Chapter 911: The Reborn Heavenly Demon

Finally, the Heavenly Demon that appeared before Yun Xi was none of the four Heavenly Demons he knew.

However, it possessed different characteristics from the four Heavenly Demons at the same time.

She was about 1.6 meters tall, seemingly the average height of the four Heavenly Demons, with perfectly curved body lines and flawless, white skin, radiating strength.

Her chest was high and prominent, showcasing Enchantress' inherent advantage, while her slender legs inherited Asura's contours, appearing exceptionally powerful.

On her snowy white forehead, the third eye from Saint Demon slowly opened, exuding a radiance of infinite wisdom.

The Six-eyes Demon Mask, broken and only half remaining, hung from the end of her hair, a testament to the lingering presence of Impermanent.

She was Enchantress and also Saint Demon.

She was Asura and also Impermanent!

Judging from the final stance, Saint Demon did achieve the final victory she envisioned, suppressing the chaotic Enchantress and Asura, hence the facial resemblance between this Heavenly Demon and Saint Demon was the greatest.

However, Impermanent, who had reached the final step of the contract with Yun Xi, only had a small fragment left hanging in her black hair, giving a very weak sense of existence.

"I won..." Saint Demon, who had gained dominance, smiled. Although some parts of her body felt somewhat unfamiliar, especially her heavy chest, she was the ultimate winner.

Impermanent's consciousness fell silent.

Enchantress and Asura were too eager to take the initiative, resulting in their memories being stirred up and thrown into disarray, like clothes thrown into a washing machine before terrifying memory fragments.

In the end, Saint Demon, who entered last, became the one who laughed last.

It appeared to be so.

However, Saint Demon didn't have the chance to celebrate for long before she realized that the tragedy she had encountered was far from over.

Those fragments hadn't disappeared at all!

The memories from the stars continued to erode the existence of the four Heavenly Demons. Yun Xi's contract only weakened the destructive power of these memory fragments to a great extent, but the remaining small part still inflicted fatal harm upon them.

Just less than twenty seconds after gaining control of the body, Saint Demon's consciousness, just like the other three Heavenly Demons, was thrown into the washing machine called "Stellar Memory," undergoing the cleansing of the profound will of the stars.

Therefore, the unique Heavenly Demon that unified the final four Heavenly Demons before Yun Xi had a gaze that instantly became blank.

There was never going to be a winner in this battle from the very beginning.

Even when combined, the soul memories of the four Heavenly Demons were still so insignificant compared to what Elise had glimpsed.

Their failure was destined.

"Uh... Is this my Heavenly Demon?" Yun Xi looked at the Heavenly Demon before him, who was like a blank slate resembling a baby, and felt a sense of distress.

Wasn't it said that the Heavenly Demon summoned by the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll was extremely dangerous, capable of seducing even the monks and making them lose control of themselves in the presence of Enchantress?

If one can resist the temptation of Enchantress, then they can cultivate to reach the realm of seeing me, the Tathagata, and never fear any worldly temptation again.

Why did the Heavenly Demon that he summoned, besides the initial one, become stranger and stranger, and in the end, even the original owner of the black maid outfit he possessed, the Killing Princess Elise, appeared?

Where has Elise gone now?

What is going on with the Heavenly Demon in front of him right now, resembling a blank sheet of paper?

In the mind of the Heavenly Demon, the brilliance of endless stars brushed again and again, almost cleansing the souls of the four Heavenly Demons, especially the most powerful Impermanent Heavenly Demon, from head to toe. Only then did the consciousness of the new Heavenly Demon born from the fusion of the four Heavenly Demons emerge.

This Heavenly Demon is not the Enchantress, not the Saint Demon, not the Asura, nor the Impermanent.

She possesses all the traits of the four Heavenly Demons, including memories and battle modes, but her sense of self is a blank slate, like a child in initial mode.

As she opened her three eyes for the first time, the first thing she saw was Yun Xi.

"Master... master?" The young Heavenly Demon looked at Yun Xi and spoke for the first time.

As a completely new Heavenly Demon that has never been born in the history of Heavenly Demons, she possesses the talents of three higher-ranked Heavenly Demons and one Supreme Heavenly Demon.

"Charm," "wisdom," and "strength" are all at their maximum racial values, along with the "mystery" that only Supreme Heavenly Demons possess. This is the strongest young Heavenly Demon to be born in the history of the Heavenly Demon race, a newborn Heavenly Demon with infinite potential.

"Elise?" Yun Xi only knew the true name of the last appearing Impermanent Heavenly Demon but had no idea of the importance of this true name to the Impermanent Heavenly Demon.

"Elise... my name," she replied with a smile, accepting the name.

As if being recognized by the world, the Six-eyes Demon Mask, which was originally in a fragmented state, began to regenerate rapidly.

Although it had not fully regained its perfect state, that is, the pseudo-ninth rank of the Supreme Heavenly Demon, the recast Six-eyes Demon Mask became even more exquisite, with each eye radiating an eerie and mysterious brilliance.

She is not the Killing Princess Elise.

The real Elise had actually died during the seven days and seven nights battle with Cerberus.

And she, too, is not that Impermanent Heavenly Demon.

Impermanent Heavenly Demon Elise was born from the body of Elise in response to her dying wish, a Supreme Heavenly Demon.

If one were to insist, she should be the third incarnation of Elise, a young Heavenly Demon born from the body of the second incarnation, Supreme Heavenly Demon Elise, having merged with three higher-ranked Heavenly Demons of the same race.

She possesses the traits of three higher-ranked Heavenly Demons as well as those of her mother, Impermanent Heavenly Demon Elise.

She has four different forms: the "Enchantress" that enhances seductive power, the "Saint Demon" that enhances wisdom, the "Asura" that enhances combat strength, and the most powerful and terrifying "Impermanent" Supreme Heavenly Demon.

Being able to switch between four postures and choose the most suitable Heavenly Demon form is the innate talent of the newly born Elise.

Moreover, her racial value grants her the potential for further evolution towards a higher level.

Humans cannot comprehend the form of existence of the Heavenly Demon. This immortal and extraordinary presence possesses an extremely terrifying adaptability.

Faced with the overwhelming burden of the stellar memories, the four Heavenly Demons made the same choice.

Abandoning their selves and shattering their own concepts, the four Heavenly Demons merged together, with "Impermanent" as their core, to form a completely new Heavenly Demon body.

All of this is based on the agreement of the four Heavenly Demons and the contract established with Yun Xi. Only by doing so can they survive the washing of the stellar memories.

Finally, what was born is a Heavenly Demon that has never existed in the history of the Heavenly Demon population.

This is a Heavenly Demon that possesses the power of the stars from the moment of its birth.

This is the only one in the entire endless god's domains, named "Starry Celestial Demon" - Elise.

Chapter 912: Your Heavenly Demon

Self-destruction caused by the memory of the stars.

Also, because of the memory of the stars, it resurfaced from the wreckage once again.

She is unique, the Heavenly Demon Elise belonging to Yun Xi.

Unaware of the ecological nature of the Heavenly Demon race, he had no idea of the terror he had brought about.

For him, who had been kissed by the four Heavenly Demons, the Elise in front of him was just a natural product of his cultivation of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Hmm, let us keep silent for three seconds about the ignorance of the youth.

"Yes, I am the Heavenly Demon of my master." Elise sweetly smiled.

Just as a newly hatched bird naturally regards the first creature it sees as its mother, Elise, who has been washed by the memory of the stars, naturally sees Yun Xi as the most important person to her.

Enchantress, Saint Demon, Asura, and Impermanent, the four Heavenly Demons, have all become part of Elise.

