Chapter 311: The Mermaid Girls Like NTR(1)

The Mermaid Queen was in a good mood.

She was different from the Caelian Queen, because she didn't need to achieve any heavy mission and didn't need to carry on the Mermaid Race's line.

After all, the Mermaid Race was a long-lived race and was very popular with other races.

Even though the human race instinctively disliked sea races, when the sailors saw the beautiful Mermaids that were singing, they would be entranced and stupidly drove their ships into dangerous areas.

Of course, the Mermaids also believed in the Water God, they wouldn't watch them die. They would laugh at the sailors but would also send the sailors and their ships back to the safe seas.

Mermaids were carefree and blessed with optimism and enthusiasm. In the Water God's world, they were the sea race that was blessed by their god.

They didn't have a terrible power, a strong body or a slender screw tail just like Lamias, because they didn't need them.

The Mermaid Race didn't have any natural enemy in this world. Apart from worrying about the reproduction of their race, which was a problem that was also torturing the Lamia Race, they had nothing to worry about.

And this was the problem.

They were too perfect.

If they wanted to eat, they would go to the sea and start singing, then a lot of fish would swim to them and become their food voluntarily.

If they wanted treasures, the entire shallow sea was their garden. They could find all kinds of priceless shell, agate and coral there.

The sea was their home, and their shelter. As long as they didn't go to the deep sea, where the Lamia Race's territory, they wouldn't face any danger.

In this world that all beings believed in the Water God, no one dared to hurt the Mermaid Race.

They were a rare race that was beloved by all races on the ground and in the sea, so they naturally became the crossing mind bridges between the ground races and the sea races, and it wasn't a problem to them since their voice could move people's souls.

To humans, life was a problem that needed them to make tough choices constantly.

To Mermaids, they had a long life and were loved by all races, life was an easy problem they could solve with their eyes closed.

Throughout the history of the Water God's world, apart from several unlucky Mermaids who were involved in the Mist Tide and met the butterflies of death, Mermaids rarely died due to accident.

Therefore, do Mermaids feel happy?

In the eyes of humans, they were happy, and Mermaids themselves also thought so too.

However, as time went by, Mermaids gradually found that their souls started to dry up. Their happy lives gradually became awfully dull.

Gorgeous pearls, jewels and agates were their favorite treasures, but after obtaining too much, they got bored.

They didn't need to hunt fish because they would come to their mouths when they felt hungry. They got bored.

Boring, boring, life is too boring! They didn't have any challenge and enemy in their lives, today was just a repeat of yesterday, and tomorrow would become a repeat of today.

The most perfect life also meant the most boring life. They couldn't find any surprise in their lives!

If everyday was just a repeat of yesterday, even if they had countless treasures and were adored by more people, they couldn't find any meaning of their lives.

They couldn't feel happy any longer. They usually thought "happiness" was as natural as breathing to them, but in fact, they were not happy at all.

After realizing this, despair appeared in the Mermaids' hearts. At that time, the biggest reduction of the Mermaid Race began.

No, the Mermaids who died weren't being killed by outside forces. They just felt extremely disappointed about their lives and the world, they finally went into the deepest sea and returned to the arms of the sailing jellyfishes there.

It was probably the darkest time in the history of the Mermaid Race. The number of Mermaids reduced down to one third, a lot of Mermaids chose to return to void after losing the meaning of their lives.

People didn't understand why beautiful Mermaids disappeared one after another. They offered various of gifts to Mermaids, trying to save their lives in this manner, but their effort was utterly useless.

In order to break this fate, the remaining Mermaids went out of their way and asked all races for help, finally they found the root of this problem.

The Mermaid Race was too perfect.

If they had a short life like mankind, they didn't need to worry about this, because the life of dozens of years wasn't sufficient for them to enjoy their short happy time.

Unfortunately, just like the Lamia Race, the Mermaid Race was a long-lived race too. Their looks wouldn't even become old. Apart from the Mermaids who died in accidents, there was still no Mermaid that had died due to growing old.

As long as they didn't go into the Mist Tide, they wouldn't meet any danger.

Yes, they were too blessed. This was the problem. Because they didn't lack of anything, the Mermaid Race didn't have any motivation to move forward. In this case, they even felt confused about the meaning of their lives.

No, this cannot go on!

However, they didn't know how to solve it, because this world was too "Easy Mode" for the Mermaid Race!

Till one day, a Mermaid met a drowning prince.

At that time, the Mermaid just decided to die. She would go to the deepest side of the sea and return to the arms of the sea in the lullaby of the sailing jellyfishes. She just accidentally saved the prince whose ship just shipwrecked on her way to death.

Till now, nothing surprising had happened. If the "accident" hadn't happened, the Mermaid Race would still be struggling in their darkest time.

Maybe it was the mercy of fate, the prince dazedly mistook the Mermaid for his fiancée. He thought that his fiancée saved him, so he kissed her with gratitude.

However, after the prince completely woke up and found that he kissed an unknown lady, he showed a disappointed and sorry look on his face.

“Sorry, I shouldn’t kiss you. I mistook you for my fiancée.”

Chapter 312: The Mermaid Girls Like NTR(2)

“Sorry?”

“I shouldn’t kiss you?”

“I mistook you for my fiancée?”

Every word the prince said made a heavy blow to the Mermaid’s heart, who just prepared to continue her journey of death.

If having to describe her mood, it was like a lost shipmaster who just found a new continent when he had given up hope.

This man, He? Didn’t? Like? Me?

After obtaining her kiss, the Mermaid that was born in the most beautiful race, his first word was “sorry”.

There was really someone in this world that wouldn’t be charmed with Mermaid’s beauty! This prince still loved his fiancée with all his heart and soul!

Undoubtedly, the Mermaid Race was the most beautiful race in this world, they could capture people's hearts simply by using their sweet singing voice. There were barely people who could resist their voices.

Ordinary people's hearts would be captured by their voices even before seeing their real appearances.

"Do you like your fiancée?" The Mermaid asked with a strong, strange emotion rose in her heart.

"Yes, she is my childhood sweetheart, the girl of my best love."

"Although it was just a political marriage at the beginning, but I gradually really fell in love with her."

"Even though she is just a delicate heiress who can't even live alone without servants and has a lot of weaknesses, but to me, she is the most perfect girl in the entire universe for me." The prince said in a shameful tone.

