Chapter 231: The Door of Memories

When did I forget that I am a “human” also, instead of just the Water God’s High Priestess and the Caelian Queen?

She felt that it was already a long, long time ago, which was a time much older than all her memories.

Why did I make that decision and arrive at this point?

The door of her memories gradually opened.

When she was five years old, she was just a carefree little princess. Her family was a branch of the imperial family, so she could’ve lived a charmed life.

“Elizabeth, you are one of the candidates for the next Caelian Queen.”

“Elizabeth, if it’s you, I know you can be the Queen.”

“Elizabeth, why don’t you have a try? Why don’t you want to be the Queen?”

From a very young age, she always heard similar words from various people, which made her feel confused and angry.

Why do I have to be the Queen? Was I born just to be a candidate for the next Queen only?

What will I be after I've become a Queen?

The Caelian City's imperial family was formed by the relatives of the first several High Priestesses'. As time went by, they formed a stable blood lineage.

Because their bloodline conferred them great talent in practicing divine spells, most Caelian Queens were from this family. Although they didn't declare it to the public, but the whole world had regarded them as the Caelian Imperial Family.

"Elizabeth" was the first High Priestess's name. She never married during her long life and devoted her whole life to the great Water God. She was the person who was closest to the god.

After that, once talented girls were born in the imperial family, people would call them "Elizabeth", hoping that they could become the next High Priestess.

Her family was one of the imperial family's branches. As a girl who had great divine spell talent, she wasn't an exception.

There were also a dozen of girls who had the same name, and they were educated by their families no matter the costs.

"I... I don't want to be the Queen!"

Oh, now she remembered. At the beginning, she didn't want to be the Queen at all, because she thought that people's fates shouldn't have been decided for them by their births!

I just looked pretty and my bloodline talent is slightly better than others, why do I have to be called "Elizabeth" and must be perfect in everything?!

The courses of divine spells were difficult. I wanted to run, to play, to enjoy a free life!

At the age of eight, the dissatisfaction in my heart finally came to a head.

So she ran away from her family!

In order to have a free life, she secretly left the Caelian City and decided that she would never come back.

If to be the Queen is the best future I can have? Let it go to hell!

Yes, I was so rebellious at that time. It's incredible... the Caelian Queen gently smiled as she watched the little girl in her memories.

Wearing a big straw hat on her head and a pair of white leather boots on her feet, accompanied by her big loyal dog, she left the city.

Where should I go? What will I do? She had had a plan in her heart.

She could use her divine spells. Although she didn't want to be the Queen, she wouldn't refuse to take this on for a living.

She was only eight years old, but she received a good education. Once she found a place of refuge and hid there for several years, she would be totally free.

Yes, at that time, she thought that it was a very easy thing to do.

After leaving her family, even the air could let her feel free.

This is a wonderful world, I can achieve my goals easily. All people are living a common and peaceful life, why must I accept the fate to be a pathetic Queen? It's not fair!

She didn't hate being called "Elizabeth", but she wanted to be a free, happy Elizabeth!

I will create a happy future with my hands! I will take control of my life and won't let anybody tell me what to do!

At the first, the journey was happy. She met a friendly caravan, and several uncles and aunts who were very kind to her.

They were the owners of the caravan. They travelled amongst the islands in this world, trading different goods to the people in different places.

She gradually became a member of this new big family. She wasn't a pampered princess anymore, because there was only an "Elizabeth" who was working very hard for living in the caravan.

The more places she had visited with the caravan, the more understanding about this world she had.

The Water God's world was a very fertile world. It was a land flowing with milk and honey, and no one would die in hunger, because this world was a promised land that had been blessed by the god!

People in this world all believed in the old and great Water God. In all cities and villages, there must be a Water God's high altar.

The Water God was a very great god. The more places she had visited, the more she realized it.

The Water God's Human High Priestess, which also meant the Caelian Queen, was more sacred and lofty than she had imagined. It was definitely not a position that could be inherited, by a girl from a branch of the imperial family, easily.

The people who wanted to be the Water God's High Priestess would be tested many times. They must have great talent in divine spell casting and have reached the hero rank. After that, they would be allowed to hold the Water God's Scepter, and the result would decide if they could become the god's spokesperson.

So the Queen was so great a person. She was vaguely beginning to understand how special her bloodline was.

Is the first Elizabeth's blood, also flowing in my body?

If so, it's not too that unacceptable to know my family wanted me to become the Queen.

However, I won't be the Queen. I have decided to be a free traveling merchant.

This idea is much simpler and easier compared to being a superior Queen!

Chapter 232: That Day

She gave up on practicing the complex divine spells and reciting the head-scratching religious doctrine everyday.

After becoming a member of the caravan, she only needed to learn the knowledge of trading and enjoy the days of travel.

In the caravan, no one could live an extravagant life without working hard with their own hands.

Every time they passed by a village, she would record the village's special local products in her notebook. She imagined that one day, she would bring her own caravan back to the villages and trade with the villagers just like what the current caravan had done.

It seemed that it wasn't an impossible dream. Compared to being the Queen, this future was much better in her heart.

As time went by, she had followed the caravan travelling around the world for a whole year, and learned how to buy and sell goods bit by bit.

She was a smart little girl. One year later, although she was still only nine years old, she was already able to buy and sell goods alone. Every time when the caravan stopped and rested in a city or a village, she would spread out goods to sale in her own booth.

Although she couldn't earn a lot from this, she still felt happy, because she was indeed walking forward on the road to the future that she wanted to have.

