

Starchild 511

Chapter 511: Two Suns

Numerous golden-red flames covered the sky and the earth and were still diffusing infinitely.

It was a real solar flare, an astronomical explosion. The angry Sunwalker, Hura Azda finally revealed his real, horrible power after being provoked.

No one could escape from the diffused blazing light wave, which was an all-around attack that had covered the entire world. The so-called Forbidden Magic of human beings was a joke compared to the solar flare, a real astronomical phenomenon.

In the light wave, countless fire and light spirits began to fly, they were parts of the sun, they were the manifestation of the rules of the universe.

These beautiful, young spirits happily opened their little wings, danced and eulogized the sun.

They were the only inhabitants who kept company with the lonely Sunwalker, but they didn't have wisdom, they only knew to move along the sun, appearing in the solar flares and sunspots that could lead to the end of the world.

The crust of the battlefield vaporized in an instant, like butter in a great fire.

The endless solar particle storms covered and devoured the entire battlefield of gods, and this was only the beginning.

Thousands of mushroom clouds rose into the sky, countless hot magma and flames shot into the sky and then were evaporated. The solar flare had just started erupting, and the whole battlefield of gods had reached the end stage.

“Leave! It’s my sacrifice.” Hura Azda showed his last mercy as a god, launching an ultimatum to the other ten gods on the battlefield.

Once the solar flare really broke out, it would trigger a battle that could totally eliminate the entire White Lotus Sword Domain!

“Ha ha... Ancient Sun God... Aren’t you too confident?” One of the seven human gods slowly extended his hand, and the hand gradually became distorted black and proliferated sucker-like organs on it.

“A fake god?” Hura Azda despised looking at the fake god who dared to offend him. These fake gods weren’t friendly, compared to the sacrifice, they preferred to eat the witches who were holding the sacrificial ceremony.

However, they were like a joke in the eyes of a Sunwalker. Hura himself had barbecued more than one “squid” who disguised as a god.

The so-called fake god was just a larger polypod extraordinary creature.

Only very few fake gods were strong enough to face a Sunwalker’s sun fire.

Most fake gods had tentacles and loved eating people, in Hura’s eyes, the only value they had was to become a “squid string” baked by himself.

According to his experience, the “squid string” made by fake god’s body tasted good.

Before becoming the God of the Persian God’s Domain, Hura Azda had played the role as a “Star Squid Hunter” for a long time.

To a lonely Sunwalker, it was a luxury to eat something decent, and “fake god squid string” was a classic cuisine to Sunwalkers.

“Gu...” Hura Azda swallowed. He recalled the time when he hunted and roasted squid before he became the Sun God.

The temperature on the battlefield was still rising, from hundreds to thousands of degrees, soon reaching a value that no normal living creature could survive.

However, none of the gods on the battlefield was a “normal living creature”! Therefore, they could still withstand the temperature.

“His god power isn’t easy to deal with... why is it this guy?” Yinglong shrank its huge body and carefully protected the egg, looking at Hura Azda with knitted brows.

“Hura Azda, the God of the Persian God’s Domain... Compared with his identity, his god power is more troublesome.” Bifang stood on the shivering egg. It just felt curious and came to see what the sacrifice was, but now, it realized that it was involved in big trouble!

That egg! It was the West Queen’s unborn daughter. Why did it come with Yinglong?

If the West Queen's little daughter was injured here, all people here would be killed by the angry West Queen!

Almost all the fantastic creatures knew that the West Queen loved her unborn daughter very much. She had prepared to pass the crown to this little princess, even though it was still an unhatched egg!

If something happened to the egg... she and Yinglong didn't even dare to imagine what would happen!

If she knew that the egg would also come, she and Yinglong would never dared to leave the Kunlun God's Domain, trying to scramble for the sacrifice.

Unlike other human gods and fake gods, she and Yinglong clearly knew how terrible and powerful an angry Sunwalker could be.

Tens of thousands of degrees of heat was just a beginning for a Sunwalker!

Compared to Sunwalkers, evil and fake gods were nothing.

Why did people regard the Sunwalker as the Sun God? Because they felt frightened. If an evil god descended into a mortal world, there was still a chance to drive it away. However, if it was a Sunwalker who descended into the mortal world, the world would immediately be ignited, there would never be any chance for any hero to save the world.

"Let's go, we shouldn't be here." Finding that the sacrifice was in the Sunwalker's hand, Bifang and Yinglong made the same choice.

Not all legend ranked beings had an immortal body like Phoenix. Bifang and Yinglong clearly knew that a Sunwalker was too strong to be their opponent.

“Bang!” Just as Yinglong and Bifang were ready to leave, from the egg that was well-protected by them, a strange and powerful heartbeat suddenly came.

“How could it be!”

“The princess hasn’t formed a body yet!”

Bifang and Yinglong shouted at the same time. Yinglong’s body tightly wrapped around the egg, and Bifang’s wings raised high, using its strongest skill to protect the egg.

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

No mistake. In the egg they protected, the smallest daughter of the West Queen, the unborn princess’s heart was pounding heavily.

At the same time, opposite the Door of Dusk, Yun Xi’s heart also suddenly began to beat faster, as if there was a voice calling him in the blurred world opposite the door.

“Bang! Bang!” His strong heartbeat quickly attracted White Lotus’s attention. She looked at the world behind the door, which was covered by endless light and fire, and lost in thought.

My Prince, have you summoned two real suns?

Which of the two suns will you choose?

“Hum?”

Hura Azda also sensed it, there was a familiar odor coming from the direction of the two fantastic creatures.

He vaguely recalled that these two fantastic creatures were the descendants of the West Queen. They were strong fire-type fantastic creatures, of course, they were no match for him.

Why are they protecting the egg carefully? Why did I feel a familiar odor from the egg?

Is it another fire-type fantastic creature?

Yinglong was a fire-type dragon and the totem of emperors.

Bifang was also a fire-type fantastic creature, but it was slightly weaker than Yinglong.

Phoenix was an exception. It was also a fire-type fantastic creature, but it wouldn't die in any situation. Even though Hura Azda was a Sunwalker, he felt a headache when facing Phoenix.

So, what is the fantastic creature in that egg?

At this time, the fake gods finally found something wrong!

They come from a world called "Abyss", which was located in the dark side of the infinite god's domains, in the gap connected with endless nightmare worlds.

These fake gods, or "squid string" in Hura's eyes liked to pretend to be a god. Deceive witches and eat them in the sacrificial ceremony was one of their favorite games.

It was their happiest entertainment to see helpless witches turn into their food.

To this end, they specially learned various tricks and deceptions and studied the loopholes in the sacrificial ceremony.

For them, deceiving a witch and eating her had almost become a ritual, a proof of being recognized by the Abyss.

"No... Impossible! Why can't we leave?"

"My body... is burning..."

They were confused and frightened, because they just came to this place in the form of projections! Even if their projections were burnt to ashes, they wouldn't feel any pain. Why can't they leave?

"After all these years, you squids still cheat people in the same old way."

"You can pretend to be gods to deceive ignorant little girls, how dare you to think that this will also work in front of me?" Hura Azda looked at the struggling fake gods with a happy smile, "Catching squid was once one of my duties. The coordinates of your true bodies have already been exposed!"

The golden Sun Disk spun and flew out, dragging out several big squids, who liked the mixture of cuttlefish, King squash and pig squid from the endless Abyss.

They thought that they didn't need to worry about anything, because they just came using their projections. However, as a "Star Squid Hunter" who had caught hundreds of "squids", Hura Azda had rich experience in finding their true bodies by tracing their projections!

Without the protection of the Abyss, these squids' combat power was barely worth mentioning. They could only pretend to be fake gods in front of common hero ranked witches. If they met a legend ranked witch, their only fate was to be caught and become dried squids!

Chapter 512: That Sentence

"This power... terrible..."

"Sun God... Hura Azda..."

Looking at the several fake gods' true bodies being dragged out of the Abyss, the remaining human gods finally understood what a strong opponent they were facing.

Soon, realizing that they would be killed by the solar flare if they still stayed here, they made the right choice, gave up the sacrifice and ran away without hesitation.

No matter how good the sacrifice was, only the living one could enjoy it. They weren't Phoenix, who wouldn't die no matter what happened. It was impossible for their projections to withstand the Sun God's flames of fury.

In the blink of an eye, only Phoenix, Yinglong, Bifang, the egg, and the three "squids" who had been toasted, remained.

