

Starchild 501

Chapter 501: Presents the Gem and My Love to You

It's over! My life is all over!

While Yun Xi watched the pictures of the first day, he still held great hope.

Until Star Thunder went the wrong way to the secret garden of the Starwing Knights, and met Lulu there...

Lulu became the first victim.

Then Ling Ling and Mei Lan were also added to the victim list.

The next day, Star Fire took over his body and was soon caught by Hua Yue.

Apparently, as the leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue noticed that Mei (Star Fire) was in a strange mood. Looking at this scene, an emotion called hope emerged again in Yun Xi's heart.

Hua Yue was a perfect knight, and her strength was enough for her to protect herself. Under her protection, there should be nothing happening.

Unfortunately, Yun Xi still guessed wrong.

It was true that Hua Yue had the strength to stop Mei, but she did nothing. Instead, she became the fourth person on the victim list.

The symptoms of “Mei Poisoning” was still spreading!

On the third day, when Yun Xi fought against Norn the God of Wisdom and Orfina the Ruby Dragon on the chessboard, Star Snow possessed his body.

Unlike Star Thunder and Star Fire, Star Snow avoided contact with any people from the beginning and chose to bask in the sun in the Witch Palace. In theory, she would never meet any of the members of the Starwing Knights there.

Well, that was right. She didn't meet any of the members of the Starwing Knights, but the twin witches lived there!

Next, Yun Xi could only watch the pictures that Star Snow was brought into the underground of the Witch Palace and performed the mysterious sacrificial ceremony with the twin witches.

After everything was done, Star Snow had a chance to escape from here, but unfortunately, she lost her way.

Yun Xi didn't want to remember what happened next. Anyway, when he opened his eyes, he was already on the big bed of the twin witches, being watched by White Lotus.

What a big crisis! There's no way back. There's no chance to argue! But, but it wasn't my fault!

How could I know what happened in the real world when I was playing Star Go on the Starry Sky Chessboard?

“Sorry... I... I really am not...” Yun Xi looked at White Lotus with tears in his eyes.

From the twin witches’ point of view, he was undoubtedly an intruder, a pervert!

“My prince, is the ‘Closed Mouth Zen’ over?” White Lotus squinted her eyes and smiled at Yun Xi, enjoying his dumbstruck look.

“You know I’m...” Yun Xi shivered all over. Apart from Hua Huo, there should be no one knowing his real identity in the White Lotus Sword Palace!

If anyone knew that he was a man who lurked in the girls’ dorm, he would be wanted by the whole of the White Lotus Sword Palace!

“Yes, because of this thing, I knew it from the beginning.” White Lotus glanced at the Star and Moon Ring on her hand with a gentle look.

Why did she give up inheriting any of the god weapons of the Witch Palace and choose the Star and Moon Ring to be her weapon?

The reason was simple: fetters. She wanted it to be a fetter that could connect her with her prince forever. No matter what the prince became, she could find him at a glance.

Even if there were 100,000,000,000 people, he was the only one she could see in her eyes.

She wanted nobody but the prince.

“This ring is...” Yun Xi looked at the ring in confusion. He didn’t understand what it was. Did it have any relationship with me?

Is it a god weapon that can trace back time? So she can see through my real body at a glance?

Are the twin witches of fate so powerful? Can they actually use such a strong god weapon?

“This is the gift from you, my prince! Don’t you remember the first gift you gave me?” White Lotus gently touched the Star and Moon Ring, which was connected with her blood. She had signed a blood contract with it. Once the Star and Moon Ring was broken, she would die with it.

This was the way princesses expressed their trust in their lovers in ancient times.

Ignoring the limitation of materials, turning “impossibility” into “possibility”. Only a talented god witch like her could master this power. After pouring her life and soul into the ring, it was finally forged.

“Ha??” Yun Xi was surprised. It was a gift from me? Why don’t I remember it?

Even if it didn’t contain any special abilities, judging from its gorgeous appearance, it was undoubtedly a priceless treasure.

Speaking of the gift I gave White Lotus, wasn't it just a micalex I found from the hot spring?

How could the Star and Moon Ring on White Lotus' hand be the same thing as the micalex?!

"My prince, don't doubt it. This is your gift, the most beautiful treasure in the world." White Lotus's voice was sweet and warm, like delicious honey.

"Initially, it was just a micalex."

"I presented my blood and soul, and made it what it is."

"What it means is that the sun, the moon, and the stars will never be separated."

"Therefore, I named it the Star and Moon Ring."

Yun Xi looked at White Lotus in surprise, and finally remembered what she had said when he gave her the micalex as a gift.

"Today, this micalex is just a common stone in the eyes of other people.

"But from now on, it's the first gift my lover gave me.

“In the future, it will be the gift my husband first presented to me, and gradually will become a priceless and irreplaceable treasure in my life.

“I don’t mind other people’s ideas, but for me, it’s the most beautiful and glitzy gem from my prince.

“I witness it here, your present is the most valuable gift to me, to complete our eternal contract.

“Maybe I indeed don’t know what true love is, but I swear to this gem.”

“I will love you forever.”

So, it wasn’t just a girl’s fantasy, but her vow.

She really turned that micalex into her irreplaceable treasure, the most beautiful and dazzling gemstone in the world!

Chapter 502: Confession Again

“Hmm...” Red Lotus frowned in her dream as her skin flushed red. It seemed that she was about to wake up.

Too bad! Yun Xi looked at Red Lotus’ naked body, sweating heavily.

If Red Lotus woke up at this moment, he wouldn’t be able to purge himself of suspicion.

Fortunately, Yun Xi's most powerful ally in the Witch Palace was beside him.

"Sister, one sheep, two sheep, three sheep..." White Lotus approached her sister's ear and began counting sheep in a gentle voice.

If it was anyone else, this trick was undoubtedly ineffective, but for Red Lotus, only when White Lotus played this trick, Red Lotus would fall asleep again.

"White Lotus... Baa..." Hearing her cute sister's voice, Red Lotus contentedly turned over on the bed, putting her left hand on White Lotus' right hand and slept more soundly.

"..." Looking at Red Lotus, who fell into sleep again, Yun Xi didn't even dare to breathe.

But, because Red Lotus turned her back to Yun Xi, he could clearly see her naked, snow-white back, which was even more attractive than when she was facing Yun Xi.

