

Starchild 701

Chapter 701: White Moon is Staring at You

She is the bride!

He gave her soul and prayed that she would be the happiest bride in the world!

The Queen of Assyria, sleeping under the bloody new moon and on the throne of a giant stupid spider, the girl's body completely reproduced by him with his godlike puppeteer skill.

"White Moon?" Yun Xi smelled the familiar fragrance and murmured the real name of the perfect puppet he created.

"Yes..." White Moon came quietly to him, held his arm tightly, and her body was almost completely attached to him.

"Can't sleep because of nervousness?" He gently stroked White Moon's head.

He didn't realize who was in his arms at the moment. He thought she was the Queen of Assyria suffering from the common anxiety disorder before marriage.

"It doesn't matter. It's just a simple wedding."

"Didn't the kings marry you like this?"

Yes, for him, it's just a vow called "wedding".

He has accomplished 100% of the most important tasks that the kings need to undertake in their weddings, hasn't he?

The queen is very satisfied with White Moon.

He couldn't see it. When he said the word "wedding", White Moon showed a jealous look and looked dismissive when he talked about "kings".

Dad is White Moon's Dad. No one can take him away, including mom!

Even if she is the same as her mom, but, she is the only soulmate who was made by her father.

She has talent and characteristics that even her mother does not have. When she grows up, she will be more beautiful and perfect than her mother.

So, Dad will choose her, just as if the whole world is in front of her, she will only choose Dad.

For her, Dad is more important than the world.

"Are you satisfied with your body?" Because it's a creation of his own, he didn't have any strange ideas when he held the body in his arms.

“Yes, I like it.” White Moon was immersed in the intimate interaction with her father, making a lovely whisper.

The place touched by Dad’s hands is very comfortable, just like an electric current is swimming through her.

The feeling of crispness and numbness spread from fingertips to toes, even every hair is making a joyful sound.

As a figure with a soul, even White Moon’s hair has a sense and can be used as a weapon.

This is a talent that even the Queen of Assyria does not have. Even if the queen can perfectly synchronize with White Moon, she can’t do such a thing.

“Very well, your body is very special.”

“Don’t worry about if the body will become obsolete as time goes by, because your body can fix itself.”

This is another thing that Yun Xi should be proud of. His first puppet, perhaps because of its soul, naturally has eternal characteristics.

Her body has the characteristics of moonlight branches. As long as bathed in the moonlight, it can slowly absorb the power of the moonlight, showing a warm and white luster.

The body blessed by moonlight will not be weathered, eroded by microbes anywhere, or even approached by mosquitoes.

Beyond the living beings of the world, White Moon was born with the characteristics of “eternity”. If a girl is compared to a beautiful flower, White Moon is the flower that never withers.

For Yun Xi, this is the only flower in the world he cultivated, the miracle of arts.

Even he himself is surprised that he made such a perfect puppet, such a miracle.

When he carved White Moon’s body with moonlight branches as the main material, Yun Xi even felt that he had opened a forbidden door.

Well, it must be a delusion.

“Pafu!” Pafu, who slept with him, jumped on White Moon’s shoulder, made an appreciative sound, and directly penetrated into the collar of White Moon’s pajamas, finding the warm place to be her own bed.

“Is a wedding happy?” White Moon gently bit Yun Xi’s fingers.

She likes her father’s hands very much. It’s the flexible fingers that created her from scratch and let her be born.

From the fingertip to the finger seam, every detail of these hands is engraved on her heart, which is the memory that existed before birth, playing the magic song of the soul.

“If you feel happy... that will be better...” Yun Xi could only avoid talking about this issue.

After all, marrying a seemingly underage queen is like committing a crime.

“Of course, I’m very happy...” White Moon’s eyes were full of sadness and jealousy.

She shares the same consciousness with the Queen of Assyria, she naturally knows it.

The Millennium Queen, who can only wait alone under the bloody new moon, has a body that can really move in the sun, beloved and blessed.

She can’t give up, and can’t imagine the future without this hope.

The queen can’t go back to the past. White Moon knows this better than anyone else.

White Moon is the daughter of the Queen of Assyria, and also the hope of the Queen of Assyria.

White Moon, in fact, doesn’t really hate the queen. Without her, White Moon wouldn’t be born into this world.

If the other half of my mother is not my father, I will be my mother’s lovely daughter!

But that's not allowed.

I won't allow it to happen!

Because Dad belongs to White Moon, he is the property of White Moon!

Chapter 702: Child Loved by the Abyss

Holding Yun Xi's hands and feeling his temperature, White Moon's eyes became firmer.

Anything else can be allowed, but no, only this position is absolutely not allowed to be taken away by anyone.

Even if it's mom, it's the same.

After coming here, hiding her identity and enjoying her father's love and gentleness, White Moon was irresistibly fond of it.

Only by her father's side can her soul be sublimated.

There is no need to go anywhere but here.

Mom, I'm sorry. White Moon is actually a bad girl.

Even if the world is used as a sacrifice, White Moon will realize her wish.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

In the old secret room of kings, there was a disturbing whisper again. It was the temptation from the blood moon, a nightmare that none of the kings could escape.

“It hasn’t given up...” He listened to the melody and felt both funny and annoying. He had almost regarded it as a lullaby.

“Don’t worry...” White Moon showed a mysterious arc on the corner of her mouth, which was a very dangerous smile.

She can do what her mother can do, and is better than mom.

Compared with the Queen of Assyria, her soul has a higher level. Even if she faces the abyss directly, she will only reflect the dark scenery of that abyss.

When Mortals, even heroes, gaze into the abyss, they are also gazed at by the abyss.

However, the perfect puppet will only reflect the truth of the abyss like a mirror.

The mirror will not degenerate.

