Chapter 811: The Lost City of Kings

“Ka! K! Ka!”

Huge waves of darkness kept rushing out from the first level, interrupting the celebration of the newly formed Three Dragons Alliance, while reminding this small group that the power of darkness was still overwhelmingly dominant.

“This is my sister’s power.” Looking at the tide of darkness that seemed to become even deeper and more furious, Red Dragon Zaka gritted her teeth reluctantly.

“The strongest Zaka .”

“The Dragon of Doom.”

Desert Dragon Zaka and Ice Dragon Zaka looked at each other and shook their heads.

“Come on, we have to go to the upper level.” Yun Xi also knew that Black Dragon Zaka ‘s power was much more than the level he saw now.

If he guessed correctly, the entire continent, by now, had been consumed by the darkness.

The third princess Desert Dragon Zaka, who was originally in the royal palace, and the fourth princess Ice Dragon Zaka’s appearance here was the best proof of that.

If following this trend, Yun Xi already knew who he would meet on the third floor.

His first princess and second princess must be waiting for him there.

They, too, are dominated by Black Dragon Zaka?

Why did the twin witches, who hold the hope of this world, build the tower of fire in advance?

Too many questions haunting Yun Xi mind, and now there is only one thing to do.

Go to the highest part of the tower, to find the last hope of the world.

Once there, all the mysteries will naturally be solved.

At the same time, it is also the moment of the final battle.

“Three Dragons Alliance, set out!” Desert Dragon Zaka rushed in the front with great enthusiasm, Red Dragon Zaka took Yun Xi’s hand and walked in the middle, while Ice Dragon Zaka walked at the end.

Behind the team of four, there were countless dark substances that poured into the second floor of the giant fire tower, devouring everything like crazy.

Beyond the tower, the black dragon, who was as large as a world, stared at this Tower of Hope with cold and merciless eyes and gave the command.

“Annihilate them all ...”

“Don’t leave anyone alive ...”

“Huh?” Yun Xi who stepped into the third floor looked at the scenery in front of him and almost thought he was in the wrong place.

Here, is it really inside the tower?

Through the glowing doorway between the second and third floors, what unfolded in front of Yun Xi was a huge city filled with a fantasy style.

This city, surrounded by a faint curtain of light, erected one after another ancient stone walls on the roads.

These stone walls are carved with unknown ancient names, each of which is a symbol of glory, emitting a faint golden light in the sunlight.

The circular stone roads distributed in the city are spotless, carved with simple and beautiful patterns, and on both sides of the road are countless spiked stone pillars with magic lamps, showing a symmetrical mathematical beauty.

In the middle of the city, there is a huge square, and the whole square is paved by special marble, smooth as a mirror, reflecting the sunlight of the sky.

Around the square, there are twelve fountains of different shapes, like twelve scales of a clock, and the fountains will start in turn according to the different times.

In the center of the square, there is a beautiful statue of a young girl, holding a magic short sword made of real crystal in one hand and a book representing wisdom in the other, smiling at the city, the most glorious civilization ever born in this continent.

“Is this ...Assyria?” Yun Xi looked at the landscape in front of him and recognized some of the buildings.

However, what he saw was just a partial remnant of what remained after a thousand years, and the city in front of him had long since ceased to exist in this era, or rather, it has only one name remained in this world – the Forgotten Ruins.

The Assyria royal city, the relics watched over by the kings.

The statue of a maiden with a sword in one hand and a book in the other is the embodiment of this thousand-year-old kingdom, the Queen of Assyria who is respected by the people.

The entire third floor of the Giant Fire Tower, as if turning back the clock, completely recreates this ancient city that has long since disappeared into the river of history.

“Let the festival ... begin ...”

“Only the person who captures the most beautiful mermaid will be able to grant the wish.”

The huge statue opened its mouth incredibly, announcing the beginning of the “Mermaid Game”.

It was the dream-like “festival” that Yun Xi had seen in the library that only innocent girls who entered the Forgotten Ruins would encounter.

According to the legend, the ancient Queen of Assyria is immortal, and she continues to dream in the depths of the Forgotten Ruins.

The kingdom of Assyria in the dream, still prosperous, like another river in the timeline. The thousand-year-old capital is permanently prosperous, and will regularly hold a festival to please the queen.

The main event of the festival is a game called “Mermaid Game”, and only the girl who can catch a mermaid can fulfill her wish.

Men can't see the capital. Only a pure girl can enter the royal capital and try to catch a mermaid for her small wish of love.

“Ding!”

The bell rang and Yun Xi suddenly found that everything around him had changed.

The streets, which were empty, suddenly had many more people coming and going, and they looked at Yun Xi and the Three Dragons Alliance squad with curious eyes, pointing at them from time to time.

“Where are they from? Dressed really old-fashioned.”

“The number of mermaids at this festival seems to be the largest ever.”

“The queen is very happy. I hope there will be a winner in the Mermaid Game this time too.”

“Hey, did you guys hear that the queen seems to be making an heir, and we are going to have a princess?”

What’s going on? These humans ... Yun Xi listened to the voices of the people around them, looked at the crowd surrounding the huge Queen of Assyria’s statue, and fell into a great shock.

Under the statue of the queen, people prayed reverently and then left one by one in order, everything was in order.

By the fountain pool, young girls are playing, chatting, wetting their little feet and white dresses, swirling out of the youthful and moving colors.

Anyone who sees them can’t connect them with the “dead”, but in Yun Xi’s perception, they really don’t have the breath of the living.

Ghosts? Yun Xi tried to reach out and touch the flower girl who happened to pass by him.

"Huh ... Lord ... do you want to buy flowers?" The young girl looked shyly at the Yun Xi in front of her, the flowers in the basket trembled uncontrollably.

"Ah, give me three roses." Yun Xi awkwardly let go of her hand.

Why can I touch her?

This is not realistic! Aren't the people here ghosts?

Chapter 812: Mermaid Game (1)

"Are you more interested in this kind of little girl?" Red Dragon Zaka had a contemptuous expression on her face, her high heels unceremoniously stepping on Yun Xi's feet.

"Sister, his second princess looks even younger than this child." Desert Dragon Zaka did not hesitate to uncover Yun Xi's scars.

"Incorrigible lolicon." Ice Dragon Zaka continued to rub salt into the wound.

Yun Xi could only pretend not to hear, taking three roses from the flower basket of the shy-eyed flower-selling girl, and then giving them to each of the Zakas.

"Huh, it's for me, huh, still have a conscience." Red Dragon Zaka 's anger came and went quickly, being coaxed by a single flower.

"Can I eat this?" Desert Dragon Zaka licked the petals of the rose, then took a small bite.

"It's bitter!" That expression was like being betrayed by the world.

"Sister, roses are not for eating, but you can use them to make tea." Ice Dragon Zaka pinned the rose to the corner of her hair, and by hand, used her ice power to permanently freeze the rose.

This would be a treasure for her collection, and she wished to freeze this moment in time permanently, as an eternal and unchanging memory.

