

Starchild 351

Chapter 351: Elf Illness

“‘Kingfisher’ is my name.” Kingfisher noticed Yun Xi’s confusion. He said and walked to him leisurely.

His body wasn’t as delicate as Black Moon’s but was very tall.

His appearance and body had suppressed the boundary of gender. When he stood in front of Yun Xi, he looked sparkling.

“When I was born in the Flower of Life, a beautiful kingfisher sang beside the flower, so I was called ‘Kingfisher’ in the elf forest.” Kingfisher smiled and explained.

At that time, he was a quiet elf who only loved arts. The corolla he made was very popular in the elf forest.

If the Demons hadn’t come, he would probably become the best of the numbered Corolla Producers in the forest.

“Oh... hello, Kingfisher...” Yun Xi felt more confused. He felt that he knew the elf, but it couldn’t be his memory but an impulse from the maid uniform he was wearing. Because of this, he stopped and greeted to the elf just now.

“Well... if you don’t want to drink, how about having a walk?” Kingfisher said without any displeasure of being refused.

It was also a fresh experience to be refused by someone to him.

As a rare Demon Slayer, the hero of the Demon War, rarely there were people who would refuse him, no matter where he was.

If he asked, even the master of the elf race, the holder of the Life Tree Crown, the Elf Queen would consider seriously, not to mention the common kings and emperors of the mortal world.

When he decided to recruit partners, the families of the human world would be scrambling to recommend the best children of their families.

When young boys and girls looked at him, their eyes were always full of longing and adoration, and they would think every word of his words was the truth of the universe.

Some people even recorded his words when they left the team and made it become their family instructions.

Hundreds of years had passed, and he had had hundreds of partners, but no one dared to say “no” to him.

“Williams, I find that there really are differences amongst different people.” Kite half squatted down on the ground like a loser dog and his face was covered with tears.

“You just knew it? There are surely differences amongst different people!” Williams also cried with him.

This must be the so-called “pain of youth”.

He heard that Kite’s ancestors also had the same illness just like his ancestors.

He finally knew what the unspoken words on the record of his family were.

However, it was too late to find the truth.

They were already helpless!

“Oh... ok...” Compared to the knight and the mage, Yun Xi didn’t feel too much from the elf, because he had had the dark elf girl.

Only an “elf” could heal the illness called “elf”. Kite and Williams didn’t have the Mist Soul Army, naturally, they couldn’t summon Mist Souls just like Yun Xi.

In the entire universe, only Yun Xi could do this. When all was quiet at dead of night, he would put on the White Emperor Mask and summoned the Dark Elf’s Mist Soul, asking it to dance for him.

Of course, apart from his star spirit Mei’er, no one knew about this.

Speaking of Mei’er, Yun Xi looked around and found that it disappeared.

After he accomplished the trial on the Water God's Fantasy Island, Mei'er obtained much more power and that could let it leave Yun Xi for a period of time. It seemed that it found something just now and ran to a corner on the street.

"Master, I just found something good!" When Yun Xi start to worry about Mei'er, its sound appeared inside his mind.

"What is it?" Yun Xi said and walked to Kingfisher, strolling around the street under the jealous eyes of Kite, Williams and the girls on the street.

"It's... whoa! No, something is wrong!" Mei'er suddenly cried, which giving Yun Xi a shiver.

No, is she getting in trouble?

"These ice-type pine nuts taste cold but are very delicious. They are imported goods from the Dragon God's Domain, do you want to have a try?" Kingfisher peeled the pin nuts and handed them over to Yun Xi.

"Oh... thanks." Yun Xi took over the pine nuts from his hands.

Compared to human's hands, the elf's hands were soft. Only the favourite of nature could be born with such a pair of hands.

"Williams, does Kingfisher like maids?" Kite gazed at them and clenched his fists.

“Don’t think too much. Just what the proverb in this god’s domain says, enduring for a while, you shall appease the dispute; retreating a step, you will get a broadened mind.” As a mage, Williams was as knowledgeable as his ancestors.

“I think my mind is not right. I must be ill.” Kite pressed his hand on his forehead. He finally realized how happy it was to be an ignorant young warrior who only knew to fight.

Eat and drink all day, never retreat when facing enemies. He was the steel shield of the whole team. Apart from battle, he never needed to worry about anything else.

This was the tradition of Kite’s family. A lot of well-known Holy Knights were from his family. He was always proud of his knight ancestors and swore that he would become an excellent knight too.

But now...

Williams heavily patted him on his shoulders.

“Kite, you are not alone.”

Chapter 352: Black Dog

“Woof!” With a pitiful barking, Mei’er rushed to her master from the corner of the street.

“Boom!” A beast which should never appear on such a street was chasing after her.

It was a black beast that was as tall as a man and as strong as a bull. Its four limbs were covered by thick bones and had sword shaped protrusions on its head, shoulders and hind legs. The most frightening thing was that it had four blood red eyes.

Hunger, ferocity, the desire of hunting and a primeval instinct flooded inside its eyes.

“Master, help!” Mei’er was going to cry. Its body toppled down to the ground after running to Yun Xi’s feet.

“A Golden Fairy?” Kingfisher looked at Mei’er in surprise. Even the elf race also liked this animal very much, because it was a full blooded golden dog that could bring good luck to its master.

“Golden Fairy” was a rare imperial golden retriever. Moreover, this dog obviously had the purest bloodline. Even in the entire Western God’s Domain, it was a kind of favourite endangered animal.

In order to stop this kind of dog from dying out, people tried all sorts of methods.

To put it bluntly, even one of its paws was more valuable than a small city.

“No, it’s just a common golden dog fed by me!” Yun Xi quickly shook his head.

Don’t lie!

How can it not be a Golden Fairy?