Because the world reflected in the mirror is not real.

White Moon is such a special mirror that can become the saint of light or the devil of the abyss.

Because of the influence of the queen and the nature of the Forgotten Ruins, she has begun to evolve towards the direction of the dark witch, but will not be eroded by the curse of the blood moon, and will not go on the same road as the Queen of Assyria.

If we regard the power of the abyss as a virus that can erode and destroy everything, the people who accept the power will inevitably fall into the abyss themselves, just like the Queen of Assyria.

However, White Moon was born with a soul and an eternal body that would not be destroyed by any curse.

She can be the carrier of the abyss, but she is perfectly immune to the curse of the abyss, just like human beings who are completely immune to the virus, and is the favorite seed of the abyss.

She will not be eroded by the power of abyss, nor judged as an evil unit. She is immune to all divine forces, but she can perfectly carry more abyss power than normal creatures.

Her talent is so incredible.

If she enters the abyss, she can become a witch who carries the fire of the abyss.

If she goes to heaven and puts on the woven holy clothes, she can become the child of the glorious god of holy light.

Both light and dark are optional camps for White Moon.

She can even take the initiative to switch her identity between these two camps, and at the same time exist as the dark witch and the glorious child of God.

The problem is that there is not a camp of the god of holy light in this world.

Yun Xi himself is a swordsman, and his teacher is Casina the Battle God. Both of them have nothing to do with the holy light.

To put it bluntly, there is only Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights, whose White Golden Rose Bloodline has the power of the holy light.

If White Moon was born in this camp, she would probably become the king of knights.

Unfortunately, her mother was the Queen of Assyria who fell on the night of the blood moon.

White Moon has mastered the secret of the blood moon from the moment of her birth, and is favored by the power of the abyss.

He was inspired by the Queen of Assyria to create White Moon, so White Moon was born to be a child favored by the power of the abyss.

As at this moment, she walked into the king's room cursed by the power of the blood moon without any hindrance.

Compared with the Queen of Assyria who was captured by the blood moon, White Moon has a higher level of treatment.

Her every breath and every blink of an eye after she woke up would attract the attention of the abyss.

In order to lure White Moon to the abyss world, the whispers of the ancient god constantly reverberate in her soul, thousands of times stronger than that of Yun Xi's.

For White Moon, who can hear these whispers all the time after her birth, this is just a lullaby that she is used to.

The eternal soul never degenerates because of these whispers.

White Moon was born with the gift of the abyss walker.

She steps into the abyss, into nightmares, but will not be swallowed by the abyss and the nightmares.

On the contrary, the abyss will open the door for her, and the king of nightmares will smile for this eternal flower.

This is the most precious gift he gave to White Moon.

“If You really want me to be your spokesperson... ” At a realm that he couldn’t perceive, White Moon was in some crucial negotiation with the endless darkness around him.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

A blood moon rose from the dark abyss, which was the root of the fall of the Queen of Assyria, the one behind all the miseries of the world’s historical trajectory.

For White Moon, the blood moon even came to this world with parts of its power.

It is the king of the abyss.

It’s the monarch of the nightmare world.

In different worlds, it has different names.

Some people regard it as a shortcut to the root, sacrificing millions of creatures just to let it come to the world.

Some people worship it and praise it as an ancient moon god. Every blood moon day is the biggest sacrifice.

In the endless years, it has long been one of the biggest mysteries.

Human beings can not even say its real name, or even see its real body.

Only a very few chosen sons can accept its power, just like the Queen of Assyria. They can still keep a clear mind and not go mad after degenerating.

But compared with White Moon's noble soul, which never degenerates or corrodes, even the Queen of Assyria is far inferior to her.

It is waiting for a historic moment.

It will satisfy White Moon's wishes, no matter how capricious those wishes are.

“My condition is... let dad and I love each other.” White Moon gazed at the blood moon, the ruler of the abyss, one of the kings of nightmares, and said her wish.

“Ga!”

The huge blood moon showed a very strange shape, looking like a flattened potato.

Chapter 703: The Prince who Secretly Lef

Morning, strange ceiling, warm big bed.

The Queen of Assyria opened her dim eyes as if she had not recovered from her brief sleep.

For the queen, it's too luxurious to sleep comfortably, or even to dream.

From the moment she fell into the blood moon, there was only cold, dark, and sinking abyss with the queen.

In order to fight against the endless darkness, she entered long sleeps over and over again. Even so, she can not avoid the cold abyss.

The queen's dream has always been a nightmare.

Every time she opened her eyes, she saw only that round blood moon.

Time has been frozen forever in the queen's body.

Until now.

“Good morning.” Yun Xi stretched out and kissed the bride beside him on the forehead.

“Ah... Isn't it a dream?” The queen's little face turned red.

Since when did the nightmare disappear?

Open her eyes and see the familiar face and feel the warmth.

Happiness is a too intoxicating poison.

She had only come out of the underground lake one day and one night, but the Queen of Assyria could not imagine what would happen if she returned to the darkness again.

Come to the sunshine world, have the body that can move freely, be watched by people, can smile and run freely.

For ordinary people, they are things that they have long been used to, but for the queen, they are so luxurious.

She can't go back anymore. Led by Yun Xi, she walked out of the king's secret room and saw the first ray of sunshine. When she first saw it, she understood.

Ushered in the first ray of dawn, the long night will never be forever silent.

The frozen time of the past thousand years is not as valuable as the person who holds her hand at the moment.

Guide her out of the dark.

Make a perfect body for her.

And will marry her at the coming wedding.

Last night's memory is a little fuzzy, it seems that she was suddenly afraid of sleeping alone, and then desperate to find him, slept beside him?

It's too long, too cold to sleep on the throne of the giant stupid spider.

