

Starchild 711

Chapter 711: Yun Xi's Requiremen

“Don’t get me wrong, we can’t get married.” Looking at Desert Dragon Zaka, Yun Xi quickly explained.

This is the trial world, not a place to talk about love.

The wedding with the Queen of Assyria is only a “ceremony”, at least, Yun Xi thinks so.

“Then what do you want?” She became more confused.

He doesn’t want territory, treasure, nor proposal, so why did he fight?

“I don’t want any spoils...” He sighs helplessly as he looks at Zaka’s confused face.

Which isolated tribe is this girl from? She is too lacking in some common sense!

“Ah... Then, stay with me for a day. This is the booty I want.” He shrugged his shoulders and said a condition that anyone could simply do.

“I see... I will stay with you for a day.” Her little face turned red instantly as if she misunderstood something.

Well, that’s good. Yun Xi thought it was over, and the other side was really a sensible girl...

Yes, it's too urgent to propose at the beginning. It's better to start with a date.

Zaka looked at him with expectations.

Well, it's a little misunderstanding, based on the difference between the morality of the dragons and that of human beings.

After buying two sets of almost identical desert-style cloaks, he and Zaka once again stepped into the city.

"Haha." She accepted his invitation and put on the desert-style cloak, then smiled like a child.

Isn't this the legendary couple outfit?!

Well, sure enough, they have a good understanding. This is the first step of a perfect date.

He didn't think so much about it. He chose this kind of cloak just because it can hide his identity.

Two people walk together in the street, and the people around will subconsciously separate the way for the two "monsters".

"Why did you come to the capital?" He asked her with curiosity.

“I’m for the prince...” Zaka bit her tongue.

She almost exposed that her intention was to destroy the city.

Well, for the sake of the person beside her, she decided to forgive the ants in the city generously.

But the prince must die!

“My sisters have some interest in the prince.”

Oh, what a perfect topic shift! She cheered for her wit.

“Your sisters are interested in the prince?” Yun Xi had an odd look on his face.

“Yes, they are all interested in the prince and are ready to have a warm exchange with him.”

It’s mainly the interest of killing that prince thousands of times. Haha, it’s a perfect excuse.

“In fact, the king is very popular.” Zaka licked her lips. For thousands of years, the prince was the first person who dared to break into the dragon’s nest.

“Are you interested in the prince, too?” His mouth was twisted.

Sometimes, it’s not a good thing that he is so popular. Has his reputation already spread to the isolated desert tribe?

“Well, I’m interested.” There was a dangerous light in the eyes of Desert Dragon Zaka.

“If that prince comes to my house, he will be treated with the highest hospitality.” She was full of malice.

“Do you really like the prince so much?” Yun Xi looked at Zaka with a strange look.

If her sisters are all monsters like her, they may have the power to fight against the dragon with him.

“Of course, I like him very much.” Zaka showed her tiny fangs. As long as the prince dares to come to the dragon’s nest... oh, she hasn’t decided whether she should steam him, fry him, or eat him with sauce.

Somehow, Yun Xi suddenly had a cold wind behind her.

He looked around doubtfully and found no abnormality.

However, he understood that the girl beside him was admiring the prince very much.

From his point of view, this is just the fantasy of the innocent girl to the so-called “Prince Charming”.

His identity as a prince is purely set by the world background.

He didn’t learn any royal etiquette or have special charming abilities. In fact, he was just the owner of a bakery a few months ago.

Sorry, I’m not the Prince Charming you imagined. He said sorry to the girls in his heart.

After that, he and Zaka began to visit the city.

“What’s that? It looks delicious!”

“How can I eat this fruit?”

“Whoa... It’s delicious. I remember it, this food is called ice cream!”

The tour with Desert Dragon Zaka can be summed up in three words, “eat, eat, eat”.

Yun Xi watched Zaka sweep away a lot of barbecues and fruits. Calculating the amount of food she ate, the size of the food she had eaten is already more than her body size.

How can she eat so much food? Is her stomach linking with a black hole?

Sitting on Zaka's opposite side, he seriously pondered the mystery.

"Ah..." After finishing half of the eighth ice cream, she noticed her image.

"Give you half!" In a hurry, she picked up the spoon and sent half of the remaining ice cream to his mouth.

"Ah..." Yun Xi ate this scoop of ice cream that Zaka sent to his mouth.

Vanilla, sweet taste.

"Well, that should be enough." After feeding him three spoons of ice cream, she continued to enjoy the rest with satisfaction.

Well, she seemed to forget that all the food was bought by Yun Xi.

However, that kind of silly and lovely appearance also makes him feel relaxed.

Contrary to her strong power, Zaka's character is imprudent.

This time with her is like walking with a curious dog, full of joy.

Chapter 712: Martial Arts Competition

In the Starwing Knights, there is also such a bold girl who is always imprudent: Ling Ling, the Secretary of the Starwing Knights.

However, compared with Ling Ling, Zaka gave Yun Xi a kind of non-human feeling and she has monster-like strength.

Apart from him, she doesn't look at anyone, as if they are just ants.

Proud and pure.

Reckless and dangerous.

Her eyes are full of inhumane atmosphere, but when she ate ice cream, her eyes squinted with sweet happiness, as if they were going to melt.

She's so lovely.

He looked at Zaka, who was eating the 10th ice cream, and smiled.

When he stayed with her, all the pressures and troubles flapped away from his heart.

He has been missing this feeling for a long time.

By the way, her feelings for Yun Xi are similar to his first love, his invincible childhood sweetheart, Hua Huo.

If Hua Huo didn't meet him in her childhood, maybe her temperament will also be the same as Zaka's?

Looking at her, he seems to see another possible posture of Hua Huo in the parallel world.