Before that day, she always believed that she could be an excellent merchant. Perhaps a few years later, she would be able to team up with the young children in the caravan and form a new caravan with them. And this was what the adults in the caravan were happy to see. They always looked at these brave young children with their warm eyes and encouraged them to do whatever they wanted to do.

At the beginning of history, there was only one caravan in the whole of Water God's world. As time went by, the children in the caravan gradually grew up and left the caravan. They teamed up and formed new caravans one by one, because they believed that they were trying to build a better future for all of the Water God's world.

People believed that they should give the credit to the great Water God. Because the Water God was blessing all living beings in this world, so that this world could be so prosperous and vibrant.

However, the world wasn't always peaceful. Even in such a beautiful world, there were still horrible things out there.

It was a sunny morning. Elizabeth was looking at the distant sky. Pink clouds floated in the sky as if they were some shy blushing girls, and behind the clouds, the sun half exposed its red face. After a while, the clouds faded away and the sun rose, everything on the ground was basking in the bright sunlight.

“What a nice day!”

“We should set out on our journey now.”

“Elizabeth, let’s go!”

For some reason, as everyone were bursting with happiness, Elizabeth suddenly sensed a special feeling. Her bloodline made her uneasy, as if it was warning her that something was coming. Unfortunately, she didn’t understand that warning from her bloodline at that time.

Soon after, the whole caravan embarked on the journey and slowly moved onto the safe route.

However, about two hours later, the mist around them suddenly became cold and damp.

As gusts of wind blew over the whole caravan from the mist, the sunny sky darkened as the mist became thicker and thicker.

“No! It’s Mist Tide!”

“That can’t be true! The Mist Tide shouldn’t come at this time!”

“Run, run! Just leave the goods here. Run as fast as you can!”

Why is everyone so scared? Why is everyone's face turning pale?

Unfortunately, the mist had surrounded the unlucky caravan. After a few seconds, the huge Mist Tide had swallowed the whole caravan.

"No! I don't want to die!"

"God, please save us! At least, please save my child!"

"The great Water God, help us!"

The people reverently prayed, however, it couldn't save them.

Mist Tide was one of the most dangerous natural disasters in the Water God's world. If the fertile land and the sweet fountains were the god's blessing the world, then the unpredictable Mist Tide was all the world's nightmare.

No one knew what would happen to the people who were involved in the Mist Tide, because no one had ever returned from it.

That day, after witnessing what happened in the Mist Tide, for the first time, Elizabeth realized how feeble and naive she was.

The uncles and aunts, who had been considered to be her families, froze and was swallowed in front of her by the mist. An unknown horrible monster came with the Mist Tide and ate the people of the caravan one by one in front of her.

Her friends, the boys and girls who had promised that they would form a new caravan and work around the world with her, cried and struggled in the monster's paws. However, their struggle was meaningless. The monster slowly and ruthlessly ate Elizabeth's friends, breaking all her dreams about her future.

"Elizabeth, if you can be the Queen, I believe that you will be a good Queen."

"Elizabeth, the Queen is very special."

"Elizabeth, you are beloved by the god."

The monster didn't eat Elizabeth. Although it stared at her with a great greed, but it sensed a very special aura from her, which made it hesitate for a very long while and finally left reluctantly.

At that moment, Elizabeth finally understood what the Queen's bloodline meant. Even if she had only a little part of the first Queen's bloodline, she was still special.

Maybe this was the reason why the monster was scared away.

She finally understood how feeble and naive she was.

After losing everything, she returned to her family. When she picked up the divine spell book again, she cried and blamed herself because she didn't study hard in the past.

If I had mastered the strong divinity spells in the book, I could've defeated the monster in the mist and changed the whole caravan's miserable fate!

After that, she matured overnight. She realized the importance of her bloodline and the fate she would carry on her back.

This world wasn't as wonderful as she thought before. There were monsters in the mist and demons in people's nightmare. This world also had its dark side.

Chapter 233: The Origin of the Mist Tide

Mist Tide.

It was a periodic, uncontrollable natural disaster in the Water God's world.

Since the beginning of history, Mist Tide had never completely disappeared.

Mortals couldn't walk into the mist and look steadily at the mist. Once the Mist Tide rose, they could only pray to the great Water God. Apart from this, there was no way to escape from the Mist Tide. No matter if it was Human, Mermaid, or Lamia, no race could fight against the Mist Tide alone.

Mist Tide was unpredictable. It could appear at any time and any place.

In the sky, on the ground, across the sea. Once the infinite mist gathered together and swept through the world, everything would drop into quiescence.

Elizabeth once studied the Mist Tide from books and had had an in depth knowledge about this natural disaster.

Once living beings were involved into the Mist Tide, only very few lucky people would have a narrow escape from it.

After deeply and thoroughly investigating all the tales, she found that they were all due to the Water God's power.

When they were enveloped in the Mist Tide, few survived. Of those that did, some were holding ancient family treasures, and some were born with a special bloodline just like her.

A few survivors left notes, in which they recorded their experiences. From these records, the Mist Tide wasn't caused by some unknown monster. It really was a special natural disaster.

Some survivors saw endless ice winds sweep through the ground, then their partners were frozen and turned to snow.

Some survivors met the monster Elizabeth had seen, looking at the monster eating their friends one by one.

Some survivors started hallucinating. They saw countless demon butterflies flying in the air and taking living souls to the underworld.

The dangers in the Mist Tide wasn't always the same. Compared to having strong power, having strong luck was much more important when you tried to escape from the Mist Tide.