Kite didn't know what the Golden Fairy was, but as a knowledgeable mage, Williams saw through Yun Xi's lie at a glance.

How could any common golden dog have its pure golden fur, wise big eyes and a pair of black obsidian like pupils?

Williams once saw the real Golden Fairy with his own eyes, so he was sure that it was the best Golden Fairy, a Golden Princess!

Although it was just a dog, but it was actually more valuable than most princesses of the kingdoms in the Western God's Domain.

However, since she was the real "princess" that was recognized by Kingfisher, it wasn't surprising to see that she had a Golden Princess.

It was the highest token of identity that was more distinguished than diamonds or gold, because proud Golden Fairies would only accept the oldest, most excellent royals as their masters.

Kingfisher was right, this maid really had the bloodline of the oldest kingdom in the Western God's Domain!

"Ululu... ululu..." Looking at Mei'er running to Yun Xi, the black beast roared. Its four paws firmly caught to in soil like an eagle's talons, and the sword shaped protrusions lightly fluttered on its body.

“Black Demon Dog...” Kingfisher realized what this black beast was.

It was an avatar of disaster.

No one knew where the first Black Demon Dog came from, but these nightmare creatures indeed appeared in the Western God’s Domain together with Demons. Their four eyes were the symbols of them, a single Black Demon Dog could even rout an army of 1000 mortals.

They could also obtain different abilities after evolving into different higher forms. They were the favorite war machines of the Demons.

It seemed that the Black Demon Dog on the street was still in its initial form, but even a Black Demon Dog that hadn’t evolved could be equal in force with a common hero ranked human.

This kind of dark creatures had twisted the rules of the world since the beginning of their birth. Just like the blood thirsty Demons, they belonged to “that side”.

It was said that even a god was killed by the strongest Black Demon Dog. It was the ultimate war machine of the Demons.

“Roar!” Being suppressed by Kingfisher’s aura, the Black Demon Dog emitted a sharp roar. The bones on its body started to spread and covered its whole body as blood lines appeared on the bones.

Suddenly, sunlight disappeared... no, it was the aura of the Black Demon Dog spreading and covered the entire street.

“Dark Skyfall?” Kingfisher frowned. It was too strong to be a Black Demon Dog’s ability, since it was still in its initial form. Maybe the Demons had developed some new technologies.

The fact that a Black Demon Dog appeared in the mortal world itself had indicated that the seal had become unstable. Maybe the Demons still couldn’t go to this world, but their low-level war machines like the Black Demon Dog were already able to pass through the seal.

“Roar!” Being covered by thick black mists, the Black Demon Dog rushed towards Yun Xi, like a nightmare ran out of the deepest darkness.

The look in its blood red eyes, was unbearably thirsty for blood!

As the Demons’ war machine, Black Demon Dogs wouldn’t feel fear. It would attack its enemy till it killed its enemy or was killed, no matter how strong its enemy was.

“Ding!” The Crane Wings Twin Sword drew two mysterious traces in the air, blocking the dog’s paws precisely, but the strong power still made Yun Xi take a step back.

This monster dog is strong! Although Yun Xi wasn’t wearing the White Emperor Mask, common hero ranked beings couldn’t force him to step back now. The monster dog’s strength was stronger than most common hero ranked beings.

If taking green hippo as a reference, this black monster dog’s strength was dozens of times stronger than a common green hippo.

“Hiss!” The attack was just a try to figure out how strong Yun Xi was. The Black Demon Dog roared and increased its strength again.

“Master, be careful, it can keep evolving in battle.” Mei’er’s voice appeared inside Yun Xi’s mind.

She was too unlucky. She suddenly met the big black dog and was being “loved” by it. In order to obtain Mei’er’s heart, it had started its wild “pursuit”.

Chapter 353: The Pleasant Princess

“Black Demon Dog...” Yun Xi didn’t know why but he knew its name was “Black Demon Dog”, although he had never seen such a black dog before.

He felt as if he was very familiar with it.

Its weak point was under its neck three centimetres.

Its heart wasn’t its weak point, neither its head. The only weak point of this creature was its “core”, which could let the Black Demon Dog keep eating and evolving.

The easiest way to kill a Black Demon Dog was to stab a sword into its neck, then cut through its body and tear it open from the inside!

Only a dead Black Demon Dog is a docile dog! Suddenly, a flash of killing intent appeared inside Yun Xi’s eyes.

“This is...” Kingfisher was ready to aim his bow and kill the Black Demon Dog with one shot, but he stopped after seeing Yun Xi’s expression, and shook his hand at Kite and Williams.

“Puff... puff...” The Black Demon Dog also saw the killing intent in Yun Xi’s eyes, which made it feel very uncomfortable, as if there was a memory that had been engraved in its bloodline.

It became grumpier and stared at Yun Xi fiercely, even ignoring the elf who was a much higher threat to it.

It was a hatred that had been remembered by its bodies instinct!

The bone armour on its body became thinner but much sharper. After losing a few defence points, its speed and strength were increased greatly.

Defence meant nothing in front of this enemy. It needed to be faster and stronger! This was what the Black Demon Dog obtained from its bloodline along with a crazy killing intent.

“Let’s play.” Yun Xi put down the shopping basket and held the Crane Wings Twin Swords in his hands.

His mind was very clear now that he could hear the flowing of his blood.

He wasn’t wearing the White Emperor Mask, but he was in high spirits.

After seeing the Black Demon Dog, something woke up inside his bloodline.

“Roar!” The Black Demon Dog jumped to the roof of the building beside the street, running crazily around Yun Xi.

Yun Xi felt more and more stressful as it ran. It seemed that it was a meaningless running, but was actually a special hunting rite of the Black Demon Dog, which could even shake the heart of a hero ranked being.

