

Starchild 741

Chapter 741: The Girl's Gaze

Under the protection of the Royal Guard, the pumpkin carriage where Yun Xi, White Moon and Mumu were, began to slowly tour the whole city along the street.

Everywhere the carriage went, there were flowers, applause, and cheers.

People from the bottom of their hearts bless the new couple and warmly look forward to the birth of the new king.

All the kings who guard the kingdom are near perfect knights. Apart from the strange habit of never marrying any lovers, their personal force and morality are almost impeccable.

They are worthy of the name of knights. Otherwise, they will not let even the lovers who know the truth stay with them and have children for them.

Yun Xi, the prince of this generation, is the hero who beat back the dragon before he ascended the throne. The people are looking forward to the prince's great achievements together with the Starwing Knights when he becomes king.

Fight against the dragon! Maybe the new king can do it!

People are so looking forward to giving blessings and applause to today's new newlyweds.

"The queen is so beautiful. I didn't expect her to be such a peerless beauty."

“Everything is perfect except for her age.”

“It doesn’t matter if girls are a little younger. Girls are developing very fast. She can have children in two years.”

“To our prince and Princess White Moon!”

All the people who saw Princess White Moon for the first time, except the Zaka sisters, were full of praise and gave all the beautiful words to the mysterious queen.

Although she is a little younger, only about 12 years old, her beauty is naturally attractive.

Just like the Queen of Assyria a thousand years ago, the young Queen of Assyria who appeared in the sunshine world as White Moon easily captured the hearts of countless people.

It was the queen’s majesty who made generations of kings kneel and swear allegiance.

It’s also today’s lovely princess who holds the prince’s hand in the pumpkin carriage.

Mysterious and pure.

White without scale.

White Moon, just like her name, has the beauty of pure white and moonlight at the same time, is a perfect match with the prince Yun Xi, who is as dazzling as the sun.

Even the members of the Starwing Knights, who were quietly following in the crowd and in charge of the security task, were in a trance when they saw such a White Moon.

If not for the solid evidence and 100% trust in Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights, they could not believe that the girl in front of them was the one who swallowed up the lives of the kings, a monster who ate people and didn't spit out bones.

Under that beautiful face, it is an indescribable terror.

"We shall not be confused! White Moon is lovely, but it's a terror that can't be touched."

"She has a magic power that captivates people. The prince must have been captured by her magic."

"That's why we need to protect the prince!"

The members of the Starwing Knights, who were in charge of the security task, whispered to each other, trying not to look at the couple in the carriage.

"Well, is everyone here?" The naughty Mumu climbed onto Yun Xi's shoulder and waved curiously to the companions of the Starwing Knights around, "Hello, everyone."

The members of the Starwing Knights, who could not tell Mumu the truth, showed anxious eyes and worried about the smallest and ignorant member of the Starwing Knights.

In the past few days, Mumu has been together with the “demon queen” who eats people for days. Won’t she be tempted by the “demon queen”?

Does the immortal demon queen have a hobby of eating children?

At least, from the records that can be traced back, what she ate should only be the kings. They pray that the queen is only interested in powerful knights.

“Brother Prince, Will Mumu marry you too?” After greeting the young ladies of the Starwing Knights, Mumu leaned over Yun Xi’s cheek and asked this very important question.

“Where did you hear the rumor?” Yun Xi looks at Mumu and feels funny. Who taught her such twisted common sense?

“Because the teachers all say that I am the dowry of White Moon. Shouldn’t the dowry be Sister White Moon’s wedding gift? That’s what everyone says.”

Mumu blinked, with an innocent expression, and what she said made Yun Xi almost doubt his own common sense.

“No one can decide who you are going to marry. Even if you are going to marry someone in the future, you are definitely not a dowry.” Yun Xi said.

Who, who, and who taught Mumu such twisted knowledge?!

“I think it’s fun to get married with Sister White Moon. I know many interesting postures.” Mumu draws a circle around Yun Xi’s ear with her fingertips to show the secret skills she learned in bridal lessons.

“Wait... that is...” Yun Xi’s cheek twitches. What course did White Moon and Mumu take!

“Postures... I learned them well...” The young Queen of Assyria lowered her head shyly, put her fingers behind Yun Xi’s waist.

“Whether it’s two or three people...” White Moon added.

What kind of lesson is it? Why did it teach the posture of three people?!

Yun Xi would like to complain about why he never took such a course.

If it wasn’t for the “first dark elf course”, “tangled Lamia course”, “treacherous Mermaid queen course” and “sacred Caelian Queen course” completed in the million bride course, his health education score might not be as good as the current White Moon and Mumu.

Besides, most of his brides were not human beings.

“Mumu, today you’re just a bridesmaid, not a dowry.” Yun Xi pinches Mumu’s little face and tells her what to do today.

“White Moon, a threesome is too early for you.”

“Is it?” The young Queen of Assyria was stunned for a moment, and then the curve of the corner of her mouth slowly raised, “Yes, of course.”

“We must be together all the time.”

“Today is the day when we get married, the day when we agree to be together forever.”

Every word, the seed in the young queen’s heart grows stronger.

Thousands of years of accumulated cold and loneliness, started to break little by little. Like the sun through the long night, happiness lit up the night in her heart.

Chapter 742: The Last Day of Assyria

The wedding night only belongs to the “White Moon” that can be in the sun, not to the self that can only hide in the underground lake and sleep under the giant stupid spider throne all day.

Aware of this, the young Queen of Assyria is more sober and impulsive than ever.

Change, she wants to change it all.

Just like the difficult decision the Starwing Knights made.

Because what Yun Xi has done represents that the most innocent and imaginative young Queen of Assyria has also made a decision.

Even if she's broken into pieces, even if she's stained with blood, she won't regret it.

When she came to the body called "White Moon" and got everything in her dream, she knew that she could never go back to the past.

She doesn't want to be imprisoned in the silent underground lake for thousands of years.

She doesn't want to be tied to the throne of the giant stupid spider day after day, year after year.

She doesn't want to be such a lonely monster, and she doesn't want to be imprisoned in that place by fate.

Bathed in the sunshine of early spring and feeling the breath of spring around her, the young Queen of Assyria for the first time released Yun Xi's hand, put her hands together, and began to pray for something.

Her eyes no longer have any confusion.

"Sorry, I can't be with you anymore."

“Even a dream, after a thousand years, should be tired.”

“This nightmare is the time to end. Even if you will hate me and curse me, I will accept it.”

