

Starchild 601

Chapter 601: On the Top of the Clouds

The moment Alpha conceded, countless Star Go players watched this scene in silence.

Among them, there were top-ranked players such as the three goddesses and Orfina the Ruby Dragon.

There were also newbies who had just started to learn Star Go.

But whoever they were, they were all shocked by the power displayed by the Master of Star Go.

Even if Norn the God of Wisdom, the three goddesses observed Alpha's Iron Maiden from past, present, and future, they couldn't find any flaws.

Never before had such a formalized series of moves for defense existed. It was the crystallization of Alpha's wisdom and the trump card created by gathering all the computing power of all Planet Quadrant Computers.

However, such a powerful "Iron Maiden" only defended for eight turns under the Master of Star Go's fierce attack and was completely defeated.

"Is it my imagination? Has this bastard's Star Go strength increased again?" Skuld gritted her teeth and looked at that hateful code name, "A Cloud in the Sky".

"Everything has a reason, it's not your imagination, Skuld." Verdanti shook her head.

“How strong is he? What a monster!” Urd looked at the chessboard. She just imagined what they could do in the face of such a fierce attack and her legs started to shake.

It must be an unimaginably horrible experience to be torn apart by that huge, black thing!

“Casina, my Casina is the best!” After witnessing this, Orfina again made up her mind to meet her best friend and lover right away. (Casina: No, I don’t know anything about that.)

“That’s the power of the Master of Star Go!”

“Terrible offensive force!”

“Alpha was crushed! Incredible!”

“I don’t mind being crushed! I’m willing to play Star Go with the Master of Star Go at all cost!”

All Star Go players looked up at the name on the top of the display panel and exclaimed.

“Cool! This was a legendary duel!”

“What is the real identity of the Master of Star Go? Even Alpha can’t fight against him.”

“We can actually play Star Go in this way!”

Newbies' eyes brightened up. Most of them had challenged Alpha and understood her crushing power. Before they witnessed this duel, it was hard for them to imagine that someone could defeat Alpha easily.

"Iron Maiden" VS "Hydra".

"Invincible Alpha" VS "the Master of Star Go".

The Master of Star Go's one hundred and first game was recorded by all of them.

In this era, only Alpha was qualified to play with the Master of Star Go, other people were far away from touching the edge of their Star Go strength.

Only through Alpha, people could witness a corner of the Master of Star Go's real strength.

Just like his code name, "A Cloud in the Sky", his whole person was shrouded in a heavy fog that everyone wanted to see through.

"I've decided! I must obtain the qualification to challenge the Master of Star Go!"

"I've found a career that I can devote my whole life to!"

Countless legend ranked beings and hero ranked beings watched the duel from the beginning to the end, and they were obsessed with it.

To hero ranked beings, Star Go gave them a glimpse of the higher realm, which was a world full of infinite changes and secrets.

To legend ranked beings, “the Starry Sky Chessboard” was one of the few places that still contained endless profound mysteries that they didn’t understand and wanted to study.

In the past, the Starry Sky Chessboard seldom appeared in the seven towers. Only a very few wise men had the qualifications to study and play Star Go.

Now, because of Yun Xi, the Starry Sky Chessboard was open to all beings who could enter the seven towers. Finally, countless hero ranked beings and legend ranked beings had the chance to research its mysteries.

Just as Alpha’s birth to the Mechanus God’s Domain, the Starry Sky Chessboard would definitely create a new era in the endless god’s domain!

Many Star Go “veterans” had begun to teach students outside of the towers. Just as a spark could start a prairie fire, these players were spreading this game to the endless god’s domains.

Unlike the Battle God’s Championship Contest, which inevitably caused countless killed and wounded, people wouldn’t get hurt on the Starry Sky Chessboard, but could practice their own mentalities there and had a better chance to comprehend the rules of stars.

In the endless god’s domains, no one could refuse such a great temptation.

This was just the beginning of the glorious era of Star Go.

People would forever remember the name of the legend that opened this era.

At this moment, he was standing on the top of the cloud in the world, looking down at everyone.

Chapter 602: Hydra's Gift (1)

On the Starry Sky Chessboard.

"I win!" Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief, although he still didn't know what a great impact he had caused in the endless god's domains.

Sure enough, playing Star Go is very enjoyable.

As long as he was standing in front of the chessboard, he always had endless ideas and all kinds of inspiration, bursting out with dazzling sparks of thinking from time to time.

Well, maybe he really had some talent in Star Go.

"I lost!" Alpha bit a strand of her hair and looked at Yun Xi with an unwilling look.

After preparing for such a long time, she still failed, as if all her efforts before were just wasting her time.

“One more time!”

“Just one game! Let’s play the game once more!” Just as the newbies who encountered Alpha, although she knew she had no chance to win, she still had no intention of giving up.

Her face looked like a little girl who had been robbed of her lollipop. She wanted to bet everything on herself to catch the smallest chance to win.

In the endless god’s domains, there was only one person who could let her have this emotion.

And she would only show this lovely appearance in front of one person.

Even though the countless programmatic calculations had let her know that she had no chance of winning no matter how many times she tried. She felt as if “the Master of Star Go” was in a higher dimension, where she could see but could never touch.

However, she just didn’t know what “give up” was!

“Well...” Yun Xi smiled bitterly and looked at Alpha’s grudging face. What should I do this time?

“Play one more time with me, and you can ask for anything in the Mechanus God’s Domain from me.”

“The Planet Quadrant Computers all like you, do you want to take them away?” At the critical moment, Alpha used her “children” as chips without hesitation.

“They are very useful.No matter in the real world or in the world of quantum network, they can forever be with you.”

Yun Xi subconsciously looked at the Planet Quadrant Computers, who were still in direct connection with him and having a nice dream.

Why did things develop to this point?

As their god, don't you sell your subordinates too easily?

“I...” Just as Yun Xi was going to say something, the scene in his eyes suddenly began to shake.

Numerous doors appeared in front of Yun Xi, just like what he saw when he first came to the Mechanus God's Domain.