"So, what just happened?" Yun Xi is still confused until now. The ritual of the contract with the Heavenly Demon, why is it completely different from what is recorded in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll?

"That's because... as my master, you have the potential to become a Heavenly Demon, so many Heavenly Demons responded to your call." Elise walked to Yun Xi's side, tilted her small head, and instantly transformed.

Enchantress, reappear.

"Master, this is Enchantress, one of my incarnations." The peerless Enchantress, who possesses stunning beauty with every move and a single glance that can cause romantic troubles, appeared again in front of Yun Xi.

"Ah... it's her!" For Yun Xi, this is probably the only familiar Heavenly Demon, the orthodox Heavenly Demon recorded in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Enchantress, a Heavenly Demon who excels at seduction." Elise licked Yun Xi's ear and instinctively wrapped her arms around his.

Indeed, her charm is overwhelming! Yun Xi's heart raced with the alluring embrace of warmth and tenderness. She truly lived up to the description of the Heavenly Demon that could seduce even the most steadfast monks, as documented in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

"Next is the Saint Demon, a Heavenly Demon who advocates for wisdom and possesses divinity." Elise transformed once again, appearing before Yun Xi as the Saint Demon donning a pristine white robe.

That sacred and inviolable aura, coupled with an irresistible charm that made one want to protect her like a dependent bird, possessed a delicate strength that no one would associate with a being called "Heavenly Demon."

"In the name of the Saint Demon, I bestow upon you the blessings of a saint." Mischievously, Elise pointed her finger at Yun Xi's forehead and bestowed a genuine and sacred blessing.

Among the Heavenly Demon clan, the Saint Demon is the only one beloved by even the deities themselves. They are considered the prime candidates for saintly positions and are born as children of destiny.

"Lastly, there's this." The pristine robe was engulfed in raging flames, as if a ferocious demon was about to be born.

Flames danced around her hair, and Elise transformed into the form of Asura.

She was a monster that roamed the battlefield, a nightmare born from mountains of corpses and seas of blood, a killing machine tainted by the scent of endless bloodshed.

In her eyes burned an unyielding and ceaseless intent to kill.

"Asura, the strongest battle-oriented Heavenly Demon; aside from Impermanent, her combat ability surpasses all others."

"Lastly, there's my original form, Impermanent." Elise put on the mask of the Six-eyed Heavenly Demon and smiled faintly at Yun Xi.

Yun Xi couldn't explain why, but when he looked at Elise wearing the Six-eyes Demon Mask, he couldn't help but feel that she exuded a sense of mystery.

Compared to the enchanting Enchantress, the wise Saint Demon, and the deadly Asura, there was always a sense of uncertainty and elusiveness surrounding "Impermanent."

She was clearly here, yet it felt as if she were still beyond reach, in a distant place.

If it weren't for the soothing presence emanating from her, Yun Xi would find it hard to believe that this Heavenly Demon belonged to him.

"Because I paid a significant price during the recent contract, the power of Impermanent cannot be utilized extensively for now." Elise took off the Six-eyes Demon Mask that symbolized Impermanent and revealed her exquisite face.

At the final moment of completing the contract, all four Heavenly Demons were nearly wiped out simultaneously. The current Elise is a fusion of the four Heavenly Demons, with Impermanent as the core, resurrected as a newborn Heavenly Demon.

The four descending Heavenly Demons had their powers almost entirely reset. Now, Elise needs to rebuild her strength from scratch.

"Master, which appearance do you prefer?" As time passed, Elise's gaze became increasingly clear.

The allure of the Enchantress.

The wisdom of the Saint Demon.

The combat talent of Asura.

The mystery of Impermanent.

As a fusion of four Heavenly Demons, the sole Starry Celestial Demon, even in its infancy, began to display its charm.

The existence of Heavenly Demons is inherently ever-changing, with infinite possibilities.

"Hmm, either one is fine. Help me with my cultivation," said Yun Xi, actually quite content with just the original Enchantress.

Summoning Elise unexpectedly, along with four different Heavenly Demon forms, was like a buy one get four free deal!

"I understand, Master. Let's begin our cultivation," Elise covered her small mouth and giggled.

Their adorable Master was truly as innocent as a sheet of white paper.

Isn't cultivation with Heavenly Demon just about being affectionate and Pafu Pafu?

Nevertheless, they couldn't cross that line yet; they had to be a well-behaved and obedient Heavenly Demon.

The four disobedient and reckless Heavenly Demons, who dared to lay hands on their Master, which also happened to be Elise's own mothers, had taught her a bloody lesson about the consequences of such actions.

In order to avoid repeating the tragedy of her mothers, Elise started to gradually improve her favor with their Master and slowly began her duties as a Heavenly Demon.

So, Yun Xi finally began the orthodox cultivation recorded in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Hmm, it was in this almost stagnant Heavenly Demon realm that he continuously visualized the forms of the Heavenly Demons.

However, unlike other monks who cultivated the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, the Heavenly Demon appearing before Yun Xi always kept changing.

At times, wearing a sheer veil that almost revealed her bare essentials, the Enchantress strolled through the clouds, her waist swaying while she breathed out a fragrant sigh.

At times, she transformed into a divine Saintess, her hands clasped in prayer, occasionally revealing a glimpse of her snowy white cleavage.

At times, she brandished her weapon, performing daring battle dances.

At times, donning a mask of the Six-eyed Heavenly Demon, she opened an umbrella and strolled with Yun Xi amidst the traces of starlight.

Chapter 913: Whispering of the Heavenly Demons

"Alright! Stop!"

After roughly thirteen rounds of visualization, Yun Xi found it difficult to restrain himself.

The allure of Elise's Heavenly Demon form was even more terrifying than what was recorded in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Naturally enticing, the slender figure of the Enchantress was captivating.

With a divine temperament, the Saint Demon occasionally revealed her snow-white skin.

Full of aggression, Asura seemed ready to charge at him at any time and have their way with him.

Wearing a beautiful Western-style dress, the petite Impermanent exuded a sense of forbidden desire.

With each transformation, Yun Xi felt his noble and righteous heart face a great challenge.

No matter which Heavenly Demon form Elise assumed, they were equally enticing and made one desire to commit forbidden acts.

Moreover, he knew that no matter what he did, no matter how he sinned, he wouldn't be punished. It was simply maddening.

Now, Yun Xi could understand why Buddhist monks who practiced the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll would tread on thin ice and be cautious.

In just a single thought, one could descend into the eighteen layers of hell!

"Yes, master." Unlike her own reckless mothers, Elise knew when to unleash the power of the Heavenly Demon and when to stop.

This must be an epiphany from the great stars.

"Today's session ends here. I'll come back next time for further contemplation," Yun Xi wiped the sweat off his forehead, fortunate that there was no concept of time in the Heavenly Demon illusion. The Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll truly deserved to be the scripture of Buddhism.

"Elise is always ready to answer your call, master."

"No matter when, master can summon Elise," Elise said with a mischievous smile, digging a big hole for Yun Xi.

"Hmm, I'll need your help in the future," Yun Xi, completely unaware of the terrifying entity he had created, left the ambiguous Heavenly Demon illusion with satisfaction.

After Yun Xi left, Elise's gaze instantly changed.

It was a very, very dangerous yet incredibly pure gaze, like a pitch-black abyss of profound stars.

"Oh my, this is really a blood loss!"

Enchantress's figure appeared behind Elise, pouting discontentedly.

"This is fate, irresistible."

Saint Demon's figure also emerged, she who had once been the last victor, had regret in her eyes, but more importantly, a calm acceptance of this fate.

