Chapter 91: Hua Huo Goes Ballistic

On the hill three kilometres away, the elf girl was surrounded by flaming particles and the black gem on her forehead reflected the situation on the stage.

“Report. Found outside interference. Computational Error. The probability to complete the mission reduces to 10%.”

“Warning. The twin witches’ combat power is ten times beyond the theoretical rate. Suggestion: Release the male fiery dragon and enter air battle mode.”

“Ten times... combat power...” The elf girl became dazed for a moment after hearing this.

Apparently, the rival camp’s combat power she had observed was far beyond the information that the Ten Leaves Alliance had provided her. She realized that she had made a fatal error in judgement.

“In the name of Black Obsidian, release the seal of the male fiery dragon.” The elf girl whispered, with a series of mysterious rune words flashing through her unemotional pupils. A moment later, crimson scales appeared behind her naked feet.

“Grrrrrooooooaaaaarrrrr!” The male fiery dragon had buried its body in the hill for several days and only released a bit of its fire elemental power to support the elf girl in launching the attack. Now, with a world-shaking howl, it broke through the soil. Its howl was so loud that it could even be heard by people ten kilometres away.

“Is it there?” Hua Huo raised her head and looked at the flying dragon.

“Male fiery dragon?” Yun Xi had always been puzzled about why such a hero ranked beast had appeared in his trial. Now, he understood the reason. The monster that was able to slaughter an army by itself was really here and was nearly right under his nose!

“Chi! Chi! Chi!”

The second round started. Sixteen spiral fire arrows were approaching Hua Huo. There were more than in the first round, both in number and accuracy.

“Crane Wings! Flying!” Yun Xi had already blocked the spiral arrows once. Now, his actions were more skilled.

The twin swords turned into two lights, flying through the sky and intercepting about half of the arrows. Instantly, they detonated the flame arrows and stopped them from burning the ground.

“Good job, Mei!” Hua Huo rushed towards the male fiery dragon without any hesitation.

“Be careful, Hua Huo!” As the examiners, Red Lotus and White Lotus couldn’t leave the examination area, so they could only encourage Hua Huo as her backup force.

The Great Circulation!

“We are the stars shining in the starry sky. As long as our hearts are linked together, we will never apart from each other. Even if we couldn’t hold each other’s hand, we will still remember...” White Lotus sang a children’s folk rhymes which even Red Lotus hadn’t heard before, offering the star and moon ring’s blessing to Hua Huo. After that, she pretended it to be unintentional, but also offered Yun Xi her blessing.

"I'm sorry, but Hua Huo needs me now," Yun Xi chased after Hua Huo after he handed over Hua Yue to Xiao Cao.

Crane Wings Twin Swords dropped under Yun Xi's feet and carried him to make a short-range flight. It was fresh for Yun Xi to experience overcoming gravity. However, it was costly. Even though the sword spirits could control the twin swords to launch endless times, but Yun Xi couldn't control the sword spirits endless times.

After all, Crane Wings Twin Swords were doomed to be a pair of artifacts. As a mortal, to control the twin swords had already drained Yun Xi of too much energy. If it was to control the twin swords flying into the sky, it would drain Yun Xi of ten times more energy. Fortunately, the destination was only about three kilometers away, that wasn't beyond Yun Xi's limit yet.

"Find the target. Entering sniping mode." Cold killing intent appeared in the elf girl's amber pupils. She raised her black long bow and locked onto Hua Huo. However, she ignored Yun Xi. Compared to Hua Huo, a second rank maid was really nothing.

"Grrrroar!" The male fiery dragon opened its wings and flew into the sky carrying the elf girl, then emitted three fireballs from its mouth. Each fireball was filled with terrible lava. If any of these dropped onto the small town, one-third of the small town would be turned into a sea of fire.

"Hum. You want to run away?" Hua Huo dismissively gazed at the fireballs, which were so scorching hot that they could harm hero rank creatures. She didn't draw her sword, but stamped on the ground.

"Bang!"

An earth-shaking shock wave emerged from the ground and made countless crushed stones fly up into the sky. The stones hit the three fireballs and instantly detonated them, making the hero rank attack become a magnificent firework.

At that moment, Yun Xi was standing on the twin swords and gliding in the air. He couldn't believe what he was seeing with his naked eyes.

Hua Huo! It's already very incredible to master a hero rank sword skill as a third rank female swordsman. How can you also have so much strong strength in addition to that?! Even if your strength was ten times stronger than the green hippo's, it is impossible for anybody to do this! Are you really a third rank female swordsman?

"Update the data. Ignore redundant data and lock onto the target. Adjust to trace mode and launch the Phantom Flame Arrow!" The elf girl didn't show any fear on her face after seeing Hua Huo's earth-shaking stamp, but quietly revised Hua Huo's information.

After that, she unleashed the sixteen flame arrows attack again. The sixteen spiral flame arrows fired at Hua Huo from sixteen different angles. This time, the spiral flame arrows had a remarkable change. The arrows' bodies had become more slender, but the flames inside the arrows were unabated.

The flames were compressed. She had become stronger!

Yun Xi recognized the archer in red. Although her body was more slender than her figure in the trial, but her skillful killing technology hadn't changed a bit. She always presented her enemies the most terrible continuous attack. Besides, she had updated her equipment and personal mount.

She hadn't shown her real power in the stars trial. Only when the male fiery dragon and her teamed up could they form the complete combination "Phantom Archer". This wasn't as simple as "one plus one". After having the male fiery dragon's support, her combat power would be strengthened to an incredible level.

If she had appeared in the trial with her current power, Yun Xi would have never crossed the bridge even if he had died ten thousand times.

However, she wasn't fighting against Yun Xi but Hua Huo at this time.

"Dong!" Hua Huo stamped the ground and leapt into the air.

The next second, Yun Xi saw the true Flying Sky Sword!

Chapter 92: Sky Flying Sword

"How dare you harm my Little Xi! You will pay the price for your recklessness!" Hua Huo didn't hide her anger and killing intention. Her blood was flowing at a high speed. She didn't know the reason, but after she saw that Yun Xi was involved, she couldn't stop herself from flying into a rage.

"Burst!" She activated her non-human bloodline ability, which was so terrible that even the Red Lotus Holy Virgin couldn't stop it.

Yun Xi could even see terrible bloody airflow surrounding Hua Huo with his naked eyes.

"Let me show you the true Sky Flying Sword!"

In the face of the sixteen flame spiral arrows, Hua Huo showed no fear. Her blood dropped down from between her fingers, dyeing her sword blade red. At first, the long sword was just a common sword from Sword Palace. After being stained with Hua Huo's blood, it burst out a gust of a fierce and terrible breath which obviously no mortal weapons would have. Then, a ring of light spread out from under Hua Huo's feet.

"Ta!"

For the first time ever, Yun Xi saw his childhood sweetheart flying in the air. Sky Flying Sword could actually let the user fly to the sky! Once you mastered this sword skill, you would be able to overcome gravity, flying and fighting in the sky.

Stepping on the suddenly appeared light ring, Hua Huo's speed increased again. She broke through the blockade line of the sixteen arrows, rushing towards the flying male fiery dragon.

"Update the data again. The target's combat power has far surpassed the expectations. Adjust the attack mode. Entering air battle mode." The archer in red stood on the male fiery dragon's back. She controlled the dragon to hover around and dive, and at the same time, she aimed her arrows at Hua Huo with continuous shots.

Spiral flame arrows, multiple spiral flame arrows, and shocking arrows continuously appeared in the air. Yun Xi's nightmares seemed to have reappeared in the reality, and this time, they were enchanted with hero rank flames.

"That's futile. You will not escape! How dare you attack my Little Xi? I will never let you go, even if you escape to the ends of the world!" Hua Huo didn't know why she was so angry, but when she looked at the archer in red, she couldn't restrain her killing intent.