"Ninety-nine sheep..." White Lotus showed an expression of reassurance on her face while smoothly covering her sister with a sheet, and then smiled at Yun Xi, whose face had totally turned red.

"My prince, is my sister's body pretty?"

"This... Well..." Yun Xi's forehead was covered with sweat.

Answer “pretty” meant that he has seen their bodies all over when they were sleeping, apparently, this was a death penalty if he dared to say it.

Answer “not pretty” was like plugging one’s ears while stealing a bell, which it was impossible to deceive White Lotus.

Whichever answer was wrong.

Accurately speaking, since the moment he entered the twin witches’ bedroom, he was already a sinner.

At this time, as a person who had committed a crime of offending the twin witches, what kind of expression should he put on his face?

Probably when the condemned criminals were sent under guard to the gallows, they held the same mood in their hearts.

“Sister hates men very, very, very much. Therefore, my prince, you have to be careful. Never expose your true identity in front of my sister!” To Yun Xi, White Lotus’ voice was like a light of redemption in the darkness.

Does it mean that she will not reveal my true identity to others?

“Of course, I will keep it a secret for you, my prince.”

“A good woman should be devoted to supporting her lover. Isn’t it a natural thing?” White Lotus squinted at Yun Xi and betrayed her sister without hesitation.

Her happiness was her sister’s happiness.

The twin witches were inseparable, they were two souls of one fate.

Their relationship was closer than any twins in the world. They were destined to live together forever.

Therefore, her prince would also become her sister’s prince.

Red Lotus and White Lotus would not be separated. She had found her happiness, therefore, she hoped that her sister could get happiness too.

“Ah...” Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that at least, White Lotus was on his side.

The real problem was her sister, Red Lotus. He didn’t even dare to imagine how angry Red Lotus would be if she knew the truth.

“Why ... why do you like me?” After feeling relaxed, more doubts emerged in Yun Xi’s heart.

He had had very few contacts with Red Lotus and White Lotus. The closest contact was the moment when White Lotus played the role of sleeping beauty in the dark forest.

Looking back on that kiss, Yun Xi couldn't say for sure that whether it was Red Lotus or White Lotus he kissed in the trial world.

However, the taste of the soft and fragrant lips still lingered in his mind.

And because of that kiss, his fate was totally changed and he had to step on a road that had no return.

"The Prince is the prince."

"I've been waiting for you to show up for a long time."

"Like the Sleeping Princess in the dark forest, waiting for the prince's kiss to lift the curse."

"My sister and I have been waiting for our prince for too long a time."

White Lotus' eyes gradually become sad.

"My prince, my prince, don't you like us?"

"Now that you have woken us up from the dark forest, please expose your love to us."

"Just as flowers need sunshine, we also need your love to grow well and become the only flower in the world to blossom for you."

Yun Xi looked at White Lotus' eyes and had a feeling of guilt in his heart.

It's different from what you said, the great stars!

Why didn't she forget the experience in the trial world? Why is she so persistent and even fanatical?

Wasn't it just a dream?

"Prince, do you think dreams are just dreams?" White Lotus saw through the confusion in Yun Xi's heart at a glance and shook her head.

Her prince, indeed, did not understand.

"Dream" is the manifestation of a human's deepest consciousness, it's the most essential part of the human mind.

Why did they become cursed princesses, sleeping in the dark forest in the dream?

Because that was what they really looked like.

The twin witches of fate were also the cursed twin witches.

They could never enjoy the same simple life like any ordinary people in the universe. If they hadn't been recognized as the god witches, they would be monsters in the eyes of the public.

They had the great talent that could make countless people envy, also, they were carrying the equivalent curse on their back. Amongst other witches, there were also people who said that they were "monsters" that should never exist.

My sister didn't say anything, but she kept on practicing desperately, trying to get beyond everything. Just like Casina the Battle God, who is strong enough to ignore all gossips.

Like a red lotus blooming in hell, my sister has already embarked on a road of no return.

And I have also made the same choice, practicing the forbidden skill, the Great Circulation.

From this point of view, they deserved to be the twin witches. They had the same stubbornness in their hearts, and they both wanted to fight against their cursed fate.

"Prince, no matter how many times, I will repeat the same oath."

"I love you, and this is definitely not a joke."

"To us, you are the sun and hope."

“You’re my prince. I won’t look at any other man except you.”

“Maybe I don’t know anything about love, but I swear that I will do everything I can to love you and never stop until I die.”

Chapter 503: Prince’s Sadness

Yun Xi was completely speechless. It was not his fault!

He was just a fake prince, however, the twin witches were even more exalted than any princess in the mortal world!

It was just a chance encounter in the trial world, why did it lead to this?

Great stars, can you tell me how to deal with this kind of thing?

“Isn’t it easy, master? That’s where the goal is.” Mei’er’s voice quietly appeared in Yun Xi’s ears, as if she was saying a thing that was as natural as “Why climb the mountain? Because it’s there!”

“I can’t deal with the twin witches. It’s too dangerous to get in touch with them.” Yun Xi shook his head. In his heart, he was still surprised by the truth that White Lotus fell in love with him at first sight.

Hua Huo once told him how dangerous the twin witches were.

“Little Xi, the most dangerous people in the White Lotus Sword Domain is not the White Lotus Sword Master, but the twin witches.”

“If they cooperate with each other, I’m not sure if I can beat them down. Probably in the whole of the White Lotus Sword Domain, they are the strongest under the legend rank.”

This was the first time for Yun Xi hearing that Hua Huo was praising someone.

It was hard to imagine that even Hua Huo would praise the twin witches, which was full evidence that the twin witches were far stronger than their appearances.

If their enemies regarded them as common hero ranked witches, they would definitely regret their ignorance.

After really touching the realm of the hero rank, Yun Xi realized what a powerful ability “flying” was. The twin witches could fly in the sky when they were together, which was a super strong ability that most hero ranked beings dreamed of.

Judging from Yun Xi’s current power, even Red Lotus could kill him alone, not to mention to fight against the twin witches together.

Even if White Lotus really liked him and wouldn’t do anything, Red Lotus was still a strong enemy.

“Master, you have defeated a lot of legend ranked beings on the Starry Sky Chessboard, why are you still afraid of the twin witches? They are just at the hero rank!” Mei’er felt confused.

“That... I thought that the Starry Sky Chessboard was just a game...” After recalling his achievement on the Starry Sky Chessboard, even Yun Xi himself was dumbfounded.

