

Starchild 721

Chapter 721: Jealous Zaka

“I’m sorry.” Yun Xi looked at Kingfisher.

Under normal conditions, with Kingfisher’s physique, it was impossible for him to be knocked out after being strangled.

The reason for this unexpected result is that he was so confident, that he was hit by Yun Xi’s Soft Water Palm continuously.

It seems that Soft Water Palm is far less impressive than the outbreak attack of the Hard Body, but the actual lethality is not low at all.

Kingfisher doesn’t have the same monster-like physique as Desert Dragon Zaka. After being hit by the Soft Water Palm three times in a row, the only result was to be stunned.

“Your close combat skills are terrible...” Kingfisher shook his head, as his dizziness hadn’t disappeared yet.

Although as an elf archer, his close combat ability is at the first-class level, however, Yun Xi’s close combat ability is at the grand-master-class.

Probably only Yun Xi didn’t realize how strong the Soft Body was.

Even Kingfisher, whose speed is so fast that people can’t lock his position with the naked eye, is defeated by the Water God Dance.

“You’re an archer, are you? I’m just good at close combat.” Yun Xi was not proud at all. He didn’t feel that he had won a great victory.

He just beat an archer at close combat, how could it be called a victory?

“I won’t be within a kilometer of you if I meet you on the battlefield.” Moving his paralyzed hands and feet, Kingfisher felt that the blood flow in his body had not returned to normal.

Now he realized how he lost.

He didn’t expect that without the power of any god weapon, Yun Xi accomplished a great task that no demon could accomplish – beat him down.

If they encountered each other on the real battlefield... Kingfisher could imagine what would happen to him.

“Well, it’s over?”

“Isn’t the elf an archer? Why did he rush up to fight with his opponent? He was sure to lose!”

“Shaheen, that was a beautiful skill!”

“Oh, look at his leg, his body...”

Ah, Yun Xi seemed to hear some unexpected gasps from the audience. Why are you so excited?!

“It seems that the champion of this competition will be you or your sister.” Kingfisher shook hands with Yun Xi with great grace.

It is his persistence to stand up from wherever he falls.

It is also his style to recognize the enemy’s advantages and develop the most appropriate tactics.

Now, Kingfisher remembered it.

No matter what time, don’t enter into close combat with the “Shaheen” in front of him!

If he really meets Shaheen on the battlefield, his best choice would be locking Shaheen’s head with his god weapon from kilometers away and shooting at it.

Whether human beings or elves, they can grow up with constant setbacks.

“Ah, Zaro...” Yun Xi looked at Zaka, who was pawing at him from a distance.

He just wanted to go shopping and walk happily in the last free time before the wedding.

Even if he won the mysterious girl Zaro once again, his wish was just to let her go shopping and walk with him.

Why did the original plan become to go to this competition here?

What's wrong? Why did I agree with her?

As a prince, the future king of this kingdom, I really failed.

Sure enough, you don't have noble grace and royal demeanor in your bones, Yun Xi. You are not qualified to be the prince.

"Humph, are you fascinated by that elf?" Yun Xi just came back to Zaka, the jealous girl pinched his cheek and questioned.

"No, absolutely not!" Yun Xi firmly denied.

"He's a man!"

"Yes, he's a man. Don't be fooled by appearances like those stupid people." Desert Dragon Zaka smelt the smell on his body. Humph, it's the smell of the forest.

If she didn't see the fight, she suddenly found that Yun Xi came home with such a smell.

The rage of Desert Dragon Zaka will be on soon!

“He is also troubled by this. Why don’t people understand it? He is such an excellent man!”

“No, you are wrong, the Elf is a very dangerous creature. Shaheen, stay away from this guy in the future!” She was jealous.

As expected, never be careless with any elf!

She knew that elves didn’t need sex to reproduce at all.

Because, the elf race is not viviparous or oviparous, they grow on trees.

The so-called elves are fruits, fruits! The beautiful fruits bred by the world tree of the elf race!

They only choose their own gender when they are in love. People must not be cheated by this!

Chapter 722: The Prince of Tragedy

People don’t understand that elves are no different from the stamens and pistils of flowers.

In order to match their lovers, elves will choose their gender.

If the person the elf likes is male, the elf will change its gender to female.

If the person the elf likes is female, the elf will try to become a male.

To differentiate a gender is to declare that he or she has a lover.

In fact, the vast majority of elves will not choose their own gender all their lives.

Because there are very few times they will love someone.

Compared with choosing their own gender, they seem to be more likely to attract other people's crazy pursuit.

Therefore, it's better for your lover to stay away from elves – this was what Desert Dragon Zaka confirmed from her deep memory.

"The next game... Zaro vs Quran!" In the challenge arena, the opponents of the next match are drawn.

"Great. It's time for the hero to play!" Quran, the descendant of Assyria with a long spiral spear on his back, licked his lips.

Dark rage beast, show your rage!

Bloodthirsty hunter, it's time to hunt!

In his body, the violent blood is ready to move, like a demon dog about to be liberated, roaring to the sky!

“Be careful! Don’t go on the road of no return, Shaheen!” Zaro didn’t pay attention to who her opponent was and looked at Yun Xi with more and more uneasy in her eyes.

Is this “love”?

Afraid of being robbed of her own unique treasures.

Obviously he is on her side, but there are always people looking at him!

Time to let you know Desert Dragon Zaka’s wrath, you damned enemies!

“Zaro... Player Zaro... ” The organizer of the competition had to amplify his voice to remind her that she would be sentenced to overtime if she didn’t move.

“Go on, don’t you want to be the champion of the competition?” Yun Xi looked at Zaka with a helpless expression.

Ah, this jealous look is very similar to Hua Huo.

“Then I’ll go up. Watch my play, Shaheen. This is my showtime.” Zaro almost forgot her original goal of making a big fight in the competition.

Compared with this, Zaka was much more looking forward to the next moment of fighting Yun Xi in the arena.

Champion? What is that? I don’t mind it at all!

All the people who stand in the middle of her and Yun Xi are enemies! Enemies!

Don’t you know that if you disturb others to talk about love, you will encounter the dragon’s wrath?!

“Puff... Ha...” Quran had been waiting for a long time in the arena. He held his long lance in both hands and pressed down his body. He looked like a giant dog ready to roar and fight.

Feel it, feel it!

The blood in his body was unprecedentedly boiling up, the power of the evil god is releasing some information.

