

Chapter 1229 Rohan Escapes

Although Rohan was shocked that he was defeated by the three women, he didn't panic.

Instead, he remained calm as if nothing had happened.

After all, he knew he was still very safe now since he still held a life-saving bargaining chip in his hands. And that bargaining chip was none other than Julie.

As long as he held Julie prisoner, he could intimidate the three women.

Therefore, Rohan slowly got up from the floor and said calmly, "I didn't expect you three to be so powerful. However, if that's all you can do, I advise you to leave as soon as possible. Don't waste your time here. You can't kill me, and you won't dare to kill me."

Among the three women, Shayla had a fiery temper. As soon as she heard Rohan's words, she frowned and exclaimed in anger, "Rohan, you bastard! Stop pretending. Do you think a few harsh words from you can stop us from killing you?"

Rohan looked at Shayla with a creepy smile on his face. "Isn't your purpose of visiting the Duncan family this time to save Asher and Julie? Don't worry. Although I sent Asher to the Cosmic realm, I didn't send Julie there. She is still in the Duncan family. So, if you want me to release her, you'd better listen to me. Otherwise, I will make sure that bitch dies with me."

Sure enough, as soon as Rohan used his trump card, the three women's tough attitudes instantly changed.

Otherwise, I will make sure that bitch dies with me."

Sure enough, as soon as Rohan used his trump card, the three women's tough attitudes instantly changed.

They exchanged looks with one another. Finally, Maureen, the calmest among them, spoke. "Rohan, just tell us where Julie is, and we will spare you. But if you dare to play tricks on us, we will still kill you. Lead the way."

When Rohan realized he was really safe, he sneered and said to the three women, "Follow me."

After he said this, he pushed the laboratory door open and walked ahead.

Shayla, Maureen, and Laura followed him to the corridor of another secret room.

While they walked, Maureen gave the two women a look, hinting at them that if Rohan dared to play any tricks, they would immediately subdue him.

Of course, Maureen didn't want to kill Rohan before they found Julie. After all, Rohan was the only person who knew Julie's whereabouts.

Rohan led the three of them to the end of the corridor and opened the alloy door. But at that moment, something unexpected happened.

As soon as the door was opened, Rohan suddenly turned around and used the Origin Technique of the thunder element he had mastered.

Rohan knew very well that he couldn't possibly kill Shayla and the other two just with his own Origin Technique. So his purpose was not to kill them; he only wanted to paralyze them with the use of lightning.

The moment the lightning touched their bodies, the three women's mobility was instantly affected. Their reactions were slowed down.

They could only watch Rohan turn around, run into the secret room, and quickly close the door.

Fortunately, they were at the peak of level six as Primogem Warriors. So, they recovered quickly.

As soon as the numbness in their bodies disappeared, they immediately chased after Rohan.

Unfortunately, the alloy door was tightly closed. They couldn't enter the secret room.

Shayla roared in anger. She banged the alloy door with all her strength. But since it was made of alloy metal, it didn't even move.

Rohan, hiding inside the secret room, heard the noise at the door. He knew the three women could not enter no matter what they did. He laughed out loud and shouted viciously, "Don't expect to save Julie. Like Asher, I also sent that bitch to the Cosmic realm. But she is not as precious as her son, so I wasn't able to sell her at a good price. You will never find her, no matter what you do. And Liam will never find his son again!"

The three women were even more furious when they heard Rohan's arrogant laughter.

They hadn't expected him to be so cunning. In the end, he had still managed to escape.

Maureen was the first to realize something.

She suddenly remembered she had also brought the doctor with her.

So, she hurriedly turned around, intending to control the doctor.

But to her surprise, the doctor was no longer there.

It turned out that the three of them had been fooled by Rohan and the doctor.

Upon realizing this, the three women's faces turned livid with rage. Their eyes were blazing with fury.

Shayla suddenly slumped to the floor, looking disappointed.

She didn't know how to explain this to Liam after they returned.

The three of them wanted to go to the Cosmic realm to look for Julie and Asher, but they didn't know much about this so-called Cosmic realm.

They had only learned about the existence of the Cosmic realm through Liam.

And even if Liam personally went to the Cosmic realm to look for Julie and Asher, it would still be difficult for him to find them.

After all, Liam was not familiar with the place. He wouldn't be able to find Julie and Asher easily since they were held captive by the Blood Clan.