In his eyes, the Mermaid was undoubtedly the most beautiful female he had ever seen. Unfortunately, he had had the girl he liked, and he had decided to take his responsibility as the heir of the king. So he wouldn't hesitate to marry his childhood sweetheart, the "useless" aristocratic miss.

If he didn't meet his fiancée, his heart would probably be captured by the Mermaid in front of him, because her beauty was so exceptional, that it could shake any mortal's will.

Fortunately, he wasn't an ordinary person. He was a knight that had the potential to reach the hero rank. Therefore, he could hardly control his heart from being moved by her charm.

His heart had been filled with another girl, so there was already no room for a second person.

“Your childhood sweetheart is the most perfect girl in the entire universe for you...” Listening to the prince’s heartfelt words, the Mermaid’s eyes brightened up with a strange look on her face.

Yes, she had found it. She had found the fountain of emotion that could moisten her dried heart again.

How long ago did she last have this feeling? She felt as if she just returned to the moment when she first opened her eyes looking at this beautiful world in front of her foster mother, the sailing jellyfish.

She vaguely realized that this sudden emotion could change the fate of the entire Mermaid Race.

The Mermaids were natural winners that had obtained everything from the beginning.

Food, wealth, power! Nothing was hard to obtain for the daughters of the sea.

Is there still something the Mermaids couldn’t obtain?

Yes, there was! The Mermaid Race hadn’t realized this in the past, but she just saw it, felt it and touched it!

It was a human’s heart. To be precise, it was love, which was more beautiful than gems, purer than pearls and more valuable than agates.

Love was the most adorable treasure they hadn't obtained, and the prince in front of her had such a treasure, which granted him the power to refuse the Mermaid's charm.

If she fell in love with this prince, what will happen?

The Mermaid thought and did it.

Because Mermaids all produced the next generation with the sailing jellyfishes, most Mermaids didn't even think of falling in love with the beings of other races.

In this story, the Mermaid was the first, and the first Mermaid who experienced the pain of love.

The prince deserved to be a knight that had the potential to reach the hero rank. He loved his fiancée and never betrayed his love.

The aristocratic miss was protected and loved by him like a flower in a greenhouse till the end of her life.

As for the Mermaid, after saving the prince, she turned her tail into human legs using a secret magic and walked to the human kingdom. Her exceeding beauty made countless men go crazy, but no one could go into her heart.

Her goal was clear from the beginning to the extent that everyone knew.

For that goal, she went to the royal palace and became the queen's best friend. Yes, the prince had ascended the throne and married the aristocratic miss at that time.

She helped the king develop the kingdom, making his kingdom strong and prosperous.

Everyone thought that the beautiful and virtuous Mermaid should couple up with the king, and they didn't believe that anyone would refuse her love.

Unfortunately, the heroic king was an upright knight, he was still deeply in love with his wife and refused the Mermaid's proposal over and over again.

During his life, his love to his wife never shook.

After the king and the queen lived out their happy life, the Mermaid stood in front of their grave in silence.

Yes, when all was said and done, the Mermaid had fallen in love with the couple, not just the king.

She came with evil in her heart, trying to break up the couple, but was finally forgiven by both of the king and the queen and became their best friend.

Maybe it was a tragedy in the eyes of other people, because she had paid almost everything but still grasped nothing in her empty hands.

Only the Mermaid herself knew what a treasure she had obtained from the two people who loved each other.

It was the most everlasting and valuable treasure in this world.

“To love, to look for the people who deserve your love, then fall in love like a flying moth darts into the fire.”

“Don’t mind, will it succeed or fail, or rather to say, a sad love that will never bear the fruit of happiness is better. It can let us grow up.”

“We don’t lack happiness and sunshine, but we do lack sadness and tear.”

“If you can have a bitter love that can make you cry, then your heart will never dry out.”

“Only NTR is immortal in this world!”

Oh, my ancestor, your words are right! Holding her shoulders in her arms, the Mermaid Queen smiled looking at the White Emperor and the Lamia Queen.

She was feeling the acid, bitter and painful love in her heart.

Undoubtedly, this love would become an eternal memory, hiding in the deepest side of her heart as her most valuable treasure.

Chapter 313: The Caelian Queen’s Whisper

Wearing the crown which stood for the highest wisdom and right of humans, the Caelian Queen lowered her head and half knelt in front of Yun Xi. Silver ribbons blew in the wind on her back.

The Caelian Queen clearly knew her mission at this moment.

Her existence, even the birth of the first Queen Elizabeth was for this man, this moment.

The god's lover is their lover.

In the circle of life, the name "Elizabeth" was inherited from generation to generation, when the old Elizabeth died, the new Elizabeth would take over this mission.

She was celebrating that she was the first Elizabeth who could accomplish this mission. She hesitated and rebelled against her mission in the past, but finally understood her responsibility in the face of the cruel fate.

Humans had two most important days in their lives.

The first was their birthday. It was the beginning of everything, the day the small life opened its eyes, looked at this world and emitted its first cry.

The second was the day they suddenly understood the meaning of their lives and how to keep going on the road of their lives.

When Elizabeth was still a little girl, she hesitated, wandered, rebelled and lost.

Till she inherited the mission of her family and became the Caelian Queen, she finally vaguely realized what the Elizabeths were waiting for from generation to generation.

“Today is a special day.” Holding the Water God’s Scepter in her hand and listened to the euphonious tinkles of bells on the scepter, the Caelian Queen looked straight at Yun Xi’s eyes under the mask and said lightly, “Maybe you are still hesitating. Do you still feel this world is just a pipe dream?”

Yun Xi was shocked. He looked at the Caelian Queen in surprise.

Has she found out?

Amongst all the people in the Water God’s world, only she had looked through Yun Xi’s mind.

Yes, to Yun Xi, even though he had stood on the highest stage of this world and achieved the highest achievement of saving this world, but in his heart, he still thought that this was just a fantastic dream.

He couldn’t force himself to consider this a real world, including himself in this world.

The exalted White Emperor, the man that was beloved by the god, the master of this world. Compared to the identity of a common baker, these identities were too far fetched.

Everyone naturally regarded him as the favourite of this world and the highest Apostle.

Only Yun Xi knew these “good things” came too fast and sudden. He was at a loss for what to do.

He wasn’t prepared to be the “White Emperor”.

When he challenged the invincible Sky Sword at all costs, he didn’t prepare to return and be the “White Emperor”.

They were the things he saw and experienced in this world letting him perform his decision.