It's really strange. It's their first time for them to meet, but just watching her eating ice cream like this could make him feel happy.

At the same time, Zaka's angel.

Ice cream is delicious! It's amazing that such wonderful food was invented by human beings.

I just wanted to have a big fight at this prince's wedding. If I could kill the prince, it would be better, now it seems that I need to add another goal – eat enough.

Well, for the sake of those human beings who can make such wonderful food, I may need to recruit some human beings to make delicious food for me every day.

Strange, why does he look at me like this?

What's strange about the way I eat? I just ate such little food. Isn't he out of money?

She licked her lips and tentatively asked Yun Xi, "I can pay if you don't have enough money."

"No, I just think you look lovely when you eat ice cream." He replied with a smile. In this world, money is just a number for him. He never needs to worry about this in this trial world.

"Ok, let's eat!" She ordered a lot more ice cream, smiling happily.

It took about a minute before she realized what he had said.

Lovely!

Is that about her?

The tyrannosaurus dragon, which dominates the desert and will only bring fear and despair to people!

She never imagined that as a dragon, she would one day be said to be lovely.

This, this is really too shameful!

"Ah... Woo..." The delicious ice cream has another special taste in her mouth now.

It's the sour and sweet taste that she had never felt, which does not belong to any taste system.

In the dragon's nest, the green light reappeared on the head of the giant dragon.

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

“Shuffle!”

One flash, two flash, three flash. It was expected to take some time to hatch the blue ice dragon egg, but now, the eggshell began to become thinner and thinner at the speed visible to the naked eye.

Even the outermost part of the eggshell has begun to crack.

The same changes have also occurred in the fire dragon egg and the black dragon egg.

“Delicious!” After eating about 30 ice creams, tasting all the flavors of ice cream in this shop once, Zaka finally put down the spoon with satisfaction.

It's not that she can't eat anymore. Compared with her huge true body, even if she eats all the desserts in this shop, she won't even feel full.

What makes her satisfied is the unforgettable taste, as well as the strange feeling of being watched by Yun Xi.

In other words, it wasn't ice cream that filled her belly, but something else.

Sometimes, it takes a lifetime to understand a person.

Sometimes, it only needs a date in the dessert shop.

"It's really similar..." Looking at Zaka, who was greatly satisfied by the ice cream, Yun Xi naturally came up with Hua Huo in his mind.

The more he watched her, the more similarities he could find.

"Where to go next?" She naturally extended her hand. Once she recognized each other, she would not care too much about physical contact.

"Hum... let's take a walk." Yun Xi doesn't have a fixed destination either. In the end, it's just a free trip before marriage. It's a day off for him.

"Then go to the martial arts competition." She excitedly called out her destination this time.

"Martial arts competition? What is that?" Yun Xi knew little about this kingdom's traditions, so he asked and looked at Zaka.

“It’s a very interesting competition. In order to celebrate the prince’s wedding, all the martial artists come from all over the kingdom. Let’s go! Why don’t we also register and enjoy it?!”

Beat down all the human beings in this kingdom by using her human shape, there is no more enjoyable activity than this!

“Hey, wait!” He was pulled by her all the way to the big arena on the west side of the city.

Before arriving at the arena, Yun Xi heard the voices of people.

“Come and sign up soon. The martial arts competition will begin soon!”

“There are many experts participating in this event. This is a once-in-a-century event!”

“If you bet now, you’ll get rich overnight. Come on, this is the latest odds!”

“The number one player is Xiao Cao, deputy leader of the Starwing Knights. She is recognized as a superhero ranked martial artist!”

“The second most popular player is the mysterious elf mercenary, Lvluo!”

“The third favorite is Prince Quran, the descendant of the Assyrian royal family. Although he is not the real prince, he has royal blood!”

“Who will be the champion knight? Everything will be revealed today!”

Chapter 713: Moving Forward, Zaka!

“Join in, join in, let’s join in, and then have a big fight!” Looking at the large arena where the crowd gathered and feeling the cheers of tens of thousands of people, Desert Dragon Zaka became particularly excited.

Dragons are born strong.

As a strong dragon, she has the responsibility to declare her own strength.

Strong! Let everyone know! Famous!

In this way, many intelligent races will automatically come and pledge allegiance to the dragons.

As long as you are strong enough, you can make all laws and override all laws.

All the gems in her territory are hers.

All the human beings in her own territory are also hers.

All belong to the powerful dragon.

Why does she ravage the land? Because she wants to turn the land into the territory of the dragons.

The last kingdom of mankind and the witch tribe in the forest are the last two stones blocking the way of the dragon's conquest.

Conquer these two stones, and the whole continent will become the kingdom of dragons.

Desert Dragon Zaka will rule the desert areas in the west.

Ice Dragon Zaka will become the master of the frozen earth in the north.

Fire Dragon Zaka will wear the crown of the oriental mountains.

Black Dragon Zaka will be the overlord of the marshes and the whole underground world.

The four Zakas are the four heavenly kings born from the power of the original dragon and the masters of the Dragon kingdom.

Now, Desert Dragon Zaka has completed the rule of the whole western desert region, half of the eastern region, half of the southern region, and the whole northern region.

On the whole continent, only the last kingdom of mankind, and some tribal areas in the southern forest area still have resistance.

The age of the dragon has come. This is the general trend of the world.

In the region ruled by Desert Dragon Zaka, many intelligent races have surrendered to the great original dragon and declared to be the people of the Dragon kingdom.

Desert Dragon Zaka alone almost completed 70% of the great cause of continental conquest.

When the second, the third and the fourth Zaka hatch from the eggs, dragons will rule the sky and earth.

This is the era of the dragon. Human beings are going to be desperate. The dragon war has come to an end.

