

Starchild 641

Chapter 641: Hua Yue's Temptation

After trying every possible way to persuade Rose, she finally agreed to put on the new bandage made by Lancelot, and Yun Xi finally concluded the entrance test.

To be honest, Yun Xi would rather fight a hundred green hippos for three days and three nights than have another assessment like this.

For him, such an assessment was a little too fascinating.

Fortunately, after returning to the girl's dormitory, Hua Yue told him that the next entrance test would be held after half a month.

It was to test the civilian girls of the Sword Palace. Their "strength" had a significant difference with the "Magic and Knights" team, therefore, if they want to join the Starwing Knights, they need to undergo more preliminary examinations.

"Of course, if you really like it, you can add people in at any time."

"Because, the Starwing Knights are Mei's Knights." Hua Yue looked at Yun Xi's embarrassed face with a smile, just as she had seen through his nature.

"... I didn't build the Starwing Knights." Yun Xi felt innocent. Who could have imagined the sudden rise of the Starwing Knights?

"Yeah, I never thought that the Starwing Knights would become what they are now."

“Mei... It’s not just one or two forces that want to rob us.”

“Likewise, there are not just one or two people who want to join the Starwing Knights.” Hua Yue had never expected that the original small group would now grow to this scale.

The origin of everything was because of “Mei’s Blessing”.

The power of this blessing was a hundred times stronger than the legendary “black-haired girl’s lucky charm”!

Why does no one want to leave this small group?

Hua Yue was sure that if they had the chance when they were still in the entrance test of the Sword Palace, many of the girls of the Starwing Knights would make a different choice.

However, a person, or rather to say, a belief changed everything.

Because of this person and belief, they began to firmly believe that they will become stronger and better, until they can match this person.

Because of this person, no matter what temptation they face, even if that temptation comes from gods and demons, their beliefs will never waver.

Every word and compliment of this person makes them blush and makes their heartbeat race.

Having “her” is like having the world. It belongs to the world of the Starwing Knights, it is the ultimate fantasy of the girls.

Probably, even if they knew this person is actually a... This belief would not change.

Mei, you are such a liar!

“Humph, you are not an honest person at all...” Hua Yue thought and couldn’t help but pinch Yun Xi’s cheek with jealousy.

Only by this person’s side, would she forget her dignified disguise and become a mischievous girl.

“Haha...” Sensing the sensuous smell in the air, and recalling the mistakes Star Fire, Star Thunder, and Star Snow made when he was playing Star Go, Yun Xi couldn’t turn up his willpower in the face of Hua Yue.

Even if it wasn’t done by his soul, it was done by his body. This wasn’t a mistake that could be solved by apologizing.

“Mei... Whatever you want, we will help you get it.”

“We’ll get you whatever you like.”

“Just remember that the Starwing Knights are Mei’s Knights.” Golden curls fell on Yun Xi’s cheeks. Hua Yue carefully combed Yun Xi’s long black hair and poured out her heartfelt feelings in a soft voice.

The White Golden Rose Bloodline symbolizes faithfulness. For her, believing in love is more important than believing in gods. It is a holy proof that will never fade.

For the sake of love, she was willing to devote everything she has. This is the virtue of the White Golden Rose.

Yun Xi’s heart was beating rapidly.

Because he could clearly feel that pair of pink and delicate peaks were closely pressing on his back.

The girl’s temperature made his body numb, and the secret hiding under his maid uniform was ready to start a rebellion!

Hua Yue’s sweet and enthusiastic voice and the warm whispering in his ear were like a poison of love, which made him unable to extricate himself.

No, there shouldn’t be such a development.

A gentleman shouldn’t let this happen!

“Bang! Bang! Bang! ” In the quiet room, Yun Xi could clearly hear his accelerating heartbeat.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! ” Likewise, Hua Yue’s heart was beating faster and faster.

Good timing, geographical convenience, and good human relations.

Maybe... today is the right time?

“Hua Yue, Mei Lan is bullying me!” The locked door was smashed open by unreasonable brutality, and the crying secretary of the Starwing Knights ran in, looking tearfully at Hua Yue and Yun Xi who instantly resumed their normal posture.

“Well, that’s the time when a fool has a keen intuition...” Hua Yue sighed.

Next time, the plan will be more perfect. Maybe the wilderness is a good choice?

Chapter 642: Dragon

Yun Xi sighed deeply.

Yun Xi looked at Mei’er in front of him with doubtful and incredulous eyes.

“Pafu!” The green slime also looked at the star elf suspended in the air, even though it didn’t know why it would do this.

“Tell me, this is a true star trial, not something else!” Yun Xi looked at Mei’er with an almost imploring look.

If Mei’er sent him to the Fire God’s world or Wind God’s world, he would go crazy.

“You did well in the Water God’s world, master?” Mei’er looked at her master with a strange expression and shook her head.

“There is only one god in the White Lotus Sword Domain: the Water God. This is a regular star trial, there should be no god rivals.”

“Nevertheless, you still need to explore the details yourself.”

Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief, as long as it was no longer another place like the Water God’s fantasy island, everything was ok.

For him, what happened in the Water God’s world almost gave him have a psychological shadow.

“Well, go ahead, master.” Mei’er gently approached Yun Xi and kissed him on the lips.

In the sweet and touching whisper of the star elf, countless stars fell.

The third star trial began.

Tonight, there were many young girls who also entered the same dream.

“Prince, Prince!” Familiar and unfamiliar voices were ringing in his ears. Yun Xi opened his hazy eyes and looked at the unfamiliar ceiling.

The ceiling is engraved with the pattern of Sun, Moon, Mountains, and Rivers, just like a shrinking world.

As his mind recovered, the task of this star trial appeared in his mind.

The name of the world: Dragon War.

Main quest: Defeat the terrible dragon that is raging across the kingdom.

Optional quest one: girls fighting against the evil dragon. Leading the Starwing Knights to defeat the dragon and receive a huge reward.

Optional quest two: the whispers of the witches, find the legendary witches and get their help.

Optional quest three: the whisper of the ancient gods. May the great old gods bless you.

Optional quest four: Dragon’s Secret Treasure. To find the hidden treasure of the dragon.

“Well, this is a normal trial!” Yun Xi was about to shed tears when he looked at the quests.

There were clear enemies that must be defeated.

There is no need to force himself to marry millions of brides. There are no compulsory side quests. There is only one road to the goal.

It seemed that even without the help of anybody, he could hope to accomplish the task by himself.

More importantly, this was a normal star trial, which meant that after the trial, everyone would forget about the world!

This is the star trial he wants!

He's ready. He's going to slaughter the dragon by himself!

All of you in the Starwing Knights, I won't bother you this time. I'll solve everything by myself!

"Prince, have you gotten up yet?" The familiar voice continued to ring in Yun Xi's ear. In a particularly good mood, Yun Xi looked at the owner of the voice.

A bright red cloak, seemingly plain face, and the beautiful badge of transparent wings stretching out from the two sides of the starry sky.