"I yearn for battle, leave the fighting to me!"

Asura, who had also accepted this fate, licked her lips and revealed a bloodthirsty gaze.

Silent amidst them was Elise, her Six-eyed Heavenly Demon still in a fragmented state.

Under the scouring of the memories of the starry sky, Impermanent suffered the impact of more than ninety percent of the enormous memory fragments, teetering on the brink of collapse.

In order to survive and to continue existing, the four Heavenly Demons had no choice but to join forces and sign a completely unequal contract with Yun Xi.

The result of the contract was the birth of "Elise", a brand new Heavenly Demon with the combined power of the four Heavenly Demons.

However, the original Enchantress, Saint Demon, Asura, and Impermanent did not disappear, but coexisted with the newly born Elise.

Or rather, the young Starry Celestial Demon Elise was actually a manifestation of a part of each of the four Heavenly Demons.

From this perspective, Elise is both the child of the four Heavenly Demons and the four Heavenly Demons themselves.

"Elise, never did I imagine that I would also have a day to acquire Impermanent's true name," Enchantress looked at the silent Impermanent with curiosity on her face and asked, "Wasn't Impermanent's true name sealed away?"

"That's because the absolute inequality of the contract allowed her true name to be known. This is probably Impermanent's only weakness," Saint Demon logically analyzed the reason for the leak of Impermanent's true name.

So Impermanent has this weakness after all, I never knew before.

Asura licked his lips and eagerly looked at Impermanent wearing a broken mask:

"Do you want to fight?"

"I've never fought Impermanent before!"

Asura, as the most combative race among the superior Heavenly Demons, never feared any opponent, not even Impermanent as a Supreme Heavenly Demon.

"Die." Impermanent coldly looked at the challenging Asura and slowly extended a finger.

Asura, who was locked on by Impermanent's finger, suddenly started to deform drastically, as if something extremely terrifying was about to burst out from within him.

A strange rhombus shape protruded from Asura's chest, becoming more and more apparent.

Three seconds later, Asura's body shattered with a crisp sound.

“Impressive, this is the first time I've seen Impermanent make a move, truly invincible!” Enchantress exclaimed excitedly as she watched the dismembered Asura.

“Impermanent, the most mysterious Heavenly Demon with unparalleled power.” Saint Demon didn't miss any details, recording every move Impermanent made and analyzing frame by frame.

“Come, let's fight again!” After being instantly killed, Asura resurrected in the same spot ten seconds later and charged towards Impermanent once more.

Elise shrugged her shoulders and decided to ignore the Heavenly Demon war behind her.

Moms are really energetic, even though they've become one, no one can kill anyone.

Hmm, I better continue practicing and wait for the summoning from my master!

“Good morning, Mei'er!” Yun Xi, who woke up from the Heavenly Demon illusion, hugged her Golden-Haired Princess tightly and took a deep breath.

Ah, definitely feels like the day hasn't started if I don't take this breath every morning!

“Master, is there something good happening?” Mei'er also happily absorbed Yun Xi's scent, even more vigorously than Yun Xi.

“Hmm, I've made some progress in my cultivation.” Yun Xi jumped off the bed and put on her greatsword maid attire.

Not bad, indeed different from before!

Perhaps due to inheriting memories from the previous greatsword maid, the Killing Princess, the girl in the mirror appeared even more graceful and confident than usual.

This is the true princess, the most dazzling crown at the ball.

Even though her whole body was stained with Cerberus' blood, she was still captivatingly beautiful.

“I will remember, I must kill any Demon Human I encounter.”

“And also, take care of that Cerberus.”

Inheriting all the memories of the Killing Princess Elise, Yun Xi became more adept at using the black maid attire.

This black maid attire, stained with Cerberus' blood, also revealed its full functionality to Yun Xi for the first time, representing her passing its test and becoming a true greatsword maid, inheriting the honor and mission of the Killing Princess.

Yun Xi finally realized that this black greatsword maid attire had three completely different modes.

The "maid" mode in its normal state.

The "Princess" mode when wearing the kingdom's crown.

And the battlefield-exclusive, ruthless and fearsome "Slaughter" mode.

Chapter 914: Astonishing Charm

Pushing open the door to her own room, Yun Xi strolled through the corridor of the Starwings Knights' dedicated girls' dormitory with an unprecedented light and brisk pace.

The black maid uniform that she had never been able to fully get used to not only became more form-fitting after acquiring the memories of the Killing Princess, but its material and luster also became increasingly exquisite and captivating.

Though it was the style of a maid uniform, it made Yun Xi exude the elegance of a princess. This was the aura of the Killing Princess.

Even bathed in blood, a princess is still a princess.

All the members of the Starwings Knights who saw Yun Xi couldn't help but cover their small mouths and looked at today's exceptionally beautiful and captivating "Mei" with shining faces.

Perhaps only Yun Xi himself hadn't realized just how astonishing his charm had become after forming a contract with the Heavenly Demon.

As demonic creatures capable of tempting even Buddhist monks, Heavenly Demons possessed irresistible charm regardless of their type.

By forming contracts with four Heavenly Demons simultaneously, Yun Xi also inherited some of their talents.

The Enchantress's charm.

The Saint Demon's wisdom.

The Asura's strength.

The Impermanent's mystery.

The blend of the four Heavenly Demons' auras, along with the memories inherited from Elise, resulted in the current "Mei."

Beautiful and elegant.

Mysterious and dangerous.

It was a charm that caught one's gaze at first glance, a unique allure of long black hair.

"Huh... Mei... you look so beautiful today..." Even the dimwitted secretary who had always been called the brainless busty one by the Starwings Knights' commoners' faction noticed that Mei today was extraordinary.

"Is that so?"

"Really? It looks plain to me." After repeatedly envisioning various postures of the Heavenly Demons, Yun Xi didn't think that the black-haired maid in the mirror was particularly beautiful.

Compared to the Heavenly Demons, she was just average.

"Her skin... has become fairer..."

"The texture of her hair has also improved..."

"Her... chest has also grown a little..."

"Compared to the muddled sorcery of Ling Ling, Mei Lan examined herself thoroughly from head to toe and came to a conclusion that would make all the girls in the Starwings Knights scream.

Mei has truly become more beautiful.

Moreover, the change in her aura is even greater than the change in her appearance.

That composed feeling, that elegant and captivating aura, she had only seen it before in the Starwings Knights' leader, Hua Yue.

The current Mei truly resembled a princess.

"Oh my, it's not just an illusion. Mei, what skincare product did you use?"

"Yes, hiding secrets is not good. Mei, which product from God's Domain is it?"

"Your... chest has even grown, Mei. Did you use cosmetics with demon dragon blood in them?"

In just that short one minute, Yun Xi was surrounded by the girls of the Starwings Knights.

Topics about skincare, cosmetics, and chest maintenance are the never-ending focus for the girls.

"Um... no... really, there is no such thing..." Yun Xi, covered in sweat, looked at the Starwings Knights members who had enclosed him.

When it comes to skincare products and cosmetics, he really has no clue!

As an upright gentleman, how would he know the topics that these girls are interested in?

He doesn't even know whether lavender essential oil is extracted by frying or boiling.

"Then why do you smell so good, Mei?"

"Yeah, yeah, what kind of perfume is this? I've never smelled it before!"

"This smooth skin, sob sob, Mei, you shouldn't keep it a secret. I've been worried about my skin getting dry lately!"

"Yesterday, my hair wasn't this soft!"

The girls' curiosity was strong, their actions decisive; Yun Xi's struggle was destined to fail.

The girls, who naturally loved skinship, almost melted Yun Xi with their passionate gazes.

