

Starchild 541

Chapter 542: Sword Breaking

Yun Xi saw it through Xiao Cao's seed. It was a brand new world.

It was the world in Xiao Cao's eyes, clear and distinct, but slightly different from the normal world.

The most obvious thing was that through Xiao Cao's eyes, he clearly saw the circulation route of blood in the body of the master of the Red Steel Genre, and the dozens of flaws on his seemingly indestructible skin.

These flaws were right under those restraints, as well as in the huge steel gloves on both hands. It seemed that he knew his weaknesses well, so he firmly protected these weaknesses with restraints and steel gloves.

However, weaknesses are weaknesses. The real Rigid Body doesn't have these weaknesses.

So many weaknesses and flaws meant that the seemingly invincible master's physique was still far inferior to the real Rigid Body.

Seeing through her opponent's weaknesses was one of the abilities Xiao Cao acquired after she advanced into the realm of the hero rank, which was as natural as breathing for her now.

It wasn't difficult to imagine that people with this talent and ability would obtain great advantage in battles.

Now what Xiao Cao was still short of was only one god weapon that was suitable for her.

“Good... Very good...”

“I’m... glad to... meet you, meet such an opponent...” Red Stone raised his fists and hit them together violently. Two huge steel gloves bumped and made a deafening metal roar.

This was the signal that Red Stone was really into a full-blown combat state at this moment.

When using the three secrets skills, “Lava Breathing”, “Lava Skin” and “Blood of Red Steel” together, they would cause a great burden on the body, even though Red Stone had a part of the bloodline of the giants, he wasn’t an exception.

Apart from the person who had Rigid Body, there was a time limit for any person who was using the three secret skills together.

The time that Red Stone could use the three secret skills was five minutes. Five minutes seemed to be short, but most disciples of the Red Steel Genre couldn’t reach this time in their lifetime.

Most disciples of the Red Steel Genre could only use the three secret skills together for three minutes, but even so, there weren’t many strong hero ranked beings who could withstand their fierce attacks for three minutes.

When facing the full attack of the disciples of the Red Steel Genre, most people would try their best to run away with the three minutes and launch a counter-attack after that.

“Whizzing!” Huge white smoke soared up from Red Stone’s hair. In the next moment, he jumped up at a speed that was absolutely inconsistent with his huge body. His hands were clasped together, and the whole person was like a giant hammer falling from the sky, smashing fiercely at Xiao Cao.

What should I do if I’m facing his attack? Yun Xi tried to imagine himself confronted with such a fierce blow, and found that he had no means to confront the attack directly.

Driving the Crane Wings Twin Swords to the fastest speed to dodge this attack, this was the only way Yun Xi could think of to avoid this blow.

His swordsman career hadn’t yet entered the hero rank, so he didn’t have the power to fight against such a frantic strength now.

Xiao Cao’s choice was to bend her body, just like grass blown down by a strong wind. She steadfastly drew out her sword.

The long sword, which had already been scarred, broke off from the center with a crisp noise under Red Stone’s attack.

Too bad! Yun Xi knew that Xiao Cao was a pure swordsman. If she lost her sword, her fighting power would be greatly reduced. Moreover, Xiao Cao’s sword was special to her.

She didn’t throw it away although it had been broken in the last battle with Hua Yue. Now, it was totally broken. This result wasn’t too surprising, after all, it was just a common iron sword that had no quality to withstand the power of the hero rank.

Xiao Cao watched her sword breaking under the blow with a sad look, but she still held it tightly in her hand.

Although the sword in her hand was broken, the sword in her heart was not broken yet!

Instantly, the remaining half broken sword in her hand glowed with brand a new brilliance, chopping on Red Stone's steel gloves.

"Hiss!" Sparks splashed on the gloves made of super metal, which was obviously not what a common iron sword could cause.

"Sword Aura..." Red Lotus looked at the sword in Xiao Cao's hands in surprise.

"Her will strengthened the essence of the sword and the strength of the blade." White Lotus saw more clearly than Red Lotus and made a more accurate judgment.

Yun Xi went a step further and felt the indomitable breath emanating from the blade of the sword.

Even though this sword was just a common iron sword that only a novice would use.

However, after it accompanied Xiao Cao growing up, leaving the village, attending the entrance examinations of the Sword Palace, until now, it and she finally stepped on the battlefield belonging to the hero rank.

It had been broken once in Xiao Cao's battle with Hua Yue.

After that, Xiao Cao asked the blacksmith to reforge it, and used this ordinary iron sword to fight against one opponent after another.

This time, it finally suffered a fatal blow. Even if Xiao Cao asked the blacksmith to reforge it again, it would be meaningless. The sword had reached the end of its own limit.

Yun Xi could even feel that the broken sword was emitting a sense of sadness. Part of the most precious memories in Xiao Cao's heart was disappearing.

It could no longer move forward with Xiao Cao anymore.

Chapter 543: My Sword

This iron sword was just a common sword forged by a common blacksmith, it was not qualified to possess a Sword Soul. Even its material was so poor that it had only one advantage: durable.

Only newbie civilian swordsmen would use such a weapon, the children of noble families would never use such poor weapons.

However, such a poor weapon had accompanied Xiao Cao through night after night, season after season, and finally came to the world-renowned Battle God's Championship Contest, the weapons of the opponents Xiao Cao had defeated were countless times more valuable than it.

As a common iron sword for newbies, the mission of this sword had long been accomplished and far surpassed.

The world Xia Cao was going to enter was destined to be out of touch with this sword.

Today was the last day Xiao Cao used it.

Yun Xi noticed this, and Xiao Cao noticed it too.

