

Chapter 1215 Ready To Depart

Before embarking on his journey to the War God House, besides honing his cultivation techniques, Liam spent most of his time in the company of Laura and Shayla.

Because he was acutely aware that this departure could be their last farewell.

During this period, Liam occasionally offered Laura and Shayla guidance on cultivation. He also informed them that he was preparing to go to the War God House.

When Laura and Shayla learned that Liam was preparing to confront the Lord of the War God House, a formidable level eight Primogem Warrior, they couldn't help but worry about Liam's safety.

Their concern was justified, given that the enemy was formidable.

Seeing them worried, Liam felt deeply touched. Therefore, he took the time to explain everything thoroughly.

"Don't worry. I've already tested my strength against Carlden. With my current strength and resources, I might not be able to defeat the Lord of the War God House outright. However, I will have no trouble stalling for time. Additionally, there's something I need you two to help me with. I'm counting on your assistance to save Julie and Asher," he said.

After a pause, he added, "By the way, I've come to an agreement with Maureen, who has recently advanced to level six as a Primogem Warrior. During that time, Maureen will join forces with you. You'll be up against only Rohan, a level-six Primogem Warrior. I believe the three of you together will be sufficient to defeat him. However, don't underestimate the situation. Prioritize your own safety before taking any action!"

Upon hearing Liam's words, both Laura and Shayla were filled with warmth. They exchanged a glance, silently communicating their agreement. Shayla even broke into a smile and said, "You don't need to worry, Liam. Laura and I are going to bring Julie and Asher back to safety! After all, we're going to consider Julie as our family. And as for Asher, we'll adopt him as our godson!"

Upon hearing Shayla's spirited declaration, Liam was momentarily at a loss for words.

Nonetheless, Shayla's joke brought a sense of ease to the tense atmosphere.

Moreover, Shayla and Laura strongly insisted that Liam remain at their residence. Liam had no other choice but to agree. Thus, he stayed there and enjoyed the peaceful pre-war time with the two women.

Before long, it was the day before Liam departed for Genesis Island.

Liam made his way to Genesis Island alone on the surface.

However, the president stealthily followed him, silently ensuring his safety from the shadows.

Carlden's current identity, along with his role as one of the protectors of the Saint Society, prevented him from publicly accompanying Liam. Therefore, Carlden joined the group of the Saint Society on their journey to Genesis Island.

Of course, everyone was thoroughly prepared.

Prior to their departure, Maureen, Shayla, and Laura, who had promised Liam they would go to Invone to rescue Julie and Asher, disguised themselves with the assistance of the president.

The president's disguises were so intricate that they made the true identities of the three indiscernible to others.

With their transformed appearances, operating in Invone would be significantly easier for them. At the very least, it would significantly decrease the likelihood of being recognized by Rohan.

On that day, all the elite forces of the Saint Society would be deployed to Genesis Island.

This strategic timing brought Liam significant relief regarding their actions. After all, all three of them were level-six Primogem Warriors. As long as all the masters of the Saint Society departed for Genesis Island, the trio ought to be able to carry out this plan.

Still, before they departed, Liam specifically sought out the three of them. "Ladies, I know I've said this before, but I want to emphasize it again. Approach this task with the utmost caution," he said earnestly.

Upon hearing Liam's words, Shayla smiled, while Laura grew even more bashful. She couldn't help but interpret it as a sign of Liam's concern for her.

Meanwhile, Maureen spoke up with a sense of practicality. "Liam, you'd better make sure you complete your original plan. If your plan for Genesis Island fails, it will be meaningless for us to save them! But rest assured, we'll do everything in our power to bring Julie and Asher back safely!"

Liam understood that Maureen's point made a lot of sense. Nodding his agreement, he said, "Okay!"

Having spoken to them, Liam finally felt relieved. He then set out for Genesis Island by himself.

Throughout the journey, Liam used his spiritual power to constantly scrutinize his surroundings. After a prolonged period of rigorous screening, he vaguely confirmed the position of his master.

The revelation caused Liam to sigh inwardly. "My master's strength is truly unparalleled. Had I not known beforehand that my master was covertly trailing me, even with the spiritual power on par with a level eight Primogem Warrior, I wouldn't have been able to discover him!" he muttered to himself.

After a brief moment of surprise, Liam carried on with his journey.

One day later.

Liam returned to Genesis Island.

As soon as he set foot on Genesis Island, he was greeted by a group of Salvation Society members.

Among them was a tall, imposing figure, with a slightly gloomy expression on his face.

Liam recognized this person immediately upon seeing him.

The Lord of the War God House was Orlando Murray. And this man was Orlando's relative, Barry Murray!

A slight frown crossed Liam's face as soon as he saw Barry. However, there was no overt expression on Barry's face, so Liam couldn't decipher what he was thinking.

Chapter 1215 Ready To Depart

 +120 Points at most

However, there was one thing he was absolutely certain of. Barry would never show kindness to him.

Walking up to Liam, Barry suddenly said, "Liam! We've been anticipating your arrival for quite a while! It couldn't have been easy for you to come back. Come on, let's go to the War God House and catch up!"

 Limited-time offer: 30 minutes of free reading>>

Claim Now