

Starchild 691

Chapter 691: Undercurrent Surge

“Then, don’t give up.” The leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue announced with a firm voice.

Yes, never give up!

No matter how powerful the opponent is, even if it is so hopeless, we don’t want to give up and won’t give up.

The fact that no one in this tavern left, was the best proof.

If they really give up hope, how can they all come here coincidentally and wait for an opportunity?

This opportunity was what she must bring as the leader of the Starwing Knights, and what she must shoulder as the leader of the Starwing Knights.

At any time, she must stand up, even in the face of a desperate situation. This is the virtue of a knight and the creed of Hua Yue.

The White Golden Rose never withers.

“But there will be the wedding soon.”

“And it seems that the prince, does like that child.”

This was the most frustrating trouble for most members of the Starwing Knights and the unsolved problem that led to this situation.

The prince likes the child named White Moon.

That child has the right to marry the prince, which is the tradition of the kingdom for thousands of years.

“If we don’t do it, how do we know that it is impossible?” Hua Yue’s eyes sparkled with extraordinary brilliance and grabbed Robin’s hand, “Say it to us. Tell us the prophecy.”

Robin’s face looked helpless. These young knights are really lawless.

Force the royal augur to predict... even the kings didn’t do this!

“What prophecy?”

“What’s the matter? Is it about this wedding?”

“Robin, tell us!”

At this time, even a glimmer of hope was like the last straw for a drowning man to the girls of the Starwing Knights.

“Cough... This is not a prediction of love...” Robin coughed.

This prophecy points to the ultimate fate of the world.

The bloody birds flew on Robin’s shoulders and gave a strange laugh, as if they were laughing at these knights who knew nothing about love.

Robin used her hero ranked skill: Robin’s Unfortunate Prophecy!

“Let go of the queen, let go of the queen!”

“The queen is beautiful and lovely, the queen is gentle and generous, the queen is pregnant, who did it?!”

“It’s you, it’s you, it’s you, the sparrow who sneaks a taste!”

“Blood moon falls, White Moon rises, and no one survives!”

“The prince who kills his father and marries his mother will eventually witness the end of blood!”

The undisguised malice and the cursing ridicule made the girls look at each other.

This prediction is really very bad!

“Pa! Pa! Pa!” Hua Yue clapped her hands and smiled.

“This prediction can be true or false.”

“What’s important is that White Moon is not the right bride for the prince, it’s the truth of the prophecy.”

“So, White Moon is not fit to be a queen, is it?”

This explanation was a little far fetched, but for the frustrated Starwing Knights, it was a powerful cardiotonic.

“Yes, I’m not opposed to the prince’s marriage, but that White Moon is too small!”

“Even if there is any political marriage agreement, they should wait for three or four years at least. How can a child of this age have a baby?”

“Compared to White Moon, our leader is definitely better.”

After Hua Yue took the lead, the girls of the Starwing Knights suddenly came alive.

On the counter, Xiao Cao had a smile in her eyes, and the frequency of drinking became leisurely.

“Hum... How can I lose to that underage child...”

“Yes, we will fight back!” Ling Ling raised her chest with burning flames in her eyes.

Mei Lan sighed. She understood that Hua Yue was not sure of winning, but she just didn't give up.

Unlike Lu Lu, the proud Hua Yue would never let go of her dignity.

Even if she loses, she will only stand to death and never kneel in front of the queen.

On the battlefield of love, she is also a white gold rose that will never wither.

If it was Xiao Cao, she would probably kill all her opponents and then come back to drink, covered in blood.

“Mumu, there is an important task for you.” After solving the morale problem of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue came up with another trump card.

Throughout the Starwing Knights, only Mumu was at the same age as White Moon.

If the prince really has that special hobby, he will definitely love such a lovely Mumu.

Although Hua Yue never thought that the prince was that kind of person.

From the time she saw White Moon, she suspected that there was something wrong with the wedding. The prince's hesitation when she questioned him proved her conjecture.

"Yeah!" Mumu raised her hands and looked curiously at the girls around her.

Tonight's dream is really interesting!

...

In a huge nest in the Forgotten Ruins.

A girl whose body was covered with bandages was reporting the result of the war to the sleeping dragon with her teeth gnashed. Her face looked similar to someone, but her skin was covered with many brown dragon scale.

"I lost because I was too careless. It was just carelessness!"

The giant dragon sleeping on numerous treasures was a beautiful emerald dragon, from the horn to the tail, its whole body was bright green.

Every scale was covered by crystal green light, which even covered the bright golden color of the treasure hill under its body.

A knife shaped green light floated on the top of the emerald dragon's head and was constantly rotating.

Next to the emerald dragon, there were several dragon eggs with different colors, each of which exuded the same huge sense of pressure as the desert dragon.

The red dragon egg released an irascible flame breath.

The black dragon egg released a poisonous corrosion breath.

The blue dragon egg released a cold frozen breath.

This was the ultimate source of fear in the entire world, the strongest army on the dragon side in the Dragon's War.

Chapter 692: Second Zaka

"That damned prince broke my defense with only one blow."

"The Starwing Knights didn't follow the rule of single combat and attacked me together!"

"Humans are too outrageous!"

Zaka transformed into a human form and cried about what she experienced when she ran to the human world, and despised those who didn't obey the rules.

The fight between dragons is always one-on-one. It's a shame for dragons to fight in groups.

Powerful dragons never need to rely on numbers to fight. They basically crush their enemies all the way.

What? Desert Dragon Zaka also summoned desert worms in the battle? They were similar to the parasites on the scales of giant dragons. In Zaka's eyes, they couldn't be counted as help.

"Ha ha, elder sister, you are too weak."

"In this way, the great mother will cry."

"You bring disgrace to the name of Zaka."

The eggs of different colors laughed at Zaka together.