It wasn’t for glory or legend, nor rather to be the master of this world. It was really a simple reason that drove him to challenge Shaya Longnis.

I want to protect this world and save the living beings in it. I don’t want to see this world destroyed.

He never imagined that he would become this world’s master.

Till the last moment, he finally understood this world wasn’t fake but really existed... Well, it was really a huge mess!

“If you still feel uneasy, look at me.” The Caelian Queen smiled gently after seeing through Yun Xi’s thought.

He is the hero who saved this world, he is the only Emperor of this world, but now, he behaved so childishly, it was both funny and cute.

Yun Xi looked at the Caelian Queen. Under the protection of the Water God's god power, time left no trace on the beautiful queen's face.

Today, Elizabeth was just like her ancestors, beautiful and attractive, bright and sacred.

Yun Xi instantly remembered her white, jade like beautiful body. Under the bell of blessing, her cute body was as tender as a bamboo shoot, her every slightest movement could let him feel the most wonderful handfeel of her warm skin.

In the hot spring, her slender legs shook in the air, her white toes were as cute as shells.

In the room of the temple, when the sunlight dropped in the morning, shining on her beautiful body that was half covered by her priceless robe, she looked like she was walking out of a painting.

In the last several days in the Water God's world, she had left too many wonderful memories for Yun Xi.

"Do you understand it now?" The Caelian Queen said, as if she had guessed what Yun Xi was thinking, then blushed.

Even though she had learned very hard and could almost recite the prohibited book "The Shameless Demon and His One Thousand Daughters", when they entered the "actual combat", she still felt too shy, so that they could do nothing actively.

Maybe this was a kind of talent. Apparently, she couldn't open her heart and do whatever she likes at any time, just like the Mermaid Queen and the Lamia Queen.

However, she still understood a thing, which could be the most useful knowledge she learned from the prohibited book.

Chapter 314: The Lamia Queen's Gaze

The last was the Lamia Queen at Yun Xi's right side. Just like the Mermaid Queen and the Caelian Queen, she was also half kneeling on the ground.

However, she was more bold because her long screw tail was wrapping around Yun Xi's arm.

To the Lamia Race, this was the token of their love, the ceremony for mating.

Unlike the Mermaid Queen who was liked by all races, Lamias were born with a curse. Because the Lamias' were called "the strongest race in the Water God's world",

Even though they believed in the same god, humans were still afraid of the Lamia Race. They would never get in contact with the Lamia Race or other deep sea races unless it was necessary.

In the eyes of humans, even though they had the same faith, these Lamias from the deep sea were still some indescribable nightmare monsters.

In rumours, deep sea races liked to eat humans!

Apparently, it was just a rumour. Anyone with a mind could find what a groundless rumour it was after thinking for a while.

How could any human live in the deep sea, therefore, how could the deep sea races develop a habit of eating humans! After all, the deep sea was death to humans. Even if throwing a piece of iron into the deep sea, it would be pressed flat, not to mention yhr humans.

Most deep sea races could naturally shrink their bodies, endure cold and darkness, therefore, deep sea creatures' natural physique was totally different from the creatures that lived in the shallow sea and the ground.

The Lamia Race was a rare deep sea race that could adapt to the environment of the ground, the shallow sea and the deep sea. They were veritable overlords in the Water God's world.

Amongst the three Water God's High Priestesses, the Lamia Queen was also the strongest.

However, Lamias didn't do so well on the road of love.

They were not just brainless deep sea monsters, they didn't think that other deep sea races were similar to them at all, naturally, they wouldn't mate with them no matter how strong the deep sea creature was.

They were also not human, people were afraid of their screw tails. They even said that Lamias could turn humans into stone with their eyes.

The Medusa is the creature that can petrify humans with its eyes, not Lamia! The girls of the Lamia Race often wanted to yell at the humans who spread this rumour. Do you really have any common sense?

Medusa is a god blood creature that looks like a female human with living venomous snakes in place of hair, and Lamia was a deep sea creature that looks like a female human with a snake tail. Medusas are demigod creatures, and Lamias are the believers of the Water God. They were totally two different kinds of creatures!

Unfortunately, once a misconception formed, it would be too difficult to remove it. Although Lamias had strong power from their bloodline, they still avoided appearing in front of the public, wandering outside of the Caelian City for thousands of years.

The more so, the more mysterious they became in the eyes of humans, and even more terrible stories about Lamias spread around the world. Even when the Lamia Queen appeared in Caelian, although people knew that she was one of the High Priestesses, a lot of ordinary people would still be scared.

Due to this, after the sailing jellyfishes disappeared, the Lamia Race faced the biggest crisis of reproduction in their history.

Fortunately, they met the person who changed their fates.

At the beginning, they knew they didn't have any other choices, they could only accept this answer, marrying the White Emperor who was the only person that could help the Lamia Race keep proliferating.

Most Lamias accepted the White Emperor's proposal because of curiosity and the feeling of freshness.

But soon, they found the world became different due to the marriage contract with the White Emperor.

Because they had become the White Emperor's brides, they suddenly had a lot of partners.

These partners weren't just from other deep sea races, but from all kinds of races, and most of them were humans.

The Lamia Queen left the deep sea for the reproduction of their race, but gradually, they had a lot of friends from other races and didn't keep being mysterious. They started to walk and play on the streets and in the streams of Caelian.

Fear and unease were due to lack of understanding and communication.

Because they didn't have any communication channel with the humans, they couldn't even make the first step and could only see the rumours becoming more and more bizarre.

After they became "the White Emperor's brides", they finally dared to walk in the Caelian City. After talking with the humans, they found that people didn't really hate them so much.

Especially the girls who had also become the White Emperor's brides, they not only were not hostile to Lamias, but also helped them solve their problems of living in human society.

Lamias' recipes were different from humans', they liked to eat living animals straightly. It wasn't an unacceptable problem for humans.

Lamias liked to sleep in dark, wet but also clean places, people helped them build special rooms to ensure their good sleep.

In turn, when humans lacked a labor force to build large buildings, it was the time that Lamias' strong strengths could be of some use.

Lamia's slender screw tail could easily roll up the items that were dozens of times heavier than their weights. Soon after, they became the main force on rebuilding the Water God's sacrificial altar.

In armies, Lamias' strong combat power were more attractive to all human commanders. The Lamia Army's combat power was ten times stronger than any common army and they were even a hundred times stronger when they were in the water.