"Ah ..." bought three roses, Yun Xi only to find that he has no money - no Assyria kingdom's money to be exact.

The ancient Assyria kingdom currency is not gold or silver coins, but some kind of state-sanctioned stone plate, inlaid with the head of the queen, collectively known as the queen's coin.

"Can I use this to buy the flowers?" Yun Xi snapped his fingers and temporarily made a third-ranked bread with his bread-making techniques.

In terms of value, the three roses were naturally not worth this bread, but the penniless Yun Xi could only barter with this.

"Good ... good!" The young flower girl looked surprised at the creamy bread that gave off a tempting scent. It was enough to buy half of the flowers in her basket!

"Ah, how can you sell our bread!" Red Dragon Zaka was the first to protest.

"Yes, bread is to be cherished!" Desert Dragon Zaka followed.

"It's a waste, why not give it to me to eat." Ice Dragon Zaka complained.

The contempt of the three sisters made Yun Xi feel both funny and annoyed, and he could only take out three collections from his own bread storage space to appease the discontent of his own third, fourth, and fifth princesses.

"Awww!" Bought by the bread, Red Dragon Zaka finally quieted down and began to gobble Yun Xi's bread.

"Delicious! This can't be bought anywhere else." The bread is the only food in the palace that could not be mass-produced, the dessert that Desert Dragon Zaka had been craving for.

"Sister, I'll share half of it with you." Ice Dragon Zaka tore open her bread and fed it into the small squirrel-like Desert Dragon Zaka's mouth.

"Can you tell me when the festival is going to start?" After satisfying the Zakas, Yun Xi continued to ask the girl for information.

"Mermaid sisters will only come out at night." The flower girl pointed to the fountains around the square.

"They will randomly appear from the twelve fountains and start running away."

"Each mermaid sister will have a different ability, and it's not easy to catch them."

"Only those who can capture the mermaids will be able to fulfill their wishes."

"Take the mermaid to Her Majesty's palace and you'll be rewarded."

This rule was almost similar to what Yun Xi had read in the library of the royal palace, but Yun Xi was not sure that this time, the mermaid game was also the same as in the past.

After all, he was not a pure girl, he still appeared in this legendary Assyria royal city. It was not at all surprising that the originally harmless Mermaid Game had turned into a horror game.

Moreover, from the time he entered until now, he did not detect the breath of Black Dragon Zaka at all, which is really too strange.

The Queen of Assyria and White Moon, who were expected to be dominated by Black Dragon Zaka, all disappeared without a trace, as if they had vanished.

Did they not have their minds eroded by Black Dragon Zaka like Desert Dragon Zaka and Ice Dragon Zaka?

Or, is this world itself a big lie?

In the end, what is true and what is unreal? Yun Xi could hardly tell the point.

The warm touch that just grabbed the flower girl's arm, as well as the softness of her skin, definitely does not look like something from the dead.

What is hidden in this world?

"More flowers, my lord?"

"My moonflowers are pretty too!"

"My strawberries are just picked from the plantation, absolutely fresh!"

"I have milk that has just been milked, do you want it?"

Yun Xi was only distracted for a moment when he found himself surrounded by a group of lovely young girls.

They all look to sell all kinds of flowers and snacks as a job, wearing slightly old but absolutely clean and tidy clothes. Their cute faces looking expectantly at Yun Xi, and many of them had traces of white cream around their mouths.

It looks like the flower girls shared the bread Yun Xi used to pay for the flowers with her friends.

From the cheerful and healthy look of these girls, they are voluntarily out to work for their families and can safely sell flowers and snacks in this square, which also represents the very good security in this country.

Was the past Assyria royal capital such a prosperous and thriving city? Yun Xi snapped his fingers a few times, gave away a few loaves of bread made on the spot, and began to think about the meaning of the city's existence.

Just nostalgia? No, it would be too exquisite to be just that.

The grass and trees, the layout of the city, and the clothing of the people are almost all perfect reproductions of the ancient Assyria royal capital.

Just from the scenery of this city, the later human kingdom is too far behind to catch up with it.

The design of this kingdom can accommodate millions of people living together, and the Forgotten Ruins Yun Xi saw were only part of the remains of this huge kingdom.

The lost ancient Assyria capital, the "Mermaid Game" that only starts at night, the Queen of Assyria's wish.

In the dark, Yun Xi felt as if he had caught a clue to something.

Soon, the sun was setting and the people gathered in the square began to retire in an orderly fashion, giving up the square at night to the inhabitants of another world.

"Hmph, having a good time, aren't you? You really are a hopeless liar." Red Dragon Zaka looked at Yun Xi with an exasperated look of contempt.

Just now, when the girls left Yun Xi, that reluctant look on their faces indicated that they were obviously hooked!

Now I've finally seen his human scum nature.

Chapter 813: Mermaid Game (2)

The Assyria capital at night was less noisy and more mysterious than during the day.

Under the silver moon, the small fountains located around the square began to rhythmically spurt out transparent water, turning into a magnificent water-screen.

The twelve largest fountains, on the other hand, began to fill with a hazy mist of water, seemingly preparing for something.

It was clearly on the ground, but it gave the delusion of a palace in water, which was proof of the Assyria kingdom's pursuit and dedication to art, as well as its high artistic standards.

"The water element in the air is starting to reorganize." Ice Dragon Zaka touched her fingertips to the watery air and came to the conclusion that something was happening.

Yun Xi, on the other hand, raised his head and looked at the silver moon in the sky.

It was great that it wasn't the blood moon.

Assyria in this time and space did not seem to be tainted by the power of the ancient gods, and he didn't hear the whispering of the ancient gods that made people lose their minds.

Of course, even if there is a whisper, it won't work for the Zakas and him.

With the passage of time, the lights of the city went out one by one, leaving only those magic street lamps still faithfully illuminating the circular paths under the darkness of the night.

On the huge square, there were only Yun Xi and the three Zakas, and the water curtain landscape that kept changing its posture.

One after another bubbles began to appear in the middle of the square water curtain, and even turned into a fish-like silhouette, and faintly could hear the sound of singing.

That is the song that the human throat can not make, even the three Zakas have not heard the beautiful singing voice.

Rather, Yun Xi, once beside himself, his ears have heard such a beautiful voice many times.

It was the song sung by the mermaid queen in the world of the Water God.

The song was sung by mermaid brides for Yun Xi.

Legend has it that the mermaid's song has the magic power to make human sailors jump off the ship and turn into part of the sea.

Yun Xi is even more aware of the lovely appearance of the petite and lovely mermaid brides as they sing their songs of love.

"Is it true ... mermaid?" Yun Xi looked at the bubbles' changing colors as if he had come to a fairy tale world.

"Hee hee!"

"Nah nah!"

"Ah ... mmm ..."

The voices of the young girls, which began to quietly echo in the water curtain, seemed to be observing the place from a distant world.

"Is it going to be a fight? Is it going to be a fight!" Desert Dragon Zaka summoned her indestructible Sand Eyes, and was ready to take a shot of Quicksand Vortex to kill all of that so-and-so mermaids!

