

Starchild 791

Chapter 791: Culture

“Run!”

In the morning sun, Red Dragon Zaka and Yun Xi run hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder, in the empty desert at full speed.

Unlike yesterday’s run, which was completely dominated by Red Dragon Zaka, this time she was working with Yun Xi’s speed to slightly reduce her non-human explosive power.

Compared with Red Dragon Zaka’s unreasonable running speed, Yun Xi’s running has both the steadiness of the Hard Body and the elegant feeling of the Soft Body.

Maybe it can’t be compared with Red Dragon Zaka in simple speed, but it is better in turning skills and grasping the center of gravity.

Yun Xi is excellent, and this is what Red Dragon Zaka, who started trying to keep pace with Yun Xi, discovered.

That “excellent” does not mean physical fitness. No human can compare with the dragon in physical fitness.

What’s great about Yun Xi is that he can move at anyone’s pace.

At first, Yun Xi caught up with Red Dragon Zaka when she broke out in an unreasonable sprint.

When Red Dragon Zaka began to try to cooperate with him, he began to guide Red Dragon Zaka's steps so that both of them could make full use of their advantages.

After running together for about an hour, he guided Red Dragon Zaka to learn how to stop, turn, and even retreat at high speed.

Because of her extraordinary physical fitness, Red Dragon Zaka has never thought that running alone has so many advanced skills, and never thought that one day she would be taught these seemingly ordinary but useful skills.

It's really an excellent learning ability. Yun Xi is very pleased to see that Red Dragon Zaka, who started to cooperate with him, learned these skills very fast.

The dragon clan is indeed the ultimate creature.

How could he know so many things? Red Dragon Zaka looks at Yun Xi with unbelievable eyes. When she really puts down her prejudice and looks at him, she could discover that he has many secrets.

The god weapon she saw only once when she was dying.

The talent that can learn Dragon Roar Wave at a glance.

And these running skills that she didn't even think about.

He must be a monster amongst human beings, right?

“Well, let's start the rehearsal of the battle.” It took about half a day for both of them to find the most suitable running rhythm.

When sprinting in a straight line, with the help of Red Dragon Zaka's unreasonable explosive power, Yun Xi will give the leading power to Red Dragon Zaka, and let her drive to run with him.

For the jump that needs turning or complex steps, it is handed over to Yun Xi.

This kind of practice greatly deepened the tacit understanding between the two people.

Later, as long as Yun Xi's fingertips tremble, Red Dragon Zaka will know when to run and when to stop. Yun Xi only needs to feel the look of Red Dragon Zaka, and he will take over the leading power and launch his multiple turning skills.

Last night's intimate contact let the two people grow up, whether it is their relationship, or synchronization rate.

“What kind of attack are you good at in your human posture?” Yun Xi asks Red Dragon Zaka.

“Claws, lunges, blows, and bites.” Red Dragon Zaka answers without hesitation.

This is really the answer to the character of red dragon. It is all the moves of tearing the opponent. Yun Xi thinks about how to cooperate with Red Dragon Zaka. This is also a test of the skills he learned from Casina the Battle God.

The Hard Body is in line with Red Dragon Zaka’s appetite.

Well, try it.

“Next, let’s move in this way...” Yun Xi did not consider the result of teaching the secret of the Hard Body and began to teach Red Dragon Zaka the Hard Body’s fighting skills.

“Hum, humans also have good fighting skills.” Red Dragon Zaka is very satisfied with the fighting style of the Hard Body.

That’s right. No matter what the situation is, her fighting style is just two words – critical strike!

Red Dragon Zaka does not have the word “defense” in her dictionary, whether it is dragon claw, dragon roar, or bite.

The skills of the Hard Body is very suited for Red Dragon Zaka.

This kind of fighting skill, which transcends the limits of human flesh and blood is very suited with Red Dragon Zaka’s taste.

She learned the three secret skills of the Red Steel Genre, “Lava Breathing”, “Lava Skin” and “Red Steel Blood” in an instant.

Yun Xi looked at Red Dragon Zaka who learned the three secret skills in only a quarter of an hour, he couldn't help sighing for the masters of the Red Steel Genre.

The difference between humans and dragons is incomparable.

The physical quality of the Dragon is really foul.

“Good, good, my hands are burning!” Red Dragon Zaka raises her arm, which shows the red lines representing the highest level of Lava Skin.

This secret skill was originally used to simulate the talent of the giants, so that they can have strong skin that will not be hurt even if they go deep into the lava zone. It is the basic secret skill for the Red Steel Genre to cultivate all the life.

For Red Dragon Zaka, who is born to swim in lava, she learned this secret skill effortlessly and directly entered the highest level.

With three perfect secret skills, the following culture is naturally completed in one go.

“Inflamed!” What Yun Xi exerts is a thunder explosion that compresses the force of Qi and blood, while Red Dragon Zaka exerts a red flame explosion from the blood of the red dragon!

“Thunderbolt!” Yun Xi was not idle. Almost at the moment when Red Dragon Zaka released the crimson fireball, the Thunderbolt that compressed the force of Qi and blood also blew out.

The power of the secret skill that the two people jointly perform is not as simple as one plus one, but is integrated with each other, and the power is increased to more than ten times of the normal secret skills!

Flaming Thunderbolt, this is the name of the first combined move developed by the two people.

“Good. Human skills are not bad.” The move that satisfies Red Dragon Zaka is enough to prove the power of this combination skill.

Maybe it’s not as good as the Lava Breathing, but it costs less. She and Yun Xi can blow out hundreds of Flaming Thunderbolt at once!

The energy of the dragon is really foul!

Seeing the effect of this secret skill, Yun Xi also had to admire it. With the support of Red Dragon Zaka’s essence, it turned into a common skill.

Thunderbolt is a forbidden skill that can be released only after the huge force of Qi and blood is extracted and compressed.

However, the dragon people don’t even have to blink their eyelids when they used this secret skill.

The combination of the dragon's terrible body talent and various forbidden skills developed by human beings is more terrifying than Yun Xi imagined.

Chapter 792: What She Expects

At the same time, Yun Xi also found that even the same Hard Body will show different characteristics according to the individual's physical characteristics.

For example, he compresses the Qi and blood of the whole body to perform the Thunderbolt, which has outstanding performance on penetration and destruction.

However, Red Dragon Zaka compresses the Qi and blood in the same way, but what she released was Flamebolt, which looks like a ball of lava.

This is because the temperature of the blood flowing in Red Dragon Zaka's body is so high that the blow made by her must be fire-typed.

Yun Xi's Thunderbolt has the upper hand to penetrate the opponent's defense.

In the case of range attack, Red Dragon Zaka's Flameblot has an overwhelming advantage.

With the same sand dune as the target, and both sides attack at the same time, Yun Xi's Thunderbolt will run through the sand dune as soon as possible, and then the residual force will explode inside the sand dune.