"Becoming the White Emperor's brides" was a turning point for them all. Taking this opportunity, the people in Caelian finally accepted them. Their slender screw tails became a fantastic scene in this city.

The Lamia Queen looked at this happening and firmly remembered it in her heart.

It was this man bringing all the changes to the Lamia Race. She was willing to wrap around his waist with her screw tail forever.

It must be our destiny. Recalling the meeting of that day, the Lamia Queen's eyes became burning with desire.

When she saw him the first time, her bloodline was yelling "eat him", it was a powerful thirst that she had never experienced before.

The Lamia Race was the closest to Hydra's bloodline. As the descendant of the Water God, she thought that her mood was affected by her bloodline at that time.

However, it doesn't matter. She found pleasure in it.

Chapter 315: Do You Want to Be My Disciple?

The Mermaid Queen stood for the shallow sea races, the Lamia Queen stood for the deep sea races, the Caelian Queen stood for the Caelian City and all mankind, the over one million brides from all races and the tutors from the White Lotus Sword Palace were all looking at Yun Xi, looking at the actual dominator of the Water God's world.

Till now, Yun Xi still couldn't believe that he did these things.

Was it really me?

He remembered the nervous feeling he had when he first came to the Water God's world, the uneasy feeling when he first met Hydra, and his confusion after becoming the Water God's Apostle. Everything he had now was just the treasures he obtained in a dream.

Did Yun Xi really dream of being the "White Emperor", or was it just a trick of the stars?

Maybe he was still in the dream trial, maybe after he woke up, he would return to reality.

He and the Starwing Knights girls were still waiting for rescue on the island.

The one million brides would be a memory that only existed in his mind. When he occasionally remembered it in the future, he would also laugh at this ridiculous experience in the dream.

Oh, how good it will be if I'm still dreaming! Yun Xi smiled bitterly and took the crown offered by the three Queens.

It was the gift from the three High Priestesses and all living beings in the Water God's world, it was a gift for their new Emperor.

Nine different gems were installed on the transparent crystal crown, each gem stood for a meaning, and they perfectly fitted the White Emperor Mask as if they were born for that.

The magnificent ruby.

The clear sapphire.

The profound black obsidian.

The sacred moonstone.

The colorful diamond.

The golden crystal.

The silver ice crystal.

And a pair of ambers, which looked like living sailing jellyfish and butterfly of death.

To be a crown it was too gorgeous and delicate, it would be more convincing if it was a bride's ornament.

Oh, right, isn't the my other identity of the White Emperor the Water God's bride?

"It's really... embarrassing..." After putting the crown on his head, Yun Xi walked alone to the top of the Water God's sacrificial altar, looking at the highest ranking visitor walking to him with a smile.

Today was the day in memory of defeating Shaya Longnis, the tenth Sky Sword, and the day the White Emperor was formally recognized as the dominator of the Water God's world.

At the same time, it was also the beginning day the Water God's world opened to the outside world.

Of course, since the Water God, Hydra was still sleeping, the White Emperor needed to take the responsibility to deal with all these things.

However, Yun Xi had a feeling that the beauty that was walking to him was going to have a good laugh at him.

It must be my delusion! After all, she is the venerable sixth Sky Sword, the Battle God, Casina!

Yun Xi tried to hypnotize himself. He was just a common baker in a common small town not long ago, and now he had to sign the Establish Diplomatic Relations contract with a Sky Sword, this wouldn't even happen in his wildest dream!

What kind of look should I have on my face? Is my clothes decorous? Did I do something wrong?

Oh, I really should let others who had a richer experience do this!

Unfortunately, no one could replace Yun Xi on this. He was the only person who was entitled to welcome Casina in this world.

"Are you afraid of me?" Looking at Yun Xi's nervous face, Casina shrugged her shoulders and stretched out her hand.

Subconsciously, Yun Xi took a step back because his instinct was strongly warning him.

Danger! Danger!

While Yun Xi's body was possessed by Casina, he beat Shaya Longnis down easily, and now he experienced what Shaya Longnis was feeling at that time.

I can't escape, I can't defend against her attack, all efforts will be useless.

Casina's hand caught Yun Xi's body like an eagle catching a chicken, he didn't have any chance to resist.

Shaya Longnis once used the Dark Shadow Spider Queen's power, forming a prodigious dark shadow web in the entire Water God's world to hunt prey.

Casina didn't need such a thing, because her hand were already an overwhelming web. The sensation of asphyxia was more terrible than anyone could imagine before they really experienced it.

"Don't panic, boy..." Casina easily caught Yun Xi in her hand and pinched his cheek with one hand.

Hum, it's soft, the hand-feel isn't bad! Casina smiled and patted Yun Xi's shoulder.

"I take a good view of you. Although you are still too weak now, but you have a strong potential. Do you want to be my disciple?"

"Err..." Sweat streamed down Yun Xi's face. He had almost agreed to Casina's offer.

If it wasn't for his four ex-girlfriends being even stronger than Casina, he could enjoy a lifetime of carefree life under Casina's protection.

Unfortunately, it was impossible. Although Casina was the strongest person Yun Xi had ever seen, she couldn't be a match for his four ex-girlfriends.

Lu Lu was just a common Apostle sent by one of his ex-girlfriends, and she was already a strong legend ranked dragon. Yun Xi couldn't imagine how strong his four ex-girlfriends actually were.

Therefore, he had no choice but to refuse Casina.

“Sorry, I think your ‘Battle God Genre’ isn’t fit for me.” Yun Xi declined Casina.

“Oh, you like to fight in water?” Casina asked and cocked her head. A human who doesn’t like to fight on the ground but likes to fight in water? What a rare genre!

What made you have that conclusion?!

Because I don’t want to practice the Battle God Genre, the best martial arts on the ground, so I’m a person who likes to fight in water?

Does such a human really exist in the entire universe?

Yun Xi felt both funny and annoyed. Due to that, the awkward atmosphere between them was relieved.

“Yes, this is it. You should smile because you are still young, why do you always look worried? Even if the world will be destroyed tomorrow, we should still have a happy fight today!” Casina raised her lips and pinched Yun Xi’s cheek again.

Well, the hand-feel is really not bad! His skin is not bad, everything is not bad, his body has perfect flexibility and agility.

What a good body with a great potential!

Chapter 316: I Don't Agree!

"Hum, not bad, not bad... very well..."

