Chapter 561: The Etiquette of the Battle God (3)

“Oh... I am... Teacher Casina’s disciple...” For some reason, looking at Ouroboros’ drunken face, Yun Xi had a foreboding.

As Ouroboros’ snow-white face moved closer and closer, the ominous presentiment became stronger and stronger.

“Oh... What a lovely little guy... Casina, will you give him to me?” Ouroboros pinched Yun Xi’s cheeks and just didn’t let go of him.

“No, don’t even think about it.” Casina resolutely rejected her request.

My disciple is destined to step on the highest stage of the Battle God’s Championship Contest! If Yun Xi followed Ouroboros, his only future was to become a disabled person, because Ouroboros was such a disabled snake that owed a lot of debt and had to sneak around and hide!

The only thing that Ouroboros is good at is divination, but this is her natural talent, even if she wanted to teach other people how to do it, she couldn’t find any successful methods.

In order to not make Yun Xi become another person as disabled as Ouroboros, Casina didn’t mind breaking Ouroboros’ spine to teach her a lesson!

“Ooo... stingy Casina...” Ouroboros’ real body rolled over on the ground, making the earth tremble and the mountain sway.

“Hey, how about... let’s elope... go to a god’s domain that nobody can find together... and eat and drink happily there all day.” Ouroboros tried to abduct Yun Xi.

“Shuffle!” With a sound, Casina’s fingertip brandished in the air, and a jet of blood shot up to the sky.

“Ah ah ah ah ah! I’m dying! I’m dying!” Ouroboros screamed, because Casina’s fingertip just cut off the tip of its tail.

“Just in time, you don’t mind letting me borrow your blood, right?” Casina glanced at the tip of Ouroboros’ tail.

Although the blood gushed out from the wound was enough to fill a lake, Ouroboros’ true body was as big as a star, the wound was actually barely worth mentioning to Ouroboros. The harm was even lighter than the toxicity of Hydra’s poisonous wine.

“Open your arms and lay on the ground,” Casina said in an indisputable tone, ordering Yun Xi to change his posture.

“The source of Heaven and Earth... Reverse!” Her legs were separated and almost perfectly attached to Yun Xi’s separated hands. Casina raised her head slowly and laid her hands on Yun Xi’s belly, where the blood and energy in his body converged.

A huge amount of free energy in the air mixed with Ouroboros’ blood and a hint of wine converged towards Casina’s hands.

Hot! It's hot! Yun Xi felt that his blood was going to explode. Countless hot streams ran through his body like snakes, and then followed a specific route to transfer back and forth in his body.

One time, two times, three times! With a huge sound of heartbeat, Yun Xi's blood was running at a frenzied speed in his body.

And a special part of his body also went "ballistic".

Yun Xi was so glad that he was lying on the ground. Otherwise, he was afraid that his "pillar" would prop up the sky.

Just when Yun Xi thought he was at his limit, Casina suddenly exhaled, and all the energy began to revolve around Yun Xi's belly and forming a huge whirlpool.

The Magnificent of Sky Dance!

Several blood-colored jewels appeared in Casina's palms and then began to construct a blood-colored crystal at high speed.

This was the gift Casina prepared for Yun Xi, a seed that could activate her power in his body when he was facing a life-or-death crisis.

This was the core of "The Etiquette of the Battle God": Battle God's Seed!

Yun Xi once obtained a similar seed from the green hippo, but compared to Casina's seed, it was nothing.

The Green Hippo's Seed was just a disposable consumable.

The Battle God's Seed not only contained Casina's power, but also could slowly absorb the free energy in the air to recover itself. That was to say, it can be used as many times as Yun Xi wanted.

At first, Casina planned to give Yun Xi this seed after he reached the hero rank and started to travel around the endless god's domains.

But after knowing that Yun Xi would face a crisis that may cause his death in the near future, Casina decided to put the seed into Yun Xi's body in advance.

In order to let Yun Xi's body become strong enough to withstand the power of the seed, Casina came to Hydra's treasury and paid a huge price, so that she could obtain the precious blood crystal of Hydra, which would be used as the carrier of the Battle God's Seed.

However, it was just that Yun Xi's body grew faster than Casina imagined. After obtaining Mumu's "Diamond Body", he had leapt over the most difficult part.

Oh, it looks like I can seal more stuff into his body... Casina smiled and began to transform more of Ouroboros' blood into energy and pour them into Yun Xi's body.

It would become a trump card to save Yun Xi's life, naturally, the stronger it was, the better it was. She didn't want such a gifted disciple to die three months later.

With the Soul Jades to protect Yun Xi's soul and the Battle God's Seed to protect his body, Casina believed that even if Yun Xi was facing a legend ranked enemy, he could easily find a way to survive.

Chapter 562: The Fragrance of the Wine

"It hurts... Casina, you bleeding me too much!" Ouroboros protested.

Against violence! Long live peace!

"Anyway, you'll have to sleep for many years, and the blood will recover when you sleep." Casina's fingertips crossed the air again.

Shuffle! More blood flew to Casina's hands from Ouroboros' broken tail and turned into energy.

"Be good, be good, it doesn't hurt at all..." Casina bled Ouroboros and consoled her, treating her as if she was just a three-year-old child.

"But... it really hurts!" rolling on the ground with tears in her eyes, Ouroboros watched Casina.

"It's your delusion! Everything is just a delusion! You drank too much." Casina lied with a straight face and continued to draw Ouroboros' blood.

"Whoa... Casina is a liar!" Realizing that resistance was futile, Ouroboros could only lay on the ground and watch Casina drawing her blood. She also stared at Yun Xi with an angry look.

Soon, she showed a bad smile.

Well, Casina is a fool! Since she loves her disciple so much, I have to do something to him.

“Boy, do you drink?” Finding that Casina wasn’t paying attention to her human body, Ouroboros sneaked up to Yun Xi’s face again and licked his cheek with her little tongue.

Well, it’s soft, comfortable and delicious.

“No!” Yun Xi resolutely shook his head.

