

Starchild 751

Chapter 751: Blood Moon Wedding (5)

“Dad’s heart begins to stagger...” Looking at the blood love letters in the sky, White Moon’s eyes became more flustered than ever before.

It’s going to lose. It’s going to lose!

From her birth, her understanding of “literature” is not at the same level as her mother, the Queen of Assyria, just as the Queen of Assyria did not have the perfect affinity for the ancient gods like White Moon.

Absolutely not... that kind of thing!

Dad is White Moon’s, and White Moon will give him to nobody!

Even if the price is to touch the power of taboos!

The power of the ancient gods, help me!

“Roo-lee-ah! Roo-lee-ah! Colors out of space! Praise, praise, the abyss of eternity!”

“I call you, I open the coordinates of the stars to you, I am your master, I am your princess, accept the call of the star princess!”

With the low voice of White Moon, from the blood moon, some transparent substances begin to penetrate the gaps of time and space, and drip from the vast sky.

They are colors that the human eye can't recognize. Just looking at these colors, people will have a strange feeling. It's the coming of doom, which is beyond any vision that their retina and consciousness can conceive.

The unrecognizable colors follow a certain rule automatically, concentrating towards the area where Princess White Moon is.

They form an invisible torrent, crisscross in the sky, constantly changing the colorless brilliance, as if modifying their own posture.

They are not gases, nor solids, nor liquids, but rather malice twisted by a myriad of colors.

That's the horror you suddenly feel when you look at the endless night sky.

Clearly they are there, but nothing can be seen. Just the infinite distance extended by the infinite space gives people an instinctive thrill.

Human beings are always so curious and arrogant about the phenomena and materials that they can't understand. They think that everything can be understood and controlled by themselves.

However, these colors do not belong to any of the substances known to mankind. When they come to the world, they look like a sparkling, amorphous color flowing around.

In response to the call of White Moon, they almost cover half of the sky above the city. They have no specific color or even can not be recognized by human beings, which makes the color of the sky produce an unnatural sense of distortion.

The Queen of Assyria was stunned and watched as the strange color of “cores” began to gather.

These “cores” are the larval posture of these creatures. Once they are hatched, they will start to devour everything in the world.

Plants and animals will be dyed with that kind of ominous color, and eventually become a part of this kind of biology.

The plants infected by them will send out light at night, twist, entangle together, hatch more larvae, and finally return to the color that can travel through the stars, go to the other side of the void, and enter the next cycle.

A larva can suck up all the life force in the range of more than five kilometers, and this process can hardly be stopped. Once the land is sucked up, it will be abandoned and no plants and animals can survive there.

All the intelligent creatures that observe this will be attacked by the colors they emit.

It is an attack that can ignore all defenses and directly cast on the will, and whether you succeed in defense or not, they will extract part of the power of your soul. Unless you kill it, the soul power will never be returned.

Creatures that are absorbed will realize that they are being devoured, have a burning feeling, and even gradually become withered and pale.

Their faces and skins also age rapidly with the appearance of ugly wrinkles and cracks. Once the consciousness disappears completely in the color and becomes the larva's nourishment, the soul will die immediately.

Ordinary people can't resist their attacks or even see their figures. Compared with the blood moon, they are more dangerous and terrifying.

Colors Out of Space – they have such a nice name, but they are absolutely nightmare creatures. It is said that they are nightmare fragments born with the death of stars.

It exists on the ground, and all intelligent creatures living in this area will have nightmares and become a constant source of nourishment until the larvae hatch successfully and return to the starry sky.

When the colorless light comes to the earth, it is the omen of the world's destruction.

However, this is not the end. The Colors Out of Space that have absorbed enough nourishment will hatch more terrible things, which is the door to the source of the abyss.

Why can White Moon summon such monsters that will destroy the world?

What does she want to do to the world!

The situation is out of control!!

“Sacrifice! My children!” Although the Colors Out of Space White Moon summoned were enough to destroy the world dozens of times, she didn’t stop.

Or rather to say, it’s just the beginning.

Colors Out of Space is the upper race of the nightmare world. Yes, they are enough to destroy the world.

However, they are not enough to defeat her mother.

As the blessed one of the blood moon, the Queen of Assyria was the child who had the most power of the ancient gods, and had accumulated for thousands of years, and had completed the call of an ancient god incarnation.

The incarnation of the ancient god is the giant stupid spider sleeping in the underground lake.

In order to defeat her mother, it’s not enough to use the Colors Out of Space alone, so White Moon sacrificed all the Colors Out of Space she summoned without hesitation.

At this point, her proficiency is comparable to that of the craziest cult priest.

Sacrifice, just as the chief priest of Assyria almost sacrificed most of the human living in the city of Assyria, and summoned the ancient gods, White Moon mercilessly sacrificed all the Colors Out of Space she summoned!

The Colors Out of Space just hatched larva for invading the world, and before they could swallow the ground, they had all become one ball of halo after another.

There is an old voice that responds to the voice of the Star Princess, accepts her sacrifice, and is very satisfied with what she has done.

Cruel enough, crazy enough, powerful enough, dare to trample all rules, tear up all obstacles.

Abyss awarded White Moon.

A huge black beetle wriggled out of the blood.

“No. 69 of the Star Devil Beetle Beetles, Black Flame Devil Beetle Beetle.” Stepping on the back of a giant black beetle, White Moon has the trump card to fight against her mother’s giant stupid spider.

Chapter 752: Blood Moon Wedding (6)

A Star Devil Beetle Beetle can destroy the world more than ten times.

In addition, unlike the Colors Out of Space who have to hide their own posture before absorbing enough vitality and soul power, this Black Flame Devil Beetle alone has the power to destroy the world.

All of the individuals of the “Star Devil Beetles” are terrifying creatures that have experienced countless times of evolution, fighting with all kind of creatures, and even fighting with gods.

At the moment, the giant black devil beetle trampled on by White Moon has a hard shell like a manatee, but the two whiskers are burning with a frightening black flame, like a pair of whips dancing constantly.

“No. 69, Black Flame Devil Beetle...” In the sigh of the Queen of Assyria, there was a little comfort.

My daughter is really gifted.

This is one of the ultimate trump card units that can destroy the world and fight in the void.

Like her stupid spider, this Star Devil Beetle has the power to destroy the world too, and is not controlled by the power of ancient gods.

It’s not a nightmare creature. It’s a monster in another system. It’s a super fighting force from a distant star world.

In order to snatch my lover away from me, she unexpectedly summoned this dangerous devil beetle?

Where did she learn this absolutely taboo spell?

How does she have the ability to make a contract with this No. 69 Black Flame Devil Beetle?

“Come out, my friend, king from the abyss.”

Since her daughter has come up with her ultimate trump card, the Queen of Assyria will naturally have to respond to her provocations.

In the underground lake, the huge stupid spider carrying the Queen’s throne silently, suddenly opened eight compound eyes.