“The one who sleeps forever is not dead. Even death will disappear in the wonderful eternity.”

“May you have a real sleep and no longer resent everything in the world.”

With the murmur of the young Queen of Assyria, the wandering black axe monsters and sword monsters began to stop one by one in the distant Forgotten Ruins.

For thousands of years, these powerful monsters, who have been wandering in the ruins of the forgotten city, stopped. Just like clocks that have stopped winding, the traces of their activities stop suddenly.

Their huge black axes, which once broke Yun Xi into pieces, are rapidly rusting, corrupting, and finally powerless, breaking off and falling to the ground, turning into a pile of scrap iron.

One by one, the black axe monsters and sword monsters began to expand. Just as they had been killed by Yun Xi, they expanded into a balloon-like shape. At last, they burst one after another.

In the blood, there are countless cold breath gathered together. If it is a normal process, these cold breaths will soon return to the earth and become a new black axe monster or a sword monster.

They are the spirit of resentment formed by the people who were killed and sacrificed in the night of the blood moon.

Black sword monsters and axe monsters are just the reflections of their craziness. They are cruel, merciless, powerful and opposite to those who were powerless and weak when they were alive.

In this way, they wander in the street of the Forgotten Ruins in a humble manner, and try to pretend that they are still alive in the dream of the past created by the queen.

The Queen's "game" is the happiest time in their memory, the unforgettable obsession.

They, who died together with the queen, cannot leave the Forgotten Ruins or get rid of the curse. They can only wander here day by day, year by year, and become immortal murderers.

The queen tolerated them all, immersed in the "game" with them, only accepted the pure girl to enter the game field, and gave the winner gifts.

Until that day, the Millennium Queen's "game" was over.

The young Queen of Assyria made a decision not to deceive herself with her own people. She stopped believing that the kingdom of Assyria still existed and she was the carefree child.

She, seriously, will not regret making this choice.

Today, she's getting married, not a game, not a ceremony.

She met him in the most beautiful season.

The first time they met, the blood moon was hanging on the top of the sky. He seemed to be at a loss and walked up to her.

At that time, she did not understand that this was the arrival of fate.

When he took her hand and took her to the wedding carriage, she finally realized that from today on, she was his unique treasure and the only one in his life.

In the days to come, no matter how rich and poor, whether the environment is good or bad, whether ill or healthy, the two will always be together.

In the future, the two will hold hands together, spend time together, watch the tide rise and fall together, and taste life together.

As long as he is there, even in the darkest night, she can see the sun, because he is the sun.

Today, she and he will enter into a mutual bond.

From now on, he will take care of her and protect her. Where he goes, she goes; where he stays, she stays.

He will love her, comfort her, respect her, protect her, just like he loves himself.

For the first time, she has a dream lover.

For the first time, she embraces the warm body and walks hand in hand with him.

As long as he's around, she won't be afraid of anything.

The nightmare of the queen is finally over.

All along, thank you for your company. Thank you for playing this dream, called "the kingdom of Assyria has not disappeared".

Now, farewell, my people.

The age of Assyria is over.

From the distant sky, there was a cold wind. It seemed that there were countless howls in the wind. It was the ancient ghosts who were cursed. It was the remains of the kingdom of Assyria that had been dead for thousands of years.

They left the ruins, were no longer sheltered by the queen, no longer had the infinite immortal state.

Under the golden-red sun, all the ghosts began to disappear, and the howls and curses gradually went away. They left the Forgotten Ruins, and finally got the final rest.

In the empty Forgotten Ruins, the Millennium queen showed a happy smile, and the number of invisible blades around her decreased by about a fifth.

In contrast, the rest of the cursed blade is becoming sharper and more deadly.

They chose another path and continued to follow the Queen of Assyria.

It doesn't matter that the kingdom of Assyria is destroyed, and all the people are destroyed, even the last ghosts disappeared.

For her Majesty, the queen is everything and the embodiment of Assyria.

The queen is Assyria!

Chapter 743: The Time of Waking Up

In the sky above the Forgotten Ruins, the wandering souls illuminated by the sun one by one become bubbles and disappear in the atmosphere.

The dead, once lost in time, are finally at rest, for the queen forgives them.

In the night of the blood moon, they once went mad under the whispers of the ancient gods, betrayed the queen they once trusted, and left the queen alone to fight with the fallen priests and knights. Although She won in the end, she was consumed by the blood moon.

The difference is that even if the queen becomes a part of the blood moon, she is the only Blood Moon Apostle who has the supreme status, and has the power to control countless curses.

Even if fallen, she is the unique and most beautiful Millennium queen.

Today, the Queen of Assyria laid down her past.

On the night of the blood moon, she failed to save her people and became the immortal queen herself.

Such a woman, together with her dead people, imagined that the kingdom of Assyria still existed and that time would be stagnated forever on that day.

Like a thousand-year dream, the Queen of Assyria and her people are immersed in the dream and forget the passing of time.

The Forgotten Ruins – the ruins of the dream kingdom of Assyria, where the queen dreams.

Today, the Millennium queen wakes up.

She no longer clings to the glorious past of Assyria, releasing the ghosts wandering in the Forgotten Ruins.

The dawn comes.

The frozen time is unsealed.

In the Forgotten Ruins, the Queen of Assyria gently hugged her abdomen with her hands.

There is still some warm touch, the air is filled with the smell of blood.

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

Hanging over the Forgotten Ruins, a vague figure began to emerge in the blood moon. That is a strange figure surrounded by countless blood lights, flying in the sky.

“Dream... Wake up...” The Queen of Assyria sighed, but with a smile of liberation.

Now, the ancient kingdom of Assyria can finally be declared dead.

Because there has been a new human kingdom in this land.

After thousands of years, even if it was just a lie at first, it was also regarded as true by people.

For thousands of years, people have long forgotten Assyria. Only the queen retains the memory of that era and dreams of the kingdom with many dead souls.

When she wakes up in her dream, she will hear the footsteps of the new era.

On the wedding carriage,

“Prince, is it wrong for someone to see love more important than the world?” The young Queen of Assyria took Yun Xi’s hand and asked the question.

“Generally speaking, we think the world is more important.”

“But that’s not a question with a standard answer.” Yun Xi thinks about it and gives her his answer.

“Because for some people, love is more important than their life.”

“Sometimes the world is wrong.”

“At that time, you have to make a choice.”

This question is a question without a correct answer.