This was the badge recently ordered by the Starwing Knights, it was the symbol of the Starwing Knights.

It seems that in this star trial, the girls of the Starwing Knights were on his side as always.

Nevertheless, it doesn't matter.

This time, I don't need you to fight for me. I can solve all the problems by myself!

"Prince, your future is very bright."

"You are the hope of the world, the next king."

"On the day you were born, everyone was cheering for you."

"Even if there are evil dragons, they can't hide your glory."

"God is watching you, you are the only son of destiny."

"Please let us be your strength, our prince."

The bloody augur lowered her head gently and told Yun Xi the prophecy of his fate.

Unfortunately, Yun Xi was so excited that he didn't even hear a word.

Because this time he was going to challenge the dragon alone.

“Sure enough, everyone in the Starwing Knights is here.”

They seemed to have accepted their status as the regular Knights of the kingdom and were working hard to practice and exercise in the name of the Starwing Knights.

This time, I won't bother you, I will solve everything.

I will directly go to the dragon's nest and slay the dragon, and ignore all the side quests!

Since it wasn't the real world, then he could get the souls by defeating the enemies. As long as he collected enough souls to strengthen himself, one or two evil dragons were nothing in his eyes.

“Puff!” The green slime curiously rolled around on the ground, seemingly adapting to the different magic of the world.

“Let's go!” Yun Xi started the trial of the Dragon War.

In the forest, Yun Xi met a long-lost old friend.

“Hum, it's a green hippo again.” After experiencing so many things, the green hippo was no longer a boss in his eyes.

He skillfully sprinted and rolled on the ground. Taking advantage of the green hippo as it slapped on the ground, he directly cut off the green hippo's huge buttocks.

"Boom!" the green hippo rolled over and crushed. Without blinking his eyes, Yun Xi took a step back and brandished the twin swords. With a beautiful heavy chop, the green hippo was cut in half.

A large number of souls spilled over. For him now, killing the green hippo was just a little warm-up exercise.

"Sure enough, the green hippo can't satisfy me anymore." After absorbing the green hippo's souls, Yun Xi shook his head.

Of course, his strength was much stronger than when he first saw the green hippo and the green hippo's souls weren't enough to make him stronger now.

However, as long as killing the green hippos could let him obtain souls, Yun Xi wouldn't let go of it.

How many green hippos are there in this forest? Yun Xi looked at the forest with excitement, and began to sweep through the green hippo in the forest.

"Pafu!"

"Pafu!"

“Pafu!”

From left to right, from south to north, from west to east. Yun Xi was sure that all green hippos in the forest were killed, then he stopped and sat down by the bonfire in the forest to rest.

“That’s great satisfaction!” Happily counting the trophies he had harvested, Yun Xi sighed with satisfaction.

Although a green hippo’s soul couldn’t strengthen his power, but after collecting so many green hippo’s souls, his strength had still been improved a bit.

“Are the green hippos just monsters in the periphery?” Taking out the map which marked the mountains occupied by the dragon, Yun Xi showed an eager look.

“Now, my position should be here.” He made a mark on the map. The bonfire here indicated that the first stage of the star trial had been completed.

“Next is to look for a second bonfire.” After hunting more than 100 green hippos, Yun Xi just took a short rest by the bonfire and began exploring more dangerous areas.

He had a hunch that maybe the time for him to encounter the dragon was near.

After all, there were only three areas on this map.

The first area where many green hippos were found was marked.

The second area was marked with many strange axe monster's sketch.

And there was a dragon's sketch on the third area on the map.

With such a clear map, no one would lose the target.

However, these lovely sketches must be painted by Ling Ling. Even the dragon's sketch was chubby, not like an evil dragon at all.

It should be a dragon that is stronger than the male fierce dragon. Yun Xi was ready for it.

"Boom!" A black axe drew a vicious track in the air, brushing pass Yun Xi's forehead and blowing his whole person out.

There were two more axes flying towards Yun Xi. With all his effort, he fortunately dodged them, but a strand of his hair was cut off.

"They are strong!" They were the monsters in the second area, a kind of giant monster with sacks on the head and big axes in both hands.

The monster was about three meters tall, the fierce muscles showed a dark glow, but they had a completely incompatible moving speed with that huge body.

What's more, they acted collectively, with small teams of at least three members and big groups of almost a hundred members.

The second bonfire was located in the middle of the black axe monsters' patrol route.

"Is this a bonfire party for me?" Stepping on the twin swords, Yun Xi wiped his sweat.

It was very dangerous! He was almost killed before he reached the bonfire. If so, he would have to revive at the bonfire in the first area.

These black monsters were much tougher than the green hippos.

"So, since I can't go straight in." Yun Xi squinted as he watched the black axe monsters hovering around the unknown ruins.

These black axe monsters were like tools of killing. Once they left the ruins and entered the kingdom, a slaughter was inevitable.

"Ah-hoo!" Having eaten a piece of golden bread made by himself, Yun Xi's energy was refreshed.

"Let me solve you here." Picking up a handful of pebbles from the ground, Yun Xi decided to take advantage of his greatest strength and solve the fierce black monsters one by one.

“Shuffle!” A snow-white pebble hit the nearest black monster’s head, triggering the monster’s counterattack mechanism.

“Boom!” Like a raging beast, the black axe monster rushed out of the ruins and ran directly at Yun Xi.

“Yes, that’s it.”

“One by one, one by one. I can kill all of them in this manner.” Yun Xi showed a smile, pulled out the twin swords and dashed toward the black axe monster.

Yes, I will win! Yun Xi was so sure.

Chapter 643: Runs Through

“Boom!” The black axe monster fiercely brandished the two-handed axe again. Compared with green hippos, black axe monsters apparently mastered a very high killing skill, which could only be mastered in the battlefield, without any redundant action.

The blood that was still remaining on the black two-handed axe was the best proof.

Yun Xi stepped on one of the Crane Wing Twin Swords with one foot, turning over in the air with an action that no ordinary people could make, and the other sword drew out a beautiful arc in the air, thrusting at the black axe monster like a flying swallow.

“Chi!” The black axe monster’s head was cut off as a lot of blood was spewed out. As Yun Xi had expected, when it was a one-on-one battle, he could win.

Even though the black axe monster had superb killing skills, it still couldn't defeat Yun Xi who could fly in the air.

Although Yun Xi could only fly in the sky for a short time by stepping on the twin swords, it was still a great advantage in battle that could let his opponents feel despair.

This black axe monster was the best proof.

"Yes! Let me continue." Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief as he stepped on the black axe monster's body.

However, he didn't notice that the black monster's body under his feet swelled abnormally. As if it had lost all its weight, it turned into a soft balloon-like material.

The black axe monster's souls were ten times more than the green hippo's, which proved the strength of this black axe monster.

Grasping the pebbles again, Yun Xi locked in a small team of three black axe monsters and hit one of them on the top of the head.