The killing intent was very inexplicable but also very real. She felt as if she had returned to the moment when she had met the twin witches. Her killing intent was completely baseless, but also profound and unforgettable.

When she met the twin witches she thought that she was oversensitive, but now, her killing intent was undoubtedly aiming at the right target!

Die!

The killing intent was also a pretty new emotion for Hua Huo. Another ring of transparent light appeared under Hua Huo's feet, turning into waves and spreading in the air.

Walking in the air was the Sky Flying Sword's feature. By stepping on one light wave after another, people who were performing Sky Flying Sword were able to increase their speed infinitely. They could even break into the atmosphere and fly amongst the stars using this method.

Sky Flying Sword could break all rules and limits. It was a god-like sword skill that could let the user break the law of gravity to fly into the sky. Even creatures with wings such as birds or dragons couldn't overcome gravity. After all, they were still living beings under the atmosphere.

Sky Flying Sword was faster than birds and stronger than dragons, standing in the sky and hovering over the world.

"All the information... has been overturned... Failure Probability: 100%. Carry out the backup plan." Seeing Hua Huo chasing after her with a speed that was beyond the human limit, the elf girl didn't show any signs of wavering in her eyes but immediately made a decision.

“Grrroar!” The male fiery dragon stopped flying. It opened its crimson wings with feather-like scarlet particles covering both its wings.

The elf girl stopping wasn't because she didn't want to fly to the higher sky, but because she and the male fiery dragon had had no way to flee. This was the highest sky the male fiery dragon could reach. The male fiery dragon's weight and strength restricted it to from flying into the higher clouds. Besides, even if they could fly into the clouds, it was meaningless in the face of that “monster”, the girl who could sprint in the air infinitely.

The information about Hua Huo and the twin witches that the Ten Leaves Alliance provided her was totally wrong. The team of a male fiery dragon and a phantom archer was far from sufficient to assassinate Hua Huo.

“Grrroar!” The male fiery dragon also realized that something was very wrong. It started to prepare its last struggle. The flame particles on its wings started to spread to its whole body. Countless dark red veins appeared on its huge body, and its every breath caused terrible tidal waves of flames around its body.

This was its ultimate skill: Full Force Fire Breath.

“Die!” Hua Huo increased her speed again. She flew to the higher airspace, then inverted her body midair.

Hua Huo's head was under her feet, looking pretty like an inverted cross. She firmly locked onto the roaring male fiery dragon and the archer in red. She really didn't restrain her killing intent because her Little Xi's enemy was her own enemy!

“Sky Flying Sword: V For Cleaving!”

No words could be used to describe her splendid sword skill. It was bright like fireworks. Yun Xi could only watch it from the ground. This was the first time he had seen Hua Huo slaying a dragon in the real world.

Under Hua Huo's slash, the male fiery dragon's great body was cleaved into two.

"Boom!" Before the male fiery dragon breathed out flames from its mouth, it had exploded in the sky, becoming countless pieces of minced meat. Several sword lights flashed through the sky. Hua Huo was still chasing after something.

"Ding!" Something was broken within the dragon's pieces of minced meat. Hua Huo finally stopped. The battle was over. Hua Huo showed her true power in front of Yun Xi and other people. Her magnificent feat of slaying the dragon with one slash made everyone fall into silence.

Her battle had been beyond their understanding. No matter whether it was the flying male fiery dragon, or Hua Huo who killed the dragon, they were both monsters! In their eyes, Hua Huo was even more a monster than the male fiery dragon!

For the first time ever, Yun Xi saw a real god-like sword skill with his own eyes. Any sword skills that were called "God-like" were recognized by all God's Domains. Sky Flying Sword could let the user fly in the sky and slay a dragon at the mortal rank. Yun Hai's Quadrant Sword could let the user cut up the world casually. They both were beyond a mortal's imagination.

"Hua Huo, you're flying too high," Yun Xi raised his head, gazing at Hua Huo with his sharp eyes. He saw a beautiful blue and white color.

Oh, Hua Huo was wearing blue and white underwear today?

Chapter 93: Inexplicable Sense of Crisis

After chopping the male fiery dragon into minced meat, Hua Huo still stayed in the sky and looked around in confusion. She still didn't know that her childhood sweetheart had seen her underwear.

"What's wrong?" Yun Xi blushed and looked around Hua Huo. However, he didn't find any potential threats.

The unknown archer in red should have been killed by Hua Huo. Because the distance was too far and the archer was riding on the male fiery dragon in the sky, Yun Xi just saw a vague figure that was covered by flame particles and didn't see her detailed appearance.

"That's strange. Where is her body?" Hua Huo was sure that she had hit the target. She could smell blood that didn't belong to the male fiery dragon.

At the last moment, the male fiery dragon exploded and made her lose trace of the archer. The mysterious elf suddenly vanished in thin air.

"Humph, you should feel lucky," Hua Huo murmured. She sheathed her sword and stepped on the transparent light ring, walking back to the ground.

The archer had gone. She used some special skill to escape from this area. Compared to the archer's escape, Hua Huo paid more attention to her suddenly raised anger.

What was that feeling exactly? When she saw the archer, she couldn't suppress her killing intent and directly launched her Sky Flying Sword. She had never had such a suddenly appeared killing intent before.

“Little Xi! Tell me the truth and you will receive a lighter sentence: What’s the relationship between the archer and you?!” Hua Huo lightly fell back to the ground like a feather, then gazed at her childhood sweetheart with a skeptical eye. She had never had such a strong killing intent to anybody. Moreover, the archer was just a stranger. She felt that the mysterious archer in red had done some unforgivable things to her Little Xi.

Compared to the killing intent when she saw the twin witches, this time, the killing intent she had was more violent.

Warning! Warning! Warning!

Danger! Danger! Danger!

She couldn’t explain the feeling, but even she had slayed the archer’s dragon and had seriously injured the archer, she still felt worried in her heart.

Nee, Little Xi, what’s the relationship between the archer and you? Why did I feel a murderous rage when I saw her?

“Me... and her?” Because the battle was over too quickly, Yun Xi had just seen a vague figure that was covered by flame particles.

Compared to the tall archer who had killed him dozens of times in the trial, the figure was too slender and gave him a weird feeling.

How could her slender body draw the long black bow? The bow was even taller than her body! Besides, her spiral arrows were even able to threaten hero rank people. Obviously, the archer in red was more dangerous in the real world.

“I don’t know her. I have never seen her before,” Yun Xi shook his head.

He wasn’t lying. He had never seen this elf archer in the real world before. This was a special race and career that only appeared in Western God’s Domain. It was unbelievable to see an elf archer in a remote district like White Lotus Sword Domain.

“Hua Huo, are you in trouble? She was clearly coming to kill you.”

It seemed so obvious that the mysterious archer in red was locking on a special target: Hua Huo.

“You’re right. She was looking for me.” Hua Huo frowned. She had expected that as she showed her talent and power, the shadows of the past would come for her. It was because of her bloodline and identity. At first, she hadn’t thought that Yun Xi would be involved before he was eighteen years old, and she hadn’t hoped for him to be involved at all. However, she had failed to escape from her past. She thought that she could attain peace for a period of time by hiding in the remote White Lotus Sword Domain, but they had still found this place.

Who were they? The Gold Family, Ten Leaves Alliance, or Emptiness God Church?

Many forces were eager for her Sky Flying Bloodline. Due to “that event”, her foster parents took her to the remote White Lotus Sword Domain and let her have ten years of a peaceful life.