If the whole world is wrong and only you know what is right, will you choose to uphold the right in your heart to become a hero, or to abandon your faith to become a mortal?

No matter which choice, there is no mistake.

Some people are born heroes.

And most people are just mortals, unable to step out of the hero's step.

In this world, many times there is no right or wrong for the problem you have to face, but there are many options.

You must have correct answers to the questions in the textbook.

However, the question of life never has the right answer, people will give different answers to the same question, and this is the colorful world.

All people's will is the same, all people give the same answer. If such a world exists, that world is abnormal and distorted.

"Then, I choose to fall in love." The young Queen of Assyria made a choice.

No one is entitled to accuse her of this choice, which is her final answer to Assyria.

The root of all this is a confession.

Thousands of years ago, the most talented priest in history proposed to the queen and forced her to marry him.

When he failed to propose and became angry, he used the forbidden magic to summon the ancient gods in the abyss and let the blood moon appear on the King City of Assyria.

On the night of the bloody moon, everyone betrayed the queen (except the last knight who escaped). Those who had sworn allegiance to her were bewildered by the whispers of the ancient gods and rebelled against her.

But the problem is, even if they get the power of the ancient gods, they are not the Queen's rivals. Finally, the queen took her magic dagger and killed all the priests and knights.

That night, the queen buried the kingdom of Assyria with her own hands, and finally was possessed by the blood moon.

No winner, everyone is a loser.

All those who rebelled against the queen died, becoming part of the Forgotten Ruins.

The queen who gazed at the abyss was finally captured by the abyss and became part of the blood moon.

After that, it was the long and cold dream, the queen fell into a long sleep.

Until now, the sun fell in her heart again, let her open her eyes.

Yes, she is not wrong. The world is wrong.

Compared with the world, she finally chose herself to survive instead of accepting the high priest's proposal and becoming someone else's plaything.

In other words, in her love and world peace, she chose herself and gave up the option of world peace.

If the peace of the world can only be achieved at the expense of her body and life, it will be meaningless!

In the Forgotten Ruins, the Millennium Queen looks up at the blood moon in the sky, and her eyes become more firm.

“Even if I do it again, I won't regret it.”

“My life will never be trampled or distorted by others. My will belongs to myself.”

“Even you are no exception.”

...

“Love is a beautiful thing.” The young Queen of Assyria leans on Yun Xi’s side and shows her satisfied expression.

“Thank you for marrying me.”

“No matter what happens, I will marry you and become your bride.”

She is always waiting for such a person, who is able to accept someone such as herself, even if he knows her real identity.

Maybe it’s just an unrealistic fantasy in a girl’s dream, but isn’t it good to realize such a dream?

Chapter 744: Ring

“Today’s Queen is so lovely.”

Yun Xi didn’t realize that he had buried the thousand-year-old kingdom of Assyria completely, and the danger level of the Forgotten Ruins had also dropped to nearly zero.

The owner of the Forgotten Ruins will marry him. The difficulty of the ruins will naturally change from hell mode to simple mode, and all enemies will become friendly.

In a sense, he has completed the quest of the Forgotten Ruins.

Among the fireworks in the sky, the pumpkin carriage finally arrived at the central square of the royal city, where the Moonlight Ceremony was held.

At this moment, the square is surrounded by a sea of people. Even the roof is full of people. If the Royal Guard did not maintain the street, let alone the carriage, even a dog could not squeeze into the square.

Almost all the members of the Starwing Knights gathered on the platform where the wedding ceremony was to be held, and looked at the pumpkin carriage slowly coming from the street in the distance with complicated eyes.

They were supposed to be the most loyal knights to the prince.

Today, we will launch a revolution for the sake of the prince.

“Everybody, listen to the code later.” Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights, took a deep breath. She stood tall, and then raised her white gold cross sword.

Almost at the same time, all the members of the Starwing Knights raised their weapons.

In the eyes of the people around them, this is just the action of the Starwing Knights to welcome the new couple. Only they know that this is a signal to declaring war.

For the Starwing Knights, the strongest and worst enemy ever was there.

“Everybody’s excited. It’s fun.” Mumu waves to the Starwing Knights on the high platform.

Amongst all of the Starwing Knights, only she and Robin did not join in the operation, so she knew nothing about Hua Yue’s plan.

Well, even if she knew, she’ll only be happy to join the party. Don’t expect her to understand the noble sentiment of “we need a revolution for love”.

With Yun Xi and the bride, the Queen of Assyria, holding hands, walking up to the temporary wedding platform, the Moonlight Ceremony finally reached its peak.

“Long live the prince, long live the princess!”

Countless people were shouting together.

“Long live the Kingdom, long live the Starwing Knights!”

Young people were looking forward to the beginning of the moment, as it will be worth remembering for a lifetime.

“Prince, you are our hero. Become the king quickly!”

“Prince, I would like to have a baby with you!”

“Prince, look at me, don’t just look at the princess!”

Girls look at the handsome prince with eyes shining, no, it’s the king right now.

More or less, they all have a little fantasy. Although they can’t be queens, lovers are still possible.

They all know the tradition of the kingdom. In history, there have been lovers of the kings from civilian families.

“I didn’t expect to see a new king in my lifetime!”

The old men wept and remembered the last king’s accession to the throne.

Some of them are farmers around the king’s city, some of them are lower class nobles, who have witnessed the wedding of the previous king, and now they are witnessing the accession of the new king.

For them, this is the memory that will be brought into the coffin, and they have witnessed the most important moment in history.

“It’s really stressful.” For Yun Xi, this time there is no cover of the White Emperor Mask. He felt sorry, but he has stage fright.

He didn't think that in the dragon war trial, there would be such an unexpected event as "marriage".

Isn't it to collect partners, increase the combat effectiveness, and then go to fight against the dragon?

What is the wrong step? Why does the owner of a bakery have to marry the queen as a prince?

Great will of stars, is there something wrong with this trial?

He should not listen to the mysterious royal augur to explore the secrets inside the palace! If he didn't, he wouldn't step on the world line of killing his father and marrying his mother.

"Well..." The young Queen of Assyria lowered her head and held Yun Xi's hand. She was reluctant to let go.

She has experienced dozens of such "weddings", but only this time is different.

Because she has made up her mind that she will never go back to that cold underground lake.

Today's wedding is a real wedding.

She is willing to marry the person beside her.

Because he brought her “White Moon”, her sunshine and hope.

Once she has tried such a wonderful thing, she will never go back.

“Get married, get married!”

