

Chapter 439 I Must Go In

"So you know who I am," Keira looked at Leilany and said in an arrogant way.

She flipped her hair and moved forward.

"Since you already know who I am, why don't you step aside and let me through? I have important business to attend to in this office."

"No way!" Leilany blocked the door, making it impossible for Keira to enter. "Don't you know who I am? Even your father has to speak to me respectfully, let alone you."

"Don't be so arrogant. You're just an intern. You think you're someone important?" Keira rolled her eyes and pushed Leilany on the shoulder. "Stop daydreaming here; if you don't move, you'll be leaving the hospital with Melly!"

Despite her frail appearance, Keira pushed Leilany hard.

Leilany staggered a few steps backward and collided with someone.

When she was about to apologize, she heard a sweet voice.

"Dr. Wilde!"

Keira cooed, her voice soft and light. Her demeanor changed as she addressed Lukas as if she were someone else.

Since she couldn't get Everett at the moment, it would be better for her to date someone else for the time being.

She pretended to be reserved and shy and asked, "Dr. Wilde, what brings you here?"

"I was just passing by." Lukas, who usually had a gentle expression on his face, now had a serious one. He looked at the woman next to him and asked, "Are you all right, Leilany?"

"I'm all right."

Leilany nodded her head and looked at Keira from the corner of her eye.

That woman not only harassed Melly, but she also attempted to seduce Lukas.

Leilany was really pissed off by Keira.

She sneered and said sarcastically, "Didn't you just push me? Are you pretending to be a kind lady now?"

Keira held back her anger in front of Lukas and said through gritted teeth, "It's none of your business. I must go in and see what Melly is doing when she's supposed to be working in the hospital!"

Then Keira forcefully pulled at the door handle.

Leilany couldn't stop it. The wailing came from inside the office right away.

"Help! Someone. The doctor hit me! Come take a look!"

Emily's mouth parched from yelling on the floor without stopping. But when she saw people coming in, she became excited all over again.

She squeezed a few tears out of her eyes and grabbed Melissa's white coat with the hand that could still move normally.

"Please come here and help me seek justice. Doesn't the hospital follow the law? The doctor hit me, but you hired her as an expert in your hospital. I want to see your director..."

Melissa had anticipated that there would be a large crowd watching this argument, but something unexpected occurred to her at this moment.

She frowned and bent over, pretending to straighten her clothes. Then, before everyone came in, she warned in a low voice, "Emily, you can do whatever you want, but if you expose my true identity, think about what the Mayfield family will do to you and Arielle; after all, I gave birth to children for the Mayfield family."

After saying that, she got up as if nothing had happened.

Keira was overjoyed when she saw this.

She was worried the entire time that she had no reason to criticize Melly and drive her out of the hospital. Now, at last, she had the chance.

"What happened?" Keira couldn't stop herself from asking, "Melly, did you beat the patient?"

"You don't have to hold me accountable for everything so quickly."

Melissa said flatly with a smile.

"What if I say that it was this woman who made trouble first? She broke in without an appointment and cursed me for no reason. Leilany was well aware of the entire situation."