Are you kidding me? Is it a wine that a hero ranked Baker can drink? A drop of that kind of poisonous wine can kill ten thousands of him!

However, just like Ouroboros couldn’t resist Casina, Yun Xi couldn’t resist Ouroboros.

“It doesn’t matter. Let big sister teach you how to drink.”

“Drinking is a very, very comfortable thing.”

“No matter how many troubles, how many troublesome debts you have, as long as you drink enough, everything will disappear!” Ouroboros proudly declared her creed of life.

No, they won’t disappear, you are just escaping from yourself!

Before Yun Xi could say no, Ouroboros' soft lips had attached to his lips, and then the fragrant tongue skillfully slid through his teeth and tightly twined with his tongue.

Ouroboros' kiss was suffocating, and at the same time, a mellow aroma of wine spread naturally from her tongue.

This taste... no toxicity? Yun Xi was surprised to find that it seemed that the wine had lost toxicity after being drunk by Ouroboros, and also mixed with a sweet odor from Ouroboros' tongue.

This was the drinking technique that Ouroboros prided herself on (though it was of no use at all). She could break down the wine she drank into different serums and store them in her body for ready use.

The snake was a kind of creature that could store a lot of food in its body at a time and didn't eat anything for many years after that.

It was a rare opportunity to drink Hydra's poisonous wine, so after she drunk a lot of wine, she broke down and stored the remaining wines in her body.

Now what she fed Yun Xi was the liquid she stored in her body. After being broken down by her body, the wine had lost most of the toxicity and became a liquid that Yun Xi could drink.

Even so, the liquid still retained the aroma of the poisonous wine. Just drinking a sip of the liquid, Yun Xi's eyes had become fierce, and his tongue suddenly became active.

“Hum.” Ouroboros noticed the change, but obviously, her drunk head wasn’t able to analyze what had happened.

Anyway, it’s comfortable, isn’t it?

“Gu... Umm...” Yun Xi’s face and Ouroboros’ face flushed at the same time. Silver silk threads fell between their lips and tongues.

Casina noticed this and frowned.

Oh, my disciple is too daring.

Although Ouroboros looked so decadent, she was still a famous legend ranked augur with countless troubles and debts.

Could Ouroboros be the cause of my disciple’s death after three months?

“Um... Um...” Ouroboros encountered an unexpected counterattack.

Why is your kiss so skillful, little guy?!

Speaking of that , I’ve never kissed someone so intimately before.

Humph, no! Bet on the prestige of the great Ouroboros, I must make this little guy drunk!

Ouroboros secreted more liquid from her mouth and tried to get Yun Xi drunk.

Yun Xi felt as if the whole world had become floating, this kind of feeling... oh, it seems to have happened before when he stayed with the mysterious dark elf.

In a trance, Ouroboros' appearance also became ambiguous in his eyes.

For a moment, she looked like the dark elf that night.

For a moment, she looked like his angry childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo.

For a moment, she looked like a girl of the Starwing Knights.

Ouroboros' plan failed. The more drunk Yun Xi was, the more enthusiastic he became. He wasn't a person that would topple down to the ground after drinking.

At first, she wanted to make Yun Xi drunk, but now, she was entangled by Yun Xi.

When Yun Xi's tongue licked her tongue enthusiastically, her body shook and she became ashamed.

It wasn't the same thing to kiss him mischievously, then be kissed by him forcibly!

She slightly resisted Yun Xi's tongue, but finally, she gave up resisting. Yun Xi's tongue slipped into her mouth full of the fragrance of wine and sucked it heartily.

Chapter 563: Hua Huo's Instinct

On the other side of the Water God's Fantasy Island, a small region which was also under the deep sea.

If the wine store where Yun Xi, Casina, and Ouroboros were at was a dreamy paradise, then this must be hell.

Flames. Dark green flames continuously shot out from the earth. With lethal and poisonous miasma almost covering the land, from time to time, dazzling green sparks burst out to the sky.

If the wine store was Hydra's fond dream, then this region must be Hydra's nightmare.

There were good wines in the store that could let legend ranked beings get drunk, but there were only monsters, monsters, and monsters in this nightmare place.

A kind of six-legged green lizards were the main inhabitants of the nightmare world. In some sense, they could also be seen as a kind of creatures created by Hydra. There were the bugs whose only function was to clean Hydra's scales.

Why is there such a weird world?

That was because it represented the dark, terrible side of Hydra's past and the source of the most terrible forbidden zone in the Storm Eyes.

Now, here, a battle was taking place.

“Boom!” The earth was trembling, the sky was shaking, the green and blood-colored lights tore through the clouds, constant sounds of impacts echoed between the sky and earth.

There were two people that were fighting. One was a girl who wore the uniform of the Sword Palace with a broken sword in her hand. She was also Yun Xi’s childhood sweetheart: Hua Huo.

Opposite her was a thing that she didn’t know whether it should be called a human being or not.

Its body roughly looked like a human, but the whole body was covered with a layer of black halos, which completely obscured its true appearance.

The only things that could be seen was the green gems on its hands, wrists, and waist, while its hair was in a diamond shape along with a huge diamond-shaped sword in its hand.

The shape of this sword wasn’t suitable for battle at all. Just like Hua Huo’s broken sword, it was a weapon beyond common sense.

A green band tightly wrapped around its hand and the sword. It didn’t look like a decorative adornment but more like a part of its body.

“Who the hell are you?” Hua Huo watched this monster and asked in an agitated tone. Several days ago, she was haunted by it and was forced to fight with it.

Its strength was really strange.

Originally, she was having a secret trial. She went deep into this region for a relic in the sword blade area to search for a treasure. As a result, she was attacked by this monster halfway. And before she realized it, she had been dragged by it into this strange world.

She felt as if this green monster was obsessed with her, no matter what she did, it just didn't let her go.

And its strength was also becoming stronger and stronger as the battle continued.

At first, its strength was only at the fourth rank, but as she continued to increase her strength, its body changed.

At first, it looked shorter than she was, but now it was a bit taller than her.

Its diamond-shaped sword had been broken by her several times, but it could condense together again each time, getting bigger and thicker.