Mumu walked around Yun Xi and the young Queen of Assyria heartlessly, standing on tiptoe from time to time, kissing the little queen’s face mischievously, or smelling the taste of Yun Xi.

The members of the Starwing Knights are looking at the new couple nervously, and are hesitant to make the almost unforgivable mistake.

Hua Yue is also hesitating. It’s clear that they should launch an attack when “White Moon” steps onto the platform. But looking at the intimate appearance of White Moon and Yun Xi, she can’t give the order.

Am I wrong?

Perhaps, White Moon is not a monster.

This is a major event that will determine the future of the whole kingdom. Once that step is taken, it will never go back to the past.

In the hesitation of Hua Yue, the most important moment of the wedding finally began.

Hua Yue's father, the only Duke of this kingdom, the younger brother of the former king, looked at the new couple with happy eyes, and put the pair of wedding rings handed down from generation to generation by the royal family on their hands.

"This ring..." Yun Xi looks at the silver snake ring in surprise, and vaguely feels the historical vicissitudes contained in it.

In contrast, the ring on the young queen's ring finger is the golden snake ring, which is just a pair with Yun Xi.

In the moment of wearing the silver snake ring, Yun Xi can feel the heart shrink, as if it is connected by some kind of contract.

Yes, this is the vow of the kings to the Queen of Assyria.

The vow of the silver snake swears allegiance to the golden snake.

The duke smiled and looked at them. Although he felt a little sorry for his daughter, it was the tradition of the kingdom!

Chapter 745: Opponents

"There's something wrong with the rings!" Seeing the silver snake ring on Yun Xi's hand and the golden snake ring on the young Queen of Assyria's hand, Hua Yue has a bad feeling.

Normally, the prince should wear the golden ring which symbolizes glory and brilliance, and the princess should wear the silver ring which represents the holy and bright.

Why is the wedding tradition of the kingdom reversed?

At this distance, Hua Yue can clearly distinguish the strength of the magic rings.

The power of the golden snake is far stronger than that of the silver snake. It even dominates the silver snake.

It's not only Hua Yue's feeling, but also the feeling of the girls of the Starwing Knights and the Zaka sisters on the tower nearby.

"It's really strange for human beings to give the rings to each other when they get married. Is this the custom of human beings?" Ice Dragon Zaka looks curiously at the golden snake ring on the young queen's finger.

That ring is obviously the main ring. The person wearing this ring is almost equal to having complete control over the secondary ring.

"Wedding rings. Ah, if it's me, I will use a pair of exactly the same ring, regardless of the primary and secondary." Desert Dragon Zaka tries to find out from her memory which of the beautiful rings she snatched is more suitable for her wedding.

"Amber Ring, double jade ring, gold ring, sea blue ring, three-phase ring, ice ring, which pair is better to use?"

“Didn’t Shaheen abandon you? Forget him!” Ice Dragon Zaka felt that her sister was going to be critically ill. She was obviously jilted, and she was still nostalgic for the unruly guy.

If it was her, she would have frozen such a bad bastard into an ice stick and thrown it into the sea.

“Now, stretch out your hand.” As the consanguinity of the previous king, the duke witnessed the last wedding.

The only difference is that the bride who married the prince no longer wore a black wedding dress, but a pure white wedding dress, and no longer covered her face with a veil.

Amongst all the weddings, only today’s bride has appeared in front of all people with her true face.

She is just like an elf from the forest. She is so beautiful that everyone loves her.

There’s nothing to be picky about but a little younger.

Her daughter, Hua Yue, looks like she will become the lover of the new king just like the old tradition. She should have been prepared for this.

In the kingdom, the king is always the strongest knight, and his queen is always only one person.

“Today is a good day.” Recalling the last wedding, the duke looked at the couple with friendly eyes.

“In the witness of the old rings, we ushered in our queen.”

“The golden snake and the silver snake come together again.”

The young Queen of Assyria raised her hand shyly, while Yun Xi raised his hand in some panic.

The magic rings on both hands began to emit light fluorescence at the same time.

“Chi!” Yun Xi’s finger quivered slightly, and the silver snake ring bit Yun Xi’s finger and injected some liquid.

In the same way, the golden snake ring on the young queen’s finger also bit her white fingertip and injected some liquid.

A red line flashed through.

This process is very short, if you don’t pay attention to it, you won’t notice it at all.

But for Hua Yue who was absorbed in it, this scene was clearly seen by her.

Even the red thread, which was instantly connected and then disappeared between the two rings did not escape her eyes.

That's... blood! Hua Yue can be sure that the red line is not an illusion, but the evidence that the blood of the two people is connected.

"Eh, it seems..." Yun Xi remembers that there was no such event in the process of the wedding.

The gold snake ring and silver snake ring only have a simple "identification" function, and will not bite people.

What's the red line that just passed?

He feels that after being bitten by this ring, the connection between him and the young Queen of Assyria seems to be getting closer?

Is it a delusion?

It's not a delusion. The golden snake ring on the young Queen of Assyria's finger, or the silver snake ring on Yun Xi's finger, all have a little smell of blood.

Witness the sacred engagement in the name of blood.

"The ceremony has been completed." The duke looked at the couple happily. Maybe now they look a little bit younger, but it's not a problem at all.

Next, it is the last and most orthodox part.

“Prince, it’s your bride in front of you. Are you willing to protect her, love her, build a family with her, for poor or rich, for health or disease, go hand in hand with her?”

Yun Xi nodded and replied, “I will.”

“Princess, this is the one you love. Would you like to give up your name and become the other half of the person in front of you from today on, love and respect him, regard him as your most important person, and never give up?”

The Queen of Assyria, smiling, naturally replied, “I will.”

As long as these words are said, all will be settled. The two will be a pair blessed by heaven and can be together forever.

However, these words can be easily and simply said, but the Queen of Assyria was shocked to find that her voice disappeared.

It’s as if the vocal cords of the body are sealed with something, so that she can’t even make a sound.

The duke looked at the silent young Queen of Assyria in a sweat, and quickly switched to the next step.

“Now, then, is there any objection to this pair?”

Of course not. No one has any objection to the wedding of the prince and the princess. This is the idea of all the people present.

“Hum, I curse this pair, sister, curse them together with me.” Ice Dragon Zaka felt that the word “F” behind her was heating up, and unconsciously took out a torch and gasoline.

“Yes, curse, curse the damned prince!” Desert Dragon Zaka didn’t know why. But looking at the prince and the princess, she felt extremely angry.

