Chapter 611: Unexpected Advance

“Future?”

“Does that mean ‘fate’?”

“I heard that most augurs wouldn’t divine their own future?” All the girls in the classroom looked curiously at Robin.

She was one of the best disciples of the Heaven’s Road Palace. In some sense, this identity was even higher than the princess of the Great Xia Empire.

There was no doubt that Robin was a strong hero ranked augur.

Robin, whose real identity was one of the top ten assassins of the Ten Leaves Alliance, smiled at the girls under the podium.

Here she is.

She hesitated for a long time and once thought about giving up, but finally, she chose to take a punt.

For common augurs, divination of their own fate was a taboo, but for her who had long been entangled in the blood curse, common sense had long been meaningless.

Divination of their own destiny would extract the augurs' lifetime, countless augurs died for violating this rule.

Nevertheless, she had died long ago. From the moment she lost herself in the nightmare world and met the robins, she was no longer a living person.

That is to say, her life had been exhausted many years ago. In this case, she had nothing to lose.

Even if she didn't do anything, being entangled by robins, her mind would keep approaching the nightmare world, so it's better to make good use of this power to peep into the infinite future.

This was probably her strongest and only extraordinary power after leaving the nightmare world.

As an assassin, she wasn't good at killing at all. Every time, she just went quietly to her targets and witness the process of their death.

The one she watched was the one who was doomed to die.

At this moment, she was looking at the corner of the crowd, the black-haired maid.

Her eyes were gentle and cruel, with expectation and uneasiness.

There was the future she saw.

“Crack!” With a sound in his heart, Yun Xi had a vaguely bad feeling.

“My future... right here...” Slowly she stepped down from the podium, Robin walked towards Yun Xi step by step.

Hua Yue frowned and took a step forward, but suddenly felt something, then her brow cleared and gave way to Robin.

This scent... it can't be wrong. She is also “one of us”.

Mei, you also gave her your blessings?

All members of the Starwing Knights had a similar intuition to be able to detect at close range whether the other party had been blessed by Mei.

Mei Lan's desktop had been stacked high with the applications for joining the Starwing Knights, but so far only Mumu had been accepted as a new member of the Starwing Knights.

That was because the Starwing Knights was a group of people who gathered together for a certain characteristic. Only girls who had obtained “Mei's Blessings” could join.

Yun Xi looked at the bright red figure coming towards him.

Today, she was also wearing the bright red cloak with a plain face. He didn't see the several blue-backed and red-breasted birds who always stood on her shoulders. Although she was standing there, he felt that she was standing in another world.

Average height, average shoulder width, average chest, average cheek... if she hadn't been introduced to them by the teacher, no one would have found that such a person was standing at the door. It would have been like the world had forgotten her.

All parts were plain, except for her eyes, which were gazing into Yun Xi's eyes at the moment.

It was a pair of deep, bottomless eyes, as if she had seen through everything.

"My future is right in front of me!" With great courage, Robin finally appeared in front of the future she chose.

Despite this, the choice seemed so incredible and disorganized, like a butterfly flying in a summer storm.

However, she was still willing to believe that even with such a tragic person as herself, she still had the chance to seize her only chance for happiness.

At this moment, she reached out to her future, bowed her head and prayed.

"Are you willing to be my lost future?"

Yun Xi stared blankly at Robin, who was half kneeling in front of him.

What's wrong with this?

"Yeah, is this a proposal?"

"No, it's a confession!"

"Are you willing to be my lost future? Oh, what a romantic confession!"

The moment Robin spoke her wish, the girls in the whole classroom set off an explosion of exclamation.

Hua Yue looked with pity at Robin.

Xiao Cao moved her hands and feet and had a feeling of eagerness to try.

"No, no, no! You can't jump the gun!" Ling Ling stood up and put her hands on her waist. Even though she didn't say such shameful words to Mei, how could a new member be so arrogant?

"Ling Ling, come on." Only at this time, Mei Lan was supportive of Ling Ling.

"You... Can you feel me?" Robin was about to cry.

After being cursed by the bloody robins, her existence had been largely stripped from the world.

Envy.

Concern.

Sympathy.

And even hostility.

Even feeling these negative affectivities had long become a luxury to her.

Her existence was so weak that sometimes, even her teacher at the Heaven's Road Palace forgot that he had such a disciple.

Ah, that's great.

Sure enough, I was right to come here.

The future is here.

"Humph, I will never let you have Mei!"

Ling Ling stood up, held Yun Xi's right hand, and pressed his arm with her big breasts, declaring war on Robin on her own initiative.

"The future is the interweaving of different destiny trajectories."

"The future is a collection of time fragments."

"I want to find this future."

Robin stood up and stared at Ling Ling without hesitation. Her eyes were sincere and calm, and a flame called "hope" burned deep in her pupils.

The victim who falls into an endless abyss will try to grasp and hold on to any hope tightly. Robin was the victim, longing for even a ray of hope.

"Hey, what are you looking at?!" Ling Ling threw out her chest again, which made Robin have an indescribable sense of failure.

The gap seems a little big... Robin looked at the girls of the Starwing Knights. Unexpectedly, she saw the same emotion in their eyes.

Sometimes, the friendship between girls was so wonderful. They could become good friends just for a trivial reason.

Now, Robin realized this. And because they had the same despair when facing this “enemy”, the “flat-chested” members of the Starwing Knights decided to accept Robin as one of them.

“We must find the demon dragon!”

“We must find the demon dragon!”

“We must find the demon dragon!”

The Dragon Blood Alliance of the Starwing Knights had a new member today!

She was being noticed and watched. Even just realizing such a trivial thing had made Robin feel compulsive happiness. It made her feel like she had traveled back to the mortal world, not a ghost floating around in an isolated corner of the world.

“Thank you, Mei, thank you for giving me your blessing,” Robin said and stretched out her hand, holding Yun Xi’s hand.

Well, Robin seemed to have forgotten something important at that time.

Yun Xi looked at the girl with a guilty face.

When did she find it?

When he planted the seed in her body, his move should've been very stealthy. Why did she seem to know everything?

Hua Yue looked at them and sighed.

Mei, Mei, do you know what your "blessing" stands for?

This is a key that can let any person enter the hero rank and even the higher ranks. If people knew that you have such a magical power, all the forces of the endless gods domain would come and contend for you at all costs.

Do you really know what it means to give this blessing to us?

Nobody can ever leave Mei now.

This is probably the sweetest curse in the world for the girls of the Starwing Knights.

"If you want to pursue Mei, you must beat me down first!" Ling Ling glared at Robin. A fool wouldn't mind who her enemy is!

"Well... What a powerful enemy..." Robin carefully calculated the difference between her and Ling Ling and came to a rather sad conclusion.

In terms of “femininity”, there was a big gap between her and Ling Ling.

However, I still have chances. After all, I have a special weapon.

Ah, why did I have such a strange idea?

Robin’s face slightly turned red.

After returning from the endless nightmares, her life was like being covered by a layer of grey mist, in only a few moments would her life be stained with the color of blood.

Now, she was literally confronting a girl of her age.

