Chapter 461: The Azure God Sword Dancer

“Puff!” After leaving the Sky Tower, looking at the long-lost bright sun and golden seashore, Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief.

The mission is accomplished!

I got the soul jades!

Teacher Casina must have expected everything, so that I could accomplish my goal so easily.

No wonder that she was the sixth Sky Sword, the master of the Sands of Time. Yun Xi didn't even doubt that she could see the future from the hourglass on the Sands of Time.

Looking at the two soul jades in his hands, Yun Xi was excited.

Because he entered the Sky Tower in the method of projection, he couldn't take out any material object from the tower. However, a soul jade was a rare treasure that was both material and virtual, it was bound with its owner's soul, because it was so valuable.

“Na... nana... na...” In a happy mood, Yun Xi walked out of the door of the Sky Tower and then knocked his head on something cold and hard.

“Ouch!” In a daze, a warm hand pulled him up.

Looking up, he saw a pair of familiar silver-gray eyes, which were cold in his memory but were warm with joy at the moment.

“You did well, disciple of Casina.” The guardian of the Sky Tower, the oldest Sky Sword’s voice sounded clear and euphonious.

Compared to her cold attitude before, she was like a block of melting ice, giving him a feeling that spring was coming.

“Oh... oh... I... I’m good...” Yun Xi was tongue-tied, just like every young boy who first saw his dream lover. He didn’t know what to say and what expression he should put on his face.

Even though he was the White Emperor, the Master of Star Go, essentially, he was just a 16 year old boy, who felt annoyed not to long ago because his childhood sweetheart would leave him.

He was dumb in the face of the girl who would only appear in his dream.

“Yes, you did well. You are as good as Casina.” The old guardian held his hands with a gentle look.

Year after year, she saw a lot of people go to the Sky Tower and leave, but the points of the Sky Tower was still slowly declining. If it wasn’t because of Casina, the Sky Tower’s points would have dropped to the bottom.

Her emotion as a “human” was gradually vanishing. Bit by bit, the Sky Sword God’s Domain and the oldest Sky Tower, only made the guardian of the Sky Tower feel disappointed.

She stood for absolute order, so she couldn't change the rules of the Sky Tower, neither get into the Sky Tower.

Casina the Battle God was the only Sky Sword who was still maintaining the past glory of the Sky Tower.

Without her performance on the Battle God's Championship Contest, the Sky Tower may have been forgotten by people.

In the past, the Sky Tower was as famous as the current God Tower, but now, only Casina was still keeping up appearances. People had forgotten the achievement of the Deicide Sky Swords.

"I hope you can make persistent efforts, seeking for the 'real meaning' of the towers."

As the guardian of the Sky Tower, she had stayed here too long, so much so, that she almost forgot the reason why she couldn't leave.

"Yes... I will..." In the blink of an eye, Yun Xi had forgotten his idea of "never coming to the Sky Tower again".

"If possible, can you tell me your name?"

He still wanted to know her name, he was eager to meet her again.

As long as the Sky Tower is here, she will be here, right?

In this case, even if he had escaped from the Sky Sword God's Domain, he could still meet her. Thinking of this, he couldn't stop his smile.

"You... you can know my name..."

"I'm the guardian of the Sky Tower, the holder of the Azure God Sword, the arbitrator of the Sky Sword God's Domain."

"My real name is Lilibet Elizabeth... before I became the guardian, people called me 'the Azure God Sword Dancer'." Maybe it was because she hadn't spoken for a too long time, her voice still sounded cold.

However, as she spoke, the door of her memories was slowly opened, she gradually recalled her appearance when her god sword hadn't been awakened, and she was still the child of a god on the battlefield of gods and demons back then.

She lost everything in the Twilight of the Gods. Apart from her Azure God Sword, she didn't have anything.

Her homeland had vanished into the void along with the old great gods, buried under the ashes of history.

After losing everything, she finally chose to be the guardian of the Sky Tower and the arbitrator of the Sky Sword God's Domain.

The fast increasing points of the Sky Tower was like a key, arousing the frozen “Azure God Sword Dancer” from the deepest side of her heart.

Yun Xi didn’t understand what he had brought for the Sky Tower. He didn’t understand how important his title of “ Master of Star Go” was.

After the Deicide Sky Sword disappeared, and West Queen started to ignore the world outside Kunlun God’s Domain, only one Sky Sword, Casina was still kicking in the Sky Tower.

Based on the rules of the seven towers, the points Casina won for the Sky Tower was far from enough. However, Yun Xi’s performance helped the Sky Tower earn a lot of points. On the list, the ranking of the Sky Tower had risen to the fifth place.

Apart from Casina, the points Yun Xi earned was more than all the other people in the Sky Sword God’s Domain!

“Lilibet Elizabeth...” Yun Xi repeated her name several times, and thanked Teacher Casina in his heart.

“Don’t worry about your identity, as the guardian of the Sky Tower, I will protect you.”

She brandished her azure sword and gave him her promise.

“Protect... me... she wants to protect me...” Suddenly, Yun Xi found that the world was so wonderful. At this moment, even his worry about his ex-girlfriends totally vanished in his heart.

Playing Star Go is really a good thing!

Chapter 462: Return

“In the name of the Azure God Sword Dancer, I grant you the Guard of Order God Seal.” Lilibet raised her azure sword and lightly touched his forehead.

With a flash of blue light, Yun Xi felt as if his body was washed by a stream of cold water. Something went into his body along with the cold feeling.

“Done. Now, no one will find that you have borrowed Casina’s body.” Lilibet sealed the final trace that may expose Yun Xi’s identity and pointed at his chest.

“Don’t use Casina’s projection the next time. You are the Master of Star Go, you have obtained your own ‘mark’.”

“My mark?” Yun Xi looked at the place Lilibet pointed at in confusion.