The next second, 3000 spiders’ blades soar to the sky, breaking through the sky!

The seemingly stupid spider jumped up from the underground lake to the air directly and stepped on the spider blades.

On the empty throne, the shadow of the Queen of Assyria appears quietly.

That’s a figure of a peerless beauty in anyone’s imagination. If White Moon grows up and becomes more mature, that’s probably what she looks like.

She wears the same white wedding dress of the queen’s, but the queen’s wedding dress still dyed the blood a thousand years ago, and her abdomen also has an incurable hole.

It’s a curse that the Queen of Assyria can’t lift, a mark of her sacrifice.

In the past, all this has become the reason why the Queen of Assyria despairs and even closes herself in the Forgotten Ruins.

Now, she came out of the Forgotten Ruins and bravely faced such an incomplete self.

Because she believes that even a person like her has the right to obtain happiness and enjoy the time illuminated by the sun.

Maybe she is not the perfect queen, but today, she wants to be the perfect bride.

The giant stupid spiders proudly lift up its legs with more than 3000 spider blades flying around it.

At the foot of White Moon, the Black Flame Devil Beetle also raised its tentacles. The black flame rose to the sky, almost obscuring the brilliance of the blood moon.

“Mom, I won’t let you take dad away.” White Moon holds her eyes, showing a painful and struggling expression.

The power of her magic eye is on the rampage, which is a sequela of sacrificing the Colors Out of Space.

This kind of sacrifice is not without a price. If she is not the child of the ancient gods and has the highest level of control, the curse of the stars will make her scared.

Fortunately, the body made by dad is almost immune to any curse. It is the body blessed by the world and the only carrier that can accommodate the Queen of Assyria.

Although they all use the same body, they must figure out who is the soul married to Yun Xi!

“The kingdom is over.” Ice Dragon Zaka looked at the people who had fallen into complete chaos, shrugged her shoulders, and sighed.

“That’s right. We don’t need to fight at all. That spider, and that beetle, can flatten this kingdom.” Desert Dragon Zaka laughed.

Ah, only the eternal of the world and the stupidity of mankind won’t change in the river of time.

This prince is really stupid.

Yun Xi also felt that he had made a huge mistake.

Why didn’t I find out the truth about White Moon who came to sleep with me every night?

Obviously, her abnormality is so obvious.

Looking at the two in the sky, Yun Xi thought it was time to stand up.

“Hua Yue, I’m sorry. It’s really my fault.” With a sigh, Yun Xi hugged the leader of the Starwing Knights and showed a fearless expression.

In his mind, he thought of the mysterious prophecy of the royal augur again.

Choice, no, it's not a matter of choice or not at all. If I don't stop the two, the world will be finished before the evil dragon comes!

The world would be destroyed not because of the dragon, but because of a wedding. That would be too tragic!

"Prince, be careful."

"Prince, let's run!"

"Prince, how about marrying both of them?"

The girls of the Starwing Knights give Yun Xi reliable and unreliable suggestions.

Sorry, it's not a question of whom to marry. Yun Xi helplessly looks at the mother and daughter in the sky, who are about to announce the countdown to the end of the world.

No matter White Moon or Queen of Assyria, they all have the same characteristics.

Once a thing is identified, they will never go back.

Once like a person, then even the end of the world will never let them give up.

It's their charm, but it's also one of their most terrible characters.

Bet my best, I can save the world!

Starwings, it's up to you!

Yun Xi subconsciously summoned his strongest god weapon to challenge the five-star mission of hell difficulty – persuading the Queen of Assyria and White Moon to stop.

I like cats!

Saying the mantra-like whisper, Yun Xi begins to imagine that non-existent lovely cat, ready to open the door of the Sky Flying Sword.

The moment Starwings appeared, Yun Xi's ear suddenly heard a roar.

“Shaheen! It's you!”

Chapter 753: Blood Moon Wedding (7)

Until the moment before Yun Xi pulled out Starwings, Desert Dragon Zaka watched the wedding farce with a kind of pleasure, or even a sense of schadenfreude.

Human beings are hopelessly stupid. Even if we don't invade them, they will fight each other themselves.

As expected, it is better for the world to be ruled by dragons.

Only the world where the dragons are located at the top of all creatures is the perfect world. Maybe she can give herself the title of "Virtuous Dragon".

Well, well, Virtuous Dragon Zaka, that's not bad.

However, such a leisurely and happy mood completely collapsed at the moment of seeing Starwings.

That sword!

The god weapon, who has destructive power, Shaheen's sword!

Why does the prince of this kingdom have this sword?

This sword has a more beautiful and shining shape than the sun, moon, and stars. It's Shaheen's god weapon!

As soon as she saw Starwings, by comparing the size of Yun Xi and Starwings, she immediately figured out the truth.

Shaheen, in fact, is the prince of this kingdom!

Shaheen = prince.

This unprecedented truth blew the whole person of Desert Dragon Zaka into a blur of consciousness.

Impossible! Impossible! Impossible!

That Shaheen, who proposed to her and had a happy date with her, finally let her admit the engagement, was the prince?

“Ah, that Shaheen, ah, it is said that she went back to her hometown to get married.”

“She is in a hurry.”

“I envy such a talented swordsman.”

In the chest, there is some kind of burning feeling in the surging!

If you can't bear it, you don't need to!

“Shaheen! It’s you!” Desert Dragon Zaka tore open her cloak, pulled out her god weapon, the Star of the Sand, and gave a shocking roar to the prince who dared to be unfaithful.

“Ha, sister, is he your Shaheen?” Ice Dragon Zaka stared at her irrational sister. It was the first time that she had seen the expression that was about to eat people on her sister’s face.

As proud dragons, they don’t have the habit of eating intelligent creatures.

It can make her elder sister show the expression of wanting to eat people, which means her mood has reached an uncontrollable state.

“Shaheen, answer me, why do you break our engagement?” Even if the blood moon is high in the sky, Desert Dragon Zaka rushes forward without hesitation and roars at Yun Xi, who is sweating in the back.

This is not spiritual pollution like the blood moon, but the real dragon roar. The human beings on the ground are stunned just by the aftershocks.

“Well, it’s a very difficult day.”

On the astrological tower at the top of the king’s city, Robin helplessly started the magic shield that the city would only launch in an emergency, and temporarily isolated the horrible battleground that was enough to destroy the whole kingdom into the sky.

“...” Yun Xi’s forehead drops huge sweat.

Why does “Zaro” appear at this time?

Has she not been bombarded away by his Starwings, flying to the far end of the horizon?

What’s more, what’s the engagement? Where did it come from?

“Engagement? Dad, who is this?”

“Where did this rude woman come from?”

The sudden appearance of Zaka made the mother and daughter who were going to fight slightly distract their attention. The giant stupid spider and the Black Flame Demon Beetle also watched the unexpected guest.