“No!”

“Stay here and play Star Go with me!” Alpha showed an unusual expression of unwillingness and regret, watching Yun Xi's figure disappeared from the Starry Sky Chessboard with her eyes opened wide.

“Gee? What’s wrong with me?” Awakened from her dream, Eternal Green quickly and shamefully covered her naked body with her arms.

“Ah... Ooo... Big Brother... Don’t lick that place. It’s dirty there...” Eternal Red’s little body curled up and her tender skin was covered by a layer of attractive pink.

“...” Eternal Blue’s body shivered with her feet together.

“Ha... No way...”

“I’m exhausted...”

Eternal Gold and Eternal Silver were exhausted and toppled down to the ground. They still held each other’s hands tightly.

The figure of “that person” left in all their hearts, leaving an indelible mark in their minds that they would never forget.

“I was so stupid.”

“If I can figure out who he is early, then I can play longer with him!” Alpha was also in a complex state mixed with extreme excitement and regret.

Numerous doors opened in front of Yun Xi, and then a familiar landscape slowly unfolded in front of him.

“Welcome back, my bride.”

“Have you had a good dream?” Hydra’s little hand stretched out from the door and brought Yun Xi’s consciousness back to the Water God’s world from the Mechanus God’s Domain that was thousands of light-years away from here.

“Was it a dream?” Yun Xi muttered to himself.

Was it a dream or a nightmare?

Even he himself wasn’t sure about it.

“Well, there is another god’s smell on your body.”

“This smell... it’s the smell of a newborn god.”

“Let me erase it for you.” Hydra embraced Yun Xi in her arms, then gently stretched out her tongue and licked Yun Xi’s body bit by bit.

From fingertips to toes.

From knee to abdomen.

Every corner, every cell of skin, leaving not even the smallest part untouched. This was Hydra's special method to show her intimacy.

"Gee... wait a minute... Master Water God!"

"No! Not that place" Yun Xi just came back and was not ready for it.

What's more, why is Hydra's tongue so soft and warm? No man can endure this temptation!

"Well... Goo... You are my loveliest bride..."

"Of course I'd better... love you..."

"It tastes good." Hydra made vague sounds as the tip of her tongue moved slowly.

She looked at Yun Xi fondly and said, "Lick all over your body for the person you like is the etiquette of a Fantastic Creature Lady, don't you know that?"

Why should I know? Who taught you that etiquette?!

Under the water, a streak of green light was becoming brighter.

Chapter 603: Hydra's Gift (2)

“!!!” The entire lake was getting hot, and that was the breath that some force released after being constantly suppressed.

Hydra smiled slightly and tapped her snow-white feet gently on the surface of the lake.

Let the baby bird sleep a little while longer.

When countless green lights rippled on the surface of the water, the roiled water once again restored to calm, but the high erected hair firmly remembered its anger at this moment, almost turning into a turquoise blade.

From top to bottom, from bottom to top, the small tongue licked Yun Xi’s body clean, and removed all the marks left by Alpha on Yun Xi’s body.

In this process, Yun Xi naturally enjoyed heaven like happiness.

Hydra’s tongue was far softer than any woman he had ever known and seemed to know every detail of his body.

That feeling... it was as if she had seen Yun Xi’s body countless times and touched every inch of his skin a long time ago.

“My lovely bride...” Hydra held Yun Xi’s head with her soft voice rippled in his ears.

“What did you see behind the door?”

“It’s a strange world... a newborn god...” Yun Xi searched his vague memory and told her his experience in the Mechanus God’s Domain.

He didn’t know the reason, but as long as he stayed beside Hydra, she would naturally put his heart at rest.

This embrace was so warm that both heartbeats unconsciously became the same rhythm.

“You could feel the most doors when you first drank my wine. Maybe you have a special relationship with that newborn god.” Hydra bit Yun Xi’s ear lightly, “But be careful, this newborn god has a different smell from other gods.”

“She seems to be very, very interested in you, trying to stain you with her smell.”

“It won’t disappear even across tens of millions of light-years. It’s a mark that can be used to find your position.”

Oh, no. Did Alpha leave that stuff on me?

When did she leave her smell?

Yun Xi was completely unaware of it.

Of course, it was the time when their minds connected directly.

“Don’t worry. Her smell has been removed and covered by me.”

“Don’t be so careless next time. Gods are very persistent creatures.” Hydra licked Yun Xi’s earlobe.

After becoming immortal, most gods would become very indifferent.

Compared to the infinite lives of gods, short-lived races couldn’t attract their attention at all, as humans wouldn’t pay attention to mayflies.

However, on the contrary, once the gods looked at a creature, they would inevitably leave a deep impression on the creature. Alpha’s impression to Yun Xi wasn’t only “deep”, but regarded him as her “enemy of life”.

“Do you like my wine?” Hydra approached Yun Xi and looked at his blushed face with interest.

Such a lovely and touching look, how beautiful, like a gift from Heaven.

On that day, when she noticed that an outsider had come to this self-enclosed world, she immediately liked him.

Maybe it was too exaggerated to describe it as “fall in love at first sight”, but she did smell fate from him.

With his moves in the world, she gazed at him more and more frequently, and her consciousness also gradually recovered little by little.

He did not know where she came from and what she was, but simply followed the beliefs in his heart to protect the world that was doomed to perish.

Even Hydra herself wasn't optimistic about this world's future.

Originally, the vast majority of the creatures living in this world would have perished, and she had seen this future many years ago.

Because of this, she began to consciously reserve the world's original creatures like sailing jellyfish, ready to nurture the creatures who once lived in this world once again after the world was destroyed.

Even though she was a god, she knew that it would be a very long process, and the dead creatures wouldn't be revived. Even if the new lives looked the same as the lives in her memory, they wouldn't have the same memory.

However, Yun Xi changed that future.

Even if everyone thought that he was wrong, he never gave up hope and tried his best to create miracles.