Somehow, there was a mark of the chessboard on his chest.

“Yes, just like Casina, the Sky Tower has remembered you.”

“From now on, you don’t have to come to the Sky Tower by using Casina’s projection.”

“You can play Star Go freely, I’m looking forward to your performance in the future.”

Raising the azure sword in her hand, Lilibet lightly patted it on his shoulder.

“In this era, You are the only person who obtained the recognition of the Sky Tower by using your own power.”

“I hope you can become a mainstay in the future, just like Casina the Battle God.”

Yun Xi looked at Lilibet, the girl of his dreams with expectations.

“If I come back, can I see you again?”

“My mission is to guard the Sky Tower. I will always be here as long as the Sky Tower exists.”

“If you want to see me again, come to the Sky Tower to take part in the trials, Master of Star Go.” Lilibet nodded in the response to Yun Xi’s question.

“Then, I will be back.” Yun Xi found that it wasn’t a bad thing to be the Master of Star Go.

“Goodbye.” Lilibet sheathed her azure sword and walked back to the golden seashore. In the distance, a group of wandering souls flew close to the Sky Tower.

She brandished her sword, returning to her daily work, sending the lost souls back to the afterworld of forever silence.

“Oh... I see... so it is...” Looking at her, Yun Xi realized that he was also one of the souls that were eliminated by her.

However, he already could stand behind her and be recognized by her.

“Thank you, Teacher Casina.” Yun Xi pressed the hourglass-shaped mark on his forehead and his body gradually vanished in the air.

Unfamiliar ceiling.

There were patterns of stars and a picture of twin sisters on the wall, which looked graceful and beautiful.

Hum? Where am I?

Yun Xi was confused. Apparently, he wasn't in the girl's dorm. When did he come to this strange room?

“Oh... master, I forgot to tell you,” Mei'er said sheepishly, “You have stayed in the mystery world of the Starry Sky Chessboard for three days.”

“In order not to make people doubt, I let Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow possess your body. I promise that they didn't make any mistakes!”

“What?! I have played Star Go three days?” He was shocked.

Thinking again, it wasn't a surprising thing. There was no day and night on the Starry Sky Chessboard, it was hard to know the exact time there.

It wasn't strange that 100 turns of the game had cost him three days.

Because he found pleasure in it, he didn't notice the passage of time.

But, why did Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow possess my body? How could the three little guys play the role of maid perfectly?

"Don't worry, master. They did well. Actually, they did too well..." Suddenly, Mei'er's voice became faltering, which made him have a really ominous presentiment.

What happened when I was playing Star Go?

Why did I wake up in an unfamiliar room?

Whose room is this room?

"Hey... Mei, you wake up?" He heard a familiar voice beside his side, which was so sweet that it could make people drunk.

No, no way!

Why is she?

Why! Is! She!

Star Thunder, Star Fire, Star Snow! What did you do?

Yun Xi slowly looked back, and saw the girl's snow white body.

On the wide, white bed, the girl wasn't wearing anything and was sleeping deeply like a beautiful begonia.

Why is it you?!

Yun Xi really got intimidated when he saw the girl's face.

Red Lotus! The strongest hero ranked person in the White Lotus Sword Domain!

Unsurprisingly, he saw the young sister of the twin witches, who slept on the other side of the bed.

Compared to Red Lotus, at least White Lotus wore a white silk nightclothes. Although he could see a part of her tender skin from this angle, his face still turned red and his heart couldn't stop pounding.

Star Thunder, Star Fire, Star Snow! What happened?! Why am I on the twin sisters' bed?

Whoa! This is really a great crisis.

"I'm done... Farewell, my dream of being a gentleman." Looking at the defenseless sleeping twin witches, he only wanted to cry.

PS1: I got a problem when trying to publish book 7 on Amazon... so I published Book 1-7 via Draft2Digital, you can buy the ebooks on Apple Books , Kobo, or Barnes&Noble . Because it would waste too much time to publish the 7 ebooks on these platforms one by one so I published the 7 ebooks as one, and the price is still $2.99 so that you won't spend more money if you only want to read Book 7. You can click the name of the platforms above or here to buy the ebook.

PS2: If you have bought any ebooks before on Amazon please rating the ebooks on the Amazon pages. It will be the best method to support us. Thanks a million.

Three days ago, in Yun Xi's room, when Yun Xi was in the Sky Tower.

"Listen, you have a task." Mei'er's projection floated above Yun Xi's head.

In the front of her, three puppies sat under the sunlight and waited for her orders.

Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow, they are the original three members of Mei'er's proud Star Spirit Team. They obtained wisdom from the White Lotus Secret Wisdom and were taught by Mei'er personally, they had a bright future.

Now, they had their first task from Mei'er.

"Don't worry, the task is simple. Even you can do it well." Mei'er threw out her chest.

"Master went to play Star Go, but his body still has the instinctive reaction. It just can't move of its own will."

"You don't need to do nothing, just control master's body to appear in front of everyone."

"Because you haven't even learned how to speak, you should avoid anything that may expose yourself."

"Therefore, I have prepared this excuse for you!"

Mei'er took out a paper card with confidence. This was the trump card she specifically made for the Star Spirit Team.

"Everyone, I'm practicing a special technique called 'Closed Mouth Zen', so I can't speak for several days. Don't worry, the practice will only take me several days."

"When I'm practicing this technique, I won't open my mouth no matter what happens, please take compassion on me."

Yes, this was Mei'er's perfect plan. Therefore, the three puppies actually didn't need to do anything, they just needed to control Yun Xi's body, letting it move following its body memory.

"Smile! Remember, no matter what happens, just keep your smile!" Mei'er raised her hand and ordered.

"Woof!" Star Thunder raised her paws calmly.

"Woof!" Star Fire raised her paws confidently.

"Woof!" Star Snow raised her paws gracefully.