Many of them were even wearing pajamas, revealing cute lingerie and beautifully sculpted arms, without a trace of wariness towards Yun Xi.

"Gah! Gah!"

"Look over there, a fool who has fallen into the abyss."

"They're already beyond saving, there's no cure!"

"It's not surprising if they're devoured at any time, day and night without rest, they're doomed!"

Several bloodthirsty birds flew around Robin, issuing malicious cursed prophecies towards the devilish Yun Xi.

"What chaos... my future..." As a mysterious sect's prophet who has been dealing with all sorts of peculiar things since childhood, Robin rubbed her forehead.

She was just here to have breakfast, but she didn't expect to witness such a thrilling scene.

It's obvious that "Mei" made a deal with some undisclosed entity and gained an otherworldly charm.

Looking at the girls surrounding her, one by one, they were all abnormal.

Hmm, it's better to stay far away from her, otherwise, if I get involved too, it will be disastrous for me.

"A gold piece will always shine."

"Mei has always been a charismatic person."

Sitting next to Robin, Hua Yue, the leader of the Starwings Knights, revealed a meaningful smile.

"You all spoil her too much," Robin stirred the sugar cube in her cup.

After joining this organization called the Starwings Knights, I realized it's essentially "Mei's Knight Order."

Unconditional love for Mei.

Being fed Mei's bread all day long.

The day won't start without seeing Mei.

Whatever Mei says is right.

Whatever Mei does is good.

You're all poisoned! It's called "Mei's poison"!

"On the contrary, it's not that we spoil Mei too much, but rather Mei spoils us too much." Hua Yue elegantly drank her breakfast milk and tore open the freshly served Starwings Knights' exclusive cream bread.

Taking a bite of the golden cream bread, Hua Yue revealed a happy and gentle expression.

"In this world, there is no one who cares about us more than Mei."

"If it weren't for Mei, the Starwings Knights wouldn't exist."

"Mei doesn't need the Starwings Knights now, on the contrary, the Starwings Knights can never be separated from Mei."

"Don't you find it strange, this kind of relationship?" As the newest member to join the Starwings Knights, Robin has always been unable to understand why the bond between this knightly order and Mei is so intimate.

It's beyond the description of "comrades of the knightly order" or "friends," but rather a bond that surpasses sisterhood and brotherhood, tighter than blood ties.

What's even more peculiar is that after joining the Starwings Knights, she, who had always been unconsciously ignored as the being of nightmares, has begun to integrate into this group.

Chapter 915: Shocking Treasure

This isn't right, no one knows better than Robin how terrifying the curse entangling her is.

People, always subconsciously forgetting her presence, unable to remember her name.

She's like air, even on bustling streets, she's like an invisible phantom, unnoticed by anyone.

For assassins, this is probably a desired talent, but Robin doesn't want to be an assassin, she longs for true friends.

For her past self, that was truly a luxury wish.

Now, this wish has been granted.

After joining the Starwings Knights, the girls in the Starwings Knights would all greet her proactively and see her as one of the order's members.

They can see her, not ignoring her presence.

It's just such a simple thing that anyone would take for granted, but for Robin, the Blooded Killer of the Ten Leaves League, ranked in the top ten in the entire Eastern God's Domain, it is deeply moving.

Perhaps, she's also been poisoned.

Named "Mei," the incurable disease.

"Get used to it sooner, and you'll probably understand what I mean soon."

Seeing Robin's conflicted expression, Hua Yue shrugged.

In this Starwings Knights, Robin is not the only one with secrets.

"Should I also learn to apply makeup?" Even Robin herself had forgotten that she had such girlish hobbies when she was still human.

Becoming an assassin wasn't what she liked, but rather she had nowhere else to go except for the Ten Leaves League.

In the world of the imperial court, aristocracy, and Blooded, only the Blooded could accept her cursed existence.

She never personally killed anyone, she was just a tragic witness.

.....

"This is trouble!" Finally escaping from the encirclement of the Starwings Knights' girls, Yun Xi realized that he seemed to be attracting more attention today.

Countless female disciples of the White Lotus Sword Palace were chasing after him, asking what special skincare products, cosmetics, and breast enlargement medicine he used.

He didn't have any of those things, so why did his chest get bigger? It's totally not his fault!

Pafu! The tiny Pafu emerged from Yun Xi's chest, its translucent green body visibly larger.

There, this is the culprit behind Yun Xi's enlarged chest.

And who knows what special nutrients Pafu absorbed, Yun Xi woke up to find the tiny Pafu's delicate body had started growing.

Along with that, Yun Xi's own chest measurement increased a size that he himself didn't even notice. It was truly a trivial matter for him as a male.

Unfortunately, that was his own perception. He thought that the slight and insignificant change was dreamlike for the girls.

Overnight, without using any secret padding or other props, it truly and instantaneously grew larger. It was simply a miracle!

Completely unaware of the Starwings Knights' obsession with the chest, Yun Xi was destined to become the target of attention.

Now, he couldn't even attend classes, so Yun Xi could only hide once again in his own paradise – the White Lotus Secret Treasure room.

Coincidentally, he also needed to inquire about his progress in cultivating the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll from the Big White Light Sphere.

In the empty secret room, the white, soft light sphere floated in the center of the room like a cloud, occasionally lazily turning its body, enjoying the utmost leisure.

Originally, the White Lotus Secret Treasure room was a forbidden place for outsiders, with the highest level of secrecy in the entire White Lotus Sword Domain.

Except for the moments when the top ten graduates of the White Lotus Sword Palace, who had obtained recognition, came here for enlightenment, this treasure room would never be open to outsiders.

Even the twin witches, who were divine priestesses, only entered this room once a year.

On average, out of 365 days a year, the Big White Light Sphere, as the projection of the White Lotus Secret Treasure, had less than 24 hours of contact with beings like humans.

The rest of the time, it could sleep in whatever posture it liked, transform into whatever appearance it desired, completely indulging in carefree leisure.

Until that bastard kid with the Sky Sword mark started treating this place as his own rest area, running over every few days to complain to it and even squeezing and rubbing it.

In its entire life, the Big White Light Sphere had never been so disrespected by anyone, and unfortunately, its setting prevented it from retaliating against this guy.

Finally, it could only throw away the the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll that couldn't be practiced by non-monks at all, preparing to out of sight, out of mind.

Today, it was also prepared to have a good night's sleep.

Hmm, as for today, it loved the sleeping posture of moving in a full 360-degree arc, that was its absolute favorite.

"Hoo! Hoo!" The peculiar rhythm echoed in the silent treasure room, it was a type of great Tao Halo rhythm, an excellent lullaby.

"Pa!" With a sound, the door opened.

Yun Xi, dressed in a black maid outfit, barged into a certain light sphere's private space, then hugged the soft and white light sphere, leaning her entire body against it.

Damn it, why did she come again! If the big white light sphere could have expressions, it would definitely be a huge "囧" character.

This damn watchdog, always coming to disturb the great White Lotus Secret Treasure's sleeping time!

"Hoo... Indeed, this place makes people feel at ease." Yun Xi lay on the fluffy big white light sphere, this irresistibly comfortable feeling whether lying or sitting, it was just too amazing.

Truly worthy of being the projection of the great sacred tree Linjia, it was always useful in any circumstance.

"....." The big white light sphere remained silent on this matter, even resistance was impossible, it could only endure.

However, why did this brat come again so quickly? Wasn't he supposed to have gone astray and cried while returning the Six-eyed Heavenly Demon after practicing that the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll?