When it turned the 18 rounds, the battle broke out.

“Hiss!” With a sharp sound breaking the wind, three figures pounced at Yun Xi from three directions.

“Triplex Attack... the basic ability of the second form...” Kingfisher recognized this skill.

When a Black Demon Dog was in its initial form, it would only know to attack any living creature following its ravening instinct, but after eating enough flesh and blood of strong creatures, it would be able to develop and evolve into different forms.

Triplex Attack was one of the strongest abilities a nimble-type Black Demon Dog could have after it entered its second form. One was real and the other two were fake shadows, but the attacks from the two fake shadows were real. If one only regarded them as common shadows and didn't dodge them, the person would pay a heavy price.

“One, two, three.” A dangerous light flashed inside Yun Xi's eyes.

Pleasure, stimulation, excitement and a special feeling were affecting his mind, activating his body into a special state.

Yes, this is a battle, this will become a killing.

There won't be anything else but the simplest idea of killing each other.

Smelling the sweet smell of blood, dancing in hell.

Let's party!

First, cut off its paws!

Yun Xi didn't even look at the three figures with his eyes. His body naturally danced and his hands subconsciously brandished the twin swords, then the Black Demon Dog's true body suffered a heavy blow, and one of its paws was easily cut off.

"Ooroo!" Before the Black Demon Dog's poor head understood what was happening, its belly was kicked and its body rolled on the ground.

The next is to break its bone armour !

The light of sword flashed in the air again. Yun Xi used a sword skill he had never used before, stripping off the Black Demon Dog's bone armour instantly.

After losing its bone armour, it was just a strong black dog. Moreover, it had lost a paw.

Pleasure! Pleasure! A brutal smile appeared on Yun Xi's face, as if he had become another person.

"Oh... the whole thing still went down in this direction." Looking at his smile, Kingfisher sighed.

Nothing has changed.

The Killing Princess is still the Killing Princess.

Maybe she could preserve her sanity at other times, but would instantly go crazy as long as she saw anything about the Demons.

In this mood, the Killing Princess wouldn't stop, until she had killed all the Demons in her sight.

To the Killing Princess, the battlefield was her unique stage. She was the brightest princess on the stage, dancing along with the melody of killing.

Hundreds of years had passed and most people had forgotten the Killing Princess.

Only elves wouldn't forget her, the greatsword maid who saved their race from the Demons.

That day, Kingfisher's heart was deeply touched while watching her killing, looking at the slender figure as she danced on the bloody stack of Demon bodies.

Even after ten thousands of years, Kingfisher didn't think that he could forget that scene.

Just like what happened at this moment.

Chapter 354: The Aura of the Evil God

"It's still alive... what a strong life..." Yun Xi stepped one foot on the belly of the Black Demon Dog, who was still struggling fiercely although one of the twin swords had pierced through its heart, where the "core", the weak point of it was.

The core of the Black Demon Dog could move freely inside its body. It wouldn't be fixed to any certain place but move around inside the deepest parts of its body, such as under the heart or on its tail. Very rare Black Demon Dogs who had confidence in themselves would expose their cores on their foreheads.

However, it doesn't matter where it is. As long as I tore this ugly, dirty beast to ribbons, there was no way the core could still exist.

The core of the Black Demon Dog was actually a ball of dirty flesh and black blood. Common weapons couldn't harm it, because they would be quickly eroded by its black blood, which was learned by humans through countless lessons written in blood.

"Ga... woof..." The Black Demon Dog stared at Yun Xi fiercely, regardless that its core had been pierced through and a great amount of black blood was flowing out of the wound.

Especially when it saw Mei'er was snuggling up next to Yun Xi's feet, tears of blood filled its eyes.

“Hum? It’s...” Yun Xi looked at it in confusion.

“What a strong grievance... this Black Demon Dog isn’t simple...” Kingfisher also saw the flaming aura of hatred from the black dog’s battered body.

It looked as if its most important lover was being stolen in front of it and it couldn’t do anything.

“Zii! Zii!” Suddenly, a great amount of black mist roared out of the black dog’s body. The air blast was so strong that Yun Xi had to step back.

Most parts of the Black Demon Dog’s battered body were swallowed by the black mist, and only its heart was still pounding in the air.

All the black mists gathered together around the black heart, forming a weird rune.

“It can be stronger?” Yun Xi’s eyes stared at it with interest and pleasure.

Common Demons couldn’t have such strong power. Maybe it was really a “big fish”.

You’d better let me enjoy a satisfying battle!

“This feeling... is it an evil god rank?” Kingfisher’s eyes became serious. “Evil god rank” was too strong for this small sword domain. The Demons at this rank could even destroy an entire god’s domain.

How could a lower-level Black Demon Dog have such a strong power? Moreover, the seal still existed, it was impossible for evil god ranked Demons to pass through it.

The seal is the strongest seal of humans, dragons and elves. Can it have really become weakened?

“I don’t care who you are, just let me kill you!” Yun Xi held the twin swords and made a posture.

It was the starting position of the Killing Princess’ Dance of Revenge and Blood!

“Boom!” The Black Demon Dog sensed danger. The mist suddenly spread and countless runes appeared, dragging the heart into the darkness.

The Dark Skyfall dispelled and the sunlight shone onto the street again. The people on the street looked around in confusion and didn’t know why they suddenly wanted to hide in their rooms just now.

“The Power of the Magician Demon. Yes, it’s an evil god ranked power.” Kingfisher walked to Yun Xi, just like what he did when he followed the Killing Princess in the old days.

“Gee... oh... what did I do?” Yun Xi suddenly woke up and gazed at the twin swords in his hands in surprise.

I was myself, but not myself just now!