"Now, does any of you still want to stop me?" Looking at Phoenix, who was blown into pieces again, Hura Azda decided to complete the contract quickly and actually obtain the special gem in his hand.

"I... I want it..." A somewhat hazy voice sounded on the battlefield, which made the two fantastic creatures astonished.

"It's... my thing..."

"Little guy, I came first!" Hura Azda quickened his pace and wanted to complete the contract as quickly as possible in case that Phoenix revived again.

As the supreme god of the Persian God's Domain, he faced too many frustrations today. He felt as if there was an evil spirit in the darkness that was trying to stop him from grabbing this special golden-red gem.

“No, I came first, I was here first! You’re the robber who robbed my gem halfway!” Out of Hura’s expectation, Phoenix had revived and flew back!

“So... Am I the third? The callow voice echoed on the battlefield of gods, and soon came to its own conclusion, “No... No matter who came first... Only the person who gets it... is the number one.”

“Ha ha... That’s a cunning speech, but it’s true.” Hura nodded his head and endorsed the egg’s words.

“Indeed, there is no such a rule in the world that the person who saw the treasure first could be the treasure’s owner.”

“No matter where we are, only the strongest person can have the best treasure!”

“If you want it, you should come and steal it yourself!”

“If you don’t steal it, then someone else will rob you. No matter how much you like it, once you are robbed, it will never be yours.”

“If you want something you like, try to be stronger, new little sun!” Hura Azda realized the true identity of the egg. He reached out his hand and millions of fiery red spears appeared in the air in an instant, locking on the fantastic creatures.

Millions of flame spears blew up like a trumpet, declaring the end of the world.

The solar flare finally evolved to the last stage.

If the human gods still stayed on this battlefield, none of them would survive under this attack.

Even Yinglong and Bifang the two fire-type fantastic creatures were unable to fend for themselves in this situation.

Only Phoenix was still struggling, after all, she wouldn't die.

“Even if you said so... I want it...”

“Because... I am... the sun!”

On the Altar of Deity, Yun Xi's body was instantly covered by a golden red light and suddenly disappeared.

The next second, he saw endless golden-red flame spears in front of him.

Countless strange golden-red fire clouds boiled and rotated around him, countless light and fire spirits cheered and danced around him.

In his body, an unimaginable power was controlling him, declaring its own voice to the world.

“I am... the sun!”

"I am... the sun?" Yun Xi duplicated this sentence foolishly and thought that he must be dreaming.

However, the horrible power that kept pouring into his body let him know that it wasn't a dream, but a miracle that was happening.

This... This power is... Yun Xi remembered it. On the Starry Sky Chessboard, in the game with Orfina, he once summoned the projection of this unknown fantastic creature.

However, it was just a game! In the real world, it should be impossible to encounter such a strong fantastic creature.

Its beautiful wings showed a miraculous golden red color. The two colors reflected each other as if they were light and fire spirits.

Even in the destructive solar flare, the glory of its wings was unique.

"I... am the sun..." Again, the youngest daughter of the West Queen declared to Hura Azda, the Sunwalker.

"How is this possible? You are not even born yet. How can you appear?" For the first time, Hura Azda couldn't hide the shock in his heart.

None of the Sunwalkers could utter that sentence before they were awakened.

“I am the sun”, This was what all Sunwalkers would say after they realized the essence of their bodies.

For all Sunwalkers, it was the last thing they wanted to remember, but they had to engrave it deep in their memory. After saying it, they would forever embark on a lonely road that no one would understand.

It had nothing to do with genius, race, origin, or gender. The reason why a Sunwalker could become a Sunwalker was all because of this sentence.

“I am the sun.”

Chapter 513: The Duel Between Two Suns (1)

“I support you!” Phoenix flew happily to Yun Xi and danced around him with countless flame spirits.

She didn’t know the reason, but in her heart, she naturally felt an intimate aura from him.

Just flying around him, she was intoxicated in a compulsive joy.

On the contrary, she couldn’t conceal her aversion to the Sun God who robbed the precious gem from her own hands.

Unforgivable!

“Thank you... but, I won’t let you obtain the gem either.” The unknown egg, the fantastic creature who was possessing Yun Xi’s body now declared.

“Oh, you found it, too.” Hura Azda took a deep breath.

At first glance, this golden-red gem itself wasn’t something too precious, it looked just like a variant of a common Kryolite.

Why could it draw so many extraordinary creatures’ attention?

Because there was a special aura contained in the golden-red gem.

It was hard to describe the temptation of the aura to fire-type creatures. Any gods who sensed the aura wouldn’t remain indifferent.

Kryolite was a rare treasure even amongst gods, plus the special aura inside it, its value was a hundred times higher than any common Kryolites.

Especially for fire-type, light-type, and sun-type gods, its value was even higher!

Only the strongest gods could understand how rare and precious it was.

Hura even wondered if it was the polymerized substance from a galaxy explosion, otherwise, it couldn’t explain the joy when he held the gem in his hand.

How long haven't I felt this joy?

After becoming a Sunwalker, he had almost forgotten all emotions as an ordinary person. He was a sun shining on all things, but he could only wander alone forever.

Only when he hunted and barbecued the "squid strings", could he feel a little warmth. The universe was too unfriendly to Sunwalkers.

Therefore, he must obtain this gem, which could let him feel warm again!

"None of you... can stop me."

"Even if you are the same sun as me!"

He had been lonely for too long! He didn't want to give up the warmth in his hand!

No, no one can steal it from me!

Loneliness made him understand how precious this thing was, that could let him feel warm again.

For this reason, he didn't mind beating down another sun!

“Little sun... you shouldn’t be here...” Holding the Sun Disk with both hands, the temperature around Hura’s body began to rise rapidly.

100,000 Celsius degrees, 200,000 Celsius degrees, 300,000 Celsius degrees!

A huge amount of air was ionized and projected out, forming a fierce solar storm.

Materials around Hura could no longer exist in normal forms, the decomposed particles formed high-temperature plasmas and constantly emitted “pop!” and “Crack!” sounds.

In contrast, a large number of black particles started to gather around the golden-red bird, sunspots began to emerge and formed countless shields in front of her.

Obviously, there was a huge gap between the two sides in the use of their own solar power.

Hura’s control and adjustment ability to his solar power was far superior to the unknown golden-red bird’s.

Of course, the adjustment abilities was based on the unit of “ten thousand degrees”. For the sun, ten thousand degrees was the basic unit, in the human world, this temperature could melt steel instantaneously.

“No... If this goes on, I will be killed again!” Phoenix waved her wings and flew restlessly around Yun Xi, seemingly trying to protect the immature golden-red bird with her own body and wings.

Of course, it was no use. Once Hura, the Sunwalker got serious, she couldn't find any way to stop him.

On the battlefield, only a "sun" could fight against another "sun"!

"The First SN-Drive... opens!" On the Sun Disk in Hura's hand, a golden mark began to shine, releasing infinite power.

Huge solar flares began to shrink, the temperature around Hura rose to more than a million Celsius degrees in one breath. Boiling golden-red plasma bubbles continued to emerge and burst around him. The entire battlefield began to falter because of the horrible high temperature.

The entire battlefield had entered its countdown phase.

This time, it wasn't because of Phoenix, but Hura who was going to destroy the battlefield using his solar power.

The Sun Disk, the SN-Drive, the light furnace, the emergence of the power of the sun. It was the inexhaustible source of power in countless people's imaginations, it was a thing that couldn't be created scientifically or theoretically. Just like Cyber Elf Alpha's "Infinite Computing Power", the SN-Drive was the core of a sun, a real existence, a so-called "perpetual motion machine"!

It was the unique ability of the Sunwalkers, owning the SN-Drive meant that the Sunwalker could transfer himself into a real sun!

Releasing the power of the SN-Drive meant that Hura had become serious, he had taken a real action to defeat the newborn golden-red bird!

The number of SN-Drives could also be regarded as one of the criteria for the strength of a Sunwalker.

As the supreme god of the Persian God's Domain, an Ancient God who survived in the Twilight of the Gods, at the peak of his powers, he could summon twelve SN-Drives at the same time.

Chapter 514: The Duel Between Two Suns (2)

Every SN-Drive was equal to a real sun. Investigating its source, it seemed to go back to a very distant era. In the time before the endless god's domains was established, when the gods just set foot in other worlds.

Before the Twilight of the Gods, there were once 12 SN-Drives in Hura's Sun Disk. As the cost of surviving from the Twilight of the Gods, he lost half of his SN-Drives.