There weren't any serious aftereffects from failing to practice the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, but if he couldn't collect enough emotional power while wearing the Six-eyes Demon Mask, he would have consecutive nightmares for many days.

This was just a small punishment for this watchdog, letting him know what it meant to be out of one's depth and to be incapable.

The Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, such a thing, it was impossible for mere mortals to successfully cultivate it.

White question marks appeared one after another on the big white light sphere.

Is this brat having a fever, what nonsense is he talking about all of a sudden?

Chapter 916: Elise Appears

Could ordinary people practice the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll?

Could this guy have gone astray while practicing the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, eventually losing his sanity and thinking he has achieved enlightenment by giving up killing?

"But, there seems to be a problem with my practice of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll."

Yes, this is the normal style, right? You, an ordinary person who hasn't even shaved your head, and still love wearing a black maid outfit, it's strange if there are no problems with your practice of this Buddhist scripture, the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

"The Heavenly Demon I summoned seems to be more than just the Enchantress described in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll..." Yun Xi earnestly shared his distress with the big white ball of light.

"....."

What? The summoning was successful?

Are you kidding me?!

Could something like the Heavenly Demon be easily summoned just like that?

This boy, has he lost his mind and fallen into a fantasy world?

It must be that, what appeared in his mind is definitely not a Heavenly Demon, but a lower level creature like a dream monster. Maybe it even drained a lot of his energy.

No wonder, there's a scent that doesn't smell human.

"I summoned Enchantress, Saint Demon , Asura, Impermanent , and it seems like they all merged together," Yun Xi honestly explained, referring to the mistake that happened while practicing the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Although there was no problem visualizing the form of the Heavenly Demon, suddenly forming a contract with four Heavenly Demons and ultimately obtaining "Elise " left Yun Xi perplexed.

At this moment, he needs a wise teacher to guide him.

Of all the characters Yun Xi knows, only the big white ball that gave him the introductory part of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll can take on this role.

The big white ball of light had hundreds and thousands of question marks floating on it.

What is this bragging dog even saying?

A Saint Demon with a holy attribute.

An Asura who is inclined towards killing.

Impermanent is formless, representing the "Supreme Heavenly Demon" of the Buddhist tradition.

These Heavenly Demons have nothing to do with the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

If practicing the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll could summon these high-ranking Heavenly Demons, even Supreme Heavenly Demons, then this Buddhist scripture would be of the highest level, connecting directly to the origin of Buddhism!

Impermanent Heavenly Demons are equal to the attainment of a golden body in Buddhist practice!

In terms of ranking within the endless god's domains, Impermanent is close to the ninth rank of the legend rank [Field] Heavenly Demon, that's why it can be called "Supreme" Heavenly Demon.

"This kid is beyond saving, beyond saving!"

Realizing that someone had completely lost control while practicing the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, the bright white sphere kindly wrapped Yun Xi in its light, indicating that they would soon be unable to see this privileged dog again.

"Oh, by the way, you haven't met my Heavenly Demon yet, have you? I'll summon it now." Yun Xi could feel the benevolence radiating from the bright white sphere and felt deeply grateful for it.

If it weren't for the teachings of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, he wouldn't have found a good method to cultivate his willpower.

The past monks were truly formidable, able to face such a powerful Heavenly Demon without showing any signs of fear. He was still far from reaching that level.

Ah, he's finally gone mad. The bright white sphere looked at Yun Xi, who was closing his eyes, seemingly communicating with something. His body became even more supple.

In the next moment, Elise appeared quietly in the room of the White Lotus Secret Treasure, wearing the Six-eyes Demon Mask that had all four characteristics of a Heavenly Demon.

A Heavenly Demon is a being that is invisible and intangible, existing and yet not existing. When it has no physical body, a Heavenly Demon cannot be observed by anyone and hardly has any impact on the world.

Only when a Heavenly Demon has a physical body does it start to distort the world, whether in positive or negative ways.

Most of the time, a Heavenly Demon would never appear in the real world in its true form. It is an unspoken rule.

An immortal Heavenly Demon, like an eternal and invisible disaster, always influences the world from the shadows.

However, Elise, who responded to Yun Xi's call, nonchalantly broke this unspoken rule.

The Impermanent Heavenly Demon is such an extraordinary existence, disregarding boundaries and possessing immense power and qualifications among the Heavenly Demons.

Elise, who possesses the powers of Enchantress, Saint Demon, Asura, and Impermanent, wouldn't follow this rule. She is the only exception in the history of the Starry Celestial Demon and Heavenly Demon races.

"This is Elise, my contracted Heavenly Demon," Yun Xi said nervously, as if he were introducing his girlfriend to his parents, while looking at the large solidified white ball.

"!!!!!!"

"??????"

As a projection of the Sacred Tree Linjia, the white ball has accumulated countless wisdom and knowledge over the long years. It even has records of secret Buddhist scriptures like the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll. Now it seems to be malfunctioning.

This, indeed, is a real Heavenly Demon!

And it is not the target summoned by the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll - the Enchantress. It is a completely new species, an upper-level Heavenly Demon that even the wisdom repository of the Sacred Tree Linjia has never recorded.

"Hello, esteemed Sacred Tree Linjia." Elise, with a calm smile, gently took Yun Xi's hand and leaned naturally against him, just like true lovers would.

Yun Xi was completely unaware of Elise's harmless gesture, especially compared to the reckless and unruly Enchantresses. Elise was really well-behaved.

However, her slightly raised canine tooth quietly revealed a little secret in Elise's heart.

Hmm, this is not a plot, but rather the wisdom of a Heavenly Demon.

Compared to the four mothers, Elise was clearly more advanced in her understanding of how to win Yun Xi's heart.

"....."

Danger, danger, danger!

How could this Heavenly Demon be something summoned by the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll!

The charm of the Enchantress!

The wisdom mark on the forehead of the three-eyed Saint Demon.

A terrifying power hidden within the body.

And the most terrifying thing, the Six-eyes Demon Mask on her hair tips.

Why can the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll summon the Enchantress, it is precisely because it imitates a hint of the presence of the highest-ranking Heavenly Demon—Impermanent .

Even though they knew it was a fake, a deceitful Six-eyes Demon Mask created to represent the "Impermanent without form" concept in Buddhism, the Enchantresses still couldn't resist that aura and would respond to the summons.

But now, that Six-eyes Demon Mask over there, it's the real deal!

Chapter 917: One Mistake After Another

The Heavenly Demon with six eyes.

Symbolizing Impermanent , formlessness, selflessness, boundlessness, freedom!

The Supreme Heavenly Demon who reigns at the pinnacle of the Heavenly Demon species.

This insignificant dog unexpectedly summoned the highest-ranking Heavenly Demon, which was thought impossible to respond to the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll?

It's too unrealistic, how could the deceitful Six-eyes Demon Mask summon the true owner of the Six-eyes Demon Mask?

A big bright ball floated gently towards Elise and Yun Xi, swirling around them and closely inspecting the Six-eyes Demon Mask at the tips of Elise's hair.

The size and shape changed, but there was no doubt that it was the genuine Six-eyes Demon Mask, proven by Impermanent. It was real, not fake.

Which scroll, called the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, could summon these Heavenly Demons?

The method to summon Impermanent wasn't found within the teachings of Buddhism. In fact, it was the exact opposite, the natural enemy of Buddhism!

The Buddhist monks who summoned Heavenly Demons did so to strengthen their willpower and wisdom. This practice was specifically designed for dealing with Enchantresses.

Saint Demon and Asura were not fooled by this. Even more so, Impermanent knew better.