“Boom!” With a blow from his fist, Red Stone beat Xiao Cao back and then shook his head.

“Change your sword. It limits your strength.”

Xiao Cao gazed at the iron sword in disintegration even though it had been strengthened by her hero ranked power.

It can't fight anymore.

Not only the appearance of the sword, but also the basic particles that make up the sword was dissolving and disappearing under Red Stone's violent attack before.

Compared to Red Stone's spirit weapons, his steel gloves, it was a miracle that this common iron sword could hold up until now.

Even though Xiao Cao had used the sword to cut through the thick steel gloves many times, but these scratches have already begun to self-repair at a fast speed. This was the special ability of the pair of spirit weapons.

“I have a sword here, a good sword!”

“Wait, I have a big sword here!”

“Master, use my sword!”

Under the stage of the Battle God’s Championship Contest, many businessmen shouted, and some of them even directly took out their swords.

Of course, none of the swords were god weapons. But apart from that, there were all top-level spirit weapons.

“...” Xiao Cao looked silently at the broken sword in her hand. No, it was overpraised to call it “broken sword” now, it was actually just a combination of fragments.

Without Xiao Cao’s hero ranked power, the sword would have turned into ashes and disappeared.

The sword belonging to Xiao Cao was actually dead.

“Sorry...” Xiao Cao looked at it sadly, but soon her eyes became more resolute.

“Please... I need you to keep fighting with me...”

“There are still a lot of opponents...”

Yun Xi felt that from Xiao Cao’s body, some unspeakable firm will was spreading.

Like countless trampled little grasses, even if everyone had given up, Xiao Cao (grass) would never give up.

Why do I need to change my sword?

Is it because the sword is not hard enough?

Then, the problem would be very simple.

Let her make it hard enough!

Just like she grew up from a 1st ranked female swordsman to a hero ranked female swordsman!

This time, it was her turn to help the sword that had been growing with her!

“Can it be... She wants to...” Yun Xi guessed what Xiao Cao would do.

It would be an unimaginable choice to any ordinary people.

She had numerous choices. After stepping into the hero rank, countless forces would be willing to provide her the best weapons and the best equipment.

However, Xiao Cao didn't want any of them.

The only sword she chose was this sword.

The other swords, no matter how gorgeous, sharp or extraordinary they are, they are not her swords.

“I have only one sword...”

It was a decision and a declaration. The girl whose life was like a grass chose an ordinary iron sword.

This was her sword.

“From now on, your name is – Gladiolus!”

Gladiolus was a common plant with sharp blades. It was the same as the desert cactus, even in an extremely harsh environment, it could strive to grow up.

For Xiao Cao, there was no weapon more suitable for herself than such a sword.

Don't cry. I'll fix you.

The once broken, melted, and even disintegrated iron fragments began to gather toward Xiao Cao's position.

"This is..." Red Stone stared at the magical scene, and all his muscles trembled.

"She... she is casting her own god weapon..."

"She is giving her weapon life... using her fantasy..."

"This... this should be the realm of gods!"

White Lotus murmured to herself, looking at the countless particles flying into Xiao Cao's palms.

Most god weapons created by humans needed to obtain "history" and "connotation" before they could really appear in the world.

Only very few people could make a god weapon without the wash of time, and all of them were beloved by the rules of the world.

Undoubtedly, Xiao Cao was one of them who were beloved by the world.

With such a favor of the world, she could easily obtain numerous spirit weapons whose weapon souls wanted to become a god weapon.

However, Xiao Cao chose none of them but the common iron sword, and she would keep using this common iron sword henceforth.

Xiao Cao and Gladiolus were a pair of combinations that could grow up and become strong together.

“Gladiolus... Hello...” After the recasting, the sword Gladiolus looked exactly the same as before, but its internal essence had changed dramatically.

It was no longer a common iron sword, but a god weapon that had had its real name!

In front of its master, the sword Gladiolus gave out a pleasant and crisp sound in return for its master’s voice.

A layer of brilliant light flowed on the sword body of Gladiolus, reflecting Xiao Cao’s calm and determined eyes.

“Let’s fight!” Feeling the strong aura from Xiao Cao’s sword, Red Stone’s eyes turned red.

Don't get him wrong, he didn't feel angry, but it was a show of extreme excitement!

The strongest opponent was precisely the goal pursued by all disciples of the Red Steel Genre.

Because the sword didn't contain any special "history" and "connotation", apart from hardness, Gladiolus didn't have any special ability.

But for Xiao Cao, that was enough!

With her sword, she could fight. She fought and she would win!

"Magnetic force!" Red Stone displayed the secret skill of his steel gloves. Although the steel gloves were a pair of god weapons, they had a special, mysterious power that even the real god weapons didn't possess: magnetic force!

His steel gloves could store strong magnetic field force. Usually, as a pair of restraints, the magnetic force could make the steel gloves to become ten times heavier for Red Stone to practice his body, and when fighting, he could release the magnetic force to absorb his opponent's weapons.

Xiao Cao's sword, Gladiolus and her body were directly absorbed by this magnetic force together.

"Pa!" From three meters away, Red Stone raised his arms high and threw Xiao Cao and her sword into the sky by controlling the magnetic force. At the same time, with a sudden step on his feet, he stepped out a big pit on the hard stage made of obsidian, and his body rushed into the sky.

“Burst!” The tremendous magnetic force burst out in one breath, together with Red Stone’s amazing weight and strong strength, bearing down on Xiao Cao’s body like a mountain.

Push people down with force!

This was the core of the practice of the Red Steel Genre.

All the secret skills and equipment of the Red Steel Genre were prepared for this purpose.

