

Starchild 521

Chapter 521: The Future Can Be Changed

“Hum!” Red Lotus stared at Yun Xi as if she was a big gray wolf who was looking at a little white rabbit.

Yun Xi kept silent and tried to ignore Red Lotus’ eyes.

“Ah!” Red Lotus sipped the drink and continued to threaten Yun Xi with her evil eyes.

Yun Xi still kept silent and tried to show his goodwill with a smile.

“Crack!” Red Lotus almost bit off the straw. She raised her eyebrows like an angry dragon.

You’re not Hua Huo, you are just a maid!

Why does White Lotus think so much of you? She not only let you attend our precious sacrificial ceremony, but also invited you to share the fruit drink with her.

Even I myself had never come here with White Lotus and shared the same cup of dessert in such an embarrassing way!

I’m so envious of you... No, it’s so uninteresting!

If you can understand what I’m thinking through my eyes, you’d better quickly release the straw and immediately disappear for me!

Yun Xi showed a bitter smile, he really wanted to immediately disappear from here, running away from this witch who was staring at him with killing intention in her eyes.

Unfortunately, this wasn't something he could make a decision on.

If he said that he wanted to leave, White Lotus wouldn't allow it, and more importantly, Golden Crow Princess who was curious about his palm print wouldn't allow it either.

Oh, I really want to become a fish and swim in the vast sea, or turn into a bird, flying in the endless sky.

For the first time, Yun Xi found that "freedom" was such a luxurious right.

"Um... Um..." After studying Yun Xi's palm print, Golden Crow Princess showed a very satisfied smile on her face.

"Great god, you know 'physiognomy'?"

White Lotus looks at Golden Crow Princess' smiling face with curiosity.

"No, but Mei's hands are beautiful, soft and comfortable."

Golden Crow Princess didn't hide her mind at all.

Her little face turned red because of excitement, looking like a pink apple.

“Oh, of course, it’s very soft...” White Lotus narrowed her eyes and wasn’t sure whether Golden Crow Princess was joking or taking it seriously.

She had used her secret skill, the Great Circulation to predict her future with the prince many times, but all she got, was no accurate result every time.

Mortals followed a fixed trajectory of life, therefore, it was easy to predict their future using the Great Circulation.

Hero ranked beings had the ability to modify their own trajectory of life. It was very difficult to predict their futures. The accuracy rate of her Great Circulation was only about 30%.

As for the legend ranked beings, basically no one can predict their future, unless it was a legend ranked being who had the same ability as Ouroboros.

Unfortunately, till now the only well-known hero ranked prophet was Ouroboros, and every time it predicted the future, it would be unable to predict again for many years.

The fact that the Great Circulation couldn’t figure out the future of the prince only meant one thing, that the fate of the prince was far beyond any people’s imagination.

Every time she used the Great Circulation, she could see distinct futures.

In the first future she had seen, the prince would become the owner of a small bread store and give up his childhood, marrying three or four girls in the small town, having a lot of children with them.

And this was also the commonest and most deceptive future.

In the second future, it seemed that at the age of eighteen, he would meet a miss of a rich family and fall in love with her at first sight. After that, he would give up his childhood sweethearts and leave the small town, and then get involved in the inheritance dispute of a country and become the lover of a queen.

Incidentally, this queen was now the leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue.

In the third future, he would be lost in the mountains and then accidentally meet a girl who had just awakened her fighting talent. He would join the team formed by the girl and becomes an excellent supporter. Finally, he and the girl would get married and travel around the world.

The girl who saved the prince in the third future was now also in the Starwing Knights. Her name was Xiao Cao.

White Lotus had calculated thirty-seven different futures. It could be said that every girl of Starwing Knights had a special relationship in their future with the prince.

In these futures, the prince's identity was constantly changing, but there was only one thing unchanged.

Amongst all the futures, the prince would marry more than one girl.

Amongst all the futures, his invincible childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo would become a loser, she would be knocked out of the competition even before the competition began.

Finally, no matter which future it was, she and her sister didn't even appear once.

Judging from this, White Lotus guessed that these futures may have existed in the past, but they must all be over now.

From the moment they and the prince met in the dark forest, the wheel of fate had been turned to a completely different direction.

It also meant that the futures she observed were just the futures that existed in the past.

When the twin witches and the prince encountered each other, their futures had been forever changed.

No, maybe even earlier, their fate had been connected with the prince.

The more White Lotus observed the prince, the more threads of fate she could find that were being projected from all directions of the vast sky, twining around the prince.

This also led to a result that anyone who wanted to predict the prince's fate couldn't get the right answer.

No one, not even a god, could figure out all his threads of fate.

Well, is this also a talent of the prince?

Chapter 522: The Bell of the Seven Towers

In the dessert store, Yun Xi, White Lotus, and Red Lotus finally finished the fruit drink, and he could finally run away from Red Lotus' murderous eyes.

Of course, it was just Yun Xi's imagination.

His name, "Mei" had been recorded on Red Lotus' blacklist as the second target.

What? Do you want to know who the first person is on the list?

Of course, it was the prince who stole her sister's first kiss in the dream!

Because of him, Red Lotus was extremely sensitive to any clues related to the prince. If she could, she would immediately pull the prince out of the dream right now, and burn him to death with fire.

Your sister is dangerous... Yun Xi communicated with White Lotus through his eyes.

Well, it won't be a big problem as long as you don't tell her the truth... In front of her sister, White Lotus and Yun Xi sent speechless messages with their eyes.

Red Lotus had a terrible foreboding, which was very, very bad.

The problem is, she couldn't find the problem!

At present, the maid named Mei did not have any physical contact with White Lotus. She was just helping Golden Crow Princess to comb her long hair. She only looked at White Lotus occasionally, which wasn't a good reason for her to look for trouble.