“We don’t have an engagement, Zaro, and I’m not called Shaheen.” Yun Xi never thought that pulling out Starwings would cause such a disaster.

When did he have an engagement with “Zaro”? It’s totally Zaro’s own mistake.

When he unleashed Starwings to blow Zaro to the other side of the horizon, he thought that they should never meet again. Even if they met, she would hate himself.

After all, he almost killed Zaro.

When he pulled out Starwings, Yun Xi knew that he had to face his own black history. People would know that their prince went to the Champion Knight Competition and also won the championship. It's really a history that he doesn't want anyone to know.

"I know you are the prince of this kingdom." Desert Dragon Zaka grins at the Starwings in Yun Xi's hand.

With this sword as evidence, even Yun Xi can't make an explanation.

"Ah, it's this guy who cheated on my sister's feelings and abandoned her."

"Human beings are hopelessly bad." Ice Dragon Zaka's sneer made the scene fall into a more terrible state.

"They are lying, because dad likes me." White Moon looks at Desert Dragon Zaka with dismissive eyes.

At a glance, she knows Desert Dragon Zaka hasn't experienced a good education. Dad won't like such a person!

This kind of person is absolutely not worthy of my dad. She's not even qualified to be my dad's maid!

"This taste... You are..." The Queen of Assyria smelt some familiar taste from Desert Dragon Zaka and frowned a little.

“Shaheen, answer me a question!” Desert Dragon Zaka completely ignored the Assyrian Queen and White Moon.

Now, she felt that her body was boiling with infinite power. The endless wild power gave her the courage to challenge everything.

Ancient gods? Fk off! I’m the child of the original dragon, Desert Dragon Zaka who dominates the fate of the world!

This sense of oppression, this fierce momentum, and, most importantly, the silent complaints in the vertical pupil always make Yun Xi’s mind emerge a familiar figure.

In the middle of the distant continent, a green light rose to the sky, and the original giant dragon in deep sleep, the source of the most terrible disaster in the world, gave out a roar that shocked the world.

“Shaheen, you promised to marry me!”

At this moment, Desert Dragon Zaka is not fighting alone!

Chapter 754: Blood Moon Wedding (8)

Yun Xi looks at Desert Dragon Zaka and shakes his head regretfully.

“I didn’t make an engagement with you.”

It’s true. Although they had a fierce fight and had a good date, Yun Xi didn’t say a word about the marriage proposal.

To propose to a girl before his marriage... Yun Xi’s morals have not degenerated to this level.

If he did, he would never be a gentleman again.

“Er...” The fatal blow made Desert Dragon Zaka suddenly stupid.

“As I said, elder sister, you are deceived. How could this swindler make such a mistake?” Ice Dragon Zaka looks at Yun Xi with dismissive eyes. Her impression of Yun Xi is instantly reduced by 1000 points, even though the number is already negative.

“Human beings are unbelievable creatures.”

“We Zakas are the real rulers of this land! You have to pay for cheating my sister! ”

Yun Xi was stunned, so he knew from the mouth of Ice Dragon Zaka the real name of the “Zaro” he was dating.

Just the name “Zaka” gives Yun Xi a bad feeling.

This Zaka... is she...

“Prince of mankind, today is the day of your kingdom’s demise.”

“The one who makes my sister so sad should die.”

“In the name of Ice Dragon Zaka I pronounce you a capital crime!”

Ice Dragon Zaka seems to give a reasonable impression, but she would immediately become cold and ruthless when her sister was involved.

She is more powerful and cruel than Desert Dragon Zaka, the emperor of ice and snow.

Get ready for battle! Frost Dragon Teeth!

Designated target – the whole kingdom! Start the countdown of the forbidden spell: Ice Land!

Ten, nine...

“Wait.” Desert Dragon Zaka grabs her sister’s ice-type god weapon. Her wrist is covered with snow-white ice crystals. Ice Dragon Zaka is shocked and breaks the countdown of the forbidden spell.

“Shaheen... I’ll ask you one more question.” Ice Dragon Zaka never saw the almost desperate look on her sister’s face, as if praying for something.

It is clear that her sister is around, and conquering the world is only a matter of time in theory. Why does her sister feel so unhappy and even lose hope for the world?

Zakas are the children blessed by the original dragon, should be the creatures who are loved by the whole world and enjoy all happiness and glory.

“Shaheen, have you really never liked me?”

“Shaheen, does our time together mean nothing to you?”

“Shaheen, you know who I am now. Are you afraid of me? Do you want to kill me?”

Obviously, she said she would ask one question, but she asked three questions one after another.

“My father’s favorite, of course, is me.” White Moon doesn’t want the rhythm to fall into the hands of Desert Dragon Zaka. She feels a slight crisis from her.

It’s strange that this non-human guy would tangle with her father.

She's obviously an outsider who doesn't even have the qualification to be my dad's maid. Mumu is much better than her.

"Dragon, go back to your nest." The Queen of Assyria raised her fingertips and three thousand spider blades flew up behind her.

"Answer her, despicable prince, your answer will determine the fate of the world." Ice Dragon Zaka clenched her teeth and looked at Yun Xi, who was confused. She also raised the frost dragon's teeth in her hand.

Strange, what happened to her today? Ice Dragon Zaka thinks she's not right. She's very wrong.

She would never be so impulsive and irrational.

It's impossible to explain what happened to the blood boiling in her body at the moment. She is a rational dragon, and she will rule the ice and snow world in the future.

"Zaro..." Yun Xi takes a deep breath, asks his own heart, and then answers the three questions.

"We... there's no engagement, it's just a little misunderstanding."

"Our time together is not meaningless. It's a very happy time. If we can meet in different worlds, maybe the future will be different.

“I don’t hate you or fear you. Even now that I know you are Desert Dragon Zaka, I want to be your friend.”

Well, that’s the answer. Yun Xi thinks it’s a perfect response.

Make your position clear, and then tell Desert Dragon Zaka that she and he are “friends” rather than “lovers”.

In fact, Yun Xi’s friends are very few. When he was dating Desert Dragon Zaka, he felt the free atmosphere.

The pseudonym “Zaro” has a natural unrestrained wild sex appeal.

At the same time, there is a kind of clumsiness that you can do whatever you want.

He always thinks that if he didn’t meet Hua Huo, but grew up in a strange world, it might become like this.

“Yes, go away, stupid Desert Dragon Zaka!” White Moon made a face at her.

“Give up, Zaka, this is not where you should be.” On the external position, the Queen of Assyria has the same opinion.

Even if they want to fight for the prince’s ownership, they will never let others get involved in their relationship with the prince.

Even a powerful dragon has no qualification!

“See, the fox’s tail is exposed. This prince is not qualified to be liked by you at all, my sister.”

“Elder sister, you’d better forget him quickly and start conquering the world with me!”

Ice Dragon Zaka despised Yun Xi ten thousand times, and almost trampled him under with her own feet.