Come on, Quran, it’s time to hunt!

The opponent in front of you is the highest prey, and you will get the highest satisfaction if you succeed in hunting.

“Ge... Bo... ” The moment Zaro jumped onto the challenge arena, Quran moved!

He howled like a wolf in the moonlight. It’s the roar of the dark beast. It’s the bloodthirsty hunter’s declaration of bloodthirsty hunting.

His lower body was like a spring pressing to the ground, and then he jumped up high and shot the long lance in his hands towards Zaro.

The rotation of the black long lance accelerated, turning into a black streamer that locked on to Zaro’s heart.

This shot absolutely can hit! This is from Quran’s instinct.

However, it’s not the end. There is a more terrifying kill waiting behind. After throwing the magic lance, Quran’s hands suddenly changed into a pair of bloodthirsty claws.

This is a pair of green claws with the color of blood flowing.

This is the real awakening skill of the black dog prince, inherited from the ancient demon dog Cerberus!

“Ouch!” Prince Quran turned into a virtual shadow, following the long black lance he shot, pouncing at Desert Dragon Zaka.

Lock in the opponent!

Tear your opponent!

Ruthless, cruel, bloodthirsty, this is the instinct of the dark angry beast and bloodthirsty hunter.

Even in the face of the dragon, the bloodthirsty hunter dares to rush up!

“Ding!” As predicted by Quran, the rotating and accelerating black long lance hit Zoro’s chest, the vital point of the human heart.

Just, why is the sound so strange? Quran didn’t have time to think about it and had launched the strongest biting attack so far. His bloodthirsty claws tearing Zoro’s body crazily.

“Ding! Ding! Ding! ” It’s not like the sound of the bloodthirsty claws tearing the body of flesh and blood, it’s more like the sound of the dog’s claws scratching a marble wall in vain.

So hard!

What is it?

Quran was shocked to find that his bloodthirsty claws only scratched several white traces on Zoro’s cloak.

It can't be a human body. Is she wearing god armor?

No, even god armor can't have such hardness. The hardness can even break his bloodthirsty claws!

"Wild dog, get out of the way." At this time, Desert Dragon Zaka looked angrily at her cloak that had been torn open.

"Roar!"

The Dragon roared.

Prince Quran was blown away, turned into a meteor in the distance and disappeared on the other side of the horizon.

Chapter 723: Traitor

"No matter how many times I see it, you are still so powerful." Looking at Prince Quran was solved with a light and easy dragon roar, Yun Xi confirmed once again that Zaro was very strong.

"Haha, It's a pity that I didn't pay attention to my clothes." Compared with the victory, Yun Xi's praise made Desert Dragon Zaka a hundred times happier.

She giggled without a bit of tyranny that ravaged the mainland.

Come on, praise me more.

Look at me, listen to my voice, and dance with me.

The time with you is so happy, so simple.

“It doesn’t matter. I’ll sew it for you.” Since awakening to the unexpected special ability of “making puppets”, Yun Xi has found that his hands have become more dexterous than before.

White Moon’s puppet dress, the complicated skirt, and lace were all hand-made by him.

It’s just a few tear marks. The difficulty of sewing is not worth mentioning compared with making White Moon’s puppet dress.

“Um... Please...” Zaka never thought that she would sit next to a man and watch him sew clothes for herself.

The delicate and skillful hands are so fascinating.

No, I’m getting in deeper and deeper. The more I am with him, the more I can’t leave him.

At this moment, the fierce heartbeat is more intense than when the battle is most intense.

Why does fate until now let me meet my chosen one?

Did he know long ago that as long as he took the initiative to date her, he would make her like him so much, so hearty?

Alas, what should I do? I've never been in such a mood.

"All right." In less than five minutes, Yun Xi sewed all the broken parts of Zaka's cloak, and now she could not see any traces that had been torn.

Well, it seems that even if he stops being the owner of the bakery, he has new skills for making a living.

If he runs out of money on the way to escape marriage, he can he also consider becoming a tailor or making wooden puppets to earn money?

Yun Xi wondered if he could reach the passing level when he meets the test of the "puppet city" in the seven towers again.

"Hum? It's over?" Zaka was still immersed in a sweet mood. After returning to her mind, her cloak has been repaired like a new one.

That stupid dog has weak claws! Doesn't he know how to tear her clothes? It's unforgivable!

The next time I meet the next opponent, I will break this cloak a little more, so that I can enjoy the sweet moment of only two people again.

OK, that's what we decided to do! Desert Dragon Zaka praised her own wit.

Happy times always pass so fast. The second round of the Championship Knight Competition is over unconsciously.

Two of the three favorites before the match have been sifted out in this round, the names of Zaro and Shaheen have shocked the whole audience.

Especially Zaro, who roared at the opponent with absolute crushing advantage twice, won the exclamation of "Is there really a person who is a match for her?".

She has replaced Xiao Cao as the No. 1 favorite of the Championship Knight Competition.

Kingfisher and Quran's failure made a lot of gamblers lose their money, while Zaro and Shaheen's appearance was to make the profiteers happy.

Gamblers began to make a final fight. Almost all of them put the rest of their money on Zaro, who showed her crushing strength.

"Sealed, sealed!"

"The current rate is the final rate, and it will not change!"

"Come on, it's the last chance, the chance to turn over!"

“Don’t miss it!”

In the roar of the profiteers, a mysterious figure appeared in front of the gambling place, quietly pressing down a large amount that can make people scream.

“The end of blood is coming!”

“Warning! Warning! Away from the prince, away from the prince!”

“Look at him. The building is going to collapse!”

Two red birds screamed out at the top of their lungs and cursed some bad bastard.

The Championship Knight Competition, the fourth round, the last 16 games.

Yun Xi sighed.

Why do I meet the girls of the Starwing Knights again?

It must have been unfortunate for the girl to meet him in the last 16 games.

“Hello, I’m Xiaomi’s friend. I will do my best!” It was a timid girl. She raised the cross sword in her hands and made a special assault gesture for knights.

This was a girl who had stepped on the way of her own knight's creed.

In the future, she will definitely become an outstanding knight.

Looking at the girl with a perfect posture, Yun Xi nodded and recognized her efforts.

However, she still has confusion in her heart, so she can't see through her weakness.

Treat her gently.

Yun Xi raised his hand.

Oh, it's that skill! The girl had known what skill Yun Xi was going to use.