Ordinary legend ranked beings weren't qualified to let Hura, the Sun God liberated the SN-Drives in the Sun Disk.

In other words, the golden-red bird had had the power to make Hura become serious. He had recognized its power.

Hura's true body didn't descend into this world, his body here was formed by the strength of faith from the millions of sand soldiers, therefore, the power he showed now was already his limit.

On the contrary, although the golden-red bird came with its true body, her true body was still an egg with zero attack power. Therefore, she used another method to awaken its future appearance in advance.

She possessed Yun Xi's body.

With Yun Xi's body as a medium, the golden-red bird opened its wings and gave its first chirp to the Ancient Sun God.

In the chirp, the golden-red bird waved its wings, flying faster and higher.

She was born to be above everything, even if her opponent was an ancient god!

She didn't mind the throne of the Sun God, because she was born to fly above the thirty-three heavens, shining on all things!

Amongst all fantastic creatures, she was the strongest one, who had a strong self-confidence even before she was born.

The spirits of light and fire sang together, offering their joy to the newborn sun.

The old sun, the new sun, at the moment the two suns met, they would inevitably burst out earth-shaking sparks.

“Ah ah ah ah... Whatever, I don’t care!” Phoenix chased after the golden-red bird and rushed up to the top of the sky.

On the ground, Hura was absorbed in controlling the Sun Disk in his hands.

For Sunwalkers, the worry was never about energy shortage, but about restraining their impulse to destroy everything.

If he released all the energy contained in the SN-Drive, not only the battlefield would be destroyed, even the White Lotus Sword Domain below would also be totally destroyed. The witches who summoned him were still waiting for his arrival in the sword domain!

I must thoroughly solve this minor problem quickly!

Yes, in the eyes of the Sun God, Hura Azda, the golden-red bird was still no match for him.

Even though he had lost half of the SN-Drives he had, he was still the strongest Sun God in the Persian God’s Domain!

With his rich experience, six SN-Drives were enough for him to defeat dozens of gods at once!

If he still had 12 SN-Drives now, he could even temporarily reach level 9, the highest level of a legend ranked god could reach.

In Hura's eyes, the golden-red bird did have the qualification to sit on the same level with himself in the future, but that would be ten thousand of years later, when she had obtained at least 10 SN-Drives. At this moment, the golden-red bird didn't even have a SN-Drive, how could it be match for him?

Countless high-temperature plasma bubbles spread behind Hura. The world seemed to be cooked, rivers evaporated, seas dried up, and mountains burned up. This was the inevitable consequences of a Sunwalker's arrival on the earth, as well as the prelude to the extinction of a world.

"I want to... fly..."

"Fly to... Higher places..."

"Follow me... Together... to the sky above the thirty-three heavens..."

A crisp, firm, tender voice echoed inside Yun Xi's mind. Even after seeing the power of Hura's SN-Drive, she was still fearless and courageous.

"Whoever my opponent is, I won't lose."

"I want to surpass my opponents and become the strongest."

"So, trust me, lend me your strength!"

"My strength?" Yun Xi was confused.

There was no room for him in this level of battle!

What could a hero ranked Baker do in the battle between two suns? Make bread on the spot to supplement physical strength for her?

This time, his body wasn't being possessed by Casina's will attachment, nor Lilibet was protecting him with her power, he really didn't know what to do at this moment.

"I believe in you, you have such power and such a future!"

"You can also trust me that I can help you obtain the future you will have in advance!"

"So I summoned you!"

My power... A drop of sweat fell down from Yun Xi's forehead. Has she found that I'm the Starchild?

However, although he knew that he was a Starchild, he didn't know how a Starchild should fight, nor did Mei'er know.

It seemed that his fighting force in his past life wasn't very strong, otherwise, he wouldn't be tragically killed by his four ex-girlfriends.

"Not you now, but you in the future."

“What you want, what you imagine, what you can become! The strongest you! The you on the Starry Sky Chessboard!”

Her tender voice affirmed Yun Xi’s future.

At that time, she felt the unusual aura, so she opened her eyes inside the egg and descended onto the Starry Sky Chessboard.

What awakened her was the “opportunity” Yun Xi had.

She didn’t know the reason, because the true Yun Xi didn’t have any legend ranked power, but she wouldn’t mistake the aura, and because of the aura, she came and joined the battle.

She didn’t want to give that gem to anyone else!

“So it was you... you were summoned by me...” Yun Xi finally understood why the golden-red bird came here.

Chapter 515: The Duel Between Two Suns (3)

Which came first? The chicken or the egg?

I was summoned to the battlefield by this unknown golden-red bird, and this golden-red bird was summoned by me...

Yun Xi felt regret. Why did he play so recklessly on the Starry Sky Chessboard? Why did he summon it into the game?

However, there was no medicine for regret in the world.

It was impossible for him to leave now.

What would he become if they were defeated? Looking at the plasma bubbles under his feet, he didn't dare to imagine it.

Even if it was a hero ranked being who fell into the plasma bubbles, he or she would be instantly evaporated, not to mention ordinary people.

This was the power of the Sun God!

So, what can I do now?

I can only imagine!

He didn't know how he fought in his previous life, he could only imagine what the legend ranked power should be.

When was his closest moment to the legend ranked power?

Undoubtedly, it was when he was on the Starry Sky Chessboard, playing with Cyber Elf Alpha.

Cyber Elf Alpha was the only legend ranked being he had ever defeated, although he just defeated her in a game.

The power the golden-red bird wanted, was not the “he in the real world, but the he on the Starry Sky Chessboard!”

In the real world, Yun Xi was just a hero ranked Baker, which was not even qualified to be cannon fodder here.

On the Starry Sky Chessboard, he was “the Master of Star Go”! He was the invincible legend!

Only on the Starry Sky Chessboard, he had the power to defeat a legend ranked being.

“I... am a legend.” Being pushed to the limit, Yun Xi could only exert his infinite imagination and hint at himself.

“You... are a legend...” In response to Yun Xi’s voice, the young golden-red bird began to increase its strength and merge with Yun Xi, just as she fought side by side with him on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

“I am... the light...” Yun Xi closes his eyes, recalling the glorious moments on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

“I am... the light...” Behind the golden-red bird, numerous golden feathers floated down, giving off a bursts of blazing sunshine.

What’s going on? Hura watched in astonishment as the golden-red bird flew higher and higher into the sky.

Not right, it’s not right!

It’s just a newborn fantastic creature, how could her power rise at such an incredible rate?

She is just a baby bird who hadn’t obtained her own SN-Drive yet!

How could she understand, and even master the power of the real sun?

“I am... a myth...” Yun Xi’s eyes gradually become dim.

“I am... a myth... The golden-red bird continued to weave the fantasy belonging to Yun Xi and her.

Impossible! Impossible! The secret of the sun is a rule that needs to be learned for thousands of years, how can you master it now?

What is it? What is helping her?

Hura couldn't believe his eyes.

In his eyes, the golden-red baby bird was growing at a miraculous rate, like a baby who suddenly become a pretty young girl overnight.

"I am... the sun..." Recalling the battles on the Starry Sky Chessboard, Yun Xi suddenly opened his eyes and declared the truth that only Sunwalkers could say.

"I am... the sun..." The golden-red bird repeated the sentence cheerfully.

Yes, this was what she was expecting and waiting for.

For this, she crossed countless worlds and came here to meet him.

Endless golden-red flames burst out with glowing lights and surrounded Yun Xi's body. The golden-red bird disappeared, instead, a figure with golden-red wings appeared.

Brand-new SN-Drives were placed on both sides of the wings of this figure, emitting the aura of the eternal blazing sun.

At that instant, the same words echoed in their ears.

Everything rises to welcome you.

Praise you, the only light! You will rise to the top of the world's sky.

You rise, you shine, you take away the darkness upon the earth.

You are the king of all gods and the lord of all things.

Everything comes because of you, everything becomes sacred because of you.

From your wings, the sky and the sea are interlaced.

The holy temple is glorified by your name, and you will become a legend in legends.

We come from you and are holy because of you. You will wear your holy crown on the clouds and take the throne.

You are the source of all life, and you have crossed the river of time.

Praise you, my lord, for your life will wake up from your slumber, and you will be immortal for thousands of years, now and forever.

It was an ode to the sun, to the Sunwalkers. It was the worship of all living beings who believe in the sun.

“You... created a SN-Drive by yourself...” Listening to this familiar ode, Hura realized that the newborn golden-red bird had become a new Sunwalker, just like himself!