“No engagement...” The first answer of Yun Xi almost made Desert Dragon Zaka lose her mind, and finally realized that her engagement with Yun Xi was a joke from the beginning.

“Our time together... if... maybe... the future...” Yun Xi’s second answer shocked Desert Dragon Zaka, and it seemed that something began to light up in her eyes.

“I don’t hate you... nor afraid of you... we are friends...”

The final answer confirms Desert Dragon Zaka’s belief.

“Yes, it’s a relationship between friends now, but as long as we go further, we can become lovers!”

Desert Dragon Zaka got it. She understands everything.

Chapter 755: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (9)

“Well, let’s date again!” That’s the answer from Desert Dragon Zaka, a silly, kind of cute answer.

It doesn’t even matter if there is no engagement, even if it starts with us being friends.

The word “give up” doesn’t exist in Desert Dragon Zaka’s dictionary!

“Ah?” Yun Xi is stupid!

“Dad, that dragon’s head is broken!” White Moon blinked and looked pitifully at Desert Dragon Zaka, who was almost incoherent.

“Love... what a poison...” On this point, the queen of Assyria and her daughter held exactly the same thought.

“My God, sister, do you really think so?” Ice Dragon Zaka was shocked.

Worried about gains and losses, and even almost cried out. Is this still the familiar Desert Dragon Zaka who goes straight ahead without considering the consequences?!

“Well, it’s good to restart as a friend, no matter what, I want Shaheen!” This pursuit made Yun Xi feel more familiar with the feeling.

Hua Huo, she's really just like you!

"Ah!" Ice Dragon Zaka finally felt disappointed in her sister.

"That prince, son of a bitch, rotten man!" The girl's voice echoed in the sky, all accusations against someone:

"What restarts as a friend!"

"Sister, don't be fooled by such people!"

"Who are we?" Ice Dragon Zaka raises her index finger, points to the sky and the earth, releasing the unique domineering atmosphere of the original giant dragon.

"We are Zakas!" Driven by her sister, Desert Dragon Zaka suddenly woke up.

Yes, who are they?

Zaka, the original dragon's shadow, is endowed with life by the great original dragon and born from the world's original power.

"We are masters of the world!"

“The master of the world in the future!” Every time Ice Dragon Zaka said it, she was more powerful.

She did not know what was wrong with her. She was angry when she saw her sister’s ingratitude.

The name of Zaka can’t be trampled on like this.

“We are the kings of the world!” The flame in the eyes of Desert Dragon Zaka was burning again.

The power from the original dragon is constantly flowing in her body, bringing incomparable confidence and courage.

“Yes, so even if this guy is a jerk, an ant who is not worthy of being trampled to death, if you really like him, then take him away!” Ice Dragon Zaka holds up her Frost Dragon Teeth.

“You must recognize this engagement even if you don’t like it!”

“Instigated by this dragon, but you also want to pretend that you don’t know anything? Death penalty!”

“Oh, yes, it can be like this!”

“Shaheen, marry me, or I will destroy the kingdom!”

After her sister said this, Desert Dragon Zaka, who suddenly woke up, finally found out that she still had this choice.

She is not human. Why should she abide by the moral rules of human beings?

The dragon race is a natural treasure collecting race.

For her, is there anything more precious than Shaheen in the world?

No, even if there are golden mountains and silver mountains are piled in front of her, it is not as good as her love for Shaheen.

Even the dominance of the whole world is not as important as her engagement to Shaheen.

Shaheen did not say that he wanted to marry her, but the engagement was not a false thing, which she really believed.

Even if it is a lie, she will make it true, which is more important than world conquest!

Sisters with one heart can break everything!

The Star of the Sand was held high, and sent out the resonance sound of shaking the world with Frost Dragon Teeth.

“It seems that idiots are still hopeless. Mom, kill them first.” In the face of a sudden foreign enemy, White Moon did not dare to take them lightly.

The contradiction between her and her mother is the internal contradiction of the family.

The conflict between her and Zaka sisters is that of foreign enemies.

“Original dragon... are you going to wake up...” The Queen of Assyria looked at the far end of the horizon and saw the green light rising from the sky.

The seal of the Forgotten Ruins will not seal the dragon that will destroy the world.

This dragon’s anger is irresistible. If it wakes up from its deep sleep, the first thing it will do will be the destruction of the whole world.

“We’ll, seal the two Zaka sisters first.” The Queen of Assyria and White Moon are united in fighting against foreign enemies.

The relationship between them is so wonderful.

“To conquer the world!” Ice Dragon Zaka suddenly changes back to the body of a giant Ice Dragon, which is to get revenge for her sister.

“For love!” Desert dragon Zaka also becomes the real body of Desert Dragon.

The strong and powerful desert dragon, and the elegant and beautiful Ice Dragon.

“The blood moon!”

The cold underground lake, with the new moon hanging high, is the dream of ancient gods captured by White Moon, the nightmare of eternal loneliness.

“May the old Assyria never be alone.”

Thousands of years have not changed. The Forgotten Ruins in the long river of time. The cursed crimson moon stares at this land, which is the dream of the Queen of Assyria and the reflection of Millennium Assyria.

“Kill all your opponents, and there will be no rival, sister.” Ice Dragon Zaka said the perfect answer, which fully conforms to the world view of the Zakas.

“Yes, that’s it.”

“Love is obtained by your own hands.”

“It’s good to get married first and then fall in love.”

“Engagement, I don’t care whether the engagement exists!” Desert dragon Zaka was excited and spread out her wings.

“At last you understand, sister!” Ice Dragon Zaka was glad to see her familiar sister back.

Yes, that’s her sister.

She always thinks of nothing and goes in a straight line toward her own destination, smashing everything in front of her.

Whether it’s the country, the princess, or the queen!

In this world, only the winner can laugh at the end.

World conquest is like this, love is like this.

Zakas shall never be... cough! Zakas shall forever be natural kings!

“Now It’s the end of the world.”

Yun Xi did not have time to stop, the battle directly entered the peak.

At this moment, he deeply realized a famous saying.

If you don't die, you won't die!

The war that decides the fate of the world has broken out!

The Zaka sisters vs the Queen of Assyria and White Moon!

Chapter 756: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (10)

Endless ice and snow turned into scattered ice rings, like the most beautiful fireworks, spreading to the earth from a corner of the sky.

Ice Dragon Zaka flew high above the sky, declaring towards the earth, under her feet and the sky that she is the master of this ice and snow world and the strongest king!

Around her Dragon Wings, ice crystals all over the sky are falling silently around her.

Gradually, the boundless sky was filled with snowflakes made by her wings, and the astonishing cold air scattered between heaven and earth with her as the center.

With the swing of her Dragon Wings, the cold air gathered in the air naturally converged because of her idea.