However, it's one thing to know that Yun Xi will use, but it's another thing to be able to prevent it.

Yun Xi stepped toward her, just like the water lily swaying in the waves, elegant and mysterious, soft and hazy.

By the time the girl drew out of the sword, Yun Xi's hand had skillfully passed through her defense and gently pressed on her chest.

The girl's height, weight, even the length of her toes, and the softness of her body were reflected in Yun Xi's mind.

Hum? Her breasts are pretty... did she bind her chest with bandages to prevent others from finding out about this?

Although the size of her breasts can't be compared with the noble ladies of the Starwing Knights, it's apparently far away from the average!

Chapter 724: Final Four

"Ah!" The girl who was hit in the chest by Yun Xi was shaking all over her body.

Yun Xi approached her subconsciously, clinging to the girl's body, and then turning to the girl behind.

Lock!

Throw!

It was almost exactly the same as he did to Kingfisher just now, but it was faster, and the power was reduced to a negligible degree, almost by using the other's weight.

Unlike the Hard Body, the Soft Body always looks so beautiful.

Before the fallen girl could resist, Yun Xi locked her hands and feet with Straight Armbar, then raised his fist and knocked her small head symbolically.

“Ahhh...” The girl looked at Yun Xi with tears in her eyes.

The gap is too big. It’s not a gap that any skill or talent can surpass.

This is the difference between the hero rank and the mortal rank. Yun Xi used his power carefully to avoid hurting her.

“Throw in the towel?” Sitting on the girl’s body, Yun Xi smiled calmly.

The whole process was just like playing with children.

“What to do... to be as powerful as you are?” The girl was unwilling to look at Yun Xi, who suppressed herself and made herself unable to move.

“Your... you will be stronger soon...” Yun Xi could feel that the girl in front of him had the aptitude to be a witch.

In her body, there is an extraordinary magic bud, which is the “magic source” of the witches.

Being a common girl, she had the aptitude to awaken the talent belonging to the witch. This is naturally the effect of Yun Xi’s seed sharing.

It means that she is more suitable for the rank of a witch than a knight.

Of course, it doesn't mean that she can't use the sword. Many witches are also good at using their magic wands as "large siege weapons".

"Really?"

"I can be as strong as you?" The girl's eyes began to be full of hope.

"Yes, you have a different future." Yun Xi also wondered why she, as a member of the Starwing Knights, had awakened the magic talent of the witch.

"I'll try!" The girl put up her chest and began to be confident again.

"I'm Xiaoye. Thank you for your advice."

Ah, whether it is Xiaomi or Xiaoye, my Starwing Knights have so many talented girls!

Watching the girls grow up like flowers in the garden, showing their charm, Yun Xi has a sense of achievement.

Maybe that's how horticulturists feel.

"Don't let me say it again! Don't talk to other girls in front of me!" Desert Dragon Zaka gnashed her teeth and looked at Yun Xi. Her dragon teeth were almost exposed as anger boiled in her eyes.

Feeling the horror of Zaka, the people around her are frightened away like birds and beasts. Not everyone can be the same as Yun Xi, who can have a peaceful heart facing the dragon.

“It looks like we’ll meet each other in the arena soon.” Yun Xi came down from the arena and didn’t notice anything wrong with Zaka at all.

“Yes, this is our stage!”

“The names of Zaro and Shaheen will make the prince sleepless with fear.” Desert Dragon Zaka proudly raised her head.

Yes, that’s it.

Except for her and Shaheen, other contestants of the Championship Knight Competition are just a bunch of weak chickens.

There is no need to worry about the short-lived species. Except for the elf, who is a little dangerous, the others are not even qualified to be her opponent.

The treasure Zaka wants must be occupied in every way!

“Let me beat down all of them!” Being praised by Yun Xi, Zaka had an impulse to smash the competition completely.

She wants these stupid people to know what a real dragon is.

“Don’t exaggerate. Show your real strength in the final.” Yun Xi had a headache. He looked at Zaka, who was so full of energy.

If it’s Hua Huo, she won’t have such a strong desire to attack. She is like a bad version of Hua Huo.

“Ha!” With another roar, Desert Dragon Zaka triumphantly blew her opponent away.

Everyone who saw this scene had no doubt about the last winner of the competition.

Overbearing!

Strong!

Invincible!

The name of Zaro has become a symbol of despair. At least other contestants of this competition have given up their hope to be the champion.

Other people are aiming at the top three at most. In the eyes of many people, the top three of the Championship Knight Competition has been decided.

The strongest contestant – Zaro.

The second favorite one, may also be the only one who has the hope to challenge Zaro – Xiao Cao.

The third favorite one, the person who showed his strong close combat ability in the competition – Shaheen.

In fact, the situation was developing as people expected.

The final 16!

The final 8!

The final 4!

Zaro, Shaheen, Xiao Cao, and a knight of the royal household became the last four people of the Championship Knight Competition.

As a result of drawing lots and grouping, Zaro took the lead in the attack. The hero ranked royal knight was specially dressed in the ancestral armor and had a big shield. Unfortunately, none of the equipment had any effect on resisting Desert Dragon Zaka's roar, and he was instantly blown away.

The next battle was between Yun Xi and his deputy head of Starwing Knights.

“Xiao Cao.....” Yun Xi looked at Xiao Cao who came up from the arena opposite him and felt a little nervous.

Only her, even in the face of the overwhelming crushing victory of Zaka, never showed any wavering.

Without Desert Dragon Zaka and Yun Xi, the Starwing Knights would have been the biggest winner of the Championship Knight Competition.

Half of the people of the top 16 belong to the Starwing Knights.

Chapter 725: The Sword of the Mortal

Xiao Cao was as calm as ever, just like her name.

The power of the dragon can make the most bloodthirsty beast escape, but it can't make the most humble grass bow its head.

Whether you pay attention or not, value it or despise it, the grass is there, growing strong and tough.

She is stronger again.

Yun Xi could clearly feel the power of Xiao Cao at present.

His seed gave her talent, just like spreading the best soil on the barren land, which transformed Xiao Cao, who was originally growing slowly overnight.

Maybe even without Yun Xi's seed, Xiao Cao would still reach the legend rank in the distant future with her efforts.

Yun Xi changed Xiao Cao's fate and opened her way to a higher world.

Of all the members of the Starwing Knights who have accepted Yun Xi seeds, Xiao Cao has the highest growth rate.