"Do you want to continue that course?" He felt the warmth of White Moon's small hands. He didn't know if it's his delusion. After getting up, White Moon is more beautiful than at night.

It's a kind of magical charm, and it's a temptation that he can barely control himself.

The thin ankle, soft neck, white skin, and the small spots looming on the chest... It's just a 12-year-old girl's figure. How can it be so alluring?

“Well, there’s a lot more to learn.” The Queen of Assyria lowered her head. When she was fully awake, she was almost too shy to look at his face.

It’s not in line with the rules of a lady to sleep together at night before the wedding!

In her mind, it seems that there are two little people arguing fiercely.

We are going to get married soon. It doesn’t matter even if we sleep together, is the explanation of the seductive little black person.

No, how can an unmarried lady do such shameless things! She has to wait for the wedding night to do it. This is the point of view of the upright little white person.

You’re such a duplicitous guy, you want it, just like I want it, don’t you! The little black person shouted in anger.

Everything needs rules. Attacking at night is not a lady’s etiquette, the little white person didn’t give in.

So, as long as you get married, you can kiss him in the daytime or at night, in the bedroom or in the living room, indoors or in the wild, the black villain shows a sly smile.

Well, that makes sense. OK, the little white angel hesitated and nodded her head in agreement.

He he he, the black villain representing “desire” shows a triumphant smile.

Even so, we still have to abide by the pre-marriage etiquette. We can’t come here before the wedding night, said the little white angel.

Then, the two sides reached an agreement, reconciled, and began to seriously discuss what kind of posture the prince would like.

In yesterday’s lesson, the little black person preferred the posture on the top, while the little white person preferred the posture on the bottom.

Black is a bold and unrestrained color, like get happiness from an “attack”.

White is a sacred and quiet color, likes to cooperate with each other to get happiness.

Both black and white like Yun Xi and are looking forward to the wedding night.

“Whoa, whoa!” Finding that her mind was full of new knowledge learned in the bride course, the queen waved her hands in panic.

“What’s the matter?” He looked at the Queen of Assyria, who blushed like a small red apple.

“I, I went to class!”

At last, the Queen of Assyria couldn't look at Yun Xi's face anymore. After breaking free of his hand, she trotted away.

The shy and lovely expression was just like a little white rabbit who had just escaped from the big gray wolf's mouth.

"It's hard to guess the girl's mind..." he sighed and decided to go out for a walk.

Today is the last day of his freedom.

Starting tomorrow, he and the Queen of Assyria will have to start preparing for the wedding.

The day after tomorrow, they will have to carry out the pledge.

Yun Xi can't imagine how he put on the wedding ring. When he thinks about the scene, he felt as if he was going to commit a crime.

Go outside and have a look around, while it's your last few times of freedom.

By the way, I also need to know how the wedding will affect the kingdom.

In order to fight against the dragon, we have to do more preparations.

Yun Xi did not forget what the main task of this trial was.

Put on the cloak which is often used by the desert tribe and hide his face under the hood of the cloak, Yun Xi secretly left the palace.

Chapter 704: Brown-skinned Girl

The streets were full of crowds.

“To celebrate the prince’s wedding, our clothes are all 20% off, 20% off!”

“40% off, 40% off! Our gem is the best!”

“50% off, welcome to Sam’s weapon store!”

The merchants along the street shouted louder and louder, and put out all the good goods they have.

“Come on! Come on! Guests from afar, beer is free, all free!”

“Bread, hot bread! The first 100 are free!”

“Juice, free juice!”

Normally, this scene could only be seen in the period of the Moonlight Ceremony.

During the Moonlight Ceremony, even the most humble beggars in the city were able to eat and drink for free every day, and they would not be driven out even if they were drunk.

Each king would only hold one such ceremony. In this way, people commemorate the lost king and warmly welcome the birth of the new king.

Now the prince who is about to ascend the throne is known as a rare genius. He led the Starwing Knights to defeat the Desert Dragon Zaka.

The kings of the past were all knights loved by the people, and the king of this generation is no exception. People are looking forward to a brighter era. The Moonlight Ceremony is a festival for people to welcome the new king.

From the moment when the bell rang, all the nobles and businessmen from villages and towns, as long as they were able to come to the capital, had come from all directions.

On the day of the formal wedding, the city will usher in an unprecedentedly grand occasion.

At this moment, the prince walking in the street saw exactly this bustling festival scenery.

“This is really... It’s impossible to repent.” Looking at the bustling streets, the smiles on people’s faces, and the businessmen who gave free gifts everywhere, Yun Xi showed a helpless expression.

It is totally inconceivable that a person’s marriage will have such a profound impact on the whole kingdom.

Even he, who knows nothing about politics, can feel a huge power from people's eyes.

That is to look forward to a new era and a new king, which represents the expectation of the whole kingdom and the imagination of a better future.

People are talking about how the new king will behave when he ascends the throne, whether the dragon will be eliminated by the Starwing Knights, and which ancient family the mysterious queen comes from.

They are all convinced that life will get better and better. They support the new king and warmly expect Yun Xi to ascend the throne.

On the wedding day, they will pay the most gorgeous salute for the birth of the king.

Yun Xi felt the existence of "power" from people's enthusiastic expression and vital eyes.

Perhaps, each of them has a very weak power, but just like a great many grains of sand grouped together to form a pagoda, millions of such single weak power will also form a huge power.

"The People's will..." Yun Xi can't help but think of the mysterious Royal Augur's predicted future.

Kill the father and marry the mother, then control the power of the whole kingdom. With the power of the whole kingdom as the backing, eventually, defeat the evil dragons.

In theory, the royal augur is right.

Thanks to the performance of the kings, as a prince, he naturally has the legal principles and inheritance rights of the kingdom. As long as he married the Queen of Assyria, he could gather the power of the whole kingdom.