Casina pinched Yun Xi's cheeks and felt the soft and rubbery handfeel. She smiled like a tiger who just caught a delicious prey.

In her eyes, every part of Yun Xi's body was perfect.

Don't look down on the softness and flexibility of skin. It was a rare natural gift even amongst millions of people.

In the endless god's domains, this was one of the two fantastic body constitutions all martial artists dreamed of obtaining: "Soft Body".

The "soft" didn't mean "weak", the "soft" was compared to another fantastic body constitution: "Rigid Body".

The representative being who had the "Rigid Body" were the Lava Giants, their bodies were as hard as steel. To humans who had this special body constitution, they were born with super strong strength and their bodies were also different from ordinary people. If traced back to the source, it was very likely that their ancestors had Giant Bloodlines.

The people who had the "Rigid Body" was a natural warrior. Even if they didn't practice any martial arts, they could still be invincible generals on the battlefield. Correspondingly, they needed to eat ten times more food than ordinary people.

On the contrary, the “Soft Body” was totally different. The people who were born with the “soft body” were a much lesser person than the people who were born with the “Rigid Body”. So far, no one could explain the reasoning behind the form of this special body constitution.

Compared to the “Rigid Body”, the “Soft Body” had advantages on flexibility and agility. The people who had the “Soft Body” could bend their bodies to an extent that was far beyond ordinary people’s imagination. However, it didn’t mean the people with a “Soft Body” couldn’t build their muscles.

The “Rigid Body” and the “Soft Body” were all rare body constitutions that wouldn’t even appear amongst a million people. The people who had one of the two body constitutions were more likely to reach the legend rank than ordinary people.

If taking this as the starting point, the two special body constitutions could be subdivided into small branches such as “Berserker”, “Bloodthirster”, or “Iron Body”, they were all directly leading to the road of becoming immortal.

Casina herself was an owner of the “Soft Body” and she had stridden across the boundary between “softness” and “rigidness”, becoming a legend ranked martial artist that could use “The Magnificence of Sky Dance”, which was a world-class martial arts.

From the handfeel of Yun Xi’s body, Casina was sure that the “White Emperor” had the rare “Soft Body”. His “Soft Body” was so perfect that it could even be compared to Casina’s body when she was still a mortal.

Between the two super body constitutions, the “Rigid Body” was normally inherited by men and the “Soft Body” was inherited by women, it rarely had an exception. The man who had the “Soft Body” was really as rare as the hair on a phoenix, even in Casina’s long life, this kind of men could be counted on her fingers, and Yun Xi was the only person who had this innate body constitution but hadn’t formed his own battle style.

No, Casina thought that it wasn't a natural body constitution, it was more like the after result of removing all the impurities in his body. After experiencing an evolution of his life form, he finally made his body pristine. At first glance, his body was like the "Soft Body", but when Casina looked carefully, she found that his body was even much better than that.

"Is this the gift from the water god?" Casina pinched Yun Xi's face again. She affirmed that it wasn't a natural body constitution but a gift formed by a real god's source power.

No wonder Hydra fell into a deep sleep again. Casina wondered why Shaya Longnis' invasion made Hydra consume so much energy, and now Yun Xi's body constitution explained it.

Hydra, just how much do you love this boy? In order to give him this gift, you were even willing to sleep thousands of years again?

"I can't just see this body constitution being wasted..." Casina straightly ignored Yun Xi's refusal. She felt that she had just found a very interesting toy.

Her road of martial arts had almost reached an end. No matter how many strong enemies she would defeat, it wouldn't make her become a bit stronger. Because of this, she recently stopped practicing herself and returned to her homeplace, Sky Sword God's Domain, and helped Hydra "teach the tenth Sky Sword a lesson" on her way home.

After seeing Yun Xi's special body constitution, she suddenly had an idea. Maybe it could be her turning point on her way of becoming stronger.

She thought that if she could observe Yun Xi's learning path, she would find some inspirations from him.

Oh, he just refused? Sorry, but I didn't hear anything!

"Ok, it's settled. White Emperor, would you like to establish diplomatic relations with Sky Sword God's Domain?" Compared to her own wish of having a new disciple, the diplomatic statement was just a trivial matter to Casina.

"I do." Yun Xi didn't expect the process would be so simple. Shouldn't it be settled after a series of long negotiations over several months?

"Ok, then you will be my disciple." Casina nodded her head naturally.

Wait! I haven't agreed to that! Aren't we talking about the Establish Diplomatic Relations contract between the two worlds?

"Anybody else got a problem?" Casina didn't mind Yun Xi's opinion at all. All Sky Swords were wayward. The probability for a conformist to become a Sky Sword was zero.

All Sky Swords were monsters above monsters. They all had their special tempers.

Although Casina wouldn't destroy a world like Shaya Longnis tried to do, but once she decided to do something, she would do it immediately and never feel any regret.

This was her, Casina, the Battle God!

“I don’t agree!” A whoop of rage suddenly sounded in the air.

A girl holding a broken sword in her hand jumped on the stage, stared at Yun Xi and ground her teeth tightly.

As sweat streamed down Yun Xi’s face, he remembered how horrible Hua Huo’s anger was again!

Chapter 317: Angry Hua Huo

This wasn’t the Hua Huo that Yun Xi was familiar with!

Compared to her performance in the final battle with Shaya Longnis, Hua Huo looked far stronger and more terrible today.

The broken sword in her hand, although its shape hadn’t changed, it was undoubtedly not the sword used in the battle with Yun Que. It had become a much more terrible weapon that was emitting an aura from another dimension.

On her body, the flames of rage were burning!

If she just vaguely guessed that “the man with a silver mask” may have some relationship with Yun Xi.

Then now, after jumping on the stage, she looked as if she had just obtained valid evidence, her eyes looked as if they were saying “Don’t pretend, I know you who are Yun Xi!”.

Yes, she had noticed the truth that no one in the Water God's world had found out. Even Yun Que didn't guess it.

The White Emperor is Yun Xi.

It was her privilege as Yun Xi's childhood sweetheart. Only she, the girl who grew up together with Yun Xi could find this truth, step by step.

After confirming it, she had no hesitation in her heart.

She didn't mind that "challenging Yun Xi was equal to challenging the whole world", because she wouldn't let Casina, the sixth Sky Sword, take her Yun Xi away at this moment!

Therefore, she jumped onto the stage.