Though hero rank creatures couldn't escape alone from the Mist Tide either.

The more she discovered about the Mist Tide, the more Elizabeth understood how ridiculous her dream of forming a new caravan and travelling around the world was.

Every year, there would be over one third of the caravans and one-tenth of the entire world's population that disappeared in the Mist Tide.

Mist Tide was like an immutable rule in this world, swallowing living beings coldly and mercilessly.

Then, what can I do to change this rule? What can I do for a better world?

Mortals can't stop the Mist Tide. If I become stronger and stronger and obtain the great Water God's blessing, can I change everything?

That day, Elizabeth lost her best friends and her dream, however, another dream was born in her heart.

She knew she could accomplish her wish someday, because she had the first Elizabeth's bloodline.

She wanted to change this world. She wanted to protect the people of the caravans!

There were many, many girls in this world who could become a travelling merchant.

However, there was only one “Elizabeth” who could become the Water God’s High Priestess to protect people.

After realizing this, “Elizabeth” finally found the goal of her life.

I don’t want to see “Mist Tide” happening ever again.

My bloodline protected me from the Mist Tide, therefore, there must be a reason for my survival.

While reading the record about the Mist Tide, Elizabeth moved her eyes to the Water God’s Scepter, which could only be obtained by the Water God’s High Priestess.

If I become the new Caelian Queen and obtain the scepter, can the power inside it help me find the secret of the Mist Tide and change this world?

She thought, then she did.

After giving up her dream of being a merchant, nothing could stop her now.

She came to a small village and became an unknown priestess. With that goal in her heart, she kept moving on her personal advancement.

Compared to other “Elizabeth”, who were still being protected like princesses, she lived a hard life and put in ten times the effort.

Her talent wasn’t the best amongst all the “Elizabeth’s”, but she was the hardest working one.

Finally, she succeeded.

At the age of 25, the previous Caelian Queen retired and all priestesses took part in the selective trial of the new Caelian Queen. As a black horse, she defeated all other candidates and ascended to the throne as the new Queen.

When she held the Water God’s Scepter in her hand and shook the rings on it, she realized that she had obtained the key to change this world. Then, the first thing she did was to go to the most dangerous forbidden zone in this world.

It was an island in the northernmost part of the world, where it was covered with endless mist and was known as the origin of all Mist Tides in this world.

There, she witnessed a part of the Mist Tide’s truth and the deathless bone dragon.

Without any hesitation, she challenged the most horrible monster in the Mist Tide: the bone dragon.

Seven days and seven nights later, in order to escape from the bone dragon, she fell off into the sea and was saved by the Lamia Queen eventually.

“It’s a forbidden zone, even to us Lamias. Don’t make the same mistake again, because there exists a huge nightmare and is the Mist Demon’s habitat.”

Chapter 234: Her Wish

“You are the only person who is beloved by the Water God. Can you help me solve the biggest mystery in this world? If you can, I will marry you. I can agree to your proposal right now.”

After telling the silver masked Apostle her past, the Caelian Queen sat beside the Apostle and looked at his mask.

If I’m not wrong, the power in my White Emperor Mask is called “Infinite Mist Power”, and it should be the biggest disaster in this world!

“Yes, I can sense the fear I had once tasted from your mask. As I remember it now, this world is blessed by the Water God, but also needs to undertake a corresponding curse. No one could obtain a god’s love without any reason. As a price, we must fight against the monsters in the mist. Maybe we can’t defeat the most dangerous Mist Demon, but I want to know what it is. At the very least, we should try and find a way to stop it.” The Queen shook the Water God’s Scepter with a sad look. The silver holy rings on the scepter reverberated with clear and melodious sounds.

From that year forward, this wish was always hovering in her heart. It was her biggest motivation to be the High Priestess and the deepest nightmare in her dreams.

In her dream, she was still the nine year old Elizabeth and had to watch her friends disappear one by one.

They were once so many vivid lives in this world, and now, they were just some cold words on the list of the Mist Tide's victims.

Why? This is a world that is blessed by the Water God. Why is there such a dreadful disaster?

What is in the sea area that is covered with endless mist? What is the thing that is causing the periodic disaster?

She thought that perhaps the Water God knew it, so she tried to be the High Priestess, because she wanted to get the answer from the god.

She wanted to be the person that was closest to the god, and she thought that she could achieve this goal eventually.

Unfortunately, she wasn't the chosen one of this world. Even though she had become the Caelian Queen and the High Priestess, she couldn't go a step further.

She wasn't the god's most favorite one, neither the Lamia Queen nor the Mermaid Queen.

It is the silver masked Apostle. He is the one who is blessed and beloved by the god!

She finally realized that she couldn't achieve her wish by herself. Before that, she had wasted several days thinking about it. She was very confused and sad, and even started to doubt her faith in her god.

Finally, she found an answer for herself.

She wouldn't be the person who would solve the biggest disaster in this world, neither any other Water God's High Priestesses.

Only the silver masked Apostle could solve the mystery and change this world.

And now, this man was standing in front of her, close enough to touch.

"Is this okay? Is that all?" Yun Xi asked the Queen in an uneasy accent.

What a coincidence!

The Water God conferred me the unique White Emperor Mask, which could control the endless mist, and the Love System of the Stars also published a quest about the mist all over this world.

That is to say, even if the Queen didn't make this request, I will still go to find the Mist Demon and expose the secret in the mist!