Smile, just keep smiling. Even they could accomplish such a simple thing.

"Ok, let the plan begin. Remember to smile!" Mei'er was satisfied with this perfect plan. She nodded three times rapturously and allocated the time of possessing Yun Xi's body for the three puppies.

In the morning, Mei stretched herself and looked at the maid uniform in confusion. She sniffed around with curiosity because she hadn't got used to the strange and familiar body.

She felt strange, because she never moved using a human body before. It took her over 10 minutes to learn how to stand up using only two legs.

She felt familiar, because she smelt her favorite odor from this body.

If it wasn't because of this odor, she had died in her mother's belly. As the big sister of the three puppies, she was born with a strong sense of responsibility.

"..." Staying in front of the mirror, Mei (Star Thunder) used 15 minutes to get used to Yun Xi's body and remembered not to walk with four limbs.

This memory would also be inherited by her sisters, so they didn't have to learn from the beginning again.

In the mirror, the black-haired maid gracefully lifted the corners of her black dress and lowered her head in peace.

"Ta!" She opened the door. A new day for the maid Mei started!

"What? You are practicing 'Closed Mouth Zen'?"

"What's that, Mei? It sounds mysterious!"

This was the reaction of the common girls of the Starwing Knights.

"I know! I know! It's a high ranked training method of Buddhism! Close mouth, close eyes, and finally close five senses, stop eating and drinking. After accomplishing it, you won't die even being buried in the soil for a hundred days!"

“Oh, it’s a pretty difficult training method. Mei, you dare to challenge it! You are awesome!” This was the reaction from the noble girls.

“Whoa! Mei, won’t you starve to death? No! No!”

Well, this was the reaction of Ling Ling.

“I feel that Mei looks more like a lady today!”

“Yes, she is like a real aristocratic miss!”

This was the Mei in the eyes of common girls.

“Perfect etiquette. Mei is practicing hard.”

“Closed Mouth Zen isn’t easy. Mei has apparently achieved something.”

This was the Mei in the eyes of noble girls.

“No, Mei! Don’t become a nun! I will be with you forever!”

Well, this was Ling Ling.

Anyway, this excuse Mei'er looked for the three puppies was expedient. At least, the girls accepted it in the beginning.

Of course, only one person was an exception.

"..." Mei sipped a cup of warm milk and looked around with curiosity.

It was a fresh experience for her. Before today, she could only stay in Yun Xi's room all day, this was the first time she appeared in front of so many people in the form of a human.

She didn't understand a lot of things, she didn't know how to ask and answer.

However, she could feel a warm and cordial feeling from these girls, as if there were countless invisible threads that were connecting them together.

Chapter 464: The Hard-working Little Rabbi

"Mei, are you okay?"

"Mei, I don't want you to practice the Closed Mouth Zen. I feel that you are not like yourself. Whoa! I'm lonely!" Ling Ling gazed at Mei with a look like she was going to cry.

"..." Mei blinked her eyes and gave her a smile.

After all, apart from smiling, she didn't know what she could do.

"Whoa! Poor Mei, come here, eat more." Ling Ling looked at the smiling Mei with a sad look and gave her favorite butter cake to Mei.

It smells good! Mei's ears slightly shook, her animal instinct almost made her expose herself.

"..." Finally, her sense of responsibility overcame her animal instinct. She nibbled the cake as if she was a real lady.

"Mei, cheer up! I will tell everyone that you are practicing Closed Mouth Zen! I will tell them not to bother you!"

"See you later in the Sword Palace!"

"Mei, Mei, Mei. Don't starve yourself. Eat something!"

The girls of Starwing Knights left the dorm by twos and threes.

After enjoying the best breakfast in her life, Mei hesitated for a while and went in a different direction.

It wasn't the path leading to the Sword Palace, nor did Mei know why she went this way. It should be some kind of the body's instinct memory.

Gradually, green plants became more and more. This was the forest garden of the girl's dorm, the secret garden of girls.

In the garden, there was a special corner.

Pushing aside the branches, Mei stopped in front of a medicinal field.

In the medicinal field, a slender figure was cultivating the valuable herbs in the land. Maybe it was because the elements in the air were abundant here, these delicate herbs grew well.

The most important herbs showed a light red and their succulent leaves looked cute.

Apparently, the figure who was cultivating the herbs was the only pharmacist in the Starwing Knights, Lulu.

In order to become the perfect girl of her love, and for the same trouble of her friends in the Starwing Knights, Lulu was always the first one who got up in the morning.

The Dragon Plants in the medicinal field weren't easy to cultivate. Even in the Dragon God's Domain, only very few pharmacists could cultivate this special raw material, which could be used to make a dragon's favorite wine.

At this moment, the red Dragon Plants were being moistened under the morning sun. If it wasn't because of the power of Lulu's bloodline, it wouldn't be possible to cultivate them in this remote sword domain.

Lulu hadn't even eaten breakfast yet. And computing the time, she would also be late going to the Sword Palace.

"Ok... now they can maintain three hours liveliness. Little Dragon Plants, grow up fast!" After her daily care, Lulu let out a sigh of relief.

It was still too hard to cultivate these high-level herbs.

Several times, because of her instinct, she gave up her classes in the Sword Palace and ran to the medicinal field, so that she could save the Dragon Plants that suddenly needed to be irrigated.

Several times, she even forgot to eat and put all her heart into these herbs, so that she could save them from dying.

In this process, she understood the power in her bloodline more and more, bit by bit.

Finally, the memory of the pharmacist Lulu and the memory of the original swordsman Lulu merged together, becoming the same mind.

She liked to cultivate herbs, she was the wife of the White Emperor in the Water God's World.

She liked her friends and family, she was a member of the Starwing Knights.

Because of a fantastic opportunity, the two minds became the same.

She was the little “rabbit” from the poor village in the Water God’s world.