When he brandished his swords, he understood all the weak points of the Black Demon Dog, but it couldn’t be a knowledge that he knew himself

“Little princess, enjoy your peaceful life. May it be long.” Kingfisher looked at him with his gentle eyes.

Since she inherited the Killing Princess’ heritage, she would face the same fate sooner or later.

The Killing Princess’ life was a legend, but also a tragedy.

She was once the most favorite princess, but she finally entered the non-human realm.

Even Kingfisher had followed her many years, he had never really gone deep into her heart.

Only she herself knew what a heavy load and misfortune she was carrying.

Kingfisher had a complex feeling about Yun Xi.

He looked for the characters of the Killing Princess from her, but also wanted her to keep her innocence.

“Treasure your peaceful life now, because you are doomed to be on the battlefield one day.”

“But don’t worry, when that day comes, I will come to you again and become your most loyal advisor.”

“Now, it’s time to say good bye, my little princess”, said Kingfisher.

Then turned around and walked away with Kite and Williams, only leaving his back to the girls on the street who were looking at him with longing.

“His words are strange.” Yun Xi shook his head and forgot about this. He picked up Mei’er and stroked its quivering body, asking it what happened.

“Whoa! Master! That big dog is terrible! It’s a bad dog!” Mei’er cried.

Fifteen minutes ago.

In the alley not far away from where Yun Xi was.

“Hum... humm... this should be this place!” Mei’er walked gently on the street. Its golden fur reflected the bright light of the sun, making it look like a prideful princess.

In the deepest side of the remote alley, there was a big figure. It was a big dog that was as strong as a bull, whose size could scare ordinary people into crying.

At this moment, Mei’er felt an unusual aura from this big dog’s body.

Chapter 355: The Prideful Prince

It was a dog, a common dog wandering in the human world.

It was about 1 metre long and its weight was only about 15 kg, which was too slender compared to its length. However, as a stray dog who could only find food in trash bins, what else could it ask for?

Don't look down on its miserable appearance, because it was the only stray dog who had survived in the sword tip area for three years.

Unlike the stray cats who could enjoy a leisurely life on the street because they were cute in the eyes of humans. It didn't have a pretty appearance, and couldn't even clean its body well like cats. Stray dogs were often caught and eliminated by the patrols in the sword tip area.

Most stray dogs could survive a year in this area. The worst situation was to be killed on the second day coming to this area.

Even so, numerous hungry dogs still rushed into this area, because it was easy to find food here. Stray dogs, they didn't have smart brains, as long as they could find food, they would try their luck.

The feeling of hunger was too terrible. Even knowing they could probably be beaten to death, they couldn't stop their impulse to look for food here.

But it was the smartest and most unique stray dog.

Three years of life was actually a very long time for stray dogs. Most puppies couldn't even grow up, and the few lucky dogs left would die within two years because of bad nourishment.

It wasn't like the other losers, because it could always find food in this area.

Beginning with its birth, it naturally understood a lot of things which other dogs would only know after paying with their lives.

Humans were only lively in the daytime, the best time range to look for food was from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the morning.

Some of the wall enclosed the houses of humans had cracks on them, where it could sneak into and find leftovers. It could eat as much as it wanted there, and the most important thing was the patrols would never enter the houses of other humans.

It didn't dare enter the houses which looked splendid, because there were protected by invisible dangers (now it knew the dangers were called magic circles).

With the knowledge it knew naturally, it could avoid most dangers in the sword tip area.

What made it feel confused was, although it ate a lot of food every day, it didn't become fat. Its poor brains couldn't figure out anything about this.

Till one day, countless lights dropped to the ground from the sky. One light entered its body and aroused the old bloodline

Although it looked like a miserable stray dog, it was actually a Black Demon Dog, the war machine of the Demons. Its bloodline was inherited from the highest ranking "King of the Black Demon Dogs".

Even though the bloodline had become so thin that could be negligible, it was still the bloodline of the King of the Black Demon Dogs. As long as there was any chance, it would wake up.

Most Black Demon Dogs aroused their bloodline on battlefields or in disaster areas, where they could find plenty of corpses. They would evolve into horrible monsters after eating sufficient flesh and blood.

However, it was different, because its bloodline was aroused by the White Lotus Secret Treasure, and it heard “nine sounds”.

Due to this, its bloodline from the old King of Black Demons Dogs, the legendary Cerberus was activated!

When it heard the nine sounds, the energy it absorbed and stocked within the three years was released, and its body became big instantly.

Even it didn't know how much food it had eaten within the three years, but it must be able to be piled up like a mountain if it vomited them out.

Maybe it's bloodline would never be awakened in its life, unless it came upon a battlefield or a disaster happened in it's area.

Fortunately, the light from the White Lotus Secret Treasure offered it a great opportunity. Instantly, it obtained wisdom to understand its fate.

It was a prince, the future king of all Black Demon Dogs.

It wasn't a common dog, so it didn't have any interest in all the common female dogs it had ever seen.

Qumran! It decided to give itself a name, which was the name of a death star in the sky, the name of the prideful, great Black Demon Dog Prince!

It firmly believed that it would become an earth-shaking monster one day!

The dawn of horror is coming, the era of the great Qumran is coming!

“Hey, can you hear me?” When Qumran was lost in its imagination, a euphonious voice suddenly appeared beside its ears.

What a wonderful, clear voice! It immediately imprinted inside Qumran’s mind, making its heart pound heavily.

Qumran slowly opened its eyes and saw its angel, the golden dog that was walking gently from the other side of the dim alley to it.

She is my light!

She is my sun!

She is the goddess of all good qualities!

In its three years of life, its heart was never moved by any female dog, but now, Qumran understood the meaning of “fall in love at first sight”.

It’s her! It’s her!

Qumran’s heart was filled with happiness and desire.