“I didn’t expect to experience another Moonlight Ceremony in my lifetime.”

“The previous king has lived a long life. It seems that he is the longest-reigning king of all generations. Let’s drink, to this good king!”

“Yes, to the present prince, to the new king!”

Hearing countless similar voices, he had a deeper understanding of the traditions and customs of this kingdom.

Therefore, when Yun Xi heard a voice, he couldn’t help but be stunned.

“Well, it’s just a fool with a short life.” It was a voice of gnashing the teeth, which seemed out of place in the street full of singing about the wedding.

“That person is...” he looked at the figure. It’s a girl wearing a desert tribal cloak like himself, and she exuded the kind of breath that reviled one to get closer to her.

She is very strong... He instinctively realized that the girl was different from everyone around her.

She just stood there, and the people around her could not help but divide into two parts. No one could get close to her field.

Like the mighty boulder in the torrent, like the blade that separates the sea, she stood proudly in the crowd, but no one could approach her.

There is no doubt that she is very strong, far superior to ordinary people. A mysterious, and powerful girl? He immediately felt interested.

Why does he have no impression of such a strong girl? She is not a member of the Starwing Knights, nor is she any strong person in the record of the kingdom.

She is perhaps one of the strongest people Yun Xi met in this trial.

Her brown skin reminded Yun Xi of his teacher, Casina the Battle God.

Indeed, Teacher Casina was born in a desert tribe. It's said that she is the princess of a tribe.

Of course, as the Battle God and one of the Sky Swords, such an identity is not worth mentioning to her.

From the mysterious girl, he smelled the desert.

Well, since I will fight against the dragon as the king, it is also one of the king's missions to gather all the strength in the kingdom.

I should try to talk to her.

Yun Xi took a deep breath.

"Hum?" At that moment when Yun Xi walked to the girl, the girl immediately noticed his presence and revealed her small dragon tooth.

Chapter 705: Fights the Dragon Again

There is mutual induction between "monsters".

In the past, although Yun Xi had possessed the special ability of the seed system, he could not accurately understand his combat power level due to the short cultivation time.

One of the most important factors is that his reference objects are too abnormal.

The twin witches, White Lotus and Red Lotus.

His childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo.

Yun, who holds their seeds, instinctively takes them as the reference of his own strength.

As a result, he greatly underestimated his own strength.

It was not until the battle with the degenerated king forced him into a desperate situation that he had to break through and liberated the Sky Flying Sword, that he finally made a little affirmation.

I'm not weak. Although I can't compare with Hua Huo, White Lotus, and Red Lotus, I can catch up with them at least.

"Oh... It seems that human beings are not all insects..." He felt the power of the mysterious girl. The mysterious girl also felt the power of Yun Xi not far away.

Now he doesn't have the ability to restrain his breath.

He didn't have time to understand the method of astringent breath engraved in the Battle God's Seed.

Two monsters met in the flowing street.

They were surrounded by people, but people subconsciously took a detour around them.

Wearing the same cape of the desert tribe and having the same powerful breath, there is no doubt that these two people are the same kind or even related by blood in other people's eyes.

Of course, this is a big mistake.

The girl's pupil began to change, and the camouflage was removed. It was a kind of palpitating vertical pupil, just like the eyes of some large predator.

Dangerous and beautiful, this is his feeling for the girl in front of his eyes.

Compared with Teacher Casina, this young girl presents a more vicious atmosphere.

"Do you want to have a fight?" The mysterious girl twisted her neck and licked her lips.

Now, let's kill!

Her blood is boiling.

The dragon's blood is making a warlike sound.

Yes, her real body is the dragon that ravages the world. The Desert Dragon Zaka, one of the four Dragon Shadows!

She came to kill and destroy, and was ready to take revenge on the Starwing Knights and the prince who forced her to retreat.

In order to achieve unexpected results, she turned into a human, put on a cloak to hide her identity, and came to the human city.

The plan is very simple. Wait for the prince to get married. At that time, he will show himself, and she will destroy everything and massacre all the human knights.

Blood for blood!

She wants the prince to know the price of provoking her!

“Yes, but not here. Let’s go out of the city.” He looked at the mysterious girl with a little excitement.

After defeating the degenerated king, he is also eager to know his own strength.

It’s like a kid who gets a new toy for the first time. Anyway, it’s a world of trial. Let’s fight.

“Great.” Desert Dragon Zaka nodded happily.

One on one, that’s the Dragon rule.

That despicable prince doesn’t have the courage to fight with her one on one, so she is so disdainful of him!

Force may not solve all problems, but it can solve your opponent.

When you have solved all your opponents, the problem will not be a problem!

Well, this is the simple outlook on life and the world of Desert Dragon Zaka. It is also a rule that many dragons are used to.

About 20 kilometers away from the city, in the Grand Canyon.

Yun Xi took a deep breath to stabilize his heart rate. The little Battle God's Seed slowly contracted and expanded in his body, releasing the strengthened energy.

The Battle God's Seed can store, compress and strengthen his power, it is like a huge engine running in Yun Xi's body, delivering power to him all the time.

This engine is almost perfect. And there is only a little small problem.

Well, it's not a big problem, because it will only arouse the emotions in his heart, making him more aggressive.

"Hoo..." Feeling the expanding power in his body, Yun Xi's eyes began to burn with flames.

Since acquiring the Battle God's Seed, he has always been bothered by the excess energy. There are not so many places in the world to release the pressure.

Fortunately, there is the trial world, where he can act without thinking about the consequences.

Nothing in this world is true.

“Good, good!” Desert Dragon Zaka also wants to vent her pressure.

One side is the prince who just broke through his combat power limit and got his own god weapon.

The other side is the dragon who is preparing to make a comeback and complete revenge.