"Yes, that's all I want. As long as you agree to my request, I will marry you, even if you failed to find the final answer eventually. I know I'm not as beautiful as the Lamia Queen, and I'm not as gentle as the Mermaid Queen, but I will do my best... to be your wife. As for the things you have done to the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen... I will try to get accustomed to doing them.” Speaking of this, the Caelian Queen’s face turned bright red.

There was a very special interaction amongst the Sea Demon’s Mirror, the Mermaid Queen’s Relic and her Water God’s Scepter. Therefore, more or less, she had vaguely known what had happened before.

“If this is what you want,” Yun Xi took a deep breath and looked at the Queen seriously.

When he listened to the Queen’s past experiences, he felt the strong emotions in her heart.

In other people’s eyes, she was the unassailable Caelian Queen, but in her own heart, her life had ended “that day”. Her life had been frozen at the age of 9, when her friends were swallowed by the mist.

In order to redeem the mistake, which actually wasn’t her responsibility from the beginning, she did her best and finally became the Caelian Queen.

No one knew it was simply because she wanted to know the origin of the Mist Tide and what took away her friends’ lives.

Her time had stopped since that day.

At this moment, in Yun Xi’s eyes, she wasn’t the Queen but just a nine year old little girl, unaided and restless.

I will change this. I will let the clock of her time turn again.

Since I have been conferred the White Emperor Mask, it won't be a problem to walk into the mist. Isn't it a nice sounding idea to help the Caelian Queen achieve her wish in the middle of my exploration?

"I promise. I will do it. I will find an answer for you," Yun Xi said with determination.

The Queen looked at Yun Xi and smiled.

Yes, this is it, the only solution to my befuddlement, wait and self-doubt!

The only way to accomplish my wish from the age of nine!

"Thank you. Then I agree. I will be your bride."

Putting down the Water God's Scepter, the Caelian Queen, the 13th Elizabeth gently kissed Yun Xi's lips.

Remember, the promise must be followed.

Chapter 235: Canary

For the first time, Elizabeth the Queen kissed someone. Naturally, her kiss was unpractised.

To her, this was a kiss, and also a promise which must be followed.

She wasn't as perfect as people thought. Even after becoming the Water God's High Priestess, the obsession in her heart never faded away.

I want to be the person who is closest to the god simply because I want to satisfy my self desire. As expected, such a woman won't be beloved by the god.

After realizing this, she gave up and put her hope on Yun Xi.

Since I can't do it, maybe he, the most beloved Apostle of the god, can accomplish it.

He had become her last hope.

"Sorry, I'm too cunning, but a human is such a strange creature. I can't be carefree like the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen. I have too many responsibilities on my back. Even so, you still want to marry me? Can you accept such a woman like me?"

The Caelian Queen's confession was totally different than the Lamia Queen's and the Mermaid Queen's. Yun Xi was like a mirror that had clearly reflected her weaknesses.

"No one is perfect in this universe. Even the supreme god also makes mistakes." Yun Xi stretched out his hand and held the Queen's frail hand tightly.

"Compared to you, I'm like a scumbag. I have had so many brides and I will still marry many more girls. As a human, I'm much worse than you."

The Caelian Queen looked at Yun Xi with a flabbergasted expression.

“What are you saying? You’re at the hero rank and beloved by the god, it’s your responsibility to marry as many brides as you can. In order to fight against the Mist Tide, excellent men, especially hero ranked men, should do their best to leave their bloodlines in this world. It’s a basic rule of our society. Don’t you remember?”

Yun Xi was dumbfounded. Oh, I forgot this world’s special environment!

“But, I will marry a million brides. A million women! Isn’t that ridiculous?”

“If it’s you, you have the right to do this. You are beloved by the god, so you are doomed to change this world.” The Queen held Yun Xi’s hands and put them on the front of her chest, “Listen, these are my heartbeats.”

Looking at the Queen with his scorching eyes now, Yun Xi’s fingers moved across her soft peaks.

On the tall tower of the Water God temple, in front of the old big bell, the Caelian Queen’s body was covered in the warm sunlight. Her soft breasts were half covered by the white priest robe, but looked much more seductive.

The Queen looked at Yun Xi with her shy eyes and asked, “Is this what lovers should do?” She stretched out her fingers and pointed at Yun Xi’s chin. Imitating Yun Xi’s action, her fingers slowly moved down.

At the same time, Yun Xi's fingers had moved to the Queen's waist. The Queen stood on her toes and looked straight at Yun Xi's eyes. Finally, their fingers crossed together, feeling the hot temperature of each other's hands. Their faces were so close that they could even feel each other's breath. The Queen's eyes became slightly panicked, because she was obviously much more inexperienced than the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen.

After all, the Lamia Race had a Demon Bloodline, and the Mermaid Race was a romantic race, but she, an aristocratic miss who was well educated, never learned any knowledge about love after 9 years old.

Since she wanted to be a Water God's High Priestess, then love was totally unnecessary for her.

Since she never even imagined such a thing, naturally, she wouldn't learn its knowledge.

Who would know that the High Priestess would marry the only man who was beloved by god?!

"No... what am I doing... I shouldn't... be doing this!" Yun Xi suddenly breathed quickly. It seemed that the experience before had a very negative impact on him. He felt guilty in his heart.

I shouldn't treat her like the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen. She is different. In some sense, her understanding about love is no different to a 9 year old girl's.

She is pure, innocent, cute and clumsy, but has a wonderful figure. Plus her saintly aura... they are all the elements that can make men become beasts!