It was a truth that he had defeated a lot of legend ranked beings in the game, however, he was in the real world now! It wasn't even possible for him to sit as equals at the same table with any legend ranked people in the real world!

Now, although he was already a hero ranked Baker now, his combat power hadn't reached the hero rank. After all, it was impossible to defeat any person by holding a loaf of bread in his hand!

"Prince, it's time. Please go out and wait for us outside." Looking at Yun Xi's face, White Lotus realized that her prince hadn't really understood her love.

Never mind, "love" can't be proved by "speaking".

She would use her actions to make the prince understand that her love for him was definitely not just "saying" so.

At dawn, Yun Xi snuck out of the twin witches' bedroom.

"Oh, precious fresh air!" Smelling the fresh air, Yun Xi was relieved and even wanted to shout in the Witch Palace,

"Love is dear, freedom is dearer!"

It was too dangerous to stay with the twin witches on the bed. If Red Lotus woke up, he would definitely be killed.

“Master, why are you so afraid of the twin witches?”

“Speaking of danger, your childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo is apparently more dangerous!” Mei’er didn’t understand Yun Xi’s fear.

“Mei’er, Hua Huo is different from Red Lotus and White Lotus.”

“If Hua Huo gets angry, I can soothe her with bread. Her anger comes and goes quickly. As long as I stay with her, her anger will soon disappear.” Yun Xi had had rich experience dealing with his childhood sweetheart.

No matter how angry Hua Huo was, he was confident that he could comfort her.

But, Red Lotus was different. She would definitely draw out her sword if she found anything strange. Yun Xi never wanted to provoke such an enemy in his life.

“If Red Lotus knew my real identity, she wouldn’t stop chasing me before I’m torn to pieces.”

“She is totally different from White Lotus!”

Mei’er thought for awhile and drew a conclusion,

“That is to say, putting Red Lotus aside, that you like White Lotus, don’t you?”

“...” Yun Xi didn’t say a word.

If it was only White Lotus one person, the cute, sweet girl who regarded him as her prince, would he fall in love with her?

It wasn’t difficult to figure out the answer, however, Yun Xi couldn’t say it out loud.

Because that was impossible.

Red Lotus and White Lotus were the twins of fate that could never be separated.

The invisible thread wrapped around their hands had forever connected their destiny together.

Eating, drinking, sleeping, fighting, even falling in love, getting married, they couldn’t leave each other.

“Curse... Is that what White Lotus tried to tell me?” Yun Xi seemed to understand why White Lotus would look at him with longing.

Perhaps what she had been waiting for was just a person who could accept her and Red Lotus and treat them like princesses.

“Prince... But I’m not the prince you imagined...” Yun Xi sighed.

They were real princesses.

However, he wasn't a prince, he was the Starchild who may run away at any time.

Once his true identity is revealed, his four terrifying ex-girlfriends would not let him keep enjoying his peaceful life.

Moreover, he still remembered that the twin witches were also candidate Apostles of one of his ex-girlfriends!

It was equal to looking for his own death if he dared to fall in love with them!

This was probably the saddest thing in the world. The encounter between him and them was doomed to be a tragedy.

It was clear that the relationship between them was prey and hunters, how did it get this far along?

Great stars, tell me, why did you let them become the Sleeping Beauty in the dark forest?

Chapter 504: Ablution

"Why do I have a feeling that my skin is really smooth today?" Red Lotus stretched herself out and looked at her sister with a pleasant look.

"Of course, my sister has the best skin!" White Lotus squinted and smiled.

“Very well, I’m in a perfect condition! Let’s start the second stage of the sacrificial ceremony!” Affirming that she was in an unprecedented good condition, Red Lotus immediately turned her attention to the sacrificial ceremony.

The sacrificial ceremony could be divided into three stages.

The start, sacrifice.

The core, invite gods.

The end, send the god away.

The first stage was the easiest and safest, as long as the sacrifices were appropriate. There was almost no record of failure in the first stage.

The second stage was the most important. It determined what kind of gods would respond to the ceremony. It could be said that the success of the sacrificial ceremony depended on the second stage.

No one would dare to say with certainty that the being that responded to the ceremony was a friendly god or an uncontrollable monster, because the gods and fantastic creatures who would notice the ceremony were random.

The success or failure of the second stage also determined the outcome of the third stage.

It was easy to summon a god, but would be extremely difficult to send the god away. If they summoned a distorted monster, to accomplish the third stage would become an impossible task.

Most of the deaths in the sacrificial ceremonies occurred in the second stage and the third stages.

“Boom! Boom! ” Under the waterfall, the twin sisters prayed together in the morning, adjusting their bodies and minds for the most perfect state.

“Hum?” Suddenly, Red Lotus realized something was wrong.

No, it wasn't something bad, but something so good that made her feel incredible.

Her synchronization rate with the Red Lotus Holy Sword was increasing strikingly!

50%, 51%, 52%, 53%... Usually, it would take her a month to increase 1% or 2% synchronization rate with the Red Lotus Holy Sword, but now, under the waterfall, she could clearly feel that the connection between the Red Lotus Holy Sword and herself was becoming closer and closer.

As if something lurking in her body had been released, her body naturally emitted the same aura as the Red Lotus Holy Sword.

There were even golden sparks flying out from the Red Lotus Holy Sword, floating around her body.

“It's strange, what's going on today?” Red Lotus gazed at the Red Lotus Holy Sword in confusion.

Every inch of her skin emitted scorching temperatures, but none of the heat had spilled out.

From her soul to her body, she was immersed in a sense of extreme excitement, like a flaming fire, releasing her unbridled joy.

“White Lotus, I seem to have had an epiphany!” Red Lotus smiled, opening her eyes wide in surprise. She didn’t expect that the so-called “epiphany” in Buddhism would happen to herself.

“Sister, your body is enlightened.” White Lotus naturally knew what had happened to her sister and began to regret it.

If she had known it earlier, she would have changed her position on the bed last night.

It must be because of my prince! If he took off my clothes last night instead of my sister’s, I would be the one whose body was enlightened today!

“Yes, that’s the so-called epiphany, enlightenment!” Naturally, Red Lotus knew nothing about what had happened to her last night. She only felt that her heart was beating violently, her chest and her whole body were burning as if they had turned into flames.

This feeling is too wonderful!

“I want to be stronger!” Red Lotus looked up and announced, “For White Lotus, I want to be as strong as Casina the Battle God!”