Gravity and magnetism were the best ways for the masters of the Red Steel Genre to suppress their opponents’ speed and turn the battlefield into their own home court.

For the first time meeting such an attack, Xiao Cao had no experience for dealing with this and was at a disadvantage.

“Boom!” Her body smashed on the obsidian ground. The gravitational field released by Red Stone transmitted into the ground, then exploded suddenly.

Like the process of an earthquake, the ground vibrated continuously. Even though the ground was made of obsidian, it couldn’t withstand the force of the continuous oscillation, and eventually broke off like a broken string.

The earth began to shake and tremble, and numerous dense cracks appeared on the black ground.

Suddenly there was a huge muffled sound echoed between the sky and the earth. All the watchers under the stage had the delusion that the sky was falling and would hit the earth in an instant.

The whole venue of the Battle God's Championship Contest seemed to be hit hard by an invisible giant hammer. Countless people were bounced up and then fell ashen.

As for the obsidian stage, facing this attack, it was completely blown up.

Chapter 544: Crushing the Earth

Push the opponent down with force!

This was what the goal of the Red Steel Genre, this was the "strongest" they pursued.

The ultimate goal was to practice the body to the limit, reproducing the "Rigid Body" again.

It was one of the Red Steel Genre's secret skill called "Smashing the Ground". The principle was to absorb the opponent by magnetic force, suppress the opponent by gravity field, then throw the opponent to the sky, and finally catch the opponent in the air to launch a lethal blow towards the earth.

The most terrible thing about this tactic was that even if you knew exactly what was going to happen, you just couldn't avoid it.

It was extremely difficult to get rid of this set of combo attacks for anyone during the period when the master of the Red Steel Genre was still using the three secret skills.

On the stage of the Battle God's Championship Contest, even those who were very fast and flexible would end up in tragedy once they were captured by the magnetic field.

Those who thought that those “red giants” were just monsters who used brute force were all punched to death by them.

In the dust, Red Stone’s right fist pounded heavily on a seemingly ordinary iron sword.

Did she block my attack? Red Stone looked at Xiao Cao in his gravity field in surprise.

As a high-level fighting skill of the Red Steel Genre, it was a secret skill combining by three secret skills, “Magnetic Attraction”, “Gravity Release” and “Ground Crushing”.

Most hero ranked people wouldn’t adapt to this distorted gravity when they first encountered the restraint of ten times gravity.

Ten times of gravity wouldn’t just make the muscles suffer ten times pressure, including the most vulnerable human retinal nerve, internal organs, body fluid would suffer tremendous damage.

For ordinary people, even a doubling of gravity could cause instantaneous death.

The reason why Red Stone can withstand ten times the pressure of gravity was that his three secret skills, “Lava Breathing”, “Lava Skin” and “Blood of Red Steel” were all powerful secret skills related to body strengthening.

Even so, Red Stone began to adapt from the most basic double gravity. From the mortal rank to the hero rank, after experiencing many life-or-death crises, his body finally adapted to the ten times gravity, and successfully mastered the secret skill, “Smashing the Ground”.

Don't underestimate this secret skill. Although it only smashed a big hole on the ground, that was because the ground of the Battle God's Championship Contest was made of obsidian.

Without a god weapon, only very few hero ranked people could break the ground of the Battle God's Championship Contest.

If Red Stone used this secret skill outside the stage of the Battle God's Championship Contest, it could even cause a small earthquake.

Without the help of any god weapon, many 5th and 6th ranked people couldn't cause this damage.

After all, not everyone could strengthen their bodies at all times like the disciples of the Red Steel Genre. They didn't even remove the gravity field when they were sleeping.

At the fourth rank, Red Stone had defeated countless hero ranked people using this secret skill, "Smashing the Ground".

However, this wasn't the end of his attack!

Why wasn't this secret skill called "Magnetic Throwing", but "Smashing the Ground"?

Because the most terrible attack would actually begin after the opponent was hit on the ground!

“Crush the earth!” Red Stone roared, and his right fist turned into a huge palm, and his whole body seemed to have risen a little bit, reaching three meters tall.

On his red skin, there were lava vapors rising and numerous blood vessels appeared on his body, making him look like a demon coming out of the volcano.

Ten times gravity field! Compression!

Turn around the magnetic field!

The most terrible attack of “Smashing the Ground” had begun!

Most of Red Stone’s opponents would have been defeated when they were thrown to the ground. Only the strongest opponent whose body could quickly adapt to the ten times gravity field would make Red Stone have to launch this attack.

“Boom!” If the fall just now was as dull as a heavy hammer, then the “Smashing the Ground” now was like the bombardment of numerous heavy hammers on the ground.

Compared with the astonishing shot just now, the attack this moment wasn’t so powerful but was several times more terrible.

In order to strengthen the body to the limit, Red Stone had already run all the three secret skills to the limit, and even then was fresh blood flowing out of his ears.

The running time of the three secret skills, which could last for five minutes originally, was also rapidly shortened by the use of this skill.

“Boom!” “Boom!” “Boom!” The whole of the space of the Battle God’s Championship Contest was trembling, and a shrill voice was emitted. The stage of the Battle God’s Championship Contest had never suffered such violent destruction since its construction was completed.

Chapter 545: Flying Swallow

“Ding!” A crisp sound of sword echoed in the air.

It was a flying swallow, spreading its wings freely.

Getting rid of the constraint of the magnetic field and gravity, the swallow flew up to the sky.

“Flying Swallow Sword?” Red Lotus was dumbfounded, because she had seen this skill before.

Isn’t it one of the secret skills of that the monster, Hua Huo?