Their names are all "Zaka". In the Dragon language, it means "the shadow of the dragon". They are the descendant of the great emerald dragon, and each of them had the power of different dragon attributes.

The firstborn was Desert Dragon Zaka, who has the power of "dust".

The second was Ice Dragon Zaka, who has not yet come out of the egg and has the power of “ice and snow”.

The third Fire Dragon Zaka has the power of “flame”.

The fourth and the last one was Black Dragon Zaka, who has the dual attributes of “darkness” and “corrosion”!

They are the four kings of the world, and the stronger they are, the longer they will stay in the egg before being born.

Desert Dragon Zaka was the first in birth order and she had been raging on the mainland for a long time, and she was responsible for most of the bad reputation of dragons.

And the second Zaka, Ice Dragon Zaka was about to be born, therefore, the dragon camp would soon have two real dragons.

As for the third, Fire Dragon’s birth time was still uncertain, and the fourth dragon, Black Dragon Zaka’s birth was far from certain.

Even so, human beings had almost been defeated by the evil dragon camp. If not for the prince Yun Xi and the Starwing Knights, this continent would have been the territory of the giant dragon.

As the first sister, Desert Dragon Zaka had always been the most enthusiastic about invading the world. Unfortunately, the attack on the capital failed, and she had to flee back to the dragon's nest and be laughed at by her unborn sisters.

"I didn't lose, it's just a strategic retreat, retreat!"

"I can recover from such little wounds after a few days!"

"Then, I will go back and kill them all immediately!" As the eldest sister, Desert Dragon Zaka never admitted that she lost and fled.

"Don't explain, sister, that's all right."

"I'll break my shell and replace you as the strongest of the four heavenly kings!"

"Without Little Red and Little Black, I can solve the problem alone!" The dragon egg, the second "Zaka", the incarnation of ice and snow sent out a sharp declaration of War, "Human beings are not worthy to be the opponents of dragons."

"This world belongs to us dragons."

"Even the proud queen has become the gatekeeper of our dragon family now."

"Only us dragons can rule the world!"

As the “Zaka” bred by the Original Giant Dragon, she had strong confidence and ability.

Compared with Desert Dragon Zaka, as an ice dragon, she had a more terrible control ability. Her ice field can completely turn the world into a world of ice and snow. All the creatures entering this field will be frozen.

It seemed that the Original Giant Dragon, the emerald dragon was very satisfied with the announcement of Ice Dragon Zaka. The knife-shaped green light hanging on the emerald dragon’s head fell down and touched the blue dragon egg. That was the grace and blessing from the Original Giant Dragon.

“Whoa... my elder sister’s dignity...” Desert Dragon Zaka drew a circle on the ground with an aggrieved look.

I’m the first Zaka! I’m the one who attacked human cities and let them understand the stateliness of the dragon race.

Why was she born the earliest, thus becoming the weaker one? She was clearly the elder sister, but she was destined to be outdone by her younger sisters.

How could it be!

It’s not fair!

It’s all the fault of that damn prince!

My injury will be cured in about two days. Then I will go to the city again and kill everyone in the city!

Anyway, human beings are just insects. They all should die!

In the palace, the young Queen of Assyria looked curiously at the female officials around her.

What do they want to do?

Why does everyone look at her pitifully and sympathetically, but dare not say anything?

I'm so happy, why do you look at me with such an expression?

This body can move freely, enjoying the warm sunshine and fresh color. She was not even willing to sleep, she just wanted to look at the world more times.

"Cough... Princess... Princess White Moon..." The head of the female officials looked at the little princess who did not know what fate she would have.

There are some things we can't do without telling her.

There are some fates that she has to bear.

Even at the age of 12, as the protagonist of the wedding after three days, those things are inevitable.

“Well, the prince asked me to come to class. What class is it?” The queen looked at the officials with innocent eyes.

I don't know what class it is, but I was asked by everyone – Yun Xi.

“Yes... the class for the common sense of the wedding night.” The female official's expression was complex, but she had to fulfill her mission.

This mission had never been fulfilled by the female officials of all kings, because they had no chance to contact the mysterious queen at all.

Only in this generation, they had to teach the 12-year-old Princess White Moon about things that would never be taught in textbooks.

About the responsibilities of the queen on the wedding night.

Chapter 693: Dowry

Of course, the 12-year-old Queen of Assyria didn't know anything about the “knowledge of the wedding night”.

For her, the wedding was to put on the wedding dress, and to visit the scene of the city in public.

No king dared to ask the great and holy queen to do anything on the wedding night. For them, this wedding was essentially a ceremony for them to swear their allegiance to the queen.

Moreover, due to the poor quality of the puppets made by the kings, the time for the queen to stay in the city was always very little, she could barely stay until the wedding night.

A few kings would be honored to accompany the curious queen for a walk, which was worthy of their lifetime glory.

Therefore, as the young queen, she had no idea what the bride really needed to do during the “wedding night”.

After all, kings had no right to spend the night with the queen.

It's just that this time, it's different.

“White Moon” made by Yun Xi not only had minimal magic consumption, but also could be used freely without any restrictions.

Therefore, for the first time, the queen stepped out of the secluded underground lake and appeared in the sunshine world in a complete manner.

The world was so beautiful and full of new things for the young Queen of Assyria.

She doesn't have to hide her identity and play a silent mysterious bride this time.

Laugh if she wants to, run if she wants to. She can talk to all people naturally and touch everything in the palace at will.

Everyone was smiling at her and welcoming her.

This is "living". Even if it had only lasted less than a day, the queen had felt that she was unable to leave such a beautiful world.

The thousands of years in the underground lake were like a dream in the darkness.

She likes the world.

She wants to stay in the world.

Talk with everyone, laugh heartily, even crying is more happiness than that being lonely for a long time.

Well, including this "wedding night", she was also very interested.