Why? She was abandoned by her lover, but this couple had such a sweet wedding? Is there any reason for it?

The next second, everyone was stunned.

The leader of the Starwing Knights, the duke’s daughter, Hua Yue, shouted out.

“I’m against it!”

Chapter 746: Prince, Answer Me!

“What!” The duke was about to lose his chin.

What did he hear?

His daughter, the prince’s childhood sweetheart, and the future king’s lover, Hua Yue, actually said the forbidden sentence.

Moreover, it was at the sacred wedding, in front of almost all the nobles of the kingdom.

Willfulness is not enough to describe the action. It's just like a rebellion!

This is not the daughter he knows. His daughter is very polite. She is more familiar with aristocratic etiquette than anyone else.

Is she possessed by a demon?

"Against it!"

"Against it!"

"Against it!"

Seeing that the leader finally sent out a signal, the Starwing Knights, who had been united for a long time, finally came out.

The deputy commander of the Starwing Knights, Xiao Cao.

The mascot of the Starwing Knights, Ling Ling.

The secretary of the Starwing Knights, Mei Lan.

Lu Lu, Xiaoye, Xiaomi... except Robin and Mumu who are not here, all members of the Starwing Knights stand up.

"You..." It wasn't just the duke who was scared, Yun Xi also had a look of "what's wrong with the world".

"..." The young Queen of Assyria opened her mouth and found that she still couldn't say anything, as if some kind of force had been cooperating with the Starwing Knights in her body, which stopped her voice.

Just as the cold water poured into the boiling oil pot, the collective rebellion of the Starwing Knights turned into a great storm in an instant.

From the wedding platform to the whole city, the news spread at an amazing speed.

This is something that has never happened in the Moonlight Ceremony.

Are the knights loyal to the prince actually disagreeing with the prince's marriage?

"God, what's going on?!"

"All the knights of the Starwing Knights are against the wedding?"

“Aren’t they all young girls who admire the prince?”

“Why? Why?!”

People looked at the Starwing Knights on the high platform with unbelievable eyes.

Especially the nobles who have a relationship with the prince, many of them are the parents of the girls of the Starwing Knights. Seeing their daughter suddenly enter the rebellious period, several noblewomen even fainted on the spot.

The noisy voice turned into a huge wave in an instant, making countless people at a loss.

“Ha ha ha! Ha ha ha!” Ice Dragon Zaka laughed so happily for the first time since she was born from the egg.

Interesting. It’s really interesting.

It turns out that it’s so entertaining to watch such a scene.

The world is becoming more interesting.

“Hum hum, I’ve seen that this prince is not a good man. He deserves it!” Desert Dragon Zaka also gloated at Yun Xi, laughing like a child.

“Hua Yue, stop fooling around!” As a marriage witness and the prince’s closest relative, the duke shook his head constantly to stop his daughter who seemed to be abnormal.

He painstakingly brought his daughter and prince together, and paved the way for their future. Only when the wedding is over, Hua Yue can become the king’s first secret lover.

“I’m not joking. I’m against the wedding.” The eyes of Hua Yue have never been so firm. There is a sacred flame burning inside.

It was not for her own sake, but for the happiness of the Starwing Knights and the prince.

She hesitated many times before she found out the truth.

Even if the queen is not a human being, it doesn’t matter. The prince doesn’t care about the race. Lu Lu who has rabbit ears is also loved by the prince.

Even if the queen is an undead, it’s not unacceptable. Hua Yue had faintly realized that White Moon’s body has many strange places compared with ordinary people.

It’s just that the final truth is unacceptable.

If you can’t bear it, you don’t need to.

At this moment, she is not alone in the battle, behind her is all the Starwing Knights!

They want to save the prince and change his tragic fate as a sacrifice of the blood moon.

Even if this means that they will fight against the horrible demon queen and even the whole kingdom, they will not hesitate!

“Prince, I ask you to think again about whether you really want to marry Princess White Moon.”

“She’s not a woman who is worth spending your whole life with.”

She said it! She said the truth everyone knows but everyone pretends to ignore!

The duke looked at his daughter dully and closed his mouth like a frog.

What are you talking about, Hua Yue?

The queen can’t accompany the king all his life. Isn’t it a secret that everyone knows? It’s the tradition of this kingdom just like you will become the king’s lover!

“I... Yes, I know it.” Yun Xi feels that today is probably not the right day to get married.

No matter Hua Yue or the other members of the Starwing Knights, they all look as if they are going to the battlefield.

Are they so angry about his wedding with the Queen of Assyria?

“Then, you should also understand that she can’t be with you, and you can’t get happiness.”

“It’s unfortunate not to have a happy wedding.”

“Prince, please tell me who you really love?” Hua Yue raised her chest and asked Yun Xi.

“I... my favorite person is... ”

“She... she is... ” Yun Xi is sweating. His eyes first pass through Hua Yue, and then he looks at Xiao Cao, Ling Ling, Mei Lan, and all the girls of the Starwing Knights.

Young girls watched by Yun Xi, one by one, their hearts beat faster.

God, no matter how I answer this question, it’s equal to bringing about my own destruction!

Chapter 747: Blood Moon Wedding (1)

Yun Xi vowed that he never thought that he would be forced into a desperate situation by Hua Yue, on the day of marriage.

Think, think, Yun Xi, you can do it! This is just a test of the dragon's war. As long as you pass this test, nothing can stop you!

Answer one – I like White Moon.

If he said so, he doesn't believe Hua Yue would accept it.

After all, the current Queen of Assyria seems to be too young.

No, that's not the answer.

Answer two – I like you, including Hua Yue, Mei Lan, Ling Ling, Lu Lu, and other girls in the Starwing Knights.

Super scum's answer! Isn't it a shame to say such a thing in the public?

In this way, even the young Queen of Assyria wouldn't forgive him.

It's hard to imagine what the angry queen will do.

No, it's a wrong choice whether he likes "one" or "everyone".

No matter how to answer, it will make things worse. This is a death choice!

So, what's the possibility of answer three?

I have to find out a perfect answer to this unsolvable problem, not by experience, but by perfect reasoning!

Use your brain to think, immerse yourself in the ocean of thinking, as a thinker to understand the truth of the universe, and dance in the sky of logic and calculation.

"I... what I like is... the girl who likes me and I like her." Yun Xi stutters, saying a seemingly metaphysical answer.

"..." Hua Yue's expression suddenly became full of confidence and pride.