"Boom!" Like the first one, the second black axe monster rushed forward, smashing the heavy axe in its hand towards Yun Xi.

Yun Xi continued to play his advantages in moving speed and three-dimensional space. He accustomed to the black axe monster's attack and was ready to launch a fatal blow as long as the black axe monster showed any flaws.

The heavy two-handed axe, of course, had the crushing, destructive power to tear the enemy's body at one blow, but it would inevitably have some buffer time after the attack, which was determined by the weapon's nature.

The black axe monsters seemed to have infinite physical strength, but this still didn't violate the general laws of physics.

Unlike Hua Huo's Sky Flying Sword, their attacks were traceable!

After killing the third one, Yun Xi had a general understanding of the black axe monster.

Their souls were about ten times as much as the green hippo's.

In terms of strength, speed and killing skills, their fighting power was about five times more than that of the green hippo, in terms of strength, speed and killing skills.

They had no wisdom, just patrolling in this unknown ruin following a specific routine.

Once they found the intruder, they would chase after Yun Xi, but once Yun Xi ran 500 meters away from the ruins, they would give up pursuing.

"In that case, this area is the best hunting ground." After absorbing the three black axe monsters' souls, Yun Xi drew a simple map and determined the next battle strategy.

Although in terms of the number of souls, this monster was only equal to ten green hippos, but the quality of the souls was far superior to that of green hippos. It was much more exciting to absorb a black axe monster's souls than to hunt ten green hippos one by one.

This was not a delusion but a true fact.

The material of these monsters was also of higher quality. For example, only elite green hippo would drop green crystals after they were killed, and all the black axe monsters would drop green crystals after they were killed.

"Absorb them, Crane Wing Twin Swords." Yun Xi let his strongest weapon at present absorb the green crystals to strengthen them.

Perhaps after absorbing more high-level green crystals, they twin swords could level up.

Yun Xi had a small expectation.

"Hmm, the next target is this team." Having killed one of the nearest patrol teams, Yun Xi began to focus on another team close to him.

Grasping the white pebbles in his hands, Yun Xi locked one of the black axe monsters from hundreds of meters away.

"Hey!" The pebble made a precise track and hit the black axe monster on the head.

But this time, the black axe monster turned a blind eye and continued to move inside the ruins.

“Why?” Yun Xi was slightly surprised. Was the distance too far away?

Or, if the black axe monsters couldn't find the attacker, they wouldn't take any actions?

So, I have to get closer.

Yun Xi carefully stepped on the Crane Wing Twin Sword like gliding in the snow, and then went to the edge of the ruins again. Aiming at the black axe monster, he threw out the pebbles in his hands again.

“Hiss!” There was a strange noise in the ruins. It wasn't the sound of the pebbles hitting the black axe monster, but something else.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

Like being infected by something, the strange voices were echoing one after another behind Yun Xi.

“What?!” Yun Xi turned around and saw the three dead black axe monsters bulging into large balloons and slowly standing up again.

A large amount of blood spread out from the ground, covering the three black monsters' bodies.

Although they had lost their heads, these black axe monsters carelessly raised the axes in their hands again, making a terrible scream.

On their bodies, as well as on their weapons, a lot of unnatural blood lines appeared.

"What bad luck!" Yun Xi instantly flew to the higher sky, trying to leave this strange ruins.

"Whizzing!" Before he flew above more than three meters, Yun Xi's body shivered.

A bloody hole appeared on his shoulder without warning, and a great deal of blood burst out at once.

What happened?

What attacked me?

Yun Xi fell heavily from the sky and saw three blood axes severely cutting down towards his body.

Chapter 644: Where Is the Enemy?

The burning bonfire brought Yun Xi only a trace of warmth.

He felt the world's deep malice against him.

What the hell was that?

After his death, all the souls he obtained before and even the strengthening of the twin swords disappeared, as if he didn't obtain the souls from the beginning.

Having been chopped into mince by three big axes higher than himself, Yun Xi seemed to have returned to the first trial when he first faced the green hippo, so weak and helpless.

"What attacked me?" Yun Xi was more concerned about the cause of death than the death itself.

The enemies would revive after a short time, ok, Yun Xi could accept it. Anyway, it was just a matter of time to kill them again.

The keys were where did the attack that pierced his body come from and who the enemy was?

Recalling the situation at that time, Yun Xi pressed his shoulder, as if the pain still remained in his body.

It seemed that his shoulder had been penetrated before he realized it.

He felt that it should be a spear or a sword, because the pain of the body being pierced and the flesh being torn wouldn't deceive him.

Remembering the pain of being chopped up by a huge axe later, the damage caused by the attack was even higher, mainly due to psychological shadows.

The battle with Shaya Longnis in the Water God's world made Yun Xi have a delusion that he had become strong enough to fight against a legend ranked opponent, there should be no enemies that could hurt him in the star trials.

The reality told him that the idea was naive.

The difficulty of this trial was hell like. If once he was careless, he would be killed in any battle.

"Once again!" Standing by the bonfire, Yun Xi stepped on the twin swords and headed towards the terrible ruins again.

This time, instead of trying to kill the green hippos in the first area, he plunged directly from the air into the ruins with courage, flying directly to the bonfire, which represented the only safe place in the second area.

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

The unknown evil whisper resounded in his ear again, and Yun Xi had the feeling of being stared at by something invisible again.

“Chi!” At least, Yun Xi saw what pierced through his body.

It was a “thorn”, which looked like a sword and a spear. It was so fast that Yun Xi could hardly respond to it. First his shoulder, then his right hand, just for an instant, Yun Xi’s body had been pierced through two times, falling down from the air again.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

On the ground, countless black axe monsters surrounded him and dozens of black axes were raised high in the air.

The next moment, Yun Xi experienced how meat was chopped on the kitchen board again.

...

After the thirteenth death, Yun Xi revived beside the bonfire and stared at the warm bonfire with his eyebrows frowned.

“Pafu...” The green slime also revived. It still wasn’t used to the deaths and looked at him with a grievance.

“Sorry, it’s my fault.” Yun Xi touched the little fellow’s head. It seemed that the green slime was seen as part of him. It was also revived by the bonfire after he was chopped up by the black axe monsters.

What great frustration!

The monsters in this ruin were far stronger than Yun Xi had expected. The battles with them made Yun Xi feel the great malice of the world again.

Especially the attacks from those sharp thorns, Yun Xi could find no way to dodge them. Because of them, he couldn’t collect more souls.

That is to say, if he couldn’t kill all these monsters and light the second bonfire before he was killed by the thorns, Yun Xi couldn’t get any benefit at all in the ruin.

“At the end, where were the thorns coming from? Were they shot out by some invisible monsters?” Yun Xi faced similar desperation before, in the second star trial, Yun Que’s arrows killed him countless times on the bridge she guarded.

This time, the killer was more terrible than Yun Que, because Yun Xi couldn’t see where the monster was and how it came into play.

When the transparent thorn appeared, it was basically equivalent to having been hit.