"Burn, sky!" Red Dragon Zaka followed her sister, proudly extending her index and middle fingers, preparing to unleash a seven-star Meteor Fire Rain.

However, both Desert Dragon Zaka's Sand Eyes Storm and Red Dragon Zaka's Meteor Fire Rain came to a screeching halt halfway through, leaving the two surprised.

"There's no fire element at my disposal?" Red Dragon Zaka couldn't believe that the fire element, one of the world's four basic elements, didn't seem to exist in this strange world.

It was impossible! The fire element was one of the four basic elements that built the world, and even in her sister Ice Dragon Zaka's Ice Land, she could unleash a shower of meteoric fire without restriction.

However, in this Assyria kingdom, the fire element just couldn't be at her disposal, as if it was forcibly suppressed by some kind of power.

"The earth is not obedient either!" Desert Dragon Zaka stepped on the ground under her feet, all of it was a structure she was unfamiliar with, as if it had been completely restructured.

"No wonder ... I felt wrong from just now ..." Ice Dragon Zaka shook her head. She also couldn't use her ice magic.

This square, as well as the entire Assyria royal city, seemed to be covered by some kind of powerful domain, and the owner of this domain forcibly forbade all destructive magic use.

In terms of the domain of magic, the owner of this city released a forbidden magic that surpassed the sum of the three Zakas', so all magic couldn't cause effects under this forbidden magic.

Even physical attacks are the same, so if you can't break the upper limit of this domain, you probably can't do damage to the city at all.

"The First Princess and the Second Princess have joined forces." Ice Dragon Zaka deduced the true nature of the city, whether it was the city itself or the humans that seemed to be alive, it was a certain magical aspect.

The two hands of the giant clock across the square finally came together.

Twelve o'clock, it was.

As if announcing the arrival of something, the twelve large fountains around the Queen of Assyria square, suddenly all spurted out a huge column of water.

One after another playful and lovely figures happily jumped out from the water column, riding the wind and waves, swimming in the sky.

Mermaids, wearing all kinds of swimsuit, wagging their tails and curiously looking at Yun Xi.

Yun Xi was familiar with their faces.

They were the girls of the Starwings Knights.

The count, the marquis, and the noble girls who had occasionally been seen in the royal palace and had appeared at the festival were also amongst them.

It seems that there are also many members of the White Lotus Sword Palace.

At this moment, all of them have grown soft fishtails, wearing either conservative or bold swimsuits, comfortably swimming in the constantly intersecting currents.

"Yo ... seventh, eighth, ninth ... to thirteenth princesses are all here." Ice Dragon Zaka looked at Yun Xi with contempt.

"You ... you ... you ... you ... you ..." Red Dragon Zaka's fingers were trembling, pointing at Yun Xi beside her, "How many girls have you had a relationship with?".

"Tsk ... now there are full of people ... my sister really does whatever she wants!" Desert Dragon Zaka smelled.

Even if they become mermaids, they look at Yun Xi affectionately, and a few even wanted to swim to Yun Xi.

With the appearance of the mermaids, the Queen of Assyria statue spoke again.

"The rules of the Mermaid Game are three."

"Mermaids will do their best to evade your pursuit, but will not run out of the city of Assyria."

"The more beautiful a mermaid is, the harder it is to be captured."

"Only the one who captures the most beautiful mermaid will be able to fulfill the wish of his heart."

The mermaids with snow-white skin and bold bodies smiled at the somewhat overwhelmed Yun Xi, and many of them even took the initiative to start teasing Yun Xi.

Only, they do not make a human voice, but with a wonderful singing voice, showing their charm.

Chapter 814: Mermaid Game (3)

"La la la la!" This was the song of the Starwings Knights' leader, Hua Yue, who was wearing a swimsuit with golden embroidery on her chest, and her waist was enclosed by an apron, with the outline of her plump chest~ visible.

Her hair, with golden shell hair ornaments that no other mermaid has, looked elegant and gorgeous. She is obviously one of the most special mermaids among the mermaids.

In contrast, the Starwings Knights deputy leader wearing a one-piece swimsuit presents a healthy beauty. With a golden ratio body after advancing to the hero rank, plus the God Weapon on her back, giving her a unique charm among mermaids.

Ling Ling, the secretary of the Starwings Knights, is wearing a bold and exposed two-cut swimsuit. Looking at that plump chest, he is worried about whether the swimsuit straps will collapse.

The usually elegant ladies of the Starwings Knights ladies, at the moment, are all wearing attractive swimsuits, clustered around Hua Yue. Their snow-white skin and increasingly beautiful face let Yun Xi almost not know where to focus his eyes on.

Why are the mermaids wearing swimsuits? Yun Xi increasingly does not understand the idea of his first princess. Why would the great Queen of Assyria choose them as the "mermaids".

After all, why are they mermaids, and why are they all beautiful girls in swimsuits?

What is her intention?

"Rules, choose the most beautiful mermaid."

"The more beautiful the mermaid, the more difficult it is to be captured."

"Only the person who captures the most beautiful mermaid will be able to grant the wish."

After quickly repeating the rules of this Mermaid Game in his head, Yun Xi suddenly discovered the trap.

What would it take to determine who was the most beautiful mermaid?

What is the judgment benchmark?

"Okay, I'll catch it!" Desert Dragon Zaka directly rushed towards Hua Yue who looked like the leader of the mermaids with a fierce lunge.

"Ah ..." Hua Yue shook her head gently and her figure instantly turned into flying foam and disappeared under Desert Dragon Zaka 's claws.

Desert Dragon Zaka did not even catch a piece of the mermaid's scale, and directly hit the ground.

"Huh ... they can move freely and instantly?" Ice Dragon Zaka also struck, and she locked on one of the mermaids that looked weaker and easier to get at.

Lulu, even after turning into a mermaid, still has a pair of rabbit ears on her head.

"Ah ..." her rabbit ears shaking violently, and the panicked little rabbit closed her eyes all the way, and then jumped into Yun Xi's embrace.

"Wow!" The moment she hit Yun Xi, the little rabbit Lulu's body turned into countless flying scattered water droplets, tenderly wrapped around Yun Xi's fingertips, and then there was an extra little rabbit's seal on his wrist.

"You have caught a mermaid. Do you want to offer her as a tribute to the Queen of Assyria? This is a mermaid named Lulu, very good at making medicine and absolutely will not betray you. If you choose her, you will have a cute and delicious little rabbit." A sudden prompt sounded in Yun Xi's ears.

"Yay?"

"Ah!"

"Wooooooooooooooooo!"

Completely unexpected that there would be such a thing, many of the surrounding mermaids showed chagrined expressions.

If Yun Xi chose Lulu as the "tribute", the Mermaid Game would be over for him.

"Rules... the most beautiful mermaid ..." Yun Xi looked thoughtfully at the bunny mark that appeared on his wrist, and then looked at the mermaids around him.