From this angle, Yun Xi could clearly see her cute, shy face and her perfect body shape under her white priest robe.

He just touched the arcs of her breasts with his fingers, then he almost lost control of his desire.

“Don’t repress yourself. I know, I should satisfy you at this time.” The Queen remembered the knowledge she learned not long ago, then lowered her bright red face.

“Please keep going. We have not married yet, but I can do whatever the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen had done. If I can’t do that, it will be a dereliction of duty as the Water God’s High Priestess.”

Yun Xi swallowed as he looked at the Queen’s delicate collarbone.

“En... ha...”

On the tall tower, which was in front of the public but also out of any person’s sight, the saintly Queen emitted a seductive groan, as if a beautiful canary was singing.

Chapter 236: Blessing

The Ring of Blessing echoed above the city again.

People looked at the old bell tower one after another, offering their prayers to their god.

However, they felt slightly confused.

This time, for whom does the bell ring?

In the deep sea Water God temple, the Lamia Queen gazed at the scene in the Sea Demon's Mirror without blinking.

"Puff! Puff!"

"Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!"

In the crystal Mermaid Palace, the Mermaid Queen held the shell in her hands and listened the sweet sounds inside it with a look of ecstasy.

"Puff! Puff!"

"Ya! Ya! Ya!"

They knew the meaning of the bell clearly. They could hear its ringing.

In front of the old bell, the Caelian Queen looked at Yun Xi with her seductive watery eyes. Her face turned bright red and her lips were half open. Because Yun Xi's silver mask was condensing and spreading water mist, her beautiful hair was wet. The long hair swayed at her waist as her head lightly shook. Which looked pretty attractive.

Before too very long, her socks had been taken off and her slender legs exposed in the air. Under her white priest robe, they were a pair of little dainty feet.

The back of her feet were as white as snow, which looked so delicate that they would be easily hurt with the smallest amount of force. Her toes were pale and slightly pink with a light fragrance of orchid.

As she was kissed by Yun Xi, her toes curled, her legs stretched, and her waist stooped. The sensual scene and her seductive groans had all been seen and heard by the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen.

It was a special effect of the three High Priestesses' Relics. At first, it was designed for connecting to each other when something important happened. However, a strange resonance happened and the three relics had stayed in communication for a few days. Due to this, the three High Priestesses had all known Yun Xi's intention when he first saw the Lamia Queen.

Compared to the enthusiastic Lamia Queen and the curious Mermaid Queen, as a human, the Caelian Queen had a special intellectual beauty.

Even though she was in Yun Xi's arms now, she still muffled her voice as if she didn't want to let Yun Xi hear her cute groans.

However, it wasn't a natural instinct that could be controlled consciously.

After a deep kiss, the Queen had almost become drunk.

Yun Xi lowered his head and kissed her lips, enjoying her sweet and smooth mouth.

The Queen half opened her mouth, seizing the opportunity, Yun Xi's tongue pushed between her white teeth and went deep into her mouth, tangling with her warm moist tongue.

As being guided by Yun Xi, the Queen gradually learned how to respond to his actions. Her small tongue tentatively touched Yun Xi's tongue and learned the right way of deep kissing. Her face turned bright red and her eyes became watery, finally, the beautiful Queen couldn't suppress her voice and groaned, as if a canary was singing.

Yun Xi's mind had almost been absorbed into the Queen's warm soft body. He stretched out his hands and gently touched her body, losing himself in the wonderful feel. Gradually, a special mark emerged out of the fourth horn on Yun Xi's White Emperor Mask. The fourth hero ranked Mist Soul was forming.

"Is this... love?" The Queen's body trembled. The strange, exciting touch was much too strong for her. So she felt uneasy and confused.

Her face blushed and her teeth chattered. Just for a while, she herself had almost become strange even to herself.

Yun Xi moved down from the Queen's mouth. He kissed her round chin, crystal neck, snow white chest, and finally went to her snow white peaks. Through the snow white priest robe, he opened his teeth and gently bit on her delicious fruits.

The Queen could no longer keep quiet and emitted a strong groan due to shyness.

The Queen's body quivered in Yun Xi's arms. Her white jade like skin had been covered with a layer of pink because of embarrassment.

Her saintly expression disappeared, and her current shy expression could make any man lose his head.

In the ringing of the bell, the Queen took off her last clothes.

The bell was ringing for her. It was a blessing for the most beautiful Queen of all mankind. It was to celebrate her rebirth from her frozen time.

Chapter 237: The Three Queens' Charm

When the Bell of Blessing rang, Yun Que was sitting in the Water God temple's library and dealing with the research related to Yun Xi.

For the first time, she knew how painful the meaning of "asking for trouble" was. By hook or by crook, she still needed to pay for her actions.

In order to defeat Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword, she concocted the "Expansion Plan of A Million Brides", at the same time, she had to help Yun Xi select his brides.

In the past few days, Yun Xi had captured the three High Priestesses' hearts one by one. As for her, she was busy at selecting brides for Yun Xi, which also meant selecting subordinates for herself.

In order to win the three High Priestesses' hearts, Yun Xi had put a great deal of time and effort into it, and she wasn't inferior in any respect. She hadn't slept in a few days.

When the bell rang, she knew the reason much clearer than anyone.

In addition to this, her sensitive ears could even vaguely hear the soft groans amongst the holy bells.

“That bastard. Has he really succeeded?” Yun Que raised her head and looked at the tall tower in surprise. Her sense of hearing was far higher than ordinary people, naturally, she knew who it was.

