

Starchild 61

Chapter 61: Tragic Asura

The booming sounds of metal colliding resounded at the top of the exploded Great Tower.

Yun Xi's childhood sweetheart and the Red Lotus Holy Virgin of the twin witches were starting a fighting that was far beyond Yun Xi's understanding.

They were both super geniuses.

One of them was Yun Xi's childhood sweetheart, who he never understood thoroughly, and was a super sword girl that could use the God's Sword Skill Sky Flying Sword.

The other was Red Lotus, who succeeded the position of the witch of White Lotus Sword Domain and was so famous that you could even hear her name in Western God's Domain.

In order to protect Yun Xi!

In order to protect White Lotus!

Enemy, die!

Invader, die!

What? Was this a fighting I could take sides in?

Watching the fighting between Hua Huo and Red Lotus, Yun Xi felt he was totally useless when faced with a fight at this level.

“Prince, come here!” Taking the opportunity that Hua Huo and her sister fought so fiercely that they couldn’t distract themselves from the fighting, White Lotus stealthily waved her hands to Yun Xi.

“Your Highness Holy Virgin, what’re you doing?” After blocking the shock wave caused by the fighting between the two “monsters”, Yun Xi tried his best to go toward the tied White Lotus Holy Virgin.

“I did nothing. Some power of the world influenced my sister. She became that violent monster.”

She also wanted to be a quiet sleeping beauty waiting for her prince’s kiss!

However, it seemed that some rules of the world chained her on the wooden cross from the moment she entered the world and her sister became the eternal flame spirit guarding her.

The only thing she could do was to sing from the top of the single Great Tower to call her prince to save her.

“I see. How can I save you?” After knowing the origin and development, Yun Xi was having cold sweat.

If he didn't go perform the side quest and obtained Hua Huo's help and only used his own power, even if he passed through the third district due to luck, he would be killed by Red Lotus at the very instant he faced the ultimate challenge.

What an extremely difficult formal trial!

The stars' "special consideration" made Yun Xi want to cry.

“You can.” White Lotus gazed at Yun Xi with tenderness and love. Even if Hua Huo wasn't here, she could still help Yun Xi. The most difficult part of the trial was how to enter the Great Tower.

“I'm waiting for you, my prince.”

“Do you remember the love token you gave me?”

“This world has its own rules. You need to do one thing to suppress my sister and save me.”

As hearing White Lotus's plan, Yun Xi couldn't stop beads of sweat dripping from his forehead and back.

If he did that, Hua Huo would kill him.

However, if he didn't do it, the world would be destroyed!

Oh, he didn't want to make mistakes. It was the world forcing him!

"Hee ah!"

Hua Huo lightly leapt up. In her hands, the two-handed heavy sword, which could even be used as siege weapon, burst out blue light. Temporarily, Hua Huo overcame the gravity, standing upside down in the sky.

At that moment, time also temporarily stopped. Even the burning fire powders which surrounded Red Lotus also paused in the sky by the will and spirit of Hua Huo's sword.

"Sky Fly— Crossing Slash!"

The 3 metres tall guardian spirit's body was covered with wounds and exposed Red Lotus's true body inside it.

Her two hands raised her Red Lotus Holy Sword, as the blazing cloak waved on her back by the wind.

"Hot Sun— Burning the Sky!"

A column of scorching fire raised to the sky.

This was a fighting between extraordinary power and extraordinary power, a bloody battle between two Hero rank strong people!

The tremendous crossed sword light and the huge column of fire exploded together. They almost destroyed half of the giant Great Tower.

“Great!” Hua Huo was very excited.

She had waited too long to meet such a spicy battle with an opponent at the same level with her.

“You... Wait, bastard, what’re you doing?!” At first, Red Lotus was absorbed in staring at Hua Huo, the most threatening enemy. However, when she took a chance to glance at her sister, her anger exploded.

“Boom!” Countless flames burst out. Regardless of having turned her back to Hua Huo, Red Lotus frantically rushed to the cross.

“Little Xi!” Hua Huo didn’t take this opportunity to attack Red Lotus, because she was even angrier than Red Lotus!

Her Little Xi, her childhood sweetheart, was holding the poor, lovely girl’s hands. He lowered his head and gave the girl a soft, sweet kiss on her hand.

“Arrrrrghhhh! White Lotus!”

“Noooooooooooo! Little Xi!”

Red Lotus and Hua Huo went mad together!

“I give you my love.”

“In that case, I can shine the world.”

White Lotus was indulging in Yun Xi’s kiss.

Finally, she tried to be the first. The time between two lovers was so sweet.

I wanted all your first experiences. I wanted to become the only one in your heart.

For you, I willed to become the eternal flame of the world, to deprive all darkness.

You were the light of my life. You were the forever I hoped. You were the lover I waited.

“Give it to me, my prince.” White Lotus reached out her small hands and put the Ring of Star and Moon she forged in Yun Xi’s hands.

“Eh!” Yun Xi could feel killing intent. Two very strong killing intents.

One was from his powerful childhood sweetheart, the unbeatable sword girl, who could kill the male Fiery Dragon like she was killing a poor dog.

Another was from White Lotus's elder sister, Red Lotus, one of the twin witches, who could turn into a burning guardian spirit.

None of them was an opponent that he could be a could match for. More exactly, he could only wait to be killed by them.

What should he do to defuse the crisis? At this time, Yun Xi vaguely understood how his past life died.

Fortunately, he had a backup this time. The girl was also the most important person of the world.

Though he didn't know why she wanted him to give her the ring, which looked totally unlike the micalex he presented her before, however, since he didn't have more information, this was his only choice.

"You bastard! Don't touch my White Lotus!" Red Lotus got crazy. She turned into the red-hot guardian spirit, rushing towards Yun Xi.

She really wanted to kill him!

"Little Xi, explain this!" Hua Huo leapt to the sky again. The two-handed heavy sword was dyed bright red.

She was angry. This was the first time that Yun Xi saw Hua Huo so angry!

This... was I playing with fire? Yun Xi tried to weep, but failed to shed a tear. He could only look at the girl with the Ring of Star and Moon in his arms.

“Don’t worry. Trust me!”

“Trust me! Trust the girl who was always waiting for you!”

After putting the Ring of Star and Moon on her head, White Lotus looked pretty happy.

Again, the song resounded in the world, which was going to be swallowed by the darkness.

“I wander in the darkness... once dreamed the whisper that no one could hear...”

“The unreachable wish and the trampled wing. Lowering my head in the darkness, and waiting for your coming.”

“The whirling miss let me forge the Ring of Star and Moon for you, in order to witness our forever love.”

“Our love will turn into light, shining the darkness and going to immortal.”

Chapter 62: The Primal Fire

Inside the stainless white radiance, White Lotus guided Yun Xi's hands to put the Ring of Star and Moon on her head, declaring to the world their brave oath.

"Today, I hold his hands and tell all the people in the world.

"From this day forward, I'm going to a couple with him.

"For rich or for poor.

"For better or for worse.

"Like the stars shining in the infinite night sky.

"Our hearts linked together, never to be separated.

"We wish for love, we want to stay together. If our tenderness can suffuse the world, that would be fantastic.

"No, not only so.

"For you, I'm willing to become the eternal flame to bring light to the world!"

That was the girl's decision. For the sake of her lover, she volunteered for that.

The world was filled with darkness and despair. Countless dead souls were wandering in the nightmare. They couldn't rest. They couldn't sleep.

Therefore, she would become the light that would light up the world, to be the initial fire!

"Boom" Between earth and sky, a huge White Lotus bloomed. Then a layer of crimson fire surrounded White Lotus.

White Lotus and Red Lotus combined together in such a weird way. At the last sanctuary of the world, they lit the column of fire, shining the sky and earth.