Cracking. These cold and piercing cold air converged into a strong wind. After being involved in those blue ice crystals, the force turned into ice, snow, and bright frost, which covered the whole sky.

She hovered and circled in the sky with pride, and then went straight into the sky.

With her flying, the frightful frozen air blooms like fireworks in the sky.

Then, countless petals of silver snow floating down from the sky. Ice and snow ring covering the whole sky.

Under the cover of ice and snow, the ancient ruins, which were already extremely lonely, became more desolate and lonely, just like the fragments completely forgotten in time.

The frozen air has gone deep into the ground, which makes a thick layer of frost hanging between the still walls, grass leaves and vines in the ruins.

In the moonlight of the blood moon, the silver earth reflects the blood color, just like the blood on the bride's wedding dress.

The Queen of Assyria sits on the throne of the giant, stupid spider, surrounded by a collapsed palace.

Her expression is arrogant and cold, quiet, it seems that the world is only her.

Memories of those sad and happy, those who had moved her, angry, sad, warm... like the night breeze in the quiet tide, waves and waves appear in front of her eyes, flowing in her heart.

Everything is gone.

She is not the dead who will sleep forever. In the wonderful eternity, even death will disappear.

“Accept heaven’s punishment, Seal Maker!” Ice Dragon Zaka symbolizes the calm and cruel side of the original dragon.

When she laughs, she is as innocent as a child, but she will never be merciful when fighting. She is the type who will use all her strength no matter who the opponent is.

Ice and snow land gives the birth of the fearless girl.

Compare Desert Dragon Zaka to the storm of hot sand, then Ice Dragon Zaka is the master of ice and snow!

“Hum!”

“Hum!”

“Hum!”

Behind the Queen of Assyria, 3000 spider blades rose to the sky automatically, locking in the huge body of Ice Dragon Zaka.

“In front of my ice and snow, even time should be still!” Ice Dragon Zaka spirals up into the sky and dances with the blood moon.

A god weapon in the shape of dragon teeth appears behind Ice Dragon Zaka. It is a gift from the original giant dragon, which is exclusive to Ice Dragon Zaka.

Target captures!

Quantity, 3000!

Launch the super forbidden spell!

Freeze the land!

Ice Dragon Zaka released the ice-type forbidden spell sealed in the god weapon, which can only be used three times a day.

The endless ice crystal turns into the frozen gas covering thousands of miles, freezes everything, and turns the whole world into a pure white.

Pure white without a trace of other colors.

Turn the whole world into the deep white of ice and snow.

The white frost that no life is allowed to survive.

Less than three seconds after the ice forbidden spell was launched, there was no other color in the ruins of the once royal city of Assyria.

The white of ice and snow dominated the world. Except the blood moon in the sky, nothing is not frozen.

With her own efforts, Ice Dragon Zaka turned this area into an ice land.

She believed that there was no living person under the ice and snow.

In a way, the answer is right.

Because, her opponent, has long dead.

It was the dead who came back a thousand years later to fight against her.

No, it's the Millennial Queen who lost the concept of death for a long time.

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

One blade after another that was frozen in the ice and snow flying again. At the same time, the figure of the giant stupid spider also broke through the ground with murderous intention in the eight compound eyes.

3000 spider blades flew like a storm, leaning toward Ice Dragon Zaka flying in the sky.

“How could it be!” Ice Dragon Zaka flies higher and faster, spits out powerful Ice Dragon Breath, and constantly knocks down these fierce spider blades.

Ice Dragon breath, which can freeze all flesh and blood, has little effect on these blood red spider blades.

Even if part of the spider blades are frozen temporarily, the remaining spider blades will quickly break the ice crystal on the companion’s body, and chase after the king of ice and snow in an extremely crazy posture.

“Ice wall!” Forced to do so, Ice Dragon Zaka cast a series of crystal clear ice walls around her, more than 10 meters thick.

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

“Ding!”

The spider blades, which once battered Yun Xi to death, repeatedly shot at these ice walls, instantly penetrated half of the ice walls, and were still constantly rotating and cutting these solid ice walls.

Ice Dragon Zaka has a bad premonition that the Queen of Assyria, who looks weak and has blood on her abdomen, is more tough than she thought.

Worthy of being the Seal Maker, the Millennium Queen coming out of the Forgotten Ruins.

However, she is not the ordinary herself today!

She doesn't know what happened, but after she decided to help her sister fight the shameless mother and daughter, her body was full of constant strength.

Like the great original dragon watching the battle, she even saw a faint green light on her head reflected from the ice wall.

Green is the true color of the great original dragon, symbolizing the strongest color in the world.

“If one forbidden spell is not enough, then launch the second!” The forbidden spell can only be used three times a day, but Ice Dragon Zaka did not hesitate to release the second forbidden spell.

On the ground, the Queen of Assyria sighs and gently raises her right hand.

The thumb is up, the index finger is out, and the other three fingers are clenched to form a line between herself and Ice Dragon Zaka.

The eight compound eyes of the giant stupid spider instantly locked the target that was preparing for the double forbidden spell.

What was that? Ice Dragon Zaka, who had never fought this spider, had a heart attack.

The next second, a bloody light blade shot from the compound eyes of the giant stupid spider and penetrated Ice Dragon Zaka's body in the sky.

Chapter 757: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (11)

"Ga!" Ice Dragon Zaka's whole body was unnaturally stagnant, and her body was pierced by the bloody light blade and almost completely still in the sky.

The second forbidden spell which had already been launched was completely interrupted. Countless ice crystals were flying around her beautiful body, becoming extremely messy.

"Two..." The Queen of Assyria, once again, pointed to the head of Ice Dragon Zaka.

Another bloody light blade was shot out, and this time, Ice Dragon Zaka responded in time. At the critical moment, she leaned her dragon head over and only let the strange bloody light blade brush her dragon horn.

At this time, the power of the first bloody light blade appeared in Ice Dragon Zaka's body.

The chilling blood lines spread rapidly and incomparably from the place where they were penetrated, and soon covered half of Ice Dragon Zaka's body.

What's this? Ice Dragon Zaka instinctively felt that something was wrong, especially in the area of the heart that had been crossed by the bloody light blade, and convulsed uncontrollably.

On the ground, the Queen of Assyria pulls out a translucent bloody magic dagger with graceful movements.

It was the magic sword used by the Millennium queen.

The name of the sword – Assyria's Witch Blade. It is an ancient god weapon inherited by the royal family of Assyria. It is a magic sword restricted to women.

The Queen of Assyria once used to defeat the arrogant dragon with this magic dagger, so that those dragon people withdrew from the mainland, and made the kingdom of Assyria an unprecedented glory.

Therefore, this Witch Blade is also known as the Queen's Blade, which symbolizes the supreme power of the witch in the kingdom.

This God weapon was originally like a crystal sword. It was used to control the huge magic power of the Queen of Assyria. If necessary, it could even be transformed into a huge lightsaber, tearing the sky.