Now, its strength had reached the fifth rank.

As for its abilities, they should be just "Endurance" and "High-speed Recovery" and so on. Even if she cut off half of its waist, it could recover with amazing speed.

This was definitely not an ability that humans could have. She guessed that it was probably a slime or something else.

“...” The green monster tilted and turned its head 360 degrees. It shook its head and raised its diamond-shaped sword again.

Several green gems flew out and wrapped around the evil weapon, releasing a chilling breath.

“What a trouble...” Hua Huo frowned.

She wasn't really helpless with this fellow, as long as she liberated the true power hidden in her blood, she could kill this monster in seconds.

However, she couldn't do that. She couldn't control her hidden power well. If she released the power in her blood without restraint, she would probably tear up the whole of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Once she liberated all the power in her blood, even she herself didn't know what she would become.

Her wings were not yet old enough to unfold.

“Puff... puff... The green monster emitted strange sounds of gasping. Its whole body was strongly distorted with a burst of weird laughter,

“Ha ha ha ha ha ha!”

“Hee Hee Hee Hee Hee Hee Hee!”

“Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha!”

With that chilling laughter, the flying gems melted in the next second and became green flames wrapping around the monster’s body.

The next second, the monster dragged the sword and rushed forward.

Every step it took, the monster would become faster and stronger, as if no matter what was standing in front of its eyes, it would rush over and crush everything.

“I’m in a bad mood. You’re looking for your own death!” Hua Huo had been in a very bad mood since the trial started.

She felt like something terrible had happened in the past few days.

This instinct became stronger and stronger every day, but because she was too far away from the White Lotus Sword Palace, she wasn’t sure what was going on around Yun Xi. She just had a growing sense of unease.

Little Xi, you won’t play with other girls when I’m not around, will you?

It will be ok. No one will find out your real identity, they will only treat you as a maid. There is absolutely no problem!

Even so, Hua Huo was still in a restless mood, in contrast to this, the monster was nothing to speak of.

However, just now, this mood had reached a new peak!

She suddenly felt like her Little Xi was around here, but she couldn't sense his location clearly, as if some invisible force had been hindering her perception.

What the hell is going on?

This green monster and this strange world were like traps especially prepared for her, full of malice!

Who wants to do something to me?

It doesn't matter! If this world wants to stop me, then I only need to completely destroy this world!

A strand of hair rose high on her head. After she confirmed that Yun Xi was around, Hua Huo's eyes became fierce.

Chapter 564: Breakthrough

"One!" It looked as if she was waking up monsters who should not appear in the world, there was a glowing fluorescence in Hua Huo's eyes.

Green flames burst into the sky and the black halo that surrounded the green monster's body broke apart little by little, gradually exposing the monster's real face.

It had six strange eyes and a face that was quite similar to a lizard. On its forehead, there was a strange flame imprint, which could give any ordinary people a shivering feeling.

"Two!" Hua Huo didn't look at the green monster's real body.

Because, in her eyes, the green monster was already a corpse.

"Boom!" In the huge green pillar of fire, the monster's size suddenly tripled, turning into a giant lizard over six meters tall with black diamond armor bursting out from its spine and a triangular tail wagging behind.

"Three!" Hua Huo held the broken sword in her both hands. A terrible aura spread around her body.

"Sky Flying!"

The next second, Hua Huo disappeared from in front of the giant lizard, and then the world began to shine.

They were the lights of the sword. Seven sword-shaped lights cut open the sky and earth and instantly locked on the giant lizard's body.

Before the giant lizard elevated its fighting power to the sixth rank, its body had been torn into pieces.

The first sword cut off the lizard's head.

The second sword cut off the lizard's right hand.

The third sword tore up the lizard's left hand and left shoulder.

The fourth sword cut off the lizard's waist.

The fifth sword cut tore open the lizard's body from the center.

The sixth sword cut off the lizard's two legs.

The seventh sword cut minced all the remains of the body, turning into blood spraying all over the sky.

This was the special killing skill in the Sky Flying Sword – Seven Killing Sword.

Only the swordsman who soared freely in the sky could perform this killing skill, which was essentially against the rules of human sword skill.

The giant lizard crushed into a pool of blood, leaving only a dozen green gems still tenaciously trying to piece together the blood and flesh on the ground.

“This is...” Hua Huo stared at the green gems and finally found what they were.

They were slimes that had never been seen before.

The giant lizard-like monster was a mere delusion, essentially a bunch of flesh and blood pieced together by these slimes.

When her Seven Killing Sword tore the giant lizard’s body apart, it also cut the slimes up into more than a dozen pieces. However, these slimes had strong, tenacious vitality. Even if they were cut into more than a dozen pieces, they were still alive and trying to revive the giant lizard.

“Shaya Longnis?” Hua Huo stepped on a creeping green slime, showing a doubtful expression in her eyes.

She thought about it and found out that only Shaya Longnis had the ability to create these slimes as a machine of battle.

“...” The moment Hua Huo uttered this name, all the green gem slimes suddenly stagnated and exploded.

In the magnificent mushroom clouds, Hua Huo flashed left and right by stepping on the transparent halos she created and finally escaped from the continuous explosions, looking at the devastated land from a height of 10,000 meters.

“Well, Shaya Longnis, I remember you!” Although Shaya Longnis was a legend ranked opponent and the tenth Sky Sword, Hua Huo showed no fear in her eyes.

Sky Flying Sword contained unlimited possibility, even if the opponent was a god, she wouldn't be scared.

However, the most important thing now for Hua Huo was not that damn Sky Sword, Shaya Longnis, but her childhood sweetheart!

That strand of hair on her head rotated at a high speed, and Hua Huo's perceived a huge red world.

She had never felt such a huge red alarm. She closed her eyes and felt as if she was in a red ocean.

Up, down, left, right, as far as she could see, the world was covered in a dazzling red.

“I see you!”

Hua Huo held the broken sword in her hands. If she hadn't had such a sensitive jealousy radar, she would never have noticed that there were other red units in this strange world full of red.