In the eyes of Zaka, humanity's resistance is futile. If it wasn't for the prince and the Starwing Knights, a few days ago she alone could break through the capital and defeat the last kingdom among the mountains in the east.

"Champion Knight Competition."

"The one who gets this honor will become a noble recognized by the kingdom."

"One king will only award one champion knight, which is the highest honor of the knights of the kingdom."

Yun Xi read the rules of the competition word by word, and finally knew where the competition came from.

In the tradition of the Moonlight Ceremony, the first king held a martial arts competition for knights. Later, not only knights, but also other classes could participate freely. It was the highest level martial arts competition used by the kingdom to attract talents and declare its own force.

The winner will get the honor of “Champion Knight” and become a nobleman directly.

If the Champion Knights are willing to pledge loyalty to the king, then the Champion Knights will directly join the king’s Knights and have their own fiefdoms.

If they don’t want to be a knight in the army, the champion knights can get a fiefdom, but the fiefdom will be recycled by the kingdom after their death.

For the knights from the Royal Palace, to be the Champion Knight is the fastest way to become the leader of the king’s Knights. Half of the leaders of the king’s Knights are winners of the Champion Knight Competition.

For those who like freedom, the title of Champion Knight also has a strong temptation, which is basically equal to being recognized by the Kingdom as the strongest knight, and they can also be rewarded a fiefdom that can continuously provide benefits.

As a result, the Championship Knight Competition has become a part of the king’s enthronement ceremony, which is held the day before the wedding and accepts the application of all people who think they can win.

In addition to Xiao Cao, he also saw the names of many members of the Starwing Knights in the list of applicants. In addition to Hua Yue, who is already the leader of the Starwing Knights, it seems that most of them came to the competition.

“OK, the registration is finished!” With Yun Xi packed into the almost impenetrable crowd, Zaka and Yun Xi finally registered their names before the deadline.

She and Yun Xi use pseudonyms because they don’t want to expose their true identities.

Zaka’s registered name is Zaro.

And the pseudonym she registered for Yun Xi is Shaheen.

They were common names of the desert tribes.

Looking at them holding each other’s hands and standing close to each other, everyone would think they are a couple in love, even Zaka herself has this feeling.

“Shaheen, we must win!”

“We will be champions!” Desert Dragon Zaka proudly raised her right hand and made a gesture of “V”.

Hey, isn’t this bullying?!

Without god weapons, no one can even break your defense!

Yun Xi stared at her.

“It’s OK. I’ll control my power, until we meet in the arena and have another fight!”

“If you can still win this time,” she stuck out her tongue and made a face, “I will do what you ask!”

What will I ask? I just want you to accompany me for one day. Aren’t you well done now?

Yun Xi looked at her, who suddenly got excited for no reason.

“Let’s move, our legend is about to start, Shaheen!” Like the hero in the books, she proudly held up her chest:

“The second round will start from here!”

Hey, who said that I will play the second round with you?!

Yun Xi was reluctantly led by Zaka towards the preparation area of the arena.

Yes, this battlefield is getting me high and getting me excited.

Now, I have a feeling that I can do everything!

Desert Dragon Zaka is convinced that she is invincible today!

So go ahead, Zaka!

Chapter 714: When the Battle Is Going On

This session of the Champion Knight Competition was hailed as the highest level in the history of the kingdom.

Xiao Cao, the most popular candidate, is recognized as the number one in the Starwing Knights.

Maybe she is inferior to Hua Yue in team battles, but when it comes to one-on-one combat, no one can dare to say that they are stronger than her.

The second most popular candidate is Lvluo, the strongest mercenary in the whole kingdom. As the only elf in this world, his strength is unpredictable.

Just in time, Yun Xi also knows who Lvluo is. He is the beautiful elf who he once met outside the White Lotus Sword Palace, a mysterious elf from the Western God's domain.

His real name, oh, Yun Xi remembered that it is Kingfisher. He's the first elf he met in the real world, who has a beauty beyond race and gender.

The last one, well, Yun Xi is also known.

Quran, a transfer student from a remote god's domain.

These three people all have the strength to become the champion knight.

However, there are monsters in this Championship Knight Competition.

It's a monster that can crush everything with her physical strength. She has not even pulled out the god weapon she carries.

Yun Xi, just looking at her, he can almost imagine that this mysterious girl swept her opponent all the way to win the competition with overwhelming strength.

As for the fact that he is also a monster... it is naturally forgotten selectively by him.

In fact, it's the same as he inferred.

"Oh!" Quran brandished his black threaded long lance and skillfully stirred up his opponent, and then smashed his opponent to the ground.

"Bang!" Accompanied by the sound of broken bones, this blow makes his opponent completely lose his combat effectiveness.

It's this feeling! It's this momentum! Quran raised his long lance high with excitement!

As the great dark fury beast, bloodthirsty hunter, it's never a problem for him to be the champion knight.

Only that elf is qualified to be his opponent.

He will create his own hero legend here!

He will become a more powerful hero than that prince. He will kill the dragon, marry the princess and achieve the peak of his life!

The elf hung the sharp bowstring on his opponent's neck and announced with a soft voice.

"It's over! You lose!"

"So fast..." The knight in heavy armor failed to capture the elf's figure from the beginning to the end. His sword and shield were totally vulnerable to the elf's elegant attack.

This battle, from the beginning to the end, took only ten seconds.

Looking at the elf's breathtaking face, the knight suddenly put down his sword, knelt on one knee, and sent a bold message to the beautiful elf,

"Marry me, and I will give you all I have!"

Lvluo showed a helpless expression. He had met too many similar scenes.

"I'm not a female!"

"Ah... How could..." The knight gaped at the elf's sharp ears, slender figure, and the beautiful face that enchanted all living beings.