It's just, after that night of the blood moon, everything changed.

The Queen of Assyria, who killed all her enemies, was eventually contaminated and assimilated by the blood moon.

As a symbol of the Queen of Assyria, the Witch Blade has become a part of the blood moon.

It is just different from the knight kings who burned themselves out. The Queen of Assyria was favored by the ancient gods and gained the power of the blood moon.

That's the ominous power of the curse. If the Queen of Assyria in the past was a kind-hearted witch, then she is the one who symbolizes blood and death now.

Her magic also changed from light-type and water-type to blood-type magic.

At this moment, the blade in her hand becomes the blade of the blood moon.

The bloody light blade that runs through Ice Dragon Zaka's body is the "landmark" used to launch blood magic.

Slowly holding the Witch Blade in her hand, the Queen of Assyria smiles and inserts the magic dagger into her heart.

“Chi!” A large amount of blood spattered from the Queen of Assyria’s chest and dyed her white wedding dress red.

“Grrrrraaaghhhh!” Surrounded by multiple ice walls in the sky and covered with ice armor, Ice Dragon Zaka uttered a scream. The bloody blood burst out from all the places covered with blood-colored lines.

A large amount of dragon blood burst out of Ice Dragon Zaka’s body, and almost a third of her heart was blown out. This kind of injury would have been fatal if she was human.

Even though she is a dragon known for her powerful vitality, the curse and blood explosion from the Queen of Assyria had caused a heavy blow to Ice Dragon Zaka.

She would have fallen from the sky if she hadn’t been at the peak of her life.

“Guarded by the power of the original dragon?” The Queen of Assyria thoughtfully pulled the dagger stained with her own blood out of her chest, then held out her little hand again, and took the position of locking Ice Dragon Zaka.

Astonished. It is the first time since her birth that Ice Dragon Zaka has suffered such a terrible injury. The curse of blood burst from her interior completely ignored her element resistance attributes.

Even if she fell into the volcano, it would not be worse than that moment.

When the curse of blood burst in her heart, if not for the green light, she might have returned to the embrace of the original dragon.

What a terrible curse!

What a strange self-mutilation technique.

Is this the master of the Forgotten Ruins, the ancient seal maker?

Her strength is even more powerful than she predicted!

She didn't hesitate to put her god weapon through her chest, doesn't she feel pain?

The answer is, how can she feel no pain?

The principle of the Witch Blade to launch a curse is that it needs to give the user three times the damage before the damage is fed back to the target who has planted the curse.

This also means that the wound on the Queen of Assyria's body caused by the sword is more than three times that of Ice Dragon Zaka. Ice Dragon Zaka's heart is protected by the power of the original dragon, while the heart of the Queen of Assyria is really penetrated by herself.

"Three..." The Queen of Assyria did not specifically lock the head of Ice Dragon Zaka this time, but aimed at her huge wings.

"Bad!" Ice Dragon Zaka tried her best to avoid the lock of the Queen of Assyria.

The bloody light blade flashed away. With the positioning of the 3000 spider blades, the Queen of Assyria perfectly hit Ice Dragon Zaka's dragon wing.

Just like the blood streaks spreading in the heart area just now, the same blood color lines spread rapidly and incomparably on Ice Dragon Zaka's blue wings.

"I'm done!" Ice Dragon Zaka looked at the curse lines spreading on her wings and immediately realized that fighting with the Queen of Assyria was equal to suicide.

Even if the power of the dragon posture is more than ten times that of human posture, the flaw is that it is too big!

The Queen of Assyria made a comparison of Ice Dragon Zaka's body, and then without hesitation, inserted the Witch Blade into her arm, making a violent stroke.

In the sky, Ice Dragon Zaka's wings were instantly torn apart, and tons of dragon blood flowed from the sky like a bloody curtain.

"Ah, ah, ah!" Ice Dragon Zaka could no longer maintain her flying posture and fell from the sky with a wall of ice around her.

In a flash of blue light, Ice Dragon Zaka finally gave up the advantage of dragon posture and became a human female again.

The blood veins in the arms and heart regions disappeared after the Queen of Assyria detonated them. After all, the dragon's constitution is not fake, and it has a high resistance to any external forces.

“Dragon Teeth!” Clenching her teeth, Ice Dragon Zaka stabbed the Frost Dragon Teeth into the ground.

In the next second, countless ice blades burst into the sky, like the teeth of countless dragons rising from the ground.

The battle has completely become white-hot.

Chapter 758: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (12)

It is also the battle of the dragons, however, the battle between Desert Dragon Zaka and White Moon is quite different.

Ice Dragon Zaka and the Queen of Assyria are more like wizards, the Frost Dragon Teeth and the Blood Moon Blade are typical long-range attack weapons.

But the battle between Desert Dragon Zaka and the black flame demon bug is like diamond cutting diamond.

White Moon stepped her barefoot onto the body of the black flame demon bug, dominating the sixty-nine most dangerous demon bug in the starry sky. Two black tentacles turned into huge black flaming whips, which severely bombarded the huge body of Desert Dragon Zaka.

“Rooooaarrrrr!” The dragon scales, which are invulnerable to fire and water, are burned with two black marks. Desert Dragon Zaka lowers her head and directly hits the head of the black demon bug.

Compared with the nearly 50-meter body of Desert Dragon Zaka, the black flame demon bug, which is only about 10 meters long, looks small and exquisite.

However, the power of the bug doesn't depend on body shape.

In other people's eyes, ants that seem to be able to trample to death with one foot can easily lift objects more than 400 times their own weight, while it's far from the strongest amongst all insects. Some beetles can lift objects thousands of times their own weight.

The appearance of the black flame demon bug seems to be more inclined to longicorn. This is a kind of insect known for its absolute strength and super strong crustacean. After countless times of evolution, its power has become more terrifying.

Even the Desert Dragon Impact, which was strong enough to smash the towering mountains, didn't make the black flame demon bug retreat. Instead, it took the initiative to rush up without fear. It used its hard head and the extremely different body size of Desert Dragon Zaka to fight head-on.

The forces of both sides collided with each other, and then fought, making the ground emit a huge wail, forming a large-scale earthquake.

Numerous spider-web-like cracks spread from the place where the two giants collide. Visible shock waves swept the land, and countless gravel even flew to the sky, forming small mushroom clouds.

All the hot sand burst out and even formed a storm!

This is a natural disaster. It is created by the giant dragon and demon bug. It is enough to make the human species extinct.

If the battlefield had deviated from the Royal City, the whole city would have been buried in this spreading earthquake.

“Trachoma, storm!” Desert dragon Zaka has never felt that she is in such a good state that the magic in her body almost forms a huge wave.

Stepping on the desert land, she did not step back, even if she was facing the black demon bug, whose strength was stronger than her own. Instead, she turned all the strength of the desert into a part of herself.