I want her! Only her, the golden princess deserves to be the wife of the strong, handsome, majestic, talented, unique future king of all Black Demon Dogs.

She is mine! I won’t let anyone become my princess apart from her!

“Roar!” Its blood was boiling. Qumran stood up with its hind legs like a human and stretched out a paw to Mei’er, folding her into its arms.

Chapter 356: The Evil God’s Power

“I... I am... Qumran...” Because it just gained wisdom, it was tongue-tied.

A common Black Demon Dog couldn’t speak, unless it had reached the third form and specially enhanced its wisdom, it could gain the basic wisdom.

Generally, such a Black Demon Dog could be the leader of a Black Demon Dog Legion. They were the core force of the Demons in the war.

It could speak and even give itself a name, undoubtedly, it was because of its strong Bloodline of the King of all Black Demon Dogs.

I'm born with the great bloodline. Even though I'm still alone, I'm the king of all alone dogs!

"You can speak... so you have wisdom... great!" Mei'er hadn't realized what Qumran was thinking. She wanted to recruit it to be her subordinate.

As the star spirit, the "Golden Princess", dogs would naturally feel close to her.

Although the big black dog looked ferocious, but, as long as it was obedient, it could be a reliable helper.

Unfortunately, she misunderstood Qumran.

Although Qumran looked like a big black dog, it had no relationship with any real dog but was actually a lower-level Demon.

Black Demon Dog was born to be a man-eating monster!

Poor Mei'er hadn't realized this and was still glad to recruit her first subordinate.

If I can recruit him, I can help master even in daily life!

With such an idea, Mei'er smiled happily towards Qumran.

At this moment, Qumran saw his angel!

At this moment, Mei'er was sparkling in Qumran's eyes!

Oh, my light, my hope, my belief!

Even from the knowledge he inherited from his bloodline, he never saw such a beautiful, cute, sparkling beauty!

He believed that even if its ancestor, the ultimate Black Demon Dog, Cerberus was here, its heart would inevitably be captured by her!

Qumran totally fell in love.

"Have... have a baby... with me!" Qumran roared. It had never had such a strong impulse in its life.

"Hum?... err... you... what?!" Finally, Mei'er realized something was wrong. Her smile froze.

"I'm the King of Corruption, the Son of Heaven, the proudest king of the world!" Although Qumran had just gained wisdom, it immediately learned how to boast of itself without a teacher.

“Qumran” was the name it chose for itself, which meant “lone wolf”. As the only Black Demon Dog that wandered in the sword tip area all day, it thought it was suitable to be him, the only king of this darkness!

What a great name, isn't it?

“Aren't you a dog?” Mei'er froze. It called itself “Qumran”, which meant “lone wolf” ... if it was really a wolf, she remembered her charm was useless on a wolf!

“Hum humm... let me 'eat' you.” Qumran wasn't really going to eat Mei'er, but some memories suddenly popped out of its mind, which was from the “secret books” it found from the houses of ladies when it looked for food in the past.

Yes, this is the right method! According to the knowledge from the books, I should be arbitrary and cool, hot but also cold, so that the little princess in front of me would be charmed with my “manliness”!

There is a reason I held my little princess in my arms, because it could properly show her my muscle and my hot love.

When water flows, a channel is formed. Everything is going smoothly. My little princess, don't be shy to fall into my arms!

“Arrrghhh!” Mei'er hunched over and kicked Qumran with her hind leg, then nimbly jumped to the wall and started running.

Who will stay with you, disgusting monster! You are not even a dog. If I don't run, you will certainly eat me!

“W-w-w-what?” Qumran was dumbfounded.

No, that sn’t right!

In the books of human ladies, as long as a handsome man did this to girls, they would willingly fall into the man’s arms.

Aren’t books the crystallization of human wisdom? How can they be wrong?

No! I can’t let her go! After a few seconds, Qumran lost his temper and crazily chased after Mei’er.

You are mine! You are mine!

If you don’t come to me, I will come to you!

Roarrrr! Don’t run, my princess!

...

Qumran’s golden light ran away, going to a place it could never reach.

Why are you running?

My princess, my love! Don't leave me alone!

"Guaaaagh! Ooo ooo!" Qumran cried. Although it only left a heart rotating in the black mist, it behaved as if it was still fighting the terrible black-haired maid.

"Be quiet!" A hoof knocked on the black heart. It immediately felt a horrible aura of high-level Demon.

"Gawu?" It stopped struggling, because its instinct was warning it.

It was an aura that wasn't inferior to its ancestor, the three-headed demon dog, Cerberus!

Qumran gradually took back its memory, and it remembered it now!

It had died! After it gained wisdom, it hadn't even enjoyed its new life for 24 hours.

"My honourable master, why did you save it?" Childe Yun He looked at the Black Demon Dog's pounding black heart with discontent.

Even though he was the evil god, Tlahuizcalpantecuhtli's first subordinate, this was the first time he saw this power.

As a strong evil god, Tlahuizcalpantecuhtli could even reverse life and death.

“Its physique... isn’t bad... and its bloodline... is very rare...” The white alpaca knocked its hoof at a snail’s pace, then a weird power emerged out of Qumran’s twisted heart.

“Roarr!” A continuous creepy howl echoed inside the basement.

Chapter 357: The Real Target

“So, Mei’er, you mistook it for someone else?” Yun Xi said as he held Mei’er walking on the street.

“Yes! It wasn’t it! I sensed a dog who had just awakened its wisdom, but not this monster!” Mei’er wiped off her tears with her small paws.

What a big mistake!

To be chased by a big black dog crying... it would become her lifetime psychological shadow!

“A dog who just awakened its wisdom... is that real?” Yun Xi doubted.