Yun Xi was just an ordinary person. He was born in this town and only wanted to run his baker shop. It shouldn't have any connection with him. The red alert of her jealousy radar should be a false alarm. Her Little Xi should have had no contact with the various terrifying forces hiding in Western God's Domain. Besides, the elf archer had white skin. She didn't look like a dark elf assassin from the Ten Leaves Alliance. But that was strange. The elves of Elf Forest always took a liking to Sky Flying Bloodline. They were always allies. Hua Huo couldn't make sense of it. Finally, she gave up thinking about it.

She wasn't good at analysing conspiracies. The inheritors of the Sky Flying Bloodline were always the strongest swords, but not strategists.

"Little Xi, congratulations, you passed the test! Let's go to Sword Palace together!"

Hua Huo smiled and imagined the coming study life. She held Yun Xi's hand, then said with a serious look, "Tonight is the last night you will stay in the town. So, I will allow you to say goodbye to them. From tomorrow, you can't like any other girls!"

Yun Xi looked at his black maid's uniform, then showed a weird smile.

Hua Huo, you forced me to wear this uniform. How will any other girls like me in this case?!

"Ca! Cough!"

In the mountains over ten kilometres range, a bloodstained figure was toppled down beside a stream. She coughed blood and panted.

The black gem on the girl’s forehead started to release all its remaining magical power to rouse her other bloodline. Her skin started to turn black. In addition to her pointed ears, she was obviously the elf’s most hated kin: a dark elf. Her silvery white long hair also had begun to turn grey. This was the dark elf’s normal hair color due to having lived in darkness endlessly.

Chapter 94: The Black-haired Girl’s Legend

The most uproarious celebration – Sword Palace’s entrance test – was all over now. It had really changed the whole small town.

Finally, seventeen candidates had passed the test and had been selected as Sword Palace’s new disciples.

Mei (Yun Xi) took first place in the test.

Hua Yue was the second. As a veritable aristocratic miss, her achievement saved the last shred of honor for the noble families’ camp.

The third was Xiao Cao. She was the representative of female swordsmen and civilian swordsmen.

Originally, the fourth should have been Childe Yun He. However, after losing his Crane Wings Twin Swords, he had gone mad, so he was disqualified and his ranking had been replaced by a female swordsman.

From the fifth to the twelfth, they were all female swordsmen who had obtained seeds from Yun Xi. Till the thirteenth, a noble swordsman held this position because he was lucky enough to avoid fighting with most of the female swordsmen in the test.

Amongst the seventeen selected candidates, fourteen of them were female swordsmen who had obtained the black hair's blessing. This was an unprecedented achievement in the whole history of White Lotus Sword Palace's entrance test.

Apart from the seventeen selected people, there were also other candidates that had shown amazing power and potential in the test. They had also received an opportunity. These candidates' average level was really beyond everyone's imagination. Therefore, the shortlist had also created a new record.

There were a total of thirty people who got the opportunity to go to Sword Palace. Although when compared to the seventeen selected people, the rest of the people were only recognized as Sword Palace's apprentices, but they still had a chance to become formal disciples.

As the two Childees who unfortunately met Yun Xi, Childe Si Nian and Childe San Quan were both on the shortlist. It wasn't hard for them to become formal disciples, however, they would wait for at least half a year before they they could achieve that.

Apart from the already selected female swordsmen, the other female swordsmen were all on the shortlist. This meant that all the female swordsmen had obtained the opportunity to join Sword Palace.

Night was approaching. The noble swordsmen and the civilian swordsmen who had passed the test called their friends to hold parties in different places. The civilian swordsmen had a drink at this time. Although they were drinking the cheapest bad wines and eating grilled pig legs, they also drank till all's blue.

From the beginning, only very few civilian swordsmen had the confidence to enter the formal admission list. In their hearts, entering the shortlist was already their best luck. After all, compared to the people from noble families, these civilian swordsmen didn't have too many chances to acquire resources and education. That was too difficult for them.

Beside a campfire in the countryside, a group of civilian swordsmen were drinking and boasting.

"Hey, Li, you were really impressive! You have entered the top thirty-two! You were only one step away from becoming one of the top sixteen!"

Everyone was around a second-ranked swordsman. He was a civilian swordsman but his name had been fortunately written on the shortlist just like the several childe.

"Ha ha, I was too lucky. These Childe had all been defeated by these little girls. It was really an eye opening experience."

"Yes, they were too strong! I have never seen any female swordsmen stronger than them!"

"I think there must be some trick! I know Xiao Cao and had once had a battle with her. She spent one hour to defeat me at that time!"

They were really drunk. Many people started to shout at each other with the smell of alcohol on their breaths. After all, the result of the Sword Palace's entrance test was beyond everyone's expectation. No one had expected that these female swordsmen would acquire such an impressive success.

At the same time, the people from noble families were also talking about this in the restaurant. They were eating peacock meat, medium done snow beef, and drinking aged wines. The price of a bottle of the aged wine they were drinking was enough to let the civilian swordsmen hold their dinner party for a whole month.

“Brother Yun, Yun family will count on you from now on.”

“Yes. Your brother is really good for nothing. After losing Crane Wings Twin Swords, his ambition has been burned to the ground. What the hell is that kind of attitude?!”

Everyone was proposing a toast to Yun He family’s second young master. He was also one of the top-three stone soldiers who tortured Yun Xi dozens of times in the first district of the stars trial.

In all fairness, his power was indeed decent. He was only slightly inferior to Childe San Quan, Childe Si Nian, and Childe Yun He. He was also one of the few noble swordsmen who had defeated their female opponents. His name did deserve to be added in the formal admission list.

In the Sword Palace’s entrance test, the three childe had all been defeated by the mysterious black-haired maid. In that case, the second young master’s performance was indeed excellent if compared to other candidates from noble families.

Of course, at the end, Hua Yue defeated him. However, Hua Yue was an excellent aristocratic miss that could awaken her White Gold Rose Bloodline in front of everyone. It wasn’t a shame to be defeated by her.

The were drinking and talking. Gradually, they began to discuss these female swordsmen.

“What the hell had happened to them? How could they be so strong?!”

“Hua Yue is an exception. She does have a natural talent for sword skills. However, what was wrong with other girls? They are simply some village girls!”

“Can you believe it? I lost to my sister! That was unbelievable! In the practices before we came here, I could defeat her with one hand only!”

“Yes. I know some of those noble girls. I’m very sure that none of them are super geniuses except Hua Yue!”

They were all drunk, and now, they were all posing questions to their friends and each other. It looked like no matter whether they were rich or poor, everyone was curious about this. Soon afterwards, a rumor started to spread amongst these people.

“I heard that they had obtained some treasures that could bring good luck.”

“Can that legend be true?”

“Yes, I saw them receiving the mysterious black-haired maid’s black hair!”

“What?! That legend is true?!”

“The maid’s black hair could really bring good luck!”

“Achoo!” After returning to his room and taking off the maid’s black uniform, Yun Xi suddenly felt a cold chill flowing through his back.

Chapter 95: Profess My Love

“I’m back!” Yun Xi gazed at his own face in the mirror and hypnotized himself that nothing had changed. He was still himself, not the greatsword maid “Mei”. Well, if he could ignore his flawless skin, black and smooth black hair, and deep eyes, which were so unfamiliar even to himself, nothing changed...

Ok, Yun Xi couldn’t keep cheating himself anymore.

The truth was: after obtaining the Killing Princess’s legacy, all of him had been transformed. That was a change that happened to his animacy hierarchy, and this was just the beginning. The greatsword maid’s legacy was more powerful than Yun Xi’s imagination. It had already started to change his bloodline.

“Master, isn’t it good to become stronger?” Mei’er was glad to see Yun Xi’s change. The stronger her master was, the higher the possibility that he could escape from his ex-girlfriends’ deadly chase.