Four sand eyes are suspended at the same time. This strange magical creation turns this land into a landscape of endless yellow sand. As long as the battlefield is located in this desert area, Desert Dragon Zaka has no reason to lose.

In contrast, the black flame demon bug is not supported by any external forces, but the Zerg creatures are natural invaders, and they are used to any harsh environment when they fight.

The worse the environment is, the more it can stimulate the evolution factors of Zerg.

Two long black whiskers transformed into an antenna-like structure and began to absorb the force of the blood moon from White Moon’s body.

The dark black compound eyes of the black demon bug also brought a trace of crazy blood color.

Evolution starts!

Direction: fury, bloodthirsty, crush!

Even the power of the abyss can be used by it. This is a kind of fighting race that can be consumed and used by any power in order to conquer, kill, and become the strongest race.

There is no such thing as depravity because this black flame demon bug is a complete fighting machine, the king of destruction!

After absorbing the power of the blood moon, the body of the black flame demon bug became more and more huge, and the blood-colored lines similar to the curse of the Queen of Assyria appeared on the exoskeleton tissue.

Pollution, start!

The ground on which the black flame demon bug trod began to twist and transform, and countless strange runes spread out.

Without thousands of years of wisdom and skill accumulated by her mother, the Queen of Assyria, the tactic White Moon chose was to fight with more strength than her opponent.

It's immature, but it works directly.

After getting the power of the blood moon, the black tentacles turned into a bloody whip, which pounded on the back of Desert Dragon Zaka.

Being attacked by black flames, the dragon scales of Desert Dragon Zaka were eroded, and the bloody lines immediately began to invade the body of Desert Dragon Zaka.

“Hey!” With a roar, Desert Dragon Zaka’s four trachomas, which dominate the desert territory, rise at the same time.

Sandstorm, break out!

Innumerable gravel covered the sky and swept the body of the black demon bug. At this time, the chance to win depends on who is crueller to herself, who can bite teeth to hold on.

No one will retreat!

No one will let it!

You have black tentacles, and I have trachomas.

If you are afraid, you lose!

Look at me, Shaheen. This is my persistence!

“If it goes on like this, the world will be ruined.” Standing at the boundary between the two battlefields and looking at the two earth-shaking battlefields, Yun Xi sighed.

Starwings, what should I do?

Sure enough, I have to fight. If they continue, not only the Royal City, but the kingdom will be doomed.

Even if I know that there will be unpredictable consequences, I can only use it.

Once again, open the door of taboo.

Yun Xi doesn't know what is behind the door, but he has an instinctive sense of crisis about the thing behind the door.

However, Yun Xi has no choice.

In order to save the world, to solve this huge crisis, the power of the Starwings is necessary.

"Cat, open the door for me." He closed his eyes and Yun Xi sees the elegant and mysterious cat again.

She exists and she doesn't exist.

She wasn't dead, she wasn't alive.

Numerous legend ranked strong beings hated the cat, but they were crazy looking for the existence of the cat, or the proof of its nonexistence.

Jumping in the infinite world line, the result is determined by observation, and the observer is determined by the result.

In Yun Hai's Quadrant Sword, it's the most magical and unpredictable factor.

The Starwings made a joyful sound of swords, and the door, once closed by Yun Xi, was opened again.

Yun Xi is ready to wait for the burning sun wings to come again.

However, after opening the door this time, it was not the pair of sacred golden and red wings, but the breath that Yun Xi had not touched.

Soft green wing gently stretched out, and then wrapped Yun Xi's body.

It's the breath of endless life.

Chapter 759: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (13)

No, it's not the power of sunwalker!

Once again, opening the forbidden door that should never be opened, Yun Xi is even ready to be burned by the flames of the sun.

Yun Xi has a vague guess about where the golden-red sun wings come from. After all, this is not the first time he has used the power from sunwalker.

This time, however, the wing from behind the doors opened by the Starwings is quite different from those of the last time.

It is an incomparably beautiful Green Wing full of the breath of life, just like the incarnation of the spirit of all living things in heaven and earth. The crystal-clear wing does not have any strange feeling, but is full of the breath of the birth of all things.

And, it's not a pair of wings, it's just one wing!

The moment this wing appeared, Yun Xi heard the song. It was a song of missing that had crossed the distance of time and reverberated in the world.

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star, small and white, clean and bright, talk to me."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, one by one, may you bloom and grow happily."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, my lovely little baby, come on and be with me."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, my little snowflake, I want to be with you every day."

“Edelweiss, edelweiss, come and find me.”

Along with the slightly sad and full of longing song, the intelligent creatures of the whole world saw the wing and heard the song coming from the river of time.

Beautiful and clear green wing, showing an eternally beautiful posture, emitting countless green light spots, to fall on the earth, into the river and fall to the bottom of the abyss.

Many of them fell to Yun Xi.

Unlike the sun’s wings, the green wing clearly reveals part of her message.

“Praise you, our highest wing.”

“The glory of green, the beauty of flying.”

The green wing, representing the eternal glory, spread out behind Yun Xi, gently touching him and wrapping his body.

Time changes, Yun Xi saw a piece of green water, transparent as green gems, hazy fog surrounded the green water, making all this seem like a dream.

Under the early sun, the small trees beside the lake swaying, shedding golden lights from the shadows.

The young man was sitting under the big tree beside the green water. He was wet through, but he looked forward to the bright green water.

“Come and play hide and seek.” It seems that there is a girl’s echo beside his ears. He clearly did not see her appearance, but had a feeling that the softest part of the heart is touched.

The young man was looking around, but he couldn’t find the girl’s figure. He could only wander around the lake where the two met over and over again.

On the big tree, there is graffiti.

It was an umbrella, a very poorly painted umbrella with two portraits under it.

One of them was stupid and funny, and the other had a strange doll in her hand, which was a doll with three eyes.

Because of the clumsy technique of the portrait, even the gender can’t be seen, but Yun Xi immediately understood that one of them was a boy and the other was a girl.

He raised his head and saw the figure of the girl. Her ability to play hide and seek was as bad as ever.

Because he can always find her easily, that three-eyed doll is too conspicuous.

The girl holding the doll was laughing with her bare feet, her tiny ankle shaking and kicking down some leaves.

She has a pair of watery clear eyes, that snow-white ankle, slender wrist, and weak body, give him a fragile sense of art.

That kind of fragility let people love her and always want to care for her.

But she's not human.

Because there is a wing behind her, a transparent, green wing full of the breath of life.

The wing can only be seen and touched by the boy.

That wing is extraordinary, unique, soft, and warm, is the most beautiful wing that the boy has ever seen.

What is her age? 13 or smaller? That kind of weak temperament and innocent eyes let the boy, who cannot help but immerse himself in it.

Her body is soft, and she always loves to sleep. When she is around him, she always pinches his sleeve, just like a child who has lost her direction.

The first time he saw her, he couldn't help but stretch out his hand to take good care of her.