"..." The young Queen of Assyria showed a calm expression.

"Haha..." Ling Ling laughed stupidly, as if remembering something.

"Well, that's a sly answer." Mei Lan raised her waist, but her cheeks turned red all of a sudden.

"It's really an answer only the prince will have." Lu Lu looked at Yun Xi, showing her dotting feelings.

“Wow, what a scum! Why are there so many girls who like this guy?”

“The view of human love has rotted to this extent.” Ice Dragon Zaka despises the nonsense bastard with critical eyes.

It’s almost equal to saying “you’re all my wings”. What a playboy’s speech!

“Fortunately, my Shaheen is dedicated to me.” Desert Dragon Zaka looks at the bastard prince and shows her disdain.

On the platform, no matter Hua Yue, the girls of the Starwing Knights, or the young Queen of Assyria, they are all in a wonderful atmosphere for the time being.

At this time, the duke finally came forward.

“Then, any others who are against it?” Looking at his rebellious daughter with tears in his eyes, the duke felt that his poor performance today would be recorded in history.

As the witness of marriage, his daughter actually directly questioned the prince’s wedding. As an aristocrat and the prince’s elder, his self-respect was really going to be ruined.

“Yes.” A voice that no one would think of appeared.

This voice comes from the one that everyone can't believe.

Princess White Moon.

"Gee!" Now, even Yun Xi is stunned.

Why would the Queen of Assyria oppose the wedding?!

What is happening?!

At this point, the young Queen of Assyria is more shocked than anyone else.

She pressed her little hand against her neck, and could not imagine that it was the voice she said.

Clearly, she couldn't make her own voice at all.

So, who is the owner of the voice?

"I don't think this marriage is right." The voice of White Moon continues to make people wonder.

"So this wedding is not valid."

The young queen looked at her body with amazement. For the first time, she found that the puppet body appeared a variable that she could not understand.

She felt that soul in the puppet. Although it's still young, it's like a little sprout just sprouting.

No, maybe this is the soul of this puppet, the will of "White Moon".

So, in this small puppet body, a soul has been born?

That is to say, it is her "daughter", the real "White Moon" who opposes her marriage with the prince.

Although still young and immature, White Moon is extremely simple and strong in emotional expression, which even becomes a kind of obsession.

What is going on? Hua Yue also looked at Princess White Moon in question.

It seems that something incomprehensible happened.

"White Moon, are you serious?" Yun Xi looks at the Queen of Assyria with a puzzled look.

"Yes, dad... no, darling..." White Moon said shyly and uneasily, but she couldn't help shaking her head.

Are you saying "yes" or "no"? Yun Xi is completely befuddled.

Holding her neck, the queen frowned and quickly made a difficult choice.

In the Forgotten Ruins, the Millennium queen closed her eyes and slowly extended her hands.

In the underground lake, the young Queen of Assyria made the same move and stretched out her hands to the sky.

What the Queen of Assyria wants is not allowed to be taken by others.

Even if the opponent is all of the knights, or her own daughter, they can not take him away.

If you offend the queen, there will be blood!

“Prince, leave Princess White Moon.”

“We will protect you.” Hua Yue looks nervously at the Queen of Assyria, whose body is wrapped around by ominous air.

Sure enough, the demon queen is going to show her true face!

Even if she had to sacrifice her own life, she would protect the prince.

The Starwing Knights came to this battlefield only after they had this consciousness.

“Her taste has changed?” Mumu curiously pinches White Moon’s cheek and is not afraid at all.

“Did you get something wrong?” Yun Xi felt that there seemed to be a big misunderstanding between his Starwing Knights and the Queen of Assyria.

“Get married, my prince.”

In the sky, there suddenly appeared a huge handwriting, followed by, a round bloody moon suddenly appearing in the sky over the city.

Chapter 748: Blood Moon Wedding (2)

That bloody moonlight represents misfortune.

That cursed disaster from the endless abyss, let the kingdom of Assyria be destroyed in the killing and blood.

The great old existence whose name has been forgotten, or doesn’t have a name from the beginning.

“There it is, the blood moon!” At the moment of seeing the huge handwriting and blood moon in the sky, all the girls of the Starwing Knights were on alert.

It is this demon that devours the lives of generations of kings. No one lives forever under the blood moon.

“I am here... to testify about the marriage...”

In the brilliance of the blood moon, the huge handwriting appeared again in front of all people, giving people an incredible sense of disobedience.

“What is that? Why does the moon appear in the daytime?”

“Is it the elder of Princess White Moon?”

“I feel that looking at the moon, my heart beats faster all of a sudden.”

The blood moon is not something that ordinary people can look at directly. It represents the essence of ancient gods and the murmur from the abyss.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

Yun Xi heard the whispers of ancient gods countless times, and now they began to reverberate in the sky over the city and were heard by all the people who came to the Moonlight Ceremony.

Only to hear the sound for less than 10 seconds, the vast majority of human beings can't help but shake with their whole body, open their mouths, and then fall into a state of madness with great enthusiasm.

"Long live Princess White Moon!"

"Long live princess!"

"Long live the queen!"

"Our queen comes back!"

The blood moon was summoned by the high priest's forbidden spell, caused the ancient kingdom of Assyria to be completely destroyed overnight and triggered the most terrible bloody tragedy.

But now, the blood moon summoned by the Millennium queen has also seized the people's senses, but it triggered a romantic comedy.

"Get married! Get married! Get married! Prince!"

"Her Majesty is very lovely, her majesty is very gentle, marry such a queen!"

Strangely, although the minds of the crowd were taken away by the blood moon, they were divided into two parts.

Part of them sang the name of "Her Majesty" and their ardent expectation is that the prince and her majesty will get married.

The other part supported "Princess White Moon", they are unswerving supporters of Princess White Moon.

It seems that there is a trend of schizophrenia even in the shadow of the blood moon.

"Oh, no one is normal." The Starwing Knights on the high platform is one of the few groups that have resisted the whisper of the blood moon.

Even the Royal Guard has been divided into two parts, namely, the Queen's supporters and the princess's supporters.

"Prince, it is a matter of course and truth to marry her majesty."

"No, marrying the princess is the best."

"What do you say? I've long been annoyed with you!"

"Hopeless lolicon, I want to fight you!"

Ah, crazy, crazy! When the ancient gods came, as always, they brought disputes and madness, and people's reason was almost negative.

"Wow, it's a real fuss! Why has that stuff come?" Ice Dragon Zaka stared at the huge blood moon that covered the whole city.