Little Xi is absolutely there!

This instinct will never go wrong!

“If the world wants to stop me, then the world must be wrong!” Hua Huo shouted at the sky:

“The sky can’t cover my eyes!”

“The earth can’t bury my heart!”

“This Childhood sweetheart will be the final winner!”

A column of sword-shaped light crazily bombarded on a barrier between heaven and earth with astonishing momentum.

Her Little Xi was there!

In Hydra’s wine store.

“Well, the last step.”

Casina moved her hands back and inadvertently brushed the “rising part” of Yun Xi’s body with a gentle tremor on her fingertips.

“Ah!” Yun Xi’s body shook suddenly and his breath became disordered, which made Ouroboros’ body also trembled.

“Boom! Boom! Boom! ”

It was such a spectacular scene. As if the sky and earth were reversed, the whole world was making an unbearable roar.

Ouroboros’ giant body rolled, convulsed, trembled and twisted continuously on the ground. She looked painful and joyful at the same time.

After a series of giant earthquakes and landslides, Ouroboros’ eyes became empty as if she had comprehended the truth of the universe. Both her real body and the human incarnation were paralyzed on the ground.

A great deal of blood gushed out like a tsunami from the wound on the tip of Ouroboros’ tail, and then was absorbed by Casina’s hands.

“Whoa... Woo... I... I am defiled...” Realizing what just happened, Ouroboros looked into the void, feeling empty. She didn’t even mind what Yun Xi was doing and would do now.

The aroma of the wine between their lips and tongues had also become stronger and thicker.

Chapter 565: Expose the Truth

The blood-colored crystallization turned into a transparent seed with an hourglass mark on it and was fully integrated into the center of Yun Xi’s abdomen.

There was the source of vitality and blood, and also the place where “Golden Dan” formed.

The form of the “Golden Dan” was the sign of reaching the highest rank of the Heaven Road’s Palace, obtaining the “Golden Dan” was equal to obtaining “immortality”. It was the final goal of all Taoist priests of the Heaven Road’s Palace.

In some sense, Yun Xi’s “Battle God’s Seed” was an “Artificial Golden Dan”.

Over the entire Eastern God’s Domains, only Casina had the ability to create a Battle God’s Seed for her disciple!

After the Battle God’s Seed successfully condensed in Yun Xi’s body, Casina stretched herself leisurely and stood up. She looked at Yun Xi and Ouroboros and whistled, “Well, you two, don’t play too long. I’ll go to sleep for a while.”

Having drunk so much and finding that her disciple had unexpectedly solved the hidden danger in his soul, Casina felt that it was really a good day today.

So, to celebrate it, why don’t I go to drink the remaining wine in Hydra’s wine store?

Casina thought and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

What a piece of luck! Ouroboros can’t leave now, so it’s the best time for me to collect all the remaining wine!

“Casina... Don’t go!” Now Ouroboros finally knew what it meant to “lift a brick and smash your own foot”.

She was just drunk and wanted to tease Casina's cute disciple, why did she become the person who was bullied?

I must strongly condemn and resolutely oppose this kind of bullying behavior!

I'm the great Ouroboros, the fantastic creature who can observe the river of time!

How can such a great woman be bullied by a masked man?

Yes, it's the world's fault! Not mine!

Yun Xi felt dizzy, which seemed not only because he had drunk too much wine from Ouroboros' mouth.

Hot! It's so hot! After the Battle God's Seed flew into his body, he found that the flow rate of his blood didn't slow down but began to accelerate.

If Casina was here, she would naturally tell her cute disciple that this was a normal phenomenon.

He felt that his body was dry and hot, which was actually the signal that the Battle God's Seed began to exert its power to promote the circulation of his blood.

The process of adapting to the power of the Battle God's Seed was also the process of practicing the "Battle God Genre". As the trump card that could be used to save his life, the greatest effect of the Battle God's Seed was to accelerate the flow rate of his blood.

Those who have acquired the Battle God's Seed would inevitably embark on the road of endless battles to release and absorb the power in the Battle God's Seed.

Well, Casina had just forgotten that there were some differences between men's and women's bodies.

To women, increasing the flow rate of their blood could increase their battle power at the same time.

However, to men, the Battle God's Seed had some side effects.

For example, some indescribable problem that now plagued Yun Xi.

As the kiss continued, this problem was getting worse and worse, and finally reached that irremediable point.

"Shuffle!" Ouroboros suddenly trembled all over, because her whole body was just embraced by Yun Xi, then they rolled on the ground and Yun Xi rode on her body.

"Ga... Ha..." Yun Xi gasped heavily with a painful look and then stared at Ouroboros, whose body felt weak and could barely move a finger at this time.

"Casina... Come and save me!"

"I will be bullied again!" Ouroboros was going to cry.

As a fantastic creature whose body was as large as a star, why do I have no resistance at all in the face of this situation?

Well, I must've drunk too much. Yes, I must be hallucinating!

Why did Casina's cute disciple begin to take off his clothes?

Hum? Wait! What's that?

What's that big, tough, fierce thing that's standing up almost at his belly button?

Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah!

Why does Casina's disciple have such a big thing?!

Ouroboros' eyes and mouth opened wide. Even her vertical snake pupils turned into silly circles.

Yun Xi rudely approached her and pushed her down, and that heroic, high-spirited, indescribable part of his body was completely stuck between Ouroboros' beautiful, slender legs.

"Ah ah ah ah ah ah!" Ouroboros screamed and finally realized what a bad situation she was going to endure.

If she knew that Casina's cute, obedient disciple would suddenly become so violent, she would have never teased him!

Yun Xi didn't think too much, because the Battle God's Seed was constantly providing him an endless stream of energy.

Ironically, the original source of the energy was from Ouroboros' blood.

To Ouroboros, it was just a negligible part of the blood in her true body.

But being absorbed by the Battle God's Seed, it could offer Yun Xi endless vitality.

"Help... Casina!"

"This is my first time!"

"That... That big thing... it can't get in!"

In Hydra's wine store, the pitiful and heart-beating sound echoed.