Yun Xi didn't even have a second to dodge the thorns when he found them, and these damn thorns seemed to be able to automatically lock on the target's body.

"That is to say, there are at least two kinds of enemies in the ruins." Yun Xi updated the map by using the information he obtained at the cost of his life.

On the map, the small teams of black axe monsters were represented by forks, the smallest three-members teams were represented by small forks, and the largest fifteen-members teams were represented by large forks.

It could be clearly seen that more than one hundred black axe monsters were in the ruins.

They weren't randomly distributed in the ruins, the closer he got to the center of the ruins, the more monsters there were.

It was almost impossible to try to lure them all by throwing pebbles.

"Is there anything here?" Yun Xi carefully recalled the scenery he had seen from the air. He was convinced that in the center of the city there was an abandoned square. Not far from the square and under the steps was the location of the second bonfire.

Observing with his naked eyes, he couldn't see anything special in this abandoned square.

"Well, I think I can only go and observe the square again." With a solemn look, Yun Xi flew to the second area again.

This time, instead of killing the black axe monsters, he turned his body over with the highest speed and craziest movements in the air, trying to dodge the invisible enemies' thorn-attacks.

His only goal was to rush to the mysteriously abandoned square and see what there was.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

The familiar murmur of death resounded over the ancient ruins again.

For the first time, Yun Xi dodged a transparent torn when he flew at his full-speed!

He was delighted with such an unexpectedly good result.

So, this attack was not invincible and he should really be able to dodge it!

As long as my speed is fast enough, there is still hope to dodge them!

In the next second, Yun Xi finally broke through an invisible barrier and approached the core of the ruins for the first time.

There, he saw thousands of weapons scattered densely over the abandoned square.

“What the hell?! Are you kidding me?!”

Once again, Yun Xi was chopped into mince.

Chapter 645: The Moonlight Is Beautiful

In the darkness, Yun Xi’s eyes gazed at the bonfire in front of him with a helpless look on his face.

One hundred and thirty-five times. That was the number of times he challenged the ruins.

Hacked to death by the black axe monsters, smashed to death, swung to death... he experienced all kinds of death.

Occasionally, he could kill a few black axe monsters, but soon he would be locked by the invisible weapons, then was besieged by countless black axe monsters.

The best result was only to kill about ten black axe monsters in the periphery. As long as he got a little closer to the center of the ruins, the only thing that was waiting for him was another miserable death.

According to the rules of the star trial, he must kill all the monsters in the second area before he could settle his harvest in the second bonfire and use the souls he acquired to strengthen himself.

As long as he died once in the second area, the souls he had acquired would disappear. This was the rule of the star trial, cruel and true.

If his opponents were just those black axe monsters, Yun Xi would be more or less hopeful to achieve this goal, at least he wasn't afraid of these monsters if it was a one-on-one battle.

In the previous star trial, the stone soldiers killed him countless times, but he eventually broke through their encirclement and arrived at the tower.

However, this time, the difficulty in this area was even higher!

There were unimaginable terrors in the center of the ruins.

Among the 135 deaths, Yun Xi only rushed to the square a few times and saw the dense cluster of weapons suspended over the square.

The first time he saw the weapons in the square area, Yun Xi was almost desperate.

If the number was only a few dozen, he could give it a try.

If the number was hundreds, it meant that the difficulty of the ruins was hell-like.

However, the weapons Yun Xi saw over the square were greater than thousands!

Thousands of weapons floated over the square, showing a bright red color, constantly moving back and forth with a unique law.

They seemed to be the most competent soldiers, as soon as they found him, these weapons would quickly lock on him and then become invisible, giving him lethal strikes.

Once Yun Xi arrived at the square, what awaited him was a storm of attacks. The weapons that poured down from the sky were like the wind sweeping a fallen leaf, shattering Yun Xi's body thoroughly.

Even though Yun Xi had experienced so many deaths, he couldn't help but feel desperate facing such a situation.

"Am I too weak?" Yun Xi doubted whether it wasn't the right decision to go to this area alone.

This night, only the bonfire and Pafu in his arms could bring a little warmth to Yun Xi's desperate heart.

"Pafu!" Pafu's round body turned into Yun Xi's favorite shape and let him rub and pinch it.

"We'll, try again." Feeling the warmth of the little green slime in his hands, Yun Xi breathed deeply and his eyes became firm again.

"The moon today is a little red."

Looking up, an extraordinarily large round moon hung in the dark sky, illuminating the ruins not far away, covering the ruins in an abnormal red color.

Is it a delusion?

With such doubts, Yun Xi once again stepped into the forbidden zone of life.

This time, he didn't have to throw pebbles, many black axe monsters had rushed out of the ruins in a fierce manner.

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

In the eerie murmurs, Yun Xi failed to fly to the sky and was shot down by three invisible spiral spikes.

"Boom! Boom! Boom! " The black axe monsters were in an abnormally mad mood. They instantly surrounded him and chopped him into a bunch of pulp.

Yun Xi died again.

"What a joke!" Once again revived beside the bonfire, Yun Xi gazed at the second area in despair.

These black axe monsters suddenly went crazy and their attacks became more fierce.

This wasn't a big deal actually. The real problem was these invisible spiral spikes.

As long as there were these black monsters, there would be eerie whispers, and then the invisible spiral spikes would appear and kill him within ten seconds.

Now, even the forest that had been cleaned by Yun Xi was not safe anymore. These black axe monsters seemed to smell something and surround the bonfire.

If it wasn't because the monsters couldn't find the bonfire and get close to this area, Yun Xi would have been chopped up countless times.

"What can I do?" For the first time, Yun Xi found that he couldn't find any solution.

"There is no way out." Yun Xi was completely blocked at the bonfire. Looking gloomily at the black axe monsters who were searching for him around, Yun Xi had no way and simply laid down with Pafu in his arms.

"These common monsters are already so strong, then how strong could the dragon be?" After calming down and sorting out the quests, Yun Xi found that he really looked down upon this star trial called "Dragon War".

Slaying the dragon alone by himself? What an absurd dream!

If Hua Huo was here, she could probably slay the dragon, but his current self had no way to achieve this goal.

Sigh. It looks like I have to do these side quests. Maybe I can find a way out from them.

Yun Xi looked at the big full moon in the sky.

The moonlight tonight was so beautiful and bright. Maybe it was the unique scenery in this world.

Chapter 646: Forgotten Ruins

The next morning, with the first ray of sunlight shone at the end of the horizon, Yun Xi found that the fierce black axe monsters had finally withdrawn like the fall of the tide.

Even the whisper that always sounded him, had stopped appearing, and the black axe monsters' footsteps became a little dull.

"During the day, their raging state will be removed automatically."

"No, maybe they can only play their full strength at night."

During the night, Yun Xi never successfully rushed out of the bonfire area. He had to silently observe the black axe monsters and find their changes.

"Let me try again." Unlike the challenge in the previous star trial, this time, it was totally impossible for him to win.