In the dying world, he was just like the most beautiful gemstone, the most brilliant lights, so charming and exciting in the gray world.

Ah, that's it. That's fate.

He was the person she had been waiting for. He was the person she saw in her dream.

The future she lost, the end she saw in her sleep, would be changed by him.

As long as she was by his side, everything would become possible.

Even if the opponent was Shaya Longnis, he could create miracles!

She stretched out her arms and hugged him, put her lips on his lips and kissed him.

Well, gods are all very self-willed.

"Woo... Hmm..." Kissing on Hydra's soft and fragrant lips, Yun Xi felt something cold, fragrant and soft had been sent into his mouth.

Hydra's tongue was intertwined with his tongue, melting it bit by bit into Yun Xi's body.

Between their lips and tongues, transparent silk threads spread little by little.

A hot and fragrant smell began to spread from Yun Xi's mouth, the water bed under their feet began to dissolve rapidly, and the emerald green water rippled out.

One circle after another.

Chapter 604: Hydra's Presen

Is that over?

On the beach not far away from the Sword Palace, Yun Xi looked sadly at the undulating sea, where the crashing sound of waves echoed in his ears.

In his mouth, there seemed still to be the unique fragrance of Hydra's wine, as well as the smell of her warm, soft body.

It seemed that he drank another glass of Hydra's poisonous wine?

The poisonous liquor that could poison millions of people to death was passed into his mouth and spread all over his body.

Very hot, very hot.

Very fragrant, very fragrant.

Very soft, very soft.

Hydra licked every corner of his body.

Likewise, Hydra didn't escape from his "devil's talons".

After drinking the "cross-cupped wine", it is the time for the "wedding night"?

Unfortunately, that wasn't the case.

Hydra indeed let him enjoy her soft and touching body, but it seemed that this body wasn't Hydra's true body. In the end, Hydra let him "eat" her.

Yes, he literally ate her. Her body made of water slipped into his mouth. Oh, the taste of Hydra's body was the taste of wine!

Her body was made of wine...

Closing his eyes, Yun Xi found that besides the Water God's Crown, Sailing Jellyfish's Robe and White Emperor's Mask, there was one more thing that was stocked in his mind.

Hydra's Wine Storage, which stored the wine that Hydra had brewed since the era of the gods. Even in the endless god's domains, they were the highest-ranking wines.

Currently, Yun Xi could take out three glasses of wines from Hydra's Wine Storage every day. It was the present Hydra prepared for her bride.

My lovely bride, are you satisfied with this gift? The wine is good, but you can't be too fond of drink – by Hydra.

"This... is Hydra's Wine Storage?" Yun Xi looked at the small glass that suddenly appeared in his palm. It was the one Hydra had used to drink with him.

With a gentle shake, Yun Xi seemed to hear the sound of the vast amount of wines stored in this glass, which was about half of the total Hydra's inventories.

That was to say, Hydra gave Yun Xi half of the poisonous wine she had brewed since the time of the gods as a betrothal.

"Gu..." Even Yun Xi, who didn't drink much, knew the preciousness of this present, which was enough to buy a hundred small sword domains like the White Lotus Sword Domain!

It was an artifact tailored for him!

"Do you like my present, my lovely bride?"

In the Water God's world, at the bottom of the lake, an emerald green glass, which looked the same as the glass in Yun Xi's hand, was emitting a soft and happy light.

“This gift is too valuable.” Yun Xi looked at the glass in his hand, which was probably the most precious treasure he had apart from the light furnace he obtained from the Golden Sun Crow Princess.

Hydra spent thousands of years brewing the wine, even his teacher Casina and Ouroboros would be crazy to steal them. Now, Hydra directly sent him half of her wine.

Although the glass was light, Yun Xi still felt heavy. Even gods would fight for it if they knew of its existence.

At least, if his teacher Casina knew about it, she would definitely be willing to fight for it.

So, do other gods or fantastic creatures also like to drink?

Even if he thought by using his toes, he knew that the answer couldn't be unfavorable!

If any body knew of its existence... I will be done for!

Yun Xi looked at the glass in his hand and decided to keep this a secret forever.

But deep in his mind, he was moved.

It seems that Hydra really regards him as her most precious bride.

“I... I just wanted to accomplish the task at that time...” Yun Xi took up the glass and sighed.

Great will of the stars, what kind of road do you want to show me?

I always feel that I am stepping on more and more “boats”. Oh, I hope that it was just a delusion.

If Hua Huo knows about it... Yun Xi looked at Hua Huo, who was having a sweet dream beside him, and had a very ominous presentiment.

Fortunately, when he and Hydra did “this thing” and “that thing” in the lake, Hua Huo didn’t wake up.

“Hua Huo, I’m sorry, I made another mistake.” Yun Xi didn’t know how many times he had apologized to Hua Huo, but the meaning of this apology was different from that of any other time in the past.

“Hum!” A strand of hair raised high above Yun Xi’s head as if it was saying,

“If apologies work, what do you want me to do?”

“Mmphm...” Hua Huo slowly opened her eyes, and then found that her “jealousy radar” seemed to be broken, constantly rolling around above her head.

There is only her Little Xi besides her, why is the radar sending alerts?

“Good morning, Hua Huo.” Yun Xi said with guilt, watching his childhood sweetheart stretching herself. After a few blinks, she regained her vitality.

A drop of cold sweat slowly slid down his forehead.

“Good morning, Little Xi.”

“A new day has begun.” Hua Huo smiled and stretched out her hands to the rising sun.

Ah, the world is so beautiful.

Although she vaguely felt that a lot of things had happened, none of them troubled her now, because her Little Xi had come back.

No matter how many mistakes he had made, she would forgive him. As long as he was by her side, she would have the courage to fight the whole world.

Chapter 605: Sword and Bread

“Ka la! Ka la!” After waking up, Hua Huo felt that her whole body was full of strength.

Undoubtedly, she had become stronger again, not the strength she obtained after releasing the power contained in her bloodline, but the real strength belonged to her own flesh and blood.