Red Dragon Zaka's Flamebolt will evaporate the entire dune world, leaving only a piece of ground burned into crystals.

If the two people perform the combination skill, it will be Yun Xi's Thunderbolt ripped out a big hole first, and then Red Dragon Zaka's Flamebolt blows in, causing a mushroom cloud explosion ten times more powerful than any other secret skills.

"Yeah! This power should be a threat to the twin witches." Red Dragon Zaka looked at the crater with complacency.

"You don't know what tired is..." Yun Xi extinguishes the electric light twined by his fingertips. The more he cultivates with Red Dragon Zaka, the more he can feel the adversity of the dragon's racial talent.

For the Red Steel Genre people who can't even perform one Thunderbolt attack, they can never imagine that a dragon can use 100 Flamebolt without feeling tired.

Hundreds of large pits have been blasted out in the central area of the desert where the two people stood, and the deepest of which is more than 100 meters and the shallowest one is more than 10 meters.

The continuous dune terrain was transformed into the lunar terrain by the two people. It looks like a meteor shower has fallen.

"Take a break and start practicing our ultimate combination skill!" Red Dragon Zaka found that her synchronization rate with Yun Xi was unusually high.

There is almost no unfamiliar stage in the general sense, and they have a special tacit understanding when they use the combined skills.

In the eyes of Red Dragon Zaka, the electric light wrapped around Yun Xi's fingertips is a signal that he wants to release the power of Thunderbolt.

In Yun Xi's eyes, the proud look in Red Dragon Zaka's eyes is that she wants to shoot the Flamebolt. Both sides do not even need to communicate through language, and they naturally master the key to join hands.

The two hearts have a connected understanding. This is probably the only way to describe the sense of synchronization between the two sides.

Two people can get support from each other via the line of life.

Yun Xi gets a steady stream of essence from Red Dragon Zaka, which is the source of essence that can support his Thunderbolt.

What Red Dragon Zaka has gained is the fighting experience and skills contained in Yun Xi's Battle God's seed, the secret skills from the invincible and powerful Casina.

Under normal conditions, it is absolutely impossible for Red Dragon Zaka's essence or Yun Xi's Battle God's seed to be shared.

The gift left by Lvji is just such a flower that can create miracles.

The existence of this flower not only connects the two people in the physical sense but also connects the two people from the perspective of life, becoming an inseparable part of both sides.

This effect was not experienced when Red Dragon Zaka reluctantly resisted Yun Xi. However, after she finally opened her heart and body to Yun Xi last night, it immediately showed the magic effect.

Running, jumping, turning, sometimes clasping fingers, sometimes clenching hands. Everything let Red Dragon Zaka feel her strength began to grow.

Even the instinct of turning into a real red dragon, which had been suppressed by the green flower, began to loosen gradually.

Control, this is a problem that Red Dragon Zaka has always paid little attention to. For the Red Dragon Princess with extraordinary talent, since she can destroy the world in five minutes, what kind of control is needed?

No matter what the enemy is, release the crimson Dragon Roar Wave to sweep is already enough. The area covered by the Dragon Roar Wave is her absolute home. Before meeting the twin witches, she even felt that as long as she released the Dragon Roar Wave, she was absolutely invincible.

After the battle with the twin witches, she realized for the first time that she was not without weaknesses. She was too dependent on Dragon Roar Wave. Once the strength of Dragon Roar Wave was restrained, she would be at a great disadvantage.

The thinking loop of normal people is probably to learn from each other's strong points to make up for their own shortcomings.

Red Dragon Zaka's thinking loop is – since the current Dragon Roar Wave is not strong enough, I should cultivate a stronger Dragon Roar Wave.

Instead of thinking about what the enemy's magic is and what kind of negative effects it will bring, she only thinks about how to defeat the enemy with greater and stronger power.

It's very simple, but it's very practical. Sometimes human beings just think too much and always want to defeat the strong with the weak, find out the weakness of the enemy and make use of it, so as to realize the reversal.

Red Dragon Zaka doesn't think about these things. If the enemy is strong, then she must become stronger than the enemy. This is the fighting theory of Red Dragon Zaka.

Yun Xi is exactly what she found to be the most suitable human being to realize this theory.

Because she has proved it.

As long as she is with Yun Xi, she will become more powerful.

Yun Xi has what she lacks, which can make her more powerful.

Sitting on Yun Xi's lap, Red Dragon Zaka smiles at the tired teenager.

The sun is a little closer to the western horizon. The sunset reflected on the Red Dragon Princess's pretty face, reflecting a light luster.

As bright as sunset glow, as soft as silk, the boy and the girl in the desert gaze at each other quietly, looking at the scenery reflected in the pupils.

“Hum... what do you want after conquering the world?” Although there is no promise, no oath, but the Red Dragon Princess has begun to imagine their future.

As long as two people together, there won't be opponents they can't defeat.

As long as we are together, no matter where we are, it will be a happy paradise.

Red Dragon Zaka even has a wonderful idea.

If she doesn't think about the mission of the great mother, they together may make the world a better place.

“World peace!” Yun Xi sighed and said his extravagantly desire.

“Wow, what a strange wish.”

Chapter 793: Heart to Hear

On this day, all the creatures in the desert were in a state of panic.

One giant scorpion after another, which live on the edge of the desert and only climb out of their nests at night, flee from their habitat in a panic before dawn and rush towards the edge of the desert.

Scorpions, large and small, fled to the desert periphery in a panic.

These powerful hero ranked demons seem to have sensed the coming of some kind of disaster, and they have gone mad.

Soon after, the ground began to rumble and vibrate. Sandworms, who appeared in the field of Desert Dragon Zaka, the underground overlords who caused great trouble to the Starwings Knights, also appeared.

These monsters are not different from the scorpions who love to live near the desert. A rare group of them rushed out of the desert and fled to the desert periphery.

Soon after the giant scorpions and the overlord sandworms escaped, there was an army of more small and medium-sized demons. Basically, all the creatures living in the desert began to migrate.

Finally, there were even figures of human desert tribes. They did not have the keen perception of the magical creatures in the desert, but when they saw the army of demons running away, everyone knew that things were wrong.

It was two people in the middle of the desert who caused all this.

“It’s all your fault... I almost overslept. ” Red Dragon Zaka, whose hair is still moist, has just taken a bath, and her snow-white skin is still flushed. She complains about Yun Xi, who made her unable to sleep well last night.

“Er... wasn’t it you who did... last night...” Looking at the face of Red Dragon Zaka, Yun Xi showed a helpless expression.

Obviously, it was she who suddenly hugged him, and then licked him and finally made the situation out of control.

“It’s all your fault, it’s the root of human nature!” Red Dragon Zaka has her hands on her hips. It is absolutely impossible for her to do that! She has no memory of that kind of thing!

If I refuse to... cough, don’t remember, of course, it doesn’t exist!

When she came to her senses, Yun Xi had already done this thing and that thing to her, which she was so ashamed to remember.