She was also the girl from the White Lotus Sword Domain, the girl who carried the hope of her civilian family.

The two minds finally realized that they were the same person, they just went down two different roads due to different starting points of their lives.

During the process of cultivating the herbs, the two roads met again, the two minds recognized each other.

Lulu had become this unique Lulu. She stopped trying to hide her rabbit ears and did her best to help her friends by using the power in her bloodline.

And everyone in the Starwing Knights also accepted her and gave her a very important mission.

This medicinal field was the hope of a lot of girls in the Starwing Knights!

Of course, it didn’t include Hua Yue and Ling Ling. In some sense, they were the enemies of all girls of the civilian camp of the Starwing Knights!

“Hey!” Lulu raised her head and saw the beautiful figure who was looking at her.

“Mei... good morning...”

Somehow, after realizing that Mei had seen her entire process of cultivating the herbs, Lulu blushed.

Maybe amongst all the girls of the Starwing Knights, only she realized something, which she should never know and should never tell anyone.

“...” Looking at Lulu’s red face, suddenly, an uncontrollable impulse rose in Mei’s heart.

Hum?... Wait! Why?

I’m not controlling it, but Master’s body is naturally walking to the girl...

Chapter 465: Lulu’s Decision

Lulu looked at Mei in shock, because she just naturally walked up to her, naturally held her hands and naturally kissed her on her lips!

Why, why, why did you suddenly do that?!

I... in fact, I know your real identity... you... you are... no, I can’t say it. It’s a secret, I should never expose it!

“...” Mei gazed at her with a look of innocence. ( ͡ _ ͡ )

It wasn’t her fault! She was just smiling and the body itself naturally walked to her!

Why was this body so skillful?

Even though Mei (Star Thunder) was innocent, she knew as a lady, she shouldn't kiss other people so casually, even if it was another girl!

"You... as expected, you are..." Lulu covered her mouth in surprise and happiness.

I felt it! I finally felt it again! The same lips, the same temperature, the same kiss!

Oh, it's you. Even though your appearance is different, but all details of your moves had exposed you.

You... you are the... my... the most perfect one in the world!

"Ooo... ooo..." Without warning, Lulu started crying.

Finally, I have waited for this time for such a long time, I meet you again.

My emperor, my faith and belief, the only one I love in this world.

This moment, the pharmacist Lulu and the swordsman Lulu finally became the same person, making no distinction.

Because they were loving the same person.

He was the chosen one of the Water God's World, he was the White Emperor in the endless mist, he was the beloved one of the Water God.

At the same time, he was also the person in the swordsman Lulu's heart.

"..." Mei (Star Thunder) looked at the crying Lulu at a loss. She didn't know what she should do in the face of these tears.

It doesn't matter, I don't understand, but the master of the body understands it and knows what he should do to let the girl smile through the tears.

With the experience of dealing with "a million brides", it becomes an instinct in this body.

Although Lulu wasn't crying for, "that thing", she was crying with joy.

However, the White Emperor only needed one method to comfort the crying girl, which had been proved countless times.

No matter who the bride was, they couldn't resist his gentle move and intimate behavior.

As the first bride, naturally, Lulu had zero resistance to it.

Kissing the familiar lips was like driving a light carriage on a familiar road, he slowly sucked her sweet tongue, until the shy Lulu's body became limp and fell into his arms.

Well... do I need to keep smiling at this moment?

"..." Mei didn't know the reason, because she had no qualifications to answer it.

When Lulu's mind recovered, her face had turned red and her body was grasped in his arms.

The feeling of the kiss was different, this time, it was more sweet with a charming fragrance.

"Whoa..." With an irresistible impulse, Lulu's sweet tongue tasted that feeling again. Deep or shallow, the two tongues tangled together, just like that time in the Water God's world. Lulu gently responded to all the demands from the person she loved, and she got rid of her confusion and inhibitions, realizing her real heartfelt wishes in this morning.

At this moment, her mind became empty and clear, instantly striding over the final impediment.

Countless spirit qi in the air gathered together and was absorbed by Lulu's body.

Her bloodline talent was totally awakened!

The road leading to the God Pharmacist was opening to her!

Finally, Lulu achieved the hero rank.

She was the gentle little rabbit in the Water God's world, she was the female knight of the Starwing Knights.

She finally made her choice.

She chose "God Pharmacist" and not "Female Swordsman" as her hero ranked career.

She didn't give up practicing her sword skill, but she realized that the Starwing Knights needed a God Pharmacist and not a new hero ranked Female Swordsman. It wasn't just for cultivating the Dragon Plants but also for the future of the Starwing Knights.

Moreover, as the wife of the White Emperor, isn't it a natural thing to help him use her best talent?

She didn't regret her choice.

As long as she could stay beside him, she didn't mind putting down her sword.

"Thank you..."

There was no earth-shaking lightning nor any anomaly that could shake the heaven and overturn the earth. Lulu quietly made the most important choice in her life in the forest garden.

Lulu pulled up her socks, stood on her toes and kissed him on his lips, as if she had seen through “Mei”.

Oh, you must have known my confusion, so you come here to encourage me using this method, which could very likely cause you to expose your biggest secret.

In return, I give you my faith and loyalty, just like when we were still in the Water God’s world.

You are my god.

“It doesn’t matter. I will keep this secret for you... I will be your little rabbit forever.”

Lulu whispered and blushed.

“So, do you want to taste the rabbit today?”

“ ... ”

Mei chose to smile.

Chapter 466: The Secret Eyes

In the morning.

A light golden beetle was lurking under the leaves. The six golden dots on its shell were emitting beautiful lights.

If Yun Xi was here, it would feel somewhat familiar, as if he had seen this little beetle in a special place at a certain time.

At this moment, the holy beetle was watching the scene in front of it, recording the images of the two people in its eyes.