What is broken can be reforged. Today, I will reforge your lost soul!

"I will challenge you!" With hot flames burning inside her eyes, Hua Huo said, looking at Yun Xi without blinking.

She didn't care if she would become the enemy of the whole world.

Her Sky Flying Bloodline wouldn't be bound by anything. It was a supreme bloodline of freedom and boundless possibilities.

Her childhood sweetheart was being controlled by the strange silver mask, and so he made so many mistakes. Hua Huo thought that she had an obligation to rectify this situation, making the world return to normal.

She didn't care that this mask helped Yun Xi save the world, she only knew that her Little Xi became a bad boy after putting on this mask!

Yes, this couldn't be done by Yun Xi's own will, her childhood sweetheart wouldn't marry a million girls. It was too ridiculous!

Look, once she opened her "Jealousy Radar", the entire Caelian City was covered with innumerable red points.

The number of the red points was over one million and was still increasing!

Did my Little Xi do "this and that" every day with the one million girls in the past several days?

It makes me feel jealous... no, it is insufferable!

My Little Xi couldn't be such a shameless man!

Moreover, this bastard looked much older than her Little Xi. Therefore, there could be only one reason: Yun Xi's body had been possessed by the weird mask!

She would save Yun Xi from the bondage of this mask!

Even if it meant that she would be the enemy of the Sky Sword and this world!

"Well, well... I quit from this quarrel..." Casina looked across at Hua Huo and Yun Xi, then shrugged her shoulders and stepped back.

Let the two little guys deal with each other's business.

Yes, Casina wanted to see what would happen between the boy with the "Soft Body" and the girl with the Sky Flying Bloodline.

"Wait! I don't agree!"

"It's ten thousand years too early for you to challenge our White Emperor!"

"Even though you are our guest, it's still too impolite!"

Immediately, Hua Huo had over a million enemies.

“Humph. It’s none of your business. Go away.” Hua Huo answered.

“What?! We came to him first! You are nothing!” The girls became more angry.

“This is my battlefield!” As Yun Xi’s childhood sweetheart, the person who spent the longest time with him, Hua Huo said confidently. Plus her Sky Flying Bloodline helped her avoid being influenced by any negative emotions, even though she was one in one million, she didn’t feel any fear.

“Oh...” Yun Xi sighed. He understood Hua Huo had confirmed his real identity, but she misunderstood something, otherwise, she wouldn’t be so hostile.

“The sailing jellyfishes set up an energy shield. If you want to challenge me, you need to prove your power.” Yun Xi summoned dozens of sailing jellyfishes and let them set multiple life energy shields.

He knew how strong Hua Huo was. If he wasn’t in the Water God’s world, he had no chance of defeating Hua Huo.

Only here, on this special stage, he had an opportunity to fight against Hua Huo.

He was also curious about how strong, at this moment, he himself had become. And also where the limits of his childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo, were.

Yun Xi loves Hua Huo. So far, his love hadn’t faded away.

Compared to being the “White Emperor”, he preferred to be the common “Yun Xi”.

If I'm still Yun Xi and not the White Emperor, I couldn't refuse any request from Hua Huo!

He had never expected to be Hua Huo's enemy. Unlike the battle on the Island of Mist, he didn't have his one million brides' power at this moment, because the trial of the stars had ended. Now, he was just the White Emperor.

Maybe she had also noticed it. After all, she was Hua Huo!

"Very well, I will let you die in one piece!" Looking at the White Emperor Mask on Yun Xi's face, Hua Huo had judged it as the White Emperor's real body.

In some sense, she was right.

As long as Yun Xi was still wearing this mask, Yun Xi was the "White Emperor", the Water God's Apostle and bride.

And also, he was the enemy Hua Huo was going to defeat!

Chapter 318: The White Emperor's Fighting Stance

Above the sky of the Caelian City, one sailing jellyfish after another appeared, setting up the energy shields around the stage.

As the highest ranking fantasy creatures in the Water God's world, they stood for "life", therefore, the shields made by them was the safest protection in this world.

The noises around them gradually quieted down, it was the additional effect of the shield, Shielding Voices.

This was what Yun Xi told the sailing jellyfishes to do. He didn't want any accident to happen and affect their battle.

He and Hua Huo.

The White Emperor and the challenger.

Although they were surrounded by over a million people, this was still their own "two person world".

"Let my Little Xi come back, otherwise, I will tear you into pieces!"

Hua Huo said in a threatening manner.

"If I say no, what can you do?" Yun Xi smiled bitterly. Where could he find another himself returning to Hua Huo?

The White Emperor was Yun Xi!

Even though he had put on the mask and was called another name by all people, he was still himself, he didn't become another person. Even he himself felt that this reality was too unreal.

It was all the fault of Yun Que's "Expansion Plan of A Million Brides"!

Yun Que left this world so carefreely, but he had never thought what would happen to him.

No wonder that Hua Huo doubted that I'm not my own. What a big misunderstanding!

"Hey hey... it seems that you are still trying to pretend..." Hua Huo turned more hostile.

He can't be Yun Xi.

My Little Xi won't speak to me in this tone.

Since he is not my Little Xi, but just a body that is possessed by the evil mask, then all the mistakes this body made, weren't my Little Xi's fault.

It's all this cursed mask's fault!

The so called White Emperor isn't my Little Xi, but this mask is!

She finally understood why she didn't know it was her Little Xi when she first saw this man.

It wasn't simply because he was wearing the mask and his body became more mature, it was because of his temperament. It was just an evil soul that was controlling Little Xi's body!

Looking at Hua Huo's serious face, Yun Xi have finally figured it out.

This is an inevitable battle.

The "Little Xi" in Hua Huo's heart is me, but also not me.

Perhaps in Hua Huo's heart, the "White Emperor" who married a million girls was a heinous bastard.

But it wasn't the truth, unfortunately, Yun Xi couldn't explain it.

Because the "White Emperor" was indeed himself.

Yun Xi wanted to deny it, but he knew he had to come back to the real world. This was not a dream anymore, but the reality.

Therefore, he was indeed the "White Emperor" who would accept Hua Huo's challenge.

For the first time, he and Hua Huo stood on the same stage looking at each other.

He was also curious about how strong he was now, and what a graceful bearing Hua Huo would show in the battle.

Oh, I'm really am a bad man.

Just because I want to see my cute childhood sweetheart's most excellent side, I chose to fight against her. If other people knew my idea, they would undoubtedly laugh at me.