Her Sky Flying Bloodline was gradually being unlocked. The title of “hero rank” was meaningless for her, neither she needed god weapons to increase her attack power, because she herself was as strong as a god weapon that could unleash destructive forces at any time and anywhere.

“Very well, I’m in perfect condition!” Hua Huo only felt that she could slaughter a hundred male fiery dragons now.

“Little Xi, did that poisonous snake do anything strange to you?” Summoning her broken sword and tightly holding it in her hand, Hua Huo took a deep breath.

It’s a pity that she didn’t kill that cunning snake, Ouroboros.

“No...” Yun Xi said cautiously.

Yes, he didn’t do “this thing” and “that thing” with “Ouroboros” but “Hydra”.

“That’s good. This snake is on my hunting list.” Holding the blood-colored sword in her hand, a gust of air suddenly burst out of her body with an overbearing atmosphere.

Like a dragon!

Like a storm!

Like a natural disaster!

“Ha!” She brandished her sword. As a result, an airwave directly divided the sea in front of Hua Huo and extended to the end of the horizon.

The strong airflow caused by the sword was perfectly confined within an area of about ten meters, as if someone was drawing a line on the sea.

The sword divided the sea! It represented that Hua Huo's control of her strength went a step further.

Yun Xi gazed at his childhood sweetheart. The more he knew about her, the more he could understand how exaggerated her talent was.

Even in knight novels, the protagonists wouldn't be as strong as her!

"Little Xi, I become stronger!" Apparently, Hua Huo was in a good mood.

Her Little Xi was beside her, and his eyes were full of longing as usual.

Yeah, she liked his simple and straightforward look, she liked his eyes, which were so pure that couldn't hide anything.

It was just that her jealousy radar was a little strange today. It had been spinning around above her head since before she awoke. What's the matter?

There were only Yun Xi and herself here, why was it sending alerts?

“Congratulations, Hua Huo, why don’t you enter the hero rank?” Yun Xi looked at his young childhood sweetheart with some doubts.

Unlike him, Hua Huo’s battle power had long surpassed the hero rank. He didn’t think that there would be any hero ranked beings who could hurt Ouroboros, a legend ranked fantastic creature.

“It’s still not the time, but it should be soon.” Hua Huo shook her head. She couldn’t explain it to her Little Xi. There were too many taboos in the Sky Flying Bloodline.

“Well, come and eat bread.” Yun Xi reached out his hand and a piece of fragrant, soft golden bread appeared in his palm.

“Ha ha, you’re already a hero ranked Baker now, you entered the hero rank faster than me! My Little Xi is the best baker!” Hua Huo graciously took away Yun Xi’s special golden bread, which was her favorite.

In order to gain the privilege of monopolizing this bread, she fought with Yun Xi’s other childhood sweethearts and finally defeated them by relying on the strength of her bloodline.

For her, Yun Xi’s bread had that value.

“But... even after entering the hero rank, a Baker’s battle power is still zero.” Yun Xi was satisfied with his career level, but he was not proud of it.

Compared with Hua Huo, Red Lotus and White Lotus, his hero rank as a Baker was really not worth mentioning.

“Don’t say that, even a hundred hero ranked swordsmen can’t make a piece of delicious bread. From this point, you are more useful than a hundred hero ranked swordsmen.” Hua Huo said with great certainty.

Even in all the White Lotus Sword Domain, there was probably only one hero ranked Baker, Yun Xi.

Only large god’s domains with a large number of people and a highly developed civilization could there be such hero ranked careers which were unrelated to battles.

Their value was far beyond common hero ranked battle careers.

The hero rank had exceeded the limit of flesh and blood. The medicine that could cure mortals could be of no use to hero ranked beings.

Only hero ranked divine spells and magic could cure a hero ranked being’s body, but these spells and magic were very rare and hard to learn.

In this way, the hero ranked golden bread made by Yun Xi was very valuable.

It was easy to carry and could cure almost all the ranked beings of all races.

At the critical moment, it could be a trump card to save the owner’s life!

“Why don’t you come and eat it too?” After eating half of the golden bread, Hua Huo blushed. Yun Xi’s golden bread had become more and more delicious recently, she almost couldn’t control her appetite.

No, no, a lady shouldn't eat so much!

"Well." Looking at the white butter left on the corners of Hua Huo's mouth, his face warmed up slightly. He unconsciously picked up the bread and bit it lightly.

Suddenly, both of them were stunned and blushed involuntarily.

It's like... indirect kissing?

Was Hua Huo being intentional?

When they were still kids, they often shared delicious bread in this way.

Because of this, they didn't immediately realize that it had already become a little strange after they grew up.

Until now, Hua Huo unconsciously put the bread she had eaten on Yun Xi's mouth again, and both of them had white marks of white butter on their lips.

The accelerated heartbeat told the couple that something was different from the past, which proved that they had grown up.

Chapter 606: Sequelae

A week after returning from Hydra's world.

Behind Yun Xi, there were three puppies following him in a line. This had become a unique scene in the girl's dorm of the Starwing Knights.

"Good morning, Mei."

"Good morning, Star Thunder, Star Fire, Star Snow."

The girls who met them would laugh and greet Yun Xi, as well as the three puppies. However, unlike when they first arrived at the Sword Palace, there was something more in the eyes of all the girls.

It's better to call it "enthusiasm" or "desire".

In this maiden garden, Yun Xi felt that he was like a gray wolf lurking in a flock of sheep or a fox hid in a herd of rabbits. These sheep and rabbits weren't wary of him and even wanted to approach him.

No! Young girls should be more careful! Don't be so defenseless!

"Breakfast! Breakfast!"

Ling Ling, I'm telling you! Why do you rush to the table still wearing your nightclothes? Don't behave as if you have been starved for three hundred years!

Didn't you notice that everyone's eyes changed when they looked at you? The dignity of the Starwing Knights was all gone!

"Ling Ling! Etiquette, etiquette! Have you forgotten everything I taught you?"