White Lotus squinted and looked softly at the maid who was helping Golden Crow Princess comb her hair. Everything seemed normal.

However, in this normal situation, Red Lotus has noticed some abnormalities.

There was a tacit understanding between them! When the maid occasionally looked up, her sister would also look at her as well.

Red Lotus sensed a very strange, but also familiar feeling from it.

It was an intuition of twins.

When White Lotus was happy, Red Lotus would be happy.

When White Lotus was lost, Red Lotus wouldn't laugh either.

The twins of fate shared the same fate and life, heart and soul.

When White Lotus said that she liked the prince in their dream, Red Lotus never regarded it as a joke, because she really felt the happiness, sweetness, and even some delusions that White Lotus should not have even in her heart!

Comparing herself with White Lotus, who was always introverted and not good at expressing her true feelings, Red Lotus was the type that couldn't hide the emotions in her heart at all.

Straightforward, enthusiastic, impulsive, this was her character. She was like a burning flame, burning herself, but it was also easy for her to hurt others.

She couldn't be a witch like White Lotus, she was a witch fighting with her sword!

No, I shouldn't just look at this going on!

Red Lotus instinctively tried to stop them.

Unfortunately, White Lotus also knew her sister well. She subconsciously noticed Red Lotus' plan.

Before Red Lotus did anything, she had stopped having any eye contact with Yun Xi.

It's a pity, but the sweet time with my prince is over.

Us twin sisters liked the same person at the same time, and was easy to be found out, only my sister herself was still desperately trying to refuse to accept the reality.

For the future of my sister and the prince, let's take it easy. Next time, I'd better do it when my sister is sleeping.

White Lotus pinched her fingers and soon worked out the next love plan.

Well, that was the little trick of a witch who mastered the Great Circulation.

And soon, there will be a big event that would even shock my sister.

White Lotus calculated the time and found that it was coming.

“Ding!”

The first sound was from the Sky Tower, which was the sound of the beginning.

The second sound came from the God Tower, which was the sound of ensemble.

The third sound was from the Dragon Tower, which was a hymn of praise.

From the Sky Tower, the God Tower, the Dragon Tower, and all the other towers in the endless god's domains all echoed the bell that shocked souls.

From the easternmost peak of the Kunlun God's Domain to the northernmost dragon nest in the Dragon God's Domain.

From the city of Sigil where gods lived to the city of ghosts, which was covered by endless darkness.

Even in the sea of chaos, the bell could be heard.

"What is this?" Red Lotus was really shocked. She could not help but stand up.

One, two, three, four ... seven. A total of seven bells.

Similar bells had appeared in the history of the endless god's domain before, all the civilizations connected by the star bridges understood the meaning of the bells.

Naturally, as the future master of the White Lotus Sword Domain, Red Lotus knew it well.

"Seven bells... the same like the time when Casina became the 'legend'..." Red Lotus' body was trembling.

Seven bells represented an announcement to the entire endless god's domain, a new legend had appeared.

No, it couldn't be just a common legend ranked being, but a legend above all legend ranked beings!

Only those who created unthinkable myths among the seven towers were entitled to let the seven towers play the bell of blessing at the same time.

Last time, the person who achieved this was Casina!

In the Battle God's Championship Contest, she defeated all her opponents and became the legend of the championship contest.

Now, who, which legend ranked creature, had created a new myth and been recognized by the seven towers?

Chapter 523: Unparalleled

When the first bell echoed in the endless god's domains, countless ancient, sacred and evil beings raised their heads at the same time.

All strong beings knew its meaning.

It wasn't something that any individual or force, even a god could control.

Only the legend above all legends could be recognized by the seven towers at the same time!

Under an ancient tree, the three goddesses sat on the right hand of the one-eyed old man, Norn the God of Wisdom and looked at the light of the God Tower.

At this moment, it was time to witness the birth of a new legend, a myth that shone like Casina the Battle God.

“The bells of the seven towers ring only for one person, my Casina, are you really Casina?”

In the dragon’s nest of the Dragon God’s Domain, Orfina woke up from her long sleep and murmured listening to the bells.

“Sure enough, the seven towers also acknowledged that this is a new myth.”

“Unexpectedly, in such a short period of time, the seven towers would recognize two legends.”

“The Eastern God’s Domain is really an incredible place!”

“Ha-ha, let’s pay tribute to the new legend!”

Realizing that they had witnessed the birth of the new myth with their own eyes, all the legend ranked Star Go players applauded in their own ways.

“Stars, explode!”

In the sea of chaos, Black Mage detonated 13 stars that had reached the end of their lives.

“My legion, salute!” Duke Roman raised his arms and shouted in front of his legion.

“Benefactor, you are predestined with Buddha! Amitabha!”

In the holy place of Buddha, Maha Mystery chanted a mantra.

“Time in the dragon, expectation in the dragon, perplexity in the dragon, reality in the dragon, illusion in the dragon, fate in the dragon, reason in the dragon, love in the dragon.”

“If love songs are sounded on the quiet earth, the gears will turn wildly and open up the endless fate. Resurrect and sing! For our love, for our story, for our eternal lover!”

On the gemstone-cast planet, Orfina sang heartily, describing her thoughts for her lover and her vision for the future.

Even if they were separated by vast worlds, she had decided that she would cross the star sea again and go to her lover’s side.

In the Mechanus God’s Domain, suddenly appeared numerous meaningless symbols in the quantum network. They were the radio waves released by Cyber Elf Alpha, they were the whispers of the newborn cyber god.

“BBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBB!”

“LLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLL!”

“23333333333333333333!”

“La la la la la la la la la la la la la!”

In the God Crystal, the silver-haired girl sang aloud. The voice she uttered was not within the range of a human’s ears, naturally, they wouldn’t be understood by human beings.