“Not the same swallow.” White Lotus shook her head. Although it looked very similar to Hua Huo’s Flying Swallow Sword, essentially, they were something quite different.

Hua Huo’s Flying Swallow Sword was as fast as lightning, she could tear open the sky even in storms.

That was because Hua Huo herself was too strong. The flying swallow she incarnated was so strong that she could disperse lightning and storm, her swallow could tear up all her opponents.

Xiao Cao's flying swallow was far from strong enough, so she paid more attention to defusing her opponent's strength in battles.

She wasn't Hua Huo, whose body was strong enough to withstand ten times gravity.

The reason why Red Stone hadn't defeated Xiao Cao was because Xiao Cao's sword was cutting and destroying the seemingly perfect gravity field and counteracting most of its strength.

It was not because Hua Huo's flying swallow wasn't perfect, but because Hua Huo's strength was already strong enough to defeat all enemies without using any special skills. Her flying swallow had long gone beyond the concept of perfection and become something else.

On the contrary, Xiao Cao had not inherited any high-level sword skills. By analyzing the flying swallow planted into her body through Yun Xi's seed, she reached a fantastic realm through her own efforts.

Faced with the pressure of the gravity field, she needed to exert every part of her strength to the limit, so that she could find a slim chance of survival in the face of Red Stone's fierce attack.

To this end, Xiao Cao's flying swallow was born.

Only the sword Gladiolus, Xiao Cao's special god weapon could cooperate with her so perfectly.

Every second and every minute, her understanding and adaptability to the ten times gravity field kept increasing, and her proficiency in cutting the gravity field had also become better and better.

When Red Stone caught Xiao Cao and smashed her to the ground, the pressure of the gravity field to Xiao Cao had only left about half of it. Even so, she suffered a lot of injuries.

As Red Stone's strongest secret skill, "Smashing the Ground" was not something harmless to Xiao Cao. She had just entered the hero rank, 5 times gravity field was still too strong to her. After all, Xiao Cao was still a human being, not a semi-giant mixed with the blood of giant like Red Stone.

However, it was at such a moment of life and death that Xiao Cao's understanding of gravity field increased at an amazing speed.

60%, 70%, 80%!

By the time Red Stone launched the last "Smashing the Ground" and prepared to unleash the final blow on Xiao Cao, she had completed the full analysis of the gravity field.

100%!

Ten times gravity field become totally null and void to her now!

Swallow, start flying!

This moment, Xiao Cao was like a stubborn grass growing under the oppression of boulders, drilling out from the dark underground world.

Once she flies, she will fly into the sky.

Ten times gravity can no longer tie Xiao Cao at this moment.

“What?!” Watching Xiao Cao slip out from his huge palm, Red Stone was flabbergasted.

His gravity field was still working at full speed, why could she slip away?

His eyes didn’t even catch the flash of the flying swallow’s shadow.

“The victor has been decided.” Red Lotus looked at the figure soaring in the sky with admiration.

“The gravity field has been cut up and the big man hasn’t found out yet.” Golden Crow Princess looked at the silly big guy with disdain.

Flying Swallow, one flash! Two flashes! Three flashes!

Flying in the sky, Xiao Cao was free from the shackles of the earth. She cut the gravity field into pieces with her sword Gladiolus. Without the protection of the gravity field, Red Stone’s body was totally defenseless now.

“Oh oh oh oh!” Eventually, Red Stone realized what had happened and raised his head abruptly. He lifted his fists again. The huge metal cuffs made a deafening roar and the breath of sulfur appeared in his mouth and nose again.

Arm!

Neck!

The middle of the chest!

Abdomen!

Waist!

Knees!

Lower leg!

Back!

Vertebra!

Top!

A perfect Ten-fold Flying Swallow Sword! Xiao Cao successfully performed the skill that even Yun Xi couldn't perform now.

Apart from Red Stone's neck, which was protected by the huge restraint, nine deep wounds appeared on his body. The sword Gladiolus completely tore up his seemingly indestructible defense and cut open his "Lava Skin" straightly.

Red Stone fell to the ground and his expanding body restored to its original size. The pair of steel gloves also hit the ground heavily, making a dull noise.

"Ho... Ho..."

"Really... Beautiful..."

"Good opponent!"

This kind of injury could let any ordinary people die instantly, but Red Stone laughed in the pool of his own blood as if it was just a minor injury.

"You're a good opponent too." Xiao Cao gently wiped the blood from the corners of her mouth and smiled.

Win or lose, everything was determined within an instant.

Chapter 546: Opportunities for Reaching the Hero Rank

A large amount of thick blood flowed out from the wounds on Red Stone's body, in terms of volume, the volume of the blood had long surpassed the volume that a normal human's body could have.

If it was any other hero ranked being, he should have died. The hero rank could indeed grant its owner extraordinary powers, but only very few hero ranked beings could have an immortal body at this stage.

“Cough... Cough...” Red Stone twisted his neck and took a deep breath. Suddenly, the muscles all over his body twisted and contracted.

Then he staggered to his feet and slowly made a strange position in front of all the astonished people.

He stood with his feet and raised his hands, as if he was lifting an invisible iron ball. But from his face, he looked confident.

Then he fell into complete silence.

“Oh... this is the legendary... Vigorous Posture.” Red Lotus watched Red Stone, who had stopped moving after making this posture.

“Well, that’s the Vigorous Posture.” This was also the first time for White Lotus to see this famous posture of the masters of the Red Steel Genre.

Whenever the masters of the Red Steel Genre suffered serious injuries or was even dying, their bodies would naturally activate this posture.

It was said that this posture could let them absorb the ubiquitous energy between heaven and earth to recover their wounds.

