring at a very special moment. The last time the bell rang was on the day of the Caelian Queen's enthronement.

The bell just rang 18 times, which represented the highest blessing of the city.

"It's strange. Today isn't a festival, why did the bell ring?"

"It rang 18 times. Anything good happened?"

"I don't know. I didn't hear any rumours!"

The residents looked at the Water God temple's bell tower in confusion.

On the tall bell tower, the Caelian Queen, dressed in a white robe, was shaking the scepter in her hands with a gentle smile.

The Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen had each accepted the Apostle's proposal. Naturally, it was worth celebrating.

Perhaps this news would spread around the whole city soon after. Of course, people would know the Apostle wanted to marry as many brides as he could.

As the Highest Human Priestess, she could clearly sense the coming of a brand new era.

In the forests, caves and on the mountains, and even in the deep sea, countless slimes were gathering in crowds and groups and evolving.

Now, not too many people had realized how powerful these little things would become, because, these slimes would expose their fangs soon.

The Sky Sword's coming was unstoppable. She, the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen had all known it.

Because the Water God was looking forward to the Sky Sword's coming.

"My god, have you found your love? Have you found your bride? If he means the end of this world, we will also accept this result, because he is the only chosen one."

As the Caelian Queen whispered, a cloud of mist was flying into the city. With unease and befuddlement in his heart, Yun Xi arrived at the top of the Water God temple and landed in front of the Caelian Queen.

Chapter 230: Her World

"You are here," The Caelian Queen said gently and looked at Yun Xi.

She had known everything.

The Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen couldn't refuse the Water God's Apostle. They had strong power and determined will, however, they couldn't resist the Apostle, who was blessed by the god's power.

As the Water God's most loyal people, they had fallen in love with the Apostle at first sight.

They were ten times older than the Caelian Queen, but their experience in love was still as naive as two children.

As for her, she was an innocent girl from many years ago.

As a human, she had carried on the responsibility of handling affairs for a lot of years. She had never thought to marry anybody, because she had decided to devote herself to her belief from the first day she became a priestess.

She was the Queen of Caelian and the High Priestess of all mankind. She couldn't marry anyone.

In fact, the Water God never proclaimed that its priests and priestesses couldn't get married. However, all Water God's High Priestesses were innocent virgins. Even though the Water God didn't mind it, but the first High Priestess never married during her life, and it had become an underlying regulation after that.

Maybe it was because people subconsciously thought that their High Priestesses should be virgins, so they didn't dare to go against people's will.

The priestesses who got married would never be the Water God's human High Priestess.

She was born in the royal family and changed her fate due to her loyal belief to the Water God.

As a girl of royal lineage, she had voluntarily went to be a village priestess, then got promoted step by step and finally became one of the Water God's High Priestesses.

The Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen seldom interfered in government affairs. Therefore, she, the Caelian Queen, was the highest ranking priestess who was actually ruling the whole church.

The reason why she could become the Water God's High Priestess was because she was the god's most loyal believer.

Her divine magic was on the top three list of the whole world's history. Besides, her term of office was already over fifty years. No one would doubt if she could become the most excellent High Priestess in the history.

She also thought that she was the most beloved person of the god, because she was even conferred the Water God's Scepter and heard the god's oracles many times.

She even knew that the god was puzzled about this world, because there were things that were out of the god's control. There were big problems that the god couldn't solve.

In this case, she was convinced that she was the god's most favorite priestess, till that day, she saw that man and his silver mask.

For the first time in her life, a strong feeling named "jealousy" rose inside her heart.

Why? Why isn't me? Why is it this person?

I'm the one who can help the god solve the problems. I'm even willing to offer my life to the great Water God.

Indeed, Water God's Apostles had also appeared several times in the past, but they wouldn't appear in front of the public like this Apostle. They were not humans but from an old race. The Water God selected them to investigate the abnormal occurrences in this world.

However, this Apostle was a human, and he had the White Emperor Mask, which represented the highest authority from the Water God. It was really unimaginable for her.

This man was the one who was beloved by the god! After seeing Yun Xi, her faith was shaken.

I'm guilty! I shouldn't doubt my god! She had to kneel in the temple to purge her sins.

"How lucky you are!" The Queen held Yun Xi's hand and kissed the back of his hand.

"What's the feeling like to be loved by a god? It must be a fantastic, heaven like feeling. If possible, I really want to take your place, even if I will go to hell after that. Do you know how envious I am?"

Yun Xi looked at the Queen in surprise. For the first time, he knew the Queen's real feelings.

When he stayed with the Queen before, he only felt a sacred aura from her.

Her temperament was saintly, and inside of her eyes, there were infinite mists. They were the purest energy of faith, so her body wasn't flesh and blood any longer.

Maybe her strength was inferior to the Lamia Queen, but her divine spell was undoubtedly the strongest!

"Is such a jealousy strange? I thought that after I devote myself to the great world, nothing in this world could make my heart shake."

"Since my childhood, I always longed to come here and become the person who is closest to the god."

"Finally, at the age of 25, I achieved my goal of becoming a High Priestess."

"For this, I left my family and abandoned my wealth. After losing everything, I finally came to this place."

"I had never regretted my choice, because I have expected all the difficulties from the beginning." The Queen touched the old bell and remembered her past life.

How many years had passed? What was it like when I was still a young girl?

As the Water God's High Priestess, she was no longer a human after holding the Water God's Scepter in her hand. She had even forgotten her name and was only to be called "the Caelian Queen".

She remembered it now. When she was still a young girl, she once ran and played on the city's streets. She had also had a carefree childhood.

It's strange. Why do I remember these things now?

Maybe it's because I'm getting married.

I will marry this child, the child who was standing in front of me with a clueless look.
