

Record of Strange News in Northeast - C11

At this time, we discovered that Hu Taiyu had already told Hu Yaoyao to come over and was prepared to possess Hu Yaoyao at any time. Hu Yaoyao walked over to us and said, "It's not easy to become a wild immortal, I can't bear to hurt its life like this. It won't bother you anymore, so you can rest assured." With that, he turned and left.

The incident with Huang Daxian passed just like that. From then on, his pretentious father never went hunting in the mountains. Every life was noble, and every life was worth cherishing.

In the blink of an eye, I was also in primary school. When there were no classes, I would go to Old Lady Liu to listen to her stories, play with her crazily, and play with her for a year. Every time I spoke about what happened in school, they would look at me with admiration and listen to me earnestly.

Today, Friday, the last part of the journey down was a physical education lesson. I waited for the physical education teacher to announce that he had disbanded and ran back to the village. Who would play football with them?

When I reached Mrs. Liu's house, I pushed the door open and entered. The couple was playing cards, so I greeted them and asked them to sit down. After they finished playing, I said to Mrs. Liu, "Grandma Liu, I haven't finished the story I told yesterday. Let's continue." Old Lady Liu took off her reading glasses and asked, "What did you say yesterday? I'm old and can't remember. Today, I'll tell you something else." "No matter what you say, as long as it's what Granny Liu says, I like it."

"Alright, I'll tell you a story about Li Kui today."

One of the generals of the Water Margin, known as Black Tornado, was killed by two big axes flying up and down. I have heard the story many times, so I was tired of it and said, "Grandma Liu, I am more familiar with Li Kui's story than you are. Tell me about something else." Old Lady Liu said, "Aren't you listening to Li Kui from the Water Margin. I'm not talking about the Water Margin. Listen carefully." I thought to myself, This is new. I quickly found a stool and sat down to listen.

Old Mrs. Liu said: "Li Kui was born with a black head and a black face. When he was young, his killing intent was heavy, he grabbed little bunny and killed them all, and when others saw how murderous he was, they advised his parents to send him to the temple to recuperate, or else he would definitely become a troublemaker. His parents did not think so, but when Li Kui was 16 years old, he actually caused trouble, and when he killed, it was all a crime. If I can't beat him, he'll kill me. Isn't that normal? If I can't beat him, then he'll kill me. Isn't it normal that if I can't beat him, then he'll kill me? Let's not even talk about a villager. Even if my own parents were to anger me, I would still chop them down. When the bystanders heard this, they were secretly speechless in their hearts, wondering how could this guy be like this? He looked like a human, but his thoughts were all beasts' thoughts. Li Kui did not have to worry about being captured by the officials. Later on, there were some experts who said that Li Kui was born into a cruel family, and this kind of person may seem like a normal person, but his way of thinking could not be understood according to common sense, and was mostly the result of three reincarnations, which in current words was inhumane. When Li Kui met Song Jiang and was infected by him, he gradually became more and more human, but every time he would rush to the front of the battlefield, and regardless of men or women, young or old or young, he would kill people.

I said, "Grandma Liu, have you ever met a fierce seed?" Old Mrs. Liu smiled and said, "Li Si's appearance is just like a normal person's. Sometimes, he can't even tell that he's different from others, much less outsiders."

I stayed at Mrs. Liu's for a while and then went home. On the way home, I passed by the eastern end of the village and saw a lot of people gathered together, as if something big had happened. I walked over and saw that something had happened to Wan Lai Chen's house.

Wan Lai Chen is a man of our village, a man of great stature, with a beard, copper eyes, a lion's nose, and a mouth big enough to squeeze a fist, and a smile that can frighten a child to tears. He is a man who kills pigs and cows to make up for the lack of a slaughterhouse, because he is the only butcher in the village, so his business is booming.

I asked the person next to me what had happened, and he told me that last night, the neighbor of Wan Lai Chen had heard a shout in his house, but soon there was no sound, and the neighbors didn't care, and the next day someone came to visit and smelled blood outside the door, and he thought Wan Lai Chen was a butcher, and the smell of blood was perfectly normal, and pushing in the door scared him, and it was like cutting a pig and a sheep in half, and Wan Lai Chen's parents were also cut in half, and what was more frightening and disgusting was that someone had the old woman's upper body sewn together with the old man's upper body and the old man's lower body sewn with the pig and the old man's lower body.