“Oh... I’m too weak...” Although she had entered the world of the hero rank, Lulu was still the little rabbit.

She was devout and virtuous, loyal and sensitive. That day, she ran to the Apostle of the Water God and told him her heartfelt feelings, that was the biggest advance in her life.

She had no resistance to the Apostle.

So she was disheveled and breathless now.

“Oh, I’m going to be late for class!” After wearing her clothes, Lulu hummed a jaunty ditty and left their secret basement.

The golden beetle also opened its wings and flew to its master quickly.

In the Sword Palace, the tutor was giving a lesson of Western sword skills.

Hua Yue squinted her eyes and checked the video over and over again.

“I underestimated her... that little rabbit...”

“I didn’t expect that she would be the first!”

The holy beetle hid behind her clothes and absorbed her vitality to recover itself. The golden lines on its shell became brighter and smoother now.

Compared to the loss of a little vitality, Hua Yue was satisfied with the beetle’s efficiency. It was a servant from her family. Even in the entire Western God’s Domain, it was a rare holy-type creature.

If it wasn’t for her White Golden Rose Bloodline, she wouldn’t have any chance of obtaining it.

After using it, Hua Yue realized its value.

It wasn’t just a rare holy-type creature, it could also change its appearance freely, and could also record the scene it saw.

Its only flaw was that it couldn't record sound, but the video it recorded was perfectly clear. For instance, from the video Hua Yue had watched dozens of times over, she could even see the transparent thread of saliva on Lulu's lips.

Of course, she didn't watch her intentionally.

She just let the holy beetle watch the medicinal field and Lulu, in case that any accidents happened.

As the team leader, she had the responsibility to protect all members of the Starwing Knights and smooth the relations between civilian girls and noble girls.

Although she was the absolute leader of the noble girls' camp, however, she was also the leader of the entire Starwing Knights, she was voted for by everyone, including the civilian girls.

As their team leader, she thought that she should pay attention to the topics and wishes of her team members.

Lulu's medicinal field was the final hope of half the girls of the Starwing Knights. So she sent the holy beetle to watch the medicinal field and protect Lulu.

Don't judge the holy beetle's combat power from its small size. In some sense, its strength was even stronger than Hua Yue. Its speed was so fast that a human couldn't see its trace of flying with their naked eyes, and with a flash of golden light, it could easily pierce through a well-armed knight's plate armor.

She didn't expect that she would see any troublemaker but saw the scene she shouldn't see.

“Replay it again...” Hua Yue ordered the holy beetle in a serious tone. In the video, Mei appeared and suddenly, Lulu cried. Mei walked to her, held her in her arms and kissed her lips.

What did they say?

Why did Mei walk to her naturally and kiss her?

Why did Lulu cry and fall into Mei’s arms?

“Pause!” She paused the scene at the moment when Lulu stood on her toes and kissed Mei positively.

The scene of two girls kissing each other was as beautiful as a fairy tale. Even the medicinal field behind Lulu smelt the fragrance and blossomed White flowers.

“It’s strange... why?”

“Mei didn’t say anything!”

Firmly remembering the scene in her mind, Hua Yue blushed.

Mei was practicing the “Closed Mouth Zen”, she knew it. Lulu was cultivating the Dragon Plants from morning to night, she knew that too.

What happened between them that could make Lulu fall?

Besides, wasn't Mei's kiss too skillful?

Her moves and her smile looked as if she had done it many times.

When did that start?

Why didn't I notice it?

When did they become so intimate?

As the leader of the Starwing Knights, how could I know nothing about it?

"I... love... you..."

"You... are the... only..." From the shape of Lulu's mouth, Hua Yue gradually figured out what Lulu whispered.

"I will protect... this secret..."

“I will be your little rabbit forever.”

“Do you want to taste the rabbit today?”

Then was the face-blushing intimate time, the important information that made Hua Yue watch dozens of times without winking.

“Secret... what’s the secret?”

“Mei... she likes the genre of Lulu?”

“It seems that Lulu knows something we don’t know.”

“Oh, I didn’t notice that Lulu’s feet are so beautiful!”

The holy beetle buzzed in confusion. Its small brains couldn’t let it understand the reason why its master watched the video over and over again.

“Hum, store it up, name it ‘The secret time of the little rabbit’.”

“As an excellent lady, the leader of the Starwing Knights, I will keep all secrets of my team members.”

“So, let’s watch the video again...”

Chapter 467: The Legendary Black Hair

Mei walked casually into the old galley of the Sword Palace. Many girls around her looked at the black-haired maid with curiosity.

Her waist length hair and strong strength made the mysterious maid become a topic for the entire Sword Palace.

After all, she was the legendary maid, whom it was said that the invincible Hua Huo said “No one can touch my Mei!”, besides, she was also one of the core people of the Starwing Knights.

As an emerging organization, the Starwing Knights became the focus of everyone from the very first day of the new term.

The Sword Palace never had an organization that had so many excellent girls. Even the weakest girl was at the 2nd rank, and the civilian girls and noble girls lived together in peace within this small organization.

Although there were also a “civilian girls’ camp” and a “noble girls’ camp” in the small organization, the cohesiveness and power of the Starwing Knights were unprecedented. Rumor had it that even Hua Huo was also a member of the Starwing Knights.

Regardless of Hua Huo, the two leaders, Hua Yue and Xiao Cao were also the most excellent students. Their teachers spoke highly of them and guaranteed that they had zero problems for entering the hero rank.

Not only them, but all girls of the Starwing Knights also had that infinite potential. A dozen girls were thought to be able to enter the hero rank in the near future, and the remaining girls also had a 70% likelihood to enter the hero rank within a few years.

70%, what does that mean? The Starwing Knights had over 30 members, 70% meant that this small organization would have over 20 hero ranked members in the future, including super geniuses such as Hua Yue and Xiao Cao.