Because he couldn't understand what was attacking him and how he was killed.

The most terrible thing was not a powerful opponent, but the unknown.

If he couldn't understand what the enemies were, he had no way to defeat them.

After all the black axe monsters left the forest, Yun Xi began his last try.

This time, instead of challenging the horrible ruins, he tried to bypass this area and enter the Dragon's nest by another route.

Stepping on the twin swords, Yun Xi set out from the bonfire and tries to find ways to bypass the ruins.

The first time.

He flew to the highest sky he could reach.

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

“Hiss!”

The whisper of death appeared, which meant the failure of this attempt.

He was shot down, chopped to death and revived beside the bonfire.

CONCLUSION: There is no way to break through the ruins.

The second time.

From the left side, it should be detoured away from the ruins.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

It was that voice again! It was everywhere!

Why did the ruins appear again? I’m moving along a road more than ten kilometers away from the ruins!

He was shot down, chopped to death and revived beside the bonfire.

CONCLUSION: There is no way to take a detour. The ruins can move!

The third time.

From a farther distance, which was almost a roundabout route outside the forest. In theory, even if the ruins could move, he wouldn't meet it at such a remote place.

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

"Hiss!"

The familiar whisper and familiar pain.

Again, he was shot down and chopped to death.

The final conclusion: the ruins should be an insurmountable entry point into the Dragon's Nest. It's an inescapable challenge.

Maybe it was some kind of magic or some kind of curse, anyway, if he wanted to fight the dragon, he must go through the ruins. There was no other way to avoid it.

“It’s really... a perfect defense.” After more than a dozen deaths, Yun Xi finally learned the lesson.

It was impossible for him to break this line of defense. Unless he immediately mastered Yun Hai’s Quadrant Sword or the Sky Flying Sword, he had zero possibility of breaking through the barrier.

The unknown enemy, incomprehensible and invisible attack, and the mystery in the center of the square! Yun Xi had to admit that he couldn’t complete this trial alone.

He couldn’t even approach the dragon’s nest, how could he defeat the dragon?!

“It seems that I have to collect information first.” Holding Pafu in his arms, Yun Xi had to go back to the palace, his stronghold in this trial world.

“Prince, you’ve come back.”

“Where on earth did you go? After you disappeared, the whole palace was in disarray. All the members of the Starwing Knights went out to look for you. I was the only one left behind.”

“Prince, you are the hope of our kingdom. Please don’t make such a mess again.”

Before returning to the palace, Yun Xi was severely preached to by his own court diviner.

Robin stared at him and almost put her forehead on Yun Xi's face.

"Well, do you know about the Dragon's Nest?" Only then did Yun Xi find out that Robin was so excited once she got angry.

"The Dragon's Nest? Prince, tell me you weren't going there!" Robin looked at Yun Xi with astonishment.

"It's a forbidden area for the whole kingdom. So far, no one can come back if they've ventured deep into the second area."

Well, yes, as long as you enter the second area, there is no way that any ordinary people could escape. Yun Xi clearly proved this with his dozens of deaths.

"Well, do you know anything about the ruins?" Looking at Robin's astonished face, Yun Xi finally got some clues.

"Are you saying that Forgotten Ruins in the second area?" Robin furrowed her eyebrows. Several bloody birds flew out of her cloak and launched their special ability, "the unfortunate prophecy of robins".

"Are you going to be there to see me suffer?"

"It's me. I like the way you cry when you're hurt."

“Are you going to watch me cry there?”

“Yes, your tender expression is so lovely and touching.”

“Why are you so cruel and heartless?”

“Because it makes me feel how beautiful the world is. I can forgive you for everything.”

“Do you hate me?”

“No, I like you. I like the way you fall into the pool of blood, I like your expression of fear because of despair. That is why I want to see you.”

“Let your white wedding dress be dyed with blood, so that you can see the truth in the ruins forgotten by time.”

“Otherwise, you’ll never be able to get out of there, you’ll just go back there over and over again and become part of it.”

Chapter 647: Queen of Tragedy

“Is this a prophecy?” It was the first time Yun Xi had heard such a wonderful prediction from the bloody birds flying above Robin’s shoulders.

“Prince, I suggest you go to the library to find clues.”

“The Forgotten Ruins isn’t something of our time.” Robin changed the topic and gave Yun Xi a hint.

“All right.” Eventually, Yun Xi had some clues about the ruins, he decided to follow Robin’s direction, being a good student this time.

Walking on the primitive corridor, Yun Xi looked at the detailed and vivid reliefs on the wall, and felt that he had come to a different world.

Speaking of this, the background of this world was incredibly detailed. Whether the magnificent palace or the wilderness, they looked 100% like the real world.

Compared with the previous two trial worlds, this world was more vibrant, and the number of human beings living here was far more than those two trial worlds’.

According to the rules of the Star Trial, it seemed that the entire Starwing Knights had been summoned to this world, as well as other disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

As for the side quest “the whispers of the witches”, Yun Xi had a vague guess. It should be the twin witches. After all, they were the strongest witches in the White Lotus Sword Domain.

Among the other three side quests, “girls fighting against the evil dragon” should refer to the Starwing Knights, there is no clue about the side quest “the whisper of the ancient gods”, and “Dragon’s Secret Treasure” should be related to the evil dragon.

Now, his only clue was that there seemed to be a hidden truth about the Forgotten Ruins in the big library, and that truth pointed to some ancient curse.

“What on earth is that inexplicable attack?” Yun Xi sat in the big library with a lot of ancient books piled up in front of him.

They were all the books related to the Forgotten Ruins he could find in this big library, which almost recorded everything that people knew about the ruins.

These books were all banned books. If Yun Xi had not the highest level of authority in the kingdom, he would probably not have been allowed to read these books, which represented bad luck.

“The Origin of the Forgotten Ruins”

“The Murdered Queen”

“The Curse of the Bride”

“Invisible Land”

Reading these books, Yun Xi’s eyebrows became more and more furrowed.

“The Origin of the Forgotten Ruins”

The origin of everything can be traced back to thousands of years ago, starting from a noble Queen who longed for perfect love.

The kingdom she ruled was the predecessor of Yun Xi's kingdom, named Assyria. She was born with super-high spiritual talent, and her family had inherited the perfect blood of magic from generation to generation.

"This... Isn't the Queen's bloodline the predecessor of the Witch's Bloodline?"

Apparently, the Assyrian Queen's family was clearly the predecessor of the witch race.

If she was born in the Witch God's Domain, she would certainly become a great witch.

The Queen was loved by the people of the kingdom, and her rule was unshakable. The only wish the perfect Queen had was to have a fantastic lover.

But she didn't find one.

There was no person in the Assyria kingdom who was qualified to be the Queen's husband.

Not only was she perfect in appearance, but she also possessed overwhelming magic power and even close combat strength.

As the strongest person in the history of the kingdom, her fighting ability could rival everyone in the whole kingdom, and even the arrogant dragon race was no match for her.