His body of flesh and blood was just like a small container. If he wanted to use his true starchild power, he needed to strengthen his soul to a higher rank. However, if there was a way to make the small container more perfect, that would also be good.

“You don’t understand. If this goes on, I’m afraid that something very bad will happen to me,” Yun Xi smiled bitterly as he gazed at his image.

A week ago, he was still an ordinary baker. But now, he had to escape from his four god-like ex-girlfriends. Who else could understand his feeling?!

They sent a legend-ranked apostle to White Lotus Sword Domain to search for him! Any person who was at the legend rank was strong enough to destroy a whole sword domain! As far as Yun Xi knew, the whole White Lotus Sword Domain didn't have any swordsman who was at this rank!

The strongest people Yun Xi had seen were the twin witches, White Lotus and Red Lotus. They were at the hero rank and their power was already beyond a mortal's imagination. He couldn't imagine how powerful a legend-ranked apostle would be.

After tonight, he would wear the maid's black uniform again and went to Sword Palace together with Hua Huo. He must hide his identity and even his gender. In order to escape from his ex-girlfriends' hunting, he must become stronger and stronger in the stars trial by dying endless times.

Tonight was the last night he would stay in this ordinary town where he had been born and lived for fourteen years. His past dream would be buried after tonight. He wanted to inherit the baker shop and marry one of the town girls. He would have many children, and after he was old, he would tell them that when he was young, he had had a brilliant childhood sweetheart. He would remember how they met each other, growing up together, and finally separated from each other.

In the spring, they would go and see the blossoming of flowers and gather tender leaves in the plains near town. They would make a flower basket and take a walk with holding the flower basket in their arms together.

In summer, they would take the fishing net to the stream to catch fish and prawns. They would smile and play together.

In autumn, they would go to a secluded valley. He would tell her the story about his brilliant childhood sweetheart under the tree.

In winter, they would sit side by side by the heater, eating oranges together and discussing the development plan of their baker shop.

After that, they would have three children. He hoped that there would be one girl and two boys. He would watch them grow up, and have their own lovers and lives. Finally, one autumn, his life would end. He would close his eyes with his family members circling around his bed.

That would be a very ordinary life, but that was what Yun Xi hoped. Hua Huo was his first lover and his favourite girl. However, he knew she wouldn't stay in town. She was like the fireworks in summer, shining between heaven and earth, but would finally disappear in the sky, and disappear from his life.

Yun Xi didn't dare to have any extravagant hope that they could stay together forever. She was the sun, a bright light that could light up the universe. She was the sky, free and boundless. In his eyes, Hua Huo was so bright and so resplendent. Even when Hua Huo displayed her Flying Swallow Sword, her talent was already far beyond his and made him feel it was unreachable, not to mention that she had displayed her Sky Flying Sword and slayed the dragon with one attack.

"Hua Huo, do you know how good you are?" Yun Xi stood in front of the mirror. He whispered, as if he was saying "goodbye" to his past. "You're as bright as the summer. You're my sun. I want to touch you, but worry about your scorching light. You're so glamorous, so beautiful, and so tempting. I never thought that I could stay beside you in the future. I love you, Hua Huo. I like the way you run, the gesture when you brandish your sword, and your face when you sweat. Hua Huo, if I live for only eighteen years, then the ten years I stayed with you will be the greatest treasure of my life."

Yun Xi didn't, and wasn't able to realize that outside of his window, Hua Huo was standing on a transparent light ring, gazing at him with an unbelievable look.

"Eh? Ah? Gee?"

Hua Huo's face was as red as a mellow apple. At first, she didn't trust her childhood sweetheart and planned to eavesdrop on his farewell to other girls, but now, she heard his biggest secret, which she shouldn't have heard but couldn't stop herself from hearing.

So, her Little Xi also liked her so much. Yes, that was right and reasonable. After all, she was his childhood sweetheart and would be his fiancée! He of course also liked her!

However, the smile on the corner of her mouth exposed the exultation in her heart.

Yun Xi was professing his love to her! Her Little Xi, her unique childhood sweetheart, her most favorite person in the world, was professing his love to her! She won! Ha ha ha, as she expected, childhood sweetheart was the strongest winner! After all, she was the first! No one could catch up with her!

Ha ha ha! That is great! Today is I, Hua Huo's victory day!

Hua Huo boldly laughed. She couldn't restrain her blood from boiling. Therefore, she stepped on one transparent light ring after another, dashing into the sky. A great amount of vigour was flowing in her body, making her heart beat faster with her face blushing. She couldn't control her passion and had to fly into the sky to unleash her powerful vigour.

Today was her happiest day in her life.

Little Xi, I love you, too. I like the shyness on your face, and the butter bread you specially made for me. You know nothing about my past and the responsibility my bloodline that is a burden. You don't know how special I am. However, you still like me. You like the purest part of me, the true me. Hence, I also like the pure you, my Little Xi.

No matter whether one thousand years pass, or ten thousand years pass, a promise is always a promise. It will never be changed. The promise of marrying you will never expire.

Chapter 96: The Childhood Sweethearts (1)

Yun Xi opened the window and saw a starry sky. Tonight, the great stars were still shining in the sky. In the bamboo house not far away from Yun Xi's house, people from the noble families were drinking and talking, making the originally quiet small town become noisy.

"It's midnight, 12 o'clock," Yun Xi confirmed the time, then left his room.

Tonight, he had dates with three girls.

At 1 o'clock in the morning, he would go to see El'phyllis, the eldest daughter of the gem store in the neighboring town.

At 2 o'clock in the morning, he would go to see Milei, the young lady from the flower shop down the street.

At 3 o'clock, he would go to see Ye Li, the little girl from the cake shop across the street.

El'phyllis was the eldest girl. She was one year older than Yun Xi and often let Yun Xi feel that she was like his elder sister. Milei just moved into the small town a few years ago. She was a little younger than Yun Xi. Ye Li was a little girl Yun Xi often took care of since his childhood. In every sense, she was the cutest girl.

Originally, Yun Xi had planned to marry one of the three girls after Hua Huo left the town. Hua Huo was a genius and she wouldn't stay in such a small town. In Yun Xi's heart, he would propose to one of the three girls and spend his life with her.

Of course, this was just his past plan. Apart from the eldest girl, El'phyllis, who maintained a relationship of "We are friends, not two lovers" with him, the other two girls, Milei and Ye Li were just two girls who were close to him.

Well, at least, Yun Xi thought that way. Tomorrow, he would leave the town. He would go to the White Lotus Sword Domain sword tip district, starting a brand new life.

Tonight was the last night he would stay in the town. Maybe he would come back someday, but he knew he was unable to achieve his dream of spending his life in the town till his death in his bed.

He wanted to bid farewell to the town. Therefore, he asked the three girls out to say goodbye to them in different times and different places.

At 1 o'clock in the morning and beside the stream.

"Sorry, I'm late!" A silver-haired girl in a straw hat ran to Yun Xi. She was puffed with a guilty look.

Her eyes were as clear as pure white; her silver hair was hanging down on her shoulders; her white strap dress was dotted with little rubies; her two small dimples were ineffably cute. She was one of Yun Xi's childhood sweethearts, El'phyllis.

Her ancestors had moved their residence from Western God's Domain to White Lotus Sword Domain just like Hua Huo and Hua Yue's families had. Even in Western God's Domain, her silver hair was also proof of a kind of rare noble bloodline.

As the eldest girl of Yun Xi's childhood sweethearts, her skin was as crystal as white jade in the moonlight. She had a slender body and a delicate face. Her eyes were so glamorous. It was said that in the neighboring town, the number of young men who had asked her to marry them were enough to circle around the town for ten rounds.

"Never mind, Phili," Yun Xi smiled and called her nickname. This was their secret, and only Yun Xi could call her that nickname.