As long as they could step on the earth and raise their hands to the sky, no matter how seriously the damage they had suffered, they wouldn't die immediately.

Even if their hearts were penetrated through, as long as their heads hadn't been destroyed, then the Vigorous Posture could maintain their lives.

Of course, if the injury was too serious or it was a curse, it could even take them many years to recover.

According to history books, the longest record was 300 years.

A master of the Red Steel Genre was hit by a curse of a god weapon. He jumped into the sea to escape in a hurry and then launched a Vigorous Posture on the seabed in order to resist the erosion of the curse.

As a result, three hundred years had passed and the body of this master had turned into a nest of coral reefs and fish, and the assassin who cursed him had died many years ago before he finally woke up from keeping this posture.

Of course, there was no curse on the blade of Xiao Cao's sword. The wounds on Red Stone's skin looked lethal and the amount of blood he had bled could scare anyone. But judging from the healing speed of the wounds on his body, he could recover and wake up a few days later.

Looking at Red Stone, who looked like a perfect statue at this moment, Xiao Cao put away her sword Gladiolus and merged it into her body.

This was the advantage of having an exclusive god weapon. As the original creator of Gladiolus, the adaptability between Xiao Cao and Gladiolus was 100% from the beginning. She didn't need to cultivate the tacit understanding between her and her sword like other people who inherited ancient god weapons.

Although as a god weapon, Gladiolus didn't have any special ability, Xiao Cao could exert all the power that Gladiolus had, which was already a realm that many people couldn't reach.

"Here you are."

Xiao Cao jumped directly from the stage and walked towards Yun Xi.

Yun Xi looked at Xiao Cao in surprise. After entering the hero rank, the freckles on her face disappeared completely, which made her look more pretty. He still remembered when he first saw Xiao Cao, she was just a common, thin girl who looked somewhat malnourished.

Now, Xiao Cao's height had increased a little, and her hands and feet not only became more powerful, but also became more beautiful. The flexibility of her body had also increased significantly.

Looking back on the girls of the Starwing Knights, this change seemed to happen not only to Xiao Cao, but to all the girls of the Starwing Knights.

"Congratulations, that 'swallow' just now was beautiful!" Yun Xi's admiration was sincere. That inconspicuous "little grass" finally transformed into a "beautiful flower" today.

The great road that belonged to Xiao Cao finally opened. Although Yun Xi had known it would happen soon or later after he first saw Xiao Cao's seed. Even without his seed, it was only a matter of time for Xiao Cao.

The Mortal Sword and the Great Road... who was the god who had a partiality for Xiao Cao?

“Mei... I will still work hard.” Xiao Cao looked at the twin witches and Golden Crown Princess dispassionately. Her eyes were as quiet as a pool of clear water.

“Yes, it’s a good thing to be stronger. The battle just now was wonderful.” As a Casina the Battle God’s admirer, Red Lotus appreciated Xiao Cao’s performance on the stage just now.

If it wasn’t because of their special identities, Red Lotus would have stepped onto the stage, fighting with endless opponents from different god’s domains like what Xiao Cao did before.

If it wasn’t because of the tradition of the witches, she and White Lotus would have already left the White Lotus Sword Domain, creating their own legends in the endless god’s domains.

“Thanks... I still have a lot of shortcomings...” Xiao Cao shook her head and didn’t seem to be proud of her achievement.

After all, she knew how strong Hua Huo was.

With Hua Huo as a reference object, Xiao Cao didn’t think that she could feel satisfied at all.

Not just Xiao Cao, but all the girls of the Starwing Knights thought so after seeing Hua Huo’s terrible power.

“How does it feel to enter the hero rank?” Yun Xi was curious about what kind of scenery she saw when she stepped into the realm of the hero rank.

“It was a little hot and numb, as if I was being electrified.”

“That feeling... Mei, it was like when you touched my body...” Xiao Cao said frankly.

The next moment, Yun Xi felt that the temperature around his body had suddenly rise by tens of degrees.

“Mei... did you touch her?” Golden Crow Princess scowled darkly at Yun Xi.

“This... well... in fact...” Sweat streamed down Yun Xi’s face. It wasn’t something that a child like her should know!.

“Did Mei touch you or not?” Golden Crow Princess turned around and asked Xiao Cao.

“Yes, she touched me... many times... very comfortable...” Xiao Cao answered honestly.

Chapter 547: The Agreement with Golden Crow Princess (1)

“Many times...?!” Golden Crow Princess’ eyes became hotter and hotter, and the temperature of the air rose sharply.

If White Lotus hadn't enclosed this area by casting a magic spell, the people around them would've ignited!

A god's anger was a real natural disaster for mortals.

In order to calm Golden Crow Princess' anger, Yun Xi had to stand up and hold her little body in his arms.

It was really a thrilling thing to date a god!

Xiao Cao, you're killing me! Yun Xi looked innocently at Xiao Cao, who still didn't know what was happening.

"All of the girls of the Starwing Knights... Mei has touched them all." Xiao Cao tilted her head. Apparently, she didn't grasp Yun Xi's hint at all.

"Starwing Knights!" Golden Crow Princess firmly remembered this name and tried to struggle out of Yun Xi's arms.

However, Yun Xi had rich experience in capturing young girls. After gently grasping Golden Crow Princess' arms, he tickled her, Golden Crow Princess couldn't help but emit a series of silverbell-like laughter.

The kid-tempered Golden Crow Princess' anger came fast and went quickly. Her attention was suddenly diverted because of this.

Looking at Yun Xi's skillful embrace, Red Lotus was dumbfounded.

Golden Crow Princess is a god!

How dare this maid tickle a god? And why does she look so skilled?!