Fortunately, the mind of the secretary of the Starwing Knights was still normal, Mei Lan scolded Ling Ling with a serious look.

"I'm hungry." Shaking her big boobs, Ling Ling ran to Yun Xi with a look of "food is the most important thing".

"Bread, I need bread."

"Bread, hey, I'm here!"

Yun Xi showed a helpless look and took out a loaf of bread.

"Mei, you can't spoil Ling Ling!" Watching Yun Xi take out the fragrant bread, Mei Lan was desperate.

Why can Ling Ling, that useless person, always get Mei's bread so easily?

"Ah-hoo!" Ling Ling picked Yun Xi's bread like a puppy, sat back in her seat, and swallowed the bread quickly.

“Without Mei’s bread, a new day will not begin!” Anyway, I can’t get married after sleeping with Mei, so I don’t mind being fed by Mei! This was Ling Ling’s simple philosophy.

As for the affairs of the Starwing Knights, just let Mei Lan do them. I only need to enjoy my life!

“Mei Lan, I’ll give you one too.” Looking at Mei Lan’s hurt expression, Yun Xi had to take out another loaf of bread and handed it over to Mei Lan.

Sigh, when had his relationship with them become so strange?

“Thank you.” Compared with Ling Ling, Mei Lan still had common sense and etiquette. She would absolutely not eat other people’s food and regard it as a matter of course.

Unless it was between husband and wife, even the best of friends shouldn’t be so intimate!

How shameless, Ling Ling! You are a lady of a great noble family, have you forgotten the etiquette of the upper class?

“Huh ah...” Just as Mei Lan stared at Ling Ling and held her bread tightly (in case that Ling Ling snatched at her bread), they heard a lazy voice.

“Ah...” Before Mei Lan realized it, one-third of her bread had strangely disappeared.

“Woo... Mm...” Like a hamster whose cheeks were stuffed with food, Xiao Cao, the deputy leader of the Starwing Knights were leaning on Mei Lan’s shoulder and chewed the bread in her mouth.

“Deputy leader!” Mei Lan looked at the remaining bread in her hand with tears in her eyes. She was ready to enjoy the bread slowly with black tea, how could she eat the bread now?!

“Yummy!” Xiao Cao patted Mei Lan on the shoulder with an innocent look.

Other members of the Starwing Knights watched them with a look of envy.

“I want to eat Mei’s bread, too.”

“I’ve tasted it once. It’s so delicious! Mei Lan is really a good person!”

“Unfortunately, Mei can only make several loaves of bread per day. What a pity.”

“I really envy Ling Ling. I also want to eat Mei’s bread every day!”

Well, that’s it. Now in the Starwing Knights, the ownership of Mei’s bread had become a symbol of identity, and even a series of hidden rules had emerged.

Only the top ten members of the Starwing Knights could enjoy Yun Xi’s special butter bread, while the rest could only eat Yun Xi’s mass-produced white bread.

Lu Lu was an exception. Although she wasn't one of the top ten members, because she was the only hero ranked pharmacist and because of a very special reason, she could also eat Mei's special butter bread every day.

In order to eat Mei's butter bread, the girls of the Starwing Knights were practicing themselves hard every day, trying their best to get into the top ten list.

Well, it could be regarded as a unique view of the Starwing Knights.

"Mei, don't you continue practicing your closed-mouth Zen?" After enjoying the morning feeding time, Ling Ling looked at Yun Xi curiously and asked that damn question again.

"No, stop asking!" Even after a week, Yun Xi still felt a headache once he remembered what "his body" did when he was practicing so-called "Closed-mouth Zen".

Ling Ling and Mei Lan in front of him were all victims of the "Closed-mouth Zen" period.

On the list of victims, there were also Hua Yue, Lu Lu, White Lotus, and Red Lotus...

The sequelae had not disappeared yet.

Ling Ling's expression when she looked at him was the best proof, which always reminded Yun Xi of what he had done to her and what mistakes he had made.

Whooooooh, I really didn't mean to do that! Give me a break!

“Ling Ling, don’t make a fool of yourself.” Mei Lan stood up and secretly took a glance at Yun Xi. There was also a trace of confusion in her eyes.

Don’t you need to sleep with me now, Mei?

Chapter 607: Morning Gifts

Being stared at by Ling Ling and Mei Lan, Yun Xi really wanted to find a hole to hide in to avoid embarrassment.

Damn it, that’s not what he did!

Why are bad rumors about him spreading amongst the girls of the Starwing Knights?

The rumors said that he would force the girls he liked to sleep with him, and use butter bread as hush money...

He was just practicing his skill of making bread recently. Because he didn’t want to waste food, so he gave Ling Ling, Mei Lan, and Xiao Cao the bread he made...

Isn’t it natural for a baker to practice his skill of making bread?

He also wanted to make sufficient golden butter bread to satisfy all girls of the Starwing Knights, but he couldn’t do that at all.

Making bread from the void was actually consuming his vitality. In the Water God's world, his limit was to make 100 loaves of bread per day, but that would overdraft his physical strength. It wasn't a normal state.

After coming to the Sword Palace, he only made a dozen golden butter bread per day. If he made more, his mental strength would be affected.

If he puts on the White Emperor's mask, he could also make 100 loaves of butter bread per day, but after doing this, he wouldn't have any strength to move even a finger.

"Alas..." Looking at the silent Yun Xi, Mei Lan's eyes were somewhat melancholy. With a cup of black tea, she nibbled her bread bit by bit.

After becoming the secretary of the Starwing Knights, her temperament had been distinctly sublimated.

Now, no one could see from her appearance that she was just an ordinary girl from a common family. As the representative of the civilian girls of the Starwing Knights, her temperament was more and more like a girl of the nobility.

"Mei's hand-made bread is incredible magic."

"There's a big secret in Mei's skirt."

"As long as you get Mei's favor, you will find a different world."

Rumors like these had spread in the girl's dorm over and over again.

After lies had been repeated a thousand times, even the liars would think that they were the truth, let alone that these rumors were mixed with parts of the truth.