"Yun Xi, it is so late... what's the thing you have to tell me so late at night?" El'phyllis gazed at Yun Xi with hope in her eyes which made Yun Xi find it so difficult to tell her the news.

"Well... in fact... I... I will leave this town for a period of time..." Yun Xi didn't dare to look at El'phyllis's eyes. Amongst the three girls, she was the most outstanding girl and was of a similar age to him. The most important thing was: She seemed to have a vague favourable impression of him.

"I see. You will go to Sword Palace together with Hua Huo, right?"

Unexpectedly, El'phyllis had already known the news. That was strange. How could she know? He was using the identity as greatsword maid "Mei" to take part in the Sword Palace's entrance test.

"Hua Huo will go to Sword Palace, but she won't just leave you here. I had already understood this from a long time ago," El'phyllis bravely raised her head with a sad look. Her expression looked like she was going to cry at any time.

“No... in fact...” Yun Xi couldn’t tell her the truth. How could he tell her that he would go to Sword Palace as a maid!

“Finally, you chose Hua Huo?” El’phyllis pinched the bottom of her dress with her two hands. She looked as if she was enduring something.

“No, not I chose Hua Huo, but Hua Huo chose me,” Yun Xi surrendered. He couldn’t just see her that expression and do nothing, so he told her the truth.

“Well... is that true? So... I still have chance?” El’phyllis’s eyes suddenly brightened up with excitement.

Yun Xi chose Hua Huo and Hua Huo chose Yun Xi were two different things. They had completely different meanings. If it was the former, she would have no chance. If it was the latter, there was still hope – Even if it was just a negligible possibility.

She would never admit defeat till the last moment! She would never give up till the last second! As the proverb said, “She who laughs last laughs best”. She hadn’t been defeated! Hua Huo gained an advantage, but the battle hadn’t ended yet. At least, she hadn’t had any leverage.

“Phili...” Yun Xi found that he couldn’t understand what she was thinking. Her expression looked strange.

From tomorrow on, they would have no chance to meet each other. Thinking of that, Yun Xi’s heart was full of sadness. However, at least, he could do the last thing for her and the others. This was the only thing he could do for them before he left the small town.

“Mei’er, prepare the seed,” Yun Xi spoke to his star elf in his mind, then started to use his special ability. This was the only and unique spiritual ability he had after he obtained the Starchild’s Love System. He wanted to give her his seed.

“Detect the target. Wonderful adaptability. Start to link the target.”

As Yun Xi had expected, since Hua Yue and Xiao Cao could have excellent adaptability with him, then as his childhood sweetheart, El’phyllis shouldn’t be an exception. Yun Xi’s seed entered El’phyllis’s body without any difficulty. However, Yun Xi suddenly found something strange in her body. It looked like a mist-like thing that was protecting a part of her body.

Yun Xi was puzzled. However, at this time, El’phyllis stood on her toes and softly kissed his mouth.

Chapter 97: The Childhood Sweethearts (2)

El’phyllis’s kiss was more serious than at any time before. It wasn’t a game. It was a declaration. Even though she knew that her rival was Hua Huo, she wouldn’t give up. She was Yun Xi’s most intimate person other than Hua Huo.

She was about the same age as Hua Huo and had a more matured mind. Her appearance and temperament were also not inferior to Hua Huo. However, as a girl of the nobility, she didn’t even have any betrothal with anyone. That was a pretty strange thing especially in White Lotus Sword Domain.

As far as Yun Xi knew, the suitors she had refused were ten times more than the people Hua Huo had refused.

“Yun Xi, remember, don’t give up. I will find some way to help you!” El’phyllis held Yun Xi’s both hands tightly. She really didn’t want to let him go.

Finally, as Yun Xi gazed at her with amazement, she ground her teeth, then determinedly turned around and ran away.

“Ah... Gee... What did she mean... Has she known something?” Yun Xi stood beside the stream like a wood pile. He was confused and didn’t know what had happened.

After leaving Yun Xi’s sight, El’phyllis had a long walk. Finally, she stopped with an apathetic look. At the same time, her temperament suddenly changed. That was absolutely not some temperament that a daughter of gem store could have.

“Pa! Pa! Pa!” One ruby after another dropped down from her dress and fell on the ground, turning into ashes.

“Curse you... Why did I fail?! Hua Huo, you’re really my enemy! Sky Flying Bloodline? Is that the reason that you can have everything wonderful in the world? I’m the person who loves Yun Xi the best!” El’phyllis showed undisguised hostility. She slightly showed her another face at this time.

“Calm down, my little girl. You shouldn’t privately order Black Obsidian to assassinate Hua Huo. You knew that she was no match for Hua Huo,” An old voice suddenly came from the shadow behind El’phyllis.

“Then what should I do? She is going to take Yun Xi away! Only Yun Xi, only he... I don’t want to let him go!” El’phyllis bit her handkerchief looking like she was going to break out into weeping.

At first, it was just a simple mission. She only needed to watch Hua Huo. The Sky Flying Bloodline legacy had a bearing on many people's lives. However, as the aristocratic miss of Ten Leaves Alliance, the first time she used her privilege wasn't for the bloodline but for an irrelevant ordinary boy.

"Sigh... I will keep this a secret from the alliance, but you should give up on that boy as soon as possible. After all, he is just an ordinary person and you have the Mist Bloodline. He can't hold a candle to you."

"No! I don't want it! This is the first time in my life that I'm so eager for something. Even though my rival is Hua Huo, I won't give up! Even though he is just an ordinary person, I want him to be my thing! Don't persuade me. Let's go back to Western God's Domain and hold the Great Ritual of Mist Bloodline!" El'phyllis's eyes were so firm. She had made the decision, and no one could stop her.

"Sigh..." Finally, the old figure in the shadow sighed.

"If at that time Yun Xi had agreed to marry El'phyllis, that would be the best solution and nothing would happen after," the old figure thought in his heart.

As the first successor of the first leaf of Ten Leaves Alliance and the owner of Mist Bloodline, El'phyllis was so weak at dealing with her love. Perhaps this would become El'phyllis's greatest regret in her life.

At 2'clock in the morning and on the meadow beside the town.

"You're late, brother," Milei opened her mischievous eyes wide, seeing Yun Xi running to her in a hurry.

She was a twelve-year-old girl. She had golden hair and a pair of purple eyes. Her soft lips were as red as rubies, striking and eye-catching. Her smooth golden hair fell on her slender shoulders like a waterfall, making her look like a princess from a fairy tale.

Yun Xi remembered that her name "Milei", was also a goddess's name in western mythology, and Milei herself was as graceful as her name, having a princess-like temperament.

"Sorry, something happened," Yun Xi was still confused about the last words had El'phyllis said to him. After all, he had once considered her as his fiancée candidate. If he hadn't awakened his ability as the starchild, after Hua Huo left town he would probably have married her when he was eighteen years old.

"Let me guess. You went to see El'phyllis, didn't you? Look, these are her jewel powders, let me help you get them off of your clothes. She always uses them to make a mark. If Hua Huo sees them, she will be angry."

Milei's expression of "I have seen through everything" made Yun Xi feel pretty embarrassed. She was really a naughty girl, but she was also a considerate girl. This was her advantage and glamour. It was really fun to stay with Milei. She never lacked patience to listen your troubles and comfort you with a smile. Yun Xi often had a dissonant feeling that she didn't look like a twelve year old girl but was more matured.

"Well... in fact... I'm going to..." Yun Xi said haltingly.

However, before he finished his words, Milei shrugged her shoulders and said what he was going to say, "You will leave town with Hua Huo. Am I right?"

Why did you know it? Yun Xi was dumbfounded. Why had Milei and El'phyllis both known about it?!

