

Chapter 1222 Reaching Level Eight

---

Emer's words didn't make Liam panic. Liam was certain that his master and Carlden were nearby, watching over him.

If his life were truly at risk, his master and Carlden would step up to help him.

Therefore, Liam relied on his own strength to battle against Unbroken Cloud.

Liam also recognized that this battle against Unbroken Cloud offered him a valuable opportunity for training and growth.

He realized that making it through this battle could become a turning point for him. It could provide him the breakthrough needed to become a level-eight Primogem Warrior!

Meanwhile, Unbroken Cloud noted that Liam was unfazed in front of him. Witnessing Liam's exceptional courage, he couldn't help but recognize Liam's potential.

He then presented Liam with a proposal. "Liam, you can become my apprentice. I am the chief guardian of the Saint Society. If you agree to become my apprentice, I'll ensure you attain a high-ranking position in the Saint Society. Not only that, you will even get the opportunity to become the president of the Salvation Society. It's a mutually beneficial arrangement. What's stopping you from accepting it? I have a high regard for your strength and talent. It's in your best interest not to jeopardize your bright future for your so-called ideals."

Liam harbored a deep hatred for the Saint Society. Therefore, joining it was entirely out of the question for him.

Upon hearing the words of Unbroken Cloud, Liam let out a disdainful snort. "You're not worthy of being my master."

No sooner had Liam finished speaking than he took the initiative to attack.

Liam swung the sword of darkness. The sword's blade sliced through the air, unleashing an unstoppable force. Simultaneously, Liam incorporated his special power into his blow.

Even though Liam wielded the sword of darkness himself, he was surprised by the power of it.

This was undeniably the most powerful attack he had ever unleashed!

The very moment Liam executed his strike, he felt a barrier within his body shatter.

Suddenly, a brilliant white light emanated from Liam's body, enveloping him completely.

In an instant, Liam's strength surged dramatically. This was the moment when the bottleneck that separated the peak of level seven from level eight was breached.

Liam had successfully broken through the barrier, ascending to the rank of level eight as a Primogem Warrior.

As Liam felt the drastic improvement in his strength due to his breakthrough, his confidence skyrocketed. In that instant, he let out a roar.

"You old fool, go to hell!"

Meanwhile, Unbroken Cloud also realized that Liam had achieved a breakthrough.

This astounded Unbroken Cloud, who had witnessed numerous peculiar incidents in his long existence.

Besides, ever since he broke through the barrier, Liam had been surrounded by a distinctive aura.

Unbroken Cloud, despite being a level-nine Primogem Warrior, couldn't help but be wary of Liam's aura.

He had a gnawing sense that he might not be able to withstand the formidable blow Liam was about to deliver.

If this were to happen in other circumstances, Unbroken Cloud would have merely snorted at such a challenge. After all, regardless of how talented Liam was, he had just reached level eight.

But at this moment, Unbroken Cloud was really gripped by an unusual feeling!

It was as if everything Unbroken Cloud had believed for countless years was being turned upside down.

It was widely recognized that Unbroken Cloud was a master of level nine in the Saint Society. His prowess had even reached three stars of level nine.

Once a Primogem Warrior reached level nine, increasing their strength by even one star became a formidable task.

In essence, advancing from one star of level nine to two stars was as tough as progressing directly from level seven to level eight. Such an advancement would lead to exceptionally potent growth for the Primogem Warrior.