They seem to have no memories of being human, more like young girls immersed in fairy tales, naive and carefree.

In a sense, they are perhaps closer to the real them here, let go of all the burdens of the real world, as carefree as real mermaids.

"Mermaid" represents not their race, but implies a pure and unblemished heart.

Then, the matter of choosing the "most beautiful mermaid" from these pure-hearted girls is a trap.

Because there are no criteria to judge who is the "most beautiful mermaid".

Beauty, in the eyes of everyone, has a different standard.

Some people like big-chest girls.

Some people like small and delicate girls.

Some people like girls with long legs, and are even willing to be trampled by that long, slender legs.

And there are even people who like non-humans.

"I can't choose..." Yun Xi sighed. He couldn't choose who was the most beautiful one amongst the girls of the Starwings.

Among them, Yun Xi simply can not say who is the "most beautiful mermaid".

In addition to Lulu, the other girls of the Starwings Knights are also looking at Yun Xi with anticipation.

They seem to believe that Yun Xi will make a choice that they are satisfied with, a choice that is very much in line with Yun Xi's approach.

Chapter 815: Mermaid Game (4)

"Choose, is it a golden axe, a silver axe, or a wooden axe that you dropped into the spring?"

"Is it a mermaid with large breasts, a young mermaid, or a mermaid with the longest tail?"

Yun Xi looked at the dazzling array of mermaid maidens and sighed helplessly.

For him, this is not a single-choice question, nor even a multiple-choice question.

It was because he couldn't make a choice.

Then, the rest of the choices couldn't be simpler.

"I will capture... all of you" Yun Xi stated his tactics.

"You're such an asshole." Red Dragon Zaka stepped on Yun Xi's toes harder, but did not protest against Yun Xi's tactics.

"Your strategy is sound, but you sure are an asshole." Ice dragon Zaka and his sister on the same side, even if she also agreed with Yun Xi's tactics.

"Let's battle!" Probably only Desert Dragon Zaka, who's a bit on the dumb side, doesn't care about Yun Xi's temperament, and her warrior's instincts are calling her to act in the face of this throng of mermaids.

"Yah!"

"Ahahahaha!"

"Hee hee hee hee!"

"Hmmm..."

The mermaid girls who were being watched by Yun Xi responded with different reactions.

Centered on Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwing Knights, Hanazuki, most of the young ladies blushed and covered their little faces, with their tails contracted underneath them like shy roses.

The commoner faction swordsmen, centered on Little Grass, deputy head of the Starwing Knights, were all glowing. Their fishtails were fluttering, just short of letting out a song.

In the hazy water mist, there are more mermaid girls with curious, naive eyes looking at Yun Xi, seeming to be looking forward to something.

"Start capturing it, not one less." Since he had decided to capture them all, Yun Xi simply pulled up Red Dragon Zaka's hand, instantly launched the Thunderwalk, rushing towards the group of Starwing Knights.

Since he is going to capture them all, he will start with the most familiar girls.

"Huh." The leader of the Starwing Knights, Hua Yue, revealed a mysterious smile, making a light turn and then her figure disappeared in the water curtain.

"Huh?"

"Ahhhhhhh!"

"Wooooooooooooooooo!"

The girls around Hua Yue ran away in a flurry, transformed into flexible fish.

The mermaid game, at this moment, officially began!

"Even if you can use magic, you will not be able to escape!" The Desert Dragon Zaka issued a roar, leaping up high into a fierce and incomparable posture, and rushed towards the group of soft mermaid girls.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

"Wooooooooooooooooooooo!"

"Yeah yeah yeah!"

According to logic, the strength of the mermaid girls will never rival that of the Desert Dragon Zaka, but in this unique environment, they can showcase incredible ability.

Whenever Desert Dragon Zaka tried to grab them, they will immediately turn into foam and flew far away from there.

As long as it was covered by the water curtain, they could flee freely.

And with the start of the Mermaid Game, the water curtain that originally only appeared on the square began to spread rapidly, distributed to the entire city.

This is the real Mermaid Game, a fantasy game with the entire city as the venue.

"Move separately!" Ice Dragon Zaka and Desert Dragon Zaka temporarily broke away from the range of Yun Xi's connection, and one chased a group of mermaid girls to the west city, and another towards the north city.

Yun Xi stared at the group of girls of the Starwing Knights and rushed into the east city.

The ancient capital emitted a unique charm in the moonlight. Snow-white magic lights and the laughter of maidens made the ancient city once again rejuvenated.

"Why can't I catch up with them?" Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka's speed was fast, but they still couldn't catch up with the girls.

Several times, Yun Xi was only a few miles away from the girls, but this little distance became an insurmountable rift.

One side was unable to use their abilities, while the other side could move freely within the water curtain. This game had been rigged from the start.

They can't use their abilities, but the other side can maneuver freely within the water curtain and escape. How do they catch the girls?

After chasing and locking a dozen mermaids in a row, Yun Xi realized that his tactics had a huge hole.

He couldn't even catch a mermaid! He thought that Ice Dragon Zaka and Desert Dragon Zaka were facing the same problem?

So, how to solve the problem?

Why was the little rabbit Lulu so easy to catch, while the other girls of Starwing Knights ran so fast?

Clearly, the strength of Lulu definitely was not weak, why was it that she panicked and rushed into his embrace, allowing him to achieve the achievement of keeping the rabbit?

"Piss off, these mermaids are cheating!" After having tried a dozen times without catching a chantle mermaid, Red Dragon Zaka pouted with anger.

Cheating? Yun Xi seems to have a flash of light in his mind.

Yes, the rules of this Mermaid Game are... no restrictions on cheating ah!

That is to say, no matter what method to catch the mermaid can be. All means are allowed.

Then the question arises, without uchant the transcendental power, is there any way to catch mermaids?

Yun Xi temporarily stopped and looked at the mermaids who were far away from him because of fear or shyness and showed a thoughtful expression.

"Hey, why not continue to chase? Don't you want to catch all the mermaids, and then eat them all?" Red Dragon Zaka puffed and looked around at the mermaids.

"I think that going after them like this might not be the best way." Yun Xi simply sat down and observed more attentively, paying attention to every move of the mermaid girls around.

For them, this is probably a dream world full of fairy tales.

They can't talk in their dreams, but they are not without feelings.

Curious and innocent, they are just like a piece of white paper. The girls who present the mermaid posture are pure in mind and body.

Yun Xi was more certain of this when he looked at the mermaids of the Starwing Knights.

Compared with other innocent Mermaid girls, the Starwings Knights, as in reality, are divided into two distinct factions.

Well, this faction gap is too easy to understand.

Chapter 816: Mermaid Game (5)

"One, two, three, four..." Yun Xi counted the Starwings Knights with large breasts. All of them were undoubtedly the eldest ladies of the aristocratic family.

"Thirty one, thirty-two..." Apart from them, there are also a large number of girls, but they are basically civilians of the Starwings Knights.

Even in the fairy tale dream, they who incarnate as mermaids also clearly distinguish their own camps.

