

Chapter 479 Won't Take Merrick And Lindsey

Merrick shook his head and said, "I don't understand why Mommy didn't take us. She used to take us wherever she went before, but she's acting strange now. How about we follow her secretly after she sets out?"

When Lindsey heard this, her eyes lit up instantly. She thought Merrick was so smart. Why hadn't she thought of it? The sadness on her face disappeared in an instant, and she gave Merrick a high five right away.

"Okay, that's deal."

Meanwhile, in the hospital, a woman wearing a scarf on her head snuck in.

She made her way to the top floor where the hospital director's office was located. She looked around, ensuring no one was watching, and knocked gently on the door.

Soon the door of the office opened.

It was Peter's daughter, Keira, who opened the door.

Keira recognized the woman in front of her by her attire. She smiled, as if she was not surprised to see the woman and invited her in.

"Come in."

The woman quickly entered the office.

As soon as she walked inside, she took off the scarf that had been tightly wrapped around her head and gasped for air.

It was a hot day, and she was wrapped up so tightly that she sweated a lot and almost got sunstroke.

"Come on in and drink some water."

With a smile, Keira brought her a glass of ice water. The woman took it and drank it all.

"Arielle, I heard you used to be quite arrogant. What happened?"

The woman was none other than Arielle. She froze when she heard Keira's words.

"Miss Cooper, I'm here to talk about cooperation, not to hear your humiliation. If you treat me like this, let's call it off."

Even though Arielle was like a castaway now, she still had her pride. She thumped the water on the table, turned around, and walked away.

"Well, you can leave. But I may call Everett and tell him that you are here." Keira stopped her.

Arielle was taken aback and turned to confront Keira. "What the hell do you want? Are you going to set a trap for me?"

Keira walked over to her with grace. "Of course not. Otherwise, how could I offer to work with you and help you find a place to live? If I want to harm you, I don't need to waste my time doing all these."

"So, what exactly do you want?"

"It's very simple," Keira said with a smile. "I need your help in destroying Melissa's reputation and making her disappear from here."

"Why should I help you?"

"First and foremost, you have no option. Second, we all have a common enemy. Miss Sherman, if you think it's wrong, you're free to go. I won't tell anyone."

Arielle thought for a bit. She then raised her head and turned to face Keira.

"Then tell me about the details."

"If you had acted like this earlier, we wouldn't have wasted so much time," Keira joked. "Miss Sherman, let's wish for a good time working together."

Melissa was going to ask Peter for time off when she got back to the hospital, but before she could find him, Peter had already come to her office.

Peter used to look cheerful every time he came to meet Melissa. But today, he came in with a serious look.