Hua Huo, do you know that?

I still love you so much that I cannot extricate myself from the White Emperor!

Countless mists gushed towards the Caelian City from all directions. Although Yun Xi had lost his one million brides' power, however, the realm he once experienced was still living in his brains.

His body firmly remembered that realm and used the power that belonged to the realm naturally.

"Fight for me, my brides!" Yun Xi murmured and summoned the three High Priestesses' Mist Souls. Both of his words and movement made Hua Huo's anger rise to the sky.

The Wonder – Water God's Opera House appeared behind Yun Xi, the three High Priestesses' Mist Souls stood on the three stages.

Since he had decided to fight against his powerful childhood sweetheart, he would show his strongest side too.

The three Mist Souls looked at each other and started to sing at the same time.

It was a song and a prayer, the will of the entire world contained in their voices. It was the blessing the world granted to Yun Xi.

Along with the song, nine crimson ribbons spread out from Yun Xi's crown. Although they were not the nine snake tails that appeared when he fought against Shaya Longnis, they were also made by Hydra's god power.

The nine ribbons stood for Hydra's nine lives, it was the White Emperor's Fighting Stance.

Now, Yun Xi was wearing the white Sailing Jellyfish's Robe, the silver White Emperor Mask and the Water God's Crown. He used the three artifacts from the beginning, because he didn't dare to let Hua Huo have any chance of attacking first.

Hua Huo who hadn't reached the hero rank, could even beat down his Mist Soul Army as a mortal. Nothing was impossible for her, and it would be too inadvisable to preserve his strength in front of her.

"Arrrghhhh! You are not my Little Xi! You are not!"

Compared to Yun Xi's three gorgeous artifacts, Hua Huo only paid her attention to the three beautiful figures on the stages behind Yun Xi.

Her eyes almost burned with jealousy when she looked at the three singers behind Yun Xi.

They are all casting loving eyes at my Little Xi, singing and praying for him... what an unpleasant feeling!

You are just a mask that possessed my Little Xi's body, how could you make these horrid mistakes using his body!

Even if Yun Xi could wake up from this nightmare, he will still be entangled by these women! Look at what a trouble you have brought to him, the White Emperor!

Your hideous crime is deserving of the harshest punishment!

Chapter 319: Fight Hand to Hand

It has come down to this point, questions and answers are useless!

You evil White Emperor, look what you did to my Little Xi!

"Ahya!" A strong, terrible power rose from Hua Huo's body into the sky, the broken sword in her hand was immediately covered with a blood colored layer, and at the same time, her body became covered with runes by a crimson light shield.

It was hard to believe that a human could obtain such a strong strength. Even when Yun Xi used Hydra's power, his strength was far inferior to the Hua Huo at this moment.

"Oh, this is... Rigid Body..." Casina nodded first then shook her head later.

No, it wasn't just the "Rigid Body", it had become a higher ranking body constitution just like the White Emperor's "Soft Body". It looked more like the "Iron Body" or another body constitution that was similar to it.

In Buddhism, buddhists called it "Buddha's Warrior Attendant", which meant "indestructible" and "all range defense". It was one of the strongest hero ranked body constitutions, integrating attack and defense perfectly.

Originally, the "Rigid Body" and "Soft Body" were two very rare body constitutions, the people who had an advanced body constitution of one of the two body constitutions was rarer.

Today, there were even two special people of this genre, which was really a tiny probability that was like two meteorites dropped at the same location!

Moreover, the male, the White Emperor had the Soft Body, and the female, Hua Huo had the Rigid Body, which was totally contrary to the usual situation.

What an exciting battle!

Unlike Casina's surprise, Yun Xi had expected Hua Huo's real strength.

Oh, I knew it from the beginning. You are always so strong, you can always push your limits.

In the past, I always looked at your back, looking at you walking further and further away. You are like the sun in the summer, and I'm just common grass, humble and lacklustre.

Hua Huo, do you know that your talent you have showed, had made me lose confidence in myself. I never dared to imagine that we could stand on the same stage together one day.

That day he tried to run away from the small town alone, he spoke out his love to Hua Huo looking at the mirror.

“You’re as bright as the summer. You’re my sun. I want to touch you but I worry about your scorching light.”

“You’re so glamorous, so beautiful, and so tempting. I never thought that I could stay beside you in the future.”

“I love you, Hua Huo. I like the way you run, the gestures you make when you brandish your sword, and your face when you sweat.”

“Hua Huo, if I live for only eighteen years, then the ten years I stayed with you will be the greatest treasure of my life.”

Today, he looked at the real Hua Huo on the stage, and not that mirror.

No matter whether she was angry or went crazy because of jealousy, she was always glamorous in his eyes.

Therefore, as the chief criminal of her anger, he must do his best to see how strong Hua Huo really was.

Only in this manner, would he be able to know how wide the gap between them was and how much effort he still needed to pay to obtain the right to marry Hua Huo.

He stepped on the ground, the infinite scene in his heart spread to the air.

Only he, the master of the Water God's world, could see the entire world using this manner.

He looked at the outline of this world, which was surrounded by the four World Towers and formed by eight islands and the Caelian City.

Then, he moved.

Then, the earth quaked as if a mountain was toppling down, because countless white lights were gushing out of the Door of Mist along Yun Xi's right hand.

"The Water God's Momentum: Great Snow Crash!"

"Burning Dragon's Roaring!" Hua Huo didn't feel fear. Countless blood lights spread around from under her feet, crashing into Yun Xi's "The Great Snow Crash".

The "Great Snow Crash" was formed by the cold tides made of countless white snow grains.

The "Burning Dragon's Roaring" was formed by the burning blood energy, which was even hotter than lava.

This was a confrontation between water and fire, an encounter between ice and lava. From the beginning of the battle, they both immediately showed their thrilling powers.

“It seems that soon after, two new bloods will ascend into the world of the legend rank.” This was the first thought in Casina’s mind when she first saw their movements.

Yun Xi’s Soft Body and Hua Huo’s Rigid Body were all superb keys that could open the door of the legend rank. They wouldn’t stay at the hero rank too long.

“Return my Little Xi to me!” Hua Huo roared. As translucent halos exploded under her feet, she disappeared from Yun Xi’s sight.

It was her Sky Flying, the god skill Yun Xi hadn’t understood completely.