She had become a legend, and she had broken the limits of human beings. No matter how time had passed, she didn't become old.

The great Queen ruled the Assyria kingdom for three hundred years.

During the three hundred years, the Queen had done her best to lead the kingdom to create miracles, one after another.

Everyone thought that the great Queen would continue to rule the great Assyria kingdom for thousands of years.

But as time went by, the Queen became stronger and more lonely.

Her relatives and friends all passed away in 300 years, even their descendants, and descendants' descendants had all died.

The Queen had become the strongest and loneliest human in the world.

She couldn't find a partner, and no one in the kingdom could accompany her.

Everyone respected such a Queen, they regarded her as the incarnation of gods, and built numerous altars for her.

God is sacred and inviolable. Just because the Queen was in a low mood, some people would commit suicide and use their blood to prove their loyalty.

The Queen became increasingly unhappy, but couldn't find a solution to her problem.

The perfect Queen, the goddess in other people's eyes, felt so lonely and began to seek dangerous strength.

She found a dangerous and horrible force, which appeared on this land of Assyria from nowhere.

That was the power of the abyss.

The Queen's strange behavior was discovered, and people realized that their Queen was seeking an evil power.

This is not possible. The Queen must be perfect!

How can she touch the devil's power?

They didn't want to admit that the perfect Queen had degenerated.

At the call of the high priest at that time, the people of the kingdom launched a rebellion against the Queen, and finally killed the Queen in the palace, which was the forerunner of the Forgotten Ruins.

"Is there no star bridge in this world?" After reading the book, Yun Xi could easily see the defects of this world.

The perfect queen, from beginning to end, had not found a husband that match her, which seemed to be the beginning of all tragedies.

If there were star bridges in this world, such tragedies would be impossible, because the star bridges connected endless god's domains. If the Queen of Assyria couldn't find a lover in her kingdom, she could simply leave her world and witness the infinite splendid scenery of the endless god's domains.

In that case, the tragedy wouldn't happen.

Yun Xi continued to read, and started the second banned book.

"The Murdered Queen"

Chapter 648: Bride Rules

The tragedy didn't end with the death of the Queen.

Rather, the real tragedy began at the time when the Queen died.

The soldiers, priests, and knights who killed the Queen thought they had saved the kingdom. They buried the Queen's body in the church, trying to let the Queen rest in peace with the power of God.

However, the Queen couldn't rest in peace.

From that day on, there would always be people in the palace to see the Queen wearing a white wedding dress and wandering in the ancient palace.

She didn't say anything, just wept softly, looking at the palace she once loved and the kingdom she had sworn to protect.

Her tears turned into blood and stained the ground of the palace, little by little.

The horrified knights attacked the ghost Queen, but all the attacks were ineffective.

The guilt of killing the Queen drove the knights who were loyal to the Queen crazy one after another. Half of them committed suicide in the palace, and the other escaped.

This kingdom was the territory of one of the knights who left the Assyrian palace.

As a sinner for killing the Queen, he eventually chose to commit suicide, leaving behind only the order of "guarding the ruins".

The rudiment of this kingdom was born out of this order.

Knights, priests, and any people who remained in the palace died one after another, and people were afraid to flee the palace, avoiding the weeping ghost of the Queen.

It lasted for one month after the Queen's death.

That night, the blood moon was hanging high above the palace. The lonely Queen appeared on the high observatory and threw her own corolla at the blood moon.

No one knew what happened afterward. All the records people found that remained in the ruins, ended that night forever.

The kingdom of Assyria was completely destroyed.

All the people in the city died; nor did any other living creatures survive. The history of Assyria ended overnight.

The survivors eventually gathered in this remote land and struggled to rebuild the country.

“Is this the monster in the ruins...” Yun Xi finally had a clear understanding of the ruins.

The Curse of the Bride:

After the Assyria kingdom was turned into ruins, adventurers entered the ruins from time to time to search for the lost treasures of the ancient Assyrian kingdom.

Most of them lost their lives forever after entering.

But there were also a few lucky people who survived the Forgotten Ruins.

They had the same characteristics: all of them were unmarried women.

“Why?” Yun Xi wiped his eyes.

They encountered an incredible curse in the ruins. What they saw, with their eyes, was not ruins but a beautiful kingdom that was still prosperous.

In this kingdom, the kingdom was still under the perfect Queen’s rule and had gone through thousands of years.

Just as the world turned into two different parts on the day of the Queen’s death, only unmarried girls could enter the dreamlike Assyria kingdom in the ruins and could bring out treasures.

A girl only had such an opportunity once in her life. This was the curse of the Forgotten Ruins, but also a blessing.

The dead Queen still seemed to survive in some way in the Forgotten Ruins and still dominated her Assyrian kingdom.

If a man entered the Forgotten Ruins, he would only encounter countless horrible black axe monsters. If you are a man, please don’t try.

“Not only are there black axe monsters, but there are also ten thousand swords in the square!” Yun Xi gave a bitter laugh. At last, he knew where the black axe monsters were from.

If he wanted to go to the Dragon's Nest, he must break through the Assyria Queen's ruins!

According to the records, she was dead, but still existed in some strange way.

Only unmarried girls could enter the ruins safely.

That's really puzzling. Why can't men enter there?

"Invisible Lands" – Yun Xi began to read the last banned book.

This was about a strange sacrifice in the ruins.

The Assyrian kingdom that existed only in the eyes of young girls had a special sacrifice, which was held by the Queen.

It was called "the Queen's Sacrifice".

The perfect Queen created her people, the ghosts who dressed in bloodstained bridal gowns, always wandering around in the streets of the city.

The ghosts seemed to have been waiting for something. If the girl who entered the Assyrian kingdom could catch one of the ghosts, then the girl could make a wish to the great Assyria Queen.

The Rules of the Wish:

The girl ghosts had their names written in the front of their chest.

The first syllable of the name of the ghost you catch must be the same as yours.

The more ghosts you catch, the more flowers will appear on the bride's corolla on your head.

The sacrifice will begin on the night of the bloody moon. These ghosts will not attack you, but will take the initiative to escape. You can use any method to catch these girl ghosts.

The more ghosts you catch, the happier the Queen will feel, and the more possibilities she will use to respond to your wishes.

The wish can only be related to "love".

A girl who is in love will win the favor of the Queen. Please seize the opportunity and make this once in a lifetime wish.

"What's the matter?" Looking at the rules, Yun Xi wondered if he had read a fake banned book.

Why are the rules so romantic?

Isn't that a horrible ruin?

Can the horrible Queen, the master of the black axe monsters have such a girl's heart?

Can it be real?

What went wrong? Yun Xi turned the last book over and over again, wondering who was kidding him.

Compared with the previous bloody banned books, this book was so sweet that it was almost as pure as a fairy tale.

Chapter 649: Desert Dragon Zaka

Not only so, but there were also notes about this incredible bridal sacrifice in the books, which were from the girls who experienced the sacrifice.