Prince vs the evil dragon, the second round, start!

Chapter 706: Thunder Walk

“I will show you what the real rage is...” Zaka licked her lips, and the dust began to swirl under her feet.

In the Grand Canyon, the temperature rose at an amazing speed.

“As expected, she is very strong...” Yun Xi felt as if he wasn’t facing a girl but facing a huge monster.

Stimulated by the Battle God’s Seed in his body, his body temperature was also rising, and the huge blood force was running and roaring in his body like mountain torrents.

Now, even if he wanted to stop, he can’t do it.

Once this combat is started, there must be a winner and a loser!

“Be careful not to be run over by me.” Desert Dragon Zaka sneered.

The dragon’s attack has always been stronger, stronger and stronger.

Even if she becomes a human, Desert Dragon Zaka is also a dragon. Her strength won’t be weakened by this.

“Ha!” There was a trace of gravel on the ground. Desert Dragon Zaka raised her slender finger and made a distant stroke towards him.

“Boom!” A huge fingermark of more than 10 meters long exploded in front of him, which is a strike containing the power of dragon claw. If he was a common hero ranked fighter, he would have been torn to pieces.

Yun Xi’s fearless boxing shows the bullying characteristics of the Hard Body.

You are strong? I’m stronger!

No matter what kind of attack she uses, he will fight back!

This is the essence of the Hard Body!

On the red ground, a punch with a depth of up to 10 meters was blasted, which was the most favorable reply of his to the provocation of Desert Dragon Zaka.

Controlling the consumption to the most accurate level is also the talent given by the Battle God to Yun Xi.

“Oh... my feeling is right.” Desert Dragon Zaka was satisfied to see that he didn’t even step back.

Dragon mother, this opponent is worth a fight!

“Click!” After releasing the most powerful fist in his life, he stepped forward and his blood became more restless.

The Battle God’s Seed runs faster in his body, releasing a steady stream of explosive power.

Speed up! Speed up! Speed up!

Break out! Break out! Break out again!

Releasing the power of the Hard Body!

Just like the sound of thunder, he rushed to Desert Dragon Zaka in an instant, and gave Zaka a left to right spin kick, which hit her arm firmly.

The intense collision of the Hard body and the body.

The dragon body and the Hard Body face to face.

The powers of both sides surprised each other.

How can it be so hard? It's even harder than the degenerated king's armor! – Yun Xi.

Is he really a human being? Is this guy also the incarnation of some kind of monster? – Desert Dragon Zaka.

With her arms raised, Zaka bounced his feet back.

In terms of strength, maybe I'm a little weaker than her!

He was surprised to find that there is actually a girl whose own physical strength is not inferior to the Hard Body.

However, the gap is still within an acceptable range.

This gap in power can be made up through combat techniques.

Taking back his right leg, Yun Xi gathered his whole body's strength into his shoulders, and hit Desert Dragon Zaka's body heavily.

HardStrike!

The girl's strength is even stronger than his, but it seems that she is not used to close combat, which has become her weakness in his eyes.

"Ga!" Desert Dragon Zaka had never fought close combat with her opponent at this distance. Her whole body was knocked back several steps.

What a shame! As a giant dragon, she was knocked back by a human! Although she is in her human shape now, her strength is still a 50-meter-long dragon's strength!

Is this guy's real body a 50-meter-tall giant?

After breaking her balance, he swept her feet without hesitation.

After that, he grabbed Zaka's body as soon as she fell to the ground due to her balance breaking.

In the next moment, a column of black ash and steam rose over the canyon, which was the trace of him dragging Zaka's body forward and tearing the earth.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

“Boom!”

As if there were thunder falling, it was the roar of wild thunder!

With each step, his speed will be faster and faster. This is a skill that can only be formed by the perfect combination of speed, strength, and skill.

“Boom!” Desert Dragon Zaka’s body was swung and hit hard into the front of the cliff at the end of the canyon. The solid cliff was torn apart by her!

Countless boulders rolled and fell from the top of the cliff.

The mountains are falling apart, this is the scenery at this moment.

Different from the long-distance attack skill, Thunder Explode, this is another Hard Body Secret Skill with a different style, which is a ground throwing skill used to completely suppress and smash the opponent – Thunder Walk.

The one-kilometer long track runs through the whole canyon, which is the mark left by Yun Xi after launching this secret skill.

The longer he drags his opponent, the more powerful the final impact will be.

The greater the opponent's resistance is, the stronger the strength of being torn apart is.

Borrow the strength of the opponent, and launch a deadly strike. This is the most terrible point of this secret skill.

Fast as the wind!

Wild like thunder!

Its origin is the terrifying Thunder Monster who only appeared on the night of thunderstorms. People saw its trace left on the ground and imitated it, creating this skill.

So it's called Thunder Walk. It's a unique skill that can only be used by the masters of the Red Steel Genre.

Chapter 707: Sword

"Huh!"

"Ha!"

After performing this secret skill, Yun Xi breathed heavily, and the compressed air in his lungs was released.

Concentrate on it, gallop on the earth like a running thunder beast. Compared with the Thunder Explosion, which is a long-range attack, the Thunder Walk tests the strength and explosive power of the body and has a stronger suppression effect on the enemy.

Destroy the opponent's resistance with crushing momentum.

If you want to use it, you have to be crazy.

"Ka!"

"Ka!"

"Ka!"

Under the ruins of the cliff, which was smashed by him, the earth and the mountains shook, as if there were some huge things turning over, releasing a dangerous atmosphere that can make people tremble.

"Errrrghhh!" That's the roar of Desert Dragon Zaka, that's the roar of the soul frightening dragon.

The small mountain piled up with gravel was shaking violently, and a human figure rose to the sky.