Yun Xi's bread was indeed not a common bread. They were hero ranked golden butter bread, which could whiten and nourish the eaters' skin, increasing their charm.

With such immediate results, it was natural that there were so many strange rumors.

Probably only Yun Xi himself hadn't noticed that the "lucky black hair" had become a tale of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

The application of joining the Starwing Knights had swamped Mei Lan's desk, and the number is still increasing.

"It's time to go to the classroom!" Noticing that more and more eyes were staring at him with a burning desire, Yun Xi ran away in confusion.

Hua Huo, it's all your fault!

Passing through the room of the leader of the Starwing Knights, Yun Xi tacitly threw a loaf of bread into the window which was specially opened for him.

A holy beetle flew by, held the golden butter bread and flew to its master.

“Oh, it’s today’s bread...” Hua Yue, who had just woken up from a sweet dream, looked at the black-haired maid running past the window with a smile.

Yun Xi ran quickly through the woods and passed Lu Lu’s medicinal garden. He skillfully took out a loaf of bread and threw it into the air with a perfect arc.

“Ah!” The lovely “little rabbit” jumped into the air and grabbed Yun Xi’s bread happily with the cradle in her hand, then fell to the ground with her cute rabbit ears shivering in the air.

“Lu Lu, come to class quickly. The tutor said you missed too many classes.” Yun Xi trotted all the way through Lu Lu’s medicinal garden.

“Well, I’ll be right here.” Despite that, Yun Xi knew that she probably wouldn’t come out of the medicinal garden today.

It seemed that the herbs she cultivated had reached an important stage recently, she spent almost all day in this small medicinal garden.

As for the course of the Sword Palace... even Lu Lu’s tutor wasn’t a hero-ranked Pharmacist. Even if she went to the class, the tutor wasn’t qualified to teach her.

Running through the medicinal garden where Lu Lu was, Yun Xi hesitated for a moment, looking at the ancient palace in front of him, he took out two loaves of golden butter bread and threw them to the palace.

“Ah!” A white light flashed and the two loaves of bread disappeared in the air.

As for who took the bread away... that was Yun Xi’s secret with someone.

“Well, the food has been good lately.” Red Lotus was satisfied with the taste of the bread.

“Yes, it’s not bad to have a maid.” White Lotus smiled and enjoyed the breakfast time with her sister. She did not mention that name tacitly.

“The Starwing Knights... It’s really a good organization.” After eliminating the prejudice against someone, Red Lotus actually appreciated the Starwing Knights.

First of all, its greatest advantage was that its members were all females. Moreover, its leader and deputy leader were geniuses, they could certainly enter the hero rank as long as they wanted to.

As one of the true masters of the White Lotus Sword Domain, Red Lotus didn’t mind having as many female knights as possible.

“Finally, it’s Hua Huo.” After delivering the bread all the way, Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief.

Since when did he start to deliver his bread directly?

“One, two, three.” After counting his stock, Yun Xi took out three of the best golden butter bread.

This was a morning gift for his childhood sweetheart, a habit formed not long ago after they came back from the Water God's world.

Chapter 608: Black History

"Well, it's done."

After sending out all the bread, Yun Xi let out a sigh of relief and began to look forward to today's course after eating a loaf of bread.

"The History of Sky Swords" was a course that Yun Xi had been waiting for, because today's course was going to introduce his teacher, Casina to the students.

As Casina's disciple, it was absolutely necessary to choose this course.

Yun Xi would like to know what great achievements his teacher had made in the Sky Sword God's Domain and how famous her title "the Battle God" was.

In the mortal world, it was hard to know this kind of knowledge. Sky Swords normally only appeared in fairy tale stories. For mortals, the legend rank was such a remote existence.

Only in places like the White Lotus Sword Palace could there be correct knowledge about the legend ranks for people to learn.

Just like Yun Xi, there were many members of the Starwing Knights who were interested in Casina the Battle God. At a glance, almost half of the members of the Starwing Knights had arrived at the class.

Ling Ling, Mei Lan, Xiao Cao... apart from Hua Yue and Lu Lu, almost all of the top ten of the Starwing Knights were in the classroom.

However, to Yun Xi's surprise, they seemed to be in a strange state of excitement.

These girls formed a circle, looked at something and exclaimed.

"This... is amazing!"

"I never expected... there's something like that..."

"Hey... let me see it again!"

Is there anything over there? Yun Xi looked at the girls and wondered what attracted so much attention.

"Don't you know what happened, Mei?" Suddenly, he heard Hua Yue's voice.

"Hua Yue... Has anything happened recently?" Yun Xi really knew nothing about the things among these girls.

"This is not a major event in our Sword Palace, but a major event that shocked the endless god's domains." Hua Yue patted Yun Xi on the shoulder, then sat skillfully beside him and took out a crystal ball shrouded in mist from her arms.

“Ah, Leader Hua Yue has also ordered the goods!”

“Oh, this one looks more advanced than the one over there!”

“Really, this is a limited edition crystal ball. Not only pictures, but it can also save sound into it. It must be made by a famous alchemist!”

When Hua Yue took out the crystal ball, all the members of the Starwing Knights ran to her and looked longingly at their leader.

Why? Is this crystal ball such a precious work of art?

Even so, isn't their reaction a little too exaggerated?

Looking at them, Yun Xi expressed his ignorance.

“Of course, my crystal ball is the best. It was a treasure made by someone on the spot at that time, not a cheap duplicate.” Hua Yue held up the crystal ball in her hand with restraint and pride.

“This is an authentic, unique Recording Crystal Ball.”

“Yeah! I love you, leader! We can finally hear the real original version this time!”

“Be quick, be quick! Play it!”

“My heart has begun to beat faster, no matter how many times I listen to it, it can always touch my heart!”

Almost all the people in the classroom started to gather around Hua Yue and look at the crystal ball in her palm with expectations.

Hmm... why do I have such a bad feeling?

Yun Xi looked at the crystal ball... and soon his ominous presentiment came true.