"Is there a way to find out the practice method hidden behind the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll? Does Sacred Tree Linjia possess it?" Yun Xi had no idea about the shocking and extraordinary actions he had just committed.

What comes after the practice method of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll?

You have already practiced the sacred scriptures to an unprecedented level. What more do you need in terms of further practice?

Even the one who created the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll couldn't summon Impermanent, the woman with special powers!

If we divide the secrets of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll into three levels, you have already reached a non-existent fourth and fifth level. How much more do you want to learn?

A bright white ball of light spun around Yun Xi, as if trying to see through the body of this person dressed as a black maid and understand their true nature.

Unfortunately, as a projection of the Sacred Tree Linjia, it only has the ability to store various books and help those humans who lack insight to comprehend the wisdom contained within. It doesn't possess any other abilities.

Even the power to harm a single finger of a human is beyond Yun Xi's abilities, which is why he was bullied by him.

But since even something like the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll can be cultivated, reaching such a peculiar realm, it seems that this privileged dog has a connection with Buddhism.

Hmm, in that case, should I continue recommending some Buddhist scriptures to this kid, so that he can cultivate to the realm where form is emptiness and emptiness is form?

Once he reaches that realm, this privileged dog won't disturb its peaceful dreams anymore, right?

Let's see, there are still quite a few Buddhist scriptures in stock. Should I try recommending the Miao Fa Lian Hua Jing? It's a method that can make someone attain enlightenment while in their physical body.

Also, this Great Compassionate Savior's Record is not bad. This kid seems to have a soft heart, and he even cross-dresses...

"Whoosh!" Suddenly, a big bright light felt a chill all over its body, as if it had touched something forbidden.

It was an inexplicable intuition, as if opening up to the dog's access to Buddhist scriptures would lead to a disastrous fate.

Such immense malice was even overwhelming the protection of the Sacred Tree Linjia. How terrible this curse was!

"....." The big bright light quickly sealed the scriptures that could empower someone to become a great practitioner of Buddhism and continued to tamper with the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

The introductory part had already been released.

For the dog, there was no need to cultivate the orthodox part that followed. It was mainly a gradual summoning method to summon a stronger Enchantress.

Fortunately, there was still valuable information in the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll on how to utilize the Heavenly Demon.

Hmm, yes, this will do!

"Why does this book, the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, have such records?"

"Who on earth came up with this and now we can only try our luck with it."

So, Yun Xi, following the logical order, saw the part of the practice behind the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll - various peculiar speculations that had nothing to do with the practice, footnotes.

"A hundred ways to coexist with Heavenly Demons."

"To subdue a Heavenly Demon, one must first understand the Heavenly Demon."

"No entry to hell, no becoming a Heavenly Demon!"

"Reference to the Heavenly Demon population."

"Enchantress is not the end, is Impermanent really there?"

It can be seen that these are not just the desires of one monk on the path of seeking Heavenly Demons; inside are detailed records that can be called going against the norm.

These things were originally placed in the "references" and "footnotes" of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Afterwards, all the young disciples who practiced the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll secret technique in the Buddhist sect would be warned by their elders not to read the annotations unless they had achieved mastery in this technique.

Those who were able to leave annotations on this Buddhist scripture were naturally the monks who had passed the test of the Heavenly Demon.

In other words, these "annotations" were actually unproven conjectures made by monks from previous generations about the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

As for those who had truly succeeded in summoning the higher-ranked Heavenly Demons, well, there weren't any.

However, for Yun Xi, this was the genuine text of the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

All these records and speculations about the Heavenly Demon were just like what he was experiencing now.

"Hmm, to coexist with the Heavenly Demon."

"Let's explore more about the Heavenly Demon."

"If I don't go to hell, who will?"

"The Heavenly Demon population includes Saint Demons, Asuras, and Impermanents!"

"I understand now, let's do it this way," said Yun Xi as he hugged the big white ball of light, feeling a bit nervous for some reason. He confirmed the next stage of his training with the the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

To cultivate the power of emotions and make Elise beautiful, that is the path of the Heavenly Demon as indicated by the the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll!

Beside Yun Xi, Elise had a happy smile on her face as she looked at the absurd records in the the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll.

Everything was a complete mess, the monks who followed the instructions in this book would never reach the true Heavenly Demon in their lifetime. But what did it matter?

As long as they could be together, whether it was the the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll or the Six Paths of Reincarnation to summon the Heavenly Demon, it was all a good book.

Whether it was a white cat or a black cat, they were both good cats.

As the smiling Elise looked on, the big white ball of light inexplicably sweat a drop.

This Heavenly Demon, already sure of its victory against this dog with authority!

Chapter 918: The Return of the Sky Sword

In the endless void, a massive green sea is spreading.

It is formed by numerous slimes that can survive in the vacuum, even larger than the entire White Lotus Sword Domain.

For the past few weeks, this massive entity has been roaming around the starry sky surrounding the White Lotus Sword Domain, eyeing it with malicious intent, protected only by the Sky Tower.

Even though they are in the empty void with no food, the green slimes continue to divide, multiply, and occasionally capture passing meteorites to devour.

If it weren't for the protection of the Divine Sword of Order, the White Lotus Sword Domain would have been invaded by this group of slimes, suffering the same fate as the Water God's world, becoming a playground for the slimes.

Today, the Slime population was also in standby mode, their large bodies constantly moving as they peeked at the Lower Sword Domain connected by the Star Bridge.

Suddenly, the center of the Slime Ocean began to violently churn.

A giant spider appeared in the center of the Slime Ocean.

On the back of the giant spider was a massive throne that had once appeared in the Dragon God Kingdom.

On the throne sat a green-haired girl with bare white feet, gazing at the White Lotus Sword Domain not far away with a suggestive look.

"There is nothing...that I cannot obtain..."

"Even you cannot stop me..."

Countless Slimes cheered together, their divine offspring, the symbol of their race, had returned.

Shaya Longnis, the Sky Sword, once again returned to the White Lotus Sword Domain.

The puppet makers in the Doll City were struggling with how to create a body that suited White Moon, unable to come up with a convincing solution.

Their unfinished products were not even qualified to compare with what White Moon used to have.

In a fit of anger, Shaya Longnis killed all those useless puppet makers once. If it weren't for the special rules of the Doll City, those puppet makers who failed to create a perfect body for White Moon would have been wiped out.

After tormenting those perverted puppet makers, Shaya Longnis had to think. What kind of body did White Moon really want?

Why couldn't those self-proclaimed top puppet makers of the endless god's domains even create a suitable body for White Moon? Billions of tons of precious materials like moonlight branches were wasted.

Now, she didn't need to offer a reward anymore. All the puppet makers in the Doll City were determined to create a doll that matched White Moon, with red eyes and sworn promises.

Unfortunately, this project seemed more difficult than imagined. Those puppet makers were on the verge of madness, and it looked like they would continue to go insane for a long time.

At that moment, Shaya Longnis finally remembered that even though this group of failures would not succeed, there was still one person who could create a body that truly suited White Moon.

She didn't know who this person was, but she knew where he was.

The place where the dream started.

The place where White Moon was born.

If there was only one person in this world who could create White Moon's body, then that person must be here.

"Entry denied..."

"No trespassing..."

"If you descend again, it will be seen as a violation of the rules of the Sky Sword..."

As Shaya Longnis got a little closer, she could hear the cold and unpleasant voice in her ear.

The guardian of the Sky Sword God's Domain, the gatekeeper of the Sky Tower, the oldest Sky Sword—Lilibet the Azure Excalibur.

Her Sky Sword was not the strongest among all the Sky Swords, nor the most terrifying, but it possessed the most unique power of "order".