“Ha ha, don’t look at me like that. It isn’t a surprise to guess that Hua Huo won’t just leave you here,” Milei climbed up the tree branch and gazed at the western horizon. “In fact, I will also leave here. All these years, I’ve been really happy to have you staying with me. It’s so fantastic and wonderful, just like a sweet dream. However, no fond dream doesn’t have an end, and my dream is going to finish. For the last time, can I call you ‘brother’ again? This is my last hope as your childhood sweetheart.”

“Of course, Milei...” Yun Xi was touched. His childhood sweetheart was still so considerate.

“Well, brother!” Milei jumped down from the tree with a sweet and naughty smile.

Ah, so this was your plan!

Yun Xi softly hugged Milei’s slender body in his arms. For the first time, Milei behaved so wilful. The girl in his arms was so light. Yun Xi could barely feel her weight.

“This... really is a nice dream...” Milei whispered and leaned her head on Yun Xi’s chest.

Chapter 97: The Childhood Sweethearts (3)

“Brother...” Yun Xi held Milei in his arms, treating her like a princess. Milei leaned her forehead against Yun Xi’s chest and emitted a sweet groan.

“Peng! Peng! Peng!” Looking at Milei, Yun Xi couldn’t stop his heart from pounding.

Why did El'phyllis and Milei both look different today, but also cuter than usual? They were hinting something at him.

"Milei... I..." Yun Xi opened his mouth and tried to say something, however, Milei's lips made him swallow his words.

"Eh... Ah..." Milei emitted a cute sound. Her face blushed like a red apple.

This wasn't a playful kiss. It was more meaningful. Milei said nothing, but Yun Xi had understood her pure purpose.

"I really want to have this dream forever... brother... My Brother Yun Xi!" Milei showed a lonely look on her face, then left Yun Xi's arms with sadness.

"For the first time in my life, I fell in love with someone, and at the same time, I met my lifelong friend. The two joys overlapped together, and the double joy brought me more and more joy. I really had a fantastic, happy time. However, why does every sweet dream have to end? This dream was really too fantastic."

Yun Xi stroked his lips. This was his second kiss this night. Why had his childhood sweethearts suddenly become so proactive? Was it because of Hua Huo?

"Sorry. I disappointed you, brother. But sometimes, your thoughtful Milei also has her own problems," Milei gazed at Yun Xi's confused face, then smiled lightly.

“Since it’s a dream, then... I don’t want to let this sweet dream have an end! For the first time since I was born, I want to keep something and have something. Even though that means that I have to fight against the strongest person who is loved by the world. Brother, I have made a decision.”

Decision? The strongest person who is loved by the world? Milei, what were you saying?

Yun Xi didn’t understand. He shook his head and stopped thinking, then reached out his hand and stroked Milei’s hair. He began to make a seed for Milei.

“Detect the target. High adaptability is detected. Start the link.”

Since they were doomed to leave each other’s life, then the last thing he could do for them was to share his seed with them. In that case, maybe they still had a chance to meet each other someday. However, things went just as they had when Yun Xi put the seed into El’phyllis’s body. He felt something strange in Milei’s body.

It was a golden light, very warm, and bright. After his seed entered Milei’s body, it was immediately covered by the warm golden light and passed a very comfortable feeling to Yun Xi through the link.

“Ah...” Milei groaned. She looked around in confusion, then moved her eyes to Yun Xi.

Could it be? Did she find something?

The warm golden light seemed to like his seed, which he made by using his star power. It had completely absorbed his seed.

“Brother, I’m going to leave. But don’t worry, we will meet each other again soon after, and I will let you feel surprise at that time!” Milei gently raised the corner of her dress, making an old etiquette, then kissed Yun Xi’s hand.

“Ah. I believe you will become the most beautiful Princess Milei at that time!” Yun Xi blessed for his childhood sweetheart, the fragrant Milei.

Countless flowers were blossoming on the ground. Countless golden sunflowers were emitting splendid golden lights to the floating golden palaces in the sky. Every golden petal was singing. They were praising the return of the great princess. They were eulogizing the great history of the Golden family.

In the sky, one solar prism after another were refracting bright sunshine on the floating old palaces, to remind all the members of the Golden family a thing: Their great princess had just returned. She had just opened her eyes from her deep dream.

Due to her return, the world had the sun’s blessing again. In an old, golden palace, a girl was sleeping in a crystal coffin and was covered by golden petals. Now, she slowly opened her eyes. Her skin was as white as snow, her eyes were as clear as crystal, and her pupils were as blue as the sea. For she had slept for such a long time, her golden hair had grown up to her ankles.

“Princess Milei!”

“Our princess awakes!”

“Praise the sun! Praise the stars! Praise the gold! Praise our great, holy Princess Milei!”

“Rhine’s princess! The golden princess!”

On her finger, there was a golden ring. It was the artifact which was symbolic of the Golden family’s highest belief. It was a mission that only the Rhine Bloodline could start and finish. At the same time, it was also a curse which had been handed down from age to age in the Golden family.

It was said that the ring’s master was doomed to rule the world, but would also taste the greatest tragedy in the world. Only the girl who had the most pure and holy Rhine Bloodline could break away from this curse and bring the greatest honor for the family.

The Rhine Princess, the child of the Golden family, was a child of god who was doomed to rule the world. However, after returning from the reality from her dream, the child of god was full of loss and sorrow in her heart.

“The dream finally comes to its end. The reality is still so boring. Day in and day out, nothing has changed.” She sighed.

“El’phyllis should have returned to Ten Leaves Alliance. Therefore, our battle is just beginning. Hua Huo, you won’t be the last winner. In the name of the holy Golden Ring, I swear I will fulfil my oath.”

She raised her head with steadiness in her eyes, “I will be your enemy!”

On the hill in the west of the small town, Yun Xi finally saw his last childhood sweetheart. No, that wasn't very accurate. The girl was too young. He could barely call her "childhood sweetheart". From one year old to nine years old, from beginning to learn how to walk to playing his daughter in the game "Play House", Yun Xi had witnessed her life.

She was Ye Li, ten years old this year and was the most popular girl, and all the townspeople's treasure.

"Papa!" The cute girl held her little bear doll in her arms and smiled sweetly at Yun Xi.

Chapter 98: Ye Li's Allure

Ye Li was the cutest and most popular girl in the small town.

Tonight, she wore white western style clothes with hem laces and two carefully combed beautiful golden long pigtailed on her head. In addition to this, she also wore a red bowknot hairband on her head, which was presented to her by Yun Xi in the past.

Now, she was holding a teddy bear in her arms. Her temperament was as elegant as a little princess, and her appearance was like a beautiful fallen angel. If she stood inside a shop front window, no one would know she was not a delicate doll.

Her legs were slim, and her white stockings were silhouetted against her snow-white skin. After she realized Yun Xi's gazing, her face burned with embarrassment. Her skin was as smooth as silk fabric and as tender as baby's skin. Her chest was still undeveloped and flat like a scrub board, couldn't even be compared to a pair of poached eggs.

"Papa!" In the past, Ye Li always acted as Yun Xi's daughter in the game "Playing House". She had gotten used to calling Yun Xi that. However, Yun Xi had grown up. He felt pretty embarrassed to hear that name.

“Ye Li, you’ve grown up,” Yun Xi said with emotion and stroked her smooth, gold pigtailed. In his memory, she was still the little girl who always ran after him whilst holding her little teddy bear in her arms . Now, she had gradually become a cute girl.

Although she was only nine years old, no one would doubt she would become a wonderful lady in the future.

“Papa, hug me!” Ye Li raised her little teddy bear, acting like a spoilt child.

“Eh,” Yun Xi had watched her grow up from childhood. He naturally hugged Ye Li in his arms and patted her back.

Ye Li’s smell was as sweet as cream. She was like a gentle kitten, acting very cute and docile in Yun Xi’s arms.