“Well, let’s get started.” Hua Yue’s fingertip touched the center of the crystal ball and toggled a switch.

Inside the crystal ball, it suddenly became dark.

“Start! Start!”

“Wow! WoW! The texture of the darkness is different!”

“It’s coming soon!”

The girls stared at the center of the crystal ball, while Yun Xi was stunned.

This, this is!

After the darkness, it was light and the girl who appeared on the stage.

The girl wore a pure white dress and a pair of fantastic crystal shoes, smiling at the world.

That smile and that pure and flawless temperament captured the hearts of all the girls around.

Why... why... why does this appear in the White Lotus Sword Domain?!!!!

Yun Xi was stupefied by the scene in the crystal ball.

“Can you feel it?”

“How beautiful and ugly the world is.”

“It’s there, so beautiful, so broad, as if it can breathe.”

“I’ll reach out my hands and try to catch it, but I can’t touch it.”

“I came to this world, observed it, understood it, and loved it.”

Like the people in the Mechanus God's Domain, the girls of the White Lotus Sword Palace could also feel the power contained in the song.

The girl's singing transcended the limits of time and space, echoing in one god's domain after another through devices like the crystal ball in Hua Yue's palms.

The name "Qian" instantly spread throughout the endless god's domains, and even many gods praised the singing of the girl.

Punishment? This must be punishment.

Why? Why? The White Lotus Sword Domain was ten thousands of light-years away from the Mechanus God's Domain, why do the people here also know about it?

"No matter how many times I listen to the song, the voice is beautiful."

"This singer really saved the world. My heart is melting."

"The crystal ball made by the alchemist on the spot is indeed the closest to the original version. I really want to know how the people who heard the song in the Mechanus God's Domain felt."

"Oh, if Qian stages a concert again, I will go there at all costs!"

Sorry, sorry, I'm sorry! There won't be another concert anymore!

Looking at the figure in the crystal ball, Yun Xi was so embarrassed that he only hoped to return to the past and erase this damn scene completely.

Who was the alchemist? Who is this "genius" that recorded the concert and sold it all over the endless god's domains, even including the White Lotus Sword Domain?!

Chapter 609: Widespread Reputation

"I have died in the past, who will know my name and life story?"

"I was lost in the unknown, who will know my place?"

"My heart has gone to nirvana, who can seek for its trace?"

"My disappearance is already doomed, but I shall never stop."

"The disaster hasn't been ended, and will last forever in eternity."

"My fear, my tears, and my heart is empty."

"I am nothing, I am void, I am ash, I am desolation."

"The gods have died, the twilight is coming. As the light is still shining on the ground, I return from eternity!"

“Code Name, Alpha, the supreme god of the Mechanus God’s Domain!”

When Alpha appeared, the girls around Hua Yue were all shocked. They watched the silver-haired god’s appearance and listened to her affecting song, but couldn’t find any appropriate words to describe their feelings.

The alchemist’s crystal ball perfectly sealed the god’s voice inside it, and anyone who heard the song could feel the charm it contained.

“This crystal ball is so perfect! The song sealed in other duplicates is also good, but they can’t be compared with the original version.”

“No matter how many times I listen to it, I couldn’t feel bored. It’s amazing!”

“That god named Alpha is also very powerful. Most devices of the Mechanus God’s Domain will lose efficacy after being taken into other god’s domains, but she created this crystal ball by combining the power of magic and science to spread Qian’s singing.”

“I never expected that someone could sing such a miraculous song. When I first heard it, my whole body couldn’t stop trembling.”

Ah, I’m sorry, it was used to save the world, so it’s really not a normal song. Yun Xi helplessly looked at the girls who were still intoxicated from the song.

When he stepped onto the stage, he never expected that this scene would be recorded and spread all over the endless god's domains.

But it wasn't his fault! He just accidentally entered the Mechanus God's Domain, he was a quantum ghost!

After singing the song, Alpha's figure appeared again. Her eyes seemed to cross the endless stars, staring at the far away void.

"I'll find you."

"Wherever you are."

The two short sentences represented the determination of a supreme god.

"The creations of the Mechanus God's Domain can't work outside the Mechanus God's Domain" was originally an iron law of that Domain, but now, Alpha's god power had changed it.

The mass-produced crystal balls were made by Alpha, they were the crystallization of wisdom, science and mystery.

Alpha manufactured thousands of crystal balls and used her god power to seal Qian's singing into them. After that, she also made millions of duplicates by inputting the song into cheaper crystal balls (of course, the quality of the sound would slightly reduce in these cheaper crystal balls) and sold them to the endless god's domains.

Anyone who heard the song would be attracted and buy one.

As a result, the Mechanus God's Domain had received innumerable additional orders. Even with all the alchemists in that Domain starting to make crystal balls from dawn to dusk, they would need three years to complete all the additional orders.

The crystal balls that held the recorded song of Qian's, had become the largest foreign trade order of the entire Mechanus God's Domain. It also made more people know Alpha's name, not limited only to the people who paid attention to Star Go.

The Mechanus God's Domain always maintained a semi-closed state in the past, now, because the birth of their supreme god, Cyber Elf Alpha, the entire god's domain began to enter a new era.

These crystal balls spread from the Mechanus God's Domain were the opportunities for change brought by Alpha.

Of course, she didn't care at all about it. She made these crystal balls just for a simple reason.

She wanted to find "Qian", in other words, "the Master of Star Go".

As for why the crystal balls used to find Qian eventually became the most popular products in the endless god's domains... it was just an accident that even Alpha herself didn't expect.

At first, she sent out the crystal balls for free, but soon, the Mechanus God's Domain received a bunch of invitations from other gods, all of which were about the trade requirements of these crystal balls that recorded the singing of "Qian".

In this way, the crystal balls became a kind of super-hot product, the scene happened in this classroom had appeared everywhere in the endless god's domains countless times.

No... I'm done!... After discovering the origin and development of these crystal balls, Yun Xi could only sigh with regret.