As the gatekeeper of the Sky Tower, she also shelters all the sword domains that have been established there.

The White Lotus Sword Domain is a very rare sword domain in the lower realms that has built the Sky Tower.

If it weren't for the presence of the Sky Tower, Shaya Longnis would have effortlessly wiped out a mere lower realm sword domain.

Her snowy white feet were crossed and stacked together as Shaya Longnis propped up her snow-white face with her little hands.

There are ways to enter the White Lotus Sword Domain, such as Ouroboros and Phoenix, who have sealed their own powers to enter its interior.

But those methods of sealing one's power and being tied down do not fit Shaya Longnis' style.

The mischievous and unpredictable Sky Sword, the exemplar of coming and going wherever it pleases.

Even though Hydera the Water God and Casina the Battle God teamed up to suppress her, and she faced the sanction of Lilibet the Azure Excalibur, it didn't cause her much harm.

With the endless support of slime life force from the abyss, Shaya Longnis could not be destroyed.

Any curse, injury, or sanction that countless slime units willingly took for her, the damage to Shaya Longnis could be ignored.

She was the chosen child of the slime population, the only divine fantasy, destined to become the special existence of the Slime God.

"Since I can't go in, I'll ask someone for help."

"Well, she should be best at this kind of thing." Tapping her throne, Shaya Longnis made a decision to capture someone.

Coincidentally, she had always been burdened with a long-standing mission, so she would use the name of this mission to lend a little help to her descent into this lower domain of swords.

How should I put it, she was one of the disciples of "that one".

"Yiya! Yiya!" Shaya Longnis softly sang the ancient and mysterious whispers, sending a message to an indescribable presence.

Translated into human language, the information would be something like this:

"I've found some traces."

"The stars here are a little restless."

"Perhaps, the person that is being sought has left clues here."

In Shaya Longnis' murmurs, the massive slime ocean suddenly began to violently twist, large patches of slime started to perish, and the life force within them was completely drained.

This was a sacrifice, a ritual that must be paid in order to summon the indescribable entity that exists in that ancient space and time.

Dying for Shaya Longnis is the greatest honor for these slimes. They eagerly release their life force, sacrificing themselves to a being that is opening a rift in the void.

The size of the slime ocean is so enormous, even exceeding half of the White Lotus Sword Domain. When it withers down by half, a rift suddenly cracks open in a distant corner of the void.

Giant tentacles begin to churn, occasionally revealing bodies that resemble eels. It's not the ground, but rather a region located deep in the endless sea.

"Yiya, yiya..." Shaya Longnis and the being across from them exchange signals.

"Yiya, yiya..." From the depths of the dark abyss, an insane whisper can be heard.

Chapter 919: The Sound of a Bell Resonates Once Again.

In front of the Sky Tower, the wielder of the divine sword, adorned in blue, looks up at the vast emptiness.

Near the area of White Lotus Sword Domain, there seemed to be a strange disturbance. However, that disturbance quickly disappeared, leaving behind a strong scent of slime.

Shaya Longnis the Sky Sword was still as reckless as ever.

Let's reinforce the spatial barrier of White Lotus Sword Domain.

...

"Okay, that's it," said Yun Xi, covering his nose and trying to avoid looking at Impermanent, who was so close.

Although he knew that this was Elise's incarnation, he couldn't help but feel his blood boil as he caught glimpses of the white panties hidden beneath her black Lolita dress.

"Master, it's not good to resist." Elise smiled as she sat beside Yun Xi, not taking any action herself but using her magic to guide him step by step.

Yun Xi found it very difficult to resist. She felt the same way too.

Clearly, there were plenty of opportunities to take action, even more than ten chances to ensure success.

But Elise held back, able to endure more than Yun Xi.

She wouldn't make the same mistake as the other mothers, thinking that getting Yun Xi's body would be a great success.

What she wanted was more than that, and even more precious.

"If you want to be a true gentleman, you must learn to be patient."

"No patience, no good. Without patience, you're just an animal." Yun Xi was deeply remorseful for the many mistakes he had made in the past.

Like the time with the million brides, or the early morning bunnies, or the wedding night of White Moon and the Queen of Assyria... No, just thinking about them made him feel out of control.

"Master, be patient a little longer." Elise smiled and encouraged Yun Xi.

Yes, continue to endure until the time when he couldn't hold back any longer.

The mothers were just too impatient, and as they say, "Impatience can cause mistakes."

"Well, it's my lack of willpower."

"Thank goodness for you." Yun Xi breathed a sigh of relief.

My very own Heavenly Demon is so understanding, cute and obedient.

Compared to the Desert Dragon Zaka, who I always have to run away from recently, Elise is really easy to get along with.

"No matter when, I'll always stand by your side, my master," Elise said with a sweet smile.

You look adorable when you're being patient.

When you can't take it anymore, Elise will help you relieve the stress, using the methods of the Heavenly Demon.

"Thank you, you've been a great help."

Yun Xi, who is practicing the techniques from the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, feels a close connection to the Heavenly Demon, even though he doesn't know its true nature. This time, Yun Xi was completely fooled by a big white light ball.

"This is what I should do," Elise said as she came behind Yun Xi and gently rubbed his back, making him feel light and ethereal.

Naturally, she got closer to Yun Xi and he got used to her intimate actions. This is Elise's cute little trick.

"Um, this plan fits perfectly with the style of the Heavenly Demon."

As Yun Xi opened his eyes and stretched, he noticed that Mei'er was sniffing him curiously.

"Master, have you had something good happen to you recently?"

"Well, yes, I have. I've been practicing a very good secret technique." Yun Xi hugged his golden-haired princess and took a deep breath, feeling happy.

Mei'er touched Yun Xi's cheek with her small paw, sensing that something was not quite right.

It felt like their natural enemy had appeared.

But as a star spirit, she knew that there was no such thing as a natural enemy for her kind!

Assigned with the duty to guide the children of the stars, Mei'er herself had no combat abilities and couldn't be harmed by any external force.

The concept of a natural enemy did not exist among the star spirits.

If anything, the only threat to her was from others of her kind - those who would try to steal her master away.

But the master clearly chose her, not the other two elves on the other paths!

Why does she feel like her master is going to be taken away?

The star spirit on the other two paths, weren't they sealed?

Lately, the master hasn't been practicing any dark powers, right?

"Today I'm going to the street, you can play with Star Thunder and the others." After comforting his golden-haired princess, Yun Xi decided to gather emotional power outside of White Lotus Sword Palace.

Nurturing Elise is the proper way to practice the Paranirmita Vasavartin Scroll, Yun Xi firmly believes in this.

News of the upcoming White Lotus Secret Treasure has spread widely, with many different versions emerging.

A dead tree in a certain courtyard suddenly sprouted new shoots, undoubtedly a blessing from the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

A wife who was pregnant gave birth to quintuplets, which was considered a good omen for the birth of the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Some people saw the legendary Phoenix soaring in the sky at night, it's a rare bird that is said to appear only once every thousand years. And it is definitely connected to the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

In just a few months, the land around the White Lotus Sword Palace has skyrocketed in price. Various exotic buildings have popped up like mushrooms after the rain. The number of students studying at the White Lotus Sword Palace has also increased by dozens.

Even the housing prices in the mortal world have multiplied because of the current White Lotus Sword Domain.

Those mortals who are not qualified to enter the area of the White Lotus Sword Palace are willing to spend all their wealth for a chance to get a little bit of the White Lotus Secret Treasure. They buy houses for their children, waiting for the moment when the White Lotus Secret Treasure is revealed.