The red sky and black earth ushered light again. One after another, bonfires appeared in all the corners of the dark world. The world was lighting up.

Even the fire couldn't change the true nature of the dark world, it just brought a slender hope.

Yun Xi could barely see the puzzled souls going towards those bonfires from the void. Then they transformed into human figures, gazing at their own two hands in confusion.

They didn't have memories of their pasts, but also represented the hope of the world.

They were ashes birthed from fire, wandering souls corrupted by the dark world. The tower of fire lit up by White Lotus and Red Lotus supported them so that they could be born in the bonfire.

The destiny of the world had changed.

The world, which was supposed to fall in perpetual darkness, would sing a song of blood and fire again.

After losing all their memories and returning to the world from the bonfire, those undead had to explore the world and fight against the terrible monsters born from the dark side.

The flame kept burning; the fighting would never end.

“This... what’s this...” Unlike the newbie trial, Yun Xi clearly felt the reality of the world.

If the stone soldiers, the Green Hippo and the male Fiery Dragon were opponents the stars summoned from the nearby regions around the small town.

Then the dark wave which swept across the world and the undead who were returning to the world from the bonfire, were undoubtedly also a part of the world.

And White Lotus, as the person who lit the primal fire, was a very special being to the world.

“So... this is a real world...” Yun Xi vaguely remembered that Mei’er had said that the trial world was a dream world the stars helped him link to. However, the current situation told him that it wasn’t just as simple as a dream.

The dark and the fire, the bonfire and the undead, and the primal fire lit by the witch. Yun Xi had a feeling that it wasn't the end between the world and himself. It was probably just a beginning.

Looking down from the top of the Great Tower, the place lit by the primal fire, here was just the edge of a vast continent. The dark forest and the Great Tower were just two infinitely small parts of the world.

At a distance, there were majestic mountains and imposing old castles. In the horizon, there was some indiscernible objects that linked the sky and the ground.

"Little Xi!"

"White Lotus!"

As Yun Xi eyed the vast area, the fighting between Hua Huo and Red Lotus started again!

His strong childhood sweetheart and the perhaps stronger Red Lotus waved their weapons at the same time, running towards Yun Xi, who was gently hugging White Lotus in his arms.

"Sorry, sister."

"He's the only one I won't give up to you."

White Lotus made a naughty smile towards the resentful Red Lotus and Hua Huo, then used one of her fingers to draw a seal in the air.

“One person one city, one heart one wall!”

A rhombic wall suddenly appeared in front of Red Lotus and Hua Huo. That was a God’s Skill Yun Xi had once glanced in the seed of the twin witches— Void Seal.

However, at that time, a “sword” appeared in the void, but this time, it was a “wall”.

“Boom!” A flame two times more violent than before blasted.

“Swish! Swish!” Following that was a big crossing sword attack. Hua Huo’s two-handed sword bounced off and cracked.

“One person one city, one heart one wall!”

When it came to attacks, White Lotus was inferior to her sister. However, if we were talking about defence, then she was undoubtedly the best.

The twin witches, one used a sword and another one used seals. One was expert in attack and another one was expert in defence. When they teamed up, they had no weakness.

Hence, when Red Lotus found that her sister blocked her attack by using the Wall of Heart, she couldn’t believe her eyes.

Her gentle, graceful, and innocent sister was resisting her! In other words, herself!

No, this couldn't be White Lotus's fault.

It was all the bastard prince's fault! This damn dream! This cursed world!

"Little Xi, be careful, I'm not going to preserve my strength!" After seeing White Lotus hugging Yun Xi, Hua Huo's killing intention rose suddenly and sharply.

"Burst Gauge!"

Tremendous blood power, far more terrible than the male Fiery Dragon, burst out from Hua Huo's body. If anyone still claimed that Hua Huo was at 3rd rank now, that person must be blind.

Even a thousand green hippos were nothing when faced with the current Hua Huo.

Another skill and power that Yun Xi didn't know. Hua Huo, how many God's Skills were you still hiding?!

"Don't worry. We're blessed by the world, my prince."

"Behold, the glory of the stars is shining on us!"

White Lotus and Yun Xi were acting intimately. They hugged each other, revelling in the fairytale-like atmosphere.

Oh, the world was so wonderful, and the flame was so warm here!

If this moment could last forever, what a wonderful dream it would be!

“Oh, the stars are coming...” Yun Xi raised his head. Looking at the tardy lights of the stars, Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief.

“Hong!” Hua Huo went into her super mode. She broke three layers of the Wall of Heart by one hit and rushed towards Yun Xi.

The three meter tall flame spirit turned into a flash of red hot light and also flew at them with anger.

At that very moment, the lights of the stars dropped and covered Yun Xi.

The first formal trial came to an end.

Chapter 63: Huge Harvest

After returning to the palace of stars, Yun Xi lost himself in the warm, sweet taste of White Lotus’s lips.

At the last moment when the starlight wrapped Yun Xi, it looked like White Lotus realized something. She kissed him fiercely and didn’t part from him until the last second.

After that summer and meeting that big sister, it was the first time that Yun Xi was at a loss after being kissed. He was so puzzled.

“Master, you did well!” Before Yun Xi returned to the earth, the cute star fairy Mei’er kissed him again. In the palace of stars, she kept her human form but didn’t do anything special that was different from what she did when she was still in her golden, little dog form. She was always so ebullient regardless of where she was and what moment it was.

After his face was full of Mei’er’s saliva, Yun Xi finally got a free moment to check what he had obtained in the trial.

The first were the souls. A great number of souls.

Taking the green hippo that Yun Xi had encountered before as a basic unit, the souls he obtained were about 16 units, which meant that they were equal to 16 hippos. Most of the souls were from the stone soldiers he had killed in the third district.

The next were his fighting spoils. Although he couldn’t bring them out of the trial world, but the third rank units Yun Xi had killed all offered him weapons.

The five tiger generals offered him five refined long lances, and the third rank stone soldiers on the bridge also offered him a big heap of swords, lances and halberds. However, his toughest enemy, the archer in red, only offered him a refined longbow, which made Yun Xi sigh for this strongest archer’s poverty.

Finally, the most valuable part came.

Childe Si Nian offered his dark blue two-handed heavy sword. Unsurprisingly, it was made by the Thunder Army in the Western God's Domain, and was obviously more advanced than the sword Yun Xi obtained in the first district.

Childe San Quan offered him his strange fan sword. It was made in Satsuki Sword Domain and called "Spirit Bird Fan Sword". It was a high-level spirit weapon which could be used by a priest, swordsman, and alchemist, and if necessary, its five fan blades could combine into one and become a Taoist sword.

The last of the last, the famous swords which were handed down from age to age by Childe Si Nian's family – the Crane Wing Twin Swords. They were made the god-like craftsman successor Ou Ye Zi, and had grown into super spirit weapons after thousands of years.

The first characteristic of the Crane Wing Twin Swords: The more talented their owner was, the more power the swords could display.

The second characteristic of the Crane Wing Twin Swords: Flying Crane Wings. When they were forged, they were mixed with some super materials from the Eastern God's Domain. They were as light as air and existed side by side. Even if you were a mortal, you could still use it to display some sword skills such as Flying Sword.

The third characteristic of the Crane Wing Twin Swords: The sword spirits. As time went by, two sword spirits had been born inside of the twin swords, and only the swordsman who could master his heart, could hear the twin swords' voices and master their power.

The extra characteristic of the Crane Wing Twin Swords: The twin swords could only be used by a man, but not a woman.

The current state of the Crane Wing Twin Swords: A standard godly weapon.

It deserved Hua Huo's favour. Its characterizations had made it above the level of all the other weapons. It was the first godly weapon Yun Xi had ever seen.