Take Rose, a new member of the Starwings Knights, as an example. As soon as she joined the group, she was assigned to the aristocratic family sect.

Without the mask of bandages, the full "peaks" attracted the envy, and hatred of the civilian girls of the Starwings Knights.

"If they are the same here..." Yun Xi closed his eyes. All the offensive extraordinary powers in the city are limited, and neither magic nor dragon breath can be used.

However, besides being a half tone swordsman and a part-time disciple of the Battle God genre, he also has another rank.

Rather, this was his original job.

The fourth-ranked life profession - Baker.

"There are... Sixty-seven..." Recently, he fed a lot of bread to the three Zakas. Yun Xi counted his own storehouse. There were up to a hundred treasures in the storehouse, and there were sixty-seven gold cream bread, the superior product since he became a baker.

This fourth-ranked bread is the highest level treasure owned by Yun Xi at present. It is a masterpiece sublimated from his most skilled formula - third-ranked golden bread.

The fourth-ranked bread is a valuable and marketable supplement. Even the dragon would like to eat it.

This kind of bread contains part of the original strength of Yun Xi's hero rank power, a strategic level food that even the Ten Leaf Alliance urgently lacks.

He still remembers that on the desert island, the girls of the Starwings Knights loved the bread made by "Mei", and even evolved the "Bread ranking war", which has now become a routine activity of the Starwings Knights.

"If the mountain is far away, then your choice is to see the mountain, or let the mountain come to you!" Yun Xi took out one of the 67 rare loaves of bread and decided to put the plug on his masterpiece.

These golden butter bread with magical quality gave off a delicious aroma.

In the water god world, the Spider Queen from the void had been seduced by it.

On the one-day date with the twin witches, the proud Red Lotus and the holy Princess Jinwu were also captured by it.

In the world of dragon war, even the ferocious red dragon ate the bread happily.

Well, the ferocious red dragon has now become the fifth Princess of Yun Xi, and is now looking at the golden butter bread that Yun Xi took out with ferocious eyes.

"I'm hungry!" Red Dragon Zaka licked her little sweet tongue. Obviously, she is not hungry, but she doesn't know why. Seeing this golden butter bread, she feels like she wants to monopolize it.

"I will give you a lot of things in the future. Now that I have other uses." Yun Xi looks from left to right and from east to west. The methods to be used next are not very aboveboard, but they should be absolutely effective.

Mermaid girls who are pure as a white paper don't have a memory of when they were human beings. Once they are chased by human beings, they will fall into a state of panic and run around.

Like little rabbit Lulu, who is an idiot without a sense of direction, is only a rare example.

The vast majority of mermaids have a beautiful swimming posture, and even the dragon can't catch up with them in the King City of Assyria where the water curtain is all over.

In that case, it would be better to change our thinking.

Since these Mermaid girls have an innocence that doesn't belong to human beings, once they are approached by human beings, they will flee in all directions, so it is OK not to approach them, but to let them take the initiative to throw themselves into my arms.

To this end, Yun Xi must take out the appropriate "Bait".

It happens that Yun Xi has such things.

"Will this work? They're not idiots." Red Dragon Zaka looked at Yun Xi who was tying a transparent silk thread to the bread.

"They are smart and have a good sense of danger, but that's also their weakness." Yun Xi holds a small fishing rod in his hand, which is almost the size of an arm.

If the bait is useful, he can even catch the mermaids.

The plan is this.

First of all, Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka hid themselves in the bell tower.

Then, the bread that was tied to the silk thread was thrown away and hung on the water curtain.

Finally, it's patience.

As long as you don't let them find your existence, then when the mermaid takes the bait, everything will come naturally.

This is Yun Xi's "Mermaid hook plan". Whether it works or not depends on practice.

Red Dragon Zaka licked her paws. She doesn't believe that this ridiculous plan will succeed.

Even the older fish in the lake can't be fooled by such a trap, let alone the smart mermaids!

Mermaids are creatures that are favored by ocean gods. How could they be tempted by just a piece of bread...

"Take the bait!" Yun Xi shook the small fishing rod in his hand and directly pulled up a lovely mermaid who was alive and kicking with bread in her mouth!

"Ah Hoo Hoo..." She is undoubtedly the best among all the mermaids. Yun Xi is very familiar with her.

Ling Ling, the Secretary of the Starwings Knights, take the bait!

"What!" Red Dragon Zaka stared at Ling Ling, who was easily caught by Yun Xi. She was happily hugged by Yun Xi and willingly melt into foam.

"Well, the second one." Yun Xi looked at the cream-like mark on his wrist, nodded, and continued to lift out the remaining bread as bait.

After about ten seconds, the fishing rod in Yun Xi's hand shook violently. It was obvious that the curious mermaids had not learned the lesson of Ling Ling and had begun to bite.

With a skillful swing and shake, the third Mermaid also took the bait and flew to him obediently.

"Darling, don't eat too much. You don't have such a big appetite as Ling Ling. Mei Lan." Yun Xi touched the head of the mermaid and tore off about a fifth of the bread to satisfy Mei Lan.

Chapter 817: Mermaid Game (6)

In the light of the silver moon, the royal city of Assyria was covered with a sparkling water curtain. From time to time, beautiful mermaids jumped out of the water to show their perfect body and skin under the moonlight.

They are the favourites blessed by the Queen of Assyria and the girls who freely enjoy the happy time in the Mermaid Game.

In the past, their figures jumping in the moonlight have become a unique ritual in the royal city of Assyria.

According to the Convention, the people of Assyria who stayed in their homes all looked at these happy mermaids with smiling eyes, especially the girls who loved to listen to fairy tales, and almost kept their eyes on these beautiful faeries.

However, this year's Mermaid Game seems a little different from usual.

More than one person witnessed a fat and soft golden bread fall from the sky to the water, and then a beautiful mermaid will be attracted soon, often more than one or two.

They all surrounded the fat bread curiously, smelled the smell of the strange bread from time to time, and finally could not help but open their small mouths to take a bite.

At this time, the fat bread will suddenly take off, and Miss Mermaid who is biting the bread will also take off into the sky, and finally disappear in the far side.

This scene had a great impact on the innocent hearts of many young girls.

"Why is there bread here!"

"What happened to that bread!"

"Kill that bread!"

Many girls saw that those innocent and lovely Mermaid sisters were lured away by the bread and never returned. They were provoked in an instant, and their eyes became fiery, gnashing their teeth when they looked at the bread.

As for other girls, especially those who had eaten some kind of bread at the Queen of Assyria Square during the day, they showed doubts.

"Do the mermaid sisters like that kind of bread?"

"Why does that bread look so familiar?"

"Yes, it must be that big brother's bread!"

The two opinions mixed together and finally formed a fierce argument. In the process of the girls' argument, several beautiful and lovely Mermaid sisters were seduced away by the fat bread.

The girls can't bear it at last. For those who look forward to the innocent and lovely Mermaid girls, this scene is simply a crime!