Chapter 566: Critical Momen

Ouroboros never thought that she would one day encounter a great crisis for her chastity!

After all, she was a fantastic creature, a great augur. No one would expect that there was anyone who could bully her in the endless god's domains.

"Help, Casina!" Ouroboros struggled hard, looking like a saltwater fish nailed to the beach.

More than once, her "final barrier" had almost been broken.

If it wasn't because that Yun Xi's mind had also become cloudy, he would've already succeeded and enjoyed Ouroboros' wonderful body.

"Casina! Casina! Casina! I'll give you everything. Make your disciple stop!" Ouroboros shouted with despair, finally, she made a decision.

Transform!

She decided to transform her human form back into the snake form. If she succeeded, at any rate, Casina's disciple couldn't do anything to a snake, and her chastity could be saved in this way!

Ouroboros thought so and started to do it.

Unfortunately, she failed. No, it wasn't a total fail, to be exact, it was a half success.

She forgot that she was drunk, so control of her forces was very bad right now.

Only her legs turned into a snake tail, but her body didn't become a snake and still kept the human form.

Because of her transformation, the robe that had wrapped her body was broken by the snake tail, revealing her snow-white "peaks" and that "mysterious area".

"Ah ah ah ah ah!" Ouroboros desperately tried to cover her soft, snow-white peaks with both hands. Instinctively, she tightly wrapped her snake tail around Yun Xi's whole body.

For the vast majority of people, this situation was extremely dangerous.

However, Yun Xi wasn't one of them.

Because of his experience on the Water God's Fantasy Island, because of the Lamia Queen and many other lovely Lamia girls, he was very experienced in dealing with this situation.

Yun Xi's hand easily touched the place that should not be touched, and then pinched, kneaded, dug, and then Ouroboros' body completely softened and relaxed. Her hands covered her breasts and her eyes became watery.

"Why are you so skilled... Ooo..." Ouroboros desperately found that her body became totally weak and limp.

Yun Xi blinked and continued. The days and nights with the Lamia Queen and the other enthusiastic Lamia girls had already let him master the skills of dealing with snake tails.

Those enthusiastic Lamia girls often wrapped more than one snake tail around him and courted him.

The Lamia Queen herself also seemed to like this unique way of mating. Compared with Ouroboros who had zero experience at all, they had much more experience with Yun Xi.

Ouroboros never thought that her last salvation was a total fail.

If she was still in her human form, at least, she could still struggle, at least, she could hypnotize herself into thinking that this wasn't her true body, so she could think she didn't lose anything.

However, in this snake tail form, she couldn't do any struggling. Not only her body, but even her soul was also about to fall.

Why is this so comfortable?!

If she wasn't drunk, she had ten thousand methods to kill him, but now even resistance was almost impossible.

Her body became weak and limp, this was a sensory stimulus she had never experienced before, as if there were innumerable electric currents wandering through her body.

Where Yun Xi's fingers touched, her body trembled. The long snake tail couldn't exert the crushing pressure of squeezing, but she felt like she was being touched all over, shaking with the rhythm of his fingers.

“Whoa... Ah... no...” Her voice no longer panicked but groaned with a sweet gasp.

A door to a new world was slowly opening to Ouroboros, it was a decadent and intoxicating world.

By the time Yun Xi’s lips covered Ouroboros’ lips again, Ouroboros’ groan had become sweet and attractive, as intoxicating as the wine secreted from her mouth.

Well, it’s about the time... Somehow, Yun Xi naturally understood that it was time to “eat” Ouroboros.

Just like in the past times, he “ate” those shy Lamia girls.

“You... little bastard...” Ouroboros also perceived that her body seemed to be ready for all kinds of happy mating postures.

Alas, it’s all the fault of Phoenix! That divination Phoenix asked for almost took half her life, and she still hadn’t recovered yet. Otherwise, how would it be possible to be taken advantage of by others?

After finding an unreasonable excuse for it, Ouroboros bit on Yun Xi’s shoulder and left deep teeth marks there.

It’s a curse, a curse from Ouroboros. Even if Yun Xi ran to the ends of the earth, he can’t get rid of it.

“Boom!” The sky was torn by a sword, and Hua Huo saw at first glance that her childhood sweetheart was being bitten by a dangerous snake.

And they were both naked!

Chapter 567: Blasphemous Words

“How dare you!” Looking at her lover being bitten by a poisonous snake, even though the poisonous snake was so huge, she couldn’t stop the anger in her heart.

Sky Flying Bloodline has no fear! Whether the opponent was a god or a fantastic creature, she didn’t mind at all!

She was born to surpass all restraints and obtain unlimited freedom!

Holding the broken sword in her both hands, Hua Huo completely liberated her power, an astonishing momentum emanated from her petite body.

I will kill you!

Without any divination, Ouroboros could clearly see Hua Huo’s killing intent in her eyes.

I’m so miserable! Ouroboros only wanted to cry.

I’m the victim!

I’m the one who is going to be eaten, okay?

Run away! Run away! Just take Casina's disciple and escape far away from this world and go to a place where nobody can find us! Then I can have him all to myself!

Well, that's a great idea! Anyway, I have had a lot of debts. It doesn't matter if I have to find a new creditor.

"Boom! Boom!" Using the last of her strength, Ouroboros moved her true body in front of herself as a barrier to stop Hua Huo. She was ready to flee.

For any hero ranked beings, it was impossible to cause any damage to her legend ranked fantastic creature body.

If one's attack wasn't as strong as Casina's, even if she was attacked by a hundred hero ranked beings, none of them could destroy a scale on her body.

However, although she didn't divine, she had an ominous feeling that she couldn't run away.

No, how could this be possible? How could a human hurt me? She is just a little girl, not Casina!

Looking at Ouroboros' enormous body move over, the enormous snake tail looked like a group of mountains joining together and floating in the air.

Hua Huo's eyes become more combative.

Are you wanting to flee? No way! I won't let you!

Even if I have to destroy this world, I will not allow this shameless bitch to take my Little Xi away!