“Sister, what if I say that you can become stronger if you fell in love with the prince?” White Lotus squinted, asking in a casual tone.

“The prince? That jerk?” Remembering the prince who kissed her sister in the dream and ran away after that, Red Lotus bristled with anger in an instant.

“This joke is not funny at all.”

“If it’s true, I’d cut him into pieces right away, pieces that can be used to feed fish!” Red Lotus raised her sword and said the sentence again.

“The prince must die!”

A pair of dark red flame wings extended from behind Red Lotus, the sparks on Red Lotus’ sword flew up, and eventually gathered together and turned into a huge column of light, evaporating the huge waterfall instantly.

For ten seconds, not even a drop of water fell down from the waterfall!

Red Lotus’ sword cut off the water flow of the whole waterfall and created a deep red torrent of flame above the waterfall, which looked as if a volcano just erupted.

“Ah... there is still a long way to go...” Looking at her sister’s angry appearance and the flaming wings behind her, White Lotus felt that she still had to keep the thing last night a secret.

My prince is probably no match of my sister now, and even I can't stop my sister if she went crazy.

Nevertheless, it doesn't matter. My sister's body is still very honest. As I guessed, her body will never refuse my prince.

For us, my prince is special, because he represents the glory of hope.

Because my sister was close to the light of hope last night, she could become stronger today.

Sooner or later, my sister will understand.

So, wait a little longer, my prince.

My sister and I will come to you and become your wings!

"Yawn!" Yun Xi suddenly shivered and sneezed on the roof of the Witch Palace.

"It's cold." Although it was a perfectly sunny day, Yun Xi still felt as if he was a lost person wandering in the fog, unable to find the way forward.

"Master, you don't need to be afraid. After all, you have had so many girlfriends, it doesn't matter if you have more! Just like stepping on boats, if you stepped on two boats, you may fall into the water. However, if there are countless boats that have been strung together by countless steel wires, you can walk on the boats as though walking upon the flat ground.” Mei’er encouraged her master, after all, it was a great mission entrusted to her by the stars.

“Who said it?” Yun Xi always thought Mei’er’s words were unreliable.

“Balance in all things,” said Mei’er with a mysterious smile.

“Nothing is true, everything is permitted, this was your favorite quotation in your past life, master!”

Chapter 505: A Duel Caused by a Gem

Actually, I shouldn’t have come here.

Looking at the Altar of Deity, Yun Xi sighed.

To be honest, he had an ominous presentiment and really wanted to leave as soon as possible. Unfortunately, once the sacrificial ceremony started, it could never be stopped, otherwise, the witches would be cursed.

That was the reason why he didn’t run away from the Witch Palace after he had actually gained his freedom again.

White Lotus’ gentle eyes were firmer than any shackles, locking Yun Xi’s heart tightly.

She believed that her prince would never leave before they successfully accomplished the sacrificial ceremony.

She was right.

Yun Xi wouldn't look at Red Lotus and White Lotus being cursed because of him, so he had to stay and wait for the coming of the evening.

At dusk, it was the critical point between day and night, the time that devils and evils appeared, and the time that humans and gods could meet. In ancient times, witches called this time "devil's time".

The sacrifice in the first stage was to open a virtual Door of Dusk, so that the gods could pass through and descend into the real world from the void.

On the silent Altar of Deity, Yun Xi held Red Lotus' hand in his left hand and White Lotus' hand in his right hand, and because the twin witches were born inseparable, they also held each other's hands. They sat in a circle in the middle of the Altar of Deity, waiting for the arrival of dusk.

As time went by, White Lotus became slightly surprised and uneasy, because she didn't see any sign that the first stage of the ceremony had been accomplished. None of the gods or fantastic creatures in the void appeared in front of the other side of the Door of Dusk, which was about to open!

Is there something wrong?

According to her experience, she should be able to vaguely feel the aura of the god on the other side of the Door of Dusk now. However, there was nothing standing on the other side of the door!

Red Lotus also felt confused, but her confusion wasn't related to the sacrificial ceremony. She just felt that her sister, White Lotus' palm was becoming hotter than usual.

No, not only her sister, it seemed that her own palm was also becoming hotter and hotter. It seemed that the circle formed by the three people formed a strange aura field, which combined the three people's auras together.

There was something that was happening in the circle. The three people's breathing and heartbeats were synchronizing.

Aura Resonance... Is it because of my prince... White Lotus guessed. Unlike her sister, she knew what it meant.

On the contrary, Yun Xi still knew nothing about what was happening. In fact, from the very beginning, he had had an uneasy feeling and always felt that something was wrong in the sacrificial ceremony.

In fact, he guessed right.

A great war was taking place in the void above the White Lotus Sword Domain!

"I am an Ancient God, a Sunwalker, Hura Azda! My soldiers, obey my orders and fight for me!" The Sunwalker with a dog-headed mask on his face raised the scepter in his hand. In the blink of an eye, millions of sand soldiers came out of the void and marched toward the battlefield in an orderly line.

Their opponent was an immortal bird flying in the sky, whose existence itself was already a disaster to the world. Just a few sparks on her beautiful tail feathers fell to the ground, and this had ignited and burned hundreds of sand soldiers into ashes.

Phoenix, the immortal bird, the fantastic creature who represented for immortality.

Hura Azda, the Sunwalker, the king of the desert, and the god of billions of mortals.

They were the first couple who noticed the sacrifice offered by the twin witches, and the first couple who fought for it!

"I saw it first, I saw it first!" Phoenix swooped and spat out a deep red fireball from her mouth, bombarding Hura Azda's sand soldier army.

"Boom!" Over 100,000 sand soldiers were totally evaporated under Phoenix's attack. As a mushroom cloud rose to the sky, a large part of the sand soldier army was eliminated in an instant.

"Phoenix, the sacrifice is mine!" As a rare Sunwalker, the King of Desert, and an Ancient God, Hura Azda seldom responded to any prayer or call from humans.

The reason was simple, because humans couldn't offer him any sacrifices that could let him feel interested in. Even a top level fire-type ruby couldn't get him to take a glance at it.

As a Sunwalker, he was a natural destroyer, no matter where he went, endless flame storms would naturally emerge and swallow the world. And during the process, countless gemstones would naturally form and condense.

To put it bluntly, all Sunwalkers were a king with endless wealth. They could make the top level magic gemstones themselves. Moreover, they were also the strongest beings in the endless god's domains.