That's a change that can be judged by the naked eye. Every day, Xiao Cao is actually becoming more powerful. What makes Yun Xi feel strange is that this kind of growth has not stopped at all.

After the transformation, Xiao Cao, like lifting the upper limit of growth, is steadfast in the constant battle without any stagnancy.

She killed the giant scorpion summoned by Desert Dragon Zaka alone, and this was far from her limit.

Even Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights, might have been left far behind by Xiao Cao if she had not inherited the legacy of the Holy Knights.

"You... are very strong..." Holding her mortal sword, Xiao Cao looked at Yun Xi and said lightly.

This is the first time for her to speak to her opponent at the Championship Knight Competition.

It also means that Yun Xi is an enemy that needs to be treated with all her strength.

“You’re good, too.” Yun Xi knows all the data of Xiao Cao’s body even without using his Soft Water Palm.

The soft skin, delicate body. Every corner had been presented in the moonlight in front of his eyes.

On the day when they were on the desert island, Xiao Cao appeared in front of him on a dolphin from the sea, and this fantastic scene had long been firmly engraved in his memory.

“I... I’m going to be serious...” Xiao Cao slowly raised the sword in her hand, and her eyes became extremely quiet.

It was like the calm before a storm, like the boundless silence before a thunderstorm.

The Battle God’s Seed in Yun Xi’s body released more energy of qi and blood than usual, which seemed to remind Yun Xi that this battle was extraordinary.

I know it. Xiao Cao’s combat power will become stronger as she meets strong opponents.

Her fighting instinct may be superior to that of Kingfisher.

So, I will also more seriously take out the real stunts to defeat her!

Yun Xi's right hand raised like the wings of a crane, and there were invisible ripples around him.

The Water God Dance!

As one who had witnessed how Yun Xi defeated other members of the Starwing Knights with this skill, Xiao Cao showed no fear. Following a drum-like footstep rhythm of drums, she bravely attacked Yun Xi.

The first slash, from left to right.

The second cleave, from top to bottom.

Xiao Cao's sword looks so simple and ordinary.

Only Yun Xi who faced the sword could feel the strong will contained in it.

The Water God Dance failed for the first time.

The "circle" spread from Yun Xi as the center was cut by Xiao Cao's mortal sword. Although it recovered soon, it lost all of its special abilities.

This means that Yun Xi cannot predict Xiao Cao's attack exactly as before.

The power of the Sword of the Mortal perfectly restrained Yun Xi's Water God Dance.

Although this ability is just a prototype, it is enough to make Yun Xi feel its horror.

If he faced such a sword when he had just entered the world of dragon war, he might have been suppressed by such a mortal sword.

Fortunately, Yun Xi was not the ordinary bakery owner now.

He had obtained his own god weapon, Starwings, and made a puppet with its own soul. Yun Xi grew faster than Xiao Cao, which also had the credit of the Starwing Knights.

It's ok if you can't predict the enemy's attack. As long as you can be faster and stronger than the enemy!

With his fingertips moving, Yun Xi's palm touched Xiao Cao's mortal sword.

The Sword of the Mortal has a special effect of breaking all the extraordinary attributes.

Xiao Cao is the only one who can exert the power of the sword to this extent.

But in addition, it is not sharp, nor has any other special ability.

For Xiao Cao, this is the best god weapon for her, the most powerful weapon with unlimited possibilities.

Giving her enough time to grow up, Yun Xi was afraid that even God could be killed by her.

Of course, she doesn't have that power yet.

"Pat!" With faster speed and reaction ability than Xiao Cao, Yun Xi's palm hit her sword body from the side. The strange concussion force passed from the sword body. This is not magic or spell, but the high-level application of the Soft Body's force.

Other members of the Starwing Knights who fought against Yun Xi were completely defeated by this kind of attack, and they didn't even know how they got it.

Xiao Cao was obviously different. At the first moment when her body was invaded by the power of Soft Water Palm, her body began to shake in a strange rhythm, while the sword in her hand was as stable as ever.

The Soft Water Palm's force was dissolved for the first time.

The rhythm of Xiao Cao's body automatically analyzed the way of Soft Water Palm's invasion, and used the method she could use to resist the silent attack.

It's a terrible talent. Although Yun Xi himself shared Xiao Cao's talent, just like Hua Huo's talent, it's impossible to exert a stronger power of the seed than the girl herself.

The Sword of the Mortal is a god sword only belonging to Xiao Cao, her exclusive hero road.

Yun Xi's choice is not the path of the Sword of the Mortal.

The sea of stars is his final destination.

Xiao Cao's seed, now in the sea of stars, seems inconspicuous, but it has the greatest potential to become the most dazzling star.

Chapter 726: The Sky Flying Sword

Shaheen's fight against Xiao Cao finally showed people the fierce battle of the real hero rank.

As the last battle of the final four, it is the most enjoyable, heart beating and blood boiling battle that can be understood by ordinary people.

Fast, faster, fastest! Without a reason!

Xiao Cao's sword is just like her own cultivation process, showing a step-by-step growing process.

Limbo Rock, this is the most remarkable skill of Xiao Cao's Sword of the Mortal.

Add up the attack over and over again, and each attack will be stronger than the last one. After a thousand times, it shows a potent effect.

If Yun Xi didn't use the Water God Dance, he would have lost long ago if he only used his halftone melee skills.

In terms of battle intuition, Yun Xi is slightly inferior to Xiao Cao, who has the Sword of the Mortal.

As a hero rank Baker, Yun Xi's mentality is slightly better than Xiao Cao's.

Speed, strength, and reaction are nearly equal, but Yun Xi's Soft Body is better than Xiao Cao's swordsmanship.

Comparing the advantages and disadvantages of the two sides, Yun Xi and Xiao Cao were able to draw – if Yun Xi didn't use his god weapon, Starwings.

There is no doubt that this is the most exciting and fierce battle since the beginning of the Championship Knight Competition.

Both sides fell into a wonderful rhythm.

The two sides changed their moves at the same time.

Xiao Cao was trying to avoid being hit by Yun Xi's Soft Water Palm, while Yun Xi was trying to find the flaws of Xiao Cao's Sword of the Mortal.

Yun Xi didn't switch the Soft Body to the Hard Body, although by using this he could force to interrupt Xiao Cao's Limbo Rock.

Xiao Cao didn't stop the dance, but under the pressure of the Soft Water Palm, the speed of sword waving became faster and the trace of the sword became more changeable.