It can be said that parents all over the world have the same heart. Whether they are ordinary mortals in the handle area or the elites in the tip area, they are all deeply concerned about the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Walking on a busy street, Yun Xi easily felt a lot of worries and tension from the people passing by.

Everyone was waiting for the appearance of the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Sorry, but it would probably take at least ten years for the White Lotus Secret Treasure to appear. Yun Xi felt really sorry for these people.

Because of borrowing a petal from the Sacred Tree Linjia in the world of the Primordial Dragon, one of the petals of the Linjia flower, which was about to bloom, was missing. The opening time was greatly delayed.

But Yun Xi couldn't tell the truth to these people. If this news spread, the housing market in the entire White Lotus Sword Domain would suffer a devastating blow. It would take at least ten years to recover.

Just as Yun Xi felt guilty about this, countless petals suddenly floated down from the sky.

A familiar voice echoed in Yun Xi's ears, a voice that only he could hear.

One sound, two sounds, three sounds... those were the echoes of wisdom, coming from the legendary White Lotus Sword Domain.

Yun Xi looked up and saw once again the one and only flower in the world.

The flower of Linjia, which had lost a petal before, unexpectedly reappeared in his vision.

White Lotus Secret Treasure appeared again!

Chapter 920: Echoes of the Secret Treasure

Just like the first time it appeared at the White Lotus Sword Palace, only Yun Xi was able to hear the sound coming from the flower of Linjia from the beginning.

It was a sound that seemed distant, as if it had experienced countless ages of refinement.

Yet, it was also very close, reaching straight to the heart, igniting the brilliance of one's wisdom.

Yun Xi's heart pounded with each sound, from the first to the third.

By the fourth sound, finally, other people also heard the sound coming from the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Hua Huo, who was teaching Desert Dragon Zaka about ladylike manners, suddenly felt a jolt throughout her body. She hugged Zaka and flew up into the sky, landing on the roof of the White Lotus Sword Palace. They both looked up in astonishment at the swirling lights in the sky.

From that moment on, people started to pay attention to the signs of the White Lotus Secret Treasure reappearing in the world.

Surrounded by a spiral of colorful light, the twin witches held hands.

Looking down at the White Lotus Sword Domain, they saw a large white sphere floating behind them. Both of them had reluctant expressions on their faces.

When they noticed a certain watchdog on the ground, the big white sphere even twisted its body, as if mumbling something.

The spiral lights in the sky spread out, almost enveloping the entire White Lotus Sword Domain.

At that moment, the parents who had bought houses and moved their children into the White Lotus Sword Domain were truly lucky. They had encountered a once-in-a-millennium miracle.

White Lotus and Red Lotus looked at each other and nodded together.

The moment has come, the twin witches must fulfill their mission.

Long ago, Yun Hai the Sky Sword and the divine witches made a promise.

The divine witches of the White Lotus Sword Domain exist to protect the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

By taking care of the projected image of the White Lotus Secret Treasure and secretly collecting many books, Yun Xi nurtures the petals of the Sacred Tree Linjia.

All of this is for the awakening of the Sacred Tree Linjia.

For some reason, the previously active Sacred Tree Linjia had fallen into silence, but starting from yesterday, it suddenly became highly lively.

The Linjia flowers, which still had some time before blooming, unbelievably entered a fully mature stage.

Now, the countdown to the blooming of the flowers has begun.

The large white light sphere representing the projection of the White Lotus Secret Treasure proactively contacted the twin witches, who serve as guardians, to begin the ceremony for opening the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Wearing a red witch's outfit, Red Lotus and White Lotus, dressed in a white witch's outfit, held hands as the maple leaf patterns on their sleeves extended and turned into an invisible chain that bound this pair of twin sisters.

The large white ball of light jumped and suddenly split into two halves, each merging into the bodies of the twin witches.

Back to back, holding hands, the twin witches' gaze suddenly became ethereal, signaling the arrival of an ancient promised time.

"The great beings have awakened in this era."

"The witches of destiny declare and execute."

"Like a gentle swaying sadness, endless entangled memories."

"The sadness that has been dormant here is about to awaken, turning into pale tears and cries."

The thread that connected the two intertwined and turned into a larger spiral.

"Your confusion."

"Your longing."

"Your memories."

"Your soul."

"All confirmed to exist here."

"But..."

Waiting for you is an eternal illusion that cannot be spoken of, heard, or seen.

Only those who have completed the journey of time and fulfilled the unforgivable wishes of the lost can see the truth of everything.

Dust returns to dust, earth returns to earth. Only the soul remains eternally, unseen but everywhere...

When the White Lotus blooms, all gods step aside!

Pray, for the seeds have been planted and all things begin to grow.

Those who find the twin witches will find the door to the hidden treasure.

Those who defeat the twin witches will obtain the petals of the treasure.

The door has been opened, and the treasure belongs only to those chosen by fate.

With the announcement of the twin witches, beams of pure white light descended from the sky, as if washed by the river of time. Everyone who touched the light heard that voice.

It was the divine sound that unlocked wisdom.

It was the heavenly melody that shook souls.

That is a blessing from the Sacred Tree Linjia.

Those who receive the blessing will naturally see different symbols in their minds.

For every chime of the White Lotus Secret Treasure they hear, there will be a corresponding symbol in the runes.

The simplest one is just a lonely triangle or a circle.

But for those who have the talent for five or six tones, they will receive a five-pointed star, a hexagon, or a five-ring or six-ring symbol.

Hua Huo has runes composed of a total of ten rings.

Yun Xi has incredible runes with thirteen circles and a complex overlapping pattern of twelve pentagrams, which are the most complete and closest to the shape of Linjia petals.

"Is this... a mark?" Yun Xi observed the runes that suddenly appeared in his mind and felt an unprecedented sense of immense wisdom from them.

Compared to the first blessing he received from the White Lotus Secret Treasure, this one was simply insignificant.

"Yes, in three days, the White Lotus Secret Treasure will open." The twin witches appeared together in front of Yun Xi , each looking at him with different expressions.

White Lotus had a sweet and affectionate gaze, filled with tender love that could melt hearts.

Red Lotus had a hostile look, expressing strong animosity towards "Mei" for the first time so explicitly.

"To obtain the White Lotus Secret Treasure, one must gain the approval of the witches."

"You are one of the chosen seeds for the White Lotus Secret Treasure. From now on, we are enemies." Red Lotus stared at Yun Xi with a predatory gaze, as if sensing a formidable opponent.

"What rank is your mark? Fourth rank? Fifth rank?" Clearly, Red Lotus couldn't determine the limit of the runes on Yun Xi's body.

The rank of the mark for the White Lotus Secret Treasure is determined based on the affinity and talent one has for it.

At the moment, the highest rank known is Hua Huo, who is recognized as the strongest swordsman of the White Lotus Sword Palace. She has a rank of ten.

Um... Yun Xi hesitated, unsure if he should mention that he has a rank of thirteen for the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Seems like this rank is very high, huh?

"I will deal with you in three days," said Red Lotus, looking at the plum in front of her. It has never been much of a match.

The only person who can be called a strong enemy is just one.

The owner of the plum, Hua Huo, has limitless potential and is completely beyond comparison.

If anyone can pass the twin witches' test and obtain the White Lotus Secret Treasure, it would be Hua Huo.

But first, she must defeat the twin witches.

Only those who find the twin witches are qualified to see the White Lotus Secret Treasure.

Only those who defeat the twin witches are qualified to obtain the White Lotus Secret Treasure!

Red Lotus, who has been given the task of guarding the final level of the White Lotus Secret Treasure, is now determined to fulfill her duty as a divine witch. She is filled with fighting spirit.