“I’m sure! The secret treasure’s effect was strong! Maybe the chances are slim, but I know I can find my subordinates here!” Mei’er didn’t want to give up.

The dogs who just gained wisdom may be at a loss as for what to do and didn’t look any different to common dogs, but as they got used to using their brains, they would feel lonely and start to think what they were.

Mei'er wanted to look for these dogs, because they had great potentials.

If she found them and taught them, they could be her master's helpers! As a star spirit who wasn't good at fighting, this was Mei'er's plan.

"Hum, what kind of dogs is it easy to gain wisdom?" Yun Xi changed the topic.

"Well... the dogs who were smart from the beginning?" Mei'er said in a hesitant tone.

"I think the black dog is very smart." Yun Xi teased.

Indeed, the Black Demon Dog met all the requirements of Mei'er.

It was smart, fierce and strong enough to kill any common hero ranked being. Green hippos were far inferior to it.

Unfortunately, it wasn't a real dog but a war machine of the Demons. Black Demon Dog was a demon shadow creature taking a "wolf" as its prototype, known for its daredevil character and man-eating habit.

"Only a dead Black Demon Dog is a docile dog!" As this appeared in Yun Xi's mind again, he sighed.

The Killing Princess' heritage was much more powerful than his imagination.

Hua Huo, the rank of this “gift” is too high!

Yun Xi clearly remembered his body when he entered the “Killing Princess Mode”.

In the battle with the Black Demon Dog, his mental speed, faculty of judgment and control of force to the twin swords had all been greatly increased.

His physical quality wasn’t changed, but he could naturally kill the Black Demon Dog easily. Since it was strong enough to kill any common hero ranked being, this meant he could defeat most hero ranked beings in this mode.

It made Yun Xi associate it with his childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo. Undoubtedly, her combat power was also far beyond the limit of common hero ranked beings, although she herself hadn’t reached the hero rank.

It couldn’t have been a power that belonged to Yun Xi himself. When his body used that power, he felt that he wasn’t himself, but he also didn’t totally lose control of himself at that time.

Pleasure! Pleasure!

Excitement! Excitement!

He didn’t remember if he had ever entered this mode in the Water God’s world.

“Demons... must die, even if it was just a dog!” Yun Xi murmured. He vaguely figured out the launch condition of this mode.

It must be a strong spirit that was possessing the black maid uniform. Once the owner of the maid uniform encountered anything about Demons, it would wake up and prepare to fight.

“Even though you are already dead... you can’t let it go...” Yun Xi knew the Killing Princess had died many years ago, but her spirit of killing Demons was still attached to the maid uniform. Perhaps she fought till the last second of her life.

Only a strong spirit could get rid of the time wasting effect.

Even though she had died, even though her body had turned into dust, she wouldn’t stop fighting till the last Demon was killed.

Her endless waltz hadn’t finished yet. Through the maid uniform, her spirit would be inherited from generation to generation.

“Sniff... sniff...” While Yun Xi was lost in thought, Mei’er suddenly sniffed and looked around.

“What’s the matter?” Yun Xi stopped and looked around in confusion.

“I smelt it! There is a wise dog around!” Mei’er jumped to Yun Xi’s shoulder.

I won't mistake it this time! It's a smell from a real dog!

In some sense, half of her kind was here.

Not all cats or dogs could gain wisdom easily. The Black Demon Dog was a good example. It gained wisdom because its bloodline was very special. As a power of a miracle, wisdom wasn't something that easy to born.

Most creatures were unworthy of gaining wisdom, even if they were very strong and that could even kill ordinary people easily.

The lights of the White Lotus Secret Treasure were like keys, arousing the old bloodline in the creatures' bodies. However, if there were no "special bloodlines" in their bodies, the lights couldn't do anything to their brains.

Almost all beings in the sword tip area obtained the lights from the secret treasure, but not too many common animals had gained wisdom from it.

"Be quick, master. Quickly, the smell of the dog is becoming weaker and weaker." Mei'er ran on the ground, leading Yun Xi into a garden in an alley.

Finally, Yun Xi and Mei'er found the lucky little life behind a rockery.

Chapter 358: Death and Rebirth

Quickly, Yun Xi and Mei'er found the target under the rockery.

It was an abandoned pet dog with a broken bell hanging on its neck.

However, they came too late.

Due to undernourishment, its black and white fur had become dim, and one of its paws seemed to be gnawed by something.

There were several pieces of moldy bread in front of its crouched body, but it had no strength to move and could only look at the food with its helpless eyes.

However, in its black pupils, they reflected the lights of wisdom!

"No... it's dying!" Mei'er looked at it in surprise. She couldn't tell what kind of dog it was, but it must have a very special bloodline.

Unfortunately, a special bloodline wasn't almighty. This dog should have fallen into this bad condition before it gained wisdom, and now it was just holding its last breath.

"Can't we save it?" Yun Xi took out a piece of his fourth ranked bread and prayed that it could quickly refresh its life energy.

The dog strenuously opened its mouth and ate the bread. Visible to the naked eye, its dried life was nourished and bright lights appeared in its eyes again.

“No... it’s too late...” Mei’er sighed. The dog’s life had come to its end. Yun Xi’s bread could only momentarily recover its consciousness just before death.

It knew it was slowly dying since several days ago, so it aroused its bloodline at the last moment by its own will.

The will was an obsession, in order to accomplish something, it didn’t mind what it would become. So it could hold on till this moment.

After eating Yun Xi’s bread, it staggered to standing up, then dragged its dying body into its kennel.

Yun Xi could see that the kennel was well cleaned. There were warm and soft rice grasses in it, which could let it lay down comfortably.

“It... will pass away...” Looking at its bulging belly, Mei’er finally understood what made it hold out until this moment.