The most valuable part was that the godly spirit weapon could even be used by mortals!

If it wasn't because Childe Yun He couldn't display the power of the twin swords fully and was too arrogant, Yun Xi wouldn't even have gotten through the third district.

Other than these weapons, the third district also offered Yun Xi dozens of green crystal fragments, which could be used to strengthen his weapons. However, what disappointed Yun Xi was that these green crystal fragments couldn't be used to strengthen the Crane Wing Twin Swords. It seemed that they needed more advanced gem fragments.

After obtaining the Crane Wing Twin Swords, Yun Xi didn't think that he needed any other low-level weapons, and the equipment he obtained this time were all weapons. Therefore, it seemed that he didn't need to use these green crystal fragments temporarily.

The last reward was to choose one of the seeds that the stars offered, which was what Yun Xi was eager for. Unlike the weapons, these seeds could be used to strengthen Yun Xi himself and provide a high growth rate.

Hua Huo's seed, which Yun Xi had obtained in the newbie trial, had made his combat power have a great change within a few days. This time, there were three seeds waiting for him to pick from. Except for Hua Huo's seed, they were the strongest three seeds Yun Xi had ever seen.

The first seed was from Childe San Quan. Childe San Quan's seed could let him master Taoist skills, alchemy, Five-animal Sword Skill, and a skill called Quick Thinking – which allowed him to think three times faster than ordinary people. It was quite a good seed. Compared to the green hippo's seed which could only offer him strong power, this seed was more comprehensive, and the skill "Quick Thinking" was incredibly strong.

If you could think three times faster than ordinary people, it was the equivalent of giving you three times the usual study time. No wonder that Childe San Quan could learn the knowledge of a priest, chemist, and swordsman at the same time.

The difficulty to merge the seed: Normal.

The affinity of the seed: Normal.

The predicted merging time: Three months.

It was quite a mediocre seed and could be regarded as a typical representative of third rank elites. If Yun Xi was in a situation that needed power immediately, it could be a good choice.

The second seed was from the mysterious archer in red. The archer's seed was named "The Eidolon Archer's Seed". It specialized in Act Alone and Snipe. It could let its owner master Spiral Arrow Skill, Double Arrows Skill, Seeker Arrow Skill, and Shocking Arrow Skill.

Special Ability One: Eagle Eye, which allowed the user to snipe his enemies from four miles away by using a tailored longbow.

Special Ability Two: Heart Eye, which was learned from practice and actual combat, and could let the user master the current situation. Even if there was only 1% possibility that could turn the tide in a battle, this ability could let its user grasp that opportunity.

Special Ability Three: ??? Not awakened. It was an extremely strong and mysterious ability and could be provoked in some special situation.

Bollodline Godly Weapon: ??? Not awakened. It is supposed to be a bow, but still unknown.

The difficulty to merge the seed: High.

The affinity of the seed: Excellent.

The predicted merging time: Three years.

“Whoa. This is... terrible...” At first, Yun Xi thought that Childe San Quan’s seed was already very great, but if he compared it with this seed, it was just a waste. This was also the first time that Yun Xi saw two “???” in the description of seeds – except for Hua Huo’s seed.

If referring to Hua Huo’s power when she fought with Red Lotus in the ultimate tall tower, this archer in red had great potential. However, why did he have excellent affinity with an archery career? It was the first time that he had seen this seed, but the stars told him that he had excellent affinity with it.

Finally, Yun Xi moved his eyes to the last seed, which had made his heart palpitate with excitement. This wasn’t the first time that Yun Xi had seen this seed. However, compared to the last time he had seen it, the description of the seed contained more information this time.

It was the seed of the strongest genius in the entire White Lotus Sword Domain, the twin witches.

White Lotus and Red Lotus's seed.

Chapter 64: Their Seeds

Yun Xi still clearly remembered what he'd seen after the newbie trial from the brief introduction of the twin witches' seed.

At that time, he hadn't known that they were the twin witches, so he had just named their seed "The Sleeping Beauty's Seed". This seed had four skills: Vacuum Seal, Cutting Blade, Void Burst, and The Great Circulation. Just upon hearing the names, one could understand that they weren't a mortal's skills .

If it wasn't because the stars told Yun Xi that it was very hard for him to merge with the seed, which would have taken him at least a hundred years, perhaps he wouldn't have held back his desire to choose this strongest seed at that time. However, he had a second chance now, and this time, the information about this seed was way more detailed and terrifying than what he'd seen in the newbie trial.

The twin witches' seed.

Let's see the description of Red Lotus's seed first.

Vacuum Seal was Red Lotus's sword skill. She was an expert in the "sword". With her Red Lotus Holy Sword, she could cut off mountains and rivers, breaking through clouds and sky. It was a top killing sword skill.

Cutting Blade was an attached skill of Red Lotus's Holy Sword. It could cut off 70% of low-level spirit weapons and 30% of middle-level spirit weapons, as easily as it would a piece of cake.

Red Lotus's Avatar: When Red Lotus was angry, she was blessed by the demon god. She could turn into the form of a gaint demon god. When she was in this condition, she would lose her sanity and attack everyone except her sister.

The sealed god weapon: Red Lotus Holy Sword. No one knew where Red Lotus had obtained it, but it was so powerful that Red Lotus had to seal most of its power. It could be regarded as a standard god weapon.

Then, let's see what White Lotus's seed could offer.

Void Burst: It was White Lotus's "defence" spell. It could create a Wall of Heart, which could even withstand the attack of a standard god weapon. It could also be used as an ancillary attack, which meant that it was a powerful secret skill that could be used to defend and attack at the same time.

The Great Circulation: White Lotus divined to know the coming future. It could tell her what her enemy (whose power wasn't three times stronger than her) would do within three seconds.

The White Lotus Sanctuary: It was a blessing that only White Lotus could learn. It could dispel all evils and offer the Power of Heart to the friendly units who were within the range of ten miles.

The standard god weapon: The Ring of Star and Moon. It was blessed by the stars and forged by using White Lotus's blood, containing the breath of the primal fire.

The first special talent of the twin witches: Two Bodies, One Heart. They were perfect partners. When they fought together, they didn't have any weaknesses.

The second special talent of the twin witches: ??? It was an unknown godly talent. When the twin witches made concerted efforts, they would show terrible power.

The bloodline godly weapon: ??? It was an unknown legacy of White Lotus God's Domain and was supposed to have relations with the primary power of the domain itself.

The difficulty to merge the seed: Extremely high.

The affinity of the seed: Extremely excellent.

The predicted merging time: Fifty years.

"Go-dong!" Yun Xi swallowed as he looked at the twin witches' seed.

It was really a great lure.

The merging time reduced from a hundred years to fifty years.

Although it was still far away from what he could reach, but at least, it was a giant leap.

Beside, Yun Xi knew that the seed's growth speed could be accelerated, and its capacity could be extended.

It was like the Sky Flying Sword (10% done), what he obtained after choosing Hua Huo's seed. The more he learnt from their seeds, the more he knew about their potential and power.

"Should I choose their seed?" Apart from Childe San Quan's seed, which Yun Xi had decided to give up, the archer in red's seed and the twin witches' seed were both great lures for him.

After the two trials, he had gained some understanding about the three seeds he could choose as his last reward.

The first seed could improve his power as quick as possible. It was a seed he should choose when he had an urgent need.

The second seed contained great potential and unknown growth speed.

The third contained the strongest power and the most terrible characteristics.

However, he needed time to absorb them.

The more powerful the seed was, the longer the time he needed to merge with them. The only way to accelerate the progress was to increase his affinity with the seed. In short, after obtaining the seed, if he wanted to improve his power, he had to increase his affinity with the seed as fast as possible.