"This guy... isn't it the wild and evil thing that inhabits outside our nest?"

"Hahaha, this is the end of the kingdom! It's a tough thing even for our mother." Desert Dragon Zaka gloated at the human beings who had been divided into two camps: the Queen Party and the Princess Party.

Sure enough, no matter how long it has been, human beings are still so stupid.

Facing the whispers of the ancient god, one by one, they lost their marbles.

"The voice is... oh, we are screwed!" As one of the few nobles who knows a little truth about the destruction of Assyria, the duke looked at the bloody moon in the sky with desperate eyes.

Even if their willpower is far greater than that of ordinary people, they just stick to it for tens of seconds, and finally, their minds are taken.

"The queen is more suitable for the prince, the queen is more mature and stable, and more suitable for the position of the queen." The duke, who just persuaded his daughter, was the first to stand in the Queen Party and become a firm supporter of the queen.

“No, Princess White Moon has more plasticity. She is as young as the princess. The future of the world belongs to the princess!” More nobles chose White Moon.

“The queen is better. She should be the queen of this kingdom!”

“The princess is more lovely! She should be the queen of our kingdom!”

“It’s clear that it’s the queen who comes first. There’s no princess if there is no queen. It’s a question of chicken or egg first!”

“How can you disappoint the princess? Her heart is so pure and innocent!”

The whole royal city was plunged into a frenzied atmosphere of fighting.

Both the “Queen party” and the “Princess Party” are rapidly expanding, and the number of both sides is almost equal, and their eyes are murderous when looking at each other.

Ah, disaster is coming. Hua Yue looks at the fallen people with sad eyes under the blood moon.

With the exception of the Starwing Knights and a few hero ranked people in the crowd, others were forced to join one of the two parties: the Queen’s Party and the Princess’s Party.

“I... Like...” In front of Yun Xi, White Moon’s voice was low, but it was extremely firm.

“There is no other option, our agreement will never expire.” In the sky, the bloody handwriting almost runs through the sky of the whole city, which is the voice of the queen.

Yun Xi first looked at the girls of the Starwing Knights, then at White Moon, and then at the blood moon in the sky.

Now, he really wants to shout out; what are you going to do?!

It’s just a wedding ceremony! Why does it look like the end of the world?

He had a strong sense that whether he chose “Queen” or “Princess” here, he would probably die without a burial place.

This is not a delusion. He even recalled the last prediction made by his royal augur on the tower before he left.

“Blood and disaster are coming, prince, be careful.”

“The queen and the princess are looking at you together. You need to choose carefully!”

“Your choice will determine the future of this kingdom.”

“So, who would you choose?”

Chapter 749: Blood Moon Wedding (3)

Choice?

At this time, it's a dead end to choose anyone!

“Princess! Princess! Princess! ”

“Queen! Queen! The queen!”

The moonlight of blood moon accompanied by the whispers of ancient gods, falls on the city. In just a moment, the whole city is completely occupied.

Even many girls of the Starwing Knights have been influenced.

“The princess looks lovely. Is there something wrong? She doesn't look like a cannibal monster.”

“Yeah, I don't think White Moon would be like that, or Mumu wouldn't play with her.”

The Princess Party, there it is.

“The queen has lived for such a long time, she should be very lonely.”

“At the time of Assyria’s destruction, the queen should have been martyred together. I don’t expect that she is still alive.”

The Queen’s party is also coming out.

“Attention, assemble!” Hua Yue was aware of something wrong, she held her sacred cross sword and launched her combat skill for the first time.

Holy Shield!

The white and gold shield mark appears on the top of the girls’ heads and resists the whispering of the ancient gods.

Even though the whisper of the ancient gods is not for killing, the horrible infection ability once again tells all people what the “indescribable thing” is.

It’s the most strange thing in the dark, which can’t be seen, listened to, or contacted.

In the sky, the bloody handwriting unfolds slowly again, and tells its voice to Yun Xi, who is at a loss.

“Once I thought my world was over... ”

“Now I see a new world... ”

“You... bringing light And hope... ”

“Really It’s warm... ”

Yun Xi slowly understood whose voice it was and who was talking to him. It was her majesty, the real Queen of Assyria, who crossed a thousand years.

So what’s going on with “White Moon” now.

“I... want to be the only princess in the world that belongs to you.”

“The most lovely princess in the world, ranking first in dad’s heart.” With a slightly tender voice, White Moon confessed to Yun Xi with the same firm will as the Queen of Assyria.

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

“Hiss!”

The whisper of the ancient gods twines around White Moon, but it is divided into two parts that constantly interact with her body.

White Moon is the only body that can carry the soul of the Queen of Assyria.

The body of the real Queen of Assyria has long ceased to exist.

On the blood moon night a thousand years ago, she killed all the rebellious knights with a magic dagger in her hand. The queen herself became a sacrifice and was sacrificed to the blood moon.

From that day on, the queen is no longer a human being, but a part of the blood moon.

And out of her belly came the crimson moon, the part of the ancient god.

The one who sleeps forever is not dead. Even death will disappear in the wonderful eternity.

The Queen of Assyria, who lost her human posture, did not die, but was not really alive, but was in an ambiguous posture.

In the long sleep, she even began to split. The young queen representing her pure side appeared in the underground lake, and being guarded by the huge stupid spider.

The other part on behalf of cruelty and killing is still staying in the last ruins of Assyria, dreaming of the past with the gesture of a white wedding dress ghost.

In that dream, the kingdom of Assyria still exists and even holds a bride selection festival. People still laugh happily as if the blood moon has never arrived.

To this day, the young Queen of Assyria ushered in her real wedding, and the Millennium Queen's dream finally woke up.

She let go of the countless undead that she had been binding, let them return to the earth, and get their final rest.

In this way, the curse of the Forgotten Ruins will be completely lifted, and the queen has made a decision to completely unify the divided consciousness to marry the prince in a complete manner.

However, she did not expect that a soul had been born in the carrier named "White Moon".

The prince created the puppet for her, not only with the same appearance and faultless posture, but also with a soul.

Even the Millennium queen did not expect such a thing.

It's even more incredible that White Moon, who was just born, has mastered the ability to communicate with the ancient gods.

She also has the ability to summon the blood moon, which is exactly the same as that of the Queen of Assyria.

Under the will of both sides, the ancient gods began to split.

The Millennium Queen of Assyria has more powerful magic and a stronger will. She dominated the sky!