If one side of the Mermaid Game pursues the beautiful mermaid sisters in the normal way, just like the outsiders who have been run around just now, that is fine. What is this cheating method!

"No, we must protect the mermaid sisters!"

"That damn bread must have been drugged!"

"Let's grab the bread!"

So, about a few minutes later.

"Ha ha ha!" Red Dragon Zaka almost burst into laughter and looked at the girl who was biting a loaf of bread and showed deep hatred for Yun Xi.

She doesn't have a mermaid tail. Instead, she has a pair of pink and lovely legs. and is wearing pajamas. Apparently, she is not their target.

"Little sister... Why do you bite the bread?" Yun Xi looked at the little girl who bit his bread hard and seemed to have a grudge against him.

This is obviously a mistake. Why would even the little girl, who he doesn't know, bite the hook for the mermaids.

Fortunately, there was no sharp hook in his bread. He just used superb fishing methods to hook the mermaids, otherwise it would be bad.

"Oh..." With the spread of the crisp and soft taste of the fat bread in her mouth, coupled with the wonderful taste that is sweet enough to melt, this little girl who dedicated herself to her Mermaid sisters finally seemed to understand why Mermaid sisters would take the bait one by one.

This bread is really delicious!

Just lick it with your tongue, you will feel the taste of sweet sunshine. If you bite it down, the white cream will be squeezed out in your mouth happily. You don't need to swallow it, so it warms your whole body.

"This is too early for you. Hurry home." Yun Xi quickly rescued the little golden bread from the little girl's mouth. That's the key strategic material for the success of this Mermaid Game.

"Sobbing sobbing!" The look in the eyes of the little girl at Yun Xi is about to melt. What a weak and pitiful look it is. It's impossible to refuse!

"You can only eat a small piece. This is too nutritious for you." Yun Xi reluctantly tore off a small piece to feed the little Lori who was caught, then continued to throw out the bread and waited for the next mermaid to bite.

There are more than twenty different marks on his wrist.

Lulu's is a funny little rabbit mark.

Ling Ling's is a sweet mark of cream pudding.

Mei Lan's is a serious book mark.

The noble girls of the Starwings Knights' are very similar flower marks, including rose, tulip, and vanilla.

In addition to the members of the Starwings Knights, Yun Xi accidentally hooked up with several Mermaid girls who didn't belong to the Starwings Knights. They were basically the predecessors of the Sword Palace. Yun Xi only had some vague memories about them in class.

They also appeared at the blood moon wedding. Most of them were earls and Marquis daughters as background, that is, noble daughters guarding the kingdom.

Why do they become mermaids in the Mermaid Game? Yun Xi doesn't know what's going on. He is also confused about what criteria his first princess uses to select mermaids.

To put it bluntly, all Mermaid girls are beautiful, lovely, and have a pure heart. Otherwise, they won't be caught by Yun Xi with golden butter bread one after another.

"The twenty third one..." it took about two hours. Yun Xi finally fished the mermaid girls in this district, that is, most of the members of the Starwings Knights have been successfully caught by him.

Incidentally, there are five more pink and tender little girls on the tower. The highest age is only about 12 years old.

They are brave girls who stand up to protect their Mermaid sisters. They bite Yun Xi's bread in advance and never let go, which eventually becomes an extra gain for Yun Xi.

"Well, all the Mermaids here should be finished."

At last, Yun Xi, who fished three little girls in a row, put away the fishing rod, gave the last half of the bread one by one to the five little girls with bright eyes, and jumped out of the bell tower with Red Dragon Zaka.

"Goodbye, big brother!"

"Goodbye, Mermaid sisters!"

"Don't forget to join the Mermaid Game the next time!"

The little girls said goodbye to Yun Xi and jumped down the bell tower to tell their new fairy tales to their friends.

That is the story of "The mermaids, the bread and the princesses".

Chapter 818: Mermaid Game (7)

Assyria King City, the Westen District.

On the clock tower of the same style, two people who had also jointly implement the "Mermaid hook plan".

"Er... This..." Yun Xi looked at a group of little girls around him, their eyes glowing, their cheeks flushed, and they begged for hugs. Big drops of sweat fell from his forehead.

"You... Lolicon!" Red Dragon Zaka bit Yun Xi's arm like a rabbit biting a carrot. She bit his arm harder and harder. There were still traces of white cream on her mouth.

There are 13 mermaids. This is the record of Yun Xi and Red Dragon Zaka after they changed the fishing area. According to common sense, Yun Xi's proficiency in catching mermaids has continuously increased, but it took longer, and the harvest is less than that in the Eastern District.

As for the reason.

There are fifteen girls. All of them are little ones who don't listen to their parents and come out to bite the bait for Miss Mermaid. The oldest is 13 years old and the youngest is 8 years old. They are young princesses full of adventurous spirit.

Without exception, after eating Yun Xi's precious golden butter bread, these little princesses all fell into a similar drunken state, one by one immersed in the taste of happy bread.

The little pink face, the snow-white skin in the pajamas, and the blushing face and glowing eyes after eating the fourth grade golden butter bread are just like the lovely dessert delivered to the door this night, emitting a tempting smell of crime.

In this regard, Yun Xi said that it is definitely not his own fault. The fourth grade golden butter bread is really too exciting for these little girls.

All night tonight, they probably couldn't sleep. It's too much to replenish their energy.

"What else can you fish for besides bread?" Red Dragon Zaka angrily looked at the growing number of little girls and wanted to find another way to catch the cunning mermaids. "

"No." Yun Xi answered firmly. It was lucky enough to think of this method to catch mermaids.

You can't use any offensive and extraordinary power. The mermaid has an absolute home advantage and can shuttle infinitely through the vast water curtain world. It's impossible to capture a mermaid with normal methods except for traps or gambling that a mermaid bumps into you.

In the past, the girl who completed the task of catching a mermaid in the Mermaid Game probably ran into a mermaid who failed to shuttle carelessly by throwing a net and chant around.

"Why don't we pretend to be mermaids?" Red Dragon Zaka advised a bad idea.

Yun Xi looked at Red Dragon Zaka, who seemed to want to transform into a mermaid, and shook his head.

It's not like wearing women's clothes. It can't be done by simply changing your clothes.

According to his observation of the Starwings Knights, who turned into mermaids, they were not simply added with a fish tail. They also had the abilities of some fairy tale creatures, and were hardly hurt by physical and magic attacks.

If you want to catch them, you have to touch their skin and body. In that moment, they will turn into foam and fly away, and then leave their own unique marks on the wrists of the people who catch them.

Yun Xi, who has caught many mermaids, now has dozens of beautiful and lovely marks on his wrist. He is an elite Mermaid hunter.

"Well, the feel." After catching nearly 20 little girls, Yun Xi had a preliminary experience about whether he caught a mermaid or a human little girl.

The bite hook was very heavy and shook around violently. Most of those that were caught are Mermaid girls.

The bite hook was light and only let the fishing rod shake gently. Most of those that were caught were human little girls.