“En... let’s accompany her to the end of her life.” Yun Xi sent another piece of bread into the dog’s mouth.

“Thank you... my children... I will leave them to you.” The dog opened its hazy eyes wide as a drop of tear slowly dropped down from its face.

It had a very common life.

It was born in a pet shop and was bought by an aristocratic miss. It lived a very leisurely life in the first 6-7 years of its life.

Till the miss was married, but her husband didn't like pet dogs, so it was abandoned.

In the next one year, it became a homeless stray dog. In the first several months, because it looked cute and there was a bell on its neck, people were willing to feed it and the patrol didn't drive it away. However, as its fur gradually became dirty and its face became ugly, everyone became cruel to it.

As a pet dog, it didn't know too much about the survival skills and the skill of looking for food alone. To make the matter worse, it was pregnant and its paw was hurt, which made it become harder to look for food. It could do nothing but dig in trash cans, eating the food that even common stray dogs wouldn't cast a look at.

Shortly afterwards, the wound on its paw was become inflamed and its age was already very old, it foresaw the coming of its death and had to wait in this small kennel it just found.

The mildewy bread was the last food it could find. Although it knew it was not likely, it still wanted to give birth to the little lives in its belly.

Its death like all the death of the common abandoned dogs, the only difference was it saw a light at the end of its life.

The light dropped from the sky and offered it wisdom and a trace of special power.

Using the trace of special power, it exerted all its energy, trying to connect to a special existence.

It succeeded.

Although it drained the last energy from its body.

But it's worth it.

It had seen the hope, it had seen the miracle.

Its life had come to the end, but its children's lives had just started. They would inherit the power of bloodline from its body, they would have a bright future to run freely in the sunny world.

If it was the "golden princess", she must be able to cultivate my children to be great lives.

It had had no regret in its life. It even didn't hate its master who abandoned it now.

Oh, it really feels good to fill the belly.

Goodbye, my children.

The golden princess would be your new guardian.

As its body twisted and a smell of blood spread in the air, the nameless dog's eyes gradually became gentle, looking at its three children who were just born.

The first was a puppy with a cruciform pattern on its forehead, who looked charismatic.

The second was a puppy with three fire like patterns on its face, who looked logy.

The last was a puppy whose body was as white as snow, smiling like an angel.

Its bloodline was from an old world of ice and snow, and each of the three puppies inherited one of the features from its bloodline.

Oh, it's warm...

Chapter 359: This Is the Bud Garden

"It has gone." Yun Xi sighed and closed his eyes.

"There isn't anything we can do. If it's several years younger, maybe I can still save it..." Mei'er looked at its body and shook her head sadly.

No wonder that the aura she felt was so weak. The dog had come to the end of its life, it was calling her by using the last of its life force.

It was really a small miracle that it could hold on till she and Yun Xi came.

“Woof! Woof!” The three puppies still didn’t know what happened. They stuck out their tongue helplessly, trying to hide into their mom’s belly and find the milk in their memory of bloodline.

Unfortunately, their mom had been drained. The bread it ate had all turned into energy in order to give birth to them. There was no milk in its drained body.

The dog had died, and its body was becoming cold. The three puppies seemed to realize something, barking piteously around their mom.

“Since this is the last wish from a mom, let’s take care of them!” Yun Xi picked up the three puppies in one hand and picked up their mom’s body in the other hand, leaving the rockery quietly.

After a while, he buried the dog and stood in front of its small grave, stroking the three puppies in his arms.

This day, a life passed away, but three new lives came into this world.

This was the miracle of the world, the circulation of life and death.

Because there was their mom’s smell on Yun Xi’s body, the three puppies quickly got used to him and stayed in his arms quietly.

“Master, I will teach them!” Mei’er said confidently.

Obviously, the three puppies were born with wisdom. Their potentials were much better than their mom, the dog who gained wisdom at the last moment of its life.

In fact, Mei'er had given them three names.

The first puppy with a cruciform pattern on its forehead was named "Star Thunder". She had the strongest life force, and its body was also the biggest.

The second puppy was named "Star Fire". Her character was lively, just like a ball of burning flame.

The last puppy was named "Star Snow". She was the smallest but also the most beautiful one, having snow white fur and smiling eyes.

Now, Mei'er had three little subordinates. Although they were still ignorant, Mei'er was confident in cultivating them to be useful dogs!

Mei'er's team, the Star Spirit Team was born!

...

At night, in the hall of the girl's dorm.

"Cheers!"

“Cheers!”

“Cheers!”

“Cheers, for White Lotus Sword Palace and our Starwing Knights!”

The girls of Starwing Knights were coming together, cheering and laughing.

Because of their excellent performance in the entrance examination, these girls, who were very common at the beginning, were allowed to hold this small celebration in the hall.

All kinds of cakes, desserts, dishes and juices were put on the long draw table, from the traditional dishes of the Western God’s Domain to the newest dish of the East God’s Domain, they met the requirements of all kinds of tastes.

However, Mei’s bread were still their favorite food. Especially the golden, sweet bread. Once Yun Xi served them up from the kitchen, they would be quickly snapped up.

“That’s an exaggeration...” Looking at the smiling girls, Yun Xi suddenly blushed.

Because he finally realized a very embarrassing thing.

As a maid in the eyes of the others, where should he live?

In fact, he had realized it, he just tried to ignore it. In the White Lotus Sword Palace, the highest ranking school of the entire White Lotus Sword Domain, their students would naturally live in the dorms. They weren't allowed to live outside.

Well, because of this, their black-haired maid, Yun Xi, had been naturally arranged to live in the girl's dorm!

Oh gosh! He had never imagined that one day, he could live in a dorm full of beautiful, cute girls!