Even in the entire Sword Palace, there were only a dozen hero ranked disciples now!

No one would doubt that the Starwing Knights would have a bright future.

Therefore, a lot of female swordsmen wanted to join the Starwing Knights, unfortunately, no one had succeeded up to now.

Rumor had it that the requirement of the Starwing Knights was high, the only new member was Mumu, the little girl who often hid behind the twin witches.

They even counted Mumu as part of it, the entire Starwing Knights had only 38 members. However, the girls who had submitted their applications to Hua Yue were ten times more than the first "38"!

In fact, apart from the few female swordsmen from high-level sword domains, almost all female students in the Sword Palace had tried it.

The Starwing Knights, which had only been formed for about 1 month, almost had the ability to dominate the White Lotus Sword Domain.

And everything referred to an old tale of the Sky Sword God's Domain.

No one knew when and where the tale was derived, and the version was distinct in different ears, however, they had the same element, a black-haired girl who could bring good luck.

She had a perfect face and skin, her long black hair contained mysterious magic.

In the stories, the female swordsmen who were blessed by the black-haired girl could obtain the blessing of fate.

The female swordsmen whose fates were blessed could obtain a brilliant life.

Originally, it was just a tale.

It was a small probability event that a female could be the number one in the entrance test of the Sword Palace, moreover, the female must have perfect black long hair, snow-white skin, and delicate face.

However, the girls of the Starwing Knights proved that it wasn't just a tale.

Almost every girl heard about the same miracle from the girls of the Starwing Knights.

They were just common female swordsmen whose sword talents were average, however, after obtaining the black-haired girl's lucky charms, their understanding of sword skill suddenly advanced by leaps and bounds in one night.

Not only that, even though they faced an unexpected disaster and were dropped onto a deserted island, they also didn't face any danger. On the contrary, they obtained a great opportunity in the Water God's world.

After Casina the Battle God took them away from the Water God's Fantasy Island, all of them awakened their special talents.

They were really incredibly lucky!

Moreover, their luck was still continuing. They just arrived at the Sword Palace and immediately obtained the blessing of the legendary White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Do you still not believe it?

Then look at this!

There were also a lot of male swordsmen on the floating ship White Lotus, and they also entered the Water God's world, however, 1/3 of them even gave up entering the Sword Palace and returned to the mortal world. Compared to them, the luck of the girls was incredible.

No one still doubted the tale after knowing the experience of the girls of the Starwing Knights, everyone affirmed that they were the most lucky people.

The starting point of everything pointed to one person.

After investigating, the person's identity was no longer a secret.

And the secret of "her black hair can bring good luck!" was also no longer a secret.

"..."

Mei (Star Thunder) looked at the girls around them in confusion. They were all gazing at her with longing.

Especially when they gazed at her beautiful black long hair, Mei even felt as if their eyes were emitting bright green lights.

What should I do now?

Keep smiling.

Chapter 468: Urge

Walking casually in the passage, Mei (Star Thunder) felt that the atmosphere was becoming strange.

Why is the quantity of female swordsmen behind her becoming more and more?

Why are they looking at me with desire?

To be precise, they were looking at her long black hair.

Even though Mei (Star Thunder) didn't understand a lot of things, she could clearly feel the hot desire in their eyes.

"Mei!" At this moment, the girl who never learned to read the atmosphere appeared. Ling Ling exclaimed and saved Mei from the dilemma.

She ran to Mei. Those "lethal weapons" on her chest shook heavily along with her rapid footsteps.

For a moment, Mei also felt the giant impact, literally.

Ling Ling ran too fast and couldn't stop in her tracks. She ran into Yun Xi's body and her full breasts become the perfect buffers. Mei couldn't help but stretch out her hands, holding her in her arms.

Hum, the handfeel was soft, smooth, and flexible! No wonder that she was a representative of the noble girls just like Hua Yue! Her perfect body could lead others to sin.

"Mei... I have bad news! Someone is looking to make trouble for you!" Ling Ling looked around with a crying look and told Mei the news she heard nervously.

"..." Mei looked around with a smile.

“No! No! No! This is not happening!”

“Yes, we just feel curious!”

“It’s prohibited for us to make trouble for you!”

The girls around Mei quickly shook their heads. Even though they were eager for Mei’s black long hair, no one actually dared to do anything.

After all, Mei was the maid of that “monster”. Moreover, that “monster” specifically announced her ownership of her maid.

As long as they still had brains, no one dared to do anything to “Mei”, who was protected by that “monster”!

They all witnessed how she beat down all the hero ranked disciples of the Sword Palace, and even Xia Ling, the princess of the Great Xia couldn’t withstand three turns under her attacks. They would never forget her announcement.

The words from the strong people were right. No matter how arrogant and brusque she was, as long as she was still the strongest, her words would be the law amongst all the disciples.

Her words were even more effective than any written laws.

This was the reason why they didn't ask Mei for anything, although all of them were eager for Mei's long black hair.

Of course, as a "bimbo", Ling Ling didn't realize this at all.

She just heard that there were people who were interested in Mei's black hair, then quickly realized that Mei would get into trouble and started to look for Mei without thinking it through.

Her frankness was also to her advantage. Because of this, although the civilian girls of the Starwing Knights were jealous of her "good development", they got along well with her.

After all, who would really hate such a simple, optimistic, cute girl?

Mei (Star Thunder) wasn't an exception. She could feel Ling Ling's temperature, which was warm and intimate.

This body's temperature was also familiar, so naturally she held her in her arms and enjoyed her cute body.

"Oh... this..."

"How can it be... can't they..."

“So, she is a... those two are...”

The atmosphere between Mei and Ling Ling was too obvious. The eyes of the girls who saw this scene brightened up as if they just saw two beautiful flowers in a secret garden.