How could such a beautiful person be a man!

"I'm sorry, you should leave." Kingfisher waved his longbow and directly beat the knight down the challenge arena.

Why do humans always make the same mistakes?

"Ooo... I must have drawn fake lots!" A girl in white deerskin armour looked at her opponent. She only wanted to cry at this moment.

As a member of the Starwing Knights, she clearly knew that she had no chance to win this opponent!

Xiao Cao, the deputy leader of the Starwing Knights, and the first genius of the Starwing Knights!

Apart from Hua Yue, all the other members have been beaten up by this extraordinary deputy leader for many times in training.

“I’ll be gentle.” Xiao Cao nodded first, then held the god weapon in her hand with a charging gesture.

“Shuffle!” With a flashing light throughout the arena, she solved the battle in one second.

“Deputy leader, that’s not gentle at all!” The girl who had been beaten to fly in the sky cried before landing.

In the penultimate round, Desert Dragon Zaka’s turn finally started.

“At last!”

Zaka licked her lips and warmed up.

Her opponent is also known to Yun Xi.

Red Stone, the man of Red Steel Genre, who once forced Xiao Cao into a desperate situation for a time in the Battle God's Championship Contest.

In this world, he still has a huge body that can make people feel fear. Three meters tall body gives people a sense of terror and oppression.

On the reddish red skin, the lava-like lines are clearer than when Yun Xi first saw him. Obviously, after the battle with Xiao Cao, his "lava skin" has been further improved.

"Well, he looks similar to you, Shaheen." She looked at the big man with great interest and jumped into the huge arena.

"Ah... Why is it a little guy?" Red Stone looked at Zaka, whose height doesn't even reach his waist, with a disappointed look on his face.

In any case, this little woman is not a strong warrior he wants to fight against.

"Little?" Desert Dragon Zaka had an evil smile on her lips.

Just because she's gentle with Yun Xi doesn't mean she'll be so nice to other people.

Don't forget where the name of "evil dragon" came from.

“I’ll beat you down in one stroke!” Red Stone’s skin instantly warmed up, showing a red similar to that of cooked prawns, and the fists suddenly stroked each other.

Huge metal boxers emit white smoke, and the gravity around them begins to twist.

Chapter 715: Dragon Roar

“What!” At this time, Red Stone found that things were not right. His skill had no effect on the little guy.

No, it’s not ineffective, it’s immune to it all.

Ten times of gravity absorption, additional magnetic field suppression, for her as if his secret skill does not exist!

What kind of physique is this? Does that tiny body contain such a huge power?!

“Pat!” It’s the sound of something being compressed to the limit and then popping out.

It’s not any magic, it’s not magic, it’s not even a secret skill.

Zaka simply compressed the air between the fingers and ejected it.

“Bang!” The huge chains on Red Stone’s body were broken without any omen, which couldn’t even be easily destroyed by common god weapons.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! ” The air ejected by her, just like the invincible bullets, completely smashed Red Stone’s arms.

“Ha!” Finally Red Stone realized how terrible his opponent was. He roared and launched the three basic secrets of the Red Steel Genre at once.

“Lava skin”, “Red Steel Blood” and “Lava Breath”.

Red steel can’t be refined!

At any time, do not believe in the outside power. The ultimate power that Red Steel Genre pursues is to strengthen their bodies into god-weapon-like weapons and awaken the original giant power.

Fake Hard Body! This is a new skill he enlightened after the battle with Xiao Cao, and also the power pursued by the geniuses of the Red Steel Genre!

The ejected air bombarded Red Stone’s body and made deep holes, which forced Red Stone to retreat continuously.

Red Stone couldn’t believe his eyes, but his body told him that in less than ten seconds, his defense would collapse completely.

Even the fake Hard Body can’t resist the seemingly random pinkie. What a terrible power!

However, because of this, Red Stone became more excited.

Yes, it's this power, this sense of oppression.

Red Steel Genre is eager for such a battle!

Now, he has burst out 100% of his power, but it is not enough!

More, more power!

The red muscle was bulging to the extent that looked frightening. Red Stone embraced his head with both hands, made a deafening roar, and launched a fearless charge towards Zaka.

Red Steel Blood, never retreat!

"Haha..." Looking at Red Stone, she slowly put down her small hand and inhaled.

"Ha!"

That's ten times louder than the roar of Red Stone, which can be heard even by people in a far away from the city.

It's the roar of the most terrifying and powerful creature at the top of the pyramid of the world's biological chain.

Without any magic, this roar is the strength, the will incarnation of declaring and disdaining all lower creatures.

Dragon roar!

Red Stone, whose height was more than three meters and weight were ten times more than ordinary people, was blown away like a man made of paper in front of the roar of the dragon, disappearing into the sky.

This is the power of the dragon. Even in her human form, it can bring disaster.

"It's good as a warm-up." Zaka came down from the arena and sat next to Yun Xi with a little humming.

The whole arena became silent for a while, even half of the audience was stunned by Zaka's roar.

If it wasn't for the magic shield that was protecting the audience, the roar would have blood-washed the whole arena.

When Yun Xi stepped onto the arena, people still hadn't recover from the roar.

“Ask in advance, can you also use that skill?” Yun Xi’s opponent was a civilian girl in the Starwing Knights.

After feeling the dragon roar at a close distance, she still had the courage to stand on the arena. Yun Xi is very proud of her as a member of the Starwing Knights.

Even in the face of a monster, she didn’t lose her will to fight.

So, what reward should I give her? Yun Xi smiled and reached out to her.

He can also compress air and launch it, but that’s too bullying.

The girl hasn’t reached the hero rank, it’s better to appease her gently.