What is this "wedding night"? She looked at the embarrassed female official with curious and expectant eyes.

"Ah... It's true..." The female official realized that the Queen of Assyria was nothing but a piece of white paper on this, so she sighed.

Indeed, a 12-year-old child is a little princess who should be chasing butterflies in the sunshine. It's a pity that she needed to take responsibility as the queen of the kingdom.

But this is the royal family, and this is politics.

Now that the king had decided to marry the unknown Princess White Moon, then she must accept all this.

And she would also fulfill her responsibility to teach all the things that are not taught in the textbooks to this innocent princess.

Oh, poor kid, she is still so young, but she has to bear the responsibility that she shouldn't bear at this age...

"Mumu has come to attend the wedding night course!" Just as the female official hesitated on both sides of the balance of morality and responsibility, Mumu came running and looked at the young queen excitedly.

"You are..." The female official looked at Mumu, who was even a little younger than the queen in amazement. Her common sense was breaking.

"Hua Yue asked me to come. I'll take this course with White Moon." With an innocent expression, Mumu said happily.

Although, her task was just to “see what White Moon is doing and to stay with her”. Mumu presumed that she would be White Moon’s little partner and act with her these days.

“The leader of Starwing Knights... Hua Yue...” The female official looked at Mumu with a complicated look.

This is... did you choose this girl to be a dowry for Princess White Moon?!

In fact, this is also one of the wedding customs of nobles. The maids who accompanied the aristocratic girls to marry into their husband’s families are actually the same as married together.

During the period of the mistress’s discomfort or pregnancy, these maids will be responsible for the task of serving the mistress’ husband. No matter how they are treated, they will never complain.

Their origins are mostly the daughters of the lower nobility, or the poor civilians who have to sell their daughters to the nobility.

It’s strange that all the queens had never had such a dowry, which puzzled many people.

These mysterious queens always appeared and disappeared suddenly. Because of this, the female officials of the royal family never had the chance to do their duties.

Until this generation, she will finally fulfill her responsibilities for the first time as the first female official in history.

“Hello, I’m White Moon.” The Queen of Assyria looked at Mumu, who was smaller than herself. There were almost no children in the whole palace. This was the first time she had met a young partner of her own age.

“I’m Mumu, a knight of the Starwing Knights.” Mumu looked curiously at the queen, who was a little older than herself.

Is she the queen who will marry the prince? She looks lovely!

And somehow, there’s a kind of smell, which makes her feel very kind and makes her like it very much.

I want to lick it!

That was what Mumu thought and did.

Chapter 694: Study Hard

With her small fragrant tongue stretched out, Mumu kissed the queen’s snow-white cheek and bit her ear, and indulged in the softness of her long black hair.

Well, that’s true. It’s a great feeling!

“Aha...” The Queen of Assyria looked at Mumu in confusion and didn’t know what to do at this time.

But it’s not a nasty feeling.

Just as Mumu had some natural intimacy with the queen, the queen also had a strange intimacy with Mumu, and didn't resist her intimacy at all.

"Cough... This course has not yet reached this stage." Looking at the two little girls who were already intimate and full of charming atmosphere, the female official coughed.

Even if it is not taught in the textbook, it is also necessary to follow the basic rules. It is not good to start from this stage!

"Little sister, where are you from?"

"It's so delicious." Mumu was intoxicated with the queen's fragrance, more precisely, White Moon's fragrance.

It was mixed with the fragrance of moonlight branches, just like the fragrance of moonlight wine. It was White Moon's special charm.

Especially for Mumu, just absorbing some elements from White Moon's body would make her blush.

"Your taste is also very good."

It was rare that not only the queen, but also the "White Moon" who had just been born had an extraordinary liking for Mumu.

It seems that in some parts, they have surprisingly similar characteristics.

“Hua Yue says Mumu is going to be with White Moon.” Mumu completely forgot that Hua Yue told her to keep it a secret.

“Well, let’s come to listen to the course together. Let’s study, what is the wedding night.”

The black-hair girl and the silver-haired girl held each other’s hands, looking at the female official who would teach this course.

Your majesty, I understand your difficulties, but it’s really too...

The female official tried to control her emotions and began to perform her responsibility helplessly.

“First of all, Princess White Moon, and Mumu, you are both going to marry the prince, so the wedding night is an important moment you have to go through.”

“Um.” White Moon nodded.

I see. That’s why I had to study for the wedding night course.

“Prince? Isn’t he...” Mumu listened to the female official’s guidance with full interest. Her two little feet were twinkling and rippling in a lovely arc.

As the female official spoke, the content of the course gradually moved towards the realm of adults, and the two little girls' reactions were also quite different.

"Yeah... Really... do we have to do that?"

"How could it be! That Prince and I..." White Moon looked at the female official foolishly and her mouth opened wider and wider.

Not only she, but also another child who eavesdropped on the course had a huge impact on her world outlook.

I see. That's what the so-called wedding night is about!

No, absolutely not!

How can I bear it, dad is mine! I'll never give him to anyone!

"The mating ceremony of human beings... is so complicated..." Mumu's eyes were full of confusion. There was a difference between the common sense of the dragon race and that of the human race. Isn't that how mom and dad give birth to her?

"Puff... that's all for today's course..." After teaching the most basic knowledge of the wedding night, the female official felt very tired.

It turns out that it's full of guilt to teach this knowledge to children who don't know anything!

Originally, the daughters of nobility would be imparted this knowledge only when they were about 16 years old and began to choose engagement partners.

She didn't expect that in this generation, the queen would be such a little girl.

Your majesty, though it is a great sin of disrespect, I still want to say...

"Well, is that so?" Mumu's curiosity and action power were much stronger than those of the female official who was full of thoughts at this moment.

Only after learning the first lesson, she began to practice.

Target – the shy little sister!

Put out one hand, Mumu pressed the queen's hands and gently separate her feet.