Xiao Cao looked at Golden Crow Princess with envy, oh, it was a good thing that all girls of the Starwing Knights hoped to happen to themselves.

"Hum... I won't forget..."

"Once I'm born... I will solve this problem right away..." Golden Crow Princess puffed biting on Yun Xi's finger with a lovely flush of red on her little white face.

"You... are mine... Mei..."

Yun Xi helplessly watched the capricious Golden Crow Princess and was wondering whether he had just done another wrong thing.

"Master... don't be afraid... Anyway, you have trampled on so many boats, the 'nice boat' won't happen even if you step on one more boat, cheer up!" Mei'er encouraged Yun Xi.

If master has a good relationship with Golden Crow Princess now, he will obtain a great advantage in the future! It wouldn't be wrong to treat her well now.

If it wasn't because Golden Crow Princess looked too young now, she had already suggested Yun Xi to...

For Mei'er, the human morals didn't exist at all in her eyes.

Mei'er's goal was never to help Yun Xi become a gentleman, but to help him grow stronger and stronger, and eventually get rid of the fate of being separated into pieces by his four terrible ex-girlfriends.

To this end, she would trample on all the moral principles of the human world and ignore all the ethical relations!

Justice? What is that? Is it delicious?

The child of stars doesn't need such a thing!

Don't think that Mei'er was just a common small dog. Although her strength was still insignificant, it was only because she was still in her infancy.

The growth of the star spirit was closely related to her master. After Yun Xi advances to the hero rank, Mei'er's abilities would increase dramatically.

The Star Spirit Team was the prototype of the Legion she prepared for herself.

The little Mei'er had a great ambition. In order to let the great starchild grow up, she would sacrifice everything. Well, of course, to sacrifice everything others had.

At sunset, on the beach nearby the White Lotus Sword Palace, where Yun Xi and Hua Yue strolled together not too long ago.

In Yun Xi's arms, Golden Crow Princess' figure became a little illusory, which was a sign that her time in the world would end soon.

The god's one day date was coming to an end.

According to the three stages of the sacrificial ceremony, the time of "sending the god away" was coming.

Red Lotus and White Lotus tacitly kept a distance from the beach, handing Golden Crow Princess to Yun Xi.

Although they were actually the hosts of the sacrificial ceremony, they knew the reason why Golden Crow Princess responded to their voices and came to the altar.

Her preference for "somebody" was just too obvious.

The protagonist of the sacrificial ceremony was not the twin witches but the black-haired maid.

“Mei... Why are you pretending to be a maid?” As a god, Golden Crow Princess wouldn’t be fooled by a person’s appearance. She knew his gender from first to last.

“This... well, it was a mistake...” Yun Xi combed her delicate hair and sighed helplessly.

He didn’t know why, but he had a wonderful sense of familiarity with Golden Crow Princess.

He felt like no matter what would happen, he could be sure that Golden Crow Princess would stand on his side.

This feeling was the same as when he first met Mumu.

If he could plant his seed in her body, then the seed’s affinity would be as high as the seed in Mumu’s body. Yun Xi had this intuition.

Unfortunately, he couldn’t plant his seed in any legend ranked being’s body, so this could only be his reasoning.

Chapter 548: The Agreement with Golden Crow Princess (2)

“Mei... do you want power?” Golden Crow Princess tried to use her clumsy methods to capture Yun Xi’s heart.

A golden red flame appeared in her palm. It was a kind of pure power of the sun, a part of her life.

As long as Yun Xi accepted this wisp of fire, she would share her life with him, and Yun Xi's body would evolve uncontrollably towards the form of a Sunwalker, and eventually become the same sun as her.

In this process, Yun Xi would gradually lose his human posture, but in return, he would obtain eternal life and glory. It wasn't a tough choice for anyone, because no one would refuse the glory of the sun.

The power of the gods was within the reach of Yun Xi at this moment.

As long as he nodded, as long as he reached out his hand, Golden Crow Princess would turn him into a Sunwalker and even share her position as a God with him.

As for the impact of two suns appearing in the sky... Golden Crow Princess didn't mind it at all. She wasn't a kind fantastic creature who cared about what others thought.

"The power of the sun... thanks, but I'm not qualified to use it now..." Yun Xi shook his head.

He knew that kind of power was extremely strong, but now he couldn't use it, nor should he use it.

Holding a sealed SN-Drive was his limit for now. If he couldn't control the power of the sun, the same end in the battlefield of gods would happen to the whole of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Infinite light and heat would melt the ground, cover the world and lead to the end of all things.

To do all this, only the power of a furnace (SN-Drive) was needed, that was to say, if he released the power in the sealed furnace in his hand, he could destroy the world.

“It doesn’t matter. Just accept this and you can go back to the Kunlun God’s Domain with me. My mother will be happy to see you, too.” Golden Crow Princess said with confidence.

“The Kunlun God’s Domain...” Yun Xi looked at her with a mixed feeling.

The Kunlun God’s Domain, the strongest god’s domain in the Eastern God’s Domains.

However, this was also an extremely closed god’s domain, no one could even reach this god’s domain through the star bridges. All the star bridges leading to the Kunlun god’s domain had been cut off.

Legend had it that you could only enter Kunlun God’s Domain by walking through a god weapon called “Kunlun Mirror”, which was controlled by the West Queen.

For people living in the Eastern God’s Domains, the Kunlun God’s Domain was more like an ideal land in a fantasy than a real existing god’s domain.

According to legend, the free energies in the air of the Kunlun God’s Domain were thousands of times thicker than that in other normal worlds.

This was the homeland of countless fantastic creatures.