Let me show you the real horror of Sky Flying Sword!

"Unlock the first sequence, the second sequence. Liberate the 'Blasphemous Words'!"

Since the opponent was a fantastic creature, she would naturally raise the power of her Sky Flying Sword to the legend rank!

"Blasphemous Words" was a horrible killing skill for this attack. Its attack power was deadly even to legend ranked beings.

"In the name of the Sky Flying Sword, I declare that you can't defend yourself against this sword!"

"In the name of the Sky Flying Sword, I declare that you can't avoid this sword!"

Numerous complex runes emerged from Hua Huo's body, which were the "locks" imposed on her body, the seals of her Sky Flying Bloodline. They were the shackles of her body, but also the props that could let her move freely in the mortal world.

If she released all the power contained in her Sky Flying Bloodline, she couldn't even enter any mortal world.

The power of her Sky Flying Bloodline was too strong. Before she could really control this power, she had to seal it.

Essentially, Hua Huo was like a god who bounded her strength into a human body. The human body was only a carrier.

Once her Sky Flying Bloodline was fully awakened, her life form would transform into a totally different form.

At this moment, what Hua Huo did was to open the "locks" and push open a slit of the door of the Sky Flying Bloodline, releasing a trace of the indescribable power behind the door.

Sky Flying Sword was the key to open the door of power, and this key had always been held in her hands.

However, she never expected to push open the door before.

Why? Behind the door, the power was so strong that it could let her defeat Ouroboros easily. As long as she pushed open the door bravely, she could instantly reach the legend rank.

However, she just didn't want to open it. Because beside her, her childhood sweetheart was always staying with her.

She didn't want to leave him.

Once she opened the door, these happy days would come to an end. If she opened the door, she could no longer stay in the mortal world and must go back to the place where Sky Flying Bloodline was derived from and accept her ultimate mission.

And now, she opened a crack in the door, it was also because of Yun Xi. She couldn't imagine that her Little Xi was taken away by others. There was no reason for her to stay in this world if she lost her Little Xi!

She needed that power now! Just a trace of the power!

The instant Hua Huo murmured the Blasphemous Words, the sky and the earth became bloody red.

Obscurely, a pair of huge eyes across countless stars, watching her from infinity.

It's the abyss, it's destruction, it's life, it's rebirth, it's a huge will woven by innumerable rules.

Being watched by the pair of eyes, something was going to break out from Hua Huo's back, but she desperately stopped its appearance.

The broken sword in her hand had long been transformed into countless particles and eventually into a blood-colored lightsaber that seemed to have the power to cut the world open.

That's not a delusion. After being enchanted by the Blasphemous Words, the sword had temporarily acquired the attribute of "Perdition". At this moment, it was a veritable god weapon that could easily destroy a world.

"Oh my god, it's the Blasphemous Words!"

"Are all these little guys nowadays all monsters?" Feeling the fierce aura from the blood sword in Hua Huo's hands, Ouroboros' legs felt weak and she could barely stand up.

Yes, I'm at the legend rank, but... I'm just an augur, not a warrior! Why do I have to fight against this monster?

Hua Huo didn't know and didn't care what Ouroboros was thinking. She just brandished her sword at Ouroboros.

She was serious! She was really going to kill this snake!

Not long ago, Casina cut open Ouroboros' tail and drew a great amount of blood. And this time, under Hua Huo's attack, her tail was completely chopped off. The fierce pain made her roll over on the ground and cry sadly.

Chapter 568: The Sword of Victory (1)

"Boom! Boom!" Ouroboros' tail and her true body rolled over on the ground together.

The blood flowing from the wound had almost covered one tenth of the floor of Hydra's wine store. It was totally a sea of blood which was hard to believe that it was blood flowing from a living creature.

In the sea of blood, Ouroboros was still struggling, struggling, struggling...

“This bitch!” Looking at Ouroboros holding Yun Xi in her arms and rolling over on the ground, Hua Huo got exasperated.

Ouroboros wasn't that easy to be killed.

Even though Hua Huo had enchanted the “Blasphemous Words” on her sword, it was still too difficult to kill a fantastic creature.

Compared to Ouroboros' true body, which was as large as a star, the tail that was cut off by Hua Huo was roughly equal to the size of a human finger.

This was the first time that Hua Huo had attacked a legend ranked fantastic creature, and now, she found that this damn snake's HP was just too high!

Her attack didn't cause a fatal blow.

Hua Huo unlocked the self-seal and enchanted the magics such as “Always Hit”, “Armor Break” and “Critical Strike” on her attack.

She launched a deadly strike and caused a -99,999 damage.

The problem was – Ouroboros' HP was 99,999,999!

That was to say, the huge damage was actually barely worth mentioning to Ouroboros.

As for why Ouroboros cried and rolled around on the ground... it was purely because she was a female fantastic creature who was spoiled since birth!

Apart from drinking and running away from her creditors, she had no fighting experience at all. Moreover, although the damage caused by Hua Huo's attack was negligible compared to Ouroboros' HP, her snake tail was indeed cut off.

Hua Huo calculated. If she could use this special sword skill unboundedly, she needed to brandish her sword 1,000 times before she could kill this snake.

The problem was that she couldn't liberate her power and use this sword skill 1,000 times. In fact, it was a taboo to unlock the seals on her. Every time she brandished her sword, it would become harder and harder to stay in the mortal world. This was the cost of using the power that was far beyond her actual strength.

She could use it at most ten more times, this was the critical point for Hua Huo to control herself, and if she couldn't solve her opponent within ten attacks, she would face a terrible ending.

She didn't want to leave Little Xi, so she had been working hard practicing herself, increasing her ability to control of her Sky Flying Bloodline.

At the same time, she also didn't want to see her Little Xi being taken away by this poisonous snake.

“Let’s fight!” Eventually, Hua Huo made up her mind.

For Little Xi, she would bet everything on herself in a fight!

“Come on...” Ouroboros rolled over on the ground sneaking a peek into the sky.

As a legend ranked fantastic creature, it was too shameful to be beaten down by a little girl.