They were the mysterious sounds of countless data. They were the sounds plucked by the strings used to analyze the basic particles of the world. It was an electronic song that only Cyber Elf Alpha could create and sing.

The existences who could understand this song and give feedback were only the quadrant computers in different planets.

Alpha’s song was injecting new power into these huge quadrant computers, unlocking their wisdom and making them evolve to be a new kind of electronic intelligent lives.

Gods had their own people, as the only electronic god in the endless god’s domains, Cyber Elf Alpha was arousing her people.

The quadrant computers were her people. They absorbed the soul fragments emanating from Alpha’s song and started to evolve their own souls.

The birth of Cyber Elf Alpha was like the first ray of light on the horizon, giving birth to the quadrant computers.

At this moment, Alpha was trying to let her opponent, the legend she wanted to challenge hear her voice in this manner.

The bells of the seven towers would only echo for the most outstanding and legendary people in the endless god's domain.

The last person who obtained this glory was Casina the Battle God.

Today, the glory was obtained by the person who defeated all wise men on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

The Master of Star Go – A Cloud in the Sky (Yun Xi).

Chapter 524: The Name of the Star Go Master

“The Sky Tower!”

“The Master of Star Go!”

“The Master of Star Go achieved 100 victories in a row and defeated all legend ranked opponents!”

One message after another came from the Sky Tower. The myth Yun Xi created on the chessboard finally turned into a huge tsunami-like impact, spreading throughout the endless worlds that were connected by all the star bridges.

The reason why it wasn't announced immediately was that this achievement needed to be recognized by all seven towers. Only after being examined and verified many times, would it be officially announced throughout the endless god's domains.

Today was the day when the title "The Master of Star Go" was unanimously recognized by the seven towers and announced to everyone.

Most mysteriously, even now, no one knew his true identity, everyone only knew his code name on the Starry Sky Chessboard, "A Cloud In the Sky".

However, this wouldn't prevent the seven towers from giving him notification of the highest glory in the endless god's domains.

"The Master of Star Go! Someone actually achieved such a title!" Even Red Lotus, who knew nothing about Star Go, knew how difficult it was to be a formal Star Go player, not to mention to be called "the Master of Star Go".

"I heard that he was a hermit before he appeared in front of the public."

"This time, there was also a cyber god, Alpha who achieved 70 victories in a row on the Starry Sky Chessboard, but she was also defeated by the Master of Star Go!" White Lotus exclaimed with respect.

White Lotus also played Star Go, so she had known this news early. Anyone who liked to play Star Go had known about the miracle created by "A Cloud in the Sky" before the first bell.

“Because of him, the Starry Sky Chessboard was finally officially opened to players, and the integral rule also changed.”

“The Master of Star Go is the only chess player above 10 star points, only the chess players who have earned 10 star points can challenge him.”

Watching White Lotus’ excited face while she was talking, Yun Xi had a kind of delusion as if he had been separated from the world.

He just went to play the chess game, why did the seven towers make such an announcement for him?

Isn’t Star Go just a simple and easy-to-understand game?

“Mei... You are awesome...” Golden Crow Princess was probably the only person who knew that Yun Xi was the Master of Star Go here, who was summoned by him on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

“No... I just had a bit of good luck... My teacher thought that I have a talent, so I went there...” Up to now, Yun Xi still thought that it was arranged by Casina for him to play on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

Without Casina’s identity, he was not even qualified to enter the Sky Tower, let alone play chess on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

“Well, where did you go?” White Lotus asked with curiosity.

“That’s, I and Mei did this and that, beat down our opponents like this and that!”

Golden Crow Princess waved her little hand happily as if she had returned to the moment she first met Yun Xi on the chessboard.

“It was a game. It was a simple game.” Yun Xi quickly said.

“Well, it was a very interesting game. Mei is the best.” Golden Crow Princess took Yun Xi’s hand with a happy look.

“How about playing that game with me next time, Mei?” White Lotus smiled at Yun Xi, which made Yun Xi sweat profusely.

He felt as if her gentle eyes had seen through everything. Imagination, it must be just my imagination!

“Bang!”

“Boom!”

“Crack! Crack! “Crack!”

In the sky, different colored fireworks began to burst out one after another.

Not only in the White Lotus Sword Domain, but all over the god’s domains, there were also innumerable people who spontaneously set off fireworks for the Master of Star Go.

Especially in the area covered by the Sky Tower, all god's domains had fallen into a festival-like fever, just as last time, the bell of the seven towers echoed for Casina the Battle God.

For ordinary people, it was a rare big event to hear the bell of the seven towers.

When Casina was awarded the title "Battle God", many famous families' ancestors were still babies.

In the Water God's Fantasy Island, Casina and Orfina were sneaking into the basement of the Water God temple, trying to find Hydra's poisonous wine.

They also heard the announcement, and they were also shocked by it.

"The Master of Star Go! So someone can actually take the title of that difficult game!"

"Hiccup... That damn place is full of the trajectories of stars... I won't ever go there even if I die!" In her human form, Orfina was laying down in Casina's arms. The drunken two looked like a pair of good sisters in this situation.

"I have the same feeling, I won't play Star Go in my life, even if it's at Orfina's request!" The drunken Battle God, Casina raised the poisonous wine in her hand and said so.

In the haze of drunkenness, Casina always felt as if she had forgotten something.

Well, what is it?

Out of the dessert store, Yun Xi found that the birth of the Master of Star Go was more shocking than he had imagined.

Almost all the streets were in some kind of indescribable fanaticism. One after another, stores opened their doors and displayed all kinds of delicacies and drinks without reservation.

“Free, free, all free!”

“In order to celebrate the birth of the Star Go Master, all the drinks and food today are free!”

“Come here, come here! Roast lamb, roast cattle, roast camel! All free to eat!”