Common gemstones were meaningless to them, only the stones that contained a god's power, for example, a Kryolite could draw their attention.

However, a Kryolite could only slightly draw their attention, but none of them would respond to a call just for a Kryolite. If the summoner didn't offer up hundreds of Kryolites, it wasn't possible to summon a Sunwalker.

However, it was different this time!

When the twin witches started the sacrificial ceremony, Hura Azda instantly noticed the sacrifice and realized how valuable it was.

At a great cost, he passed through countless worlds and finally arrived at this place on time.

It was hard to describe the strong temptation of the sacrifice was for him. After becoming a Sunwalker, he had almost forgotten the feeling of palpitating with excitement.

How long has it been since the last time I had this feeling?

I want it! I want it! Even if I have to sacrifice millions of my subordinates, I must obtain it!

At the moment he arrived here, he instantly noticed Phoenix, who just reached this same place a moment ago. Without hesitation, he immediately closed the space passage and enclosed this area in the void using his god power, forcing Phoenix to fight with him before she could access the Door of Dusk!

Hereby, the war between a god and a fantastic creature began!

This was a war of gods. Whether it was Phoenix or Hura, the time of their lives was far longer than the history of the endless god's domains. Even the aftermath of their battle was enough to destroy all of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Above the battlefield, an ice-blue figure was staring coldly at the duel between the god and the fantastic creature.

She was the ruler, the witness, and the guardian of the Sky Sword God's Domain. Her presence represented that the duel between them had been recognized by the Sky Sword God's Domain, and was under surveillance of them.

Chapter 506: Sunwalker

Millions of sand soldiers raised the strange weapons in their hands and sang the praises of their god, the guardian of their race, the great king of the desert, the god of the sun, Hura Azda.

When the soldiers were still alive, the first sentence they heard when they opened their eyes was "Hura Bless me!", and then they were baptized by the priests and became a believer of the Sun God.

From birth to death, they listened to the voices of the priests and fought steadfastly for their god. After death, they would come to the Sun God and become his immortal sand soldiers.

The more devout they were, the stronger sand soldier they could transfer into after their death.

"Those who do good get a reward for good, those who do evil get a reward for evil." After good people died, beautiful girls would descend and lead them to heaven.

However, if they were evil people, female ghosts would drag them into hell and let them suffer in perdition forever.

The soldiers Hura needed would be selected from the Judge's Bridge, and Hura would grant them undead bodies and let them become members of his sand soldier army.

The more sand soldiers Hura summoned, the stronger he would become. Usually, his sand soldier army was strong enough to sweep away millions of enemy troops alone, therefore, Hura hadn't had any fight with any beings for a very, very long time.

However, his opponent this time was Phoenix, a fantastic creature whose identity wasn't inferior to him.

She held not only the rule of "fire", but also the concept of "eternity".

All attacks were meaningless to Phoenix, because she was an immortal bird who wouldn't die!

Phoenix was the only fantastic creatures known in the endless god's domains that couldn't be killed by any methods, her existence itself stood for "eternity".

Her regenerative capacity was much stronger than Hydra, who had nine heads and nine lives. Even though Hura was a Sunwalker, it felt tricky when facing such an opponent who couldn't be killed.

During the war that had lasted for more than ten hours, he had successfully hit Phoenix's heart, head, and body more than once. Phoenix's whole body had even been crushed by his golden scepter, however, she could always recover herself in a flash as if nothing had happened.

“Witness the Sin of the Sun!” As the evening approached, Hura Azda finally decided to get rid of Phoenix.

“The Sun Disk, appear for me!” The golden scepter was inserted into the desert under Hura’s feet, and there, countless fireballs began appearing in the sky.

A golden fireball appeared in the middle of the sky, and with countless black spots flying in the fireball. After it appeared on the battlefield, the temperature around it began to rise at a terrible rate.

It was a God Weapon, the Sun Disk! It wasn’t a common god weapon that could be obtained by a common hero ranked humans, but a weapon that really belonged to a god!

All over the sky, unnatural fire clouds appeared in an unnatural way.

One cloud after another gathered together and flew to him from ten miles, a hundred miles, or even thousands of miles away.

The original bright sunshine became dim again, and the grey clouds fell heavily to the ground as if they were going to crush the earth.

Rotating, rotating, it seemed as if there was an invisible mixer in the sky, all clouds in the sky started rotating at an incredible speed, which looked as if a huge flame furnace was being ignited.

In fact, that was what was happening. The Sun Disk was a miniature incarnation of the sun, which was also named “SN-Drive” in some god’s domains. (SN-Drive, Sun Nucleus Drive)

“I’m not afraid!” Because she knew that she wouldn’t die, Phoenix always chose the same tactic in battle.

Whoever her opponent was, she just needed to rush up and beat them down!

“Ashes to ashes, dust to dust... Rest in peace...” Hura closed his eyes. There were gold-red fragments flying around his fingertips, which looked surprisingly similar to the Kryolite sacrificed by the twin witches.

All of a sudden, a brighter figure appeared in the middle of the sky. His body was brighter than the sun, emitted golden lights and illuminated the entire world.

When this figure appeared, a strong aura spread and announced his dignity to all beings in the world.

All the sand soldiers knelt down and presented their highest respect to the great existence in the sky.

It was Hura Azda’s real body, the Sunwalker, a real supreme Sun God!

When he opened his eyes, there were countless golden lights shining out of his eyes. His hair was as bright as the real sun.

In a flash, it looked as if there were countless hot suns emerging out in the sky.

He held a small, golden Sun Disk in his hand, aiming at Phoenix with no emotion in his eyes.

Only the black particles that were constantly emanating from the Sun Disk in his hand announced what an ominous thing this god weapon was at the moment.

It's an astronomical phenomenon called "sunspot". A sunspot was powerful enough to destroy a planet completely. At this moment, the number of sunspots twining around the Sun Disk had already exceeded 3,000.

Compressing a sunspot into a black particle, it was already a power that was beyond all hero ranked beings' imagination.

This was the ability of a legendary god, the power of the Sunwalker.

"Rest in peace, Phoenix." Hura shook his head at Phoenix who was rushing at him, throwing the sun disk lightly towards her.

The golden Sun Disk turned into a magnificent golden track, cut through Phoenix's body and lighted her feathers.

Instantly, countless sunspots exploded and annihilated Phoenix's body, destroying the entire battlefield.