“Whoa... I’m still immature, please don’t be too violent.” For some reason, the girl always felt that the mysterious man in front of her gave her a wonderful sense of kindness.

Why? It’s the first time for her to meet him, but she naturally felt that she wouldn’t be in danger.

“Then, I will choose the soft attack.” Yun Xi’s palm was raised slightly and then dropped slightly.

“Gee!” The girl felt as if she had been touched by something soft on her chest, and then her whole body was shocked. She lost control of her body completely and fell down uncontrollably.

Soft Water Palm!

Pressing one hand on the girl's shoulder, Yun Xi overwhelmed the girl's body.

This process was beautiful and gentle, and even didn't make the girl feel the slightest pain.

The talent of the Soft Body is now fully developed by Yun Xi.

"Hum... When you fought with me, you were not so gentle, Shaheen." Zaka puffed up her cheeks and remembers the fight before.

"Throw in the towel?" Yun Xi smiled at the girl who was pushed down by himself.

"I give up!" The girl had a fever on her cheek, especially where her chest was touched just now, it was like a high fever.

Yun Xi won.

Chapter 716: Mutual Affection

"I... I'm Xiaomi..." For some reason she herself didn't know, the girl held by Yun Xi couldn't help but tell her real name.

"Doesn't it hurt?" He asked with concern.

“It doesn’t hurt at all...” Xiaomi looked at Yun Xi shyly. She has a really good character. Will she be the next companion of the Starwing Knights?

“Nice job, Shaheen!”

“Shaheen, cheek up!”

Yun Xi raised his head and looked at the audience clapping for him.

Are you mistaken about something very important?!

“Why are you so gentle when you hit her?” Desert Dragon Zaka pouted and looked at Yun Xi, who had just come down from the arena.

“If it was you...” Yun Xi carefully considered and came to the conclusion that –

If he uses the Soft Body when they fight, he will be killed by her in less than a second, and his end will be a hundred times worse than Red Stone faced just now.

You are too strong for me to be merciful.

“You are too strong. The attack just now can do no damage to you.” This is Yun Xi’s answer.

“Ahem, that’s right...” Zaka complained and felt happy in her heart.

Well, he said she was strong.

Of course, she was the dragon that ravaged the continent, the master of the western desert, and the great Desert Dragon Zaka.

In his praise, I’ll forgive him a little bit for such a trifle.

But if he goes any further, she’s going to kill a lot.

He has proposed to her, how can he be good to other girls? It’s a foul, a foul!

If he knows it, he will call out loudly:

“I never proposed to you!”

The first round of the Championship Knight Competition ended in the whispers of Zaka and Yun Xi.

Unsurprisingly, all three of the top favorites were promoted, and there was also a black horse turned out!

Zaro, a completely unknown name before the competition, has become the fourth most popular name tied with Xiao Cao, Lvluo and Quran.

As for Yun Xi, because of the way he won seemed too gentle, many people completely mistook his strength.

People saw only the gentle posture Zaro holding him actively, and Xiaomi's emotion when she was hugged by Yun Xi, which didn't look like the expression of the defeated.

Plus Yun Xi's real body was hidden under the cloak, most of the people regard him as Zaro's sister.

It must be said that this is a big misunderstanding.

There were 157 participants in the Championship Knight Competition, and only 79 were left at the end of the first round.

Amongst them, there were dozens of people who were seriously injured, unable to participate in the second round of the competition, so the competition directly entered the second round of the top 64.

It has to be mentioned that the members of the Starwing Knights, in addition to Xiao Cao, and Xiaomi who accidentally met Yun Xi, all of the 17 girls of the Starwing Knights successfully entered the second round, letting many audiences see the strength of the knights with their own eyes.

Amongst the 64 candidates, the Starwing Knights occupy almost one-third of the places, which represents the highest level of force of the whole kingdom.

For some reason, including Ling Ling and Mei Lan, many noble girls of the Starwing Knights did not attend the Championship Knight Competition.

In the second round, contrary to the draw in the first round, Yun Xi was the first.

His opponent is one of the most popular candidates, Kingfisher, a mysterious elf from the Western God's Domain.

Now, he was looking at Yun Xi with a strange look.

"You are not a woman, are you?" The elf's sense is keen, or it's because he was mistaken to be a woman too many times.

"Yes, it's clear on my application form that I'm a male." Looking around at the crowd who were whistling and cheering, Yun Xi shrugged his shoulders.

Shaheen is obviously a male name. Why do you think I'm Zaro's sister?

Chapter 717: Kingfisher's Smile

Is it because he was a little too gentle?

But they are all the girls who have seed connections with him.

They all have a part of him in their bodies.

He has changed their fate and naturally has to take responsibility for them.

“I understand, I understand!” Kingfisher felt the same way. It is clear that the name “Kingfisher” is a male name, why do all people doubt his gender?

Every year, every year! He receives five times more love letters from men than from women. The problem is that elves can't fall in love with short-lived human beings at all.

Can you imagine the possibility of the elven race, who can spend decades just to forge a beautiful dagger, marrying a human who has only a hundred years of life?

Elves can spend ten years just thinking about the response to the other side's proposal. Human beings don't have such a long life to waste.

Only the darling of the world rules can have so much energy to study art and think about the truth of all things, and spend thousands of years for a promise.

If you want to fall in love with an elf, you have to live as long as an elf.

According to the approximate estimation of the elven race, the average time taken by elves to fall in love is about 500 years.

It may take more than ten years for human beings to realize that they have developed into a romantic relationship, and that's long enough. However, love of the elves started only after three hundred years, and a one-thousand-year long-term relationship is not uncommon.

What bothers the elf race is a different kind of annoyance from that of the short-lived species.