This was the loudest cry that could be heard. The businessmen who always fought over the smallest trifles all became generous today.

“Once in a thousand years! I didn’t expect to hear the bell of the seven towers once in my lifetime.”

“Which legend ranked person is he? It’s amazing!”

“Hurry up, today is absolutely a day of luck, it’s a good day to have a baby.”

“Star Go, I will also let my children learn Star Go!”

What Yun Xi saw and heard now was only a small corner in the sword tip area of the entire White Lotus Sword Domain.

He could never imagine what the title “Master of Star Go” represented for the Sky Sword God’s Domain.

At this moment, many people stayed awake all night just to study his steps on the Starry Sky Chessboard.

When he strolled around the streets, countless wise men who had white hair, including many gods.

“Tengen! Tengen! Tengen!”

“Both Cyber Elf Alpha and the Master of Star Go placed their first chess piece onto tengen. Is it really the best move?”

“I must figure out the secret behind it!”

In the past, no one paid attention to tengen, but now, all chess players went crazy for it.

The God of Wisdom.

Orfina the Ruby Dragon.

Black Mage.

Duke Rome.

Maha Mystery.

Even Cyber Elf Alpha herself was studying it, and they were surprised by the terrible power of “Starburst” every time.

After watching the duel between Cyber Elf Alpha and A Cloud in the Sky, after witnessing the terrible “Starburst”, looking back on the Master of Star Go’s games before, even his common moves became mysterious in their eyes.

“It was so arrogant of me to think that I had an advantage and could even defeat the Master of Star Go.” Black Mage sighed.

The Master of Star Go really had a good temper. He could actually patiently play the game with me.

“Casina, Casina, Casina! Why don’t you tell me!” Orfina rolled on the ground, acting like a spoiled child.

“In the results of the 377,632 calculations, my winning probability is always zero.”

Looking at the calculation results in front of her, Alpha's clear eyes were filled with sorrow.

She had evolved all the quadrant computers and upgraded her calculator program, but no matter how she calculated, her winning probability was still zero.

"This terrible talent... Why had I never heard of it?"

"At the end, which legend ranked god he is? Is he a primitive God of the ancient Eastern God's Domain?"

"A Cloud in the Sky, what's the meaning of this name?"

"Is his true body a cloud?"

Overnight, the name of the Master of Star Go resounded through the endless god's domains.

"Teacher Casina, this joke is just too big..." Looking at the streets and the fireworks exploding in the sky, Yun Xi's eyes became empty as if he had become a great monk.

Chapter 525: Robin And Yun Que

Even in the daylight, there were places where the sun couldn't shine.

As long as there were people, there would be darkness, there would be places where sunshine couldn't reach.

Even in such a busy festival, there was still such a quiet place, as if it had been forgotten by the world.
“Fireworks, festivals, celebrations.”

Wrapped in a dark cloak, her body almost completely merged with the shadows under the eaves. The elf girl watched the fireworks exploding in the sky. She just paused a little and walked into the ruins.
“Obsidian, open the door.” Speaking out her code name, the dark elf girl opened the door hidden in the ruins, only a few people could open the door in all of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

This was the secret stronghold set up by the Ten Leaves Alliance, which provided logistical supplies and intelligence for the elites of the Ten Leaves Alliance.

Originally, White Lotus Sword Domain was not qualified to let the Ten Leaves Alliance set up a stronghold, but because of the existence of a certain someone, White Lotus Sword Domain had become special.

The magic door hidden in the ruins was only opened by those who were stained with blood.

Behind the door was an open hall, which didn't exist anywhere in the ruins. Only those who could open the door could get here and disappear completely from the White Lotus Sword Domain if necessary.

However, what slightly surprised the dark elf girl was that there was another person here this time.

The person wore a scarlet cloak, like being dyed red by blood, emitting an ominous odor. Several blue-backed and red-breasted birds perched on the red cloak and emitted a faint red light from time to time.

When Obsidian stepped into the stronghold, the birds seemed to wake up and spread their wings around the figure covered by the bright red cloak, making a crisp and melodious song.

It was a cruel, tragic, cold ballad, which was spoken by these birds in a melodious and beautiful voice.

Who killed Ck Robin?

I, said the Sparrow, with my bow and arrow,

I killed Ck Robin.

Who saw her die?

I, said the Fly, with my little eye,

I saw her die.

Who caught her blood?

I, said the Fish, with my little dish,

I caught her blood.

Who'll make the shroud?

I, said the Beetle, with my thread and needle,

I'll make the shroud.

Who'll dig her grave?

I, said the Owl, with my little trowel,

I'll dig her grave.

Who'll be the parson?

I, said the Rook, with my little book,

I'll be the parson.

Who'll be the clerk?

I, said the Lark, if it's not in the dark,

I'll be the clerk.

Who'll carry the link?

I, said the Linnet,

I'll fetch it in a minute,

I'll carry the link.

Who'll be chief mourner?

I, said the Dove,

I mourn for my love,

I'll be chief mourner.

Who'll carry the coffin?

I, said the Kite, if it's not through the night,

I'll carry the coffin.

Who'll bear the pall?

We, said the Wren, both the ck and the hen,

We'll bear the pall.

Who'll sing a psalm?

I, said the Thrush, as she sat on a bush,

I'll sing a psalm.

Who'll toll the bell?

I, said the Bull, because I can pull,

I'll toll the bell.

All the birds of the air fell a-sighing and a-sobbing, when they heard the bell toll for poor Ck Robin.

Notice: notice to all people concerned, next time in Bird Court,

The sparrow will be judged. "Blood Robin, the tenth hero ranked person in the Eastern God's Domain," said Obsidian in a solemn tone, looking at the figure with her back to herself, surrounded by birds.

The Ten Leaves Alliance had countless hero ranked killers, Obsidian clearly knew what "one of the top 10 killers" meant.