Well, Mumu is a good kid who studies hard!

"It seems... this posture is not right..." The Queen of Assyria shook her head. She held Mumu's white face and kissed her.

"Woo..."

“Well...”

Two smooth and delicious tongues intertwined with each other.

Silver thread falling from the two little girls' lips and tongues, showing the color of tempting crime.

White Moon is also a good child who loves to study!

“Cough... Yes, that's probably how it feels.”

“The details are not so important. It's important to make the partner feel comfortable.”

“In other words, posture doesn't matter. It's about whether the other side is satisfied.”

The queen extended her little feet, and her toes touched Mumu's chest.

She remembered that when she stepped on the prince's body with her feet, he seemed to show a very comfortable expression.

In this way, I should be able to add points to the “wedding night” course.

“Little sister, your feet are beautiful.” Mumu grasped the white and tender feet, gently rubbing the bent arch, smoothing her instep, and then naughtily opened the ten toes.

“Ah... There...” The queen’s face was flushed with shyness, and the feeling of crispness and numbness swept her whole body.

With a smile, Mumu gently bit the queen’s sensitive toes, then stretched out his little tongue and licked the soft feet.

From the sole of the foot to the instep, from the arch of the foot to the lower leg, Mumu had practiced the courses she learned one by one.

The rhythm of kissing, the timing of sipping, the posture and reaction of being a bride... what an interesting dream!

“Whoa... Mumu, you bully me...” The queen’s petite body was shaking constantly, and there was a hazy color in her eyes.

It turns out that this is what we need to learn on our wedding night.

On the wedding night, am I going to do something like this with the prince?

From the tip of the foot to the cheek, all should be licked like this, and further!

Oh, it’s so embarrassing!

Chapter 695: Their Temptations

It's probably the favorite thing for all teachers that they have a student who is interested in learning and keeps improving day by day .

If there's anything more pleasant, that is there are two such students .

The female official looked at the two little girls with complicated eyes .

Most of the time, Mumu was more active and played the role of "king", while the gentle Queen of Assyria played the role of "queen" .

In the study called "body position course", the two little girls changed their postures and enjoyed it .

However, once remembered that the two underage children would usher in a real wedding night in a few days, the female official couldn't help sighing .

Your majesty, please be gentle with them .

Experienced she could imagine how terrible things would happen to the two children on their wedding night because of the problem of size .

It will be a night full of pain and blood .

Unfortunately, this is politics and destiny .

...

“Ah-choo!” Yun Xi, who was doing business in the room suddenly sneezed . He always felt that someone despised him somewhere .

Is this a delusion? It must be a delusion!

He has been really wronged . There were so many kings who married the Queen of Assyria, why am I the only one who is looked at by so many people with strange looks!

Is it wrong to make a good marriage puppet?

It’s clearly right to do the best you can about what you’re going to do .

“How can there be so much trouble in this trial?” He felt his head was going to explode when he saw the piles of documents in front of him .

He never thought that the so-called king would be so busy!

The bridge of a small river was destroyed by the flood, which needs the kingdom’s funding, waiting for the king’s approval .

Some wheat fields were plagued by locusts . The leaders hoped that the kingdom would reduce taxes this year and wait for the king's approval .

The port's Business Federation appealed collectively, crying that the port's earl embezzled too much tax and asked to replace this "vampire" earl, waiting for the king's ruling .

He never knew that there were so many affairs that need the king to make the final decision in the kingdom .

The king is the core of the kingdom and can dominate all the rulers of the kingdom .

The result of super centralization is that the future of the kingdom is entirely decided by the king, and everyone takes it for granted that this is the responsibility of the king .

The king himself is the supreme force of the kingdom .

Knights are the strongest armed group in the kingdom, which is responsible for almost all of the military operations in the kingdom .

The wedding ceremony with the mysterious queen symbolizes the orthodoxy of the kingdom .

Even though the prince, Yun Xi, has not officially ascended the throne, all people regard him as the king and send him the government documents waiting for approval but piled up because of the former king's serious illness .

Oh gosh! He was just an ordinary baker in a small town not long ago, how can he handle these things!

Looking at these piles of documents, he had a headache!

Rather than deal with the documents, he would rather challenge the Forgotten Ruins that could make him die over and over again!

At least, even if his challenge failed, he would end up back at the bonfire .

If these government affairs are not handled well, it will affect the lives of thousands of people and even the stability of the whole kingdom .

Where did I go wrong? This trial has changed from the death journey of blood and fire to the king's game!

He didn't want to be the king at all!

"Knock, knock! " As he looked at the papers on his desk, wondering if he would like to turn a blind eye to them, and the door was knocked on gently .

"Prince, are you there?"

"Prince, it's us . "

The secretary of the Starwing Knights is coming!

“Come in, the door is open . ” Yun Xi tried to pretend that he was dealing with government affairs .

“Prince, is it hard to deal with government affairs?” Mei Lan looked at him with a serious expression and wanted to say something .

“Prince, it’s the opposite . ” Ling Ling giggled, pointing out what a mistake he had made .

“Ah...” Yun Xi found out that he had taken the paper in the opposite direction .

Let a baker deal with the government affairs? This kingdom is going to be finished!

“Let me help you . ” Mei Lan took the documents from Yun Xi, as well as the king’s special seal and pen, and began to deal with these documents skillfully .

Her serious look, her speed, including the gesture of stamping, all showed that these things were routine for her .

This was the secretary of the Starwing Knights . In both the real world and the trial world, Mei Lan had been used to this .

“Prince, I’ll rub your back for you . ” Ling Ling also did her job skillfully .

That pair of soft and elastic breasts were pressed on his shoulder, plus the kneading of the small hands, it was really hard to know whether she was using her chest or rubbing his back with her hands .