Continuous explosions of sunspots almost decomposed and annihilated everything in the void, endless solar storms swept through the entire space.

The end of the world!

The power of the Sun Disk could only be described in this way, that was the power of the Sunwalker.

Chapter 507: Three Questions

The Sun Disk rotated, flew back into Hura's hands and shrank rapidly, disappearing together with Hura's real body in the sky.

As for Phoenix, her body had been completely annihilated.

"Huh..." The only survivor, Hura's projection breathed a sigh of relief.

In order to defeat Phoenix, he really spent a great amount of his god power.

Summoning the Sun Disk from the distant Western God's Domain, struck a blow that could even destroy an entire world and restrained its power within the range of the battlefield, it was too risky as if he was performing on the tightrope.

However, holding the sacrifice, the golden-red gem in his hand, Hura laughed happily.

It's worth it. Everything's worth it.

Even though he still didn't know what the golden-red gem was, just holding it in his hands, his heart had been somehow quieted down.

To Sunwalkers, the most difficult thing was not to obtain stronger power but to control the power they had obtained.

The Sunwalkers who couldn't control their own power couldn't descend into the mortal world, because their bodies were enveloped in endless solar storms, which would burn all living beings on the earth to ashes.

The treasures that were effective for Sunwalker was extremely rare, and the unknown golden-red gem in Hura's hand was undoubtedly one of the rarest treasures that could be used by Sunwalkers.

Hura was very satisfied with the sacrifice and decided to offer the twin witches a true god's blessing.

He went to the Door of Dusk and started to communicate with the twin witches on the Altar of Deity.

"We succeeded! A god is coming!" White Lotus opened her eyes. From the other side of the Door of Dusk, an unusually hot breath was spreading to this space.

The burning power partly broke through the unopened door, making the temperature around the altar to rise significantly.

There was no doubt that their sacrifice attracted a very powerful existence attention!

However, they still didn't know whether it was a kind god or an evil monster.

The only thing they knew was that this god or monster was far stronger than the fire-type fantastic creature they summoned the last time.

The next stage was the most important part of the sacrificial ceremony.

They must determine whether the strong “existence” on the other side of the door was good or evil.

Before they opened the Door of Dusk, they could ask the “god” three questions, and the three questions were the core of the sacrificial ceremony. If it was an evil monster and they didn’t find its true identity, they may pay the price with their lives.

The god they summoned could choose to answer the questions or remain silent, and the witches would deduce who the god was from the god’s attitude.

Generally, it wasn’t a big problem, because witches had had rich experience in how to ask the three questions, they even had the safest “template” in theory.

“Great god, where did you come from?” In the face of a god, White Lotus’ Great Circulation would be useless, because it wouldn’t be able to predict anything about a god. Therefore, the first thing she asked was the question most commonly asked by witches.

“I’m from the end of the western desert, above the earth where the pyramids stand. I am the Lord of the sky, the embodiment of order and truth, the infinite light.” After killing Phoenix, well, at least, killing her temporarily, Hura was in a very good mood and declared his identity frankly.

“Gee?” White Lotus covered her little mouth with a look of total disbelief.

How could this be true? Although his name did exist on the witches' list of kind gods, however, he never responded to any witches' call before.

On the list, he was one of the top 5 gods the witches were able to summon, he was a real Ancient God!

The Lord of the Sky, the Sun God, Hura Azda! He was one of the oldest gods. Before the endless god's domains were connected together, he was already the master of hundred of god's domains.

In theory, if a witch wanted to summon him, the witch must prepare hundreds of fire-type Kryolites. Only in this situation, the strong Sun God may pay attention to the sacrificial ceremony.

In the rules of the sacrificial ceremony, the summoned gods or monsters could choose to keep silent and ignore the three questions. However, if they answered the questions, they must tell the truth.

Hura Azda had no intention of hiding his identity, therefore, the other two questions White Lotus prepared had become meaningless.

"Well, are you satisfied with the sacrifice?" Looking at her sister, who was in a trance, Red Lotus quickly asked the second question.

In the normal process, the question would be "What are you?". However, Hura Azda had directly declared his identity, this question was meaningless now.

"I'm very satisfied, I will give you a wonderful blessing from a real god!" Holding the golden-red gem in his hand, Hura Azda promised in a pleasant mood.

Everything went smoothly! Yun Xi was relieved. It seemed that this was a very kind and talkative god.

Well, in this case, can I also ask a question?

“Great god, what is love?”

Then, Yun Xi regretted his impertinent question many years.

“Oh, love.” Hura Azda was in a very good mood today, and he felt that Yun Xi’s voice was pleasing, therefore, he didn’t mind giving this “lost sheep” his advice.

“You should love the people you like.”

“Love is selfless, free and should not be bound by any rules.”

“If you love your child, you should marry her. You can marry your daughter, your elder sister and your little sister.”

“I bless all beings who have love in their hearts. If you love her, you shouldn’t mind her race or identity; if you love her, you should marry her immediately.”

“You need to protect her and let her become the happiest bride in the world. You should dress her in the most beautiful bridal dress with your hands and tell her that she belongs to you.”

“Ha?”

Yun Xi felt that his world outlook was totally subverted. Is this what love is in the eyes of a legend ranked god?

Chapter 508: The Opened Door

“What the hell are you asking?!” Red Lotus looked at Yun Xi with discontent. The sacrificial ceremony must be dealt with carefully, any error would make them pay a heavy price.

At any rate, Mei shouldn't ask the last question. It's totally irrelevant to the god!

What a layman she is!

“Sorry... I suddenly wanted to know what love is in the eyes of a god.” Yun Xi lowered his head embarrassed and apologized sincerely.

However, the answer from this god had been unconsciously impressed in his heart.

So, is this what love is to a god?

“Please come through the door, great god.” White Lotus was also satisfied with the Sun God's answer. No witches would refuse to accept the blessing of the ancient Sun God.

If the noble families knew that it would be the Sun God who responded to the sacrificial ceremony, they would be willing to pay any price for assisting at this ceremony!

However, White Lotus wouldn't let any noble come and hold her hands in the sacrificial ceremony.

Only her sister and the prince could hold her hands!

“Open the Door of Dusk!”

After asking the three questions, the most critical moment was coming.

In the evening twilight.

The door connected the mortal world and the god's world was slowly opening.

A golden light shone through the half-opened door, shining on the twin witches and Yun Xi's bodies.