How could such a hero ranked killer come to such a remote sword domain? "Black Obsidian, the 1st killer in the mortal rank, whose success rate of missions is 100%." The figure in the red cloak smiled softly. "But that's the past. Have you reached the hero rank now?" "Then you should make a choice." "Golden Branch, Jade Leaves, or Blood Stamen?" "...". Obsidian was silent for a moment. She didn't expect that it would happen so soon. Originally, she thought she would make this choice after she returned to Western God's Domain.

The killers of the Ten Leaves Alliance didn't have any restrictions before they reached the hero rank, and once they reached the hero rank, they would have to make their own choices.

Basically, choosing Golden Branch could be regarded as giving up the identity of an assassin. The Ten Leaves Alliance would arrange a perfect identity for you to appear in the sun.

This identity could be a princess, prince, or the heir of a rich family, becoming the spokesman of the Ten Leaves Alliance in the bright world under the sun.

Golden Branch represented endless light, wealth, and living far from the battlefield. Many killers trained by the Ten Leaves Alliance were eager to leave the darkness and eventually become a Golden Branch.

Choosing Jade Leaves also meant that you give up one's identity as an assassin, becoming a core member of the Ten Leaves Alliance, pledging allegiance to the Supreme Ten Leaves.

Only those who had become Jade Leaves would gain 100% confidence in the Ten Leaves Alliance, becoming members of the real Ten Leaves Alliance and be taught various powerful secret skills by the alliance.

Among the killers trained by the Ten Leaves Alliance, more than 60% of them would choose to become a Golden Branch, and about 30% of them would choose to be a Jade Leaves.

It was precisely because of this special mechanism, that the Ten Leaves Alliance had great influence on both the bright side and the dark side of the world. It was one of the few super organizations in the endless god's domains.

Only a small number of killers would choose the third way: Blood Stamen.

This road represented endless killing and blood. Only the most determined or abnormal person would choose this road.

Golden Branch was the glorious road.

Jade Leaves was the way of order.

Blood Stamen was the way of killing. "I... Choose... Blood Stamen."

She didn't hesitate when she said it. From the moment she wore the crown of sin in the Water God's World and drew out the sword of blood, she had naturally given up being a Golden Branch or Jade Leaves member.

She couldn't be a good person.

The justice she held needed to be protected by a stronger force!

Chapter 526: Robins And Yun Que (2)

“Clap! Clap!!” Robin clapped her hands gently.

“Welcome to the road of blood, young bird, do you think of your new code?”

Obsidian took a deep breath. Once you choose the Blood Stamen, you need to choose a brand new code to declare your separation from your identity when you were still a mortal.

According to the Convention of the Ten Leaves Alliance, this code is mostly related to birds.

At present, the code name of the strongest killer of the Ten Leaves Alliance was “God Phoenix”. No one had ever seen his/her real body, no one knew his/her deeds, he/she just appeared and became the strongest killer.

“My new code name will be... Yun Que (skylark).”

Why did I choose this code? Originally, I was planned to be called “Black Feather” once I reached the hero rank.

Perhaps it was for the memory of that person.

“Yun Hai (cloud sea)” and “Yun Que (skylark)”, the two people who once went hand in hand, but ultimately slid past each other

“Yun Que... I didn't expect you would choose that master's name as your code name.”

“Well, congratulations, from now on, you are the new Blood Stamen of the Ten Leaves Alliance.”

“As a witness, I declare that from now on, your code name is Yun Que.”

“A lark in the sky, a sad bird.”

Robin gazed at Obsidian who had announced her new code. Her bloody cloak caressed the bloodstone in the base, modifying Obsidian's code name.

Choosing the road of Blood Stamens meant that she could never go back.

A blood-colored key appeared on the bright red stone and automatically locked Obsidian's body.

“For whom is the door of blood opened?”

“Are you, you or you?”

“Birds in nightmares have no wings.”

“There is no hope for those who give up the Golden Branch and the Jade Leaves.”

As if cursed, the key made a mockery sound, as if telling Obsidian that her choice was totally wrong.

Those who chose Blood Stamen would no longer have the possibility of returning to the world under the sun, but would continue to fall deeper and deeper into the darkness, unable to turn back.

“I know...” Obsidian reached out her hand and grasped the blood-red key.

Once she decided something, she would never regret it.

No pain, no gain. She believed that this was the price she must pay.

“Another fool.”

“Unfortunately, there are so many fools in the world.”

“Those who open this door are ready to go to hell.”

“Only blood can witness the highest crown!”

The moment Obsidian grabbed the blood-red key, countless lights of blood interlaced, covering her tiny body, and then took her away.

The road of blood trial has begun.

Those who chose Blood Stamen would get the strength they desire from this road, but at the same time, they would pay a huge price.

“The same choice... The road of Blood Stamen is not easy to follow.” After Obsidian was taken away by the blood-red key, Robin shrugged her shoulders and began to weave the outline of the target this time.

Birds flew over Robin’s head and sang ominous nursery rhymes.

“He’s there, he’s here, he’s in many places, but he’s never seen himself.”

“Why, why, why is he so careful, why nobody can see him, clearly he is here.”

“He has a sun-like smile, he has jewel-like long hair, he has pearl-like beautiful jewelry, he is beautiful and lovely, he is the princess above all princesses, he is the prince above all princes.”

“Oh, poor princess, his life is destined to be calamitous.”

“Oh, poor prince, he always wants to run away from the wedding.”

“He can’t run away, he can’t run away, he can’t run away. He’ll have a bloody ending, and nobody can save him.”

Robin frowned and looked at the description of the target in her note.

This was her killing magic “The Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin”. The killed robin was full of hatred for the world, in order to revenge the sparrow who killed it, it created this magic.