Well, did this mean... Looking at these seeds and remembering what happened after he obtained the Love System of Starchild, Yun Xi had a strong sense of foreboding. Was the Love System of Starchild built to teach him how to fall in love with multiple girls and survive after that?

Oh, holy crap! Was that really a thing that could come true? If the truth was exposed, he would definitely have a bloody future! At the least, his terrible childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo, would never just sit there and see such a thing coming to true. Besides, even though he could set White Lotus aside, but Red Lotus really wanted to kill him!

“Mei’er, were the stars going to murder me?” After realizing what the seed would bring him, Yun Xi just wanted to cry out.

Why? He was just an ordinary baker in the small town, and his dream was just to marry a girl who was also born in the same town and was willing to spend her life with him. Hua Huo was his childhood sweetheart and his first love, but someday, she would leave that small town.

The twin witches were two big shots he would never imagine knowing. He couldn’t even dream of having any relations with them in his wildest dream!

“Master, the stars want you to grow up as fast as possible. What they did were all for your own good!” Mei’er innocently looked at her master.

“Wake up the sleeping beauty by kissing her and save the princess from the tall tower, they were both perfect dramas in the stars’ memory. They surely can improve your ability to love!”

“...” Again, Yun Xi felt how deep and special the stars’ love was. Yeah, wake up the sleeping beauty in the forest, what a romantic story, and save the imprisoned princess from the tall tower, what an exciting exploit!

However, he wasn't a prince nor a knight!

The green hippo had killed him over a hundred times, and the stone soldiers had killed him three hundred and fifteen times. And in the future, he certainly would die far more times than the past.

"Can I stop taking part in the trials? Why can't the stars just let me live normally and in peace?" Yun Xi forlornly gazed at his Star Fairy Mei'er.

"Eh, you can, master."

"If you don't mind that your ex-girlfriends will catch you, and do this sort of things and that sort of things to you. You won't even have a chance to die, and you will have this sort of things and that sort of things done to you by them..." Mei'er honestly told Yun Xi what he would face if he didn't become strong.

"I choose the twin witches' seed!" Yun Xi pressed his fingers on the last seed with mixed feelings of grief and indignation. Anyway, he would die. However, if he didn't fear death, he would fear nothing! Therefore, I chose you, the twin witches' seed!

Chapter 65: Escape Plan

At the very moment Yun Xi held the twin witches' seed in his hand, overwhelming information poured into his brain.

Vacuum Seal, the Red Lotus Holy Sword, the Ring of Star and Moon, White Lotus Holy field... One secret after another, ones which mortals would never know, were being imprinted into Yun Xi's soul.

Yun Xi felt sick and dizzy. This was the price for receiving power far beyond his limit.

The stars could help Yun Xi merge with the hero rank seed, however, they couldn't help him avoid this pain.

"Arrrghhh!" Yun Xi knelt down on the ground of the Star Palace as he kept smashing the ground with his two hands. Compared to the pain he had felt when he received Hua Huo's seed, this was so much more intense.

Hua Huo's seed contained unlimited potential, however, her seed had not transcended the mortal rank limit. But the twin witches' seed was the superlative seed amongst all hero rank seeds.

Yun Xi felt as if there was an immense library trying to be crammed into his brain. The painful truth was that he couldn't stop this process, and as he looked at the immense library, he could only see the books on the bottom shelves. He couldn't even see the books on the upper shelves.

All the hero rank skills were marked with the tag "Sealed". None of the Vacuum Seal, The Great Circulation, and the twin witches' special blood talents, was an exception.

"As I expected... I can't use it..." Yun Xi had expected this.

The level of the twin witches' seed was too high for him now. In fact, the seed of the mysterious archer in red was his best choice, and since he needed to improve his combat power as fast as he could, Child San Quan's seed was also an optimized option. However, he had chosen the twin witches' seed. Why? He needed about fifty years to merge with this seed. It was no fooling matter.

Probably, he also chose it because of their past relationship, Yun Xi smiled bitterly. The taste of White Lotus's lips still remained on his lips. Without her devotion, enthusiasm and initiative, he wouldn't have passed through his first formal trial. At the end of his formal trial, she had chosen to be the primary fire that would ignite the dark world. Obviously, she had made some sacrifices. Therefore, choosing the twin witches' seed was in recognition of her sacrifice.

He didn't think that he would make any further contact with the mysterious twin witches. Therefore, this was his gratitude but also his final link with them. Because soon after this, he would leave here. He would go to other sword domains where no one would know him. He would practice by himself to become stronger as he travelled through worlds.

Escape White Lotus Sword Domain. This was Yun Xi's final choice after thinking about it again and again. Hua Huo was going to leave the small town and join the Palace of Sword. She would step on her road to glory. After finishing the Palace of Sword's entrance exam, the twin witches would return to the Palace of Sword and were destined to be the twin masters of White Lotus Sword Domain.

As for him, in order to dodge the unknown apostle who had arrived at Sky Sword God's Domain and was searching for him, to leave White Lotus Sword Domain would be his best choice.

He counted it again. His savings were able to get him through the stellar bridge and escape to another sword domain. After that, he would practice and build up his power and earn money at the same time, then use his fastest speed to escape from Sky Sword God's Domain. He thought that he would finally be able to find a remote domain, where no one would go to look for him.

As long as he kept going through the trials, he should be able to become stronger in the future. He still didn't know when would he stop worrying about being found by the apostle. Maybe after hundreds of years? Or after thousands of years?

His past experience in the small town, his sweet memories about his childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo, his encounter with the twin witches, the secret room where he had stayed with his sword skill teacher, his secret game with Milei, El'phyllis, and Ye Li...

There were too many things he didn't want to lose or forget. He just wanted to be a normal baker, living in peace. However, the coming of the stars and the series of death trials had let him realize that he would never have these happy days again.

He'd better escape from White Lotus Sword Domain before anyone noticed him. Hua Huo's seed, and the twin witches' seed, they both would become his precious memories. After he ran away, the two seeds would follow him and help him grow up.

He would go today. The day the Palace of Sword exam was being held. At daybreak, he would secretly leave his home, leaving White Lotus Sword Domain.

Hua Huo, goodbye.

Red Lotus and White Lotus, goodbye.

Milei, El'phyllis, and Ye Li, goodbye.

"Mei'er, are you ready to rove all over the world with me?" After merging with the twin witches' seed, Yun Xi looked at Mei'er with guilt in his eyes. It looked like the Star Fairy had to roam all over with them, although it just came to the world not long ago.

"En. As long as I can stay with you, everywhere is my heaven!" Mei'er flew around and hummed songs with joy.

Thank you, Mei'er. At least I still have you. It was really wonderful to have the stars send you to me.

After checking the rewards he had obtained from the trial, Yun Xi resolutely left the Palace of Stars. He would start a new life. He would leave his hometown, parents, and his small bakeshop, going to unknown distant worlds. He had made this decision after he finished his newbie trial and practiced in the valley. He needed to kill more monsters like the green hippo in order to obtain more seeds. He needed to constantly keep getting stronger and walking straight on his own road.

The deeper the star's love was, the harder the road he would step on would be.

"Puff!" Yun Xi opened his eyes and saw the familiar ceiling. However, he felt that something strange was lying down on his body.

Was it his illusion? Yun Xi lowered his head, then saw his familiar childhood sweetheart. The girl had a lively ponytail, soft and healthy petite body. She was in a really deep sleep. She didn't even know that her saliva had drooled onto her beautiful face.

That was his childhood sweetheart, the most unique girl in the world – Hua Huo.

Why was Hua Huo on his bed and lying down on his chest?!

For a moment, Yun Xi's mind turned into a blank sheet.

"Ooo... No..."

"Kill you... bitches..." Hua Huo was still immersed herself in her dream and didn't notice that Yun Xi had woken up.