Phoenix, Yinglong, Kirin, Golden-winged ROC bird, Bifang, Baize... Every fantastic creature was a real legend ranked being.

Because of this, many people doubted the existence of the Kunlun God's Domain. After all, the vast majority of people, including more than 90% of hero ranked beings, had never touched any trace of the existence of the Kunlun God's Domain.

For Kunlun, Yun Xi's impression had always remained in the stories his parents told him before he went to bed.

If the Kunlun God's Domain was just a story existing in Yun Xi's mind, then now, the Golden Crow Princess stretched out her hand to him, proving that it wasn't just a story existing in people's mouths, but a real world, the homeland of Golden Crow Princess.

As long as he held her hand, he could gain her life power and go to the Kunlun God's Domain together with her.

Everything looked so natural.

Yun Xi would never doubt Golden Crow Princess' sincerity. She would not deceive him. His intuition told him so.

However, his intuition also told him that he must not go to the Kunlun God's Domain now, otherwise, some unexpected incidents would occur.

"If I let my mom see you, she would be very happy." Golden Crow Princess was still immersed in her great plan.

Wasn't it because she wanted to see Mei, so if she went to this unknown sword domain?

Now that I see him, I can't let him go!

I must get what I like!

He was the pride of the princess of the Kunlun God's Domain.

"Mother... West Queen..." Yun Xi imagined the scene if West Queen saw him and Golden Crow Princess together.

"Baby, you're back."

"Mom, I'm back with my lover!"

"What?! Who is this bastard?!"

"Execute him! Skin him and hang him on the top of the Kunlun mountain for seven days and seven nights!"

Yun Xi shivered. Although it was just a less reliable inference, he believed that nothing good would happen if West Queen saw her little daughter bringing back an unknown man.

“Sorry... I can’t go there now...” After a chill, Yun Xi decided to give up this option, even though it could let him boost his strength at the fastest speed.

He couldn’t go to the Kunlun God’s Domain now! It was no different from suicide!

Chapter 549: The Agreement with Golden Crow Princess (3)

“Why?” Golden Crow Princess looked extremely disappointed.

“The power of the sun... It’s too early for me.” Yun Xi made an excuse, and it was indeed the truth.

For him, who was just a common baker not long ago, it was too hard to believe that he would suddenly be in charge of the power of the sun.

Although Golden Crow Princess promised that he could obtain the power of the sun just by taking her fire, Yun Xi instinctively felt that things would not be so simple.

He hadn’t even crossed the threshold between the mortal rank and the hero rank, how could he reach the sky in a single bound, possessing the power of the god?

Even with the help of the will of the stars, after experiencing several life-or-death trials, he just touched the door of the hero rank.

In what way could a human being directly turn into a fantastic creature? Would that be really as easy as what Golden Crow Princess said?

“It’s very simple, as long as you accept the fire of the sun and sleep with me in the egg for thousands of years, we can be born together in the Kunlun God’s Domain, and then you will become a new sun crow.” With a relaxed expression on her face, Golden Crow Princess said something that made Yun Xi feel both funny and annoyed.

Ah, that’s the time concept of a fantastic creature. A sleep could take them thousands of years.

Indeed, Yun Xi didn’t doubt Golden Crow Princess’ words.

However, to him, this way of transforming his life form was still too difficult to accept.

Moreover, if he slept thousands of years in the same egg with Golden Crow Princess, what could he do if his four terrible ex-girlfriends found him during this period? There would be no way for him to run away by that time.

Therefore, even if it could really let him reach the legend rank easily, Yun Xi wouldn’t accept it.

Moreover, as a human, thousands of years were too long for Yun Xi.

“So... sorry, I can’t accept your offer.”

“I can only reach the legend rank by myself.”

Well, it wasn’t because he was scared of his four terrible ex-girlfriends!

It really was not!

Yun Xi showed a very sad look on his face and refused Golden Crow Princess once again.

“Why? If you want to become stronger, it’s better to transform into a sun crow!” Golden Crow Princess didn’t understand what fate Yun Xi was carrying, so she could not understand Yun Xi’s inexplicable choice at all.

“I’ll try my best to entreat my mother to share half of my blood with you.”

“You just need to close your eyes and fall asleep. As long as you open your eyes, you will become as beautiful as me.”

“Then, we will fly and dance above the thirty-three heavens together, we will be the most shining couple.”

Ah, I can imagine this future. Yun Xi raised his head as if he had seen the fantastic scene.

If it wasn’t because of his four terrible ex-girlfriends, it may become true.

He had to refuse her with a lie.

Although it was a shame to lie to such a child.

However, he still had to lie.

Even a decent gentleman sometimes needed to consider his speech according to the situation.

“Sorry, you are still young, maybe you can’t understand it.”

“A real strong man can’t take the road of getting power without any exertions.”

“The power of the sun is not my first choice.”

(Actually, he really had a feeling that the power of the sun was perfect for him.)

“I have my own future.” (If there weren’t those four ex-girlfriends, maybe I would really go with you.)

“Mei, don’t you like the sun?” Golden Crow Princess looked like she was going to cry out.

From birth till now, she had never known what “rejection” was.

Even if she was going to crash the sky, her omnipotent mother would just laugh, and then use the Kunlun Mirror to repair the sky.

“No, I like the sun, I like the little sun like you.”

“However, I’m just a human. I haven’t practiced the power belonging to the sun, because human beings can not directly use the power of the sun...”

“The sun is too powerful for us.” Yun Xi touched Golden Crow Princess’ smooth cheek and dripped blood in his heart.

What a pure, kind, innocent child!

She is even willing to share half of her life with me!

Yes, Mei really likes me!

