

Record of Strange News in Northeast - C10

After a while, the small window of the warehouse was opened, and a fox came in. I thought to myself, "This Hu Tai Niu really gives me a lot of face. This sovereign has come." The fox jumped down and said, "Wait a moment, my grandma will be here soon." Although I was prepared for it, the fox talked like a human in front of me, but I still couldn't accept it for a while.

So, it's not Hu Taimei, it's that little vixen, Hu Yaoyao. I temporarily put down my nervousness. Old Lady Liu nodded to Hu Yaoyao without saying anything, while Hu Yaoyao curled up in a corner, yawning.

After a while, I felt the temperature in the room drop. I knew that this was Hu Tai Shuai, because even though Hu Tai Cai was an immortal, she was actually an old demoness. She was covered in a layer of yin energy, and when I saw that Old Lady Liu was swaying all over, didn't she say that she wanted to get on top of me? As she was thinking, Old Lady Liu spoke. No, it was Hu Tainmei who spoke. "Brat, I have something to tell you. Go find a woman. Little Liu is too weak." So it was because I wanted to talk to her. I quickly went out and dragged Ma Yang in. Before she could understand what was going on, Hu Tai Cai had already climbed onto her body.

Old Lady Liu slowly woke up and explained the reason for the incident. "You should put this matter down first. That brat is called Hao Zi, right? Is your blood ready?" I rushed to get the glass vial containing my blood. When Hu Tai's eyes lit up, he immediately grabbed it and poured it into his mouth. He drank it in two gulps, then smacked his lips and let out a chuckle, which made my hair stand on end.

Then she drew a line on her left hand with the index finger of her right hand, but she didn't see how much. Her nails weren't long, so she made a cut and said to me, "Open your mouth and drink as much as I can." I said to myself, "This is not your blood, it's not yours to fool a fool with. Besides, this blood is extremely disgusting, but I didn't dare oppose it. I quickly opened my mouth, and as Hu Tai Shuai placed his hand on my mouth, the blood flowed down his hand and into my mouth. Don't say it, it really isn't disgusting."

The wound on my left hand immediately recovered, and I was really amazed. It seemed that this old fox really did have some ability, and Hu Taikai said, "Every time we exchange blood this way, when we finish exchanging ten catties, there will be benefits for both of us, so it's a fair deal." I said, "Then can you save Diao Yang? He's my good friend and is about to die. How about I give you some more blood?" Hu Taimei smiled and said, "You're quite a righteous kid. Take me there."

I quickly took Hu Taikou along with me while Old Lady Liu followed behind me. Hu Yaoyao was even snoring when she fell asleep and entered the house. Father Yang was chatting with Old Liu when she saw us and asked, "Mother, where did you go?" Hu Taimei ignored him and walked over to Diao Yang. She opened his eyes and gave a cold snort, "This Old Huang family member is really ruthless. Stealing an Earth's anger requires someone else's life. How can there be such a logic?"

He sat cross-legged on the edge of the kang, looked at us and said, "Bring me some wine, you have no eyes." Old Mrs. Liu quickly pushed her old wife out to get some wine, while Old Liu went to the back room to get a barrel of wine, and then took out a wine glass to pour Hu Tai Shuai. Without being polite, Hu Tai Shuai also drank one cup after another, which made Old Liu's father wince in pain.

After drinking half a bucket, Hu Taimei stopped and said, "I've had a drink, but it'll be troublesome if I drink too much. Let's just wait and see." I curiously asked, "What are we waiting for, Great Milk?" Hu

Taimei replied, "We'll wait for Old Yellow's family. Since it couldn't find this child in your house, of course we'll look everywhere. Later, we'll find this place."

After drinking a few more cups, she was afraid of drinking too much. Just as she was hesitating whether she should continue drinking the wine or not, Diao Yang began to tremble again. Seeing that it was about to be a dance, Hu Diechu's eyes widened, "You're really courting death. You know that your grandma is here, but you still dare to come. Are even Old Yellow's family so powerful?" He jumped off the kang and ran to the southeast side of the yard like a gust of wind. We hurried to follow him, only to see that Hu had run to the wall, but when he was two meters away from the wall, he suddenly jumped over it and flipped over it. We couldn't turn over the wall, so we had to go around by the door.

Without saying a word, he took two steps forward and kicked the weasel. The kick was so powerful that it sent the weasel flying for more than ten meters before he finally got up after a while. He glared fiercely at us and spoke in human language, "Do you dare to interfere with my Huang Family's business? "We never meddle in other people's business. Aren't you afraid of going against our Huang Family?" "Hehe, you and your son ran off and stole my territory. Originally, the rich had their lives, but you and your son stole all of my land, and all of my wealth and life was gone. I deserved to be beaten to death, and you still want my son's life. How can you be so domineering? I'm in charge of this matter today."

Before the black smoke could reach us, we smelt a pungent smell. At this time, we saw a fox running towards us, it was Hu Yao Yao who was just sleeping a moment ago, Hu Yao's big tail swept out and the black smoke dispersed, then Hu Yao ran towards the big yellow leather, then she turned around and ran, but Hu Yao was even faster, she caught up with the big yellow leather and almost bit into Hu Yao's nose. Hu Yao bared her teeth in anger.

We watched with our mouths agape. This series of changes was too surprising, where did Hu Yaoyao come out from? Why didn't Hu Taimei do it herself? Why did he release that weasel in the end?