Her clothes were ragged clothes, her arms and long legs were exposed in the air. Obviously, she was dragged for such a long distance, but there were still no scars on the sandy brown skin.

"You did well, it hurt me." Zaka simply pulled off her cape hood, and showed her true face.

She had a long pigtail that looked like a dragon's horn, and a pair of long, pointed ears. No matter the color of hair or the color of the eyes, they look like the color of endless yellow sand. This is the human posture of Desert Dragon Zaka, the overlord of the desert.

It is worth noting that her hands were covered with a pair of black claws. The sharp claw shapes are just as ferocious as dragon claws.

A pair of god weapons? The moment he noticed the black claws, his instinct warned him.

It's a pair of good weapons that can tear up his body easily. He must pay attention to them.

In addition to the claws, Zaka carried a long black sword behind her. The body of the sword was like a huge section of deformed steel, and it also bifurcates a secondary edge which looked like a dragon's horn.

The hilt of the sword is inlaid with a yellow pearl of the same color as her eyes and hair, in which he could see the reflection of endless sandstorms faintly.

Just looking at the sword, Yun Xi can judge that it is a higher level of god weapon than the degenerated king's black flame sword.

The level of the girl in front of him is far higher than that of the degenerated king. Even if the king burns himself to ashes, he can't be a match for her.

The fight just now can't even be called a warm-up for her.

Sure enough, even if he can use the power of the Battle God's Seed, he has just stepped into the threshold of the hero rank. Even a random girl he met in the street is so powerful.

"It's your turn!" At this moment, Zaka was already out of anger.

At her feet, countless sand gathered to wrap her body, and in an instant, a yellow sand giant of more than 10 meters tall was assembled.

Then, imitating his move, she ran into him recklessly.

There is no skill to speak of, and is not at the same level as Yun Xi's Thunder Walk at all.

However, After gaining hundreds of times of weight, Zaka becomes a desert giant. Even just her moving is equivalent to a small natural disaster.

Yun Xi blew and bombarded the body of the yellow sand giant, only scattering about one-tenth of its surface shell. Then he was pushed back by Desert Dragon Zaka.

"Boom!"

The scene just now was almost exactly replayed at this moment. He was overwhelmed by the huge power and he could hardly use any skills in this situation. Once again, he felt a total suppression.

Fortunately, Zaka's head doesn't seem to be smart. She doesn't calculate the route at all and pushed him by brute force. It's not the same thing at all as Yu Xi's Thunder Walk.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

He continuously punched and bombarded the yellow sand giant's body.

"No use! No use! No use!" Zaka shouted excitedly.

The power of gathering dust is Zaka's natural ability. No matter how many times he attacked the sand, it was useless.

I can't break it! Yun Xi also realized this. Bright red blood flowed down from the corner of his mouth, which was a sign of visceral injury.

Zaka's power is not something that the human body can resist. It is just like the brute force of natural disasters.

Only the same force of natural disasters can fight against it!

The force leads to the river of endless time, beyond the power of the world!

Starwings!

In response to his voice, the shadow of the god sword appeared in his hands.

“What’s that!” The moment Starwings appeared, Desert Dragon Zaka felt a great crisis for the first time.

That sword is not right. It’s too weird.

On the transparent sword body, what emerges is a color that can’t be described by words.

When the blazing blade tearing the barriers of time and space and coming to the world, something ineffable seems to have also been summoned.

In the flying wings, Yun Xi waved his sword at Zaka.

The giant’s gravel shell was torn like paper before the airflow released by Starwings.

Spread out the transparent wings, the birds coming from the long river of the time rush to hit Zaka’s body and then burst.

Even Zaka's strong body can't stop the penetration of the indescribable force, and she instantly felt the fatal crisis.

The yellow sand giant didn't last for three seconds. It soon disintegrated and revealed the real body of Desert Dragon Zaka inside.

"Impossible!" Zaka screamed and her right hand stretched back, trying to pull out the spiral sword engraved with dust beads.

Chapter 708: Zaka's Unique Skill

Don't imagine that it is possible!

Yun Xi realized that there might be some terrible power hidden in the sword, he wouldn't give her the chance to use it.

Before Zaka pulled out the sword, he had grabbed her right hand.

Her weakness is close combat, which is the flaw he detected after the fight.

Although he wondered why her physical strength is so strong, her weak point is her close combat technology, he didn't hesitate to take advantage of it.

Without giving Zaka any chance to touch the sword behind her, Yun Xi gave up the chance to use Starwings to attack her, but turned her right hand over and then crushed her to the ground.

For ordinary people, this joint skill has already announced her defeat.

But Zaka's body structure is obviously abnormal. Her right-hand joint was turned over and even made a chilling sound, but she didn't want to give up. She gave her left hand a full blow to the ground and started to roll on the ground.

Yun Xi didn't expect this. Rolling in this situation... does she really want to lose her right hand?

What's more, how can her rolling be so skillful!

With a roar, Desert Dragon Zaka rolled into the deep of the canyon with Yun Xi.

For the first time encountering such a move, Yun Xi grabbed Zaka's right hand, and grabbed her neck and entangled her legs with his legs.

Even so, he still couldn't prevent Zaka's crazy rolling. Even though her whole body can move freely with only the left hand, her rolling is still powerful and crazy.

In the whirling of the sky and the earth, Yun Xi was also rolled with her. If it wasn't because of his Hard Body, maybe he would be killed by her rolling.

Desert Dragon Zaka wants to turn the balance, so she rolls continuously.

Yun Xi must continue to suppress the opponent, so he can only roll together with her.

One person rolling becomes two people's rolling!

"Boom!"

The gravel hill was knocked over by them!

"Bang!"

One side of the canyon was run over by the two people!

It's no use to lock her throat?