“Thank you, you saved me! I can’t handle these things .” Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief . The hours he spent in this room were more painful than his bloody battle in the Forgotten Ruins .

At least he could fight these monsters when it was one on one . In the face of this hill of documents, Yun Xi had only one idea – I surrender!

“King, you don’t have to deal with these things by yourself .”

“People’s energy is limited . There can be no one who can do everything and still do their best .”

“If there is such a man, it is not man, but God .”

“The way to run a kingdom is to assign the right jobs to the right people, let them work hard and get the right pay .” Mei Lan’s voice was steady and soothing . It was the work of the secretary to deal with these documents for the king .

She was used to being in this position, able to calmly help the people she likes, and exert her talents at the same time .

If she couldn’t be the one closest to the prince, she could at least be indispensable .

For her, that was enough .

Chapter 696: Important Answers

On the other hand, someone who doesn't know what it means to hide her emotions... yes, I'm saying you, Ling Ling!

"Prince, don't marry that White Moon." Resting on Yun Xi's shoulder, Ling Ling acted coquettishly.

Mei Lan almost made a mistake in writing the crucial judgment when she heard Ling Ling's voice.

Ling Ling, what a fool you are! Didn't we decide to come to test the king's true heart? What kind of test is this?!

Sure enough, she is just a hopeless fool!

"Ah... in fact..." his hesitation undoubtedly increased Ling Ling's arrogance and gave her confidence to advance.

"I am the closest to you, my prince!" Ling Ling began to play cute again.

"I took a bath with you and slept with you. Even our leader didn't do these things with you!"

Oh, why did she remember that ! He didn't expect she would.

What? Have they done these things?! This was Mei Lan's thought. She had a heartbreak.

Oh, it's true!

Yun Xi recalled all kinds of games they had played such as "doctors and patients" or card games, which had the rule that the loser must take off a piece of clothing.

By the way, as long as it's a duel, the stupid Ling Ling had never won against the prince once, so she was always played with by him by various means.

Hey, where does this memory come from? The setting of this world is too bad!

He was surprised by the memory about the "prince" of this trial world generated by the stars.

I know it!

Mei Lan's small hand was shaking, but even with such a sad expression, she still insisted on her duty.

As a secretary, if I can't finish my job, I'm not qualified to stay with the present prince and the future king!

Even if the kingdom is destroyed and the king is betrayed, she will stay with him and deal with his affairs for him faithfully.

This is the road she chose. No matter what road the king took, she would accompany him and advance with him.

The Secretary is the king's pen, which is used to announce the king's will.

No matter what the king is, she will be loyal to him, which is the way of the secretary's love.

"Prince..." With a sweet voice, Ling Ling launched an "attack" on him, regardless of Mei Lan's presence.

"No... No..... " Yun Xi's resistance was just as powerless as the little white rabbit facing the big gray wolf.

Every shaking of Ling Ling breast's made his face blush and his heart thump.

Every breath of Ling Ling would speed up his breathing.

Ah, what a little succubus that can't be rejected!

With such a secretary, how can I be a gentleman!

"Whoa... Ooo... The prince is bullying me!" Ling Ling's tears announced his defeat.

In addition to Mei Lan's glances from time to time, Yun Xi felt that he was about to commit a crime.

Who is bullying whom in the end?! He issued a silent cry and finally raised his hand to surrender.

"I'm sorry... It's impossible not to get married..."

"This is the tradition of the royal family."

It's not just a tradition, it's a ritual passed down from generation to generation, and it's a pledge made by the Queen of Assyria.

"Then After marriage, will the queen still be here?" Ling Ling, biting Yun Xi's ear, asked the crucial question for the Starwing Knights.

That's it!

Mei Lan's ears popped up in an instant. The answer to this question is very important. It was not only for the Starwing Knights, but also for the whole kingdom.

In a word, Yun Xi's answer would determine the fate of the whole Starwing Knights, even the whole kingdom.

According to the historical records, the queen would only appear on the wedding day, and then disappear without a trace.

Only this time, this tradition was broken. Before the wedding day, the Queen appeared in the palace.

What's more, it's a 12-year-old girl with a recognizable name – White Moon.

For the Starwing Knights, it was a huge blow.

For the guardian Kingdom, this was also a big enough of an event to affect the whole kingdom.

If the queen is no longer a symbol but a living human, there are too many things that will be involved.

“Um... she... she probably won't stay...” Yun Xi hesitated and answered.

According to his calculation, the young Queen of Assyria's true body probably can't leave the underground lake.

In the past thousand years, all the kings had proved this.

This time, after completing the “wedding” ceremony, her majesty should return to the quiet underground lake as usual.

At least, from Yun Xi's “common sense”, it's the most reasonable answer.

Well, he just forgot to think about how unreasonable his “White Moon” he created was.

“Yeah! Great! ” Ling Ling smiled, licked his ear with her little tongue, and then kissed his cheek heavily:

“Sure enough, the prince is the best!”

Well, everything is still on track.

Mei Lan held her glasses and smiled happily.

Chapter 697: Sweet Milk

Why she was so happy?

Yun Xi didn’t understand Ling Ling’s idea at all.

“Prince... I love you the most! ” Ling Ling hummed a ditty and beat his shoulder with her chest and hands at the same time, which made his shoulders relax.

After hammering for a while, Ling Ling suddenly blushed and asked Yun Xi quietly, “Prince, do you want to drink milk?”

“Milk?” Yun Xi swallowed a mouthful of saliva subconsciously, and the taste buds seemed to recall some very sweet taste.

In that vague memory, it's very delicious special milk. Even he couldn't drink it often. Only Ling Ling knew where to find and deliver it.

"Well, I'm just a little hungry."

"Then... I'm going to prepare it. Mei Lan, come and help me." Ling Ling answered and her cheeks suddenly turned red and her breathing became very fast.

