

Chapter 498 Powerful Ability

"Hello, I am the doctor assigned to treat Mrs. Carter. May I go in?" Melissa asked.

The security guard sat in his chair and glanced up at Melissa, sneering. "You're just a young girl. You should probably leave now."

Mona was quick to rebut, "Excuse me? What are you talking about?"

"Hey, why do you have such a bad temper? I just don't want you to go in today. What can you even do?"

The security guard's arrogance did not intimidate Mona. As a professional bodyguard who had won several competitions, she knew she could handle herself against a security guard.

Mona stretched her limbs, preparing for action. Suddenly, her demeanor shifted, and she spoke sternly. "It's been a while since I've had to get physical with someone. I didn't want to embarrass you, but you've left me no choice."

The security guard snickered at Mona's threat. "Do you really want to fight me? Come on now, am I supposed to be scared of you? You're so thin, and I don't want to make trouble with you. But you want to teach me a lesson? That's just ridiculous."

The security guard laughed as Mona began to approach him, step by step.

He had been so dismissive of her a moment ago that he wasn't paying attention to her. But then, he looked up and realized Mona was right in front of him without him even noticing.

He was left stunned, wondering how Mona could have moved so quickly.

How could this petite woman intimidate him?

He quickly regained his confidence and continued to taunt her. "Why did you come into the security room suddenly? Do you want me to beat you?" he sneered.

He then burst out in laughter.

Mona's face contorted in anger, which surprised Melissa. She had never seen Mona like this before.

At first, Melissa considered intervening but then decided to let Mona handle the situation.

She trusted her bodyguard's judgment. She also believed that this was an opportunity to teach the arrogant security guard a lesson.

Mona continued to approach the guard. "Funny?" Mona said, her voice low and dangerous.

The guard scoffed. "Of course, it's funny. You're so thin, and you even want to make trouble with me. You're overestimating yourself."

He reached for a baton next to him, hoping to scare Mona, but she moved too quickly for him to react. She snatched the baton from his hand, leaving him stunned.

"How could this woman act so fast?" he muttered as he stared at his empty hands. His eyes widened in disbelief.

"Didn't you see that? Well, today, I'll show you what I'm capable of."

Mona had a sadistic grin on her face as she waved the baton at him.

"Ouch! Ouch!"

The security guard screamed in agony.

Melissa hurried over to try and stop Mona before she caused serious harm to the security guard. She was concerned that if Mona continued to beat the guard, he could be seriously injured and his appearance could be unrecognizable even to his own wife.

"Who are you?" the guard asked, his body trembling. He slumped back as he looked at Mona in horror.