Just for a few moments, she had experienced different scenarios one after another, which were what she absolutely couldn’t touch in the grey mist world.

“Hey hey, my victory!” Even though she was a fool, Ling Ling knew that she had won this turn.

“Damn, Ling Ling is still so arrogant!”

“Why is this fool so lucky? Everything is done by Mei Lan, is she also a secretary of the Starwing Knights?”

“Ling Ling is our secretary, but what on earth has she done for us?”

The civilian (flat-chested) girls of the Starwing Knights glared at Ling Ling and felt the same frustration Robin was feeling.

That sense of frustration was one of the reasons the civilian (flat-chested) girls formed an alliance.

In order to narrow the gap, they had written countless plans to catch that damn demon dragon, and the key was the Dragon Plant Lulu was cultivating.

Don't be too arrogant, we can also continue to grow up! We will hunt the demon dragon! This was the wings of all the civilian (flat-chested) girls!

Well, it sounded like the barking of underdogs.

Chapter 612: Secret Base

“In this Battle God's Championship Contest, Casina defeated one of her strongest enemies, the Ruby Dragon, who was also her best friend.” The history teacher said with excitement.

The legend of the Battle God finally reached its peak.

Oh, so, although Teacher Casina always behaved casual and unreliable, she is really a super-strong fighter at the top of the endless god's domains!

She had defeated many gods so far.

After listening to this lesson, Yun Xi's heart was filled with all sorts of feelings.

The grey-haired history teacher grew up listening to the legends of Casina. The Battle God was born in an ancient desert tribe and was recognized by the Sands of Time when she was still at the hero rank, however, she never used the sword in her life.

With the strength of her own body, she defeated countless extraordinary races and stood on the top of the Battle God's Championship Contest, and never lost.

Many people think that Casina is probably the strongest one among all the Sky Swords who still appeared in front of the public. The name of the sixth Sword is well known in the endless god's domains.

For the people in the Sky Sword God's Domain, she is a living myth, known as the most likely one to become the fourth "Decide Sky Sword".

After this history lesson, Yun Xi fled from the burning eyes of the girls and crept into the depths of the Sword Palace.

With Casina's token, he could go anywhere in the White Lotus Sword Palace, which was probably the greatest convenience of being Casina's disciple.

As for his destination, it was the place where the legendary White Lotus Secret Treasure was located.

Accurately speaking, it wasn't the true White Lotus Secret Treasure but was just a projection of the White Lotus Secret Treasure. Even so, it was still the most precious treasure in the entire White Lotus Sword Palace.

Every year, only the top ten disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace were allowed to enter this holy land.

Of course, Yun Xi didn't have that common sense. He just wandered around the Witch's Palace and felt something unusual. Finally, he found the room where the White Lotus Secret Treasure was projected.

This place was the biggest secret of the White Lotus Sword Palace. Only the master of the White Lotus Sword Domain and the twin witches knew its position.

Yun Xi found it here by accident. He didn't even know what he found.

Look at the steps to enter here.

The first step: jump into the waterfall and find the cave hidden in the waterfall. When the twin witches held the sacrificial ceremony, they had brought him here once.

The second step: choose the only right path to the underground staircase from the thirteen paths. If you chose the wrong one, you would trigger the fatal traps.

The third step: after choosing the right path, you must walk in the path following the right rhythm of footsteps. Otherwise, the traps would also be activated.

The fourth step: after entering the underground palace smoothly, you must find the only hidden cabin in dozens of palaces. Who would have thought that those precious palaces are all camouflage, and the cabin built in the corner of the garden is the only correct answer?

The fifth step: find the mirror in the cabin, then input the correct password and gesture to enter the secret chamber in the mirror. If you said any wrong words, you would never have the chance to retry.

The sixth step: you can finally see the door of the secret chamber, but there is no hint about the way to open the door.

The seventh step: you can finally touch the projection of the real White Lotus Secret Treasure, which is also a trap. Because as long as the contact method is incorrect, it would trigger the counter-attack of the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Well, Yun Xi didn't know anything. He doesn't walk in the path following the correct rhythm of footsteps, nor did he open the mirror using the right keyword, let alone know the way to open the door.

But he had Casina's token.

Therefore, none of the traps were activated, because none of the Sword Palaces in the Sky Sword God's Domain would dare regard a Sky Sword as their enemy.

In theory, the entire Sky Sword God's Domain belonged to Sky Swords. With Casina's token, Yun Xi easily found the biggest secret of the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Why he would run straight to this place after class? Because the girls of the Starwing Knights were becoming more and more strange. After Ling Ling did "that thing" and tasted the sweetness, other girls also started to imitate her.

When he gets up in the morning and opened the window, he saw blue and white panties hanging on the branches outside of the window.

When he walked out of the room and raised his head, he saw pink panties hanging in the corridor.

Even on the way to walk, he often found black lace panties on the road.

In the worst case, Yun Xi even found white panties in his lunch box, which were still warm.

Sooner or later, he would be unable to control himself.

Now, only while being here, could make him feel at ease.

Although he didn't know what the big light ball was in this room, after finding this secret room, Yun Xi finally had his own private space.

At least, there wouldn't be panties of all colors and unnamed letters which invited him to various secret dating places, ranging from the woods to rivers.

If I go, I will no longer be able to be a gentleman. Thinking of this, Yun Xi felt that he could still try to struggle.

The milky white light ball floated lightly in front of Yun Xi, which was the biggest secret of the entire White Lotus Sword Palace, the projection of the real White Lotus Secret Treasure.

However, in Yun Xi's eyes, it was just a very distinctive decoration in this secret room.

As always, he proficiently reached out his hand, pinched and kneaded the soft, warm light ball, and then saw countless and incredible scenery emerge from the surface of the light ball.

Chapter 613: Bodhi Twin Trees

It was an old city, bathed in the cold moonlight.

Compared with what Yun Xi saw last time, the dead city was more bleak and desolate. The snow and ice scattered in the city could be seen everywhere as if time here had been frozen.

The cold had gone deep into the ground, making the walls, grass, leaves, and vines all covered with a thick layer of frost.

When the cold wind blew, it would always roll up countless silver-white particles.

A hunter in black sat in the center of the deserted city, and the magic sword inverted beside him, still retained traces of blood.

His old face looked at the boundless clear sky, looking at the distant blue horizon and cold moon.

Quietly, it seemed that he was the only one left in the world. The sadness, joy and warmth in his life had all disappeared, leaving countless ghosts around him like nightmares.

It was the highest inheritance of the Ghost Sword Domain – “Forbidden Siren Sword”.

Boiling volcanoes! Endless volcanic eruptions!

As if doomsday had come, the ocean of lava had devoured the earth, mountains, forests and everything else in the world.

Above the lava ocean were dark golden clouds that were constantly churning and dropping fiery red bubbles of lava. Like the real ocean, the lava ocean was also vast and boundless. At the end of sight, white, dazzling lava waves heaved wave peaks of hundreds of feet tall, rolling up one wave of lava after another and hit the red, sulphurized coast of rock.

From time to time, there were lava pillars rising to the sky and bombarding the dark golden clouds in the sky, triggering earth-shaking explosions.