From her angry, unrelenting expression, she was having a very bad nightmare.

“Hua Huo...” Yun Xi couldn’t stop the beads of sweat from dropping down from his forehead. Before he began his escape plan, he already faced a massive barrier.

Chapter 66: The Fight Has Yet to Begin, Already Fleeing

Why was Hua Huo in his room and lying down on his chest? Did that mean when they were in the trial, they actually stayed in the same bed and kept such a pose all night?

Looking at his childhood sweetheart’s sleeping face, Yun Xi was at a loss. Dawn was drawing nearer. The first ray of sunshine had entered through a crack in the window and shone on Hua Huo’s delicate face.

The sixteen year old Hua Huo was so lovely, youthful, and adorable. She practiced hard every day, but that didn’t mar her skin even a tiny bit. She was still full of vitality. In another two years, she would grow up to be a wonderful beauty. Even now, she was already one of the most beautiful girls in the small town.

At this moment, she was lying down on his chest. She looked like a sleeping kitten, clever and lovely. No one would imagine that she was a strong girl who could brandish a two-handed sword and kill a fiery male dragon with great ease. Obviously, she was still a mortal, but she could defeat the male fiery dragon and fight against the future master of White Lotus Sword Domain. In the end, how many abilities was she still hiding?

“Hua Huo...” Yun Xi stretched out his hand and stroked Hua Huo’s hair. For a moment, he was at a loss.

“Rage Powers!” His touch was like opening a switch. Instantly, Hua Huo woke up.

The next moment, an invisible windstorm swept through Yun Xi's room. Hua Huo's "Rage Powers" burst out, impacting the room and making a mess of everything.

"Ah!... Little Xi!" Hua Huo hadn't completely woken up yet. She confusedly looked at Yun Xi for a moment, then pulled him up. "I'll protect you! None of those bitches... bastards can lay a finger on you! You are my Little Xi. No one can take you away from me!"

"Uh huh..." Yun Xi's back was drenched in a cold sweat. He pretend he knew nothing, then asked her, "Hua Huo, did you have a nightmare?"

"Nightmare... Dream..." Hua Huo frowned tightly. She looked around the room, then suddenly realized something, "Dream, yes. Was it a dream? Of course it was just a dream! Little Xi, you were not being kissed and taken away by those bitches... you went somewhere else and I couldn't find you."

"Hua Huo, I didn't go anywhere. Look, I was just sleeping in my room," Yun Xi pretended that he was innocent and asked back, "But you, why did you come to my room?"

"Your room... Right. Here is..." Hua Huo gasped for air and rubbed her temple. Strange. That was strange! Just now, she was still fighting against those bitches who were going to take away her Yun Xi. Those bitches were very strong, so she had to arouse all her latent power and use the unique skill that she was told she should never use in front of others. Even so, she still couldn't beat them and had to end the fight, neither in victory nor defeat.

As a result, when she woke up, she suddenly found out that everything was just a dream? Was it really just a dream? Then why was her heart in so much pain? Why did she still feel as if her most precious treasure had been snatched away?

“Hua Huo, did you have a nightmare?” Yun Xi asked his childhood sweetheart again, emphasising that everything was just a dream.

The trial of the stars was in an unknown dream world which had a totally different timeline and world rules from the real world. Otherwise, how was it possible that humans could revive inside a bonfire? Everything was just the stars’ test.

“It was a nightmare, but not completely. In fact, the first half of the dream was good,” Hua Huo fell into her sweet memories. She wanted to keep everything she could still remember firmly within her mind before she completely forgot the memories.

Have a date with Little Xi, slay the dragon together Little Xi, and kiss with Little Xi. Naaahhhh! Why are my memories constantly becoming hazy? Details, remember the details! If only the first part of the dream had happened, it would be the perfect sweet dream.

Why was the dream continuing on like that?! Some bitches wanted to take away her Little Xi, and she could only watch that happen. How could she endure such a thing? She would never tolerate such a thing!

“Little Xi, was it really just a dream?” Hua Huo sniffed all over Yun Xi’s body but only smelt Mei’er’s smell.

Okay, her Little Xi was only stolen in her dream, not in the real world. Yun Xi was still the boy she knew. Her childhood sweetheart had only the little dog’s smell on his body.

“Very good, Little Xi. You haven’t been stolen!” Hua Huo patted her small chest. Her expression made her look like a survivor of a great disaster.

“Uh huh...” Yun Xi looked away with guilt. According to the plan, he should have left town during the last darkness before the coming of dawn.

He had written a lot of letters. The letter he would send to his parents, the letter he would send to Hua Huo, and the letters he would send to Milei, El’phyllis and Ye Li. However, changes occurred faster than he could implement his plan. Before he had sent the letters, his childhood sweetheart had sneaked into his room. She... had she had a premonition of his plan? Otherwise, why had she come to his room?

“Little Xi, I have made a decision!” Hua Huo walked in circles around Yun Xi’s room , then finally made up her mind. She herself didn’t know the reason, but from a few days ago she had felt distracted. Perhaps it was because she hadn’t eaten Yun Xi’s special bread for a period of time.

These past few days, she had come to check Yun Xi’s room several times, but hadn’t seen Yun Xi even once. Finally, last night, she had caught Yun Xi in his room. She felt that she couldn’t just sit by idly and remain indifferent! In order to protect her Little Xi, to see him grow up healthily and smoothly, and for the most important reason: to keep Yun Xi away from those bitches in her dream, she must make him reborn!

“What have you decided?” Yun Xi had a terrible foreboding.

Yun Xi knew his childhood sweetheart better than anyone. She was a super genius who was afraid of nothing. Even if she faced a fiery male dragon, she would tear it to pieces if it blocked her way. As a genius, nobody could guess her thoughts.

“Little Xi, come to the Sword Palace together with me! I will let you become my maid so that I can protect you!” Hua Huo’s bright eyes gazed at Yun Xi, declaring the end of his escape plan.

“Go to the Sword Palace together with you as your maid?” Yun Xi looked at his childhood sweetheart in open-mouthed incredulity.

What kind of brain could make such a conclusion and plan?!

“Well, Little Xi, you’re still too weak right now. But fortunately, I have the legacy of Greatsword Maid. I think it’s very suitable for you,” Hua Huo said with a serious face, although Yun Xi still thought that she was just talking nonsense.

“Greatsword Maid? What’s that?!”

“Well, this matter is settled, so no more arguments. Little Xi, let me make you stronger! I swear I won’t let any bitches get you! Rest assured. The power of this legacy is absolutely beyond your imagination. You can practice it even after you reach the seventh rank! This is one of the highest maid-type legacies of the Western God’s Domain!”

Chapter 67: The Greatsword Maid

“Little Xi, you don’t know how powerful the maid legacy is. Even I, when I was a child, was once tempted to inherit one of the best maid legacies. If you haven’t awakened your talent, I can’t even let you inherit it. Hum? Little Xi, you have reached the second rank? Why so soon? Did you go to practise the limitation training?”

Yun Xi looked helpless and lifeless. His childhood sweetheart pulled him running at full speed on the street, and he didn’t even have any guts to resist her a bit. All the people who saw this scene showed soft and kind smiles on their faces.

“Little Xi, Little Hua Huo, you really get along well with each other.”

“Hua Huo, when will you and Yun Xi get married?”

“You are really a lovers couple made in heaven.”

Sigh. Yun Xi couldn't tell them the truth, he just couldn't say it. Looking at the uncles and aunts who cared about them, Yun Xi didn't know how to tell them the truth that he was being kidnapped by his childhood sweetheart.

“Boom!” Hua Huo pulled Yun Xi into her home, then kicked the door open, rushing into the front yard.