Up to now, there is a taste in her mouth. The taste of Yun Xi.

“Ok, ok, I see. It’s all my fault. ” At this time, Yun Xi deeply felt the inequality between men and women, as well as the great difference in sensibility and rationality between the two sides.

With such a red dragon princess who always loves to attack at night, he can’t sleep well in the future.

But he couldn't even escape. He couldn't watch Red Dragon Zaka die.

"Yes, it's your fault."

"So, come and cooperate with me." Tie up her long hair, and Red Dragon Zaka looks triumphant.

It's not bad to have such a sweet morning.

"The ultimate skill is a move that requires us to work as one and have the most perfect cooperation."

"I will fully cooperate with you, and you should fully cooperate with me, just treat us as one person."
Stepping on the high heels, Red Dragon Zaka tries to stand on her tiptoes, trying to stand at the same height as Yun Xi.

Of course, she failed. She ground her teeth and began to regret why her height was so short that even the high heels can't save her.

"I see." Looking at her, Yun Xi's heart is melting, quietly lowering his body.

"Yes, that's it. Imagine." Red Dragon Zaka hits Yun Xi's forehead and falls into a strange state.

Yun Xi can feel at that moment, Red Dragon Zaka is totally open to him, without any precautions.

If he wanted to, now even pull out the Starwings and give her a fatal blow, she would not have any ability to fight back.

What an innocent child! Yun Xi sighed.

For two days and two nights, he had known everything about her body.

The shyness of kissing, the trembling of being touched, the smoothness of skin, and the passion of licking him.

She is a proud red dragon princess, but when she opens her heart, she becomes a sweet, soft and lovely dessert.

Sometimes he would think, if Hua Huo was raised by a princess since childhood, would she be the same as Red Dragon Zaka?

She loves to show off, and seems very difficult to approach, but as long as you really understand her, you will know that she is very afraid of loneliness, very want to be accompanied.

Once you get her heart, you will get her everything.

“Imagine that we are no longer two people, but one.”

“Our will can change everything.”

“Even if we are enemies of the world, we will not be separated.”

“Let the enemy see our strongest ultimate skill!”

Red Dragon Zaka, clinging to Yun Xi’s forehead, is full of self-confidence and full of love. Maybe only she doesn’t realize this.

Is this ultimate skill to use force to hit the opponent, or to make the opponent envious and jealous to psychological disorder? Yun Xi, with Red Dragon Zaka’s fingers clasped, suddenly had such an idea.

The Silver Spiral began to appear in Yun Xi’s imagination. This time, with the full support of Red Dragon Zaka, he saw it more clearly and seriously.

The first line appears. The silver-white line extends from a point, but it is not a straight line, but moves backward in a fixed track, making a uniform circular motion.

So is the second, third, and fourth line that follows.

With a point as the tip, the four spiral lines continue to accelerate, and then accelerate, finally showing an incredible aesthetic feeling.

It’s a structure that keeps moving forward and spinning, like the truth of the world.

Then a red ball appears, which is the Dragon Roar Wave core from Red Dragon Zaka.

The sacred crimson light, the Dragon Roar Wave that never appeared before, began to take shape.

Chapter 794: Dancing with the Dragon

Yun Xi never thought about what it would be like to mix two different Dragon Rock waves together.

Red Dragon Zaka has never thought about the possibility too.

In the history of the Dragon race, there has never been such a mixed form of Dragon Roar Wave, because the essence of Dragon Roar Wave is the embodiment of dragon spirit. How can a giant dragon have two life essence? postures.

To transform the Dragon Roar Wave of two people into a combination skill is simply the whim of Red Dragon Zaka, which does not have any theoretical basis.

Even if it was twin dragons, their Dragon Roar Waves will definitely interfere with each other if they try to perform this.

There is no coexistence in this field.

But now Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka did it.

Because, for both of them, miracles really exist.

The green flower called “miracle” comes from beyond the world, and will become the highest wing.

It connects Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka’s life and connects the essence of Red Dragon Zaka into Yun Xi’s body. Yun Xi displays the holy Dragon Roar Wave that should not be used by human beings according to the unknown dragon mark in his body.

Due to the same source of life essence and the special relationship between Red Dragon Zaka and Yun Xi, the holy Dragon Roar Wave does not exclude Red Dragon Zaka’s Dragon Roar Wave, but is truly and perfectly integrated.

“Tik!” The silver-white dot first appeared under the two people’s feet, like a drop of water breaking the horizontal line.

The next second, this drop of silver and white water will run through the earth, so that the desert under the two people’s feet completely collapsed.

Looking from the sky, the silver and white dot is so tiny that it seems that the earth under their feet suddenly disappears.

This is not the collapse of gravel, but the breakdown of things at higher latitudes.

Centered on the point, the fiery crimson Dragon Roar Wave diffused at an extraordinary speed, ten times, no, a hundred times faster than the normal speed!

In just five seconds, half of the desert area, about one tenth of the size of the human continent, was covered and swallowed up by this crimson spiral light.

The engulfed part looks like a beautiful red gem, showing a brilliant and magnificent color.

One line after another, representing the string of the world, loomed in this spiral light, and dyed the land a deep red.

“This is...” Yun Xi opened his eyes, wide and looked at the red ocean under his feet in amazement.

The red gem is just the outline seen from the sky. What really spreads out under the feet of the two people is a real ocean!

There is only one color of red, covering all things, swallowing everything, and dyeing everything with a deep red color.

The sacred crimson light, the product of the double Dragon Roar Wave, caused one tenth of the mainland’s destruction in just five seconds.

This is only the beginning stage. The real power of the holy crimson light is probably ten times stronger than the power.

“Ha ha ha... Sure enough, that’s right...”

“We can definitely win the twin witches with this ultimate skill!” Red Dragon Zaka holds Yun Xi’s hand tightly and looks triumphantly at the red ocean under her feet.

It has the defiance defense of holy Dragon Roar Wave and the increasing effect of crimson Dragon Roar Wave at the same time.

It’s incredible that even though she’s still in human posture, the total amount of essence is far less than the dragon’s real posture, but she can use Dragon Roar Wave more than ten times stronger than when she is in the real posture.

Sure enough, this is fate. As long as she is with him, no one is a match for them!

Even the strongest of the four Zaka sisters, Black Dragon Zaka, did not have this terrible power!

Moreover, after completing this combination skill together, Red Dragon Zaka can feel that the strength that has been holding her back is disappearing.

“Well, we’re going to find the twin witches.” Feeling the sudden heat flow in her body, Red Dragon Zaka can’t wait to revenge the twin witches.

“Come on, get ready to ride me!” Raising her proud head, Red Dragon Zaka looks confidently at Yun Xi.

You are the only human who can dance with Red Dragon Princess in the sky.

“Why, are you...” Yun Xi looks at Red Dragon Zaka and felt her louder and louder heartbeat.