"Alas... It seems that I caught the wrong fish again?" Yun Xi shook the small fishing rod. The four-ranked golden bread is very attractive for both Mermaid and human little girls.

This time, Yun Xi guessed both right and wrong.

What he caught was a pair of prey.

Moreover, there is a big fish among them.

Xiao Cao, the deputy head of the Starwings Knights.

And a cute little girl from the royal city of Assyria who bites the hook with Xiao Cao.

That is, two birds with one stone. One loaf of bread brought two young girls.

"Hmmm..." Xiao Cao happily bit Yun Xi's bread and enjoyed Yun Xi's special bait with the little girl who was caught together.

After they finished eating, they reached out to Yun Xi with a tacit understanding.

Even if they can't speak, Yun Xi knows what they want to say:

"One more."

"No!" Yun Xi knocked on Xiao Cao's head, who was really a natural girl loyal to her own desires.

The longer he gets along with her, the more he can feel her directness and loveliness.

In the dormitory of the Starwings Knights, he often saw Xiao Cao wandering in the corridor without wearing clothes. It seems that she was completely unaware that she was not wearing clothes.

Among the Starwings Knights, Xiao Cao is also the most absent-minded.

She got the token that she can enter and leave the sword palace freely. She has been hanging around in the venue of the White Lotus Sword Domain for many days, and has won many games in a row.

"Hmm..." Xiao Cao frowned, looked at Yun Xi who refused to provide bread, suddenly clapped her hands and began to take off her clothes.

"Ah..." the little girl, who was caught with Xiao Cao, looked at Xiao Cao and began to take off her white pajamas too.

Through the moonlight of the bell tower, Xiao Cao's healthy light brown skin forms a wonderful contrast with the snow-white and glittering skin of the little girl next to her. Yun Xi instantly blushed.

Like an infectious disease, Xiao Cao made a bad start, and other little girls began to learn from her to take off their clothes.

"No, you can't take it off. You'll be eaten by the bad guys!" Red Dragon Zaka quickly stops it, or the clock tower will become an "indescribable" world.

Yun Xi reluctantly took out another piece of bread and put it on his chest. Then he felt the familiar weight and temperature. It was the unique taste of Xiao Cao, like the healthy smell of summer sunshine.

The colourless foam spreads, and a sword shaped mark is added to Yun Xi's hand, which is the unique mortal sword posture of Xiao Cao.

This mark gives Yun Xi a special feeling. It seems that it contains some different power from other mermaids.

"Ahhh!"

"Big brother!"

"Delicious!"

Well, a girl who is not a Mermaid will not disappear even if she hugs Yun Xi, so Yun Xi has a slightly luxurious worry.

"No, you absolutely can't look at them. If you dare to look, I'll blind you!" In Red Dragon Zaka's angry voice, Yun Xi didn't know whether he was in heaven or hell.

Chapter 819: Mermaid Game (8)

Assyria King City, the North District.

"Oh, that's what you did." Desert dragon Zaka looked at Yun Xi, with an expression of "I knew it might be like this".

It would be better if her claws were not savagely pressed on Yun Xi's head.

"This is a good way, but you really are scum." Ice Dragon Zaka learned from her sister and put her dragon claw on someone's dog head.

"I want to go down and blow up this head." The third dragon's claw is pressed on the head of the sinner, and Red Dragon Zaka can't bear it anymore.

"Ahhh!"

"What terrible sisters!"

"Is the big brother going to be killed?"

The three little girls hid in the corner of the bell tower with frightened faces and looked at the three Zakas who were going to commit domestic violence against their lover.

The three dragons alliance has the same position at the moment - we must not let someone be too arrogant.

"I am really innocent." Yun Xi surrendered with both hands. After the incident in the West District was reported to the Zaka sisters hunting in the North District by Red Dragon Zaka, the incident was out of control.

Now, he deeply felt the horror of this Mermaid Game.

The water is too deep!

"Although I knew he had a problem, it was too serious." Desert dragon Zaka took a look at the three noble little girls caught by Yun Xi.

Why are they nobles? Because the North District is the upper-class settlement closest to the main city, even the daughters of businessmen are not qualified to live here.

They didn't get nothing from chachant after mermaids. Now almost all mermaids from other regions are gathered in this aristocratic District, which makes it easier for Yun Xi to catch mermaids.

However, because there are so many noble girls living in this area, the number of curious babies is far beyond the normal probability.

So, after Yun Xi caught a mermaid in the first shot, he caught three noble little lollies in the second shot, which greatly increased the efficiency.

"This Mermaid Game has corrupted you. I really misunderstood you." Ice Dragon Zaka presses Yun Xi's head hard.

The three dragons alliance has made unprecedented concerted efforts.

"We... Are still fighting." Yun Xi tried his best to explain. At this time, he even hoped that Black Dragon Zaka would appear soon, otherwise he would have to face the crisis of fire in his backyard.

"Hum, you are cunning. No wonder my sister has blacklisted me." Desert dragon Zaka let go, which is a means to forgive Yun Xi.

"Remember my sister's tolerance. This is for my Sister Zaka." Ice Dragon Zaka also let go.

"Sooner or later, the four sisters of Zaka will teach you a lesson!" Red Dragon Zaka clenched her teeth and loosened her dragon claws. She would never forgive this guy's playfulness if she was not still fighting with Black Dragon Zaka.

This guy's heart is absolutely black!

"Well, this time it's a mermaid." After fishing so many mermaids, Yun Xi finally mastered nearly perfectly how to identify the prey.

The heavy pull almost made the fishing rod bend. This time, the prey is definitely the largest in history.

The golden figure fell gracefully into the bell tower. Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwings Knights, finally fell into the hands of Yun Xi.

The mountain in front of her swayed, and she smiled at Yun Xi, but she didn't ask for bread like the deputy head Xiao Cao.

"Hua Yue..." Yun Xi's neck was gently hugged by Hua Yue's hands. Hua Yue caught by Yun Xi was like a princess, enjoying the world of these two people in the arms of Yun Xi.

"Be careful... There are hidden... Mermaids..." this is the first time Yun Xi has heard a mermaid make a sound. It seems that even in this state, Hua Yue, who has the blood of platinum roses, still retains some memories.

Compared with other confused mermaids, she obviously has more wisdom and moveability. Her intimacy with Yun Xi also makes his heart beat faster.

After biting Yun Xi's ear and telling Yun Xi this important information, Hua Yue's body also turned into foam and flew away. It was a golden foam different from other Mermaid girls.

Yun Xi's wrist is also marked with a platinum rose.

Hidden mermaid? Yun Xi, who got important tips from Hua Yue, tried to recall the mermaid figure he saw in the fountain of the Queen of Assyria square.

Besides the Starwings Knights, are there any other special mermaids?

In the cascading water curtain, it seems that there is indeed a familiar figure, but at a glance, it is impossible to accurately judge who it is.

"Who else hasn't been caught?" Yun Xi retrieved the Starwings Knights members he has captured so far.