At the end of the western desert, above the earth where the pyramids stood, the Lord of the Sky, the incarnation of order and truth, the infinite light, the Sun God, Hura Azda's figure was visible through the door.

It was a god with a golden scepter in his hand and a dog-headed mask on his face.

Just looking at his figure, Yun Xi felt as if he was staring at a shining and brilliant sun.

“Sun God... Hura Azda...” Reading the god's real name out, White Lotus blushed and was a little excited.

Although she was known as a genius who had mastered the Great Circulation, she never thought that she could successfully summon the legendary Sun God one day.

This was an Ancient God who had participated in the Twilight of the Gods and survived! He was the incarnation of the sun, walking on the earth in the form of the Sunwalker.

Among all gods in the endless god's domains, he was one of the strongest gods, the Sun God of the Persian God's Domain!

"The strongest god, the Sunwalker." Red Lotus was not good at holding the ceremony, however, she also knew what the Sun God stood for.

In any myth or legend, the sun symbolized the origin of life and was worshipped and praised by countless people. As long as it was a place where intelligent beings lived, there was the legend of Sun Gods.

However, there were only a few gods in the endless god's domains who were really a veritable Sun God.

To be the god of the sun, they needed to have the ability to transform into a real sun!

Accurately speaking, all Sun Gods were also Sunwalkers, the real legends walking amongst the infinite stars!

Hura Azda was the strongest and the most famous one amongst all Sunwalkers.

The cost of summoning such a god was unthinkable.

Did my sister just accomplish an extraordinary feat?

What's that golden-red Kryolite? Is it really so special?

"Witches, I am very satisfied with your sacrifices!"

"Prepare to receive the blessings of the Sun God!" The Sun God's voice was tremendous. Even though he had not yet stepped across the Door of Dusk, his god power had begun to shine in the room.

He's really a kind god! Yun Xi also saw the Sun God's figure through the door, however, compared to the dazzling golden scepter in his hand and the mysterious dog-headed mask on his face, he paid more attention to the bracelet on the god's wrist.

Incredibly, when Yun Xi saw the golden bracelet on Hura's wrist, he had a strange feeling as if he had seen the same bracelet somewhere in the past.

From the golden lines on the bracelet, he felt as if he was looking at the record of the memory of the stars.

The door opened.

Hura Azda held the golden scepter in his hand and was going to step directly into the door from the void.

“No!”

“I came first, I was the first, I found it earlier than you!”

“I will never let you obtain it!”

After a sharp, high-pitched sound, endless wings surrounded the Sun God, who was about to enter the Door of Dusk, and finally formed a pair of crimson wings.

Phoenix was back!

“Impossible! Have you not been annihilated?!” Hura Azda looked at the crimson wings in astonishment.

The next moment, Phoenix’s wings forcibly pulled up the Sun God’s body, flying madly into the sky.

This wasn’t a common attack but a suicide attack!

Phoenix didn’t snatch the golden-red gem in Hura’s hand, but carried the Sun God’s body, crashing into the dome of the battlefield.

“You’re crazy!”

Aware of what Phoenix was going to do, Hura Azda’s voice became flustered and shrill.

He brandished the golden scepter in his hand and summoned a million sand soldiers again. He was going to use the Sun Disk again!

Unfortunately, Phoenix had learned a lesson before and would never give him another chance.

“Boom!” With a sound, Phoenix’s wings carried Hura Azda’s body and the golden-red gem, brutally crashing into the dome of the battlefield.

The sky was broken.

A big hole appeared on the dome of the closed battlefield!

The aura of the sacrifice, which was enclosed in the battlefield created by Hura Azda’s god power before, now was totally exposed in the void.

In the next second, more than ten legend ranked wills had locked on this area from all directions.

Chapter 509: Angry Sun God (1)

“Closure!” Hura Azda, the desperate Sun God waved the golden scepter in his hand and repaired the big hole smashed through by Phoenix.

The guardian of the gate, Lilibet Elizabeth had also moved.

Her azure god sword drew a mysterious arc in the air, an ice-blue halo spread out in a circle, directly expanding the area of the battlefield created by Hura's god power to ten times.

But this time, it wasn't just a battle between Phoenix and Hura Azda.

A total of ten supernatural, god like beings were attracted by the sacrifice, descending into this area in different ways.

Seven of them were in human forms, but they all hid their true faces using different methods.

Nobody knew whether they were real gods under their human figures.

Their human appearances should just be their projections. Occasionally, some terrible beings would also pretend to be a god in human form, deceiving the witches in the sacrificial ceremony.

In addition to the seven people, there were two projections of fantastic creatures. They were from the highest god's domain in the Eastern God's Domain, the Kunlun God's Domain. They were frequent callers of witches' sacrificial ceremonies.

One of them had red feathers, broad beak, standing on one foot. Its name was Bifang, a god bird of fire.

The other one was a dragon with golden scales and wings, looking around with an arrogant expression. Its name was Yinglong. Just like Bifang, it was also a subordinate of the master of the Kunlun God's Domain, the West Queen.

Both of them were fire-type fantastic creatures. Like the seven human shaped projections, they arrived at this area immediately after feeling the aura of the sacrifice.

Behind the two fantastic creatures, there was a strange egg that was floating in the void.

Bifang and Yinglong were looking at the egg nervously. Their eyes are very confused as if something totally unexpected had happened.

At this moment, there were 12 god ranked beings gathered around the Door of Dusk for a sacrifice! Such a thing had never happened before in the history of the sacrificial ceremony.

"Good... Very good... Phoenix, are you satisfied?!" Hura Azda looked around and ground his teeth.

Just one step later, he would have the sacrifice! However, Phoenix totally ruined his plan and brought ten new opponents to the battlefield!

Essentially, the sacrificial ceremony was a contract. As long as the last step of the sacrificial ceremony had not been completed yet, even though he had held the sacrifice in his hand, the sacrifice still didn't belong to him.

In history, there were indeed witches who were eaten by the fake gods they summoned. In this case, the fake gods would lose their sacrifices.

Of course, the sacrifices weren't the fake gods' goals from the very beginning. They responded to witches' call just because they wanted to spread horror and chaos.

Most of the time, the extraordinary existences who descended onto the altar were still satisfied with the sacrifices. The appearances of evil gods were just rare exceptions.

In very few cases, there would be two gods who were interested in the same sacrifice and responded to the same sacrificial ceremony.