It was the inheritance of a Sky Sword – “the Nuclear Sword”.

...

In the distance, the sky hid in endless darkness, indicating that a storm was coming. The wind was driving fast-moving clouds, rapidly devouring the twinkling stars.

Beneath the storm was an endless, dark and terrible sea. The storm was galloping with thunder and red-fire-serpent-like lightning flashed across the dark sky one after another, illuminating the waves roiling in the chaotic and turbulent tide.

In the storm, the sky and the earth were as dark as hell. The only light was the thunder and lightning rolling in the clouds.

In the storm, there were spirits flying, which was the natural phenomenon that represented disaster and death.

Numerous runes loomed in the storm, which was the source of the storm, and the evil words of the spirits.

It was the inheritance of another Sky Sword – “Storm Sword”.

...

“Not this one, oh, neither this one.” Yun Xi pinched the light ball one, two, three times, but still didn’t find his favorite scenario.

What he wanted was a scenario that could let him calm down. None of the dead city, lava sea, or storm met his requirements. They all were too fierce.

“.....” Being pinched and kneaded by Yun Xi, the light ball reluctantly changed the scenario inside it again, and finally showed him the scenario he liked.

“Well, that’s it.” Yun Xi let go of the light ball contentedly, put his hands behind his head and looked comfortably at his favorite scene.

It was a pair of Bodhi trees, the only scenario in the light ball that could let him feel relaxed.

Looking at the scenario, Yun Xi's mind seemed to have integrated into it.

Under the old Bodhi twin trees, it was cool and quiet. Even when bees and butterflies flew under the shade, their movements would become gentle.

Even the chirps of cicadas became very gentle. The lovely green grass under the Bodhi twin trees was not mixed with a bit of yellow color, and the slender stems stood upright without any shake.

As if the Bodhi twin trees were having a sweet dream, there were innumerable bundles of yellow flowers hanging on the branches of the Bodhi twin trees, and the fragrance would percolate into his lungs every time he breathed.

Not far away, there was a clear, bottomless river over there. Translucent fish swam in the river happily and sometimes jumped out of the water, leaving a beautiful spray in the air.

Looking at this wonderful scene of nature, Yun Xi sat quietly in the shade of the tree and naturally felt that his body and mind were relaxed.

This scenario was Yun Xi's favorite among all the scenarios in the light ball. As long as he looked at it, his heart would naturally calm down and forget all his troubles.

Sitting under the Bodhi twin trees, Yun Xi felt that everything in the world was far away from him, and his mind was naturally immersed into nature as if he had become a grass, a shrub and a dust particle in the world.

There was no need to think about anything deliberately. Just looking at this quiet and harmonious world, Yun Xi felt his heart get healed.

At this moment, he felt that he could ignore all the troubles such as the threats from his ex-girlfriends, the difficulties he had faced and was facing, and all kinds of temptations from the girls of the Starwing Knights.

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

From nowhere, Yun Xi heard the sound of a bell echoed beside his ears.

The sound of the bell wasn't from any instrument, but from the depth of his soul. It was the resonance between his soul and the world.

It was the bell that knocked on the door of infinite wisdom, the key to a mysterious field.

Every time the bell rang, it represented that Yun Xi's soul had been washed by an unknown power once.

It was the highest blessing recorded inside of the White Lotus Secret Treasure – Unlimited Wisdom Resonance.

In the history of Buddhism, all the people whose minds had been washed by this sound had eventually become eminent monks and stamped their names on the pages of history.

Among them, the most eminent monk had only heard the sound sixteen times.

However, Yun Xi's soul had been washed by this sound hundreds of times, and it seemed that as long as he wanted, he could hear this sound as many times as possible.

If the sound had self-consciousness, it would definitely shout, "Young man, you have a great affinity with Buddha! Go to the west and become a Buddhist monk now!"

But in Yun Xi's heart, he only regarded it as "euphonious light music".

Oh, the agitation in my heart is cured again today!

Chapter 614: Hua Huo's Sword

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

Every sound was the inspiration of wisdom. His soul being washed by the sound over and over again, which soothed his fatigue and rippled away impurities in his soul, making his soul more pure and flawless.

This process was like polishing a rough gemstone. Some hidden qualities in Yun Xi's soul gradually emerged.

This also meant that Yun Xi's body and mind were ready to find his own strength again.

Sitting under the Bodhi trees, Yun Xi wasn't thinking about anything, and his mental power began to increase naturally, and the endless sound of the bell had also become more pleasant.

Feeling sleepy, Yun Xi stretched out and decided to have a good sleep.

...

In another door not far away from Yun Xi, a girl stood with her sword in both hands with constantly increasing will and spirit.

A virtual shadow of a giant dragon proudly appeared behind the girl, its golden scales were glittering in the air.

This was not a common dragon, but a dragon emperor whose name had been crowned with eternal glory in the history of the endless god's domain!

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

One black shadow after another appeared in front of the girl.

This was the second holy place of the White Lotus Sword Palace, the Proving Ground which only opened to the Master of the White Lotus Sword Domain and the twin witches before.

It wasn't a trial like the challenges in the Sky Tower, but a real battle trial in the real world. These summoned dark shadows were all at the hero rank, and none of them knew pain and fear and were randomly enchanted with different mysteries.

They were powered by the magic circles of the entire White Lotus Sword Palace. As long as the magic circles still existed, these black shadows could revive over and over again.

Now, from 2 black shadows to 4 black shadows to 8 black shadows, there were already 32 black shadows in front of the girl.

“Very well, this is the trial I want!” What the girl was chasing was the power that could crush everything, she didn't mind how strong her enemies were.

She had to be faster and stronger than she was now.

If not, I will eventually experience the helplessness I felt when I was confronted with Ouroboros. One time of that kind of bad memory is enough.

Once Hua Huo made up her mind, nothing could stop her.

“Hu... Ha...” She used the breathing method which Yun Xi also learned, at this time, it finally showed its true features.

It wasn't a breathing method that humans could have!

Like thunder and lightning across the sky, like a storm sweeping across the sea, like a huge waterfall flying down from a cliff, a loud sound piercing through the earth, soaring straight up into the sky!

It was the rage of the dragons!

Hua Huo's eyes gradually became the shape of the golden dragon's, and the golden dragon's shadow behind her began to coalesce and become clearer.

It seemed that something was traversing the distance of time and space, being summoned into her body.

“Burn everything, tear everything, crush everything!”

“Respond to the old contract, Golden Dragon Emperor, come to me!”

The broken sword in her hands twisted and transformed into a dragon-bone sword. Golden runes appeared on the sword, releasing a unique, overbearing atmosphere.

Her strength was expanding and growing. It wasn't a delusion but a reality that was taking place.

Bring wrapped around by golden flames, the roar of dragon became louder.

The entire trial area was burning with large flames that burst out in clusters from the depths of the ground, covering the figures of the 32 hero ranked black shadows.

They launched their attacks!

“Raining Heaven!”

“Water Dragon!”

“Eastern Dragon King!”

“Endless Waves!”

“Raining Heaven” can summon cloud, and the rainfall can heal all lives within the range.