"Ah... that regular one..." Yun Xi doubted if it was his delusion, but Mei Lan's eyes were full of jealousy when she looked at Ling Ling.

"Well, the regular one." Ling Ling took Mei Lan's hand and left his study.

"Puff... thank god, I have a hard-working secretary." Looking at the small pile of documents that Mei Lan had processed, Yun Xi was relieved.

If he had dealt with it himself, it would probably take him three days and nights.

Just thinking about the complicated relationships among nobles, the expenses, the state's inventory and so on, would have made his brain hurt.

It's amazing that Mei Lan can handle so many complicated things in order.

By comparison, Ling Ling... well, her shoulder massages seems to have improved again.

In the secretary's room not far from the study, Mei Lan and Ling Ling were having a routine secret ceremony.

"Mei Lan, you're so good. I'm dizzy when I read those documents." Ling Ling took a big sip of milk and looked at Mei Lan who also drank milk with jealousy.

"There is nothing to envy about the ability to deal with government affairs." Mei Lan sipped her milk with papaya, which was a recipe known to the Starwing Knights.

"As long as we have enough exercise to master the aristocratic relationship, the business circle of local businessmen and any conflict of interests, anyone can do similar things."

"The post of secretary has never been irreplaceable, but there are some things that only you can do, Ling Ling, such as this..." After drinking her papaya milk, Mei Lan looked at the fuller peaks of Ling Ling, and her eyes seemed to be burning.

"Coo! Coo! Goo!" After drinking ten boxes of milk, Ling Ling stretched out her tongue and licked the white liquid on her lips. Then she breathed deeply.

"Huh!"

"Ha!"

Well, this was not the dragon breath of the martial artist, but the preparation before using a special ability.

The milk she drank was different from Mei Lan's. It was the only magic medicine specially prepared for her by Lu Lu, the only pharmacist of the Starwing Knights.

It contains a variety of materials, among which several valuable herbs and have some special effects.

As for the effect... well, it's a little secret between them.

"It seems... coming out..." Holding the huge and plump peaks on her chest, Ling Ling blushed.

Sure enough, no matter how many times I try, I'm still not used to it.

In the same way, no matter how many times she had seen it, Mei Lan couldn't help envying.

Why only Ling Ling has such a milk-secreting physique!

Even after drinking Lu Lu's secret medicine, in all the Starwing Knights, it can only be done by Ling Ling.

Sure enough, is it the difference between the size of the breasts?

Ling Ling's talent in this realm is amazing.

Visually, after drinking the miraculous medicine made by Lu Lu, there was a trend of the continued development of her breasts!

How envious this was!

Stupid Ling Ling!

Even so, Mei Lan, as a good friend of Ling Ling, stretched out her hands and began to take off Ling Ling's coat to expose the soft and smooth pair of white rabbits.

Pinch!

Knead!

Squeeze!

Press!

After a series of skilled techniques, the fragrant milk named "Ling Ling Specialty" was born.

After drinking about ten boxes of milk mixed with Lu Lu's secret medicine, it was finally condensed into a small glass of snow-white and sweet milk, giving off a kind of intoxicating taste.

This is the “talent” of Ling Ling, and only Ling Ling can do this miracle.

Every time Mei Lan helps Ling Ling to squeeze out this special product, Mei Lan feels that her personal outlook and world outlook have been greatly hit.

“Today’s quality is very good.” Ling Ling stretched out her little tongue, and licked the milk and looked satisfied.

This must be because the milk is full of her love for the prince!

She can imagine the happy voice of the prince after drinking this special milk!

Ling Ling’s milk was sweeter and more delicious than that in his memory, with a little warmth. It was just like the milk was just squeezed out.

Well, as a prince, there are still some enviable privileges.

In his memory, only Ling Ling knew where to find this kind of milk.

He always thought it was strange that there was no cow in the palace. Where is the fresh and delicious milk produced?

He had asked Ling Ling several times, but she always avoided answering and her face blushed like a ripe apple.

Well, that's probably the girls' secret, but the milk is good to drink.

Chapter 698: Clues to the Truth

Late at night, the headquarters of the Starwing Knights.

"That young lady is very nice. She has learned a lot with me." Mumu complacently reported to the leader of the Starwing Knights, and she didn't find that Hua Yue had been putting a bad look on her face for a long time.

She asked Mumu to ask for information and find out the weakness of the other party. Yes, she didn't ask her to take any bride lessons with the mysterious Princess White Moon!

Although it seems to be a success, what's the matter with being the dowry of Princess White Moon!

This kind of good thing... accident, is too bad!

"So her engagement with the prince has long been decided?"

"When the last king died, it was time for the prince and her to fulfill their agreement."

As the leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue smelt some conspiracy from Mumu's words.

“Well, she said it was an unshakable agreement. All the king’s need to marry the queen.”

“It’s just that she doesn’t seem to know what a wedding night is,” Mumu told Hua Yue everything.

“Did she tell you where she came from?”

“Where is her family?” the more she investigates, the more she can find out the abnormality of the queens.

Why does everyone think that this engagement is a matter of course?

Obviously, the queens are so weird, as if they don’t exist in the world before their appearance.

No matter how Hua Yue investigates the ancient documents, there is no trace of the existence of any queen family.

It’s not normal.

If the queen was born into a noble family, she would leave traces on the documents of the kingdom.

The so-called mysterious tribe is nothing at all. This is the judgment of the leader of the Starwing Knights after investigating all the noble family heraldry since the founding of the kingdom.

As long as there is a family, it is impossible to leave no record in all literature.

There is no such thing as the family the queen came from!

After discovering the truth, Hua Yue couldn't believe her eyes.

The queen comes from the most mysterious, the oldest family has always been firmly believed by the upper class of the kingdom.

They seem to believe for generations that there is such an ancient and mysterious family in the Kingdom, that is, the great family known as the "Queen's family".