“Ye Li, I’m going to leave this town,” Yun Xi gazed at Ye Li’s big eyes and lightly told her the news.

“Together with Hua Huo, Papa?”

“Why? Why did everyone know this?! Had somebody posted it on every board in the world?!” Yun Xi complained in his heart. He had to accept the truth that every one of his childhood sweethearts had known that he would go to Sword Palace with Hua Huo.

“Well... yes. We will leave town together. It will be for a very long time. Ye Li, will you feel lonely?”
Amongst all his childhood sweethearts, Ye Li was the person Yun Xi cherished most. Compared to Milei and El’phyllis, Ye Li was too young. She would be very sad to hear he had to leave.

As the youngest playmate, Ye Li was very dependent on him. Therefore, Yun Xi purposely chose her as the last person to tell her he was leaving. He had prepared to comfort her the whole night.

“Papa, I’m not good enough for you? Is Hua Huo really that good?”

As Yun Xi had expected, Ye Li pouted. Her expression looked as if she had been robbed her most beloved treasure.

“No. Ye Li is my most favourite girl. However, this isn’t something I can make a decision about.” Yun Xi sighed. In his past plan, he had once thought to wait for Ye Li for another nine years and then marry her after that. He had spent his childhood with Ye Li. During that time, he unconsciously started to like her. He was very sure that nine years later, she would become a glamorous beauty. However, there was no more time for him to see her grow.

He was going to leave, and a few years later, Ye Li would be married to someone else. As Yun Xi thought of that, he suddenly had a heartache.

“No! Papa is Ye Li’s papa! I won’t give you to anybody!” Ye Li was angry. She severely bit on Yun Xi’s lips.

Where did everyone learn it?!

Yun Xi didn’t want to make her cry, so he had to reluctantly accept her kiss. Her lips were as soft as two petals, giving him a totally different feeling from Milei’s kiss and El’phyllis’s kiss. Her mouth was soft and small, only about half the size of Yun Xi's mouth. In that case, Yun Xi's mouth could easily cover her mouth.

Her cute, small tongue was tender and smooth. She contracted her pupils, her breath rasping in her heaving chest. They had a soul kiss, which was totally inappropriate for Ye Li's age. Yun Xi saw Ye Li's face burning with embarrassment, then he realized that he unintentionally used the kissing skill he learned from Mei'er.

"Papa's smell... comfortable..." Ye Li had almost lost her consciousness. She leaned on Yun Xi's chest with her heart pounding heavily.

Yun Xi lowered his head and gazed at Ye Li. Today, she seemed to be more beautiful than usual. Her delicate face made her look like an exquisite doll. On her young face, her eyes were as deep as the sea, but also as clear as a pair of crystals. However, that didn't hide the grief in her heart.

She wore a pair of white silk stockings on her slender legs, which were partly hidden and partly visible under the lower part of her princess dress. Accidentally, a gust of wind raised her dress and coincidentally exposed her white underwear.

Her skin smelled like delicious cream, continuously luring Yun Xi to commit a crime. Ye Li was like a cute angel today, showing Yun Xi her most innocent and cute side without reservation. Her cute, young face was gazing at Yun Xi with pain, supplication and lure.

After that, Ye Li gave Yun Xi her second kiss. With tears in her eyes, she moved her face close to Yun Xi. Her small tongue slowly opened Yun Xi's mouth with sweet milky aroma. Yun Xi felt that her tongue was as nimble as a naughty kitten. Uncontrollably and impulsively, he responded to her enthusiasm.

"Papa... choose Ye Li... please... I'm willing to do that very comfortable thing with papa..." At this moment, Ye Li was an angel, but also a demon. She was luring Yun Xi to tread his foot onto a forbidden path.

Yun Xi suddenly realized that amongst all his childhood sweethearts, Ye Li was the most dangerous one. Because she was still a child, she hadn't learned the moral rules; because she was too innocent, she could easily do things which his other childhood sweethearts wouldn't do.

Ye Li was like a naughty succubus, luring him to descent into hell. Yun Xi believed that any virtuous people would be hard pressed to refuse her temptation.

"No! We can't!... Where did you learn this?!" Fortunately, Yun Xi pulled himself back before he really descended into hell. His Ye Li was his little princess and his little princess couldn't be so ero!

"Well, I learned it from a book named 'The Shameless Demon and His One-thousand Daughters'. The book told me that the most blissful thing to be a daughter is to do that very comfortable thing with her father," Ye Li opened her eyes wide, gazing at Yun Xi with innocence.

Chapter 99: I'm Looking for Your Growth

Who gave that book to Ye Li?

Yun Xi was going crazy.

Wasn't that a banned book? Its name made Yun Xi have a bad impression. It must be a pornographic book that could never be purchased from proper channels.

Ye Li! Don't learn anything from that book! As an exceptional lady, you should know what books you can read and what books you should never touch.

“Papa, don’t you love me now?” Ye Li found that Yun Xi looked angry. She gazed at him with a timid look, as if she were a little animal whose master was scolding it.

“No... This was not your fault,” Yun Xi said and stroked Ye Li’s golden hair, “This was the fault of the person who let you read this book.”

Ye Li was still that little girl in his memory. Her face was still cute, her voice was still sweet, and her body was still soft. Ye Li’s appearance was incredibly cute now. She opened her eyes wide full of unrest and shivered in Yun Xi’s arms.

Yun Xi felt that she was as perfect as an angel. Her warm, soft, slender body was now in his arms. Her long golden hair was hanging down in front of his chest. He could easily smell her milky scent. She was as cute as a flawless doll who was wearing a pair of white silk stockings and a lace dress.

“I like papa the best!” In return, Ye Li also hugged Yun Xi tightly. She hummed a song with a happy smile on her face.

They were so close. Yun Xi could even hear her heartbeating.

That... her heart was beating fast.

“As long as Ye Li can stay with papa, Ye Li won’t feel bored! I hope this moment will last forever!” Ye Li felt that the world was so wonderful right now. She was immersed in her little happiness. To her, she hoped that the time would stop at this moment. She wanted nothing more in the world other than to stay together with her papa. To Ye Li, Yun Xi was her only one, the light of her life, and the fire of her soul. He was her shining sun.

She hoped nothing would tear her apart from Yun Xi. She wanted to have his every second and every breath. Everyone had seen her love to her “papa”. It wasn’t a family love, but some deeper and finer emotion. Its name was “love”.

“Papa, can you make me a promise?” She knew this feeling, and she was eager for Yun Xi, her most valuable treasure in the world. Ye Li didn’t want to be a loser!

“What?” Yun Xi felt guilty to Ye Li. He had already surrendered in his heart. He would do everything he could do for her. This was the only thing he could do to offset his guilt.

“Promise Ye Li that you will be my papa forever! No matter where you go or what you do, never forget Ye Li!”

Yun Xi sighed. Was this her hope? El’phyllis, Milei, and Ye Li were all good girls. If he hadn’t awakened his memory as starchild, after Hua Huo left the town, no matter which girl he would he marry, he thought that they would achieve happiness at the end. However, he couldn’t turn back the clock since he was just a human. He had to go on with his life.

“Eh. I promise that I will never forget Ye Li.”

Therefore, accept my seed, Ye Li!

“Detect the target. Extremely perfect adaptability. Start the link.”

Eh? This was the first time Yun Xi saw the evaluation “extremely perfect”. It wasn’t “normal”, “excellent” or “wonderful”. It was “extremely perfect”. This meant that Ye Li had the best adaptability with his seed. Perhaps it also meant that she had the highest favorability to him.

Yun Xi could even see it through his naked eyes that his seed was growing rapidly in her body. However, there was also something strange in Ye Li's body, just like what he had seen in El'phyllis's body and Milei's body.