“Water Dragon” is to use the magic power to form a dragon-shaped battle pet.

“Eastern Dragon King” can borrow the eastern dragon king’s power to strengthen the performer.

“Endless Waves” can summon endless water to submerge mountains and rivers.

Even though the black shadows had used these mysteries, they couldn’t break through the scorching purgatory that was forming.

Hua Huo just stood there and did nothing. The high temperature released from her body had dispelled all the magic spells.

In the final analysis, the “essence” of the two sides was quite different. Naturally, these attacks from the black shadows couldn’t hurt her.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom! ”

As if the power around Hua Huo could grow limitlessly, as if this process had awakened an ancient existence, countless materials were being absorbed by this unformed dragon-bone sword, and then compressed, refined, and evolved towards an embryonic form.

Yes, this was the process of casting a “god weapon”.

Hua Huo was forging her sword by using the power of her bloodline.

If she had this sword when she was facing Ouroboros...

“No, not enough, not enough!”

The earth was trembling and the whole space was shaking.

With the roar of the dragon, countless lights began to wake up from the collapsing ground and then rose to the sky, flying over to Hua Huo’s palm.

It was a weapon once lost in history, a fragment of a dragon-bone demon sword.

The Dragon Emperor, who was once regarded as an evil lord and slaughtered responded to Hua Huo’s call, reviving in the distant Sky Sword God’s Domain.

The name of the sword: Dragon Emperor’s Sword!

It was forged by using the bones of the legendary Dragon Emperor, an ancient strong existence who had a relationship with the Sky Flying Bloodline.

This dragon had golden scales and the most pure blood of the Dragon King, but ultimately fell into darkness and abandoned all glory, wandering in the nightmare world with resentment.

“Fight for me, Dragon Emperor!” This was Hua Huo’s order, an amnesty from the purest Sky Flying Bloodline.

Even though he had become a member of the abyss and wandered in the nightmare world forever, Dragon Emperor still kept the agreement it made in the past and returned to the human world in the form of a god weapon: Dragon Emperor’s Sword.

50%... 60%... 87%... 99%!

Spanning the distance between time and space, the once lost Dragon Sword had returned!

In the burning golden flames, black gases were constantly released and surrounded the 32 hero ranked black shadows.

The reason that the process stopped at 99% was because a crucial ceremony was still unfinished.

Numerous golden flames turned into golden powders, flying around Hua Huo’s body.

Hua Huo slowly but firmly raised the dragon-bone demon sword in her hands.

Behind her, in the endless flames, the shadow of the dragon emperor was becoming clearer and clearer. Although there was only one head, but the sharp golden teeth, the erect pupils, and the huge scales all exuded a kind of tyranny over everything.

Now, all the necessary elements for a new god weapon's birth had been gathered.

Legend!

Mystery!

And the power of the source of the world!

Hua Huo was forging a weapon that only gods could make in the past!

This sword would be her weapon before she reached the legend rank, which had a very strong lethal effect on fantastic creatures!

Dragon Emperor's Sword!

"Wake up!"

Without any hesitation, Hua Huo raised the sword high in her hand. The ground under her feet began to tremble, one tiny crack after another continued to extend around as if a mountain suddenly pressed down on this land.

Instantly, Hua Huo's eyes changed, reflecting the scenery in the golden dragon emperor's pupils.

Layers of golden light waves rippled from the god weapon in Hua Huo's hands. A powerful force of mana exploded madly around Hua Huo, and countless broken stones were shattered and then turned into ashes. Under this terrifying power, everything was collapsing.

"Dragon!"

With the help of Hua Huo's belief and bloodline force, the god weapon was returning from the nightmare world, forged and evolved towards the last step.

Behind Hua Huo, the huge golden dragon raised its head and looked at the world, as proud as when it was still alive.

"Emperor!"

Huge golden light waves were first compressed to the limit, then released, cut, smashed and crushed the 32 hero ranked black shadows.

The black shadows were like a sand castle being trampled by an excited child on the beach, breaking up in an instant.

Countless golden waves of light spread wildly.

The earth was burning and melting, all things in front of the stacked golden light waves equally turned into powders, and then being blown away.

“Sword!”

In the face of the Dragon Emperor’s Sword, even the stars would be shattered. Hua Huo raised the god weapon in her hands and absorbed the dragon emperor’s shadow behind her into the sword bit by bit.

Dragon Soul Casting, this was the last step to give spirituality to the god weapon, but also the most difficult step.

99% the previous process was for paving a way for this last step. The last 1% was the most important thing.

An army formed by 64 hero ranked black shadows appeared!

The army formed of 64 hero ranked black shadows was defeated!

After touching the light waves, the new black shadows were crushed like pieces of paper in a storm, leaving no trace.

The giant dragon's shadow roared and was satisfied with the girl who summoned it.

Unmatched potential and incomparable internal drive for excellence!

Her eyes were like storms, like lightning, like lava. She was destined to trample on all the common sense of the world.

All hero ranked beings would pursue the most suitable god weapon for themselves.

God weapons would also choose the most suitable master.

Dragon Emperor – No, it's Dragon Emperor's Sword now. Dragon Emperor's Sword had chosen its new master.

"Go." The last will of the Dragon Emperor left the nightmare world, flying to the sword.

The sword was forged!

Chapter 615: Dragon Emperor

Dragon Emperor's Sword.

This was a legendary magic weapon made of the bones of the Dragon Emperor. The hilt of the sword was black with golden flames wrapped around it, and the body of the sword was made of huge dragon teeth.

The sword doesn't have a blade, because this isn't a weapon that needs to tear the enemy's body with its blade. The power of the sword itself can crush everything.

A line of golden patterns stretched from the end of the handle to the tip of the sword, which was about 1.8 meters long and 0.4 meters wide. In general, the sword doesn't look like a weapon for humans at all, but rather like a giant weapon tailored for a three-meter-tall giant.

On the sword body, there was a Dragon-rune, which represented the real name of this dragon bone magic sword – Dragon Emperor's sword.

Once upon a time, the man who forged the sword tried to give it as an inheritance from generation to generation to the successors of his eternal empire.

However, this unscrupulous man who murdered the Dragon Emperor didn't satisfy his desires. The kingdom he created was completely destroyed after he died of the curse of the sword, and he didn't have any successors.

The curse of the Dragon Emperor not only killed this man, but also killed all the people who participated in the battle against the Dragon Emperor and even affected those people's families and countries.

They didn't expect that the Dragon Emperor would fall into the nightmare world and be transformed into one of the strongest monsters of the nightmare world!

Because of this, the Dragon Emperor's curse was greatly strengthened and caused their death.

In fact, the prototype of this sword had long disappeared into history, leaving only the last fragment in the mortal world.

Since the battle against the Dragon Emperor, countless years had passed. The original dragon bone sword had been destroyed by the Nightmare Monarch, because it thought that the sword didn't deserve to be called "Dragon Emperor's Sword".

Don't get it wrong. The Dragon Emperor was not afraid of death when it was alive.

If these people had defeated and killed it using their own power, it wouldn't mind whether or not they would use its body to forge god weapons.