“Yes, I’m back!” Red Dragon Zaka grabs Yun Xi’s body and jumps into the sky.

The countless red spirits on the ground flowing to the sky, rise towards the body of Red Dragon Zaka, and begin to construct the outline of a huge object.

Once again, the dragon dancing in the sky.

It is about 30 meters tall with gemstone-like scales and sharp dragon horns. The streamlined body gives people a sense of artistry. The vertical pupil burns endless flames.

Red Dragon Zaka’s true body!

Yun Xi sits in the middle of her wings and deploys a flame shield that can block out foreign attacks.

If this appearance appears in the Western God’s Domain, he will surely be regarded as a dragon knight.

Dragon Knight is one of the top ranks recognized by god’s domains in the West.

It is the lifelong dream of all Dragon Knights to have a giant dragon as powerful, beautiful, and elegant as Red Dragon Zaka.

Most of the Dragon Knights can only find a ground dragon or a bipedal flying dragon as their mount during their whole life. He who can have a male fire dragon as a mount can boast for a lifetime.

Even the inferior subspecies, such as pterodactyl, is not easy to acknowledge allegiance to human beings.

In order to get a dragon mount, even a hero ranked Dragon Knight has to take care of the baby pterodactyl more carefully than taking care of his own children.

As for the real dragon, the possibility of becoming a dragon knight's mount is almost zero. Basically, it will only appear in the dream of these Dragon Knights.

In terms of the number of registered Dragon Knights, about every 100 years, there will be a lucky person who will be recognized by the dragon for some reason.

Chapter 795: The Scenery of the Sky

How tall!

How far away!

Yun Xi sat on the back of Red Dragon Zaka, looking at the earth under his feet, deeply felt the so-called high above everything.

It's really too high. It's tens of thousands of meters away from the ground!

From this point of view, the outline of the land can be clearly seen. The desert area alone accounts for about a third of the continent, while the snow covered ice sheet area seems to be larger?

These are harsh areas not suitable for human habitation, and there are not many traces of civilization. Only in the area with a large number of oases on the edge of the desert, Yun Xi vaguely saw some dome tents.

On the contrary, the east of the last human kingdom presents a delta terrain with dense rivers, while the South has many forests. The two parts together constitute the territory of the ancient kingdom of Assyria, the only prosperous civilization in the world.

And all this, in the eyes of the dragon flying in the sky, are insignificant.

The dragon race, a race born with the power of the world, is the ultimate creature at the top of the pyramid of all food chains.

They are born with huge magic power and impregnable body. A giant dragon alone has the power to conquer a continent.

If it wasn't for Yun Xi and his Starwings Knights, maybe Desert Dragon Zaka had completed the mission of "conquering the world".

Looking down on the earth from tens of thousands of meters above, human beings are not even larger than ants. It is no wonder that dragon people do not communicate with human beings, just as human beings do not specially observe the ecology, society and civilization of ants.

In essence, the dragon race is a super creature above human beings.

“Well, it’s interesting.”

“The world, for us, is too small.” Red Dragon Zaka makes a loud noise.

It’s the real sound of the dragon. Mortals will lose consciousness and faint when they even hear it at close range.

“Well... It’s a little small indeed. ” Yun Xi estimated that the area covered by the sacred crimson light created by them, and found half of the desert has been dyed red.

In the ocean of red crimson light, all living things are swallowed up, and then assimilated by Red Dragon Zaka’s Dragon Roar Wave and become a part of her Dragon Roar Wave.

It was only when she absorbed such a huge amount of energy that she released her bondage and regained the power to restore the dragon’s posture.

Of course, it’s also because her relationship with Yun Xi is developing rapidly, but Yun Xi doesn’t know it.

“Come on, fly with me!” Red Dragon Zaka, with Yun Xi in the sky, makes a vicious turn and starts a difficult aerial maneuver.

She did not forget how she was tossed by Yun Xi last night!

Now they are in the air, and she dominates the high altitude field. How can she not return the treatment ten times to him!

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

First of all, a series of rolling let Yun Xi have a good experience of what is a drum washing machine and what is an infinite 360 degree loop.

“Ha ha!”

She makes a sharp whistling sound and dives from a height of 10000 meters to only a few meters away from the ground. Yun Xi can smell the smell of sand.

And then she’s up and up again, and that’s what Red Dragon Zaka is good at.

Several sand worms, who had hardly reached the edge of the desert and stretched out their heads to breathe freely, were so frightened by Red Dragon Zaka that they had a cardiac spasm. Their bile vomited out and were half dead.

A large number of giant scorpions are foaming one by one at the mouth.

There’s no way. The power of the dragon is really killing.

“Well... cough... Zaka, it’s too fast.” Yun Xi, who has never ridden a dragon in his life, thought that all the Dragon Knights had to have a full point of anti dizziness ability. He didn’t realize that this was pure revenge of Red Dragon Zaka.

Yes, that’s it. It’s a revenge for you to do such a shameful thing to me last night!

The princess’ revenge will never wait for tomorrow!

“No, it’s not full speed yet!” Red Dragon Zaka felt for the first time that “flying” was so happy and comfortable.

Sure enough, abusing rookie is the happiest thing. Before this guy has adapted to the flying mode of the dragon, he must be well abused.

Well, that’s the way of her love!

She can’t beat Yun Xi, and at least she can make trouble with him, day or night.

Red Dragon Zaka, flying faster and higher!

As a result, the desert demons who managed to escape the sacred crimson light ushered in a nightmare like day.

“Hiss ha!” Together, these creatures with keen intuition and powerful strength hold their heads one by one, drill into the ground and shiver under the pressure of the dragon.

Yun Xi, riding on Red Dragon Zaka's body, turns from the "roller washing machine" over and over again, and then experiences what a real free fall is.

Several times, he saw that the ground was so close that he seemed to be able to reach out and grab a handful of sand.

As for those desert scorpions foaming at their mouths, he automatically ignored them.

"Ah ha ha ha ha ha!" Red Dragon Zaka grabs a sand worm that seems to be struggling with its own claws.

The sand worm, which is hundreds of meters long and has the power to move mountains, is no different from an earthworm in Red Dragon Zaka's claws, and instantly falls into a dead state.

After a flash, a yellow gem appeared in Red Dragon Zaka's claws, which was thrown behind her and fell into Yun Xi's palm.

"The magic color stone of the Millennium sand worm can be made into beautiful jewels. It's my sister Desert Dragon Zaka's favorite decoration."

"There are many of them in my nest."

"Unfortunately, my sister will not come back."

Flying in the sky, Red Dragon Zaka is a little bit sad, telling the story of her past.

“She, perhaps, will come back.”

Yun Xi’s expression is strange. Does Desert Dragon Zaka like gems?

Well, it seems that it’s true. When she and Ice Dragon Zaka are free, they both like to go to the treasure house of the royal city to have a big sleep. Both of them don’t wear clothes and so their skin close to all kinds of gems.