At this time, there was basically only one way to decide who could go through the Door of Dusk, "compare each other's god power".

To put it more plainly, the two gods would have a fight and the winner could go through the door, just like what Phoenix and Hura Azda did before.

However, the sacrifice this time was too special, both of them didn't want to give it up.

Phoenix came first, but she wasn't very familiar with the sacrificial ceremony. When she hesitated, Hura Azda had come and robbed the sacrifice.

Just in case, Hura Azda had also sealed this area in the void using his god power. At the same time, he also called the guardian of the Sky Sword God's Domain to be the witness.

Hura Azda's behavior didn't deviate from the order of the Sky Sword God's Domain, so therefore, Lilibet, the guardian of the Sky Sword God's Domain witnessed the duel between Phoenix and Hura and confirmed his victory.

Originally, the Sun God should step across the Door of Dusk and complete the ceremony, giving the twin witches and Yun Xi his blessings. After that, he could take away the sacrifice.

The problem was that Phoenix was not going to give up.

Even though she had been burned to ashes by Hura Azda's Sun Disk, she still strove to revive and fly back, shouting at the Sun God,

"It's mine! I saw it first! I got here first!"

Even if I can't get it, I won't let you take it away!

I, Phoenix, the immortal bird!

In my dictionary, there is never the word "death"! Huh!

"Four human gods... three monsters, and three fantastic creatures. There is even an egg!" Looking at the ten enemies who were staring at the golden-red gem in his hand, Hura Azda gritted his teeth and thrust his golden scepter into the golden sand.

"It seems that I will have to beat down ten opponents today!"

The Sun Disk rotated and became bigger and bigger in his hand. In the song of millions of sand soldiers, Hura Azda, the Sunwalker, one of the oldest Ancient Gods showed his real power.

Chapter 510: Angry Sun God (2)

The golden scepter represented the supreme divine power of the sun, and was also the symbol of Hura Azda in the Persian God's Domain.

With this golden scepter in his hand, Hura Azda could summon his millions of sand soldiers anywhere, driving this indestructible army to defeat all enemies who dared to violate his sanctity.

As time went by, people only remembered his sand soldier army and gradually forgot how dangerous Hura Azda himself was.

He was a god, but in fact, he didn't need any believers to enhance his strength. He existed and became immortal long before he became the supreme god of the Persian God's Domain.

Even in the endless god's domains, he was very rare and special, because he was a Sunwalker.

Even amongst all legend ranked classes, Sunwalker was one of the most dangerous!

In legend, Sunwalkers couldn't come to the mortal world, because as long as Sunwalkers opened their eyes, their bodies would emit endless light and heat.

In the sight of a Sunwalker, everything would be ignited and burned to ashes.

Hura looked around, the earth became a sea of lava. Countless fire spirits cheered and flew up, sang and danced around him.

“Let there be light.”

Hura uttered, and there was light. The sky and the earth are filled with light, dispelling all darkness. Countless sword like golden lights tore all evil existences to pieces and swept them away.

In the light, darkness still existed, but it wasn't the power of night, but “sunspots”, which stood for the ultimate power of light and heat. At the same time, there were also countless red dots erupting, which was the phenomenon called “solar flare”.

This was the sun, and all Sunwalkers would experience the same thing when they were born. They were the people who embraced the sun, and even themselves would be transformed into a sun, shining on all things in the world.

In front of the power of the sun, everything would be annihilated, leaving no wisdom, but fire spirits accompanied by the lonely Sunwalker.

In fact, it was impossible for human beings to become a Sunwalker. It wasn't a realm that could be achieved by hard practice. All Sunwalkers were born with the ability to transform into a sun.

In Star Magic, of the endless god's domains, magic related to the sun was a taboo; even the class, Sunwalker itself was also a taboo.

In the Western God's Domain, in order to learn the forbidden magic "Last Judgment", mages would be willing to pay the price with their lives. However, "Last Judgment" was just a natural phenomenon for the real Sunwalkers! Their bodies were surrounded by "Last Judgment" every minute and every second!

In the end, all the Sunwalkers would have left the ground lonely, flew to the world of the stars and even became a real sun in the sky.

People would also devote their faith to these Sunwalkers, although they had no interest in being a so-called Sun God.

Hura Azda was such a Sunwalker. Unlike the gods in the Western God's Domain, who became a god by faith, he didn't need any believers.

He became a Sun God, because he chose to sleep and became a sun of a remote god's domain. When he woke up, he found that he had become the Sun God of that god's domain.

It was a problem for all Sunwalkers. If they slept too long, they would really become a sun!

Putting down the golden scepter in his hand, only Hura Azda himself knew what it meant.

It meant that he had given up his identity as a Sun God, he would start a "war" using his true power.

The power of a Sunwalker!

“Feel fear in the face of a Sunwalker!” Holding the Sun Disk in his hand, Hura Azda’s eyes became very dangerous.

The appearance of a Sunwalker in the mortal world was equal to declaring “the end of the world”. Therefore, most Sunwalkers would stay away from the mortal worlds. Because of this, too few people could meet a Sunwalker, and lesser people would understand how powerful and dangerous a Sunwalker was.

When Hura raised the Sun Disk, all gods and fantastic creatures felt a strong aura from it.

It looked like a common golden wheel, but when the black particles around it started to explode, everyone’s heartbeat accelerated.

They all suddenly had an ominous presentiment that the end was coming!

Of course, there was an exception.

“I’m not afraid of you!” Phoenix shouted with no fear.

She was Phoenix, the immortal bird! Even if a real sun exploded, she would still live well in the fire of the sun. Why did she need to be worried?

“Solar flares!”

Hura Azda glanced at Phoenix. He was convinced that he had killed her just now, but she was still alive now. It seemed that Phoenix's immortality power was more exaggerated than the rumors he heard.

It doesn't matter. If I can't kill her, I will let her taste the pain of being killed. She would learn from it and give up.

Initially, it was just a red spot, an astronomical phenomenon developed from a cluster of countless sunspots.

However, this astronomical phenomenon didn't occur on the surface of a sun, but on the battlefield created by Hura Azda.

In the next second, the solar flare's brightness had exceeded the limit of human eyes. If an ordinary person was here, even if he closed his eyes, his retinas would still be burned and blinded.

If an astronomical phenomenon appeared at a place it shouldn't exist, what would happen?

The answer was simple. The end of the world!
