

Chapter 1126 The Cyan Light Lamp

Idris glanced at Liam, his tone icy. "Listen up, kid. There are no freebies here. You want to stick with us? You'll have to pull your weight. No slacking once we hit Shadow Valley's core. Otherwise, I'll be the first to kill you!"

Liam just smiled, keeping quiet.

Susannah had a different take. She shot Idris a glance, saying, "Idris, Liam isn't fully healed yet. Let him get some rest."

Idris was surprised by Susannah's soft spot for Liam.

How many times had she defended him?

In fact, Susannah's fondness for Liam wasn't just because of her kindness. There was something about his aura that drew her in.

Of course, Susannah had no clue she was actually drawn to the strength of Liam's life force.

Susannah didn't know the reason, and either did Idris.

Idris whispered to Susannah, "Miss, Liam's a newbie. You can't baby him. If you don't let him deal with the primogem beasts, it won't be fair to the team. But don't worry; I'll keep an eye on him. I'll make sure nothing happens to him."

Liam felt guilty seeing Susannah's kindness.

Plus, he was itching for a showdown with the shadow beasts. So, he said, "Miss Prescott, I'm good. No need to worry about me."

With Liam's assurance, Susannah had to drop the idea of letting him rest.

Seeing Liam's willingness, Idris passed him a Cyan Light Lamp, cautioning, "Hold onto this tight. Without it, the shadow beasts will have a field day with you!"

Inspecting the Cyan Light Lamp, Liam found it oddly simple, devoid of any mystical markings.

Despite its plain appearance, the lamp had a unique power to expose shadow beasts.

How it worked puzzled him.

Idris noticed Liam's intrigue and boasted, "The Cyan Light Lamp is a gem from our Prescott lineage! Our ancestor stumbled into Shadow Valley ages back. Weak as he was then, he noticed his special power of the light element could flush out shadow beasts. So, he crafted these lamps! Don't let its plain looks fool you. Making them is an art. Only a mastermind like our ancestor could pull it off! With these lamps, we Prescotts could dive into Shadow Valley fearlessly!"

Liam nodded, realizing the valley's dangers hinted at untold treasures.

Clearly, the Prescott ancestor valued Shadow Valley's secret treasures.

Idris beamed with pride after finishing his words.

He had been itching to spill the beans to Liam about how it was all thanks to the Prescott ancestor that Liam could wield the Cyan Light Lamp now.

When Idris peeped at Liam, he only saw a blank stare.

Thinking Liam was just awestruck by the ancestor's tale, Idris felt more pleased.

Little did Idris know, Liam was gobsmacked because he had heard about the lamp's crafting from Idris' words.

The light element was shaping up to be a game-changer in Shadow Valley, just like Liam had figured.

As for Liam, he also possessed the special power of the light element!