"Ah ah ah ah ah! Why? Why does the ghost bride whose initial is T run so fast? I almost caught it, but it suddenly teleported away?"

"No, I'll never give up hope until the last moment!"

"To make my love come true, I have to rely on the ghost brides!"

– from an unmarried village girl.

“The ghost bride whose initial is ‘L’ doesn’t run fast, but as long as it is illuminated, it will disappear into foam.”

“If you want to catch these kind of ghost brides, you’d better go to the cemetery, the underground river or any other places without light.”

“Very well, my guess was correct, I didn’t waste 16 years of hard work, and I finally caught one!”

“My wish has come true. All girls with the same name as me, if you want to realize your wish, please exercise the skill ‘Mind’s Eye’.”

– from an unknown girl with a bow.

“There are many kinds of ghost brides, and ghost brides whose initial is ‘W’, is absolutely the most terrible one.”

“They will pretend to be ordinary girls, crying alone in dark corners. Once they are found, they will make terrible screams, shock your soul and destroy your spirit.”

“If you want to capture ghost bride ‘W’, you must have an iron will to resist the scream before you have the chance to take the next step.”

“Don’t be deceived by their weak appearance. They are very powerful unknowns. You have to bet all your beliefs in order to get the chance to be favored by the Queen.”

“The queen only smiles at the winner.”

– from an unknown knight girl.

Well, there were even living experiencers who had written strategy guides. If this wasn't anyone kidding around in the banned book, it would mean that the Queen of Assyria was really continuing this sacrifice.

“She's got waaaay too much free time!” Yun Xi began to think about the truths recorded in the banned book.

He still had many doubts, especially about the record of the blood-month period.

How could it be so simple for such a strong queen to be killed by knights and priests?

After 300 years of life, the queen obviously surpassed the boundaries of human beings. Even if she was facing an army of millions, she would probably be the one who had the last laugh.

How did such a powerful queen get killed by her subordinates?

What happened on the night of the blood moon?

Why are only black axe monsters hovering around in the ruins now?

There are too many mysteries that the banned books could answer.

The authors of the banned books seemed to have compiled the outline of the tragedy from a few records left over from the ruins and some dictations of the original Royal family.

What on earth did the Queen do? There was no way that the authors could know.

“There must be unspeakable secrets...” Yun Xi could smell an ominous atmosphere from the records in these banned books.

“Boom!” A tremendous vibration burst out and shattered the bookshelf in front of Yun Xi.

“Here comes the dragon!”

“Damn the dragon!”

“Mom!”

Yun Xi could clearly hear the cry from the city.

The ground shook violently, accompanied by some huge roar, as if the end of the world was coming.

“The evil dragon comes out?” Yun Xi ran out of the library in surprise and looked at the huge yellow figure in the sky from the balcony of the palace.

Yes, it was a real dragon with an inverted triangular skull, rough sand-like scales, and spikes on its back.

“Listen to me, you people of this kingdom. I am Desert Dragon Zaka, one of the four heavenly kings! Foolish human beings, haven’t you given up hope yet?!”

“From the moment my emperor came to this land, this kingdom became my emperor’s possession!”

“Little human beings, surrender to my emperor!” The Desert Dragon, whose body was over 50-meters long with bright runes on its scales roared, stepping on a transparent eggshell-like thing.

Countless ripples appeared on the eggshell-like magic shield, reducing the attack from the Desert Dragon, but there were still a lot of impacts spread to the entire city.

The continuous earthquakes were the result of this Dragon’s attack.

“What a powerful force!” Even across the magic shield, Yun Xi could feel the dragon’s terrible power.

Whether in shape or strength, Desert Dragon Zaka was far stronger than the Male Fiery Dragon Yun Xi encountered before. Its rank should be at the fifth or even sixth rank.

Its huge body over fifty meters could easily break up an army even without any magic.

Its body was already stronger than many attack magics.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

There were three more head-butts from the Desert Dragon, and continuous ripples appeared on the magic shield and the magic shield flashed, as if it was going to break, which caused the people of the city to fall into a great panic.

“Come and try...” Yun Xi was curious about the Dragon’s power.

Would it be more powerful than the mysterious Queen of Assyria?

Stepping on the Crane Wings Twin Swords, Yun Xi flew into the sky.

“Oh, there’s a little fly coming out?” Zaka cocked its head and glanced at Yun Xi, raising its huge claws.

...

“Shuffle!” That was the scream of a sonic boom in the air when the speed of Yun Xi’s body exceeded the speed of sound.

Today, it was destined to be recorded in the history of the kingdom.

This kingdom was built with the desire to “guard the ruins”, and today, another strong man who dares to challenge the dragon appeared.

When people saw the young challenger, they could hardly believe their eyes.

“Prince!”

“It’s our prince!”

“Why is it the prince? Where are the knights?!”

When the Desert Dragon raised its claws and swung toward Yun Xi, it triggered a tornado-like anomaly, and dust storms rolled up all over the ground.

As with the name of this dragon, it was the master of the desert, it was the king of sand and dust.

Among the four heavenly kings, it had the greatest attack range, as well as the indestructible defense: dragon scales.

It was not unusual for it to attack the kingdom from time to time. It would like to take a walk after dinner to show off its strength to the people in the city.

However, during this walk after dinner, there appeared a little insect that didn't know how to read the mood. .

It could pat such a small insect into meat sauce with one claw!

Facing the dragon's claw directly, Yun Xi stepped on the twin swords and rotated around 720 degrees and flew directly from below the dragon's claw to the side of the claw.

This skill was practiced in the Forgotten Ruins. In order to avoid the ubiquitous and invisible attacks, he had racked his brains and tried all means.

Although he was still killed over a hundred times, it was not meaningless to practice this skill.

Compared with the invisible attacks, Desert Dragon Zaka's claw attack was too easy to dodge.

"Hum?" Seeing Yun Xi avoid its claw, Zaka was slightly surprised.

How long has it been since I saw people who could fly freely in the sky and avoid my attack?

Aren't human beings just some weak insects who only know to hide inside the magic shield that covers the entire city?

Without the magic shield, he would have destroyed the city and levelled everything.

"Els!" Desert Dragon Zaka roared.

One!

Two!

Three!

Four!

A total of four gravel-colored, giant dragon eyes appeared in the east, south, west and north regions. Each dragon eye was about four meters high, suspended in the air and was surrounded by thick dust.

It was a Dragon Language Magic: Sand Dragon's Eye.

The four dragon's eyes could let it observe the environment without any dead corners, while automatically expanding the area of yellow sand to cover 10 kilometers diameter.

In this area of yellow sand, dust storms never stop and would automatically call out a large number of desert monsters.

“Boom!” Giant sandworms over 100 meters in length billowed out of the earth and opened their round mouths.

In the huge mouths, there were countless creepy jagged mouthparts and poisonous, corrosive salivas.

Undoubtedly, these sandworms were at the hero rank.