Desert dragon Zaka likes warm yellow gems, while Ice Dragon Zaka prefers cold blue gems.

If it’s Red Dragon Zaka, there’s no doubt that she likes bright red ruby.

Chapter 796: The Witch’s Tower

“Forward!” Red Dragon Zaka makes a joyful sound, carrying Yun Xi to the south of this continent.

With Red Dragon Zaka as his mount, Yun Xi easily broke through countless mountains, rivers, and swamps, and soon went from the deserted desert to the forest area full of lush forests.

“This is the territory of those damned twin witches.”

“Well, do you want me to blow them out and have a big fight?” Red Dragon Zaka is eager to try.

With the most powerful combination skill, the holy crimson light as the trump card, now Red Dragon Zaka is even daring to fight heaven.

“Oh wait, I want to get your heart back from the twin witches.” Yun Xi shook his head.

Of course, there is more than one reason, but he is sure that the heart of Red Dragon Zaka is still in the hands of the twin witches, so it is not a lie.

“Well...” Under Yun Xi, Red Dragon Zaka’s eyes flashed shyness.

He is worrying about me!

The giant dragon’s huge body turns into a red flame, and falls rapidly from an altitude of 10000 meters to a mountain peak. Red dragon Zaka changes back to her human posture.

Her high-heeled shoes are stepping on the ice and snow on the top of the mountain. They look at the vast southern land together.

Different from the last country of mankind, the south is full of forests and swamps, showing a typical tropical climate.

The civilization level of human beings living here is far lower than that of the kingdom which still retains the state system. It is a loose alliance system dominated by tribes.

The only ones who can give orders to all the tribal chiefs are the witches who are said to have the blood of the ancient kingdom of Assyria, and this generation of witches is undoubtedly the strongest one in all generations.

They are even more powerful than Red Dragon Zaka.

“There... it should be the palace of the witches.” Red Dragon Zaka refers to a tower in the middle of the southern forest region.

It is the most conspicuous human building in the whole southern forest world, with an incredible height of 300 meters. Even in the heyday of the Assyria kingdom, it was a miracle-like huge building.

After the collapse of the Assyria Dynasty, the descendants of a royal family retreated to the tower which was originally just the border area of the dynasty. On this basis, the ancient civilization of Assyria was preserved, and a unique witch system was formed.

The witch's palace is the last pillar of the Southern Civilization and the holy land of those tribes.

The holy witches are the spiritual totems on this barren land, and they are known as the leaders of the children of God.

These are all the materials Yun Xi read from the library of the palace, but there are very few connections between witches and the last kingdom of mankind.

This is also a very natural thing. After the collapse of the Assyria Dynasty, there was a huge gap in civilization. There was no direct connection between the last state of human protection and the territory of the southern witches.

At a time when the number of human beings is greatly reduced, countless mountains, rivers, swamps and Demons inhabiting the land between the two human settlements have completely blocked the communication between the Kingdom and the tribal areas.

Except for a few hero ranked strong people, no team can pass through these areas. On the contrary, the tribes living in the desert have contacts with the guardian kingdom.

As for the northern ice sheet area, even in the heyday of the Assyria Dynasty, it was a rarely visited place, and there was no trace of human civilization.

Just like the Forgotten Ruins, human beings in this continent have long declined. Without witches and kings, it's probably the fire of civilization would have been extinguished.

"Do the twin witches live in that tower?" Yun Xi looked at the three hundred meter high spire, feeling an unusual smell from it.

It is a taste that seems to be out of place with the world, just like the only torch in the dark and ignorant world.

"Strange, is that tower getting higher again?" Red Dragon Zaka is staring at the witch's tower. When she attacked it three days ago, it was not that high.

"This tower..." Yun Xi has a similar feeling. The more he looks at the tower, the more familiar he feels.

It seems that it is not the first time he has seen such a high spire.

This kind of ethereal, sacred building with some ancient and vicissitudes is not the style of White Lotus Sword Domain at all, but more like the masterpiece of the god's domains in the West.

In particular, the sword shape tearing the sky and the sharp outline emerging in the dark give Yun Xi a very familiar flavor.

"The color is different too..." Red Dragon Zaka looked at the tower that had changed in three days.

When she came last time, the tower was white.

How now the sacred white tower has become black?

"The black tower... ah!" Yun Xi remembered that he had actually seen this shaped tower!

However, the tower in his memory was dilapidated, and even the top of the tower was torn by some force, so he didn't recognize it for the first time.

In the trial world, the Dark Tower of Fire!

The tower that lights the fire of hope and the last light of hope in the dark world!

White Lotus bound to the cross.

Red Lotus incarnated to be a flame giant to protect White Lotus!

It was the most tragic trial he had ever experienced, and it was also the trial with the most deaths.

Do they remember the thing happened there?

“I have a bad feeling.” Red Dragon Zaka looked around and found that all the breath of life became weak after entering the range of the tower.

There is no taste of human. Three days ago, there were still many mortals, but now they all disappeared without a trace.

Only the tall tower, standing on the southern land, seems to be waiting for something.

There was no sound of birds.

There was no animal running.

Even the sound of fish swimming in the water disappeared.

Between heaven and earth, only silence remains.

“Me too...” From just now on, Yun Xi felt that the life line connecting with Red Dragon Zaka was constantly releasing some dangerous breath.

...

Far away in the middle of the continent, in the nest of the original dragon.

With a flash of green light, the last egg that had not hatched was forcibly cut by the green light blade on the head of the original dragon.

“Pa!”

Endless black comes from the broken eggs.

Chapter 797: The Dark Comes

As if it's connecting to an endless abyss, the last black eggs hatched out, full of the sense of despair and madness.

These black materials, in turn, even enveloped the sleeping original dragon, and then dyed the green original dragon black.

“Hiss...” The original dragon that has been falling into sleep for too long slowly opened her eyes.

It was a pair of black eyes full of nothingness. There was no other color in the vertical pupil, just dark.

“Boom!” With the awakening of the original dragon, the whole nest began to collapse, and countless chains began to break one by one. The Forgotten Ruins surrounding the original dragon was like dominoes that had been pushed down, completely smashed.

“I... I’m... Black...” It seems that it’s not used to the body. The black dragon raises its claws and falls heavily.

Endless black leaked from the position of the dragon’s claw and began to penetrate into the earth, lakes and rivers.

Forests, human beings and animals are all engulfed by this irresistible black matter, and the whole world begins to fall into eternal darkness.

That’s power of the last awakening Zaka, the power of Black Dragon Zaka.

Compared with the crimson dragon roar wave, this black material has more terrifying and frightening characteristics.

It’s the power to invade the world and then devour it.

Even the gods it can eat. It's the greatest disaster.

Black Dragon Zaka is such an ominous thing. It was hatched by the original dragon only after all the first three Zaka failed. It's like a Pandora's box that can't be opened.

Darkness is coming, the end of the world is coming!