If they had defeated it face to face, it wouldn't mind calling this sword forged by using its bones "Dragon Emperor's Sword".

However, the man whose name and kingdom had long been forgotten in the river of history was too sinister.

He killed the Dragon Emperor's only descendant by despicable means, and used the Dragon Emperor's descendant's flesh and blood to cast a vicious curse, which corroded the Dragon Emperor's invincible dragon scales. Only then did he gather a group of people to encircle and kill the Dragon Emperor.

In this process, they poisoned, cursed, trapped and slaughtered the Dragon Emperor, they did everything they could and finally, they gave the Dragon Emperor a fatal blow, which was by using the remains of the Dragon Emperor's only descendant.

Therefore, the Dragon Emperor would never admit that such villains are qualified to use its body to forge god weapons.

None of them had that qualification.

With resentment, the Dragon Emperor's activated an ancient contract and reincarnated its dragon soul into the most horrible nightmare world, and instantly became a lord of the nightmare world, becoming a Nightmare Monarch.

In the next decades, it killed all the human beings who had participated in the battle against it and destroyed all the god weapons that were made of its body parts.

As time went by, no one still remembered the Dragon Emperor and the people who killed it.

Only the Sky Flying Bloodline still remembered it and summoned it by using the last fragment made of its bones.

The Nightmare Monarch had long ceased being the Dragon Emperor. However, it still responded to the girl's call and recognized the girl.

The Sky Flying Bloodline is qualified to be the master of the real Dragon Emperor's Sword, and because of this reason, it returned to the mortal world again.

Across time and space, across the barriers between the nightmare world and the real world, the Nightmare Monarch floated in the endless darkness, slowly opening its muddy eyes. The last golden glow began to fade away from its pupils.

It was its last glorious memory, it was the last unsullied soul of the Dragon Emperor. After its reincarnation in the nightmare world, its body had become thousands of times bigger with countless weird eyes scattered over its new body. With only a stare from any of its eyes, millions of wise creatures would go mad.

The last fragment of the dragon bone sword represented the last pride of the Dragon Emperor in the mortal world.

“Go.” The huge black existence gently reached out one of its tentacles and ejected the other fragments of the Dragon Emperor’s Sword to the girl from the nightmare world. Together with its last unsullied dragon soul, it placed all its trust on the girl who summoned it in accordance with the ancient contract.

Oh, the Sky Flying Bloodline, what an ancient memory. It could barely remember when it was still the Dragon Emperor, it was dumbfounded when it witnessed the true power of the Sky Flying Bloodline.

As time went by, even itself didn’t believe that the Sky Flying Bloodline still remembered its name and summoned it.

So, let this be the end of the Dragon Emperor. It would present its last unsullied dragon soul and bones to the noble and sacred Supreme blood, the wing beyond all things.

You are qualified to use this sword! You are qualified to call it “Dragon Emperor’s Sword”!

“Ha!” Finally, Hua Huo stopped after the sword absorbed the last dragon soul into it.

With her location as the center, the entire area was being torn by storms, volcanoes, and lightning at the same time. The ground collapsed and formed a huge whirlpool terrain.

“The sword is forged.” A large number of sweat beads dropped from Hua Huo’s forehead, and then were quickly evaporated by the flames on the Dragon Emperor’s Sword.

Being surrounded by scorching flames, the girl’s eyes became firmer and more confident.

She hadn’t reached the hero rank, but could forge her own god weapon. Hua Huo trampled again on the common sense of the entire Sky Sword God’s Domain and even the entire endless god’s domains.

As long as she wanted to, she could do anything.

What she wanted would become unshakable truth.

This was the power of the Sky Flying Bloodline!

Chapter 616: A Premonition of Danger

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

In the room of the White Lotus Secret Treasure, Yun Xi suddenly had a premonition and woke up from the sound of the bell.

It was a kind of premonition you had for no reason. Like an intuition from heaven, he felt as if something bad for him had been born somewhere.

It's dangerous, very dangerous.

"What is it?" Yun Xi racked his brains and could not figure out why he had such an intuition. He had a feeling that the danger was very close.

Will there be anything in the White Lotus Sword Palace so dangerous?

Not far away from where Yun Xi was, in the place for trials.

"Good. Perfect weight, perfect length, perfect width, perfect sword!" Hua Huo was testing the sword.

The Dragon Emperor's Sword was more powerful than Hua Huo had expected. The material of the sword was almost indestructible. Plus the dragon soul lodged in the sword, the power it could release could even destroy a world if necessary.

Now, if she faced Ouroboros again, even if she didn't use her Sky Flying Bloodline, she had the confidence to punch its teeth through the back of its skull.

"Any females who dare to touch my Little Xi is my enemy!" Hua Huo announced while dangerous lights flashed through her eyes.

Above her forehead, a strand of hair rotated and warned its master.

“Wait, more enemies?” Hua Huo looked at the dense red dots in her jealousy radar. She always wondered if her jealousy radar had been broken after she came to the White Lotus Sword Palace.

Why do the red dots representing the enemy increase every day?

She almost had an intensive phobia because of this.

“Ignore all miscellaneous ‘little fish’.” With a sweep of her fingertips, Hua Huo wiped out most of the tiny red dots on the panel of her jealousy radar.

“Are these people particularly interested in Little Xi?” According to Hua Huo’s past experience, most of the remaining red dots should be Yun Xi’s other childhood sweethearts. They were her most dangerous enemies and she would never relax her vigilance of them.

“Fortunately, I forced Little Xi to be my maid.” Hua Huo patted herself on the chest. She couldn’t imagine what would happen if she didn’t force Yun Xi to inherit the Great Swordsmaid’s inheritance.

“Humph, even in this situation, there are still so many girls who want to become intimate with my Little Xi.”

“If they know he is a man, I can’t imagine how many girls would pursue him!”

“Yawn!” Yun Xi suddenly had a chill in the room. He was more and more sure that danger was approaching.

“Anyway, I will never give my Little Xi to anyone!”

“None of Ye Li, El’phyllis and Milei can succeed!”

“Neither the girls of the Starwing Knights, Mumu, or the twin witches!!”

After targeting all the red dots on the panel of her jealousy radar, Hua Huo’s eyes became firmer.

The childhood sweetheart must be the final winner.

No matter how many enemies she would encounter, or how strong her enemies would be, she would win the war.

“My ancestor, bless me.” Stabbing the Dragon Emperor’s Sword into the ground, Hua Huo prayed to the source of her bloodline.

In the vague aura surrounding her, there were feathers appearing behind her.

“Well, break time is over.” Yun Xi reluctantly let go of the big light ball.

If it hadn't been confirmed that he couldn't take the light ball out of the room, he would have already brought it back to his room and use it to be his pillow.

What a perfect music pillow!

It was the first time that Yun Xi wanted something so much.

The big light ball suspended in the room and looked at Yun Xi. Others who entered the room were all respectful, and some of them were even kneeling on the ground to accept the light ball's blessing.

But this guy only regarded it as a music pillow.

And that virtual world in the light ball was one of the top-level inheritances, the supreme treasure of Buddhism, who knows how he could find it and let it become a "music player".