This time, without the one million brides’ power, Yun Xi couldn’t even judge where Hua Huo had moved to.

The ear-piercing sound of breaking the air pierced through Yun Xi’s ears later. Hua Huo’s speed was even faster than the speed of sound.

Concentrating! Concentrating! Concentrating! If I let Hua Huo move close to me and grasp the rhythm of the battle, everything will be over!

For a moment, Yun Xi felt he entered the state of when his body was possessed by Casina. Even time itself slowed down in his eyes.

He clearly saw the traces of the ice grains, the ripples of the blood lights in the air, and the sword that was dropping from the sky to his head!

I see it! I can clearly see the trace of the Sky Flying Sword!

It was higher and faster than swallows, it was a god skill that was beyond the observation ability of human eyes!

Nine ribbons rose in the air as if he just had nine additional arms. They formed the outline of an ice lotus and blocked off the attacking route of Hua Huo's Sky Flying Sword.

"Ding!" The ice lotus didn't even exist for one second, then it had been crushed by Hua Huo's sword, turning into millions of ice particles flying in the air.

The sword was still flying to Yun Xi without slowing!

Chapter 320: The Disappearing Sword

If one ice lotus couldn't stop her, how about more?

Yun Xi didn't choose to seal Hua Huo in the huge ice mountain, like what he did in the battle on the Island of Mist, because the same trick was useless against her. If he used it again, it wouldn't be possible to seal her again as before.

If anyone fought with Hua Huo, that person should never let his guard down or push his luck.

Yun Xi knew Hua Huo better than anyone, so he treasured her very much.

The second, the third, the fourth ice lotus appeared in the swing path of Hua Huo's sword. Since his "quality" was inferior to Hua Huo, then he would win her on "quantity".

This was Hydra's world, as the White Emperor, Yun Xi could gain countless powers from the sky and the earth. Perhaps this was his only advantage when facing Hua Huo.

Yun Xi also learned Yun Que's battle style after getting along with him for a long time. Although he didn't agree with Yun Que's view of "for victory I can be unscrupulous", Yun Xi learned his style of exerting advantages.

Yun Xi couldn't find any weaknesses in Hua Huo with his eyes. No matter whether it was her attack, defence or speed, they were all perfect, even amongst all the hero ranked beings. It was hard to believe that she hadn't entered the hero rank yet, and her strength wasn't something possible to be obtained by humans.

Yun Xi got touched with the Dragon God's Apostle, the White Holy Dragon's real body, he also saw the hidden fantasy creature in the Water God's world, the Mist Demon tree. On top of this, his body even carried the real power from Hydra, which was a genuine legend ranked power.

Even so, Yun Xi still felt that Hua Huo's Bloodline power was so terrible that he couldn't even judge her limits, as if it was a power that never belonged in the mortal world.

Hua Huo had only released a tiny part of her Bloodline power, and she was already able to kill a hero ranked male fiery dragon instantly, and she didn't even fear fighting against Yun Xi's Mist Soul Army of one million.

What was hiding inside of Hua Huo's body, where did she come from? She was so strong, it was hard to believe that her parents in the small village were her real parents.

After knowing how strong Hua Huo was, Yun Xi was curious about her secrets. He wanted to know everything about her.

However, the most urgent matter at this moment, was to survive her attacks.

"Ding!" After smashing seven ice lotus' Yun Xi had created in the air, Hua Huo's sword finally stopped. At this moment, she was still ten meters away from Yun Xi, staring at him with anger and reluctance.

"Dancing!" Hua Huo held the broken sword in her hands and brandished it toward Yun Xi.

This time, the sword wasn't fast and didn't look powerful, but Yun Xi felt a sense of suffocating danger.

"Ding!" In a hurry, Yun Xi created two ice lotus and tried to block her attack with them.

However, they failed.

The trace of her sword suddenly changed, brandishing toward him from a different direction.

Yun Xi was dumbfounded.

How can that be possible?

Hua Huo's sword, the movement of her body all pointed out that her attack would come from the right side of Yun Xi's body. But in an instant, which was probably even shorter than a centisecond, she cancelled her movement and moved to another direction instantly.

If he hadn't saw her secret, he wouldn't have been surprised, but in this world, apart from Casina, he was the only person who could see Hua Huo's movements clearly.

Therefore, when he found that she had cancelled her movement and shifted her position in an instant, he was really shocked.

By extracting energy from the sky and the earth, Yun Xi created four ice lotuses in the air again, and this was already his limit.

The energy in this world was infinite, but the bearing capacity of his body had a limit. The maximum number of ice lotus he could control was nine, and every time an ice lotus was smashed, his body would also be harmed due to the link between himself and the ice lotus.

Hua Huo's Sky Flying Sword wasn't something that was easily dealt with.

"Ding!" Hua Huo moved and brandished her sword again, which totally conflicted with Yun Xi's common sense. She smashed three ice lotuses at a lightning speed.

Then, she used her special skill again, moving close to Yun Xi, only five metres away from him now.

Five metres, to a super swordsman like Hua Huo, it was a deadly attacking range.

Feeling the burning blood lights, Yun Xi even sensed death itself.

“Da!” The fourth attack. Yun Xi’s final defence was also broke. The sword had fiercely scratched his face.

No, this distance is too dangerous!

I caught you!

They looked at each other and understood each other’s thoughts through their eyes. Yun Xi controlled the nine ribbons to form a crimson shield in the front of himself.

“Blood Fortress!”

Its defence power was stronger than the ice lotus, but it also meant that Yun Xi had been forced into the corner.

“Even if you are the star in the sky, I will draw you down to the earth!” Hua Huo pressed forward with indomitable will.

“Yes, this is the will of the Rigid Body, the power that can smash everything blocking the way.” Casina looked at Hua Huo forcing Yun Xi into the corner with an appreciation. Her burning battle will was the proof of her Rigid Body.

It was never a good choice to fight recklessly against the Rigid Body.

In this case, what will you do? Haven’t you realized your strategic mistake?

“Boom!” The strongest shield formed by the nine ribbons was broken by Hua Huo’s sword.

It was still an attack that violated the rules of the world. As if the times Hua Huo’s sword drew back, charged and moved had all been cut off from the time of this world, there was no trace about those movements.

Is this her godlike sword skill?

Where did these times go? Why couldn’t I feel their disappearances?

Blood flew into the air, a deep wound appeared on Yun Xi’s face.

He finally failed to dodge her sixth attack.