It’s not understandable. It’s totally unreasonable!

The creation of a SN-Drive was an enormous project, no matter how talented a Sunwalker was, it was impossible to become one within such a short time.

Moreover, it didn’t just create one, it just created two!

Two SN-Drives!

Did he just witness the birth of the most talented Sunwalker in the universe just now?

Opening his eyes, Yun Xi could clearly feel the endless power of fire in his body and the pair of SN-Drives on his shoulders.

He felt like he was dreaming.

Why can I succeed in such a simple way?

He just imagined the power of the sun, but he really knew nothing about the nature of the sun.

He simply imagined what he would look like if he could transform into a sun. It seemed that there was some force in the dark that helped him weave the rules of the sun, and even told him the ranks of the golden-red bird and Hura the Sun God.

Sunwalker was one of the most powerful careers in the endless god's domains.

Now, he was also a Sunwalker.

Undoubtedly, he had zero knowledge about the sun, which wouldn't be taught in the Sword Palace.

However, he naturally understood the inside structure of the SN-Drive. If it wasn't because the golden-red bird's power could only create two SN-Drives at this moment, he felt that he could make more SN-Drives.

Thank you, great stars!

Apparently, the great stars helped him again.

After that, Yun Xi started to make the god weapon that Sunwalkers could use.

For Sunwalkers, they didn't need any material, because they themselves were the best materials.

Hura Azda's Sun Disk was made in this way, and the god weapon Yun Xi was going to make would also be made in this way.

“Tell me... Your name...” While driving the two SN-Drives to make the god weapon, Yun Xi asked for the unknown fantastic creature’s name.

“I... have no name yet...” This question really baffled the mysterious fantastic creature.

Of course, she had no name, because her true body was still an egg. She wasn’t born yet.

If Yun Xi hadn’t summoned her onto the Starry Sky Chessboard, she would’ve be born after thousands of years.

Now she was in a fantastic state, existing in theory, but not really existing, like a cat in a box, before anyone observed it, no one would know if it was alive or dead, and Yun Xi was the one who found her and observed her.

“Well, I’ll give you a name. You have beautiful golden wings, and you are a sun.”

“Then, I will call you Golden Sun Crow.” Yun Xi casually gave it a name.

At the same time, an exquisite god weapon was shaping in his hands. Although he could use it one time on the battlefield, Yun Xi still played all his imagination into it, casting it into the most gorgeous posture.

“Golden Sun Crow... This name... very good...”

“So... my name will be... Golden Sun Crow...”

“The sun above the thirty-three heavens!” The mysterious fantastic creature was very satisfied with this name.

“Well, then we have to win!” Yun Xi said and had no other choice.

If he won, he could survive.

If he lost, he would be burned to ashes.

Well, it's better to win!

Sorry, Sun God. We summoned you, but now I have to drive you away!

The god weapon of the Sunwalker was forged!

It was a golden-red bow with a black bowstring. If one looked at it carefully, one would find that the black on the bowstring was formed by numerous black particles.

Unlike Hura's Sun Disk, Yun Xi's god weapon was purely a temporary one-off weapon made for this battle.

Because he refined it from Golden Sun Crow's power, he named it "Destroyer of the Sun Crow".

After the bow was formed, Yun Xi shot an arrow at Hura without hesitation.

A gentle vibration dispersed at Yun Xi's fingertips.

It wasn't the vibration of sound, nor the vibration of light and flame.

It was the vibration of the world's string!

A golden arrow shooting out from the bow.

The first shot of the Destroyer of the Golden Crow!

The arrow opened its golden-red wings, instantly detonating on Hura's Sun Disk.

The next moment, a loud sound echoed through the entire battlefield!

Numerous golden-red flames burst out from the center of the solar flare, billions of light and fire spirits flew together. The land under their feet completely disappeared under the impact, not even leaving a speck of dust.

"Its power is too exaggerated..." Even Yun Xi himself was frightened by the arrow's terrible power.

The entire battlefield was created by Hura's god power, even the solar flare took a long time to melt the ground.

However, a single arrow from the bow had completely destroyed the battlefield.

If it wasn't because Lilibet was maintaining the boundaries of the battlefield, the impact would've even affected the White Lotus Sword Domain below.

This was the power of the sun.

Once again, Yun Xi realized how unreasonable the power of the legend rank was. No wonder that people in the endless god's domains would regard legend ranked beings as gods.

The hero rank symbolized mankind's longing for extraordinary power.

The legend rank was the strongest imagination of human beings for immortality and supremacy over all things.

At this moment, what Yun Xi used is the power of the legend rank. It seemed that Golden Sun Crow hadn't understood how to use her power, so she gave Yun Xi all control of her power.

In fact, Yun Xi himself was very guilty, because he also didn't know how to use the legend ranked power.

Well, at least, we have 2 SN-Drives. Two is better than one, isn't it?

With this idea, he once again pulled open the bowstring.

The string of the world trembled again. It was the cry of the world, it was the declaration of the Sunwalker's power.

The second shot of the Destroyer of the Golden Crow!

"Solar flare, exploding!" Facing the provocation launched by the new sun, Hura launched his strongest counter-attack!

With the Sun Disk rotating at a high-speed in his hand, the SN-Drives inside it, emitted an incredibly high temperature. A series of fusion phenomena appeared around Hura. The boiling sea of plasma bubbles emitted hundreds of millions of light spirits, a bolt of lightning which was not inferior to the golden arrow blasted off.

As a result of the collision of the two god weapons, there was an unprecedentedly huge distortion in the center of the battlefield. The high temperature over one million degrees had turned into numerous brilliant light curtains, intertwining together like a seven-colored rainbow.

For a moment, neither of the combatants, Hura and Yun Xi, could see anything on the battlefield.

The next second they lost their sight, they both made their choices.

Hura predicted that Yun Xi would inevitably shoot a third arrow. Therefore, his Sun Disk continued to compress and condense the power of the solar flare, ready for the next round of bombardment with the new sun.

In this respect, there is no doubt that Hura had the upper hand. Even though he couldn't understand why the golden-red bird could construct a pair of SN-Drives so quickly, he still had an advantage in terms of his control of his power.

Probably, after the twelfth round of the bombardment between the arrow and the lightning, Hura could launch a counterattack.

After calculating the consumption of the SN-Drive, Hura showed a winning smile.

On the other hand, Yun Xi had never thought about the consumption of the SN-Drives.

After all, he had zero knowledge about how to use the legend ranked power.

In fact, the reason why he shot Hura was simple, because he wanted to test the power of the bow.

And now, he was very satisfied with its power.

When Yun Xi lost his sight, Yun Xi made a choice quickly.

The bow instantly split and became a pair of golden-red double swords.

Yes, from the very beginning, the bow was designed to be able to be disassembled, which was inspired by Yun Que's weapon.

An archer who doesn't understand close quarters fighting, isn't a good archer.

Moreover, Yun Xi was not an archer, but a swordsman!

Holding the twin swords in his hands, Yun Xi rushed to Hura and the skill of the Sky Flying Sword naturally emerged in his mind.

Yun Xi instinctively realized that the Sky Flying Sword he used now was no longer the same as in the past. It was more unrestrained and fierce.

Perhaps this was the real Sky Flying Sword.

Only the creatures who could fly freely in the sky could use this sword skill properly.

Hura opened his eyes wide in astonishment.

Isn't your god weapon a golden bow?

Why are you holding twin swords now?!

Are you really an archer?!

Yun Xi didn't think so much. He was not an archer anyway!

Like the first ray of an aurora in the sky, Yun Xi had rushed to Hura, whose Sun Disk was still compressing and condensing the power of the solar flare.

Brandishing the twin swords, he launched the strongest attack he just mastered.

Without a chance to fight back, Hura, who made a huge mistake in prediction, was torn apart, cut apart and shattered.

Numerous golden-red fires exploded and spread out as if a real sun just erupted. The Sun God, Hura uttered a hysterical cry,

"I'll remember you! Don't think it's over!"

"Young sun of Kunlun God's Domain!"

"Boom!"

The entire battlefield couldn't be sustained at last.

The solar flare exploded!

The solar flare, which had just evolved into tens of millions of degrees of temperature, was detonated in advance, transformed into a huge light pillar and rushed into the endless void, then dispersed by an ice-blue sword.

The golden-red bird flew happily to the sky, celebrating its victory.

Chapter 516: Gifts From Golden Sun Crow

The Persian God's Domain was one of the few god's domains whose gods survived the Twilight of the Gods.