“I remember it was buried here. Humph. Papa tried to cheat me into choosing this great sword maid legacy, but he didn't expect that I had found out his intent from a long time ago!” Hua Huo made a few turns around the third willow in the courtyard, then decisively waved her fist and punched the ground.

“Boom!” As the sand and the dust blew up into the air, a dark box appeared near Hua Huo's feet. It looked like the box had been specially treated, and was buried at the bottom of the willow root. Since it was buried so stealthily, Hua Huo, how did you find it so easily?!

“This is...” Yun Xi looked at this seemingly normal thick box, having an ominous foreboding in his heart.

“Well, Little Xi. Come here,” Hua Huo smiled with satisfaction. She pulled Yun Xi and ran towards her room. Poor Yun Xi didn't even have a chance to resist her and was pulled into his childhood sweetheart's room.

In Hua Huo's room.

Yun Xi hadn't had entered Hua Huo's room for a long time. However, he still felt that Hua Huo's room was really incredible, just as he used to feel when he was a kid. Swords. One row after another, swords. From assassin's sleeve daggers to standard two-handed swords, Hua Huo's room was full of all sorts of swords.

In his childhood, he had thought that they were just decorations. However, after he saw Hua Huo slay the dragon, he had realized that they were all real weapons. Actually, this room was the largest, and the most powerful arsenal in town!

"I remember that there is a special way to open the box," Hua Huo put the heavy box onto the table, then glanced at the swords. She took down a sword from the wall which was about one meter long with a blue-colored sword handle and a shining light gold-colored sword blade. The sword was engraved with a series of ancient and mysterious runes on its blade. Its handle was decorated with a floriated blue cross. At the crisscrossed part of the sword handle and the sword blade, there was a valuable ruby inlaid into the centre.

"The person who holds this sword will be an immortal king. The person who holds this sword must not break the knight's precepts. I will fight for justice!" Hua Huo read the runic letters on the sword blade, then gently sliced her finger with the sword. "In the name of my Sky Flying Bloodline, I witness this oath."

The bright red blood flowed out from the wound and flowed along Hua Huo's fingers dropping onto the sacred steel sword blade. Instantly, holy golden light spread out quickly from the sword blade.

"Cut open the steel!" Hua Huo activated the sword, then resolutely brandished the sword chopping the sealed black box. The black box issued out a horrible scream. At that moment, it looked like a living being trying to escape away from the sacred steel sword.

"It's no use. You're dead," Hua Huo coldly brandished the sword again.

This time, the black box was cut into two pieces from its middle part. A gorgeous maid's black uniform drifted down from the broken black box, then was suspended in midair. Anyone could see that this maid's black uniform was unusual. Yun Xi even felt terrible bloodlust from the maid's uniform.

"Oh, is it the legendary killing princess's maid uniform?" Hua Huo was also shocked after she saw the maid's uniform.

"Killing princess?" Yun Xi felt his back grow cold. His sense of foreboding was growing stronger and stronger.

"Well, in history, the killing princess was one of the top three great sword maids. In her time, she was the most powerful great sword maid without any rivals. Although it's said that she is one of the top three great sword maids, however, the three maids didn't live in the same period. Therefore, many people think that she is actually the strongest sword maid."

"The sword skill she was good at was a dark-type sword skill was called 'Infinite Killing', and this sword skill was famous due to its two properties: High Speed Movement and Fatal Hit. She was an expert at killing. I am afraid that the demons she'd killed were even more than the total population of the whole Sky Sword God's Domain. If it wasn't because the other two maids had an extraordinary military record on many battlefields, she would have been recognized as the number one great sword maid."

"Before she became a great sword maid, she was an exiled princess whose country had been occupied by demons. After she became a great sword maid, she killed almost all the demons in her country. It's said that at that time, the moon was dyed red due to too many deaths."

The more details Hua Huo spoke of, the more surprised Yun Xi felt about this gorgeous maid's black uniform.

Hua Huo, where did you get this terrible legacy?!

The exiled princess, the killing maid, the maid's deep black uniform, the legacy of a great sword maid. Even in the entire Sky Sword God's Domain, the maid's uniform legacy was a high level treasure! Why was this kind of thing buried under the willow tree of your house? Yun Xi still remembered that the willow tree had been planted by Hua Huo and him when they were young!

"Well, very well. Although it's not the number one maid's uniform 'Auroral Morningstar', nor the number two maid's uniform 'Divine Shield', but this number three maid's uniform 'Killing Princess' is fine too. Moreover, this maid's black uniform is recognized as the most beautiful uniform amongst all the great sword maid's legacies! Little Xi, you're so lucky!" Hua Huo kneaded the maid's uniform and smiled at Yun Xi.

Wait a minute, I don't feel lucky at all! The killing princess and the great sword maids... Weren't they all female?! Yun Xi never thought that someday he would be forced to wear a dress. Hua Huo, what the hell was your brain thinking up?!

"Don't worry about the size. I heard that the size of great sword maid's uniform could be adjusted automatically according to the figure of the user. Besides, it seems like the killing princess was a flat-chested girl. You won't even have to make a lot of adjustments to get into the dress!" Hua Huo held the gorgeous maid's black uniform in her hands, approaching Yun Xi step by step.

Chapter 68: The Killing Princess

"No!... No, Hua Huo!" Yun Xi still resisted, he didn't want to put on such a shameful maid's uniform at all.

"Little Xi, don't worry, because you will soon get used to wearing it! Didn't we often play the game 'Play House' when we were children? At that time, you had worn my wedding dress, which I had specially ordered from Western God's Domain for you..." Hua Huo said with a happy expression.

If she dressed her childhood sweetheart up as a girl, in that case, none of those bitches would notice him. Besides, Yun Xi was really cute when he wore dresses. One stone and two birds. What a wonderful plan it was!

“No, don’t mention it!” Speaking of that experience, Yun Xi didn’t even want to remember a bit of it. At that time, he had been too young and naive, and Hua Huo had often cheated him into doing many shameful things. When he was a child, the townspeople had even selected him as “the cutest girl suitable for wearing a wedding dress”. That was his most painful dark history! Yun Xi had tried his best to forget it! If Hua Huo hadn’t mentioned it, Yun Xi would absolutely not have recalled that dark history again!

“Well, everything is ready. Little Xi, are you ready to put on the Killing Princess’s battle dress? It is made of precious clothes and could offer both great attack power and defence. Besides, it can even repair itself automatically. Only the selected greatsword maid can equip this sacred armor. Even in the whole history of greatsword maids, this maid’s black uniform was the most powerful and unique battle dress!”

Hua Huo didn’t give Yun Xi any chance to escape. She cut her finger again. Her red blood fell down, dropping onto the Killing Princess’s battle dress. Hua Huo recited the oath to start the inheritance ceremony.

“In the past, in the great land, there were many girls, fighting for their countries and worlds. They offered their lives as a sacrifice, merging with the ancient monster, forging the most powerful greatswords. They swore to the old gods. They stepped onto the battlefield.”

“They were beloved by god. They were god’s messengers. They sacrificed themselves to fight.”

“They were so powerful and beautiful. Therefore, they were called great sword maids by people!”

“In the name of my Sky Flying Bloodline, I witness the Killing Princess’s inheritance ceremony!”

“No!” Yun Xi wanted to cry out as he saw the maid’s uniform flying to him, having an extremely bad feeling in his heart.

The maid’s black uniform was originally emanating an evil feeling. However, at this time, the evil feeling had disappeared. The uniform turned into countless black silk threads emitting golden light, then it wrapped Yun Xi’s whole body.

“Gender verifying... Pass through...

Talent verifying... Pass through...

Adaptability with dark-type power... Pass through...

Thou! Behold!”