After all, this was a girl's dorm, there couldn't be any man! It was a garden of girls!

Because they didn't need to stand a man's watch here, the girls here all behaved free, loose and easy.

At this dinner party, several girls even came wearing their nightclothes. Through the gaps of their clothes, Yun Xi could easily see their tender, snow white skins.

"Oh oh oh! Mei, your bread is delicious!" Several girls of the sword palace first ate Yun Xi's bread. They blushed, showing a look as if they were at the summit of happiness.

I don't remember putting anything strange in the bread, why do they look so intoxicated?!

Looking at their passionate eyes, Yun Xi felt that he just went wrong into a world that was female-exclusive.

“The girl’s dorm of the sword palace is also called the Bud Garden.”

Bud? The white bud that would spill out honey?

Chapter 360: The Star Spirit Team

Hua Huo, you really played the devil with me!

I don’t even know where to go in such an environment, how can I hide my identity perfectly in front of so many eyes?!

“Mei’s bread is delicious. I want more!” Xiao Cao picked half a bread and handed it to Yun Xi, behaving as if she was a puppy that needed to be fed.

Hey, where is your young girl’s sense of shame? Looking around, Yun Xi found that Xiao Cao wasn’t the only girl who looked at him with longing.

If this goes on... what can I do in later days?!

Midnight, the girls finally went back to their rooms. Cleaning the dishes in the dorm, Yun Xi considered whether he should escape from White Lotus Sword Domain as quick as possible.

It would really become a very terrible thing if he stayed in such an environment all the time!

No male could keep his calm in such a garden of beautiful girls!

Yun Xi was also a common male. Although he thought that he was a good man who supported monogamy, how could he maintain and remain unwavering under these circumstances?

Just now, the girls who walked around in their nightclothes were quite a few. Although they didn't drink, the stimulating beverages still made them open their hearts to each other – literally.

How couldn't Yun Xi be thirsty and doubt his own life under this circumstance?

"No! I'm a good man! I must be straight!" Yun Xi hypnotized himself, forcing the various "flowers" to leave his mind.

The flower who had full breasts, smiling at him while holding a goblet.

The flower who had a pony tail and looked healthy and lively.

The flower who looked innocent and romantic.

The flower who looked serious but often took a glance at him.

In this garden, he was the only outlier, realizing this truth was making him feel painful and unfortunate.

“Arrrghhh!” The innocent young boy’s cry resounded inside the empty dorm, unfortunately, no one heard his cry.

...

At the same time, in Yun Xi’s room.

There was a big blackboard on the wall of the room. Mei’er was standing on the table and wrote two words on the blackboard using her paw.

“Look here, look at these two words, this is your master’s name: Yun Xi. It’s more important than your names.”

“You shall remember this name forever, and read it a hundred times silently when you wake up every morning!”

“Woof!”

“Woof!”

“Woof!”

The three puppies woofed and raised their paws. They couldn’t speak, so they told Mei’er that they had remembered her words firmly in this manner.

“Very good. Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow, remember, you are the members of the great Star Spirit Team, you have a bright future. However, there was a prerequisite: you are the chosen children.”

“In order to give birth to you, your mom sacrificed her own life. You must remember that your lives, your souls and your everything are born for our master.”

“Now, answer me, who is your master?”

“Woof!”

“Woof!”

“Woof!”

The three puppies raised their paws again, pointing to the name on the blackboard.

Yun Xi was the first person they saw after opening their eyes, and they smelt the smell of their mom from him. Naturally, they had regarded him as their most important person in the world.

Just like Mei'er said, they could be born because Yun Xi fed their mom with the fourth ranked bread. He gave their Mom the energy to give birth to them.

Mei'er reminded them that they should never forget this point, and remember his name, Yun Xi firmly.

“Good, you are all good children. Now, remember another point. Apart from your master, I, Mei’er, your senior, is the second person who can command you!” Using her paw, Mei’er wrote her name under Yun Xi’s name.

“Don’t mistake me for a common golden dog, I’m a great Star Spirit! I’m the primordial Golden Princess. All the Golden Princesses in this world are just some common beings who looks similar to me.” Mei’er stuck out her chest.

“I’m not a battle-type Star Spirit, so I can’t fight. However, I’m the messenger of the stars’ will, the fantasy creature who is blessed by the stars, the Star Spirit who can bring good luck to my master.”

Of course, her master’s ex-girlfriends were too strong and terrible, even the stars couldn’t protect him... Mei’er stood in silence for a minute for her master.

“What I will teach you is the truth of the universe, the knowledge from the stars, the guidepost that will guide your way of life.”

“First, Star Thunder!” Mei’er pointed at the biggest sister of the three puppies.

“Woof!” Star Thunder straightened up, vague silver lights appeared on the crisscross pattern on her forehead.

“You have thunder-type talent, so I named you ‘Star Thunder’. You will be the knight of our team, do you understand?”

“Woof!” Star Thunder wagged her tail with confidence in her eyes.

“Next, Star Fire!” Mei’er paused for a while, looking at Star Fire, who was sticking out her tongue and looked at her own tail with an appetite.

“You can control the power of fire, you can launch a deadly blow to your enemy at any time, you can choose various careers, you are an all powerful warrior...”

“Woof! Woof!” Star Fire looked at Mei’er in confusion. Only god knew how much she had understood.

“The last, Star Snow!”

“Woof!”

“Your personality is quiet, and you have snow-type talent, so you can be a mage to dominate the battlefield.”

Star Snow smiled gently and confidently, like a little princess of ice and snow. Although her eyes were innocent, her smile looked a bit strange.

After telling the three puppies their best combat styles and career choices, Mei’er looked at her Star Spirit Team with satisfaction.

The future is right in my paws!

Once they grow up, they can be my master's great assistants!