Although White Moon's still very young, she's getting stronger all the time. She dominates the body of the puppet.

Finally, it's the last key person they both fight for – Prince Yun Xi!

Both sides have their own power over the ancient gods. In this case, the key to win or lose depends on the core of the storm: Yun Xi.

The Queen of Assyria wants to fulfill the agreement with Yun Xi, complete the wedding ceremony, and forever have the position closest to Yun Xi.

The new White Moon firmly disagrees with this, because in her eyes, she is the person closest to her father, she is the princess forever.

The contradiction between the two sides is irreconcilable!

“Choose me, Dad. I will always be with dad and never be separated!”

“No matter what dad asks me to do, I will.” White Moon is the first to launch the offensive, with the unique style of children. Once a thing is identified, even the destruction of the world can't stop her.

What's more, is it wrong to like dad?

No, that's the truth of the universe!

"Don't forget that an agreement is an agreement."

"Please marry me." The great queen is not willing to fall behind, let alone lose to her daughter.

Thousands of years ago, in order not to marry someone she didn't like, she even gave up world peace and finally destroyed Assyria by herself.

The queen is the kingdom! She does not accept that the kingdom that let herself compromise is her own kingdom.

Dare to love and hate, this is the great king of Assyria, the millennium queen.

Chapter 750: Blood Moon Wedding (4)

"I was the first... White Moon, you are still a child..." In spite of being betrayed by her daughter, the Queen of Assyria still dotes on her.

Although, she never thought that she had such an impulsive and lovely child before she got married.

“Mom is the only one who forces dad to marry you!”

“Dad is not your toy, but White Moon’s dad!”

“Mom, you just like the king. Dad will be the prince forever. He doesn’t need to be the king.”

Hua Yue frowns and sees part of the truth.

As expected, there is a conspiracy. No wonder the kings keep secrets about marrying the queen. In this case, there may be more problems in the engagement between the prince and the Queen of Assyria.

“That... it’s because of past agreements...” This time, the Queen of Assyria replied with a little guilt.

She can’t tell the prince directly that all her weddings in the past were just “games”. This time, it was the same at first.

When on earth did she really regard it as a real “love” but not just a game?

Is it the moment when he holds her in his arms and proposes to her?

Is it the moment when he made perfect puppets for her to let her once again see the real sunshine and run freely in the garden?

Or in the dawn, when she sleeps lazily beside him and opens her eyes to see his sleeping face?

They are very common things to any human being, but once again wake up, it has become the biggest extravagant hope for her.

Perhaps, she loves him just for one thing, that is, he never had a special look at her because she was the Queen of Assyria.

He never looks at her greedy, full of desire.

He never looks at her panic, with no fear and madness.

He just looks at her very curiously, with kind, gentle eyes.

Sometimes, fate is such a wonderful thing. As a human being, she never noticed these things; as the incarnation of the blood moon, she can understand how precious and unforgettable they are.

She didn't regret her life. Even if she came back again, she probably made the same choice.

She will never succumb to the fate arranged by others. Even if she was forced to choose world peace or her love, she will only choose her own love.

It's not that she hates world peace, it's just that she hates peace at the expense of everything she has to achieve.

Under the pretext of world peace, that man wanted to force her to marry him, realizing his despicable desire. Even if time goes back a thousand times, she wouldn't leave that guy alive.

Even if she died, she never let anyone desecrate her body.

That bloody white wedding dress is the proof of her belief.

Perhaps, in the eyes of others, the life of the Millennium Queen of Assyria is finally a great tragedy.

The founding king of this kingdom, the watchman knight who had been loyal to the Queen of Assyria, could not get rid of his guilt until he was engulfed by the blood moon, so he completed his redemption.

Although the Queen of Assyria never asked him to make atonement in this way, he still did it.

All the kings followed the same path as their forefathers. From this point of view, the inheritance of bloodline is really a hopeless thing.

However, he's different.

He didn't bear the original sin of all the kings. Even though he still killed his father, his eyes were still very clear.

In the face of the legendary monster queen and the whisper of the ancient gods, he still keeps his nature.

He was like the only white light in the darkness, and then turned into a dazzling sun, illuminating the darkness in the heart of the Queen of Assyria.

A thousand years later, the dawn of Assyria finally came.

“Even if I’ve married dozens of kings... he is the only one I love.”

“All the people in this kingdom to his love are less than my love to him alone.”

“He is the one I chose... my only love...”

The huge blood words run across the whole city.

“My God, what do I see?” Ice Dragon Zaka looks at the blood words in the sky foolishly. Her whole person was speechless.

“That prince is a real bastard. This man is hopeless.” Desert Dragon Zaka looks at Yun Xi in desperation with a scornful look, and almost going to run over him like crushing an ant.

“Human beings, as expected, are all hopeless inferior creatures.” Ice Dragon Zaka agreed 100,00% with her sister’s words.

“What a cunning mom!” White Moon turned her head angrily. It’s bullying. Don’t you know that I was just born and didn’t know these things?

The Queen of Assyria continues the elegant blood letter campaign:

“Today is a good day for us.”

“Please take my hand, put on the silver ring, and swear to the golden ring.”

“Whenever and wherever we go, we will be together.”

“We will watch the sunrise and sunset together on the east coast, watch the first aurora of the northern ice sheet, leave our footprints in the endless desert in the west, and pick the most beautiful flowers in the southern forest.”

“In spring, I want to enjoy flowers with you.”

“In summer, I want to go to the seaside with you.”

“In autumn, I want to go to the harvest festival with you.”

“In winter, I want to have a snowball fight with you.”

“The world is so big, I want to spend all the happiest times with you.”

“Maybe I have many shortcomings, but I will change myself for you.”

“I didn’t learn how to cook, but I will make the best meal for you.”

“I’ve never done housework, but I’ll clean your room and make you sleep comfortably every day.”

“Our daughter, although she is still very small and disobedient, I will make her the most beautiful princess.”

Yun Xi looked at the lines of poems floating in the sky in amazement, and the lonely and proud figure in the underground lake suddenly collapsed in his mind.

It turns out that the Millennium queen who once caused the night of blood moon is also a girl looking forward to love.

She will also want to spend her honeymoon, and she has made a travel plan, fantasizing about traveling around the world with the man she likes.

The queen has never rejected people from thousands of miles away. She is really eager to love and be loved, and has a love of her own.

Well, she even learned the skill of writing love poems. Compared with Yun Xi, her writing style is much better. She's a romantic girl poet!