In the Sword Palace, they lived in the independent girl’s dorm, it was rare to see males there. Therefore, they were sensitive to this kind of event.

Even the tutors of the Sword Palace turned a blind eye towards these things. After all, they were young and lively girls, strict management wouldn’t be too useful and may even accomplish the very opposite.

Anyway, only in this period, in the half-closed Sword Palace, these girls would love fantasy and be immersed in it.

After they graduated and stepped onto the wide stage of the Sky Sword God’s Domain, they would naturally forget these romances and grow up.

Propagate the doctrine, impart professional knowledge, and resolve doubts, they were the meanings of the Sword Palace. As for the small fantasy of these adolescent girls, they also had a space in the Sword Palace.

“...” Mei looked around in confusion. She didn’t understand why the atmosphere here suddenly became stranger just now.

Everyone looked at them with interest, their eyes looked as if they were saying “so that is what it is”.

“Mei... I will protect you!”

“Don’t worry... I’m here, no one can hurt you!” Ling Ling nerved herself and threw out her chest. Not surprisingly, her breasts touched Mei’s chest.

No comparison, no harm.

“...” Feeling the sizes of Ling Ling’s breasts, Mei was lost in thought.

The feeling is strange.

However, it isn’t repugnant.

Her body even had an impulse to move its face close to them and absorb nutrients from them.

This was a wish from the same memory of Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow.

Their mother, the dog died immediately after giving birth to the three sisters. She didn’t leave a drop of milk for them.

When the three sisters were just born and tried to suck milk from their mother, they only felt that their mother’s body was becoming cold.

Now, the instinct in their genes revived again.

Chapter 469: History

“Mei... it’s itchy.” Ling Ling couldn’t help but laugh in Mei’s arms. After finding that Mei wasn’t being bullied, she let out a sigh of relief.

Mei lightly patted Ling Ling’s breasts and smiled, holding her hands naturally.

She restrained the instinct, as if a voice was telling her that it wasn’t the right place to do this.

As for where the right place was and when was the right time... Mei’s simple mind didn’t understand such a complicated thing!

It was all the body’s instinctive reaction!

In the Sword Palace.

In the history class.

An old, whitebeard tutor was excitedly introducing the biggest pride of the Sky Sword God’s Domain.

“Today, I will introduce the life of one of the strongest Sky Swords.”

“The holder of the Sands of Time, the sixth Sky Sword, Casina the Battle God!”

“We all know that Casina the Battle God is a very rare Sky Sword who has never used her Sky Sword, however, according to the speculation of other legend ranked people, it’s absolutely not because she doesn’t know how to use her sword!”

“As the strongest martial artist, how can she not know how to use a sword?”

“A general speculation is that her sword skill is strong, however, due to some reason, she sealed her ability to use her sword.”

“Tutor!” Someone raised his hand from his seat.

“Speak. I know you are interested in this.” The tutor smiled. All students were interested in the Sky Swords, the strongest people of the entire Sky Sword God’s Domain.

They were living legends, the strongest people at the same level as gods! Moreover, the sixth Sky Sword really appeared in the White Lotus Sword Domain. When Casina’s floating ship the Sands of Time landed, almost all people witnessed it.

Moreover, the disciples in this session were saved by Casina from the Water God’s world personally. Even the tutors of the Sword Palace were jealous of their good luck.

“I saw Master Casina before, why does she look young?”

“Yes, how old is she?”

Several girls asked. Compared to Casina's strong power, they cared more about her ageless face and perfect body shape.

"Good question. I think you all have noticed it. Although I don't know Master Casina's age, she has indeed overcome the passage of time."

"This is also one of the main points I'm going to teach you. It's a bit too early for you, but you must remember."

"Legend ranked beings can overcome the rules of nature, they never need to worry about such matters as birth, death, illness and old age."

"From the hero rank to the legend rank, essentially, it was a rise in the nature of life. It can even be regarded as a perfect change of life form."

"Many of you may have touched the door of the hero rank. I know some of you have had the confidence to enter the hero rank..." The history tutor took a glance at the girls of the Starwing Knights.

"Anyway, you were all blessed by the White Lotus Secret Treasure, it's really a miracle."

It was a remarkable thing to teach a hero ranked disciple by any tutor. The names of all hero ranked disciples were engraved on the sword stele of the Sword Palace.

Amongst all the names, Yun Hai the Sword Master was the brightest. He was the pride of the White Lotus Sword Palace and even the entire Sky Sword God's Domain. Yun Hai's name was on the top of the sword stele.

Even though these hero ranked disciples wouldn't stay too long in the White Lotus Sword Domain, they would leave and look for a better opportunity in high-level sword domains, however, it wouldn't change the glory of the sword stele.

This was also the reason why the Sword Palace turned a blind eye to the disciples from high-level sword domains. After obtaining the blessing of White Lotus Secret Treasure, they also needed to leave their names on the sword stele.

The noble families also connived it. After all, even Yun Hai the Sword Master left his name on the sword stele, they would lose anything to let their descendants leave their names on it.

Most hero ranked tutors in the White Lotus Sword Palace were old and didn't have any chance to go the next in cultivating. They just chose the Sword Palace as their rest home, just like fallen leaves returned to their roots.

Hero ranked beings couldn't get rid of the restriction of birth, death, illness and old age. They could live longer than mortals, but in essence, they were still mortals who had stronger life forces.

Even reaching the sixth rank like the Master of the White Lotus Sword Domain, he couldn't resist the passage of time. Everyone could see that their respected master was becoming older and older.

However, he had the twin witches as his successors, therefore, no one worried about the future of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

After all, they were the twin witches chosen by the White Lotus Secret Treasure!

They could make the White Lotus Sword Domain great again!

The appearance of the White Lotus Secret Treasure was a sign.

“Then, why can Master Casina overcome time?”

“Is it because of her sword, the Sands of Time?”