But Hua Yue's investigation totally denied this answer.

From the records of selling luxury goods to the records of using carriages, all the records closely related to aristocratic life have been checked by Hua Yue. It can be 100% sure that the so-called queen family is a legend that does not exist at all.

As for the rich dowry of the queens, the luxurious wedding that made the whole kingdom boiling, they were all from the royal family!

In other words, the mysterious queen family in the eyes of nobles is essentially the royal family guarding the kingdom!

This secret has been hidden for thousands of years!

More than one-third of the wealth of the royal family is used to hold such weddings.

Almost none of the kings is hedonist, most of them are serious knights. Most of the wealth they accumulated as the leader of a kingdom was spent on their once-in-a-lifetime wedding.

It also creates a false impression that the dowry of the queen of every wedding is so rich that no one can doubt that the mysterious queen comes from the noblest and oldest mysterious family.

Only a mysterious noble family can support such a luxurious dowry and wedding.

No one would think that these dowries were all made by the royal family itself, and all the costs of the wedding were borne by the king.

The queens have never produced a gold coin or a piece of jewelry, after the wedding, they will disappear without a trace.

After discovering this, Hua Yue couldn't believe it.

What debt did the kings owe to the queen? Unexpectedly, every generation of the king would use all his savings to hold the wedding.

The kings, who have always lived a life of a knight, are only extravagant and wasteful at this wedding, which is not in line with the impression they give to the people.

It was not until the leader of the Starwing Knights, who was serious enough and careful enough, began to thoroughly investigate everything about the queen, that the royal family's great lie was revealed.

No, maybe it's not a lie.

The royal family has never said that these dowries, including the cost of the wedding, are the life savings of the kings.

Because this is the wedding of the king and queen. All the expenses are consumed in the name of the "wedding".

Even if Hua Yue tells the truth, no one will believe it, let alone it is not a crime.

All the kings of the past are willing to do it.

Including Yun Xi, he also took the initiative to approve all the wedding expenses without any hesitation.

The water in it is too deep to see the bottom.

"There is a problem... the problem is too big..." Asked Mumu about the information about the queen's family, she still got nothing useful information, Hua Yue affirmed again.

There is a plot!

All the weddings of kings have problems!

After spinning the cocoon, Hua Yue found that all the roots can be traced back to the first king of the kingdom.

He is known as the ancestor of the royal family and the bravest knight.

He was such a perfect king, naturally, when he first announced that he would marry a queen who had never been seen, he had encountered numerous objections.

This was also the first king's wedding in the history of the kingdom to be opposed.

For those who objected, the powerful knight chose to suppress and beat all the subordinates who showed their objections, and finally married the mysterious queen in the dispute.

This custom lasted for three successive generations of kings.

When the nobles realized that it was impossible to reverse the kings' strange behavior, they finally accepted it.

As time goes by, the custom of the king marrying the mysterious queen has naturally become the tradition of the kingdom until now.

“Sure enough... this is not normal...”

“This kind of wedding... it’s not right!”

After discovering the truth of history, the leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue made up her mind.

She wants to change this history and accomplish what the nobles failed to accomplish.

Chapter 699: Night Raid

“There is only one truth.”

Hua Yue made up her mind. Put down all the records about the mysterious queen that can be found.

No matter what the price is, she will stop the wedding.

This is not only for herself, but also for all of the girls of the Starwing Knights, and also for this kingdom.

She is not against the prince’s marriage, and even can accept that the bride is not herself, but only this “White Moon” can not be the bride.

After investigating the final records of the kings, she found a very frightening fact.

All kings were not able to die a natural death.

As if suffering from some terrible curse, no king died in his boots, and the oldest of all kings had only lived for 60 years.

The average lifespan of kings is only in their forties, and the longest in office is only a few decades.

It's not normal. It's absolutely not normal.

Every generation of the king is a powerful knight, and will inherit the god weapon "Holy Vengeance", which represented that all kings were at the hero rank and were recognized by the god weapon.

It is impossible for a hero-ranked knight to get sick at all. Their vitality can be more than 100 times that of ordinary people. Even if a hero ranked person's heart is penetrated, he will not die immediately.

No hero ranked people would be killed with a single blow unless you cut off his head.

It's not normal that most of such powerful kings are so short-lived.

Although human beings are not immortal, they can surpass the life limit of human beings when they reach the hero rank.

For example, the Queen of Assyria, it's not surprising that she has lived for thousands of years. In the existing records of hero ranked knights in the kingdom, there are several masters who have been active for more than a century.

It's almost like being cursed that none of the hero ranked kings can live to be more than 60 years old!

It's an unknown secret about the king's final death. It seems that at a certain stage, the strong king will start to age quickly. From the high spirited middle-aged appearance, they will quickly become an old man.

Once the symptoms of rapid aging appear, there is no medicine to work as a cure, and they will die in a few years.

During this period, the appointed prince will assume the responsibility of the king. When the king dies, the prince will hold a moonlight ceremony, marry the mysterious queen, and become the new king.

Everything is like a reincarnation, starting from the first king and continuing to this prince.

"How could there be such a thing..."

"The prince will die early if he marries the queen?"

"How cruel is the fate of the royal family?" Hua Yue felt that her heart was beating faster and faster, and her breath was also getting shorter.

How could this happen? She would never allow her loved ones to come to such a tragic end.

I must cut off this reincarnation, no matter what kind of price I have to pay!

“It’s a tragedy to kill your father and marry your mother.” Yun Xi laid on the empty big bed.

This is the king’s bedroom, where all the kings sleep alone.

No king allows his lover to step in here. Only royal augurs who know the truth can enter this room to clean and decorate.

As for the interest of the kings, well, it is clear at a glance.

Looking up, you can see a picture of the young queen of Assyria in a white wedding dress.

Turning around, there is a lamp with a pattern of ancient Assyria.