Above the god's domain, in the kingdom of god, dressed in white silk robes, devout girls knelt under the Sun God's statue, praying devoutly.

There were twelve similar squares, and in the center of each square, there was a wheel of the sun. If one combined the twelve squares together, one would find that they formed a huge wheel of the sun.

This was the Sun God, Hura's kingdom of god. He didn't need the strength of faith from his believers, therefore, his statue wasn't in human form.

As a Sunwalker, he didn't need to show his human form to his believers, because he was the supreme god, he was the light, he was the only truth in the entire Persian God's Domain.

When Hura was defeated in the White Lotus Sword Domain, all the praying girls heard an angry roar.

“Damn!”

“Why do you have two SN-Drives?”

“Young sun of Kunlun God’s Domain!”

“We win!” Phoenix waved her wings and soared into the sky together with the golden-red bird.

The earth and sky were both shattered, only Lilibet was left, picking up the mess as usual.

As she brandished her ice-blue sword, the world gradually recovered from the destruction caused by the two Sunwalkers and three SN-Drives.

However, even the power of the guardian of the Sky Sword God’s Domain couldn’t completely dispel the terrible powers of the two Sunwalkers.

The reconstructed earth was still a world filled with magma everywhere, more than tens of millions of light and fire spirits cheering and dancing in the sky and on the ground.

Have we won?

Looking at his body turning into a golden-red bird again, Yun Xi still didn’t believe his eyes.

Golden Sun Crow and he really defeated the Ancient Sun God! Even though it was obviously only a projection, it was undoubtedly a strong legend ranked projection!

If he didn't see the precious gem in the mouth of the golden-red bird, he might have thought that he was dreaming.

On the burning earth, the Door of Dusk, which once disappeared opened again.

"What do you want?" When Yun Xi gazed at the Door of Dusk, Golden Sun Crow asked.

Speaking of this, she remembered that she came for the sacrificial ceremony.

Fortunately, the White Lotus Sword Domain wasn't too far away from the Kunlun God's Domain, so she could come here with her true body, and Hura had to descend into this void using a projection, which was the greatest advantage she had in this war.

In the end, Hura failed to liberate the second SN-Drive before he was defeated. He didn't have sufficient god power to summon the second SN-Drive from the Persian God's Domain to the battlefield.

Ultimately, Yun Xi was correct. Two SN-Drives are stronger than one SN-Drive.

"I... What do I want?" Yun Xi repeated the question and was somewhat puzzled.

“This is a sacrificial ceremony, and you are a member in the ceremony. Moreover, you helped me defeat my greatest opponent.”

“According to the rules of the sacrificial ceremony, I can fulfill your wish.”

“I can give you the best sword skills, or the best Seeds of Bloodline. As long as you want something, I can find it and give it to you.”

She wasn't joking. As a princess of the Kunlun God's Domain, the youngest daughter of the West Queen, as long as she asked, countless fantastic creatures would rush forward and present their most valuable treasures to her.

Yun Xi finally realized that the golden-red bird wasn't an ordinary being.

The distance between him and her was actually more distant than the countless stars.

At this moment, he just used her strength to enter the realm of the legend rank, which was not his own strength.

The victory of defeating the Sun God made him feel highly flattered.

The fact was, he wasn't Casina the Battle God nor Golden Sun Crow. His rank was still far away from the legend rank.

So, what do I need? Yun Xi carefully considered.

He didn't lack sword skills, he had the Sky Flying Sword, Yun Hai's Quadrant Sword, and the greatsword maid's legacy were all great sword skills that were beyond mere mortals' imagination.

The Seeds of Bloodline were also not too valuable to him. He had the star system, and the girls of the Starwing Knights could provide him with rich experiences of practice. Moreover, he himself was actually the Starchild, he didn't really need any other bloodlines.

Oh, I know what I want.

The Crane Wing Twin Swords were very good, however, after witnessing the power of god weapons, he began to look forward to having a real god weapon belonging to himself.

He was now only a step away from being a hero ranked swordsman. After he reached the fourth rank, he would be able to develop his own god weapon.

Sunwalker was so terrible that even if the golden-red bird accidentally released its own power, it may have destroyed the world.

However, there was one thing that Yun Xi really wanted to have.

If he could use it well, maybe it could help him to forge his own god weapon.

"If possible... I want..." Yun Xi said sheepishly.

“You only want that? Is that all?” Golden Sun Crow didn’t expect that “that” was what Yun Xi wanted. Her golden-red feathers drifted down quietly, and for a while, she was at a loss.

“Well, that’s all right.”

“It’s what I want most.”

“Is that really all right?”

“Thank you. That’s all right. I like it very much.”

In their spiritual communion, Yun Xi obtained the treasures he wanted, which was absolutely impossible to appear in the White Lotus Sword Domain.

The Door of Dusk opened, and the golden-red bird turned into a golden flame, flying above the Altar of Deity.

“I bestow the blessing of the sun on you.” Just like Hura the Sun God recently, Golden Sun Crow was in an extremely good mood. She granted the twin witches her blessings and gave them gifts at the same time.

Red Lotus got a golden feather.

The feather merged into her Red Lotus Holy Sword, and the sword was thoroughly sublimated, possessing the attribute of the sun fire.

White Lotus got a golden gem, which contained the power of a real sun.

As for Yun Xi, in addition to obtaining the golden-red bird's blessing, he also got the gift he wanted, a furnace the size of a palm.

This was what Yun Xi wanted, a SN-Drive (sealed)!

Although it was actually made by himself, it was impossible for him to use it in the real world, so he had to ask Golden Sun Crow to seal it up and turn it into a palm-sized furnace.

It was probably the most precious gift he had ever obtained, so he really felt a little embarrassed when Golden Sun Crow gave it to him.

"I'm glad to have come here. If there is a chance, you can summon me next time."

"Remember, my name is Golden Sun Crow, the sun above the thirty-three heavens!" After the deal was completed, Golden Sun Crow looked very happy.

To her, it was a natural thing to give Yun Xi the SN-Drive. After all, it didn't belong to her from the very beginning, since Yun Xi helped her create it.

Moreover, Yun Xi only took away one of the SN-Drives, he also left one for her.

Isn't this the so-called love token... the young Golden Sun Crow almost flew up with pleasure.

If Yun Xi knew what she was thinking, he would only think that she read too much into it. The SN-Drives were priceless treasures, why would he take them both?

The remaining SN-Drive, of course, belonged to Golden Sun Crow. He was the one who took the most advantage.

"Sister, our luck is really good." Looking at the enthusiastic Golden Sun Crow, White Lotus felt as if she was dreaming.

"Yeah, the gods this time are very kind. We are very lucky." Although Red Lotus didn't know why it wasn't the Sun God who stepped over the Door of Dusk, she had a feeling that she shouldn't look into it seriously.

At any rate, the golden-red bird's power wasn't inferior to the Sun God, and she was generous and talkative too.

However, Mei's luck was really bad, she only obtained a very common furnace.

Anyway, she was lucky enough to obtain Golden Sun Crow's blessing.

When Mei suddenly disappeared on the altar at that time, Red Lotus thought that there was something wrong in the sacrificial ceremony and she had just been eaten by an unknown monster.

“Great god, you can transform into the human form and stay in this mortal world for a day. However, you can only move around the altar in the range of ten kilometers. Do you have any plans?”

“I can stay here for a whole day?” Golden Sun Crow remembered that there was indeed such a rule in the ceremony.

After the god signed the contract with the witches in the sacrificial ceremony, the god could stay in the mortal world for a day.

If it was an evil god who deceived the witches and went across the Door of Dusk, it would become the most dangerous day. Because for 24 hours, the witches had no way to drive the evil god away.

This time, there were indeed fake gods who tried to get in here, unfortunately, they had all been found by Hura the Sun God and barbecued by him.

They were also the only consolation prize Hura had after being defeated by Yun Xi and Golden Sun Crow. After all, most fake and evil gods lurked in the Abyss, it wasn't easy to catch them.

“Well, what can I do in a day?”

Naturally, the newborn Golden Sun Crow had no common sense. She looked at Yun Xi with curiosity in her golden pupils.

“That... A lot of things...” Yun Xi looked at the golden-red bird, having a headache.

What should I do? Does anyone have the experience to deal with a golden-red bird?

Hey, the god really likes her! Red Lotus looked at Mei and Golden Sun Crow in surprise.

Most gods summoned by witches, apart from the necessary responses after accepting the sacrifices, wouldn't say a word to the witches.