“Have other Sky Swords also overcome time?”

Once the topic started, everyone was curious about the power of the legend rank.

“Ha ha... overcome time... it’s a privilege of the legend rank...” The history tutor sighed.

Thousands of secret skills, thousands of ways of immortality, however, how many people could really overcome time, becoming a real legend?

The legend rank was a concept that was hard to understand by mortals. Even mortals still had a ray of hope to enter the hero rank, however, the legend rank was far from touchable, it already entered the realm of gods.

It was impossible to tell a summer insect what ice was.

Similarly, it was impossible to let a mortal understand what the legend rank was.

“In fact, not all legend ranked beings are immortal. Even in the legend rank, the sixth Sky Sword, Casina the Battle God is one of the strongest people. I know you don’t understand the meaning of the title ‘Battle God’ now, but I’ll have to tell you,” The tutor paused for a moment, then said.

“In the endless god’s domains, only Casina is called the ‘Battle God’. She is the most terrible martial artist in the entire endless god’s domain.”

Chapter 470: Garden

Under the podium, Ling Ling and Mei held each other’s hands, listening to the history tutor’s undisguised praise towards Casina the Battle God.

“Mei... so Casina is such an awesome person!”

“I saw you were intimate with Casina the Battle God. Hey, tell me, is there a secret between you and Master Casina?”

Mei said nothing.

She didn’t understand the reason, but when she heard the name of “Casina the Battle God”, her heart suddenly started pounding, the temperature of her body started rising, and her forehead was perspiring.

It was an instinct, an instinct that was engraved inside Yun Xi’s body.

“Oh... I forgot that you are practicing the so-called ‘Closed Mouth Zen’!” Ling Ling giggled. She felt that Mei was more approachable than usual.

“...” Mei looked at Ling Ling’s full breasts again with a trace of longing in her smiling eyes.

To Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow, they lost their mother even before they opened their eyes. Their longing for sweet milk was forever a regret in their lives.

Although their master fed them a lot of milk and delicious golden bread, that regret was still rooted in the three sisters’ memories like a massive hole.

And Ling Ling’s appearance knocked open their shared desire like a key.

The desire for milk was an impulse deeply rooted in their instincts.

They never sucked milk from their mother because she died immediately after giving birth to them, and this desire became a sense of loss engraved in their souls.

Therefore, no matter it was mature Star Thunder, naughty Star Fire, or gentle Star Snow, they all liked Ling Ling.

To be precise, they liked her beautiful, papaya-like breasts, which could apparently catch the eyes of both males and females.

In some sense, Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow were pure and simple enthusiasts of big breasts. It had nothing to do with their race and identity, it was simply a favor in their bloodlines.

Hiding in Yun Xi's body which wasn't being tied to a "mind", Star Thunder naturally exposed her real heart.

The moral principle of humans was never a problem to the three sisters.

After all, they were just dogs!

Ling Ling's instinct was right. Today, Mei was being too intimate with her and without any disguise.

Ling Ling couldn't stop her heart from pounding when they stayed together, holding each other's hands.

If she was a common member of the Starwing Knights, she would be restrained and behave like a lady.

Unfortunately, Ling Ling wasn't "common".

She always did whatever her mind wanted immediately and without a second thought. This was Ling Ling!

"Hey hey... Mei's smell is agreeable..." Lying in Mei's arms, Ling Ling forgot that they were in class.

“...” Mei smiled and lightly stroked Ling Ling’s hair, listening to the history tutor’s lecture.

“The sixth Sky Sword, Casina the Battle God is the strongest known martial artist in the Battle God’s Championship Contest.”

“Every time she went to the Battle God’s Championship Contest, hundreds of legend ranked beings would go to watch her.”

“From her first battle to her record-breaking 999 successive victories, she didn’t even lose once, not even ending in a draw.”

“You probably don’t understand what a great achievement that is. Think about it, Master Casina’s opponents weren’t just all humans, there were dragons, elf priests, lava giants, and a lot of other legend ranked beings! None of them were a match for her!”

“Mei... your smell is familiar.”

“It’s comfortable...” Ling Ling closed her eyes and enjoyed her happy time with Mei.

It’s was too good to listen to the history lesson.

There are no other members of Starwing Knights here!

“...” Mei was thinking and questioning. A spark of wisdom was being born.

She was exploring the secret of her master’s body, trying to find an answer from it.

It was probably the first time she started thinking on her own. It was an important moment for her, just like the moment the first human of the human race started thinking.

Who am I?

Where am I?

Where am I going!

Master, tell me the answer!

“Unfortunately, Casina the Battle God hasn’t come to the Battle God’s Championship Contest for a long time, but her disciples were kicking butt there recently.”

“Let’s look forward to the birth of the next Battle God!”

While the history tutor was speaking, Mei found the answer from the body, which was given by the instinct of Yun Xi’s body.

“...” Mei (Star Thunder) smiled and held Ling Ling’s hands, who was confused about what she was going to do.

Mei brought Ling Ling back to the familiar place from the morning, where it was told by the body.

No one would come here at this time. It was a knowledge that didn’t need to be taught.

A familiar scene. Pink petals, fragrant medicinal field, and the thick growth of grass.

Yes, this was the secret garden of the Starwing Knights, where Mei enjoyed the little rabbit this morning.

The body just moved following its instinct, it didn’t have a mind that could tell it “No, stop!”, “Don’t do it!”, and “No, it’s not what a gentleman should do!” now.

Which meant that Mei wasn’t a gentleman at present. She was moving following her desire.

Moreover, Star Thunder who was controlling this body also had a natural impulse, which had made the thing that would happen to Ling Ling become destined.

“Mei... I think... it’s not good to cut the class...” Ling Ling raised her hands. As a good girl, she never cut a class before.

“...” Looking at Ling Ling, Mei smiled.

A happy smile which was filled with desire.