"It's not good to go on like this." After leaving the room, Yun Xi once again had a profound rethinking of his current situation.

As long as he was still pretending to be a maid, it would be impossible for him to leave the girl's dorm.

Sooner or later, there would be accidents! In fact, there were already accidents that had happened!

Yun Xi remembered what happened when he was practicing "Closed-mouth Zen".

Was that the instinctive reaction of his body after losing the control of his mind?

No matter how he pretended to be harmless, his man's nature wouldn't change. As long as he didn't pay attention, he would turn into a big gray wolf ravaging the sheep around him.

Hua Huo, no, I can't control myself!

Yun Xi worried, just like any ordinary 16-year-old boy. Once he had tasted the forbidden fruit once, he would never be able to maintain innocence.

"Where is she now? Is she all right?" Naturally, Yun Xi recalled that big sister, his sword skill teacher who seduced him to eat the forbidden fruit.

The first time was always unforgettable, not to mention that this first time was so thrilling. Every time he recalled it, his ears would burn.

Chapter 617: There Is Something Wrong with this Sword

Under the waterfall of the White Lotus Sword Palace, Yun Xi looked surprisingly at the familiar figure standing in the pool that was almost boiling.

A large number of bubbles were constantly rising from the clear and transparent pool, but none of the fish died. They were just knocked over and over by the sudden rising bubbles.

"Huh!"

“Ha!”

Originally, it was just a simple breathing sound, but Yun Xi felt as if he was listening to the sound of a raging storm and the dull sound of a volcano about to erupt.

She closed her eyes and stood in front of a sword that Yun Xi had never seen before. The handle of the sword was dark and the blade was pure white mixed with pale gold lines.

Just being stabbed in the ground there, it naturally released a huge pressure on the soul.

Even if ordinary people saw this sword, they would immediately feel the terrible power contained in it. Yun Xi realized at a glance that this was a top-ranked god weapon that normally only appeared in legends and tales.

Although he knew that his childhood sweetheart was a girl who could create miracles... he still didn't believe his eyes. He hadn't seen her for a few days, and now she had obtained a god weapon? What kind of joke is this?

How could such a god weapon appear in the White Lotus Sword Domain?

The style of this sword was not at all like that of the Eastern God's Domain, but rather like the super weapons used by giants.

A sword about 1.8 meters long... would any ordinary person in the Eastern God's Domain choose to use such a long weapon?

A sword that was even taller than her... does Hua Huo like such a weapon?

Nevertheless, he felt like the sword was unexpectedly matched with Hua Huo.

Yun Xi also had similar god weapons: Water God's Crown, Sailing Jellyfish's Robe, and White Emperor's Mask.

However, he could only release their true power in the Water God's world.

Because his own strength wasn't strong enough to control the true power of the three god weapons, after leaving the Water God's world, the power of the three god weapons would greatly diminish. In the outside world, he could only summon ten thousand Mist Souls from his Mist Soul Army and could only summon one Water God's priestess at a time.

His compatibility with these god weapons was 100%, just because his own strength wasn't strong enough, so he couldn't release their true power.

However, Hua Huo was different. She had enough strength to release 100% of the power of any god weapon.

Perhaps this was the biggest reason why this great sword would willingly recognize Hua Huo as its master. The more powerful the god weapons were, the more critical they were of those who would inherit them. This was common sense in the endless god's domains.

If there was no suitable successor, some ancient god weapons would even wait for thousands of years and would never randomly choose a common hero ranked person as its master.

Now, Hua Huo hadn't even reached the hero rank, but already had her own god weapon. How strong is she?!

But for some reason, Yun Xi always felt a little chilly around his neck when he looked at this god weapon. It seemed that this god weapon had some kind of mild hostility towards him.

Above Hua Huo's forehead, a green light flashed and locked on Yun Xi, as if it was telling its master, "That man who betrayed you appeared!"

"Oh, Yun Xi!" Taking a deep breath, Hua Huo smiled at Yun Xi.

"Little Xi, what a coincidence."

"Hua Huo, is this your new weapon?" Yun Xi jumped to Hua Huo and touched the huge sword which seemed to not be sharp at all.

"Ah!" What surprised Yun Xi is what happened. The sword didn't look sharp at all, but just by touching the sword body, his finger had been scratched by some invisible force.

"Be careful, Little Xi. This sword has a bad temper." Hua Huo quickly pulled Yun Xi's hand back.

The Dragon Emperor's Sword has a terrible attack effect. It had extraordinary lethality to all kinds of fantastic creatures, gods, demons, and even nightmare creatures.

This sword made of the dragon emperor's bones was specially forged for slaying legend ranked beings.

After the battle with Ouroboros, Hua Huo realized that her attack power was still not sufficient, so the first thing she did after returning to the White Lotus Sword Palace was to forge the Dragon Emperor's Sword by activating an ancient contract inherited by her Sky Flying Bloodline.

"What a marvelous god weapon!" Yun Xi licked the wound on his fingertip and had a preliminary understanding of the characteristics of this god weapon.

Just now, his fingertip didn't really touch the body of the sword. There was a terrible invisible force that was wrapping around the sword. The moment his fingertip touched it, his fingertip had been torn apart by the invisible force.

Although he wasn't a hero ranked warrior but a real hero ranked Baker, his physical strength had long exceeded the limits of mortals. However, he was still injured.

If Hua Huo used it to release her Sky Flying Sword, she could probably kill a real legend ranked dragon in the twinkling of an eye!

"This sword is prepared to defeat a strong enemy." Hua Huo said as the sword turned into a shadow and entered her body.

It was proof that she had absolute control over the Dragon Emperor's sword.

“Are you all right?” Gently pulling Yun Xi’s hand, Hua Huo stretched out her tongue and lightly licked Yun Xi’s wound.

“That’s all right. It was just a little scratch.” Yun Xi looked at his childhood sweetheart with tender eyes.

Gentle and strong.

Be aggressive and enthusiastic.

Like the queen of summer, like the golden sun.

This is his childhood sweetheart, his first love.

Now, his first love was still ongoing.

Chapter 618: Disturbance

The Great Xia Empire, in the Great Xia Palace.

“What? Someone bullied my sister?!” Xia Jie, one of the most outstanding geniuses of the Great Xia Empire, the first heir of the Great Xia Empire roared and pounded on the red iron table in his room.

“Who dared bully my sister?!” After receiving the report from his subordinates in the White Lotus Sword Domain, he was surprised to know that there was actually someone in that remote sword domain who dared to bully Xia Ling, his favorite little sister.

Speaking of the White Lotus Sword Domain, he had also been there as a transfer student. This was an open secret of the Great Xia Empire. The White Lotus Sword Domain itself was not worth mentioning, but there was the White Lotus Secret Treasure left by Yun Hai the Sword Master there.

No one knew what the real White Lotus Secret Treasure looked like. No one had ever seen the true White Lotus Secret Treasure, but the projection of the White Lotus Secret Treasure was real.

As long as you had seen the light ball, you would instinctively be awed by this mysterious treasure.

Xia Jie himself also got his benefits from the projection of the true White Lotus Secret Treasure, which eventually let him be recognized as the first heir of the Great Xia Empire.