It was the Caelian Queen, the most honourable human in this city. As a woman who was thought as “unfathomable” in Yun Que’s heart, she had also fallen into Yun Hai’s arms.

The Lamia Queen had the strongest strength, the Mermaid Queen had the most perfect appearance, and the Caelian Queen had the highest intelligence. Even in Yun Que’s eyes, they were a perfect “Golden Triangle”.

The Caelian Queen was the youngest one amongst the three Queens, but she was also the most stable and the smartest one. If Yun Que didn’t hear her “sounds” with her own ears, she wouldn’t believe that such a Queen would fall into that scumbag , Yun Hai’s hands so easily.

“Did I underestimate him? His talent for capturing girl’s heart is too formidable!” Yun Que sighed in her heart as she remembered what that bastard had done to herself.

This world is too unfair!

While the bells echoed in the city, the girls from all over the world all knelt down besides the fountains and prayed to the Water God.

“Is there no end of it?” Yun Que’s eyes were red and bloodshot from working nonstop on her plan. As the bell still rang with no sign of stopping, finally, she cursed in agony.

I know you are soooo awesome, that you can even capture the three Queens' hearts, but, can you stop flaunting it in this manner? Many girls who are listening to the bells are still underage, if they knew the truth about the bells, it would leave a shadow on their lives!

Yun Que had decided to hide this secret in the bottom of her heart forever, however, she still blamed it on Yun Xi.

This bastard, I won't see him again once I leave this world!

Incidentally, Yun Que had written all "Yun Hai"'s crimes in a black notebook, over seven pages!

"Are you satisfied?" After putting on her white priest robe, the Caelian Queen smiled, looking at Yun Xi's red face with interest.

"Sorry, I was too impulsive." Yun Xi apologized.

"No. That's what I'm here for. I must learn what the Lamia Queen and the Mermaid Queen had done," The Queen said seriously with a straight face.

Yun Xi looked at the Queen with embarrassment. He just taught the Queen a lot of knowledge which she would never find in any books.

The Queen's face also turned red. Compared to Yun Xi, her behavior just now was too immature, like a green olive.

That won't do! Her self-esteem as the strongest human High Priestess let her make up her mind to do what was necessary.

I must learn more knowledge about how to get along well with my lover!

Before this day, all her knowledge about love was from a prohibited book, which she secretly took away from the library: "The Shameless Demon and His One-thousand Daughters".

Reality had proved that the book was indeed useful. However, she was too immature to respond to Yun Xi enthusiastically like the girls in the book.

"Was my body good? I'm not bragging, but I'm called the most beautiful woman in the City of Water!" The Queen asked proudly. The flames in her eyes dazzled Yun Xi's eyes.

It is the strongest human Queen's aura! "Yes, you are perfect!", said Yun Xi.

Even if she just wanted to take revenge on the Mist Tide at the beginning, however, with such a simple obsession, she finally arrived at the end and became the Queen. Her charm had captured Yun Xi's heart.

She was mature and innocent, prideful and cute. The Queen was different from all girls Yun Xi had seen before.

The enthusiastic Lamia Queen.

The jealous Mermaid Queen, who likes to steal other people's lover.

The saintly and innocent Caelian Queen.

For them, I will do my best to save this world!

For the first time, Yun Xi really started to learn how to feel about relationships in this world.

Chapter 238: A Good News and A Bad News

"Ok, I'm done!" Finally, Yun Que finished her primary selection for the candidates of the "Expansion Plan of A Million Brides".

From the records in the library, Yun Que found something special in this world.

The first several villages she had visited before were protected by the "Mountain Lord", so they rarely encountered the Mist Tide. Due to this reason, they could live a peaceful life and she didn't see anything abnormal in these villages.

In fact, the male to female ratio was very abnormal in this world.

The birth rates of male babies and female babies were the same, however, most males couldn't grow up peacefully. In some areas, 80% of the males would die before they reached adulthood.

It looked as if this world hated males... Yun Que sighed in her heart.

Compared to males, females were far more lucky in this world. At the very least, they encountered the Mist Tide less frequently than the males.

Perhaps it was because the Water God's Power was much easier to be inherited by a female's body. Therefore, females had it much easier surviving various dangers.

So it explains why males in this world can marry a lot of brides. If they didn't do it, humans would've already gone extinct many centuries ago.

"However, if this situation carries on, humans will still die out sooner or later." Yun Que deduced this world's future and had a very bad calculative result.

Those beings with the Water God's power could survive the Mist Tide. Since only females could inherit the Water God's power from generation to generation and males couldn't, the situation was very disadvantageous for males.

The first "Elizabeth" was a good example. She never married during her life, but her blood was said to be "the blood that is closest to the god", and it was inherited by the females of her family. Finally, the "Elizabeth Bloodline" was born.

After that, most Caelian Queens had the "Elizabethan Bloodline" in their bodies, and the few exceptions also had strong Water God power in their bodies.

“No wonder that the three High Priestesses would agree to such a ridiculous plan.” Yun Que finally understood how supreme the Water God’s power was in this world.

The Water God conferred “Yun Hai” the White Emperor Mask, therefore, he carried the strongest Water God’s power on his body. In order to obtain the god’s power from him, probably the females in this world could forgive whatever he had wanted to do and done.

Throughout the world out there, even the most prurient emperor didn’t dare to marry a million girls. However, the people in this world were happy to see it happening.

“What a... ridiculous world!” Yun Que struck the table.

“I don’t like this world, I don’t like this result. This is not ‘justice’!”