Golden Crow Princess didn’t listen to a word Yun Xi said after this sentence:

“I like the sun, I like the little sun like you!”

Anyone in the Kunlun God’s Domain didn’t dare to call her “little sun” except for West Queen.

Children always dislike people to call them “child”.

However, it wouldn't be a problem if it was Yun Xi. Any praise from Yun Xi could make Golden Crow Princess feel happy from the bottom of her heart.

Why? Just listening to his voice is making me so happy, if I can grow up in the egg with him, it would be ten times, a hundred times the happiness.

Chapter 550: Abduction

It doesn't matter, even though he had refused me three times.

From the beginning, Golden Crow Princess hadn't considered the option of going back alone.

Are you kidding me?! It's not easy to meet the person I like. It must be so-called fate! No matter how many fantastic creatures there are in the Kunlun God's Domain, there can be no one more suitable for me than Mei!

From the moment Mei summoned her on the Starry Sky Chessboard, she had realized that this person was special to her.

Nobody but him would do.

I will accept no one except him.

Even if she had to force him, she would take him back to the Kunlun God's Domain!

"Mei... It may hurt, but it doesn't matter."

“It will be just a moment.”

Golden Crow Princess’ eyes became dangerous, and behind her back, the pair of little golden-red wings slowly emitted dangerous golden-red particles.

A small but delicate furnace, which was personally made by Yun Xi emerged on her shoulder, giving Yun Xi a sense of great misfortune.

What are you going to do to me with that furnace (SN-Drive)?!

Its power could even kill a god!

No, it’s too dangerous! It’s not a child’s toy!

“Mei... I... even though you said so, I still want to go back into the egg together with you.”

“I’m sure you’ll like being the sun.” Golden Crow Princess stood on her toes and held Yun Xi’s body with great strength.

Even though this was only an incarnation, a god’s strength wasn’t something that Yun Xi could break away from at this time.

Wow, the princess is out of control!

“It’s easy to invite the god, but difficult to send the god away...” Looking at them from a distance, White Lotus sighed.

Sometimes, there will be such a “bad” god, and this time, it should have been the time for the witch to come forward.

“Give up, it’s beyond our capability.” Red Lotus looked happily at Mei, who had been captured by Golden Crow Princess.

It couldn’t be better to let the god take this black-haired maid away.

In just one day, her White Lotus had become more and more strange. She really didn’t understand why White Lotus and even Golden Crow Princess were infatuated with the maid.

Now, Golden Crow Princess liked you so much that she would take you away.

Farewell, Mei. I’ll lay flowers on your tombstone!

In the countless golden-red particles that were flying, Golden Crow Princess’ eyes became extremely firm.

“Mei... elope with me!”

Hello, Hello! What kind of elopement is this? Obviously, you are going to capture me!

Yun Xi looked helplessly at Golden Crow Princess.

Who can stop this little sun? If the furnace exploded in her hands, all of the White Lotus Sword Domain will be done for!

“Let us... go home!” Golden Crow Princess opened her small wings, cheered heartily and shouted,

“Mei... Let’s go to my egg together!”

“Boom!”

A red pillar of light rose to the sky and easily tore up the protection system of the White Lotus Sword Palace. In a twinkling of an eye, it flew to a higher place than the Sky Tower, heading for the battlefield of gods, where Golden Crow Princess’ real body was.

It’s much too high! This was the first time for Yun Xi to come to this altitude. Although he had entered the battlefield of gods, he was teleported to that place, he couldn’t see such a landscape during that event.

In the air at 100,000 meters, even the atmosphere became thinner. The vast mountains and oceans became as thin as the outline in the landscape painting.

Is this the world in the eyes of fantastic creatures?

Looking down from here, the White Lotus Sword Domain is really small!

Yun Xi even saw the Water God's Fantasy Island, where located in the center of the eye of the storm and surrounded by white mist.

After releasing the power of the furnace, Golden Crow Princess got rid of gravity, flying to the battlefield of gods created by Hura's god power.

In the burning battlefield of gods, a beautiful golden-red bird was happily spreading its wings, waiting for the return of its incarnation.

The next thing she would do was to activate the coordinates her mom, West Queen inscribed on her body, so that she could bring Yun Xi back to the Kunlun God's Domain.

As Golden Crow Princess imagined that she could be with Mei every day for thousands of years, she couldn't help but sing.

While Golden Crow Princess was confident that everything would be going on as she wished, an ice-blue sword cut open the dividing line between the sky and the earth and hit her forehead.

"Ah!" Golden Crow Princess was stunned. It seemed that it took only a second, but was also as long as a thousand years. When she regained consciousness, Yun Xi had disappeared from her arms without any trace or sign.

"Who is it?"

“Who stole my Mei?!” Golden Crow Princess’ incarnation and true body instantly merged into one, making an angry roar in the sky.

The order in the battlefield of gods was totally messed up!

The fire of the sun burst out from the furnace (SN-Drive), which was more unbridled than it had just been in the battle with Hura. This time, its power was really going to be used to destroy the world.

“He... you can’t take him away...”

The guardian of the Sky Tower, Lilibet looked at the angry Golden Crow Princess indifferently. In her arms, sweat streamed down Yun Xi’s face.

“Who are you? Do you want to grab Mei with me?” Golden Crow Princess stared at Lilibet in a murderous manner.

“Go back... Calm down...”

“No one can violate the rules...”

Golden Crow Princess’ battle with Hura before was allowed by the rule of the sacrificial ceremony, so Lilibet wouldn’t put her hands in it.

However, it was another thing that Golden Crow Princess wanted to take away the Master of Star Go by coercive means.

Lilibet, the guardian of order, would not allow this to happen!