Yun Xi uncontrollably raised his head and saw a big reddish-black sword.

“When you look long into the killing itself, the killing looks into you!”

The centre of the sword was hollowed out. A disturbing bloody scent was flowing out from there. The sword blade had an awful black serrated shape, and the handle of the sword was studded with a red gem that was large as a fist. In addition to it, there were eight small rhombic gems surrounding this gem, which shone with strange but also splendid lights.

“The name of the sword: Killing Princess. Up until the last holder’s death it had killed 135,610,000 living beings, and was named as ‘Killing Princess’. It’s the most ferocious demon sword amongst all the greatswords forged for maid of claymore.”

“The person who inherits this sword slaughter countless beings. That’s the price for obtaining this power.”

“Strange...” Yun Xi smoothly passed through the Killing Princess’s inheritance ceremony. However, Hua Huo showed an unbelievable look on her face.

Why could Yun Xi pass through the Killing Princess’s inheritance ceremony so simply?! At first, she was going to use her Sky Flying Bloodline to force the Killing Princess’s dress to accept Yun Xi. After all, Yun Yi was a boy. It was impossible that the greatsword maid’s legacy would recognize him so easily.

Greatsword maid. As the name suggested, only a girl who proved her purity, loyalty, and self-dedication could undertake this career.

“No, I don’t accept it!” As if seeing his worst nightmare about to come true, Yun Xi decisively rejected the Killing Princess’s legacy. Unfortunately, it was too late.

“The inheritance ceremony is completed!”

As one of the strongest greatsword maid legacies, the Killing Princess’s dress and her magic sword were seemingly very pleased with Yun Xi. They ignored his words and directly finished the last step. Countless black silk threads surrounded Yun Xi, then instantly dismantled his shabby clothes. At the same time, it began to adjust its own size.

“Whoa! Wow, wow, wow!” Hua Huo covered her eyes with her two hands, then opened her eyes wide, peeping at Yun Xi through her fingers. Finally, Hua Huo saw a pretty girl standing in front of her. Even though she knew the girl was Yun Xi, she still couldn’t believe that the beautiful girl was her childhood sweetheart.

The girl was wearing a gorgeous black ceremonial dress. The ceremonial dress was so beautiful and as astonishing as a princess’s dress, which was far beyond the concept of a common maid outfit.

Her hair was black. Her delicate skin looked like first-rate silk. Her appearance and behavior were luminous with a kind of gentle grace. Due to nervousness and embarrassment, her lovely face looked so cute as if she was an angel emerging from a painting.

Even her chest, which at first was certainly flat like nothing, was also uplifted a bit, as if it was a tradition from the previous killing princess. Four gold-red gems were studded on her slender waist, then matched with the rosette upon her bosom and the ribbons beside her waist. If she wasn’t wearing the lace head dress, no one would connect the ceremonial dress with a maid’s.

What was even more amazing was that the dress could perfectly enhance her temperament and appearance. At least, when Yun Xi surprisedly gazed at his black gloves, and the absolute field between the black silk stockings and the corner of his skirt, he wondered how it was possible that this was his body.

The smooth, tender, snow-white skin... Who was this person?! No, no! It was a foul, it was a lie! Yun Xi could affirm that he himself had never had such snow-white, flawless skin before. Not only his skin, but even his bones and height seemed to have been modified, so that his body ratio looked more perfect.

The “Killing Princess” dress was like a magic pen, completely hiding Yun Xi’s masculinity, leaving only a dazzling, enchanted, gorgeous, and perfect young girl in the world. Black and white intertwined, weaving a new Yun Xi, who Hua Huo had never seen before. Now, even Hua Huo herself was fascinated by Yun Xi's appearance.

Oh, her Yun Xi sure was suitable for women's dresses!

She didn't need to worry about anything now!

Chapter 69: Helpless Choice

"Little Xi, how is it? Do you think that it's suitable?" Hua Huo circled around Yun Xi, clicking her tongue in wonder.

Yun Xi opened his mouth. He wanted to say no. Of course, this was not the answer. The Killing Princess's maid's black uniform looked perfect on his body!

Even the smallest part of the uniform was suitable for his body, as if it was tailor-made for him.

"Ah..." Yun Xi wanted to say something, but suddenly found that his voice had changed.

Where did his male voice go?

What the hell was this euphonious voice now?

Did the Killing Princess's maid's black uniform even disguise his voice?

“Don’t worry. It’s normal to be a little uncomfortable at first. After all, it’s the greatsword maid’s legacy,” Hua Huo patted Yun Xi’s shoulder. She looked quite pleased with Yun Xi’s current appearance.

“Ah... Cough... What happened to my voice?” Yun Xi heard his own voice, feeling that his life had taken a wrong direction.

“No problem, it’s all because of the greatsword maid’s legacy,” Hua Huo gazed at Yun Xi’s chest, then said, “Greatsword maid is a restricted high-level career in Western God’s Domain. Whichever it is, voice or appearance, its owner must be at the first level. The people who are unqualified can never be a greatsword maid. Little Xi, you are very suitable for this career. Just keep practicing!”

I was a man! Why did I have to be a greatsword maid?! Yun Xi looked at his mischievous childhood sweetheart, crying in his heart.

“Besides, in this case, you can always stay together with me. Don’t you want to stay with me?” Hua Huo played cute. Her beautiful eyes gazed at Yun Xi with expectation. I don’t want to separate from you. I don’t want to see any bitches taking you away, just like they did in the dream. Even though I know I am acting recklessly, I still want to keep you by my side.

Originally, she had prepared to pay a lot for this, because she was going to distort the greatsword maid’s legacy. Even if she had Sky Flying Bloodline, she still had to pay a heavy price.

After all, that was a crime against morality. It was all about love. She liked Yun Xi. She wanted to stay with Yun Xi forever. She couldn’t stand the possibility that they would live far apart from each other. She was jealous of him and worried about him, so she committed this crime.

“Hua Huo...” Yun Xi lapsed into silence. Even if she had made ten thousand mistakes, the glory shining in her eyes made her hard to refuse her. Hua Huo’s dedicated love was too bright, making him feel ashamed for his plan of escaping this domain.

Did he really have to stay with Hua Huo? But the key issue was that there was a terrible apostle searching him in the whole Sky Sword God’s Domain!

“Can this maid’s black uniform really hide my identity?” For Yun Xi, this was a vital question that had a bearing on his own life.

“This is absolutely no problem. Even though in the eyes of seventh rank people, your current appearance is absolutely a cute girl!” said Hua Huo.

“The greatsword maid’s legacy is more incredible than your imagination! Since you’ve passed the test of the Killing Princess’s legacy...” Speaking of which, Hua Huo showed a puzzled expression, then kept saying, “In that case, no one could discover your true identity through your appearance and behavior.”

Hua Huo looked a little shy. “In fact, even I myself can’t identify your real identity now. Your disguise is absolutely perfect. As long as you don’t take off the Killing Princess’s dress, no one can discover your true gender and identity!”

So, this dress could help him escape from the apostle’s searching? After hearing Hua Huo’s promise, Yun Xi’s eyes brightened up. This may be a solution. Rather than escape to some remote and unknown sword domain, maybe it was a better choice to hide his identity by wearing the greatsword maid’s uniform.

If he chose this way, as long as he didn’t reveal his identity, his appearance should perfectly cheat anyone’s eyes. If he chose to escape, there was actually a great chance of being caught by the nameless apostle. It should be regarded as his last choice.

Now, there was another choice in front of him – even if the choice was so shameful. His childhood sweetheart even had the top-level legacy of Western God’s Domain, what exactly was her true identity?

“Oh, right. Since you’re going to hide your identity, why don’t you change your name too? Yun Xi, Yun Xi, Little Xi...” Hua Huo began to think of a decent, feminine name for Yun Xi.