Yun Que ground her teeth and clenched her fists.

I will make this bastard pay for his crimes sooner or later!

“Yun Que, you are here?...” Yun Xi looked at Yun Que in confusion.

He thought that Yun Que looked different today. This was the first time, Yun Que looked... so angry.

“Sorry, I just lost my temper. Oh, congratulations! You have finished capturing the three High Priestesses’ hearts. You are really a ‘competent scumbag’!” Yun Que looked at Yun Xi coldly and sneeringly.

Yun Xi smiled bitterly. Didn’t you tell me to do this? Why are you so angry now?

In fact, the whole thing was still going well before I proposed to the three High Priestesses.

“Any news about Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword?” Yun Xi tried to move his attention to their most dangerous enemy, the Sky Sword.

Even though he had four hero ranked fiancées, he still didn’t know whether he could survive any of the Sky Sword’s attacks.

Sky Swords was the strongest people in the Sky Sword God’s Domain. Any of them could destroy a whole world easily. If Yun Xi didn’t get help from the Water God, he didn’t think that he would have made it till now.

“I have a good news and a bad news. Which news do you want to listen to first?” With her hands on her chin, Yun Que looked at Yun Xi with a cold smile.

“Bad news first.” Yun Xi only hoped that the bad news wasn’t too desperate.

“Ok, some people had witnessed the first Golden Slime King, which means that the Sky Sword’s coming has entered the third phase.” Yun Que sighed. As expected, it wasn’t likely to slow down the Sky Sword’s coming by sweeping up the common green slimes.

Slimes weren't only living on the ground.

In the rivers, seas and caves, as long as there were water and nourishment, the low-grade monsters could always survive and produce offspring.

The only way to stop the slime race from proliferating was to find all their nests and exterminate them with a powerful army, but that was impossible!

"Then, what's the good news?" Yun Xi sighed with emotion. As expected, the Sky Sword's power was far beyond his imagination.

Thinking of this, he habitually pinched the green slime bracelet on his arm. His Water Mist Field automatically collected the slimes, condensed them and formed them into the bracelet these days. He had been used to wearing the bracelet on his arm everyday.

"The good news is: we are not inferior to the Sky Sword's camp!" Yun Que smiled with pleasure.

I didn't expect there would be such a strong force in the Water God's world!

Chapter 239: The Water God's Song

"Under the command of the Water God's priests, the girls who believe in the Water God can form a special spell formation called 'the Water God's Song'."

“If a Water God’s Song was formed by a thousand ordinary girls, then its power would be stronger than most hero ranked monsters. The only shortcoming of this special spell formation is that its members must work in coordination, so they need to practice a lot for it, and if a member died, the special spell formation’s power would be greatly reduced.”

Yun Que gazed at Yun Xi and continued, “This time, we have a million bride candidates, and the three strongest High Priestesses. Our biggest advantage is: they are immortal in your Mist Soul Army! In this case, the Water God’s Song’s biggest shortcoming has been offset. As long as you’re not dead, the Water God’s Song won’t stop.”

Yun Que said with enthusiasm as her eyes brightened up. The girls’ bloodlines could resonate with each other, forming a power that was greater than most hero ranked beings’. Yun Que thought, that if she didn’t come to the Water God’s world, she would never have imagined its existence.

The Water God’s Song was such a miraculous trump card, which was created to fight against the monsters from the Mist Tide.

In Caelian, there were three standing teams of one thousand priestesses. In peaceful time, they would practice the Water God’s Song together, and when the Mist Tide appeared, they would go to fight the monsters in the Mist Tide.

“Teams of priestesses? Does that mean...” Yun Xi had a guess.

“Yes, the three High Priestesses are the three teams’ leaders. It’s really a good deal having their support!” Even though she hated Yun Hai’s shameless and salacious personality, she had to admit that he did the right thing.

“With their help, we can form a Water God’s Song that is over ten thousand people. It’s really good that we have earned their trust.”

“So, they are so good...” Yun Xi murmured as he remembered the three Queens faces.

“Are you ready?” Yun Que picked up the portraits on the table. They were the portraits of the most excellent girls Yun Que had specially selected for Yun Xi, who would become the core members of Yun Xi’s Mist Soul Army.

Even Yun Que had to admit that the Water God’s world had too many excellent girls. They were the hope and the future of this world!

Again, Yun Que sensed the Water God’s favour in Yun Xi. He really was being loved by the god and this world.

“Yes, since this is my mission, since I’m the only person who can do it, then, I will shoulder this mission’s responsibility and do whatever I can do to save this world!” Yun Xi could see that Side Quest Four was shining in his Starchild Love System.

To love, Starchild!

To witness and experience this fantastic world, then find the truth.

Only in this case, will you know how to love.

“The plan will start tomorrow.” Yun Que put a pile of documents in front of Yun Xi. Although she felt sick to do it, she still did her best to help Yun Xi.

For victory, she could agree to Yun Xi's proposal with her true identity and become the commander of the Mist Soul Army.

In order to become stronger, she could accept and even make use of this world's ridiculous rules.

"Ah, a million brides! I will try my best." Yun Xi looked through the portraits.

He knew he wasn't really going to marry a million girls. After he finished his quests in this world and left, they would all wake up into the real world and forget the things that happened in this world.

However, Yun Xi wouldn't forget them.

At the very least, they were here now. They were breathing the same air and feeling the same sunshine with him.

He would propose to them tomorrow.

This night, many people wouldn't go to sleep.

...

In the Lamia Race's cave.