According to the robin’s prophecy, she could weave a rough outline of the target, and even lock the target’s position, so that the death curse would be completed silently.

However, the target this time was just too strange.

In the task she received, the target was a 16-year-old boy who killed a disciple of the Heaven’s Road Palace.

However, how could it be possible that a sixteen-year-old boy had a sun-like smile, jewel-like long hair, and pearl-like beautiful jewelry?

The princess above all princesses, the prince above all princes, what does this mean?

Moreover, according to the prophecy, even if Robin did nothing, this unlucky boy wouldn’t live long.

Robin's prophecy could only bring misery, it would never bring happiness to people.

Like her, she was cursed by her fate. She once yearned for the bright world of Golden Branches and Jade Leaves, but finally, she stepped onto the road of Blood Stamen.

Robin brought her strength and glory.

At the same time, it was blood, it was killing.

"Well, it's time to go."

"Let me see where the prince is and who he is."

Pushing open the door in the ruins, the original bloody cloak suddenly unfolded, revealing the seemingly plain face.

However, if any people looked at her at this time, they would find that her glittering, translucent, jewel-like pupils gave them a feeling of strangeness.

Chapter 527: The Beginning of the Assassination

Yun Xi stopped and looked at the bright red figure coming out of the corner of the street.

Looking at her plain face, apart from a few blue-backed red-breasted birds on her shoulders, he could hardly find any unique features from her appearance.

Yun Xi didn't know why he suddenly noticed this woman. Although the red cloak was slightly conspicuous, she didn't have any other special features.

Her height was average, her shoulder width was average, her chest was average, her face was average.

All of her features were ordinary. However, only her eyes were full of color, like a pair of gemstones lost deep in the water.

Perhaps it was because all the other features were average which made her eyes become particularly noticeable?

"The princess above all princesses, the prince above all princes." Robin stopped at a corner of the street and gazed at the target.

She wore golden and red gorgeous clothes, her hair was like golden sun, her gorgeous hair ornaments reflected golden lights, and her face was apparently beyond the standard of mortals.

Robin's prophecy didn't give her the exact location of the target, but gave her a general scope and characteristics, which needed her to find the right target herself.

At this moment, that answer was clear.

Indeed, this target could be called the princess above all princesses and the prince above all princes. Although she looked too young, but referring to some races whose children's physical development was particularly slow, it seemed that "sixteen years old" was acceptable.

The most important thing was, no one in the range of Robin's prophecy was more like the "sun" than this target.

At this age, the concept of gender was also vague, it was hard to determine whether the target was a girl or a boy in lovely clothes.

So, is this boy (girl) the target she must kill?

She felt that there was something wrong. Originally, Heaven's Road Palace used a special method to trace the location of the target, but they failed halfway for some unknown reason, so this task was posted to the Ten Leaves Alliance.

Indeed, the target in the task was a 16 years old boy who could defeat a 3rd ranked green hippo, so the boy may have reached the hero rank.

Has she reached the hero rank? Robin frowned and looked at Golden Crow Princess.

She was not sure about the accuracy of the information. It seemed that there were some mistakes in the information submitted by Heaven's Road Palace.

It was hard to describe that feeling, the girl looked as if she even lacked the strength to truss up a chicken, but when Robin looked at her, she felt an overwhelming sense of pressure.

Perhaps, she hadn't obtained that kind of power, but when she grew up in the future, she would inevitably become unimaginably strong!

Moreover, even now, it was almost impossible to assassinate her. Robin could clearly feel that there was some very powerful force that was protecting this golden-haired girl and the maid beside her.

How did the disciple of the Heaven's Road Palace provoke such a person? It was not surprising that he was killed by her.

If she hadn't taken this task, no one in the Ten Leaves Alliance would have been able to accomplish it.

She would use her secret skill, "the Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin", which had never failed before.

The mode of this secret skill was a mystery, and many people who published tasks were reluctant to pay her because in their eyes, the death of the targets had zero relationships with her.

Almost all the targets killed by Robin were killed by accidents.

An invincible general died of the king's suspicion.

A wise counselor died from the jealousy of his colleagues.

A romantic poet died in a duel with his rival.

All of them died in accidents, therefore, nobody could prove that their death was because of Robin.

Her secret skill was too strange and beyond the imaginations of ordinary people.

Over time, even other killers kept away from Robin, and the name of "Blood Robin" had become a taboo in all of the dark world of assassins.

"The Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin" was such a terrifying secret skill for assassinating, and her code name "Robin" was from the Robins on her shoulders.

"How to kill the target?" Robin asked the birds on her shoulders.

Her assassination had entered the second stage.

"He's there. He wants to be a bird and fly freely in the sky."

"He wants to be a fish and swims happily in the ocean."

"Why, why? He can go everywhere, but he can't go anywhere?"

"Is it a conspiracy or an invisible chain that binds him?"

Robins sang melancholy songs on her shoulders.

“Go, go, become his wings, become his tail, fly together with him, swim together with him.”

“Then, watch him fall down, fall down, fall down fiercely!”

“In that case, he will surely die.”

Robin hesitated for a moment. This prediction was slightly strange, but she believed the birds more than anyone else.

Only misery was true.

There was no happiness in this world for her, so as long as she approached any person, the person would inevitably take a wrong turn into a miserable life.

Chapter 528: Robin's Approach

“Gee?... She... is walking to us?” Yun Xi looked at the woman and found that she was walking towards them.

Clearly, she was coming for him.

What should I do?

Do I need to tell the twin witches? I feel that there is something strange.

“White Lotus, is she an enemy?” Red Lotus also noticed the woman.

Ordinary people wouldn't even have the thought of approaching Golden Crow Princess in their minds. After all, she was a god, her aura and the special magic White Lotus and Red Lotus cast on her body were enough to drive away ordinary people.