After losing the Water God Dance's prediction skill, Yun Xi was using his stronger constitution to capture Xiao Cao's attack route, not with eyes, but with feelings to fight against Xiao Cao.

At last, Hua Huo's sword skill seed has grown up in such a high-speed and fierce battle.

Although Yun Xi was not fighting with the sword, it was just because he was facing Xiao Cao's strongest Sword of the Mortal, and the arrogant Hua Huo's sword skill seed was willing to release its power so actively.

Compared with Xiao Cao's Sword of the Mortal, Hua Huo's sword was a sword skill judging everything from a higher level.

In front of the Sky Flying Sword, all the ordinary creatures are as insignificant as the ground insects.

Only creatures that are loved by the rules of heaven and earth, like fantastic creatures, are entitled to witness the dance of the Sky Flying Sword.

This is not originally a sword skill used for human beings, but a god sword skill. It and Xiao Cao's mortal sword are almost at two extremes.

In theory, it is possible for anyone to cultivate the Sword of the Mortal.

Hua Huo's Sky Flying Sword is born as a sword skill in the field of God, with the characteristics of surpassing everything.

Even though Yun Xi does not have a sword in his hand now, he has a sword in his heart.

It's a sword that can cut the world.

Perhaps, the fields that both eventually lead to are the same, but in the initial stage, there is no doubt that the Sky Flying Sword is stronger.

It's reflected in Yun Xi, who gradually understood the mystery of the Sky Flying Sword, was that the Soft Water Palm he waved casually brought with a touch of elegance and pride.

There is no sword in the hand, only because the sword is in the heart.

"Pat!" For the first time, Xiao Cao's Sword of the Mortal didn't eliminate Yun Xi's palm power. The sword body was lowered, and Xiao Cao, who was infiltrated into the body by the power of the Soft Water Palm, was knocked back three steps.

This was the first time that Xiao Cao had been forced back since the beginning of the battle, and her Limbo Rock had been forced to interrupt.

“Well done, Shaheen!” Zaka cheered loudly. From every move of Yun Xi, she felt a kind of breath called fate.

His movement, and that grace, fascinated her.

Obviously, he is a human, but he has a kind of air of looking down on everything.

Yes, just like Zakas, who are more powerful than any other intelligent creatures and born with the absolute power to dominate the world.

Naturally, only the creature who has the same power as Zakas has the qualification to be loved by her.

Yun Xi was now showing Zaka that he also had perfect combat skills in addition to his terrifying power.

What’s more, this way of fighting can resonate with Zaka’s blood.

Apparently, he is not the descendant of the original giant dragon. Can any human master this kind of temperament?

If it’s not confirmed that Yun Xi has neither dragon scales nor horns, Zaka will think that he is her own kind.

It has to be said that the effect of this exhibition is excellent.

Zaka was very satisfied with Yun Xi's performance and gave him 100 points.

Just, why don't you draw out your god weapon?

If you use that sword, isn't it super simple to defeat the girl in front of you?

Yun Xi, of course, will not use Starwings on Xiao Cao. He will never take the initiative to pull out the sword that may bring infinite terror to his own Starwing Knights.

And even without the Starwings, he had the confidence to beat Xiao Cao.

The Sky Flying Sword is his greatest strength.

After the three thousand combos of her Limbo Rock were forced to interrupt, Xiao Cao slightly frowned.

Her speed, strength, and attack power once reached the strongest state when she reached 3000 combos in the Limbo Rock.

Even this kind of dance was broken by Yun Xi.

And the way Yun Xi broke it, was a way she couldn't understand and analyze.

It seems to be ordinary, and the attack speed is not fast, but it is forced to overwhelm and destroy her sword power at the strongest point.

The power of God.

This is the first time Xiao Cao has met the god sword skill, which is located at the top of the endless god's domains. Even though her Sword of the Mortal has the ability to break all the extraordinary attributes, the sword skill is not magic, Taoism, or divinity.

The Sky Flying Sword's just a sword skill. However, it's a god sword skill.

Xiao Cao's sword can reach the field of the god sword skill in theory, but it needs countless data and experience accumulation.

When Xiao Cao goes through countless battles and surpasses all enemies, the Sword of the Mortal can reach this realm.

Now Xiao Cao is far away from that realm, so facing the Sky Flying Sword of Yun Xi, she felt the limitation of herself for the first time.

The Sword of the Mortal, for the first time, met an invincible opponent.

This... this's so pleasant!

Xiao Cao smiled and saw the end of the fight.

I will lose.

“Shaheen, go on, use your sword to kill her. Take it out and solve her in seconds!” Zaka shouted.

Oh, sword, he hasn’t drawn out his sword yet.

Although Xiao Cao doesn’t know what the “sword” is, maybe it’s a kind of extremely powerful god weapon.

So, is that how to admit defeat?

The Sword of the Mortal is never an invincible sword, but a sword that can accomplish the ultimate ideal of all people by accumulating experience with countless simple efforts.

Such a sword, of course, is not afraid of failure. Rather, a real failure can make the Sword of the Mortal grow better.

Just like the grass, who can’t burn out wildfires, every defeat will make the Sword of the Mortal stronger and more unyielding.

“Don’t be merciful. Let me see your strongest sword.” Xiao Cao once again grasped her mortal sword, her eyes become more stable, even with a smile of expectation, quietly saying what shocked Yun Xi,

“My prince...”

“How do you know!” Yun Xi was stunned.

He had the confidence that his disguise is perfect. How could Xiao Cao see through it?.

“I smell it.” Xiao Cao answered naturally.

“Are you a dog?!” Yun Xi was speechless. He looked at Xiao Cao. For the first time, he knows that his deputy leader of the Starwing Knights has such special effects.

“Well, just one sword.” Since Xiao Cao was so requested, Yun Xi knew that he couldn’t pretend that his sword was not a god weapon anymore.

Looking at Xiao Cao’s extremely serious eyes, Yun Xi can’t hide anymore.

Ah, Zaro. Why did you say it! If you didn’t say it, she may not have noticed the sword!

“The name of the sword is Starwings.” He held out his hand, Yun Xi closed his eyes and began to imagine that “cat”.

Lovely cat.

Elegant cat.

The cat that exists and doesn't exist at the same time.

I like cats.

Yun Hai's Quadrant Sword.

Now that he has made a promise, let Xiao Cao have a look.

This must be the sword she expected.