In the witch tower, White Lotus looks at the waves spreading in the middle of the distant continent and holds her sister's hand.

"Ready, sister?"

"I can't help it. Try it." Red Lotus closes her eyes and sings with White Lotus.

"I wander in the dark... I once dreamed that in the whispering voice that no one heard..."

"Now, I finally see the way ahead. At least, at least at this moment... let me open my arms for you."

"Unfulfilled wishes, trampled wings, bow their heads in the dark, just waiting for your arrival."

"The shadow of tears, the shadow of the moon, overflows my palm, and my lips tremble in the dark."

“Come and find me, look at me, treat me as the first princess in the world, my prince.”

“I don’t regret falling in love with you, even if I’m covered with scars.”

“As long as you are by my side and share the time with me, darkness and sadness can also become warm.”

“Whirling thoughts cast the Ring of Stars and Moon for you and witness our eternal love.”

“Our love will turn into light, light up the darkness and become immortal.”

“The sun, the moon, and the stars, never part!”

White brilliance, it is the symbol of the girl’s innocence.

Red brilliance, it is the symbol of girls’ enthusiasm.

Red and white brilliance! That is to light the torch of the last hope in the dark!

In the endless darkness, this tower standing in the South has become the last stronghold of the fire of civilization, and also the tower of hope cast by the twin witches to save the world!

As the stars fall, the tower absorbs all the last hopes of the world but also attracts the eyes of the doomsday dragon who has devoured almost the whole world.

“Prince, come to the tower.”

“Prepare to fight with us against all the darkness of the world.”

The voices of White Lotus and Red Lotus appear in Yun Xi’s ears together, calling the last person to to link the first fire in the world.

Only he can be the last hope of the world against the awakening doomsday dragon.

“Yeah... is this the power of my sister?” Red Dragon Zaka looks at the wave of darkness sweeping towards her at a loss.

She clearly felt the breath of Zaka in it, but it was a breath that she was totally unfamiliar with and could not understand.

It’s totally different from her sisters, Desert Dragon Zaka and Ice Dragon Zaka, and her own. What’s the matter with this ferocious dark breath?

Is the youngest sister, Black Dragon Zaka, born?

But why is Black Dragon Zaka so hostile to her!

It's clear that she and her sister are in the same camp. She's still alive!

"Let's go!" Yun Xi takes Red Dragon Zaka, who doesn't know what happened, and takes the lead to rush into the witch's tower.

"Boom!" The black wave has covered the whole world is heavy bombarding on the tower, so that the tower of hundreds of meters high is shaking violently, as if the next second it will collapse.

The black dragon's claw, accompanied by endless black waves, is an unimaginable claw. The tower of hundreds of meters tall is like a child's toy in front of her.

The black doomsday dragon has been born, its body is the world, its eyes are the eyes of the world, it has devoured almost all parts of the world, only the last witch tower is still resisting the invasion of darkness.

It was like a candle that seemed to go out at any time in the endless darkness.

In the endless wave of darkness, the huge objects that can't be witnessed with human eyes surround the tower, and then release more dark substances, which rush towards the last hope of mankind.

Red and white light interlaced, absorbed all these dark substances into the tower.

The last battle of the world has begun.

...

Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka rushed into the tower, and surprised to find that the tower is not the scenery they saw outside at all.

Pansy, Forget-me-not, Rubia, Clover, it is the tower, but it seems to contain all the flowers of the garden.

All kinds of flowers are blooming in this garden. The four seasons of spring, summer, autumn and winter do not seem to exist in this garden at all.

“To the top.”

This is the voice of White Lotus.

“If you don’t come, you’ll die.”

This is the voice of Red Lotus.

The next second, countless sand fell, and the black sand gave Yun Xi the same feeling as the dark waves outside, forming the outline of a huge monster.

Sandy brown scales, four trachomas floating around, and that kind of wild and aggressive momentum.

“Sister?” Red Dragon Zaka was surprised to see the dragon wrapped in the dark.

There is no doubt that this is the eldest sister of the four Zaka sisters, Desert Dragon Zaka.

However, when Yun Xi looks at the murderous Desert Dragon Zaka, cold sweat covered his forehead.

Chapter 798: Successive Blows

No, something’s not right!

This was not the Desert Dragon Zaka he knew, this was not the third royal consort he had welcomed into marriage.

Again, definitely not the Zaka that Red Dragon Zaka knew, the one who cared for her sister and even doted on her.

Wrapped in dark matter, Desert Dragon Zaka emitted a surprisingly murderous aura throughout her body, and aimed directly at Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka.

“Targeting ... locking ...” Desert Dragon Zaka shook her massive dragon head somewhat uncomfortably, and with a flash of green light, locked onto Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka ‘s body.

Both Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka , who were locked by the green light, had black lines appear on their heads, like some sort of curse.

“Death to all betrayers ...”

“Darkness ...Zaka ...”

After letting out an earth-shattering dragon roar to the sky, the eyes of the Desert Dragon Zaka that was entangled in the dark matter were only filled with wild killing intent.

Her four dragon claws stomped on the earth, and all the Sand Eyes were all suspended vertically, exactly the war mode that unfolded during the first city attack from Desert Dragon Zaka.

“Sister, calm down, what’s wrong with you!” Seeing her sister Desert Dragon Zaka, who was supposed to be dead, again, Red Dragon Zaka was actually very happy.

Just why would my sister see me as an enemy and go into war mode without even communicating?

“Be careful ... that’s not the sister you’re familiar with anymore.” Yun Xi knew everything from her toes to the arc of her chest~ Yun Xi realized that Desert Dragon Zaka was unusual at the moment.

That Desert Dragon Zaka he knows had never been so ferocious and violent

What happened next also verified Yun Xi’s intuition.

Desert Dragon Zaka simply ignored Red Dragon Zaka ‘s shout and unleashed her desert field directly.

The garden beneath her feet was covered in a searing storm of hot sand as one giant Venomous Scorpion after another burrowed out of the desert field, and all covered in black, going into the crazy mode as Desert Dragon Zaka.

These giant venomous scorpions all raised their tails and then shot their venom towards Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka.

“Ha!” It was Yun Xi who was the first to respond compared to the overwhelmed Red Dragon Zaka.

A crimson shield was deployed. It was a shield of flame with a temperature of tens of thousands of degrees, a shield of lava!

The green venom blasted against the lava shield with a “Snort! Snort!” sound, and was then vaporized into green poisonous smoke.

“Pay attention to the underground!” Yun Xi grabbed Red Dragon Zaka’s small hand and quickly jumped up.

“Rumble!” The ground caved in violently, and the hundred-meter-long sandworm burrowed out of the ground, biting down on where Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka had once been a second before. Layers of jagged teeth cutting continuously and making a chilling chewing sound.

“Why is my sister out of control?” Red Dragon Zaka’s body trembled as she felt Desert Dragon Zaka’s undisguised murderous aura.