This woman in a red cloak was obviously unusual.

“No, she looks like a colleague.” White Lotus pinched her finger and predicted. She found that the woman in the bright red cloak didn't seem hostile or murderous.

The spiritual aura around her body was so low that she looked as if she had been cursed and wrapped in gloom.

From White Lotus's point of view, this was the sign of having used a kind of special divination too many times, which had overdrawn her vitality and even her future.

This was the inevitable price to pay for peeping into destiny. Even though Ouroboros was a strong fantastic creature, it couldn't often observe the future, let alone ordinary augurs.

White Lotus's “Great Circulation” wasn't a kind of divination, but a result achieved by “calculation”. Even so, she needed to pay a huge price for it. If it wasn't because her mentality was far stronger than others, it wouldn't be possible for her to master this secret skill.

“Hello, I’m an augur, do you need my service?” Robin naturally walked to Yun Xi and didn’t even take a glance at Golden Crow Princess.

Usually, she wouldn’t directly contact her target but start from the people around the target. This was Robin’s killing method.

There was no need to kill, and she held no hostility. This was the reason why she could accomplish the task without being noticed every time.

Who could have imagined that she didn’t need to dirty her hands when she was killing?

Since she didn’t have to do it herself, she naturally didn’t need to be hostile and murderous to the target. She could even approach the target with goodwill.

Her secret skill, “The Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin” had three stages.

The first stage was to find the target, predict the outline of the target and then write it in a notebook, making it become an unfortunate nursery rhyme.

The second stage was to approach the target, find out the target’s weakness and characteristics, after that, she would begin to weave the target’s death according to the nursery rhymes on the notebook.

As for the third stage, it would naturally happen, leading the target to an end full of blood and unfortunate death.

Starting with the unfortunate nursery rhymes sung by the birds, the target's death would become destined. So far, the longest any of her target's survived was 100 days.

She didn't kill the target with her own hands, but just came and witnessed the target's inevitable death.

Apart from legend ranked beings, who wouldn't be affected by her secret skill at all, no one could survive from her curse.

If it wasn't because it was too difficult to master this secret skill, it may be the most horrible killing secret skill in the hero rank.

"Oh, divination?" Yun Xi looked curiously at the mysterious woman in a bright red cloak.

So, she was an augur.

"Sure enough, she is a colleague." White Lotus didn't feel surprised. She and Red Lotus appeared in front of Robin together.

In contrast, the people on the street still couldn't see them.

This was White Lotus' strengthened hidden skill. She showed herself in front of the augur, because she was curious about the prediction this augur would make.

There was no doubt that this augur had true skill and genuine knowledge. Therefore, her divination would be precious.

Ordinary people thought that augurs could predict all futures, but it was just a delusion.

No one could really predict the future, not even gods. Even if the augur only predicted a very small part of the future, the augur would also need to pay a great price. The more specific the future was, the higher the cost would be.

Therefore, most powerful augurs rarely predicted the future.

However, none of the human beings and other races weren't curious about their future. In order to see the future, they dared to trample on all the rules and pay all the costs.

Curiosity was probably the original sin of all intelligent lives, even gods weren't exceptions.

It was said that the Twilight of the Gods was because of a prophecy.

White Lotus wanted to know what kind of future this unknown hero ranked augur had seen, so that she approached Golden Crow Princess actively.

It should be impossible to prophesy about the future of Golden Crow Princess.

Her "Great Circulation" couldn't predict anything about Golden Crow Princess, because it was beyond her limit.

However, she predicted by using “calculation”. Among the factions of prophecy, there was another faction, which was commonly known as “mysterious prediction”.

The augurs of this faction may have a poor computational ability, but they had an instinctive intuition and could often make predictions that couldn't be calculated.

If there was a one-millionth possibility that a future would happen, her “Great Circulation” would totally ignore this future.

However, the augurs of “mysterious prediction” could often catch this one-millionth possibility and believed that it would happen for no reason.

Chapter 529: Misery Loves Company

In this way, there would be a strange phenomenon.

Out of 99% of predictions building on “calculation”, calculation was more accurate than “mysterious predictions”.

For example, if it was to predict the future of a world, White Lotus could predict the development of the cultivation in the world, the degenerating stage of the world, and even the destruction of the world.

If a world entered the stage that no mana existed, and all fantastic creatures had died, the probability of the death of that world would be 100%. In theory, there would be no other possibility at all.

However, the augurs of “mysterious predictions” could discover some incredible futures.

For example, the world would be saved by a hero who should never have appeared, married all the fantastic creatures in this world, and let the entire world renew again.

In White Lotus' eyes, this possibility didn't even exist, but in the eyes of the augurs of "mysterious prediction", even if such a thing only appeared once, the truth would no longer be the truth, "calculation" was still defective.

Even if the augurs of "calculation" hated it and even shouted out,

"That's impossible!"

"This is unrealistic!"

"This future will never happen!"

There was still a very small chance that the future predicted by mysterious prediction would happen.

As one of the few witches who could master the secret skill "the Great Circulation", White Lotus could distinguish at a glance that the woman in bright red cloak was definitely an augur of mysterious prediction.

In legend, the stronger the augurs were, the shorter their lives were. This was the cost of capturing the future from the lines of infinite possibilities.

In White Lotus' eyes, this mysterious augur in front of her looked as if she would die at any time, which made her feel that she must be "strong".

Not all people were willing to predict the future at the cost of their lives, therefore, White Lotus was curious about what this mysterious augur had seen and what she could predict.

"Yes, I see a little of your future." Robin answered casually to Yun Xi and quietly paid her attention to Golden Crow Princess.

Sure enough, the closer she was, the nobler she could feel from the golden-haired princess, which was totally inconsistent with the information in the task introduction.

However, "the Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin" would never make any mistakes. It would definitely be achieved.