It was a chaotic field. Various strange things were mixed with each other in the field. A big eyeball which was floating in the void. A giant teddy bear which was burning. A stone figure which had many arms and legs. It seemed to be pieced together by countless fragments. And an "egg", which was locked in countless black chains.

Compared to El'phyllis and Milei, Ye Li's body was filled with countless messy thing. It looked like an aggregation of countless nightmares.

Why were there so many weird things in Ye Li's body? Shouldn't she be the purest child?

"Papa, don't look inside me!" Ye Li seemed to have discovered Yun Xi's gaze. She blushed, then covered Yun Xi's mouth with her mouth again.

Her kiss contained all her enthusiasm. Her tongue easily opened Yun Xi's mouth, tangling with his tongue.

"Gu Zi! Gu Zi!" An ambiguous sound echoed around them.

Ye Li had put all her love in the kiss. A drop of transparent liquid slowly flowed down from their mouths and dripped on her snow-white skin.

How long had it been? Ten minutes? Or longer? After Yun Xi recovered himself, Ye Li had left his arms, showing a smile with a satisfied look at him.

“Ye Li won’t give up! Hua Huo is strong, but Ye Li isn’t inferior to her! However, I’m still no match for her now, but I can grow up very fast! At that time, I will beat her down and obtain papa’s love again!”

Well, the children nowadays were really precocious. However, you wanted to beat Hua Huo down? That was impossible.

“I need nothing apart from papa! So... wait for me, papa!” Ye Li swayed her slender legs and jumped down from Yun Xi’s arms, then waved her hand to Yun Xi.

“Ah, I will wait for you. I’m looking forwards to your growth,” Yun Xi’s heart also got warmed due to Ye Li’s self-confidence.

She was just a child, but she was so straightforward. Maybe it was because she was still a child, so she could say her heartfelt wishes without worry. Children really worried about nothing. They were a kind of very special creatures. Maybe she really could do that.

Yun Xi suddenly had this strange idea in his heart as Ye Li held her little teddy bear in her arms, bouncing up and down on her way back.

Chapter 100: Emptiness God

“Humph. Ye Li likes papa the best, but I can’t stay with papa! It must be Hua Huo’s fault! I can’t eat papa’s butter bread again! Wu wu wu!”

After leaving Yun Xi's sight, Ye Li also complained just like El'phyllis and Milei had done. At first, Ye Li and the other girls came to this remote sword domain to observe Hua Huo. They disguised themselves and appeared around Hua Huo with different identities and faces.

Everything was due to that legend about Sky Flying Bloodline. As the current owner of Sky Flying Bloodline, Hua Huo was gifted with great talents and was the most likely person to fulfill the prophecy.

As the representative of the Ten Leaves Alliance, El'phyllis pretended to be a daughter of a gem store owner, watching Hua Huo from a distance.

As the representative of the Gold Family, Milei's dream avatar became the daughter of a flower shop owner, quietly watching Hua Huo.

Finally, Ye Li came. She came to this remote sword domain by using the most special method.

At first, Hua Huo was the only center of their world. She was the only reason for them to stay in this remote small town. However, when had it changed? El'phyllis, Milei, and her had all been attracted by the young boy who was always together with Hua Huo. He knew nothing and noticed nothing, but always had a warm smile on his face.

El'phyllis gave up her principle of never breaking into Hua Huo's life. She couldn't stop herself from getting close to that boy.

Milei was just dreaming. However, she also lost herself and made the quiet dream become a sweet dream.

“Why? My race has no soul. Why is my heart so painful? I don’t even have blood in my body.” Ye Li looked at her body, the container which contained her nature, showing a puzzled look on her face.

Ye Li wasn’t a human. She wasn’t even a living being. She was a monster named “Emptiness God”. Everything she had was fake. Her body was fake, her smile was fake, and her soul was fake. This container named “Ye Li” was just a doll for her to move in whilst in town. Because it was just a doll, so she only put the most basic observation system in it.

Although it would grow up as time went by, however, that was just in regards to removing and adding some fillers in the body to cheat ordinary people’s eyes. It shouldn’t become so delicate and cute.

Emptiness God wasn’t a race that had art and imagination. Even though they were one of the most terrible killers in the universe, they were naturally disabled in regards to creativity. This was an incurable flaw. It referred to the nature of Emptiness God race. Long, long ago, Emptiness God race was created as a kind of weapon. The only goal of their existence was to kill and destroy. Even though the ancient times had ended and the Emptiness God race had obtained freedom now, they still couldn’t correct this flaw.

Her true body wasn’t beautiful at all. Anyone would be scared if they saw her true body. After she was reborn in this remote sword domain, she tried her best to design the new body, but only made it not too ugly and scary.

However, when had everything changed? Was it after she got close to Yun Xi feeling his warmth and was hugged by him? Was it after Yun Xi let her wear the cute western dress, the white socks and the red shoes? Was it after Yun Xi hugged her and gave her his blessing, teaching her to clean herself?

She didn’t understand. She couldn’t understand. However, when she stayed together with him and began to call him “papa”, something in her heart had forever changed.

Her “core”, which had become very horrible and fragmented after countless killings and battles, was cured. She became “Ye Li”. She obtained a cute appearance that she had never imagined and no emptiness god had ever had. Her slim legs, soft arms, snow-white skin, and two golden pigtailed, were all presented by “him”. He made her what she was. Therefore, she called him “papa”. It wasn’t just because of the game “Playing House”, but her true belief.

To Ye Li, Yun Xi was her true father. He gave her new life, and a beautiful appearance which the whole Emptiness God race had never had. He was her god who helped her become one of the most beautiful girls in the world. This was a great feat that even the creator of Emptiness God race couldn’t do.

At first, she didn’t have a soul and was just like a monitor for watching Hua Huo. Now, she had her soul and was ignited the light of her life.

“Papa, Ye Li loves you. I think this is the reason why my heart is so painful.”

Emptiness God race was only created to be a kind of killing machine. They were the terror of the void in the legend of Western God’s Domain. She was just a doll. Even though she gained self-awareness as time went by, but she still didn’t understand the meaning of her existence. However, Ye Li knew it now. At first, she had nothing and was just assembled by using some unknown fragments. But now, she had Yun Xi.

To Yun Xi, she was just one of her childhood sweethearts, but to Ye Li, Yun Xi was her everything. He was her miracle and treasure. She would never forget his warmth when he hugged her and gave her his kiss. That must be an enlightenment of her fate.

Ye Li was her papa’s most perfect doll, the hope of Emptiness God race. She knew it now. She shouldn’t let her race’s future rely on Hua Huo, but should grasp it in her own hands!

“In the name of the thirteenth Emptiness God, I summon the twelve dragoons!” Ye Li raised her head, looking at the starry sky while holding the teddy bear in her arms, which was made by Yun Xi and presented to her personally.

Twelve shooting stars flew to her from the ends of the sky. They were Ye Li's personal mounts, covered in meteorite shells. Before the scorching meteorites hit the ground, they shattered. Twelve bluish white figures landed on the ground and immediately half knelt down, circling around Ye Li.

They had ferocious metallic triangular heads, sharp long tails, and towering delta wings. They belonged to the servitor race of Emptiness God race and were Ye Li's war machines. They were not metal products, but also not living beings. They were the mixture of various chaos-type things, the representatives of killing and destruction, and the dominators of the borderlands in Western God's Domain.

"Thank you, papa. Thanks everyone in the world. I, Ye Li, will come back!" Ye Li rode on the cold back of one of the dragoons, looking back at the small town, where she had spent her nine years of life.

For the future of Emptiness God race and in order to defeat Hua Huo, she was going to leave. She would return to her birthplace to get back her true body.

"Let's fly, dragoons!"