They were Desert Dragon Zaka’s minions. As long as Zaka summoned them, they would appear.

For ten kilometers around Desert Dragon Zaka, the ground had all turned into a desert. It was a phenomenon triggered by the dragon language magic, which was far beyond human imaginations.

“Strong...” Yun Xi had a profound experience of the dragon’s power.

The dragon was apparently not at the hero rank, but hero ranked human beings could never be a match for it, because hero ranked human beings could never cause such a phenomenon with their powers!

“Sandstorm Star!” After summoning its minions, Desert Dragon Zaka immediately used another magic.

In the endless sandstorms, a huge sand ball more than one kilometer in diameter appeared in the sky, in the center of the four dragon’s eyes.

Every second, countless sand grains were sucked into the sand ball, increasing the strength of the giant sand ball.

Its attack power may not be as fatal as the invisible attacks in the ruins, but it was easier to give people an intuitive impression.

Such attacks were natural disasters, unavoidable and unstoppable!

“Stupid human, who gave you the courage to challenge the great Desert Dragon Zaka?” Zaka looked down at Yun Xi, and the giant sand ball locked on the city.

It’s time for humans to realize the fear of being dominated by dragons.

When the Assyria kingdom still existed, mankind once had a covenant of peace with the dragon race.

The dragon race acknowledged the supremacy of Assyria. As long as the Queen of Assyria still ruled the kingdom, the Dragon would not enter the mainland.

But it was already a thing of the past. The Queen, who was supposed to rule mankind, had hidden in the Forgotten Ruins. Human beings had destroyed their most glorious era personally.

Now, it is the era of the dragon race!

Humans, feel the power of the Sandstorm Star, feel the power of the dragon race!

Long live my emperor!

Chapter 650: Participation in the War

“Fall, Sandstorm Star!” With the pride of the dragon race, the Desert Dragon raised its head and ordered the giant Sandstorm Star that had been formed.

The huge sand ball which was about one kilometer in diameter began to roll irresistibly towards the city not far away.

The transparent eggshell covering the city began to deform, little by little, under the bombardment of the giant Sandstorm Star. The horrible weight of the Sandstorm Star was fatal to all magic shields. It could crush almost all magic structures.

Just as Zaka was triumphantly preparing to crush the magic shield of the city, its head suddenly suffered a sharp pain.

It felt as if a sharp needle had suddenly penetrated its head. With an anguished scream, Zaka couldn't control his magic and the Sandstorm Star instantaneously and completely disintegrated.

The pained Desert Dragon couldn't even maintain its flying posture, it fell directly from the air and then rolled over on the ground.

“Bang!” Yun Xi was blown away by the strong airflow. He could hardly keep his balance on the twin swords and was swept in by the dust storms around him.

“Yes! Its defense isn’t unbreakable!” It wasn’t the Crane Wings Twin Swords which hit Zaka’s head, but Yun Xi’s hands. Precisely speaking, it was a fighting skill he learned from Teacher Casina: Soft Water Palm.

This was a fighting skill Casina specially created for her disciples who had the talent of “Soft Body”. Only the owner of “Soft Body” could use this fighting skill.

Dripping water can wear through stone. Just like the waves that wash up on reefs, those waves seemed to leave no damage to the reefs, but in fact, the force of water has penetrated the reefs.

Hard reefs will eventually be completely wore down by the waves, and Soft Water Palm speeds up this process by tens of millions of times. It was specially created for destroying the internal structures of the creatures who had strong outside defenses.

Yun Xi recently experimented with its effect with the black axe monsters in the Forgotten Ruins. As a result, the attacks of his hands could easily break through the black axe monsters’ bodies.

Now, this fighting skill had also worked on Zaka’s body as well.

As long as he could break through Zaka’s defense, he had the possibility of winning. Compared with the invisible weapons in the Forgotten Ruins, Desert Dragon Zaka was stronger, but it was easier to deal with.

“You damn little bug!” Zaka shook its dizzy head and roared. It staggered to his feet, ready to use the magic “Sandstorm Star” again.

Yun Xi wouldn't let go of his opponent's carelessness. From the Battle God's Seed, countless fighting experiences of Casina the Battle God flowed into his brains.

They were the experiences of a legend ranked fighter! Plus Yun Xi's own talent, the effect was far better than one plus one.

Regarding the twin swords as a point of borrowing strength, Yun Xi placed both feet on them with all his strength.

Quicksilver Motion!

Compared with the flying of the twin swords, such a straight line impact was faster and more powerful. The Desert Dragon had just staggered trying to raise its head, taking advantage of this, Yun Xi stepped on its wing.

Boom! His palms bombarded the wing.

As if the superphysical and magic defense of the dragon race didn't exist, without reservation, Yun Xi's palms tore apart the nerves of the dragon's wing.

"Ah!" The Desert Dragon once again toppled down on the ground and finally had to pay attention to this annoying insect.

Even if this human was a small insect, it was a fierce flying insect with sharp teeth!

The injury on its head plunged it into vertigo of about five seconds.

The wound on the wing made one of its wings break completely and lost its ability to fly in the sky.

Of course, these injuries were only temporary for the dragon, who had enormous vitality. They could be easily recovered after it used its own healing ability.

However, the truth of “it was hurt by a small insect” itself had represented the abnormality of this small insect.

Ordinary human beings, even if it was a hero ranked human being, couldn’t do any harm to a dragon, unless the human was holding a sacred sword or demon sword.

Dragon scales were inherently immune to all physical and magical attacks. Even if a dragon was besieged by millions of people, it wasn’t possible to hurt the dragon.

Yun Xi’s attack was different. The impact of the “Soft Water Palm” penetrated the dragon scale directly and directly hit the dragons weak points straightly.

“My minions, kill this little bug!” The Desert Dragon shouted.

“Boom!” Countless sandworms dug out of the ground, and giant scorpions emerged from the dust.

“Crap!” Yun Xi could see one, two, three red dots appearing beside him, which were the beacons released by the giant scorpions’ deep red tails.

In the next second, several dark red rays passed by Yun Xi. Only one of them touched Yun Xi's shoulder, but its damage was powerful, leaving a burning scar on his shoulder.

"Oooo oooo!" The sandworms got excited and chirped. Their huge bodies surrounded Yun Xi from all sides, making the situation on the battlefield reverse in an instant.

The desert was the home of Desert Dragon Zaka.

Above the yellow sand, it was the master of this land!

Just one hit and Yun Xi was plunged into a deadly crisis.

How could he survive in such a situation?

"Shuffle!" With a flash of the cold light, a sword cut off the tail of a giant poisonous scorpion without warning.

A beautiful white rose bloomed on a sandworm's back, spread out in the next second and blown up the giant sandworm's waist.

Yun Xi looked up and saw familiar faces.

Xiao Cao's expressionless face.

Hua Yue's smiling face.

And the faces of all the members of the Starwing Knights.

The Starwing Knights were taking part in the war!