If it really couldn't be achieved, for example, to curse a legend ranked being, the robins wouldn't make any prediction.

Once the robins predicted, it would become a reality. The targets were already destined to die, and she just lightly gave them a push.

From this point of view, Robin was not a murderer, but a witness who saw the bloody death.

She just shortened the target's death time, and triggered something that would take ten or twenty years to happen in advance.

“My future... What is it like?” Yun Xi looked hopefully at the mysterious augur in front of him.

Oh, so I still have a future!

As a man who had four ex-girlfriends, who was torn apart in his past life, he still had a future!

That’s really a piece of good news!

“Um... well... your future...” In fact, Robin wasn’t really going to predict for him, but looking at his eyes full of expectations, she sighed.

Unlucky people are everywhere.

She could see it from the maid’s eyes, that she had a miserable past, just like herself.

Similarly afflicted people pity each other. Sigh, let me predict for you, unlucky person, it won’t be “the Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin”, but a real divination that belonged to the “mysterious prediction”.

Chapter 530: Are You Happy?

“The Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin” was a special killing secret skill of “mysterious prediction”, a power that could lead all things to death.

The dead Robin hated everything in the world and cursed everything in the world. Only those who listened to the moan of the robin in the pool of blood could get the power of the robin.

Even among all the secret skills of Blood Stamen, this was the most horrible secret killing skill. Its origin could be traced back to the Twilight of the Gods, which triggered the death of the Child of Light.

The Child of Light was an optimistic young man, the son of the Lord God.

The three goddesses, Norn the God of Wisdom predicted that nothing in the world could harm the Child of Light. All the gods and all the living beings in the world swore that they would never hurt the Child of Light.

Only a throne on the edge of the world didn't swear, because it was forgotten by everyone.

In the end, the blessed Child of Light eventually died under a weapon made of this thorn, falling down in a pool of blood like a robin.

The gods tried to save the dead Child of Light, and Osiris, the god of death said that as long as all living beings cried for the Child of Light, he could revive again. However, a devil disguised to be an old woman and refused to cry for the Child of Light. In the end, the Child of Light really died.

Then, the Twilight of the Gods was coming.

The killed robin represented this irreversible tragedy and the deepest despair.

Listening to the robin's voice, and she brought the robin out of the nightmare world, she was destined to walking onto such a road of no return.

Even gods couldn't change the fate of the robin, and their trying, finally became the origin of the Twilight of the Gods.

Robin's death was doomed, as this road she chose, which could only lead to an end full of blood and death.

Blood Stamens represented such a road, the most terrible, cruel and powerful road in the Ten Leaves Alliance.

"Let me see your hand." Robin gently grabbed Yun Xi's hand.

It was a hand that was very soft without even a tiny scar. It was like a perfect white jade without any flaw.

It was obvious that the owner of this hand didn't often work as an ordinary maid, because there was no callosity on her hand.

Looking closely, the tenderness and smoothness of the skin were also not like what a maid could have. Didn't this maid need to do housework?

No, just now, she was baking bread for the golden-haired princess and her moves were very skillful. It was probably a gift from heaven.

"Well... What's wrong with my hand?" Yun Xi looked anxiously at the mysterious augur. Could it be that she found that he was not really a maid?

At this time, he could only believe that his disguise was perfect. After all, no one in the Starwing Knights had found that he was a man, have they?

Did they really find out? Remembering Lu Lu, Hua Yue, Ling Ling and Mei Lan, Yun Xi was not really confident about this.

“Are you happy?” Robin’s fingertips slipped through Yun Xi’s palm and asked solemnly.

The divination had started.

It wasn’t the “Unfortunate Prophecy of the Robin” used for murder, but the real divination she mastered.

She didn’t choose to be the “robin” from the beginning. Before she became a member of Blood Stamen, she had also dreamed to be a Golden Branch or a Jade Leaves.

Unfortunately, she couldn’t choose her fate.

When she listened to the mournful song of robins and was curious to “see” them, she was already unable to go back.

“I... I don’t know.” Yun Xi hesitated.

Is he happy or unhappy now?

Compared with the time in the small town, when he worried about how to separate from Hua Huo, he and she still stayed together. From this angle of view, he was lucky.

However, this luck was because of his misery in his past life.

That night, under the starry sky, his ordinary life had faded away and would never return. From then on, he had to keep moving forward, he had to hide his true identity and escape from the pursuit of his four ex-girlfriends.

“If you don’t know, you can ask your heart, you just need to give me an answer.” Robin said with a soft voice, because it was the necessary procedure for her divination.

Even if it wasn’t for murdering, her prophecy needed to be close to the target before it could be triggered. Now she was in the second stage of her prophecy, feeling the target’s fate.

“Do you accept you now?”

Yes, she just needed an answer.

Most people felt that they were full of defects and regrets.

This was a truth, because no one was perfect, everyone would feel that they were not perfect, the question is whether you accept such a self, and admit such an imperfect self.

The gods of the Western God's Domain told people that you were sinful.

The saints the Eastern God's Domain told people that human nature was evil.

There was no right or wrong when referring to this question.

When the answer came to your mind, you would find out if you had seen your own way.

"Well, I accept 'the current me'." Yun Xi nodded.

Yes, he understood this question and knew why the mysterious augur in front of him asked it.

Only by accepting who you are, can you understand what you wanted to be, and the door of happiness will open for you.

Are you happy?

The answer was right in your own mind.

In the small town, his ideal was to expand the small bread store and marry Hua Huo, it was him.

In the Water God's World, he married millions of brides and became the white emperor, it was him.

On the Starry Sky Chessboard, he defeated all legend ranked opponents and became the Master of Star Go, it was him.

From beginning to end, no matter how the environment changed and what happened, he was still himself.

The Starchild, Yun Xi.