If we regard the life of intelligent creatures as a race, most of them will die before they reach the end. Only a few of them can step on the bodies of countless people, come to the end, and open the door of the legend rank.

The situation of the elven race is that they run faster and more steadily most of the time. Even if they never practice, just staying in the elf's forest, their strength will grow slowly.

Then, without exception, their strength would stop completely at some time and never move forward.

Just like the race between the hare and the tortoise, it is clear that the rabbit can run faster than the tortoise, but before the end of the race, the rabbit will fall asleep stupidly and let the tortoise win.

For the elves, this fable is just right.

The end of all intelligent creatures, or the beginning of the road to eternity, is the legend rank.

In the endless god's domains, the legend rank is the highest rank, at least the pyramid vertex within the range of human understanding.

Only legends can last forever.

However, the elves are the most difficult race to have someone reach the legend rank.

In the Sky Sword God's domain alone, dozens of human Sky Swords have been born.

No one knows how many legend ranks the elves have, but the absolute number is not large, totally out of proportion to the many hero ranked individuals of the elf race, and this is the number accumulated by the elven race in ten million years.

At the extreme point, all elves can grow to the hero rank, but the elf that can eventually surpass the hero rank and step into the legend rank can be counted on one's fingers.

The more powerful they are, the more likely they are to fall into a state of indifference to the world, and even the power to live will gradually disappear.

Many hero ranked elves will neither grow old nor stronger for thousands of years, just like the sleeping hare, who can no longer reach the end.

Kingfisher is the hero who is believed by the elders of the elven race to be the most likely one to reach the legend level.

He is different from other elves in essence.

Perhaps, his absolute power is inferior to the elders who have stagnated for more than a thousand years in the hero rank.

However, he has all the characteristics that the elders of the elven race do not have.

Curiosity.

The impulse to fight.

In the war with demons, he always marched forward bravely and never feared the blood and killing. Countless powerful demons were killed by his arrows.

He doesn't hate human beings, and even takes the initiative to approach humans, and be responsible for training human disciples.

Any of these is not in line with the policy of seclusion held by the elves.

He is an elf archer who doesn't behave like an elf.

At the same time, he is also at the hero rank who has the most hope to break through the limit of elves and embark on the road of a legend.

Because, he has the most of the missing things of the elven race – vitality.

Just like at this moment, he can smile cordially when facing Yun Xi who had similar experiences.

It was not a polite smile when dealing with human beings, but the sincere and enthusiastic smile.

When he smiled, Kingfisher was like a warm figure painting, giving off elegant temperament.

Although Yun Xi knows that he is a man, he can't help but feel his heart beating faster.

This smile is so easy to be misunderstood!

"Ah ah ah, no, no, that elf is so beautiful!" This is the scream of the female audience.

"No, I really want to push this elf..."

"Stop, brother! I also think that my sexual orientation is a little..."

"Is he a man or a woman? He is so hot!"

"It doesn't matter if he's male or female. I'm going to fall!"

It seems that Yun Xi heard many very dangerous speeches.

Chapter 718: Water God Dance

“You are really... It’s not easy to deal with such things.” Yun Xi felt the same about Kingfisher’s treatment.

In fact, in the White Lotus Sword Palace, he received love letters from some innocent teenagers too.

Hey, Hua Huo, it’s all your fault!

Even so, he received more love letters from girls. Occasionally, there would be blue and white underpants, strawberry underpants, and bras of various sizes that appear with the love letters.

This problem seems to be more serious than receiving love letters from innocent teenagers.

“The same to you.” Kingfisher smelt the same atmosphere on Yun Xi.

The world is so big, but few people are bothered by this problem. They are not cheaters who want to cheat people with beautiful faces. They are real hero ranked masters!

He was just looking forward to the Killing Princess’ figure, unable to leave his eyes from the sad and powerful back, and finally chose the road doomed to be lonely and powerful.

After the Killing Princess died, he no longer had the idea of finding his other half.

Stepping into the legend rank, so that he can eliminate these damned demons, this is the biggest obsession in his heart.

To this end, he made a huge plan for himself, which needs to be completed in thousands of years.

Negotiation with human beings, going out of the Elf God's Domain, and even coming to this remote sword domain, everything is part of that great plan.

Well, at this point, he still has the traditional elven style.

An Elf's revenge won't be diminished even after a thousand years!

"What are you good at?" As a predecessor who is about ten times the age of Yun Xi, Kingfisher actively asked him what he was best at.

"Without my god weapon, well, it's probably close combat." Yun Xi didn't plan to take out Starwings before meeting Desert Dragon Zaka. He had a premonition that it's better not to use this god weapon casually.

Every time he uses Starwings, it gives him a kind of inexplicable premonition, as if there are some forces that shouldn't exist in the world that are being released.

Every time the flying of the sword's gorgeous wings is like opening an invisible door. Something is coming out of that door.

Now, the door just opened a tiny crack.

If the door opened more, what would Starwings become?

Yun Xi didn't dare to try.

Yun Xi decided to seal the sword unless it's necessary. The power of Starwings didn't seem to have evolved from the original Crane Wings Twin Swords.

"Good. I'm confident in the close combat too." After hundreds of years of adventures, from the Western God's Domain to the Dragon God's Domain and then to the Sky Sword God's Domain, Kingfisher had defeated countless opponents.

Many of them think that he is just an archer and can be killed as long as they approach him.

Well, the elven race's strength is weak, indeed. However, don't underestimate the combat skills developed after hundreds of years.

Kingfisher, as a "demon killer", is a rare "freak" in the whole history of the elves. He had even torn up many fierce monsters such as black magic dogs with empty hands.

At least, he has the confidence that it is almost impossible for human beings to have better fighting skills than him.