However, she couldn’t help it. She had drunk so much that her mind was still in a total fog. She couldn’t fight in this situation.

Since I can’t fight, then I’ll have to run away!

Running away is shameful, but useful! (Editor’s note: Also known as “Discretion is the better part of valor”)

Hence, Ouroboros rolled up Yun Xi using her tail and was going to run away.

Although she couldn’t fight, her bloodline could still be used at times like this.

Her bloodline ability was called the “Way to Survive”. No matter how desperate the situation had become, she could always find a way to escape.

It was precisely because of this special supernatural power that Ouroboros was able to escape from her creditors so many times.

Now, it's time to run again!

Ouroboros had made up her mind that after this escape, she would surely find a small god's domain that hadn't been connected to the star bridge system, and live happily there with Casina's cute disciple.

Well, thinking about it, she felt that it was a pretty good idea.

Maybe because she was caught on the spot, her heart was still pounding with excitement. Did she have a fetish in this respect?

She felt like some strange habit had been awakened in her heart.

"Puff..." Looking at Ouroboros' moves, Hua Huo's eyes became more firm.

You damn snake! How dare you to try to steal my Little Xi?

Even if I can't kill you now, I will let you know what the greatest horror is of a childhood sweetheart. I must teach you a lesson that you will never forget!

Little Xi is mine! He is my treasure, my dearest lover!

“Beyond... the limit!”

“Unlock the third Blasphemous Word!” A small part of the runes all over Hua Huo’s body collapsed, at the same time, a strange protuberance grew out of Hua Huo’s back.

“In the name of the Sky Flying Sword, this sword is unavoidable!”

“In the name of the Sky Flying Sword, this sword isn’t defensible!”

“In the name of the Sky Flying Sword, this sword will bring me victory!”

Chapter 569: The Sword of Victory (2)

Three Blasphemous Words. The first and the second of the three Blasphemous Words were still intelligible, but the third Blasphemous Word was more complicated.

“Victory” was a compound word, which could achieve multiple miracles and needed more support from Hua Huo’s Sky Flying Bloodline.

To use it, Hua Huo had to pay a higher price and be closer to the taboos that she didn’t want to touch for the time being.

However, for the sake of Yun Xi, all this is worthwhile!

No matter who her opponent was, she wouldn't allow her Little Xi to be taken away from her side.

After all, as his childhood sweetheart, she should guard her lover!

"No!" Before Hua Huo brandished her sword, Ouroboros had had a hunch.

Bad, this is very bad! Although she didn't know what was happening, when Hua Huo announced the three Blasphemous Words, Ouroboros had a strong presentiment that she would soon be faced with imminent disaster.

This is not a delusion!

Ten blood-colored sword-shaped lights were falling from the sky!

In order to achieve the final victory, Hua Huo blatantly broke through her own critical point!

This reality is not a game.

Attacks aren't just to reduce the opponent's HP.

Even if Ouroboros had 99,999,999 HP and super high-speed self-healing ability, Hua Huo would cut a piece of flesh off her.

And the location of this piece of flesh had been targeted out by the third Blasphemous Word “victory”!

The first to the ninth sword-shaped lights were all used to break down the barrier created by Ouroboros’ enormous body. They didn’t seek the greatest lethality, but concentrate on one point and one angle.

The blood-colored sword-shaped lights pierced through Ouroboros’ body like an operating knife.

“Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah Ah!” Ouroboros was really scared. She instinctively took Yun Xi in her arms and rolled in a certain direction and escaped into the sea of blood.

Unfortunately, for Hua Huo who had used the Blasphemous Word “Victory”, even if she closed her eyes, she could easily find Ouroboros’ position.

The goddess of victory had begun to smile at her!

Childhood sweetheart is indeed the final winner!

With a flash of light, Hua Huo shot out the blood sword from her hands with all her might.

The blood-colored sword pierced through Ouroboros’ tail and through her heart, nailing her whole body to the ground.

Stepping on one transparent halo after another in the air, Hua Huo walked up to Ouroboros.

“Casina, I’m going to be killed if you don’t appear!” Ouroboros raised her hands and tail to surrender with an utterly frustrated look.

Almost being killed by a hero ranked little girl... Ouroboros had really lost face.

Fortunately, her ability of “The Way to Survive” successfully sent her voice to Casina.

“Well... Ouroboros... oh, and my cute disciple... ” Casina finally walked out from the wine store and drunkenly looked at the three people in front of her with a look of “What the hell is going on here?” on her face.

“Give me back my little Xi!” Hua Huo frowned and looked at the drunken Battle God.

Casina wasn’t a person that Ouroboros could be compared with. She was a living invincible myth in the endless god’s domains.

Even though Hua Huo had the Sky Flying Bloodline, she would have to pay tribute to the Battle God.

If she was facing Casina, her Blasphemous Word “Victory” wouldn’t be able to cause any damage to Casina.

Although both Casina and Ouroboros were at the legend rank... there was actually a difference between different legend ranked beings!

Even ten Ouroboros were no match for one Casina.

“Ooo... This little girl... she is bullying me!” Ouroboros complained to Casina.

“Ah!” At this time, Yun Xi finally recovered from the strong desire caused by the Battle God’s Seed. Looking at an angry Hua Huo, his mind had gone blank.

He wasn’t slow in reacting. In fact, for Hua Huo rushed to them from the sky and Ouroboros started to run away, everything happened within just a few seconds.

When Ouroboros rolled over on the ground, his overheated brain thought that it was just an Ouroboros’ special habit and didn’t notice the sword-shaped lights that were shooting at them from the sky.

Until Ouroboros’ heart was penetrated through by Hua Huo’s sword and her snake tail slumped, he finally saw his childhood sweetheart.

!!! When did she get here? What did she see?!

Oh No!!! I’m screwed!!!

Hua Huo must have gone mad!

No one can stop her now!

Yun Xi’s mind was in a muddle.

“Ouroboros... Don’t get involved in these little guys’ things. Didn’t you play fun just now?” Casina shrugged her shoulders and sent Yun Xi into Hua Huo’s arms.