He silently looked at Zaka's neck, which looked so thin, but felt like a giant dragon's neck when he tried to choke her. It's totally wrong!

"Hey!" Looking at the hand on his neck, Zaka opened her mouth and bit down.

No human can withstand the bite of a dragon's tooth!

Unfortunately, she forgot one thing.

She is in her human shape. It's impossible for human beings to bite the part under their neck! It goes against the limit of human structure!

So, she just bit the air, plus her own tongue.

“Gawai!” Zaka gave a scream, for the first time, she was bleeding in this battle.

No way to choke her! I have to fight!

He had to give up his plan of choking her. He waved his fist and smashed it on her head.

“Bang!” The effect is immediate. Although Zaka’s physical strength is powerful, her head, to be exact, the part inside the head is not so invincible.

She felt a sharp pain on her head and her sight became dizzy.

It’s effective! He kept smashing after realizing it!

“Ah ah ah!” Her sense of direction was totally confused, and she crazily rolled in all directions on the ground!

They broke through the cliff of the canyon and rolled away into the distance.

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

A quarter of an hour later, with a crash, and the couple fell into the water together.

“Water!”

Zaka made a scream and the strength of her rolling was greatly reduced. Plus the 1356th blow from Yun Xi, she finally fainted.

Desert Dragon Zaka is not good at fighting in water, which is a secret that no one knows.

After all, she is Desert Dragon Zaka, not Water Dragon Zaka.

There is no way to breathe in the water, how can there be creatures living in the water?

Zaka totally doesn't understand this.

The invincible Desert Dragon Zaka on the land is actually a landlubber in the water.

“Guru guru!” Although Yun Xi was exhausted, he still dragged Zaka’s body when he climbed up from the river.

“So hard...” This is his deepest impression of the girl’s head.

His fists were swollen and he still hadn’t defeated the mysterious girl. If she didn’t faint in the water, he had no way to win.

He even doubted whether he was cursed and his attack power had been weakened by 99%.

Yun Xi tentatively punched the river in front of him.

“Boom!” The huge river was cut off halfway, and even some areas had been turned back. This is the power of the Hard Body, which is as unstoppable as thunder.

“Oh, my attack isn’t weakened.” Yun Xi looked at his fist and the mysterious girl’s head. He really admired the defense of her head.

If he didn’t use his god weapon, Starwings, he was afraid that even if she let him punch her, he couldn’t beat her to death. What an amazing vitality this is.

Fortunately, she didn’t pull out the sword in the end, otherwise, she may really be able to defeat him.

Chapter 709: After the Battle

“Hiss!” After the battle, Yun Xi looked at his ragged clothes and took a breath.

His whole body was bruised and there were many small scratches all over his body, as if he had been gnawed by countless ants.

If he didn't have the Hard Body, he probably would have been crushed to pieces by this seemingly petite girl.

In her seemingly weak body, there is the power of a monster.

If there is no such weakness as drowning, she can probably roll on to the other side of the horizon.

"What a monster..." He reached out and pinched the little face of the unconscious girl.

Soft and elastic, it's hard to imagine that this is a body that can withstand a thousand punches of his.

Maybe Soft Water Palm could be more effective? But in the fierce battle, Yun Xi didn't have any chance to switch from Hard Body to the Soft Body.

What's more, if he didn't use the Hard Body, just the rolling would've killed him.

Beautiful and powerful.

Small and dangerous.

This is Yun Xi's impression of Desert Dragon Zaka, and it also makes him misunderstand the combat effectiveness of the hero rank.

Even the degenerated king was extremely difficult to deal with.

The mysterious girl in front of him can withstand the punch from a Hard Body for over a thousand times.

As for the Queen of Assyria, she could kill him thousands of times.

Well, sure enough, he is still weak and needs to work harder!

Well, let's have pity for the prince.

"Purr!"

"Purr!"

"Purr!"

Being surrounded by endless blisters, the feeling that the body is bound and unable to move, the feeling of falling into the endless abyss.

This is the most frightening scene and the last scene Desert Dragon Zaka wants to see.

There are oases in the desert, but for Zaka, whose body is more than 50 meters long, those water sources can't even soak her knee.

For her, the water source in the oasis is not even a puddle.

The feeling of being immersed in the deep water, the despair of unable to move and breathe are the real reasons Zaka feels despair.

She can't swim, and once she enters the water, she will lose the support of the earth's power.

Deepwater is the weakest place for her.

Even if she is a giant dragon, she also needs to breathe!

It may sound like a joke, but it's really a small probability that a dragon would be drowned.

When Zaka opened her eyes and saw the sun again, she even began to feel lucky.

Great! It's not underwater!

If she became the first Desert Dragon drowned in the water... it's the worst thing she could imagine.

Compared with the result of drowning, it is acceptable to be defeated by the opponent.

“You are very strong...” Looking at Yun Xi, who was roasting fish by the river with his upper body bared, Zaka stretched out and didn’t mean to launch another attack.

She lost. The other side did not use intrigue and there was no trap.

Although she didn’t use her strongest trump card, the other side also didn’t use his god weapon.

It’s a one-on-one fight. It’s something that she likes.

It’s the first time in her life that someone could roll with her for so long and so far.

This is the fight she likes. It’s a hot one-on-one fight!

Yes, Desert Dragon Zaka recognized this defeat and even began to look forward to the next battle.

If you want to be friends with a dragon, don’t try to build a friendship or show your kindness. Only when you have the same strength as the dragon, can you have the right to communicate with the dragon.

Zaka didn’t mind human beings at all, in her eyes, humans are just like the small insects in the desert, not worth mentioning.

Human beings don't feel guilty because they run over small insects, and giant dragons don't feel guilty because they trample on human beings.