Essentially, gods and witches were not equal at all. Apart from the few legend ranked witches, gods wouldn't take a glance at any other witches.

Chapter 517: A Date with the God (1)

"Why don't you go on a date?" White Lotus made an unusual proposal to Golden Sun Crow with a bright smile on her face.

"What?!" Red Lotus looked at her sister in astonishment, as if she had never known her sister, White Lotus before.

How can it be possible that my sister is so alive?!

As the witch who could master the Great Circulation, White Lotus didn't really believe in any gods, why was she suddenly so enthusiastic about the golden-red bird?

"Mei, let's go out on a date together."

“It’s rare to date with a god. It would be an event that could be recorded in the history of the White Lotus Sword Domain!” White Lotus squinted at Yun Xi, who was as bewildered as Red Lotus.

Yun Xi tried to blink his eyes, suggesting that he had no experience in doing such things.

White Lotus smiled and nodded, indicating that she knew it.

However, it had been decided!

“Oh, oh, I’ll try this date! It must be interesting!” Golden Sun Crow who waved her wings and was very satisfied with White Lotus’s proposal.

What? What should I do now?

Going on a date with a god... Yun Xi had never heard of such a thing! He watched White Lotus’ fingertips draw a mysterious rune in the air, and then Golden Sun Crow’s body transformed into a human.

Transforming the incarnation of gods into human shape was also one of the unique secret skills the witches had. No matter how special the gods were, if they agreed to a contract with the witch, they could temporarily stay in the human world for a day.

Because Golden Sun Crow was essentially still an unborn fantastic creature, her human form was a young girl about 7 or 8 years old, whose height wasn’t taller than Yun Xi’s waist.

Even so, her appearance had proved that she had great potential to be a beauty in the future.

This could be confirmed by the eyes of the people who passed by them on the street.

She wore golden red clothes that was gorgeous, had a beautiful oval face, tall nose, small red cherry lips, and bright eyes as if there were flames burning in her pupils.

Rings wrapped with golden wires drooped on both sides of her cheek, raising her beautiful eyebrows, she looked very proud.

On her back, a pair of small golden wings stretched out with jeweled decorations on them, which were actually the blessings and protection the West Queen cast for her daughter.

At this moment, the human-shaped Golden Sun Crow was holding Yun Xi's hand, strolling around on the streets.

White Lotus and Red Lotus cast a special magic of witches on themselves, making their bodies become invisible in ordinary people's eyes.

In the eyes of the people on the street, they could only see Yun Xi and a little girl holding each other's hand, strolling on the street.

Looking down on the Golden Crow Princess, Yun Xi could clearly see her moving, slender neck. His face blushed and he quickly turned away.

Undoubtedly, when the little Golden Crow Princess grew up, she would surely become an absolute beauty, but now she was still too young.

To be honest, Yun Xi even felt a little guilty when he remembered that he just asked for a priceless SN-Drive from this little girl.

He felt as if he just deceived an ignorant child and robbed her of her treasure.

Is that really good? Yun Xi? Aren't you a gentleman? Yun Xi questioned himself in his heart.

How would a gentleman deceive a young girl?

"My SN-Drive... Is the furnace easy to use?" After touching Yun Xi's hand for a while, Golden Crow Princess suddenly asked.

"That is, of course... it's very useful..." Taking out the furnace, Yun Xi skillfully lit the fire and toasted a piece of bread on the furnace. After a while, the bread emitted a pleasant smell.

As he expected, the bread toasted on the furnace (sealed SN-Drive) would naturally contain the taste of the sun.

Well, probably there wouldn't be any bread oven in the world better than this one. Of course, he would also use it to forge his first god weapon in the future. Long live the furnace!

“Gu...” Looking at Yun Xi eating the toasted bread, Golden Crow Princess couldn’t help but swallow.

It looks delicious.

What’s that soft, fragrant, golden food?

Why isn’t the information about this food in my inherited memory?

“Do you want to eat some?” Yun Xi tore off a piece of bread and handed it over to her. Probably in the endless god’s domain, only he would use an SN-Drive to toast bread.

“Yes!” Golden Crow Princess smiled and grabbed the piece of bread from Yun Xi’s hand. She bit it in a very rude way.

WOW! It’s delicious. It’s delicious! It wasn’t only because of the power of the sun inside it, but also because it was the first time she ate food in her life.

The bread itself was a piece of high quality, hero ranked bread, after being toasted on the furnace, even Yun Xi himself was surprised and satisfied with its taste.

Unfortunately, Hua Huo wasn’t here. I really want to share this bread with her.

Yun Xi couldn’t help but miss his childhood sweetheart.

“Is it really so delicious? Can you give me a piece of bread too??” Looking at their pleased expression, White Lotus also felt curious and wanted to taste it.

“Well, it’s just a loaf of bread, how delicious can it be?” Red Lotus disdained.

“All right.” Yun Xi tore off a piece of bread. He hesitated for a moment, then divided it into two pieces and handed them to White Lotus and Red Lotus respectively.

The simple action let White Lotus’ eyes suddenly become gentle.

My prince, you do understand.

That’s right.

Only in this way, is the correct answer.

“Well, bread is bread, I don’t believe that it can contain other tastes.” Red Lotus bit this piece of bread viciously as if she was biting a person.

Incredibly, the taste on the tip of her tongue was a taste she had never tasted in her life.

Yun Xi was actually the only hero ranked Baker in the entire White Lotus Sword Domain, therefore, what Red Lotus tasted was the best bread in the entire White Lotus Sword Domain.

Moreover, this piece of bread was toasted on the furnace, it had naturally contained a trace of the power of the sun.

Even though it was just a tiny bit of the power of the sun, it had made the hero ranked bread become more delicious. So much so, that it was even beyond Yun Xi's imagination.

"Ah-hoo!" Red Lotus gorged, almost biting her tongue.

Why, why is this bread so delicious?

Is it really bread?

None of the bread she had ever tasted was as delicious as this piece of bread.

No, none of the foods she had ever tasted was as delicious as this piece of bread!

Red Lotus didn't like this maid, however, she couldn't deny that Mei's bread was so delicious that she wanted to cry.

She couldn't outrage her conscience and say that it wasn't delicious!

"Delicious..." Red Lotus finally had to make her own comment honestly.

“It’s delicious! It’s delicious!” Compared with Red Lotus, Golden Crow Princess’s response was the most straightforward.

In contrast to her sister, White Lotus nibbled the piece of bread bit by bit, letting the sweet and delicious taste spread out in her mouth, and then slowly entered her throat.

Ah, it’s great to find another advantage my prince has!

My prince’s handmade bread is really wonderful!

“Don’t worry, there’s still a lot of bread.” Looking at White Lotus, Red Lotus, and Golden Crow Princess, Yun Xi was a little embarrassed.

He really didn’t put anything strange in his bread. Why did all three of them look at him with such desire in their eyes, as if they were puppies waiting to be fed?

Taking out a loaf of bread again, Yun Xi skillfully toasted the bread on the furnace.

Just now, it was only his first time using the furnace. His control of the furnace was more or less immature and the temperature wasn’t the best.

This time, he had become more skilled in the use of the furnace.

As a result, the smell of the toasted bread spilled out this time. Not only White Lotus, Red Lotus and the Golden Crow Princess smelt it, but also the people on the street smelt it.

“What is the sweet smell?” A businessman sniffed.

His name was Li Yun, and he swore that although he had traveled around the entire Sky Sword God’s Domain, and as a big businessman, he was even qualified to enjoy the royal banquet in the Great Xia Sword Domain, this was still the first time he smelt such an unusual aroma.

Taking a gentle breath, his body could clearly feel the incredible warmth contained in the smell.

Not only Li Yun, but also all the people on the street and in the stores smelt this irresistible fragrance.

Without exception, everyone was captivated by the smell and could not help drooling.

“This... What’s the scent? Are there any food stores selling this kind of delicacy?”

“No, absolutely not. If there was such a food store, it would have been famous a long time ago!”

“Is it a new food store which opened today? Is it advertising?”

“No, I guess it’s a chef who is publicizing his latest works.”

Soon, someone discovered the source of the aroma.

It wasn't a new food store, nor a chef who temporarily set up a stall on the street.

"Ah, over there!"

"It's from that maid... the thing in her hands..."

"Wait, bread?"

"Uh..." Yun Xi looked at the people flocking to him in embarrassment.

Wait! What is this situation now?