The Sky Flying Sword that is beyond everything.

Chapter 727: More Wings!

"Oh, you finally drew it out, Shaheen!" Zaro looked at the Starwings in Yun Xi's hands, which was also the cause of her defeat not long ago.

Without Starwings breaking Zaka's indestructible defense, Yun Xi would not have had a chance to defeat her at all.

Seeing Starwings once again, Zaka couldn't help but reach behind and hold the gravel colored sword.

This sword didn't even make its debut in the battle with Yun Xi, that is to say, Zaka didn't make every effort in that battle.

The sword seemed to feel the pressure of Starwings and started to rotate spontaneously. The surrounding wind started to appear at an abnormal speed.

This is Zaka's god weapon – the Star of the Sand. It was forged from the fantasy crystallization of the original dragon. It's enough to prove how terrible Starwings is to make the Star of the Sand have such a reaction.

...

Getting stronger? Yun Xi was aware of this.

Can't imagine that this is really a god weapon melted and recast by the Crane Wings Twin Swords.

It's terrible enough that he can use the sword's skill "Sword Aura" infinitely. Now there is another feature that the sword will become stronger with the passage of time. Is this really the god weapon that belongs to me?

Yun Xi has a bad feeling that some unknown changes are taking place in the god sword that the stars sent to him.

Looking carefully, the veins on the sword body seemed to be more detailed and complicated, just like the wings were originally projected, and now they were slowly approaching him in this world.

"This is the prince's god weapon..."

“What a powerful, terrible sword...”

Xiao Cao looked at Starwings in Yun Xi’s hand with excitement in her eyes.

This sword looks like a gorgeous work of art. No matter the clear and transparent color of the sword body or the armguard with the hilt extended like wings, it presents a unique “beauty”.

Especially when the sword is held by Yun Xi, the lines of the whole world seem to crisscross into different melodies, playing around him.

It’s the music of non God, non devil, and non-human. It’s the sound of nature that stirs the strings of the world.

Unlike the whispers of the ancient gods, the voice from Starwings is more like some kind of ballad.

That ballad across the long river of time and space, echoes in Yun Xi’s ear with the world as a tool to transmit sound.

“Lovely, happy, sad, distressed, all these constitute the melody of love, I will definitely carry out this love to the end. In the overflowing spring of love, this feeling transcends everything. Even time and space, life, and death, can’t stop my love for you.”

“Make an appointment under the blue sky. This is my song of love. The love for you weaves the melody and song of love for me. Love me well, my love.”

“The sweet, the joyful, the sad, the painful, even the regret, and the anxious are the melody of love.”

“Whenever and wherever, this missing accompanies you, because that is my song of love. I was born to love you and sing to pass it on.”

“When I met you, the melody flowed and still reverberated in my heart. Listen to my voice of love, my love.”

The eyes of the masters of the wings following the path of certain destiny, start to gaze at the distance through the endless Star River with the Starwings as the medium.

That’s what the stars see. It’s destiny.

Girls with wings on their backs.

Green wings represent infinite vitality.

Black wings represent cold and death.

Mercury wings represent sanctity and nobleness.

The wings represent the merciless destruction.

The wings represent the creator.

The golden wings burning above the 33 heavens.

Yun Xi counted and was 100% sure that the number of wings reflected in the Starwings increased again.

Is this the way to gather all the colors of the wings?

Why do I feel that the more I use the Starwings, the closer I'm approaching my death?!

Delusion! It must be a delusion!

Starwings is a god weapon evolved from the Crane Wings Twin Swords. It's not an unknown god weapon.

Yun Xi firmly believes that no matter how many young girls with wings are reflected in the Starwings, he can bear it!

Anyway, it's a long time before he can use the real power of these wings.

He has not yet broken through the hero rank as a swordsman. Just looking at these wings, he can feel the power of infinite rules they represent. That's not something the hero rank can hold.

Yes, don't worry. As long as you become strong enough, you can ignore any side effects. Starwings belong to you.

So draw your sword!

In response to Yun Xi's will, Starwings immediately released the light of wings which once made Desert Dragon Zaka suffer a great loss.

It's not the sword aura that human beings can understand. It may not even belong to the concept of sword aura.

Each Starwings' light of wings is independent and even has the instinct to automatically track the opponent's attack.

This gorgeous scene is just the simplest attack of the Starwings.

Xiao Cao wielded the Sword of the Mortal in her hand, fighting against the light of the Starwings.

One thousand, two thousand, three thousand! Xiao Cao was driven into a desperate situation by the Starwings' light of wings, and stepped into a field that she had never reached before.

In contrast, Yun Xi raised the Starwings in his hands and took a deep breath.

The next second, Xiao Cao's body, like the straw swept by a merciless storm, was blown out of the arena.

Chapter 728: Out of Control

Yun Xi underestimated the Starwings sword and the Sky Flying Sword.

The Sky Flying Sword itself is a god sword skill that allows ordinary swordsmen to kill a hero ranked powerful monster.

Starwings is the future sword among the three strongest swords in the memory of stars, forging by using countless precious treasures and even gods and demons' lives.

The first time Yun Xi used Starwings, he only swung the sword and forever ended the sin of the degenerated king, who obtained part of the power of ancient gods.

The second time the Starwings was used, it was against the dragon that was ravaging the mainland. He only used a brandish and then the dragon scale was broken through, which was hard enough to block the attack of forbidden spells.

However, Yun Xi had never tried to perform the Sky Flying Sword with Starwings.

The Sky Flying Sword is not just a god sword skill that literally allows people to fly in the sky.

The Sky Flying Sword symbolizes infinite freedom, which is not bound by all rules.

When Yun Xi summoned the Starwings for the third time, and used the Sky Flying Sword, the strongest god sword in the "future" of the stars' memory finally showed its true power.

Now, he was using the second ability of the Starwings, a basic ability developed by the Sky Flying Sword.

Really, it's not a special power at all. It's the ability to use as long as it's a sword and is performed by a qualified swordsman.

It's just a little stronger than the most basic "normal attack" and a little more time-consuming, which is known as "charge attack".

Whether it's swordsmen, knights, or other professions using swords, charge attack is a required combat skill. It's a general skill to use more time and concentration to attack.

The problem is that the Starwings's "charge" and Yun Xi's understanding of "charge" are not the same concept at all!

He just held the Starwings in his hands, concentrated, and found out in horror that things were out of control!