Unless it's a human with God's Talent.

God's Talent is a talent that can't be described in any words. Any intelligent creature had a very tiny possibility to have this talent.

Every God's Talent represents a path to the legend rank, that is to say, every awakened person of God's Talent has the potential to become a legend rank in theory.

The "God" of God's Talent is the same concept as the "God" of God Weapons.

But the "God" of God's Talent is more simple and direct. That's the talent to become a god!

All God's Talents go back to the beginning, all of them are related to "gods" and "fantastic creatures". There is even a saying that all the intelligent creatures who have awakened God's Talents are essentially Children of God.

Yun Xi took a deep breath, which meant that he would do his best.

The Hard Body, or the Soft Body? This is his biggest trump card besides Starwings.

Looking at Kingfisher, he made an easy choice.

His palm gently raised, and his figure became hazy.

It is clear that in the daytime, in the hot sun, in the center of the arena, a mist of water quietly appeared.

Soft Water Palm – the Water God’s Dance!

Like a bird flying over the water, Yun Xi’s body almost lost all of its weight, and flew over tens of meters, looking like a flying swallow.

When Yun Xi’s palm fell, Kingfisher noticed how strange this palm was.

He felt as if countless water waves were rippling together, and the ripples arose to completely cover his whole body.

His breathing seems to stop for a short time, just like sinking into the deep water in an instant. What he can see are only endless waves of water, his consciousness and resistance are gradually swallowed up in the quiet water.

What’s this attack?! Kingfisher bit his tongue hard, and his will tempered from the bloody battlefield of the demon war resisted the incredible erosion.

At this time, Yun Xi’s palm had been pressed on Kingfisher’s chest.

At the critical moment, Kingfisher regained his consciousness and retreated, trying to avoid his strange erosive power.

However, it didn't work. Yun Xi's palm was still firmly pressed on his chest.

Chapter 719: The Secret of the Soft Body

With a small and inaudible sound, a force around the fingers was pushed into Kingfisher's body by Yun Xi, and his palm was also tightly attached to Kingfisher's chest.

Well, it's very flat. It's certainly not a girl's chest.

However, the softness of this body is unbelievable. It's difficult to believe that this is a man's body.

Through the touch of the palm, he had almost measured all the information of Kingfisher's body.

Height, weight and even the speed of blood flow are detected by Yun Xi's Soft Water Palm.

This is also an absolutely impossible task for the Hard Body. The Hard Body will only crush the opponent.

But the Soft Body can measure everything of the opponent, and then defeat the opponent in various seemingly inconceivable ways.

After hitting Kingfisher's chest, Yun Xi didn't directly press Kingfisher's shoulder and push him down as he did when dealing with Xiaomi, because he felt a huge power coming out of Kingfisher's body in an instant.

That's the counterattack of this hero ranked elf, the counterattack of a martial arts master at the sixth rank.

“Ha!” Yun Xi pushed Kingfisher away.

“Shuffle!” As sharp as the blade, the shadow of the leg passed in front of his cheek. If it wasn’t for Yun Xi pushing Kingfisher away, he would be killed by this attack immediately.

Quick, ruthless, and accurate, this is what Kingfisher is good at as a “demon killer”.

There is no superfluous gimmick, and the move is deadly. In the shortest time, he launched the fastest counterattack.

This is the combat skill Kingfisher tempered in the fierce battlefield of the demon’s war.

In the hundreds of years after the demon’s war, Kingfisher practiced this killing technique to the limit. In his adventure life in the endless god’s domains, he defeated countless enemies by using this skill.

However, this can’t hurt Yun Xi.

The power of the Soft Body is far beyond the limit of killing skills that can be obtained through exercise.

The upper limit of Kingfisher’s killing skill is just the starting point of the Soft Body.

Yun Xi just hit Kingfisher once, and had mastered even the most subtle part of his body. Before Kingfisher launched a counterattack, he had known where his attack would come from and what his move would be.

After the counterattack failed, Kingfisher supported his hands on the ground, and immediately launched the next attack.

His legs whirling up from the ground like the whirlwind rising. All the archers of the elf race knew this ground counterattack skill called Whirlwind Foot.

In the past, elf archers kicked off innumerable people's chins with this skill.

However, this move was also predicted in advance by Yun Xi.

His head slightly tilted back and flashed over the small foot that was enough to break his chin, and at the same time, Yun Xi's body made a step to the left obliquely and he suddenly reached out and grabbed Kingfisher's ankle.

It's like a goshawk catching a rabbit in the field.

Grasping Kingfisher's ankle, he gently pressed and rubbed the fingertip, which made half of Kingfisher's body fall into a strange state of crispness and numbness, and even the blood circulation in his whole body was broken for a second.

If he wasn't an elf but a human, he had lost his fighting power at this moment.

Kingfisher bit his tongue and forced the interrupted blood circulation to recover. The once interrupted Whirlwind Foot rotated at a faster speed, forcing Yun Xi to loosen his ankle.

His body rotated up from the ground, rushing into the sky with the shadow of green leaves, then turned around in the air and jumped away from Yun Xi, which almost violated the physical rules “Hoo...” Kingfisher’s forehead quietly dropped transparent sweat.

It’s tough. It’s too tough. It’s an opponent he has never met before.

From the moment he was approached by Yun Xi, the whole rhythm of battle was out of order.

It’s hard to imagine what kind of cultivation method can possess such an ability, he felt as if all his counterattacks were seen through by Yun Xi in advance, and his every move was under Yun Xi’s control.

For him, the rhythm of the fight is mastered by the other side is tantamount to declaring that he has lost.

“Um... I think I have found the knack.” For Yun Xi, this was also the first time to perform the Soft Water Palm to this level.