Chapter 518: A Date with the God (2)

"Miss maid, can you sell the bread in your hand to me?" Li Yun was the first who rushed to Yun Xi, "Just tell me the price! Money is never a problem for me!"

How long since the last time I've had this impulse? Just like that royal banquet in the Great Xia Sword Domain, when I first smelt the smell of barbecued male fiery dragon, the cells all over my body couldn't help cheering.

This is it! It must be this! The best food in my dream, which is even more delicious than the meat of the male fiery dragon!

As a famous gourmet and successful businessman in the Sky Sword God's Domain, his dream was to eat different kinds of delicacies every day.

Today, in front of him, there was an unknown delicacy that he had never tasted before. How can he let go of this opportunity?

"Wait a minute. I'll buy it too, Miss maid, make an offer!"

"Don't grab it. What bread is it, Miss maid? Do you have any more?"

"Can you tell me who made it?"

Within a moment, Yun Xi was surrounded by people who wanted to buy his bread, which made him feel both funny and annoyed.

"Er... This bread is not for sale." As a former bread store owner, Yun Xi never thought that his bread would have such a hot day.

Unfortunately, this bread is really not for sale.

Because the bread was made of his hero ranked Baker ability, and it was toasted by the furnace, in fact, it was already a priceless treasure.

Moreover, he could only store up a hundred loaves of bread using his hero ranked ability, all of them were his strategic stockpiles.

At any rate, Yun Xi wouldn't sell his valuable bread to ordinary people. He would only use them in the most important moments.

At this moment, he presented his most precious bread to Golden Sun Crow and the twin witches, it meant that he really regarded them as important.

Even his childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo hadn't enjoyed this treatment, of course, the main reason was that he just obtained the furnace (SN-Drive) from Golden Crow Princess and just began to learn to use it to toast bread.

"Not for sale?" Li Yun looked depressed.

After hearing his words, most people around Yun Xi sighed, and some of them began to inquire about the origin of the bread.

"Miss maid, can you tell me who made the bread?"

"Was this bread made by Miss maid herself?"

"No way. How old is she? I'm sure it's definitely a masterpiece from a real, respectable old master of bread."

“Sorry, I can’t tell you.” Yun Xi shook his head. After all, he couldn’t expose his identity.

“Hum, don’t pretend! I tell you, you must sell it today!” Finally, someone angrily rebuked.

It was a young man dressed in the clothes of the servant of the White Lotus Sword Palace. Anyone could see his arrogance from his attitude.

“Go away, go away! I’m serving for the White Lotus Sword Palace. Mind your business!”

Being shouted at by the young people, almost all the people around him showed sympathy for Yun Xi and quickly walked away.

For most people living in the sword tip area, the White Lotus Sword Palace was the master of their entire world. Even if it was only a servant from the sword palace, they didn’t dare to offend him.

Only several people from other sword domains still looked at them with curiosity.

“White Lotus Sword Palace...” Yun Xi didn’t understand why the young servant looked so proud after saying it. The servant walked to him with a haughty expression and then looked at him, stretching out his hand.

“This bread is good. I’m sure the witches of the sword palace will like it. Give me it.”

Hearing this, people around them couldn’t help but worry more.

In the White Lotus Sword Palace, the witches of the Witch Palace were the most prestigious people, because of this, their servants also thought that they were superior to others outside the sword palace.

His tone when saying “give me it” was so skillful, perhaps he had been used to being rapacious to other people.

“The witches of the sword palace...” Yun Xi subconsciously looked at the twin witches with astonishment.

What was this? Their servant was going to grab the witches and their god’s bread?

“Let go of me! I’ll reveal my true identity and tear this bastard to pieces!” Realizing what a shameful thing she just witnessed, Red Lotus roared with anger.

The person who dares to rob my... the god’s bread must be punished by heaven!

From now on, the Witch Palace wouldn’t recruit any new male servants!

“Don’t worry. You won’t give away it for nothing. Generally, a loaf of bread costs only several copper coins. This bread smells really good, how about I pay ten times the price higher than common bread?” The young servant still didn’t know that his superior, Red Lotus was angrily staring at him. He looked at Yun Xi with a smirking smile and rubbed his fingers in front of Yun Xi.

Li Yun stared at the servant in astonishment.

The smell of the bread is even better than the smell of the barbecued male fiery dragon's meat, can it be bought by ten times the price of common bread?

You're not buying but robbing!

"Sorry, I won't sell this bread. You'd better leave now." Looking at Red Lotus' grumpy face, Yun Xi still wanted to save this young man.

"Everything has a price. If ten times is not enough, how about twenty times the price of common bread? I always think that people should be more sensible in their lives." The young servant shook his finger in the air with a look of discontent.

"My name is Qi Hui. I'm the servant of the Witch Palace. If you give me the bread and let me present it to the twin witches, it would be a great honor for you."

"Oh... Is this the so-called 'robbery'?" Golden Crow Princess opened her eyes wide looking at Qi Hui's confident face.

"No, it's called 'buy by force' ... princess, don't look at this..." Yun Xi felt that it wasn't good for a child to see this scene, even though she was actually a god.

"This bastard, shame on him!" Red Lotus finally couldn't help it and drew out her Red Lotus Holy Sword. Countless sparks spread from the sword and made the temperature of the whole street rise.

"Why, why do I feel hot?"

Qi Hui raised his head and looked at the sky in confusion.

“Let me make it clear. Master Red Lotus and White Lotus want your bread, you have to sell it if you still want to live in the White Lotus Sword Domain!” Finding that today’s weather was somewhat unusual, Qi Hui was somewhat anxious and couldn’t wait to grab Yun Xi’s bread.

“Red Lotus and White Lotus want the bread...” Yun Xi looked at Qi Hui with a strange look.

Well, what he said was indeed correct.

“Yes, I like this bread very much.” Suddenly, White Lotus’ voice appeared behind Qi Hui.

“Yes, this bread is delicious, but I don’t need you to buy it.” Red Lotus gritted her teeth. Since White Lotus had appeared, she didn’t need to hide anymore and naturally appeared beside White Lotus.

“Ha... Ha...” Qi Hui was appalled. His mouth opened and closed like a salted fish stranded on the beach. Big drops of sweat kept streaming down from his forehead.

“I must be too tired... Yes, it’s just a delusion...”

“No, it’s true. Don’t delude yourself...” Yun Xi looked at Qi Hui with sympathy. He had tried to save Qin Hui, but he didn’t realize it and catch the opportunity.

“Wait! I have something to say! I’ve done my best for the Witch Palace. I just want to buy the bread, and I’m going to pay for it!”

“Shame on you! Is this how you do your best for the Witch Palace?” Red Lotus cocked her eyebrows. She usually didn’t take care of the daily affairs of the Witch Palace, but now, it seemed that this was a big mistake.

Sure enough, none of the men in the world are good!

“You’re fired, now, right away!”

“Get out of the sword tip area and you are never allowed to enter this area again!”

Red Lotus brandished her sword, and Qi Hui was instantly blown off to the sky.

Of course, he wouldn’t die, but after falling down to the ground, he had to stay in bed for more than ten days, and the fact that he was punished by the twin witches personally, was really a big blow to his life. Since this was no accident, there was no room for him in the White Lotus Sword Domain anymore.

“Well, I told you to leave.” Yun Xi sighed and shook his head.

“This bread is delicious!” Watching this human comedy with great interest, Golden Crow Prince ate the third piece of bread.

“They are the twin witches!”

“Master Red Lotus and Master White Lotus!”

“Oh, my God!”

People who looked at Yun Xi with sympathy before now looked at Red Lotus and White Lotus in surprise.

“Pat!” Some knelt down first, and just like dominoes that fell down, soon, people around Red Lotus and White Lotus all knelt down. Some old men even prayed to the twin witches in tears.

“Lord witches, please bless my children to pass the Entrance Examination of the Sword Palace next year!”

“Lord White Lotus, please let my children become smart!”

“Lord Red Lotus, please bless my grandson’s wife to have a baby soon!”

Chapter 519: A Date with the God (3)

“Oh, my!”

Looking at the people kneeling on the ground densely around them, Red Lotus was embarrassed.

They were indeed witches, but they were not the witches of gods.

The Witch Palace treated all gods equally and “traded” with gods in the sacrificial ceremony, however, they didn’t believe in any gods.

Unfortunately, the vast majority of ordinary people couldn’t distinguish this.

Witches are the girls who serve the gods.

Witches, equals spokespersons for the gods and they have incredible divine power, which is what witches were in the eyes of most ordinary people. Coupled with the fact that several legend ranked witches were themselves gods, and this impression was made even more exacerbated.