Her memories of her eldest sister Desert Dragon Zaka had always been cheerful, generous, and with a free-spirited wildness, fulfilling the mission of conquering the world step by step.

And, she has found the perfect love of her own. She is a total winner in the eyes of the still young Red Dragon Zaka!

How did such a sister become what she is now?

The dark substance wrapped around her body... what is it?!

“We can talk about it later.” Yun Xi had a very bad feeling as he looked at the darkness that was wrapped around the giant poisonous scorpion, the sandworm, and Desert Dragon Zaka.

Does it seem that this is coming to an end?

The darkness dominated by Desert Dragon Zaka defies common sense!

“Yes, that’s the only way to do it!” After sobering up, Red Dragon Zaka chose to believe Yun Xi.

The only way to understand what really happened is to defeat her sister.

“Begin synchronization!” Yun Xi took Red Dragon Zaka’s hand as the spirit began to immerse itself into that silent world.

“Synchronization begins!” Red Dragon Zaka’s ruby-like eyes began to become as calm and unmoving as if they were sunken underwater.

Two people, from now on, are one.

Holding hands, the world the two see is their stage.

“Aaaaahhhhhhhh!” Seeing how close Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka were, Desert Dragon Zaka, who was already covered in dark matter, was at full rage.

Four Sand Eyes, shooting out dark red rays almost at the same time, aimed at the pair holding hands in mid-air.

“Synchronization complete!” Yun Xi held up his right hand and extended two fingers.

“Synchronization complete!” Red Dragon Zaka similarly raised her right hand and held out two fingers.

The power of the whole body’s qi and blood compressed!

“Thunderburst!”

“Inferno!”

Flashes of lightning, as well as searing fire, intersected and instantly blasted Desert Dragon Zaka 's massive head.

“Boom!” Desert Dragon Zaka’s huge body was blasted back tens of meters, and that wasn’t the end of it.

“Kick!” The two who had flipped in the air to avoid Sand Eyes, simultaneously executed a downward kick that landed solidly on Desert Dragon Zaka’s dragon head, where had just been blown up.

“Owwwwww!” Desert Dragon Zaka let out a roar and shook her head hard, knocking the pair of damn enemies out of the way.

However, while hitting Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka, the ring of dark red lava shield suddenly exploded.

“Sorry, sister!” Red Dragon Zaka seized the moment and build up strength with Yun Xi.

Crimson dragon claws slapped hard on Desert Dragon Zaka’s head.

Why the head again! Desert Dragon Zaka woefully shielded her head with her claws.

Yun Xi, on the other hand, caught the opportunity and used his Charging Skill – Soft Water Palm.

The dragon’s claws are unstoppable “Solid”.

And the Soft Water Palm is indefensible “Soft”.

Desert Dragon Zaka blocked Red Dragon Zaka’s violent dragon claws, but failed to block Yun Xi’s Soft Water Palm’s penetration attack.

Once again, Desert Dragon Zaka’s head suffered a heavy blow.

“Gah ... oooh ...” let out a sad sound, Desert Dragon Zaka got her head thrashed once again.

Only, the attack had cleared her consciousness a little and dispelled much of the darkness that had been covering her body.

“Huh ... I’m ...” The Desert Dragon Zaka who had suffered consecutive blows to the head looked around with confused eyes and gave a silly look of “Who am I”, “Where is this”, “What am I doing”.

“Sister!” Red Dragon Zaka looked at the confused Desert Dragon Zaka with delight.

Chapter 799: Black Dragon Zaka’s Judgment

“Ahoy?” Desert Dragon Zaka shook her head, three different memories warring in her consciousness.

In the first memory, she was a child of the great original dragon, Desert Dragon Zaka, who was on a plan to conquer the world and was just a step away from conquering the world.

Well, that last little step is a breeze once she finds her lover, Shaheen, and joins forces with him after she marries him.

This memory is very real, it shouldn't be fake!

In the second memory, she was the king of the Western Desert, the lone and beautiful Desert Dragon Zaka, who accidentally fell in love with the prince of the human kingdom and married him.

The skin-to-skin on the wedding night, the luxury of bathing in precious stones, all kinds of hot and sweet memories.

Even the temperature of his fingers was so vivid, there was no way this memory could be wrong!

The last memory is of a deep, bottomless darkness, and a throbbing from the depths of her blood that enraged her and made her go berserk, eventually transforming into the black Desert Dragon Zaka.

Again, this memory is not false, it is an instinct from the Dragon's bloodline.

So, here's the question, how can three memories contradict each other when they're all true!

Which one of her memories was wrong, anyway?

"Sister, come to your senses." Red Dragon Zaka shouted loudly.

Sister, is this child my sister?

The scent of fire, the exact same face as her own, she should be third sister, the red one.

The first memory had her in it, she, she was her sister?

But why, when she looked at her and Yun Xi holding hands, closer than anyone else, she was so angry, as angry as if her most precious thing had been taken away!

The memory of my sister belongs to the first memory.

The memory of being sweet with the prince belongs to the second memory.

This uncontrollable rage belongs to the third memory.

Ahhhhhhhhhh, totally confused!

“What are you ... to me!?” Desert Dragon Zaka clutched her head and stared angrily at Yun Xi.

“I... am... yours ...” Yun Xi showed a somewhat guilty expression, but before he could finish his sentence, Desert Dragon Zaka’s body was already covered with the dark matter once again and went into a raging rampage mode.

“You ... deserve to die!”

“No good, sister is out of control again!” Red Dragon Zaka exclaimed as she looked at Desert Dragon Zaka who raised her dragon claws, while not forgetting to give her sister a “wake-up dragon claw hit”.

Desert Dragon Zaka whose head had been slapped once again opened her large mouth and violently ejected black dragon breath with the scent of death.

That was definitely not Desert Dragon Zaka’s own dragon breath, hers was a spurt similar to a hot sand storm, whereas this was a black corrosive substance.

The gravel that was stained by this dark substance turned a horrible black.

“This power, could it be...” Red Dragon Zaka was reluctant to accept the result, but she couldn’t find any other explanation than that one.

“With such a powerful... even Zaka can’t resist...” Yun Xi, who was now almost psychically connected to Red Dragon Zaka, made the same judgment.

“The strongest dragon.” With a bitter voice, Red Dragon Zaka spoke the name of the culprit that was wrapped around Desert Dragon Zaka’s body at this moment.

“The fourth Zaka, Black Dragon Zaka.”

Yun Xi once again feels the terror of the four Zaka sisters, and the appearance of the fourth dragon, Black Dragon Zaka, announces the fall of the world straight away.

Even her sister, Desert Dragon Zaka, was dominated and sent out to hunt him and Red Dragon Zaka.

“I don’t believe it, my sister can’t be that heartless!” There was a hazy mist in Red Dragon Zaka’s eyes.

Of the four Zaka sisters, the youngest sister Black Dragon Zaka is the most silent and wordless, almost never making a sound in the four Zaka sisters’ interactions.