“Mei. How about this name? You can still call me ‘Little Xi’ as my nickname,” Yun Xi sighed, finally accepting his destiny of wearing the Killing Princess’s dress. His dark history was enacted all over again. It was still the same girl who forced him to wear women’s dresses.

Sometimes, history was surprisingly similar.

“Mei... It sounds good! Little Xi, from now on, you’re my greatsword maid: Mei! The name makes me think of snow-white blossom!” Hua Huo excitedly looked at Yun Xi, who looked so cute while wearing the maid’s black uniform.

Hua Huo, so you had such a poor taste... Yun Xi found that Hua Huo was excitedly looking at him, but that only made him feel that his future was a dark one. He had no interest in wearing women’s dresses. It was better to say that he resolutely objected to wearing them. He didn’t even want to remember his dark history of being forced to wear the wedding dress.

However, this was the only option he could choose. About his plan of escaping from this domain... Hua Huo was gazing at him! How would it be possible that he could successfully escape her eyes? As a result, he finally had to be disguised as a maid!

“Well, Little Xi. It’s time to take the Sword Palace entrance test. Believe me, you will be a blockbuster! Don’t worry about those stupid aristocratic children... How could they be in the same class as you!

You're the greatsword maid chosen by the Killing Princess's legacy! Just go ahead and beat all of them down!" Hua Huo puffed out her small chest and proudly looked at her childhood sweetheart.

No, I don't want to be a blockbuster at all! To be seen by all the townspeople, wearing the maid's uniform and taking part in the Sword Palace entrance test... What a terrible torture it was!

For the first time in his life, Yun Xi doubted whether he was cursed by his fate. The stars, please tell me that this was just a dream! After I wake up, everything would return to normal! Why was his childhood sweetheart so mischievous?! What exactly happened to her and encouraged her to make such a desperate decision?!

Chapter 70: Step Forward Hand-in-Hand

In the bright sunshine, Hua Huo was running. She was running together with her beloved boy on the familiar street.

The world was so beautiful.

The sunlight was shining so brightly.

To Hua Huo, this was no doubt one of the most memorable days in her life.

"Hua Huo, are you going to go to the Sword Palace?"

"Yes, uncle. I'm ready to go!" Hua Huo waved her hand with a smile. She said goodbye to everyone living in the town, expressing her thanks to them.

The world took on a brand new appearance in her eyes.

According to her family's schedule, she accepted the Sword Palace's invitation. She was going to join the Sword Palace, staying there till she reached the hero rank. At first, she was planning to wait for two years. She wanted to return to town after she had become more beautiful and powerful and then she could take Yun Xi away. But now, she didn't need to wait any longer because her childhood sweetheart was staying with her. They would undoubtedly walk side by side on the road called "life".

"Everyone, I promise that I will back someday!" Hua Huo said goodbye to the townspeople. Although Yun Xi looked embarrassed and reluctant, but she still held his hand tightly.

"Little Hua Huo, you can come back at any time!"

"We won't forget you!"

These uncles and the aunts had all seen her grow up. They softly smiled, seeing the best genius of the town off.

"Whoooooh, Hua Huo!"

"Hua Huo, I love you! Please marry me!"

"Hua Huo, Hua Huo, Hua Huo!"

They were the town's young boys who all secretly loved Hua Huo. However, they had no confidence that they would pass the Sword Palace's entrance test, so they had to sadly say goodbye to the girl they loved.

"Sorry, but my whole heart belongs to Little Xi! Goodbye, everyone! Please give us your blessing!" Hua Huo held Yun Xi's hand, running on the familiar street. She was using this method to commemorate her youth that was fading away.

"That's strange. Who's that girl?"

"I have never seen that girl before. Is she Hua Huo's relative?"

"Is that a maid's uniform? But she looked like a princess!"

"Hua Huo was from Western God's Domain. She must be one of her friends."

Looking at Hua Huo and Yun Xi, the townspeople talked about the unknown girl with each other. However, none of them realized that the beautiful girl wearing the gorgeous maid's black uniform was the baker shop's young boy, Yun Xi.

...

Outside the town by the river bank, there were nearly a thousand people who had come from all the districts in White Lotus Sword Domain.

“Everyone, shout with me!” There were about three hundred people all shouting slogans together.

“Childe Yun He!”

“Childe Si Nian!”

“Childe San Quan!”

“Win instant success!”

“Overcome all the opponents!”

“Realize the dream!”

It went without saying that they were the three Childes’ servants, belonging to the noble families’ camp.

“Child Snake Bones, you’re the best!”

“Child Tian Cheng, do you best in the test!”

Other several families also hired people to encourage their families’ participants.

Compared to these noble families, the civilian people's camp was a little bit quiet and few in number. They were all common people, struggling to practice themselves so that they could take part in the test.

In fact, if only the talent was involved in, the civilian people's camp wasn't inferior than the noble families' camp.

However, they lacked outfits, weapons and educations. Most of the civilian people were already eighteen years old, because they had to dig out all their potentialities so that they could compete with the noble families' children.

It was almost an impossible goal to achieve the third rank before eighteen years old for civilian people.

"They're just as usual. Still so noisy," A second rank swordsman, who was wearing cloth armor and had three scars on his face, said and looked at the noble families' camp in envy.

"We don't compete with them. We compete with each other," Another second rank swordsman shrugged his shoulders. As the people who didn't have too many resources but still reached the second rank before eighteen years old, only they knew what a high price they had paid for this.

"Humph. These noble kids are too mollycoddled. If they were on battlefield, they would die before they realized it!" Several first rank swordsmen looked at these noble families' people with jealousy. They all wore the same clothes and had similar behaviors. Obviously, they were the civilian people who once joined the army.

Noble and civilian had naturally opposition, because the Sword Palace only recruited a certain number of new disciples. But every time, most of the quota was occupied by the noble families' children.

Although the Sword Palace didn't choose its disciple's identity, race or class, but the noble families naturally occupied the vantage point on cultivating their children. It was not easy for civilian people to win them.

"Sigh. Stop it. My cousin is in the Palace of Heaven's Road. If I can't pass through the Sword Palace's test, I will go to there to take their test."

After hearing his words, many civilian people sighed.

Only the children between sixteen to eighteen years old could take part in the Sword Palace's entrance test. If you were beyond the age limit, you wouldn't have any chance.

Most of the civilian people were already eighteen years old. Therefore, they may have to take part in other sects' tests if these noble children occupied their last chance.

Sword was the most holy and important thing in the whole Sky Sword God's Domain. All the young people wanted to be admitted into the Sword Palace.

Only the swordmen who had entered the Sword Palace had confidence to feel proud for themselves. Even they parents would rush about telling the good news to everyone they met.

You could even say that only after you entered the Sword Palace, you finally could begin to practice the true sword skills and walked on the road leading to the zenith.

This time, whichever their identity was, noble family's kid or civilian swordman, they were here for only one goal: Join the Sword Palace!

This was what Yun Xi saw after he arrived at the examination area.

"Little Xi, I have received the Sword Palace's invitation, so I don't need to take part in the test. I will watch your fight on the platform!" Hua Huo smiled and shook Yun Xi's hands, then ran towards the Sword Palace's camp.

"Sigh!" Yun Xi was still in a daze. He looked around for a while, then walked to the civilian people's camp.

He didn't find that whether the noble families' camp or the civilian people's camp, when they saw his movement, they were all dumbfounded.

Especially after he walked to the civilian people's camp, the noble families' people gazed at him with confusion and surprise.

The civilian swordmen also looked surprised. The mysterious girl wearing a gorgeous maid's uniform was noticeably not the Sky Sword God's Domain's local resident. After the girl walked to them, they were all flabbergasted.