However, the legend ranked god witches were just exceptions. They were as rare as the hair of a phoenix and the horns of a giraffe in the history of witches.

Most witches could only live in reduced circumstances, collecting resources and increased their power via holding the sacrificial ceremony.

As the “Yang Witch” of the twin witches, the most powerful Witch of Battle in the White Lotus Sword Domain, it was easy for Red Lotus to eliminate her enemies. However, she had no clue when dealing with this kind of problem.

“Well, everyone, repeat after me.” White Lotus obviously had a richer experience on dealing with these kinds of affairs.

“A mount needs not be high; it becomes noted when on it fairies dwell.”

“A body of water needs not be deep; it would be ensouled, if a dragon makes it its resting whereabouts.”

“White Lotus is nowhere, it’s right in our hearts.”

The old people kneeling on the ground repeated White Lotus’s words devoutly, and their eyes become brighter and brighter and their spirits were getting better and better.

“Eh...” Yun Xi blinked his eyes and watched the aura spreading quietly between White Lotus and Red Lotus’ hands.

Undoubtedly, this was a high ranked witch skill, which could silently influence all the people around them, it dispelled the darkness in their bodies and sprinkled morning dew like aura from their hands.

“Um... That’s good...” Biting the bread into her mouth, Golden Crow Princess praised them.

Recalling the information he had seen in the Twin Witches’ Seed, Yun Xi understood what secret skill they were using.

White Lotus Holy Land.

White Lotus Holy Land could bless all people within a range of 10 kilometers, which was a unique skill of the twin witches.

After appeasing the believers, White Lotus smiled at Yun Xi and then cast another spell. The four people disappeared on the street in an instant.

“Thank you, Lord White Lotus!”

“Thank you, Your Highness Red Lotus!”

“Long live our twin witches!”

The people who were cured by the White Lotus Holy Land spontaneously shouted the twin witches’ names. If there was no accident, what happened here would soon spread throughout the entire White Lotus Sword Domain in a few days and become the people’s topic of conversation.

Several streets away, White Lotus once again cast the spell she had just used, sitting with her sister Red Lotus, Golden Crow Princess and Yun Xi in a dessert shop.

When it came to dating girls, it’s a must do, to come to a dessert store.

“I really can’t stand that.” After experiencing the incident just now, Red Lotus’s attitude toward Yun Xi was more or less softened.

“Are witches popular?” Golden Crow Princess looked curiously at the twin witches who had just been worshipped as gods.

“They should be... It was just too much.” Red Lotus nodded first, then shook her head.

No matter how much people worshiped them, the situation just now was a bit abnormal, as if people had believed in her and White Lotus as real gods.

They were only sixteen years old, and when they saw the old people kneeling down to them, they could barely accept it.

“We are not gods. We should not be worshipped like that. I always feel sorry for everyone.”

“Sister, you are too serious... They don’t really expect us to satisfy their desires, they just need a ray of hope.”

“As long as there is a glimmer of hope, no matter how slim and impossible that hope is, they will trust it and can create miracles.”

“Compared with real miracles, ‘hope’ is actually the greatest reliance people have.”

“Absolute despair is the most terrible thing.”

White Lotus ordered the desserts and explained why she accepted people’s worship.

“White Lotus, maybe you can really become a god someday.” While enjoying the cold juice, Golden Crow Princess praised White Lotus.

Gods weren't omnipotent, even the West Queen, the creator of the Kunlun God's Domain had her own troubles.

“We witches pursue the power of gods and communicate with them, but we don't have to be gods.”

“God witch is a career from which human beings learn to understand and communicate with gods.”

“Well, here's my banana milk, Mei. Let's enjoy it together.” White Lotus suddenly changed the topic and put a large glass of fruit drink decorated with ice in front of Yun Xi, without giving him any chance to refuse.

“Well, there's only one cup...” Big drops of sweat fell on his forehead as he watched the goblet that was three times bigger than the common goblet.

“But there are two straws!” White Lotus smiled like a child, pointing to a curly straw on the side of the goblet.

Chapter 520: Dessert Time

“This...” Red Lotus looked at her smiling sister in astonishment as if she was a complete stranger.

When did her sister, White Lotus, become so enthusiastic? Her eyes were filled with a satisfied and happy smile!

Where is her shy, timid sister, the sister who always hid behind her?

“Mei, let’s drink together.” White Lotus gave Yun Xi one of the straws and said with a tempting breath.

“Uh...” Yun Xi wanted to say “no”, but somehow when he looked at White Lotus’ eyes, he couldn’t say anything.

I’m just thirsty, just thirsty. I just ate too much bread and need to drink water. Yun Xi blushed hinting at himself and approached the fruit drink.

In front of his eyes, was White Lotus’ delicate face. They were so close that Yun Xi could even feel the breath from White Lotus’ nose.

Which is sweeter, the banana dessert or White Lotus? It was really a question that was hard to answer.

Red Lotus looked at her sister who shared the same cup of fruit drink with Yun Xi and felt a strong sense of loss.

From their childhood, she and White Lotus had never been separated for a second because of the invisible threads on their hands.

They learned together, practiced together, bathed together, helped each other change clothes, and even fell asleep together.

White Lotus and Red Lotus were inseparable, the relationship between them was closer than any sisters.

“Oh, is this really delicious?” Golden Crow Princess watched them with curiosity.

“Great God, if you like it, try it.” White Lotus recommended this drink that could increase her friendship with her.

Yes, isn't drinking from the same cup of dessert the best interpretation of friendship?

“Good!” Golden Crow Princess stood on her chair, laid her hands on the table, opened her little cherry mouth, and held the straw with expectation.

Compared with Golden Crow Princess' tiny body, the table and chair in this dessert store were a little too big, which made Golden Crow Princess' behavior more lovely.

Well, this feeling was like going shopping with your little daughter and buying her food?

If only there wasn't the big sister who was staring at him in a hostile manner, everything would be better.

“Yummy!” After half a cup of banana dessert, Golden Crow Princess satisfactorily returned to her sitting position and tilted her little feet with a happy look on her face.

“You are welcome.” White Lotus said in a natural tone.

“Wait, wait a minute! I... I’m thirsty too!” For the first time, Red Lotus lied in front of White Lotus, and her heartbeat was so strong that she felt that such a lie would be exposed at once.

“Sister, drink.” White Lotus didn’t reveal her sister’s clumsy lie and smiled, handing Red Lotus her straw.

“Coo! Coo! Goo! ” Red Lotus took White Lotus’ place and stared at the maid sitting on the other side, sipping the cold and refreshing fruit drink.

“Don’t rush, sister.” White Lotus chuckled. For the first time, she saw that her sister was so anxious and jealous.

“If my sister can’t drink it up, can you drink with me again?”

Hearing White Lotus’s voice, Red Lotus’s eyes suddenly became serious and she began to sip the remaining half of the fruit drink more diligently.

Are you kidding me? How can I let you be so intimate with White Lotus again?

Even if the god could permit this happening, as a sister, I will never permit it!

Yun Xi looked at Red Lotus and felt a little nervous.

Unlike White Lotus, Red Lotus was a dangerous person whose combat power wasn’t even inferior to Hua Huo in the dream trial.

If White Lotus was a pure and flawless flower, then Red Lotus was absolutely a flame that could burn the sky and heaven.

The personality of the two people seemed to be the same as their names, containing distinct characteristics.

However, apart from these, Red Lotus and White Lotus were exactly the same.

Yes, after such close observation, Yun Xi was surprised to find that Red Lotus and White Lotus were the same, just like the front and back of a mirror.

If it wasn't because their clothes were in different colors, Yun Xi was not confident that he could distinguish them.

"One more straw, please." Just as Red Lotus sipped, White Lotus used her hidden weapon: asking for the third straw!

"All right." The waiter smiled and quickly brought the third straw, which made Red Lotus's mind totally go blank.

"Sip! Sip! Sip!"

In the quiet dessert store, White Lotus' face was filled with a cheerful smile. She enjoys the special three-person dessert together with her sister Red Lotus and Yun Xi.

In the scene reflected by the ice shaking in the goblet, the three people's expressions were different.

Yun Xi was distressed, surprised, and finally helpless.

Red Lotus was shocked and distressed, she wanted to say something but didn't dare say it, she wanted to give up but couldn't give up. Finally, she could only surrender and accept the fact.

Undoubtedly, there was only one winner in the end.

White Lotus.