A pair of giant golden wings appeared behind Yun Xi without any omen, which is exactly the law represented by the wings closest to Yun Xi, a kind of extremely hot power that seems to burn through heaven and earth.

Yun Xi just felt this power not long ago.

This is a unique attribute of the Sunwalker.

The sun burns and shines on everything.

The sun brings glory and destruction!

Of all the stars, the sun gives birth to the most life and destroys the most life!

The golden wings that emerge behind Yun Xi are a pair of true wings of the sun. Because the owner of the wings is the weakest and the closest to Yun Xi, they become the first pair of wings that come to the Starwings.

Normally, it is impossible for Yun Xi to let the two wings come at this stage.

It's the Sky Flying Sword that opens the forbidden door.

The Sky Flying Sword can break all the shackles and obtain unlimited freedom. It lifted the restrictions of Starwings, calling the golden wings of the sun to Yun Xi.

This series of accidents eventually formed an irreversible chain reaction, which showed a pair of wings in Starwings in advance.

The problem is, for Yun Xi, who has not even reached the hero rank, the wings are too powerful!

Hot, hot! Yun Xi never felt his blood so boiling, just like the hot magma in the volcano.

Xiao Cao is no longer in the arena. The light wings directly blew her out.

The golden wings, even if they are just projections, are beyond the limit that Xiao Cao can bear now. It was as easy as breathing to blow her body away.

“Well, is that your real strength, Shaheen?” At this time, only Zaka dared to jump into the arena.

The more power Yun Xi shows, the happier she is.

In the dragon race, if the male dragon can show the overwhelming power to the female dragon, it will definitely be a big bonus for the male dragon.

Two hundred points! Zaka didn't hesitate to give Yun Xi her score.

Some people can score 100 in the exam, that's because their limit is only 100.

Some people get 100 points because the limit of this exam is only 100 points. ,

Take the Sky Flying Sword as the key, summon the wings of the sun, there is no doubt that in the exam of a “proposal to Zaka”, Yun Xi has obtained the super score that satisfies Zaka by 200%.

“Go away I... I can't stop..... ” Big drops of sweat fell from Yun Xi's forehead.

Countless beautiful golden red elves were cheering, dancing, and laughing around him.

They are the spirits of light and fire, the only fantastic creatures that can survive beside the sunwalker. Where the sunwalker goes, the earth will melt, the sky will burn, and everything will collapse in the endless fire of the sun.

No, it's not a delusion, it's something that's going to happen.

What the sunwalker bears is such a lonely fate.

"No need to stop. It's time to fight!" Zaka held the Star of the Sand behind her and pulled out the god weapon for the first time.

The spiral pattern was rotating, whistling, releasing the same horrible atmosphere as Yun Xi's Starwings at the moment.

The power of the original dragon is not afraid of any foreign things. It is the power of the rules from the origin of the world.

Desert Dragon Zaka held the power of the whole western desert world.

The hot sand storm blew up, revealing the charming and lovely face under the cloak, as well as the tall golden hair horns.

“Come on, Shaheen!”

The final battle of the Champion Knight Competition started!

Chapter 729: The Star of the Sand

“No, I can’t control it!” Yun Xi was relieved to see Desert Dragon Zaka come on stage.

Xiao Cao can’t take this attack at any rate now. Her growth speed is really extraordinary, but this one is from Starwings.

He even felt that his sword could raze the whole city to the ground.

He had completely lost control of Starwings.

If this is the power accumulated from his own cultivation, there is no such problem naturally. Even the Battle God’s Seed will naturally stop after reaching a certain limit.

But Starwings is different.

The power that this sword summons easily exceeds the limit that Yun Xi can control.

At this moment, Yun Xi even has an illusion that his body has become a little sun.

All the time, his body radiated high temperature, and even the stone slabs of the arena began to melt.

“What a comfortable temperature.” Zaka stood comfortably in the arena which was almost to become a lava pool. She smiled happily at Yun Xi.

In her hand, the spiral blade had begun to rotate and accelerate, and even the clouds in the sky had been stirred.

The decisive battle, without any omen or notice to anyone, came so suddenly.

The so-called rules of the Championship Knight Competition have become a joke.

“Evacuate, evacuate!”

“If you don’t want to die, all people who haven’t reached the hero rank leave the arena!”

Watching the speed of the collapse of the magic shield of the arena, the captains of the Kingdom Knights roared wildly.

In fact, when Yun Xi’s figure almost completely disappeared in the burning light and the whole arena began to melt, the audience had already fled.

No matter how good the duel is, they need to be alive to watch it.

Just like those knights said, people who don't reach the hero rank don't even have the qualification to see the battle at this level.

Now, everyone is worried about whether this battle will blow up the whole city.

"Come for me, hot Star of the Sand." Desert Dragon Zaka proudly raised the god weapon in her hand. The spiral blade summoned endless gravel and brought the desert storm.

These endless sands are entangled and compressed together to form a large sphere, which looks like a small planet.

Compared with the sandstorm summoned by Zaka's real body, this is more real and closer to the attitude of the planet.

If the sandstorm was just a large-scale strategic weapon formed by gathering numerous sands together, then the aggregate of sands is closer to the essence of "rules".

This is the ultimate weapon that Desert Dragon Zaka summoned with her god weapon, "Star of the Sand". Even the name of her god weapon is closely related to it.

The hot sand star, the incarnation of the god weapon field, which will bring endless pressure when it comes to the world. Its weight is more than hundreds of millions of tons. If it was smashed down, the sky of the entire continent would be covered by dust.

No flesh and blood can directly resist the power of this planet falling, which is also the strongest god weapon held by Desert Dragon Zaka!

As the earliest born, Desert Dragon Zaka has the weakest power, but also, she has been compensated for by her god weapon. Her Star of the Sand is the only super god weapon among the four god weapons held by the four sisters.

Yun Xi is worried about the control of Starwings, while Zaka has no such problem at all, because she won't control the Star of the Sand at all.

"Take it!"

"Shaheen!"

"This is the last test!"

The eyes of Desert Dragon Zaka were shining. Yun Xi showed his strongest, Starwings and his unparalleled strength, so she naturally has to show the highest level of test to prove her mind.

Propose and be proposed.

Love and be loved.

This is the battle to decide who will take the initiative in passionate love.

The rules of the Championship Knight Competition were forgotten by Desert Dragon Zaka.