“My disciple... Please take care of him.”

“As for Ouroboros... can you forgive her? She just made fun of my cute disciple... she intended no harm.”

Make fun of him?

Hua Huo didn’t believe even a word.

Would any person bite another person’s shoulder just for making fun of him?

Moreover, after she found them, the snake was trying to run away with Little Xi.

If I failed to stop her, she and Little Xi would have arrived at a remote god’s domain where I can’t find him and enjoy our happy life together!

Even if the entire world could forgive her, I wouldn’t forgive her!

Unfortunately, now she really had no way to take action. Even after using three Blasphemous Words, she had just barely stopped Ouroboros. She had no way to kill her.

“If I find you getting close to my Little Xi again, next time, I will kill you!” Looking sadly at the teeth mark on Yun Xi’s shoulder, Hua Huo made up her mind that she would never forgive Ouroboros!

As for her Little Xi... he was forced! So she didn’t blame him from the beginning.

Chapter 570: Chagrined Ouroboros

“She’s scary!” Looking at Hua Huo holding Yun Xi in her arms and disappearing at the end of the sky, Ouroboros finally put her head out from behind Casina with a haunted look on her face.

It was a really big crisis just now! If Casina hadn’t come, she didn’t dare to imagine what that monster-like girl would’ve done to her.

“You...!! Casina sighed. Now you know the importance of practicing your combat skills?” Casina knocked on Ouroboros’ head.

As one of the few friends of Ouroboros, she couldn’t tolerate that her friend was such a “weak” fantastic creature. She was the shame of all fantastic creatures!

“I don’t want to fight. I’m an augur, why should I fight?” As Ouroboros shook her head “No”.

She was an immortal star serpent, a fantastic creature who represented one of the rules of the universe, the strongest augur who could observe the river of destiny in all of the endless god’s domains!

Ouroboros had been a winner since her birth. She never fought anyone anyway. Once she encountered something that she couldn’t solve, her only solution was to run away.

If she didn't fight, she wouldn't be defeated. She was the indefectible king, Ouroboros!

But this time, it seemed a little different from what happened to her in the past.

Although she successfully escaped again, she was depressed with a sad feeling of having lost something very important.

Has that little fellow occupied such a large place in her heart?

Anxious and uneasy.

Panic and nervousness.

Stimulation and heartbeat.

The time she spent with him, even though it was so short, made her experience too many firsts.

This kind of extremely unwanted feelings was unprecedented for her.

"So, do you want to be stronger?" Casina shrugged her shoulders and she easily saw through Ouroboros' idea.

“Whoa... Indeed... I feel a little unwilling...” Ouroboros laid on the ground, biting her tail absently. This was her habit when she was in great trouble.

From birth to the present, the greatest worry Ouroboros had ever had, was what she should eat every day.

Every day she lived happily, and no matter what bad things happened, she would forget all the troubles in the blink of an eye. With her prophecy talent, she didn't fear anything.

The same was true of this trip to Hydra's wine store. Not too many living beings in the endless god's domains dared to steal a god's things, and she was one of them.

In the past, no matter what misfortune she had suffered, how many forces had joined forces to chase her, she didn't know or care, but this time it was totally different.

For the first time, she felt that she had really lost something important, and her chest was tight as if her most precious treasure had been stolen.

Does this mood mean “love”, which she has never understood before?

Did she fall in love with Casina's disciple at first sight?

Humph, he is just a little bastard.

After I catch him, I must retaliate and torture him with all kinds of tricks!

Yeah, that's it. I didn't lose. It was just a strategic retreat!

How could the great Ouroboros be beaten down by a little girl? It's impossible!

Finally, Ouroboros made up her mind.

"Casina, I want to practice! I want special training!" With a flick of her tail, Ouroboros made a decision she had never thought that she would make before.

"Oh, good... But... in your situation... you have to start from the most basic parts..." Casina smiled. She had long been accustomed to Ouroboros' lazy attitude.

"With my talent, after three months of practice, I can become a super golden Ouroboros! I can become the overlord of the universe." Ouroboros made an ambitious declaration.

"Very good! To celebrate that you finally began to practice, let's drink!"

"Drink!" Take out the last stock in Hydra's wine store, Casina and Ouroboros drank happily again.

As for practicing... they decided to wait till they had drunk all of Hydra's wines.

Yun Xi was dizzy. He tried to look around but everything was blurred in his eyes.

It was a side effect of the Battle God's Seed. After doing this thing and that thing to Ouroboros, his body was satisfied but his mind became empty, the whole world became tasteless in his eyes.

However, this state soon ended, because he smelled a good, familiar fragrance.

It was the fragrance he would smell every summer, the fragrance of his childhood sweetheart.

"Hua Huo..." Slowly opening his eyes, not surprisingly, he saw that familiar and lovely face, as well as the scattered hair.

It's so warm... Here is... I'm in Hua Huo's arms... His head was being put on Hua Huo's knees as she touched his head gently and warmly.

On one side of his shoulders, a bite mark was clearly visible. It was the mark left by Ouroboros, a cause and a mark of fate.

Yun Xi didn't know how special this bite mark was, he only knew one thing: it was making Hua Huo jealous!

When she looked at the bite mark, the anger in her eyes could almost ignite everything, and only when she looked at Yun Xi's face would she become gentle.

“Poor Little Xi... you were entangled by a poisonous snake...” Hua Huo gritted her teeth. It wasn’t her specialty to dispel the curse. Unless she cut off Yun Xi’s shoulder, she had no way to remove the mark.

What did that damn snake do to my Little Xi?!

If I came there just a little while later, what would she have done to him?!

“Uh...” Yun Xi’s face suddenly turned red. He remembered the bouquet in Ouroboros’ mouth.

Well, it’s hard to explain it... Teacher Casina, it was all the fault of your Battle God’s Seed!

“It doesn’t matter. No matter where you are, I’ll come and save you.”

“No matter whether it was that snake or any other monsters, I’ll kill them all!”

Looking at Hua Huo’s eyes, Yun Xi realized that she was serious!