Just like him, his sister also went to the White Lotus Sword Palace. Like him a few years ago, Xia Ling was also recognized as a genius in the Great Xia Empire.

From childhood to childhood, Xia Jie loved this sister dearly, because she was the most similar to himself. Both of them were talented and willing to make the effort to improve themselves, they were far superior to other royal families of his own generation.

How could anyone beat his sister in such a remote sword domain?

“No, I have to go and see it with my own eyes.”

“Whoever bullied my sister has to pay a price!” The irrepressible Xia Jie immediately began to order his own people, ready to go to the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Not only Xia Jie, but also all the ancient families began to send people to this remote sword domain through the Star Bridge, because all of them knew how special the White Lotus Secret Treasure was.

Many people flocked to the White Lotus Sword Domain, and the local people of the White Lotus Sword Domain enjoyed the most shining moments in their lives.

On that day, all the people who had experienced the blessing of the White Lotus Secret Treasure were contested by the forces from all over the Sky Sword God's Domain.

Oh, you are a cook? Go with us! Since you have been blessed by the White Lotus Secret Treasure, you must be a great cook who can make sparkling fried rice with eggs.

Oh, you're a town guard who took an arrow in the knee? That's all right. Come and marry the most beautiful girl from our family.

What? Your child has also been blessed by the White Lotus Secret Treasure? Oh, come here, good boy, do you want to eat sugar? If you go with us, you can eat sugar every day!

For a time, all people who had been blessed by the White Lotus Secret Treasure became shopping-rush goods.

Especially those children, they had great potential. The major family forces had long parcelled them out in the first several days.

Not only humans, but even cats, dogs, and other animals had been robbed. The detectives of the major forces even fought for these animals. When the people of other god's domains came, they surprisingly found that they could not even find a stray dog!

In just a few days, 99% of the ordinary people living in the sword tip area had been recruited by various forces. Many people moved away happily, and all their remaining properties were sold at stunningly high prices.

In just one night, the price of houses in the White Lotus Sword Domain began to rise, even the prices of the farthest houses had risen dozens of times.

Now, even the toilets near White Lotus Sword Palace could be sold at a staggeringly high price, and most of the owners of the toilets weren't even willing to sell the toilets in this situation!

If it wasn't because the White Lotus Sword Palace was the highest school in the White Lotus Sword Domain, these crazy people would even buy every brick and tile of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

The forces who came to late couldn't even buy a stray dog. In this situation, they moved their eyes to the disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

If it was unusual, even if they knew that the Sword Palace was also a strong force, the major forces of the Sky Sword God's Domain wouldn't mind dividing it up by force. However, they couldn't do this.

To be precise, they didn't dare do this.

Because "that" was still suspended above the White Lotus Sword Palace.

Casina the Battle God's floating ship, the Sands of Time!

Casina the Battle God, her name was the strongest deterrence to all forces. Even the strongest family didn't dare to show any irreverence in front of Casina.

To provoke a Sky Sword was equal to seeking one's own death in the Sky Sword God's Domain.

Therefore, no matter what they thought, no matter how eager they were for the disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace, all forces could only follow the common rules, using various temptations except for violence to allure the disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

Nevertheless, there were still innumerable subtle influences they could use.

All disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace were their targets.

They were even willing to throw money at the mortals living outside of the sword palace, let alone the disciples of the sword palace.

For a time, all disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace received solicitations from countless forces.

For a time, all disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace, especially the disciples who had exposed how many sounds they had heard when the White Lotus Secret Treasure appeared fell into the happiest trouble they could have.

Should they go to a middle-level sword domain to marry a strong sect master's daughter, or to be an administrator of a high-level sword domain? No matter what they chose, it was like reaching the sky in a single bound to those ordinary disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

For Yun Xi, his greatest worry was that as long as he got out of the sword palace, there would be people who got close and whispered to him.

“Hello, do you want to sell your dogs? I can give you a very high price!”

“Not for sale! Not for sale! I won’t sell any of my dogs!” Looking at these people who coveted Star Thunder, Star Fire, and Star Snow, Yun Xi had an angry facial expression.

Chapter 619: Undercurrent

In the White Lotus Sword Palace, after class.

“The first family of the Ghost Sword Domain is recruiting! As long as you join, you will be our formal disciple, enjoying free estate, maids, servants, and everything you want!” In the corridor of the Sword Palace, several foreign students from the Ghost Sword Domain were handing out leaflets enthusiastically with a smile on their faces.

“The third princess of the Great Xia Empire is recruiting! If you want to be an officer in the Great Xia Empire, this is your best opportunity!” The officer of the Great Xia Empire wore a pale golden robe and shouted with great enthusiasm. He just accompanied the third princess of the Great Xia Empire to study here, unexpectedly, he had such a great opportunity!

“The army of the Great Han Sword Domain is recruiting! The more sounds you heard, the higher the treatment we can provide! You heard one sound, you can be a centurion; if you heard two sounds, you can be a chiliarch; if you heard three sounds, you can be a general; if you heard more than four sounds, you can speak to us face to face!” The foreign students from the Great Han Sword Domain were also shouting loud, recruiting for the army of their sword domain.

“Come here, come here, the Star Silk Alliance recruits people! We can provide all kinds of sword skills, god weapons, and various treasures to you! Our slogan is: as long as we have money, nothing will be a problem!” Even the business alliance had begun to join in.

This was the way that the major forces crowded into the White Lotus Sword Palace had come up with. Because of the existence of Casina the Battle God, they couldn't use any dirty means, therefore, they started to lure the disciples of the sword palace using all kinds of temptations.

If both sides thought that it was a fair deal, even Casina the Battle God couldn't do anything to stop them.

Therefore, the foreign students of the White Lotus Sword Palace soon received tasks from their respective sword domains and began to wantonly recruit other students in the Sword Palace.

Especially those disciples who accidentally revealed how many sounds they heard when the White Lotus Secret Treasure appeared, everyone became the hottest target, and for those who didn't disclose how many sounds they had heard? There were also methods for giving a vague guess.

All the disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace were listed by the major forces.

At the top of the form was naturally Hua Huo, who crushed all her rivals before entering the sword palace, and the second was Xia Ling, the princess of the Great Xia Empire. Behind them were other hero ranked disciples.

Incidentally, Xiao Cao had also entered the top ten list because of her performance at the Battle God's Championship Contest.

All the members of the Starwing Knights were ranked very high. Hua Yue's rank was twelfth in the list, which was even higher than a lot of hero ranked old disciples.

The entire Starwing Knights had long become a coveted target for all the forces from top-ranked sword domains. If it wasn't because of Casina's deterrence, these girls would have been divvied up by all the major forces.

Even the maid in the Starwing Knights, because of his three little puppies, was watched by many people.

Every day when Yun Xi went out, there would be people asking how much they could buy the three little puppies for.

They didn't care about the money. As long as the problem could be solved with money, it wouldn't be a problem.

Unfortunately, they were denied entrance at the door. How could Yun Xi sell the Star Spirit Team that Mei'er built for himself?