“Our Queen has stolen the Apostle’s heart! She is too experienced!”

“I also want to do ‘this thing’ and ‘that thing’ with the Apostle!”

“Feya wants to grow up quickly!”

The Lamias chattered. They had made an unanimous decision that tomorrow, they would propose to the Apostle together at the ceremony.

...

In the Mermaid’s palace, a group of Mermaids gathered around the Mermaid Queen and listened to her story with the Apostle.

“Oh, my friends, I’m sorry, but I won’t give him to anyone else!”

“We are best friends since our childhoods, but I won’t share him with you.”

“Forgive me. For love, I can give up anything.”

The Mermaids really liked to experience sad love.

Finally, in the Caelian Queen's family.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes. Our Queen has decided to marry the Apostle."

"Our Queen is the god's priestess. If our god wants to see 'that future', then our Queen must respond to the Apostle's expectations."

"The most honorable Apostle has appeared. You all know what that means."

"All Elizabethans, play your cards right."

"The Water God's Song will never stop."

Chapter 240: The Little Rabbit in the Morning

"Dang! Dong! Dang!" The Bell of Blessing echoed in the sky above the city again.

This time, the bell wasn't ringing for anyone, but for a thing that nobody had guessed.

Apart from the three High Priestesses, Yun Que and Yun Xi, no one had ever imagined such a thing.

Yun Xi opened his eyes. He turned his head and looked at Lu Lu, the scenes from last night still hovered in his mind.

After having relationships with the three High Priestesses, his self-control had been greatly reduced. Last night, he went back to his room and found that Lu Lu was sleeping in his bed. Vaguely, he took her as one of the three Queens.

When he realized that the feet in his hands were too pure and tender, which obviously did not belong to any of the three Queens, Lu Lu was almost on the verge of tears.

However, much to her credit she didn't run away. She was frightened, but she still painstakingly kept her voice down. Her whimpering, and the warm feel of her skin had all worked together to make Yun Xi to lose his mind.

Her feet were small, but the feel was unbelievably good. Her white toenails were as cute as a row of pearls. As her two crystal like small feet shook in his hands, her body trembled as if she was a poor scared little doggy.

Her cute face was as sweet as fruit sugar, and her lips were as juicy as cherries. Yun Xi thought that he could taste them all day and would never feel bored.

The result was: Yun Xi didn't sleep all night. Although he finally stopped before taking the last step, he had done everything else apart from that.

Yun Xi clearly knew that he shouldn't taste this "fruit", but as guilt filled within his heart, he still failed to resist Lu Lu's temptation.

As for Lu Lu, when Yun Xi held her feet in his hands, she had already given up resisting and let Yun Xi taste her lips fully.

Before she had stealthily walked into Yun Xi's room, she went to the Water God temple's fountain and bathed her body in the medicinal herbal water. As the result, her skin was as smooth as silk fabrics, and also as sweet as creme brulee. The aroma of herb covered her whole body.

Yun Xi put down Lu Lu's feet and put his hands on her shoulders. His lips gently stroked Lu Lu's lips, then covered her mouth tightly.

Their tongues tangled together. Lu Lu's saliva was as sweet as honey, letting Yun Xi drunkenly suck her tongue for more.

Symbolically, Lu Lu slightly resisted him. She softly put her hands on his chest and nudged him, but her innocent clear eyes had already closed and waited for Yun Xi's next assault.

Her long eyelashes fluttered as her body struggled in Yun Xi's arms, however, how could her teeth stop Yun Xi's experienced kiss? After a few tries, Yun Xi's tongue had opened her teeth and tasted her tongue with abandon.

As her body become hotter and hotter, finally, she was lost in the great pleasure and forgot everything else. As her toes curled and straightened, her legs subconsciously kicked in the air.

“Oh, Apostle... don’t please... I’m afraid...” Lu Lu entreated.

In the end, she wasn’t a non-human like the Lamia Queen nor the Mermaid Queen, and she didn’t have a strong will like the Caelian Queen. Before she became a member of the Starwing Knights, she was just an ordinary girl.

If she didn’t go to the small village and take part in the Sword Palace Examination, probably she would have married someone in her hometown.

Most female swordsmen who couldn’t pass the Sword Palace Examination would marry someone sooner or later, because the fact of “failing to be selected” has proved that they didn’t have a future in the path of the sword. Not everyone was as talented as Xiao Cao, who could step onto her own hero’s journey with her mortal’s sword.

After waking up in the Water God’s world, Lu Lu became a talented pharmacist and had found her own hero’s journey. But in a natural way, she was still that normal, innocent girl.

While she was really facing the most important moment in her life, she was so nervous that she could barely speak.

“Oh...” Listening to her entreaty, Yun Xi finally realized that she wasn’t like any of the three High Priestesses.

She wasn’t a native of this world, so she wouldn’t be charmed by the Water God’s power on his body. When she agreed to his proposal, she really thought that she would be his wife forever.

No matter how many loves he had obtained through the three High Priestesses, in Yun Xi's heart, Lu Lu was still his first fiance. She was still that pharmacist girl who bravely responded to his proposal first.

"Sorry, I didn't mean to scare you." Yun Xi's look, toned down as his desire had also drained away. He drew back his hands from her shoulders and put them back onto her feet.

"No... it's just... too fast. I'm not prepared yet. My Apostle, can you give me more time?" Lu Lu blushed as her feet trembled in Yun Xi's palms.

Her shy face was so cute, as if she were a little rabbit that was going to be eaten by the big bad wolf.