On the wall, there are paintings of the young queen of Assyria with different ages and angles.

Well, I know you all like her majesty, but don’t go too far!

It can be seen that these paintings and murals contain the most burning feelings in the hearts of the kings, and at the same time, they also bear the traces of their degeneration.

Without exception, at the bottom of these portraits, there are striking spider remains and human faces.

Under the blood moon, the Hua Yue made up her mind. Her faces are indistinctly fused with spiders, presenting a very strange painting style.

Compared with the perfect Queen of Assyria, the ugliness of these spiders forms a sharp contrast, which even more sets off the purity of the young queen.

So this room can't be shown to anyone.

There are too many curses and craziness in it. Only the royal bloodline who can bear the curse and bear the tragic mission can be entitled to become a "prince", so that after the previous king becomes a sacrifice, the mission of the royal family can be continued.

Of course, none of this has anything to do with Yun Xi.

Looking at this strange painting style, he just sighed at the great heart of the kings, and then put on the quilt to sleep.

Today, I'm really tired.

Two days before the wedding.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

The murmur from the Red Crescent echoed in Yun Xi’s ear. It was the voice that all kings would hear. It originated from the curse of the original vow of the bloodline.

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

There seemed to be other voices.

A girl in pajamas slipped into the room.

This king’s room had a very special guest.

The cursed breath on the mural seems to be sluggish in the group, looking at the uninvited guest at a loss.

“Dad.” While the queen was sleeping, the cute little puppet came to Yun Xi’s ear and said the magic word.

“Er... Who? Yun Xi opened his eyes vaguely and reached out his hand to hold the girl skillfully.

This feeling, Mumu? Or Lu Lu?

The hands and feet are very thin, which is not the same as the full and fleshy feeling of Ling Ling, but also different from the gentle and moving curve of Hua Yue.

I feel very familiar with this outline...

“Guess who I am...” The girl tightly squeezed the skirt corner of her pajamas.

Ah, it’s like a dream. Is this the reward of the night raid?

“The fragrance of hair... what a good smell...”

If I feel so familiar, it should be one of my brides.

Well, Yun Xi’s intuition told him that the answer seemed to be right.

Chapter 700: Who is the Girl?

In the Water God's world, Yun Xi married millions of brides.

In the days when he stayed in the Water God's world, as the "apostle of the Water God", he learned a lot of knowledge that would not be taught in textbooks, but brought by the passionate brides.

For example, Lamia girls are very fond of getting tangled. The brides of the Mermaid race share a surprisingly common interest. In contrast, most of the human girls are shy and timid. There are too many brides, which makes him often confused about who is with him at night. He can only tell the race by his general feeling.

Because there are so many brides, and many of them are petite, Yun Xi subconsciously forgot that he had left the Water God's world and took the girl who sneaked into his quilt as one of them.

So who is it? Smelling the familiar fragrance of hair, his hand stroked the soft hair all the way down, pinched the mysterious girl's ear.

It's not sharp, so it's not the dark elf, Black Obsidian.

The first experience is always unforgettable. The night, the canyon, the first blood and cry under the tree are memories that Yun Xi will never erase.

She always comes quietly, and then walks away quietly. Besides leaving a reflection in the mist soul army, he can't keep up with her.

Her destiny line with Yun Xi intersects by chance, and then separated.

He will never forget the outline of her ears. It's sharp and will spring up with a little pinch. It's a wonderful and lovely shape. It's the characteristic of the elves.

He crossed out an unforgettable name, and began to continue the game of "guess who I am".

If it's not Black Obsidian, is it Mumu?

However, the taste seems not the same. His hand continues down and pinches the mysterious girl's face.

Mumu's skin has a very unique feel. It's soft and tender when gently pinched, but it will spring up with a little effort. He will not forget that Mumu is a child with the godlike talent of "the Diamond Body".

That seemingly weak girl's body, once it erupts into real power, it will be as unstoppable as the eruption of a volcano.

How strong is the Diamond Body? It has been shown vividly when fighting against the degenerated king.

If the degenerated king didn't sacrifice all his wisdom and human nature, he could have killed the degenerated king just by using the Diamond Body.

So, despite Mumu's harmless appearance, her real combat ability is very strong.

Well, it's much softer than Mumu. It's not Mumu.

His hands continued to move down, brush the mysterious girl's lips, and then slide onto her neck.

Such a slender and lovely neck is a rare example even among millions of brides. The goal in his mind is reduced by 99% in an instant.

Even so, the number of millions of brides is still a huge base, and even after 99% is removed, there are still thousands of girls in line with this proportion.

Considering that the flavor of hair can be brought by some kind of magical perfume, his hands can only continue to explore downward and continue to reduce the number of targets with the elimination method.

Stupid as he is, he can only guess the name of his petite bride in such a simple and understandable way.

Some hazy names began to emerge in his mind.

Is she Esther Elizabeth? Her height seems to be in line with that of this girl.

The problem is, the contour of the chest seems to be wrong.

She couldn't be her.

The elimination method continues.

If she isn't Elizabeth, can she be Little Princess Lamia?

Lamia Gorgon Feya, the youngest child of the Lamia race, who has just turned 100.

But if she's Feya... his feet extended out a little, but they didn't meet the smooth snake tail he expected.

No, it's not the youngest Lamia princess nor any other Lamia girls.

Moving his toes close to the girl's toes again, stick them together with the mysterious girl's feet, and feel the warmth of each other's fragrant soft arch, the smoothness of the instep, and the curvature of the shell-like toes.

All of a sudden, all of the suspects disappeared in his mind.

There can only be one truth!

This scale, this softness, this outline of the chest!

The answer, all of a sudden, came out.

After eliminating all the impossibilities, no matter how inconceivable the answer is, it is the final positive solution.

This is a way of thinking, that even monkeys can't get it wrong!