He has been waiting for her in that place she would not have come.

How long did you wait?

This time, she hid well.

I decide! As long as I see her again, I must say that sentence I always want to say with her.

Ah, it's been a long time. It's dark and it's raining. She must be late because of the rain?

It's cold and hungry.

Why hasn't she come yet?

By the way, in retrospect, what did she say? She said...

Hum? Wait, who is she?

Her name, what is it?

Yun Xi pressed his forehead and showed a painful expression.

Why can't I remember her name?

More green light spots fall on Yun Xi through the forbidden door opened by the Starwings.

“Sorry to be late.”

“Finally, I found you.”

“My Edelweiss...”

The place where the green light spot falls begins to grow a kind of beautiful floret, that is a kind of green, soft floret, from another world to convey the missing.

It's the love from the highest wing in the nine secluded seas, and a keepsake to the one she likes.

“You... Who is it?” Yun Xi can smell the faint fragrance of flowers, which are the flowers bred by the owner of the green wing for her lover.

It is the flower that carries all the time so that the boy and the girl can meet and spend time together. It is the only flower in the world.

“My name is... Lvji.”

The green wing spread out and turned into countless green light spots, which wrapped Yun Xi's whole body and penetrated into his soul. As if sowing seeds on Yun Xi, it gave Yun Xi its own strength without reservation.

Different from the sun wings, this green wing, which represents the power of life, gives Yun Xi extraordinary power by sacrificing itself.

That's exactly what is missing from time and space, and the gift from the owner of the green wing.

Chapter 760: The Wedding of the Blood Moon (14)

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star, small and white, clean and bright, talk to me."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, one by one, may you bloom and grow happily."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, my lovely little baby, come on and be with me."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, my little snowflake, I want to be with you every day."

"Edelweiss, edelweiss, come and find me."

"My lovely Edelweiss, I like you. One day, we will meet again."

"At that time, smile at me and welcome me."

“This is our unchanging agreement.”

Yun Xi's eyes were full of tears.

At that moment, his figure almost coincided with the boy waiting by the lake.

The young boy tried his best to wait until the body could no longer support it. When it was dark, when the body temperature almost disappeared, the lifeline of the body was in danger.

In the end, he didn't wait for the person he wanted to wait for and didn't say the words that had been prepared for a long time.

On that day, the lines of the fate of both sides were completely staggered, just like the distance between the world, gradually drifting away.

The owner of the green wing is late for a long time. Maybe it is a period of negligible time for the creatures that can cross the sky.

But for those who are in love, it is as long as a century.

Some time, missed is missed.

Some people, you think she will always be by their side, always can see her, but suddenly, you will never find her.

Sometimes, fate is so changeable and unpredictable.

Even if you are high and have all the praise and glory of the supreme wing, you will lose your important things.

“Lvji...” Yun Xi remembered this soft and sad name.

Numerous green light spots are gathered in Yun Xi’s body, which is different from the violent sun walker’s power, which is totally under the control of Yun Xi.

He knows nothing about how to use this power that doesn’t belong to the world at all, but it’s not something he needs to worry about.

These forces are completely harmless to him. Instead of being lighted by the power of the sunwalker, this power will nourish his body in reverse.

The cost is that the number of these green dots is constantly decreasing, and a large number of them are disappearing every moment.

It’s the power built on sacrifice, the power to give Yun Xi unlimited protection, wisdom, and courage.

“Flowers...” Yun Xi instinctively understood how to find the most suitable carrier for these forces.

This infinite force of life has the possibility of creating all miracles. The way in which they are used to express strength is “flowers”.

If Lvji was here, she would be able to create infinite beautiful flowers and turn the barren land into a paradise full of flowers.

What she held was just that incredible brilliance of life, an alien of the great unspeakable terror.

Yun Xi doesn't have the ability to create such magical flowers by himself, but Yun Xi knows that there is a flower with incomparable power.

Because this is also a unique flower in White Lotus Sword Domain, which makes Yun Xi's heart beat constantly and lets him peep at the biggest secret in White Lotus Sword Domain.

The name of that flower is Linga!

In Yun Xi's mind, the figure of the invisible flower quickly became real. It was a flower born in this god domain in a distant era. It took thousands of years for it to grow up gradually and be praised by people and become a legendary flower.

It's just that it has another name in the white lotus sword domain.

The Secret Treasure of White Lotus!

Linga, this is the real name of the secret treasure of white lotus. It is a holy tree with bamboo shoots and small white flowers.

The blooming flowers of Linga have the power to engrave countless magics and evolve thousands of supernatural powers.

However, the opening time of such a magical flower is not fixed. As long as one flower blooms from the holy tree, it can open the door of endless wisdom.

Once upon a time, a Sky Sword picked a Linga flower and opened the way to the god sword skill.

In order to thank Linga, he arranged the power to guard this White Lotus Secret Treasure, and hoped that someone would get the same inheritance the next time Linga blossomed.

His name is Yun Hai the Sky Sword.

Linga's flower is the supreme secret treasure of the White Lotus Sword Domain, and Linga Holy tree is the tree of wisdom rooted in the deepest world rules.

You can see it, but you can't get close to it, let alone destroy it.

There it is and it doesn't exist.

It is just when the Sky Sword sees it that he realizes the ultimate problem of Yun Hai's Quadrant Sword.

However, Yun Xi doesn't need that talent, because, at the moment, the holy tree is really in the place he can touch.

This is not a world of the Dragon's War, but a more complex and wonderful field.

Lvji sacrificed the power of one of her wings to give Yun Xi a blessing, and gave him the power to contact all the extraordinary flowers. Together with the holy tree of Linjia flowers, the holy tree also appeared in front of him.

Linga, the root of all wisdom, symbolizes the mysteries of the universe, with infinite postures and innumerable shapes.

It may be a plain grass on the road, a willow nestling together, or a long withered bodhi tree.

In different beliefs, it has different names and different attitudes.

It is the tree that accompanies the Buddha's path.

It is a bridge connecting heaven and earth.

It is a great world tree that can breed spirits.

According to the different rules of the world, Linga will take on different attitudes and have different real names.

The essence of everything is that Lin Jia itself is the embodiment of “life” and “wisdom”, a perfect rule commonly used in any world and a beautiful thing that human beings yearn for.

“Can you lend me a flower?” Yun Xi curiously placed his hand on the tree, which was still in the young posture.

It’s true that the holy tree in the White Lotus Sword Domain is still very small, and has not even given birth to self-consciousness. It is as pure as a white paper.

If it wasn’t for Lvji’s power, no one could affect the Holy tree, even the Sky Sword. Because it exists in the deepest part of the world’s rules.

It has no natural enemies, it can’t be hurt, it can’t even be observed.

The White Lotus Secret Treasure that people know is just a shadow of it left in the world. In the past, only Yun Hai the Sky Sword had ever seen it and got its flowers.