Not only Yun Xi, none of the members of the Starwing Knights even considered the seemingly attractive conditions set forth by these forces.

From Hua Yue, Xiao Cao to any of the ordinary members of the Starwing Knights, all of them refused the invitations from these forces.

Are you kidding me? The Starwing Knights are Mei's Knights, we won't leave without Mei's permission!

Not knowing why they refused, all the representatives of the major forces were bewildered.

Are you really girls from common families?

Facing the solicitation of forces from top-ranked sword domains, shouldn't you catch this great opportunity to join us? What are you waiting for?

We can give you a greater future and let you become the highest type of human being!

There is a common rule to absorb outstanding geniuses from common families into the upper classes, why did these village girls refuse our kindness?

Are you so willing to stay in the Starwing Knights, which sounds like a Knights group in a young girl's romantic dream?

Are your heads broken?

Or has the entire Starwing Knights already been taken by some concealed family or sect?

After some investigation, they had to admit that the entire Starwing Knights may have joined a famous family: their leader, Hua Yue's family.

After all, even in the entire Western God's Domain, Hua Yue's family was one of the oldest and the most legendary one.

They had to sigh for Hua Yue's good luck. Who would expect that an unknown Knight group, which was formed because of their leader's romantic idea, would be so united and so lucky? Even after all the members being blessed by the White Lotus Secret Treasure, none of the members were willing to leave.

Even so, they didn't give up trying, so the girls of the Starwing Knights were still being harassed every day by the predecessors of the White Lotus Sword Palace, which accidentally gave Yun Xi some breathing room.

However, in this storm, he himself, also had difficulties keeping out of the affair.

"Mei, my family likes dogs best, would you like to come to my house with the three cute puppies?" After being refused many times, the female disciples of White Lotus Sword Palace also learned the way to deal with Yun Xi. They never mentioned their purpose of buying Star Thunder, Star Fire and Star Snow, but focused their attention on Yun Xi.

I know you like dogs, and everyone likes dogs, but why are you so close?

Yun Xi suddenly found that he was separated from one whirlpool and involved in another.

Is this a delusion? It must be a delusion!

Why are the ladies of the White Lotus Sword Palace beginning to learn from the girls of the Starwing Knights!

Remember, you are ladies, you should be highly cultured and steeped in propriety. So don't get so close, please!

Chapter 620: Are You Willing?

As the old saying goes, "There is no impervious wall in the world."

If there is a secret, then it will be leaked sooner or later.

Ladies from famous families in the Sky Sword God's Domain were eager to join the Starwing Knights. After using all kinds of methods, they finally knew the most important condition for joining the Starwing Knights.

It was an unexpected condition, but thinking again, the condition was indeed reasonable.

"Mei, will you give me a single hair from your head?"

"I've heard that this is a prerequisite for joining the Starwing Knights. No wonder Mei Lan always rejected my application before."

"Rest assured, everyone here will keep it a secret. Give me your hair, Mei!"

Looking at the girls' excited eyes and their approaching full bosoms, Yun Xi's felt dizzy and almost agreed.

Hey, should a gentleman refuse a ladies' request?

Anyway, there are still a lot of seeds, and the ladies in front of me are also cultured girls from famous families. Should I give them all the remaining seeds?

But if it goes on like this, will I drop hair too fast and become bald one day?

“Mei, don’t be fooled.” Looking at Yun Xi who almost surrendered to the girls around him, Hua Yue finally couldn’t bear it and was trying to persuade him.

With her superior strength and breasts, she pushed aside the girls around Yun Xi, pressed her hands on Yun Xi’s shoulders, and said in all earnestness.

“Mei, the Starwing Knights can’t be so easy to enter.”

Now the Starwing Knights had long not been the first small group of girls who were blessed by Mei.

Even though she didn’t expect that this small group would develop to today’s level, it made the major forces in all the Sky Sword God’s Domain feel envious.

Having truly felt the power of “Mei’s Blessing” (Yun Xi’s Seed), she had regarded all the members of the Starwing Knights as her companions. They were not superiors and subordinates, but the real knights who gathered around Mei and fought for Mei.

Feeling the power of blessings every day, every hour, every second, the relationship amongst everyone and Mei were becoming deeper and deeper.

“Mei’s blessing isn’t so cheap!” Hua Yue glanced at the girls who thought that Mei’s blessing was easy to obtain and didn’t know how precious it really was.

Their outlooks were too narrow. If people knew the true power of Mei’s blessing, it would cause a mess that wouldn’t be inferior to the great disturbance for the appearance of the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Hua Yue was born in the most famous family of the Knight God’s Domain, she was certain that the rank of Mei’s blessing was even higher than the blessing of the White Lotus Secret Treasure. It shared Mei’s unlimited possibilities with all the members of the Starwing Knights.

Otherwise, it was impossible to explain how these ordinary girls suddenly became geniuses in such a short time.

As the leader of the Starwing Knights, except for Mei, she knew how many sounds every girl of the Starwing Knights had heard, which undoubtedly couldn’t be announced to anyone.

What’s more, “Mei’s Blessing” wasn’t a once-only use. As long as they were still around Mei, their talents would still slowly increase!

This could be proved by her own growth. Hua Yue’s White Golden Rose Bloodline was one of the strongest bloodlines of the Knight God’s Domain, all people who awakened this bloodline had become world-famous heroes in history.

As the only one in the Starwing Knights who could compete with Xiao Cao, the power of her White Golden Rose Bloodline had begun to show, which could be clearly seen from her hair color.

Her originally golden curly hair was gradually turning to a platinum color, which was the proof of her legendary bloodline, the evidence of her talent that was constantly sublimating.

Mei's blessing could even strengthen her White Golden Rose Bloodline! And Mei just gave this blessing to all the members of the Starwing Knights equally? After realizing this, Hua Yue was really shocked.

Only she really realized how terrible the power of this blessing was. It was a miracle that was even strong enough to break the common sense of the world!

"You, how can you understand what kind of blessing this is?"

"In this half-tone of curiosity, I do not admit that you are eligible to join the Starwing Knights."

"If Mei really recognized you like she recognized Mumu before, I wouldn't object."

"However, it's obvious that your motivation is not pure! Your enthusiasm is fake!"

"Hua Yue, your family and my family have a good relationship, why do you refuse us? Please, give us a chance!" said the noble girl from Li family. Her family was one of the branches of the Li family in the Great Tang Sword Domain and had a good relationship with the Hua family.

Hua family wasn't the first family in the White Lotus Sword Domain. Yun family had a longer history than Hua family and Xia family had the most powerful army in the White Lotus Sword Domain.

The Hua family in the White Lotus Sword Domain was a branch of the main Hua family in the Western God's Domain. In some sense, they were still outsiders in the eyes of these local families. Because she monopolized the Starwing Knights, the girls from other families had long treated her as a thorn in the flesh.

"You guys, do you really think so?" Hua Yue shook her head and then pulled Yun Xi's hand.

"If you really want to join the Starwing Knights."

"Then first, make an oath!"

"You, from toes to hair, from body to soul, must all be Mei's."

"No matter what you encounter, no matter what you face, you must remain faithful and fight for Mei."