Compared to Desert Dragon Zaka, the nagging older sister, Ice Dragon Zaka, the slightly meaner second sister, and Red Dragon Zaka, who loves to listen to her sister’s stories and fantasize about how she will fight alongside her sisters when she hatches, Black Dragon Zaka is always the quiet one. Black Dragon Zaka is always the quietest listener.

The sister she remembered was supposed to be the quietest Zaka!

This sister who doesn’t even hesitate to dominate her sister is not the Black Dragon Zaka she knows.

“It’s true ... she doesn’t look like a Zaka.” The Zakas Yun Xi know are very straightforward and innocent girls, with a subtle sense of similarity to his childhood sweetheart in different ways.

Black Dragon Zaka, why is it with such a frightening impression?

Of the four Zaka sisters, she gave Yun Xi the impression of being the most restless, like some unnamable thing that could never be seen in the dark waters.

That sense of unknown mystery and danger gave him an unknowable sense.

Her killing intent gave Yun Xi the creepy feeling of someone finding out what he had done.

“Target ... annihilation ...”

“The Man Who Betrayed the Great Mother ...”

“The Man Who Failed the Great Mother ...”

“His only destiny ... is to go to hell ...”

It was not the voice of Desert Dragon Zaka , but indeed the murmuring voice from the darkness, the final death declaration from Black Dragon Zaka.

“I didn’t betray the Great Mother!” Red Dragon Zaka was completely unable to understand why she had been judged to have betrayed the original giant dragon.

She had been working to conquer the world, and now she was also ready to come and destroy the last blocking rock-the twin witches who had taken her heart.

Her devotion to the Great Mother never changed!

Holding Yun Xi's hand tightly, it was the only way to give Red Dragon Zaka a touch of warmth now.

Considered an enemy by her own sister Black Dragon Zaka, she was on the verge of not knowing what to do. She hadn't done anything to betray her mother!

"Betrayer ..." Black Dragon Zaka's voice became colder for some reason.

Large drops of sweat fell from Yun Xi's forehead.

Uh, the reason for betraying the original giant dragon... should this be told to her?

"Roarrrrrr!" More darkness filled Desert Dragon Zaka's body, and her golden pupils all turned pitch black.

"Enemy! The enemy!"

It seems to be more than just orders from Black Dragon Zaka, mixed with something else.

"Watch out, it's coming!" Yun Xi took Red Dragon Zaka's hand and quickly backed away.

Desert Dragon Zaka slapped her claws down, and the ground instantly turned into a giant black swirl of quicksand.

The battle started once again!

Chapter 800: Meteoric Fire Rain

At this moment, Desert Dragon Zaka was no longer the Third Princess that Yun Xi remembered, nor was she the big sister Desert Dragon Zaka that Red Dragon Zaka remembered.

Dominated by the power of Black Dragon Zaka, she spared no effort in hunting down the pair of Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

Hundreds of lines of venom across the sky, continuously blasting the lava shield protecting the two. Green toxic smoke filled the air, so that the flowers withered and died one by one.

The sand worms, one after another, rose up from the sand, launched suicide attacks on Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka who kept jumping into the air.

When she is angry, her temper is far more than her sister Desert Dragon Zaka.

Moreover, at this moment, she is not alone in the battle.

Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka raised their hands together and pointed their index fingers to the sky, unleashing a fire-based forbidden spell.

It was a forbidden spell that was even more powerful than Ice Dragon Zaka's Meteorite Fire Rain!

A huge fire cloud covered the sky, countless golden-red bubbles emerged in the cloud, and then the doomsday fire rain descended.

Pulp bubbles, even the smallest was more than a meter in diameter, fell on the desert, splashing away one after another.

The giant venomous scorpions touched by these pulp bubbles will instantly turn into ashes, leaving only a faint scorch mark.

Even if a sand worm with a body length of a hundred meters is contaminated with these high temperature slurry streams, its huge body will be burnt instantly like a caterpillar being roasted by fire.

"Bzzz! Bzzz! Bzzz!" Sand worms constantly rolled up madly, all were cooked, burnt, and finally turned into black charcoal.

And this is only the prelude stage of this forbidden spell.

These high-temperature bubbles are only used as a means of clearing the field, the real attack has not yet begun.

Continuously tossed in the fire cloud, began to brew a number of huge things. Those are fire elements more than a thousand meters in diameter, which can be regarded as formed by a million high-temperature pulp bubbles.

It's the "meteorite" in the Meteorite Fire Rain, or can be called "flaming meteor".

The strongest human Grand Magus can only summon one shot, but in this fiery cloud, there are more than seven flaming meteors with a diameter of more than a thousand meters.

"The Star of the Sand....." Facing the meteor bombardment that was about to descend, Desert Dragon Zaka also brought out her trump card – the Star of the Sand.

Unlike the Star of the Sand that Yun Xi remembered, this God Weapon, which could summon a solid star, was also tainted with black, giving off an ominous aura.

The first flaming meteor with a diameter of over a thousand meters fell from the sky, carrying crimson flames like a comet that swept through the sky.

"Boom!"

In the huge mushroom cloud, countless crimson flames shot up into the sky, forming a huge pillar of fire between heaven and earth.

The black Star of the Sand, with a trajectory that defied the rules of gravity, advanced toward the sky.

“Second shot!” Without hesitation, Red Dragon Zaka drove the second flaming meteor and it smashed down hard.

The second pillar of fire was born between heaven and earth, and the land completely turned into a dead land of desert and flame, hundreds of giant poisonous scorpions and an unknown number of sand worms were all turned into dust in this battle.

Their death breath was all swallowed by the black quicksand vortex on the ground, and a kind of palpating breath was slowly coalescing out.

The Desert Dragon Zaka, who had her feet in the desert, continued to absorb the death breath from the dead creatures and became stronger and stronger.

“Third shot!”

Between heaven and earth, another flaming meteor exploded. This time, it finally blew open a large gaping hole in the black Star of the Sand.

The longer the Meteorite Fire Rain is prepared, the more fire elements between heaven and earth will be absorbed, and the stronger the flaming meteor’s destructive power will be.

The power of this forbidden spell is precisely reflected in the number of flaming meteors that are coalesced.

Red Dragon Zaka's Meteorite Fire Rain is a seven-star forbidden spell. The seven flaming meteors have the power to turn all ground that can be seen into a scorching inferno, and the dust raised is enough to cover the sky.

However, in the face of the forbidden spell, Desert Dragon Zaka's Star of the Sand did not retreat in the slightest but continued to rise towards the sky.

The central area of the Black Star of the Sand, which had been blown up once more, began to be exposed to Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka.

"The fifth shot!" Red Dragon Zaka did not stop and blasted out the fifth flaming meteor that had already reached its critical point.

The black substance, which was located in the core part of the Star of the Sand, was also completely exposed to Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka.