"You are... a monster." Obviously, Yun Xi won, but looking at the small wounds all over his body, as well as the backache of exhausting physical strength, he didn't show any arrogance as the winner.

"Yes, I am a monster." Zaka didn't take it for granted. She's a dragon that ravages the mainland, naturally, she is a monster.

"You... are you human?" Desert Dragon Zaka approached Yun Xi and smelled his body.

How can he be so strong? It is impossible for a weak human to have his abilities and physical strength!

"Yes... I am a pure human. 100%." Yun Xi did not have the consciousness to become a monster, and also greatly underestimated the power of his Hard Body.

"Hum... don't pretend. If you are not a monster, there are no monsters in the world." With a look of contempt, Desert Dragon Zaka snatched the baked fish from Yun Xi.

"It tastes good." Wearing his tattered clothes, Zaka cheered.

Even though she is afraid of drowning, Desert Dragon Zaka doesn't mind eating fish.

Rather, because she doesn't like water, she prefers to eat aquatic products, especially some species in the deep sea.

For example, squid, squid, squid, and squid.

Chapter 710: Spoils

"Tell me, what do you want?" After eating all the fish Yun Xi grilled, Zaka wiped her mouth and said in a natural tone.

The competition between the dragon and the dragon is bound to decide the winner and the loser.

The winner has the right to make any demands on the loser, and the loser can only accept these demands unconditionally.

Most of the time, the winner's requirements are wealth, territory and so on, and a few of them are other requirements.

The winner is the king, which is the general rule of the dragon race. It is also the rule that is true in the entire endless god's domains.

The winner gets everything.

And the loser loses everything.

Human rights? Morality? The dragons don't mind it.

If you want to be a dragon knight, you have to have the ability to defeat a dragon. Otherwise, the proud dragons will never let people ride on themselves.

The so-called Dragon Knights in the endless god's domains are mostly subspecies such as earth dragons, and bipedal flying dragons. Those who can really obtain a giant dragon as a mount are monsters in the hero rank.

Desert Dragon Zaka is a powerful dragon bred by the real original dragon, the disaster dragon in the desert field.

Yun Xi defeated her in a one-on-one battle, which means he has the qualification to become a real dragon knight.

Even in all the endless god's domains, this achievement is enough to be epic.

Unfortunately, he didn't realize this at all. He thought that he was just lucky enough to win.

"What do I want?" Yun Xi looked blank at her. He just wanted to verify his combat power after obtaining Starwings.

I didn't think about any spoils from the beginning.

"Don't go too far. I'll give you half of my treasure at most." For Desert Dragon Zaka, the treasure collected from the whole continent is her most precious treasure.

No matter what dragon it is, from the weakest white dragon to Yasha the Dragon God, dragons like all kinds of precious treasures.

Diamond, gold, emerald, ruby, sapphire.

A human's god weapon, the essence of stars, all kinds of legacy of mysterious power.

The dragon race has a natural habit of collecting these treasures, which is an incurable habit. Only the good dragons will collect these treasures by proper means, while the evil dragons will rob them by any means.

There is no doubt that Zaka is an evil dragon. When she sees something she likes, she will steal it.

This is her nature. Anyway, human beings in her eyes are ants, do you feel guilty for robbing the gem in the ant nest?

"I don't need treasure." He shook his head. He didn't know how rich the girl in front of him was, but he didn't lack money.

Well, at least in this trial world, he is not short of money.

"Then, do you want my land? My territory can be divided into half of yours." She frowned and began to talk reluctantly.

Her territory has now occupied about a third of the continent. There may be more gems in her territory than in her treasury, but they have not been discovered.

However, the short-lived species do not have the time to excavate minerals and collect gems slowly. Only long-life beings like her can enjoy the process of digging gems.

“No need.” Yun Xi shook his head. He is about to ascend the throne. How can he rob a girl’s money and territory?!

“Why... You want none of them?” For Zaka, this is a very novel experience.

Amongst dragons, apart from treasure and territory, what can be the reason for fighting?

Her face suddenly turned red.

“Do you want to...” From the dragon’s way of thinking, no treasure, no territory, then his intention is...

“You... do you want to marry me?” Zaka stuttered and looked at him in disbelief.

The male announced his power to the female, indicating that he had the ability to breed excellent offspring with the female, and had the ability to protect the wealth and territory of both sides.

This is the general marriage proposal method of the dragon race.

However, the only problem is that most of the time, males can't beat females.

Because of the preference of Yasha the Dragon God, most of the female dragons in the endless god's domains are stronger than the males.

If a male dragon wants to propose to a female dragon by force, the success rate will not be even one-thousandth.

The male dragon is more likely to be favored by the female dragon by showing his wealth and territory.

Yun Xi beat Desert Dragon Zaka and showed his talent and fighting ability. If he is a dragon, he really has the qualification to propose to her.

"Get married..." He can't help but smile bitterly. He is going to get married. Yes, but he is targeting the terrible Queen of Assyria.

Unfortunately, His wry smile is regarded as the smile of acquiescence in Zaka's eyes.

"This... this... well..." Zaka looked left and right, and then seriously thought about whether to accept his proposal.

Probably from birth to now, Desert Dragon Zaka has never had such a complex thought. The temperature of her forehead began to rise in a straight line, and all of them produced steam on her head that could be recognized by the naked eye.

Well, power, good.

Physical fitness, also good.

The fighting skill, in terms of human beings, is absolutely outstanding and superb. Not everyone dares to fight with the dragon.

Lifestyle... it seems that the style of his clothes doesn't look bad.

But... isn't it too fast to propose now? They just met each other not long ago!

Even the Dragon wants to be concerned with love and romance!

Love at first sight... will it really happen in the real world?

With the poor thinking ability of Zaka, it is beyond her comprehension.