Hua Yue, Xiao Cao, Lingg Lingg, Mei Lan, Lulu... Even the newly joined "Knight and magic" team was caught.

"Robin... and Mumu..." After checking all the marks related to the Starwings Knights, Yun Xi found the last two mischant fish.

Robin has mysterious predictive power. It's normal that it's very difficult to capture her. Mumu's personality is so simple. How can she not bite the bait yet?

"How many mermaids do you see?" Yun Xi inquired about the three Zaka sisters.

"About eighty?" Desert dragon Zaka gave a vague figure.

"It should be 81." Ice Dragon Zaka, who has excellent observation skills, gave a more accurate figure.

"Eighty one." Red Dragon Zaka also gave the same number as Ice Dragon Zaka.

There is no doubt that the dragon's eyesight is far beyond that of human beings, and this number is similar to the number in Yun Xi's mind.

Among the 81 mermaids, almost all are members of the Starwings Knights. Among the Mermaids Yun Xi has caught so far, most are the girls of the Starwings Knights. Except for Robin and Mumu, other members have basically been caught.

The problem is that except for the Starwings Knights, most of the faces Yun Xi had a general impression of at his wedding, but there were also a few completely unfamiliar faces.

"Is... the hidden Mermaid one of them?" Yun Xi found that there was a part blank in his memory. Unexpectedly, he couldn't remember the appearance of several mermaids.

This is not right. Based on his observation of female artists, this phenomenon should not exist.

Where did those mermaids who had never appeared in his memory come from?

Chapter 820: Mermaid Game (9)

"There are nineteen mermaids left."

The bell tower in the North district has become a paradise for all kinds of noble little lollies. They were caught by Yun Xi with golde bread. Like the little guys in the East District and West District, they chirped around Yun Xi like birds.

Even the glare of the three dragons could not stop the curiosity of these little princesses.

"Big brother, where did you come from?"

"Isn't Mermaid a game for girls?"

"Big brother smells good."

Feeling the murderous spirit of the three dragons , Yun Xi smiled bitterly and put away his fishing rod.

There has been no Mermaid bite for a quarter of an hour. According to the experience of the previous two areas, all the mermaids in this area should be captured by him.

The last South district is also the largest and broadest urban area of the whole King City of Assyria, accounting for almost one third of the whole King City of Assyria.

Yun Xi has a premonition that there will be a decisive battle.

Take out a piece of complete golden butter bread, and then tear it into small pieces to feed the noble little girls attracted to him. Yun Xi began to think about how to catch the last mermaids.

He is convinced that no member of the Starwings Knights can resist the temptation of golden bread, but not necessarily the mermaid outside the Starwings Knights.

In other words, we must consider that there are mermaids who can resist the temptation of bread.

This possibility exists, rather it has already appeared.

Because Yun Xi has found solid evidence.

From the original East District to the present North District, the amount of golden butter bread he used has indeed been growing.

This is not only because of the lollies, but also the existence of an invisible black hand.

The black hand, or the hidden Mermaid, is not sure whether it is one or several, but it is cleverly mixed with the mermaids and girls. When they bite, it will steal part of the golden butter bread.

At first, Yun Xi thought that the mischant bread was eaten by the Mermaids or girls who were caught, but soon he found something wrong.

"What a clever Mermaid." Yun Xi calculated the consumption of the bread he used and the Mermaids he caught, and found out the evidence of the existence of these hidden mermaids.

As the number of mermaids decreases, it is only a matter of time before they are exposed.

"Everyone should go home."

"Have you ever seen a little strange mermaid?"

Yun Xi touched the heads of the lovely girls and asked them what they had seen.

Sure enough, a child's heart is the purest and flawless, and she doesn't even know what a lie is.

"Well, yes."

"I have seen the white Mermaid, it was very beautiful."

"A mermaid sister wears a mask and moves very fast."

The girls, who were originally helping Miss Mermaid sisters, were cleanly bought by Yun Xi with bread and gave out vital information.

"White, and mermaids in masks." Yun Xi recalled his general impression of 81 mermaids and found that they were mermaids without data.

Such a mermaid with obvious characteristics should be impossible to escape his eyes. There is no doubt that it is the "Hidden" Mermaid called by Hua Yue, the head of the Starwings Knights.

They seem to have more powerful abilities than the head of the Starwings Knights, and even steal Yun Xi's golden bread bait. They are mermaids at the top of all Mermaids.

"Are you impressed?" Yun Xi asked the three sisters of the three dragons alliance around him.

"I have never seen such a mermaid, but I have felt strange eyes." Desert Dragon Zaka carefully pondered her intuition when chachant the mermaids and confirmed the existence of two hidden mermaids.

"Among the 81 mermaids, there is an uncertain number." Ice Dragon Zaka also found the abnormal existences in these mermaids.

"Take more bread and go fishing." Red Dragon Zaka said disapprovingly.

"Anyway, you have an unlimited supply of bread in your hand. You can cheat these little guys."

Yun Xi shook her head. There was not much bread in his treasure bakery, and he had a premonition that if he didn't change his tactics, he would not be able to catch the two hidden mermaids even if he used all the reserves in the bakery.

Compared with other mermaids, they have more powerful abilities and more fierce appetites. They are never satisfied with one or two loaves of bread.

To complete the achievement of "Full Mermaid capture", it would be impossible to rely on the current tactics alone.

However, they are not without weaknesses.

"Come here, my tactics are like this." Yun Xi summoned the three dragons to his side and began to arrange tactics.

.....

The final battle place, South District of Assyria.

A dozen mermaids swam happily in the water curtain, leaping out of the water from time to time according to the ancient tradition, showing their vigorous posture in the moonlight.

"Prince, Prince, I'm number one. I haven't found the target." Lurking in the shadow, Desert Dragon Zaka held a paper tube and whispered to the tower.

"Prince, Prince, I'm number two. I haven't found anything here. You can use your bait now." Ice Dragon Zaka looked at the mirror in front of her and didn't miss any clues.

Above the tower, Yun Xi closed his eyes and listened to the reports of the two Zakas.

The paper tube and connection constitute the most basic reporting device. This is the wisdom from the Mechanus god's domain. It doesn't use any extraordinary force, but only uses the sound transmission device of physical effects.

With the help of the two Zakas, Yun Xi has extra eyes and ears to catch the mysterious mermaids.

Mermaids are very sensitive creatures, so both Desert Dragon Zaka and Ice Dragon Zaka are in a latent state and will never take the initiative to catch mermaids.

The main force of the mermaid capture plan is still Yun Xi with perfect bait.

This time, he is bound to win.

The golden bread with wonderful fragrance was thrown out from the high tower and stably stayed on a water curtain, attracting the curious eyes of several mermaids.

They had never heard such an incredible taste, and instinctively told them that it was very, very delicious.

A young Mermaid, looking around, swam to the side of the bread and was ready to bite.

The water surface suddenly twisted at this moment.

A black halo and a white halo slammed together violently. At the moment when the young Mermaid bit the hook, they tore off a small piece of golden bread with lightning speed, and then separated.