Even in this remote White Lotus Sword Domain, people could buy the crystal balls that recorded Qian's singing... it was too shameful!

When he imagined how many people had bought and watched the crystal balls, Yun Xi only wanted to cry.

Alpha, you're going to make me die! Whoooooooh.

"Mei, don't you think this girl named Qian is somewhat similar to you?" Hua Yue said and looked at the figure in the crystal ball with a smile on her lips.

If it wasn't for this reason, she wouldn't've bought this limited edition crystal ball.

"2012" was the serial number for this crystal ball, representing that it was the "2012th limited edition" made by alchemists.

Now collecting these numbered crystal balls had become a fashion in the endless god's domains. It was said that even some gods were looking for them.

This was the charm of “Qian” and the miracle created by the three Water God’s priestesses.

“No, not at all!” Yun Xi resolutely denied Hua Yue’s question.

The girl in the crystal ball has nothing to do with me!

Let this black history forever be a black history!

The truth should be buried in history forever!

Chapter 610: Transfer Studen

Sometimes, the more resolutely you deny a thing, the easier the thing would be noticed.

After Hua Yue said it, the girls around her also found out about this.

“Really! Mei looks like Qian!”

“They look like sisters. Mei is the older sister and Qian is the young sister.”

“One is a singer in the Mechanus God’s Domain, and the other is a disciple of the Sword Palace, what an incredible coincidence!”

“I’ve heard that there will always be ten people who look like you in the world. That’s true.”

The girls chattered around Yun Xi excitedly.

“I can’t sing that kind of song.” Yun Xi shook his head and presented the best evidence for himself.

It’s not a lie.

This “Qian” is not him, but a quantum ghost in a dream. In the real world, he didn’t have that voice.

“Oh, it’s true, that kind of singing is amazing. I really want to know how Qian has such a wonderful voice.”

“Mei, do you want to be a singer, too?” The girls of the Starwing Knights looked with interest at Yun Xi.

“No!” Yun Xi firmly refused this proposal.

Are you kidding me? What kind of punishment is this? I don’t want to experience this anymore!

“It’s a pity. I think Mei could be a singer too.”

“Well, well, I think so too.”

“Mei, you must look beautiful in a white dress.”

The girls laughed and joked with Yun Xi, which made Yun Xi have an inexplicable sense of sadness.

Before I practiced the “Closed-mouth Zen”, before the days I went to the Starry Sky Chessboard, they didn’t behave like this.

After returning from the Starry Sky Chessboard, everyone’s attitude towards him changed, as if they suddenly became more intimate.

Now, they all took the initiative to get close to him, pulling his hand, and leaning their bodies over him.

As for the invitation to take a bath together... Yun Xi had refused them hundreds of times. And why do girls like to go to the toilet collectively? Why can girls stay in it for fifteen minutes?

What’s more, why do you dress so exposed and casual in the girl’s dorm?

Shouldn’t girls be more reserved? Why can I always pick up unknown panties near the door of my room?

Why can girls hold each other’s hands and nestle close to each other so easily? Do you know how hard I have to restrain my desire?

“If Mei doesn’t like it, we shouldn’t force her.” Eventually, Hua Yue came out and rescued Yun Xi.

As the head of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue was much more dignified than Yun Xi.

“I want to drop out of the Sword Palace...” Yun Xi’s eyes became dull and listless.

Hua Huo, it’s all your fault!

In this way, sooner or later, I will be unable to restrain my desire.

Like a big gray wolf in a flock of sheep, he doubted how long he could keep pretending.

Especially after accepting Teacher Casina’s “Seed of the Battle God”, his vitality was increasing day by day, which was like adding fuel to the fire in this situation.

“Cough...” As Yun Xi was desperately thinking about how to suppress his own impulse, the history teacher finally walked into the classroom.

“Today, I will talk about the history of Casina, the Battle God, the sixth Sky Sword.”

“But before that, I will introduce a transfer student to you.”

Transfer student? At this time? Yun Xi looked at the pale-haired history teacher with some surprise.

“The transfer student is from the Heaven’s Road Palace, she is one of the best students in the Heaven’s Road Palace.” The history teacher said proudly.

The Heaven’s Road Palace and the Sword Palace were equally famous in the Eastern God’s Domain.

The creed of the Heaven’s Road Palace was “unification of all rules”.

The history of the Heaven’s Road Palace was even longer than the Sword Palace.

The Sky Sword God’s Domain was a god’s domain with “sword” as its veneration. Even so, the influence of the Heaven’s Road Palace wasn’t inferior to the Sword Palace in the Sky Sword God’s Domain.

From the scope of the entire Eastern God’s Domain, the influence of the Heaven’s Road Palace was even higher than the Sword Palace. The disciples of the Heaven’s Road Palace were hundreds of times more than the disciples of the Sword Palace.

As one of the best disciples of the Heaven’s Road Palace, no matter who the transfer student is, she is indeed qualified to be a transfer student of the Sword Palace.

“Come on, Robin.” The history teacher looked outside the door. He didn’t know why this genius of the Heaven’s Road Palace suddenly visited the White Lotus Sword Palace and wanted to be a transfer student, but from the attitude of the twin witches towards her, she must be an extraordinary genius.

Oh, probably she came for the White Lotus Secret Treasure. He thought.

“...” Dressed in a bright red cloak, a girl Yun Xi felt very familiar with walked up to the podium and then stared at Yun Xi and the girls of the Starwing Knights.

Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights.

Xiao Cao, the deputy leader of the Starwing Knights.

Except for the “little rabbit”, the people who appeared in her prophecy were all here.

Oh, let me see if the future I choose can come true.

“My name is Robin, a transfer student from the Heaven’s Road Palace.”

“I’m good at divination, no matter what you want to divine, I can divine for you.”

“I came here because I saw the future.”

Oh, it’s her! Yun Xi soon recalled who she was. She was the first augur he met, and her divination was very accurate!

So, she was a disciple of the Heaven’s Road Palace.