From the moment Yun Xi pulled out Starwings and showed his strongest side, Desert Dragon Zaka was so moved that she had long forgotten the original purpose of making a big kill in the city.

What prince? Get out of the way.

Now, it's time to propose and test. It's time to follow the dragon's love rules, show each other their strongest side, and reach a tacit agreement.

"Good!" Yun Xi didn't know what Desert Dragon Zaka was talking about at all, but when he saw the Star of the Sand, his eyes suddenly brightened.

There's a goal!

At least, if I take this as the object of attack, it will not cause too much damage to the royal city.

If Desert Dragon Zaka hadn't jumped out to do this, he would have made an unforgivable mistake.

Who would have thought that using the Sky Flying Sword would cause such a disaster!

This sword is absolutely enough to burn the whole city.

The flame of the wings of the sun is not for killing, but for the real doomsday.

The power of Starwings is a hundred times more terrible than his imagination!

He really belittled this sword, which represents the god sword among the three swords in the “future” world line.

The golden wings spread freely behind Yun Xi, and the whole arena ground has evaporated, leaving only a crater.

“I’m not going to be lenient.” With her feet on the hot Star of the Sand, Zaka said haughtily.

Maybe in a one-on-one battle, she is not the rival of her three unborn sisters, but in the most simple “destruction”, she deserves the name of the dragon that ravages the mainland.

Among the four sisters, she is the only Zaka who holds the “world-against” god weapon, she is the great Desert Dragon Zaka!

The wings behind Yun Xi suddenly shrank back, and endless solar wind particles began to emerge crazily.

Next second, in Yun Xi’s vision, there are only endless golden-red flames.

Chapter 730: The Destruction of the Star of the Sand

This is not the power Yun Xi, who has not reached the hero rank, should use.

The sunwalker is a legend ranked creature at the top of the starry sky.

Every sunwalker has the power to incarnate as the sun, to shine and destroy everything.

Now, Yun Xi is experiencing the taste of becoming a light furnace.

The power that could not be used by him at this stage came directly to him through the Starwings.

Yun Xi can only force himself to adapt to and accept this power by using the drawings of the light furnace in his mind; although he didn't know whether it is correct or not.

It has to be said that the gift left by Princess Golden Sun Crow played a crucial role at this time.

It's because of the light furnace forged with Princess Golden Sun Crow that Yun Xi didn't burn himself when he summoned the wings of the sun.

"I'm a light furnace!"

"I'm a light furnace!"

"I'm a light furnace!"

With this seemingly unreliable but unexpectedly useful self-hypnosis, Yun Xi wasn't lost in the fire of the sun brought by the wings of the sun.

This time, it is different from the battle with the Princess Golden Sun Crow. There is no golden sun crow as the core controller for Yun Xi. He can only pretend to be the light furnace, so that the coming of the wings of the sun does not turn into a disaster that destroys the whole kingdom.

Yun Xi never thought that Starwings, that he had prepared to use to defeat the dragon, was more dangerous than the dragon who had not actually appeared.

It's just the weakest and youngest pair of wings in the Starwings!

What would it be like if all the wings appeared from Starwings?

He can't imagine what it would be like. It's too far away for the boy who was the owner of the bakery not long ago.

It's like letting a young man who is still learning "Nine Chapters of Arithmetic" and "Geometric Principles" design a Quantum Computer. It's too unrealistic!

All the people in the city saw that horrible scene on this day.

With a diameter of more than one kilometer, an object suspected of meteorites appears in the sky without warning. A few people who are close to the arena and have good eyesight can even see the figure on it.

In the next second, countless golden red particles rose from the earth and formed a light column that ran through the sky and the earth.

It's Yun Xi's Starwings, the sword of the sun that comes out of the wings of the sun.

Hundreds of millions of light and fire spirits danced between heaven and the earth, letting the elf on the ground hold his heart, showing the expression of intoxication.

"Oh, oh, oh, oh!" Oh, the "meteorite" weighs hundreds of millions of tons, Desert Dragon Zaka tightly holds the sword.

Now, more than anyone else, she can clearly feel how much earth-shaking power has been released from the wings of Yun Xi and the god sword.

Over a million degrees! It not only melts the ground directly, but also causes the plasma phenomenon.

If she hadn't pulled out the Star of the Sand and shielded the surrounding area with the desert field, the high temperature would have burned the whole city to ashes.

Such power... it's a weapon to destroy the world!

Yun Xi couldn't control the power of the sun's wings well. He just compressed the flame of the wings in one direction and had done his best.

The high temperature of more than a million degrees can burn through the whole crust in an instant, and even make the earth's core boil.

The sun lightsaber condensed at this temperature bombards the meteorite, which makes the whole hot meteorite melt and evaporate in a few seconds.

If it wasn't for the Star of the Sand to continuously provide the energy to repair the melted part of the meteorite, in a moment, the meteorite which could destroy the world would have been destroyed.

Even so, the meteorite weighing over hundreds of millions of tons was shivering in this endless solar storm.

How can the Star of the Sand be compared with the power of the sun?!

In the fifth second, the smile on Zaka's face turned to amazement.

No, this power is extraordinary!

In the seventh second, Zaka's clothes began to burn, and soon exposed her healthy skin.

The 10th second, the whole meteorite began to enter the countdown of its destruction.

"Boom!"

In less than 15 seconds, the whole meteorite disintegrated in the endless solar storm.

“Whoa, whoa!”

With a diameter of more than one kilometer, only a core less than 10 meters was left to Desert Dragon Zaka, and then was blown away to the sky by the sunlight stream.

From the time Yun Xi drew out the sword, to the collapse of the meteorite, it only took about 13 seconds.

In the short time of 13 seconds, the temperature over the whole continent has risen by more than 10 degrees. The golden-red track even extended beyond the atmosphere.

On the ground, Yun Xi carefully put down Starwings and scrunched his face.

There had never been such a victory, which made Yun Xi so frightened.

If it wasn't for Zaka, who had launched an unknown field around here that constrained the power of the wings of the sun.

In addition, the meteorite she summoned consumed more than half of the power of the solar light flow.

Yun Xi was afraid that he wouldn't have to wait for the dragon to come. He would have eliminated his own kingdom in advance.

The power of Starwings is so terrifying.

“Crap.” This is the first time Yun Xi really felt how terrible Starwings was.

Is this the sword that represents “the future”, really the god weapon he can forge?

Is there something wrong with this sword? It’s terrible!