Different from the secret skill of the Hard Body, the secret skills of the Soft Body consume very little, but its effect is surprisingly good.

Take the Water God Dance as an example. It’s a magic skill that can bring the power of rhythm into full play. It can’t be cultivated without the Soft Body.

Once the Water God Dance is started, Yun Xi can completely master everything around his body. No matter what the environment, he can conserve and recycle his strength freely.

Kingfisher was unable to resist his attack, because his rhythm was completely controlled by the Water God Dance.

The Yun Xi in the state of the Water God Dance is like an elf standing on the water. Every step and every action will be integrated into the endless water waves.

Every attack of Kingfisher has caused a huge ripple in this water wave, which makes him feel it in advance, and the body naturally makes a perfect response.

This is not a deliberate response, but a purely natural, subconscious response.

It's a natural response to all muscle, nerve and even bones in the whole body, many of which completely violate the rules of human flesh and blood.

So this is the Soft Body.

This is comparable to the infinite explosive power of the Hard Body – the Water God Dance.

Chapter 720: A Clean Kill

“I’m going to be serious.” Kingfisher’s eyes became more and more persistent.

It is one of his characteristics that he climbs up from wherever he falls, which is the characteristic other elves don't have.

Like a flying dragonfly, Kingfisher performed his speed advantage to the limit.

Elves are born to be the darling of world rules.

When human children are still crawling on the ground, elves can fly in the forest. As the darling of the forest, they are born to be Rangers.

This kind of talent can make them gallop down a hundred-meter-tall tree and make them leap with a soft branch as their foothold.

The forest is always the home of elves.

Kingfisher can complete the two-stage jump and shift even in the air without any foothold, even amongst the elves, he is the most outstanding close combat master.

His attack was as fierce as a storm!

Yun Xi didn't care. Following the rhythm of the Water God Dance, he took the initiative to approach Kingfisher.

Elve close combat skill is different from a human's.

Kingfisher rotated. His feet turned into the rotating posture of the electric drill and drove hard to Yun Xi's footwall.

Yun Xi's body was shaking like a water bird, avoiding Kingfisher's attack.

"Pa!" Kingfisher's hands supported on the ground, and his legs directly twisted to Yun Xi's head.

Raising his right hand, Yun Xi slapped Kingfisher's ankle. His left hand pressed the void, drawing a mysterious track in the air, and cut Kingfisher's calf.

Again, this kind of sense of control!

No, never follow the rhythm of the other side! Kingfisher clenched his teeth. With a back somersault, he got rid of Yun Xi's pursuit and then almost instantly fought back.

The distance of ten meters between them changes to zero in less than one-sixth of a second, which is an assault that even most elves can't perform.

In the next second, there was a series of dazzling, continuous kicks.

Kingfisher's right foot locked the key points of Yun Xi's whole body and launched a deadly dance attack.

So fast! This is Yun Xi's first feeling. Kingfisher finally shows his strong physical quality.

If it was Desert Dragon Zaka, even she wouldn't be able to deal with such a series of instant attacks.

If Yun Xi was in the state of the Hard Body, he could only face the crazy dance attack and pray that his Hard Body could withstand it.

However, now Yun Xi was in the Soft Body state, and he was launching the Water God Dance.

Yun Xi had felt Kingfisher's attack route in advance from the waves around him.

This move is going to kick my neck.

This move is aiming at the temple on the right side of my forehead.

Yun Xi's body swayed with the water wave, just like a water lily moving in the wind, his eyes seemed to be sleepy, and entered into an ineffable and wonderful state.

The muscles, nerves and even bones of the whole body are slightly changed with the waves of the water.

Every kick of Kingfisher will be perfectly predicted and then avoided.

The reaction limit that humans can't do can be easily broken through in the Soft Body state.

It's something that can't be judged by the eyes.

Water, carrying everything.

Water, containing everything.

The Water God Dance is dancing on the surface of the water.

A thousand kicks in a row!

Even Kingfisher himself didn't expect that. He actually completed 1000 kicks that had never been completed in the past.

But even with such a crazy attack frequency, his foot still didn't hit Yun Xi once.

All attacks were completely evaded by Yun Xi in a seemingly understated way.

He felt as if he wasn't attacking the flesh and blood of a human being, but the reflection in the water.

How can this be? Am I attacking a ball of mist, or the reflection of the moon in the water?!

Yun Xi caught Kingfisher's fleeting trance and held out his hand.

The Soft Water Palm slaps Kingfisher's instep. Through his soft sole, the force of the palm penetrated directly into Kingfisher's instep, and then went up to his calf to his heart.

"Bang!" Kingfisher's heart suddenly made a strange drum sound, and his kick stopped on the 1008th combo.

The feeling of crispness and numbness swept his whole body from the heart, which wasn't something Kingfisher could resist by biting his tongue again.

He thought that he could use his will to offset the power of Soft Water Palm, which was just a beautiful fantasy.

Yun Xi's first palm attack revealed Kingfisher's height, weight, blood flow, and neural response speed.

The second palm attack intruded Kingfisher's whole body with an imperceptible posture.

After the third palm attack, Kingfisher lost control of his body.

Yun Xi reached out his hands, looking like he was going to hug his lover. He easily hugged Kingfisher's thin neck.

No!

I'm caught!

Kingfisher's eyes suddenly showed a look of astonishment. It is undoubtedly fatal to be caught by his opponent.

The next second.

Yun Xi grasped Kingfisher's neck, quickly approached his body, and then turned to his back in an instant, and wrapped his feet around Kingfisher's body.

The whole process looked like a close interaction with him, but it actually contained enough skills to kill Kingfisher instantly.

Kingfisher's head was dizzy for a while, and then he suffocated because he was lacking oxygen.
