Chapter 1271 A Special Task

After Liam destroyed the curse cloud above the No.105 planetary system, peace finally returned to the entire planet.

The malevolent power of the curse was no more.

It was time for everyone to claim the rewards for completing this urgent task.

Each person who undertook the emergency mission received a reward.

Yet, there was no joy on their faces; instead, they all felt a bit resigned.

Because they had only received a small number of points.

It was clear that Liam had contributed the most during the task, so naturally, over half of the rewards were allocated to him.

There was no dispute about this.

Rewards were distributed based on individual contributions.

Disappointed by their meager points, the others glanced at Liam with frustration.

However, there was no jealousy or resentment towards Liam for taking the lion's share of the points.

Only then did Liam remember to check his own point tally.

During the recent urgent task, Liam had earned an A grade

+120 Points at most

Such a high evaluation meant Liam had received a substantial reward of 2000 points!

For other Primogem Warriors, accumulating such a large number of points would likely take years of hard work.

This realization filled Liam with joy.

The urgent task had truly been worth it!

Liam even hoped to do more urgent tasks like this in the future.

With his points increasing rapidly, he believed he would soon reach his goal.

Suddenly, a synthesized voice echoed in his mind.

This time, he received a special task.

Liam studied the task details carefully.

It was a mission to teleport to a planetary system on the edge of the Rosefinch Galaxy, a considerable distance away.

Liam decided to accept the task.

The moment he accepted the task, the Network of Human Sovereign activated the automatic transmission function.

A transmission portal suddenly materialized before Liam.

Meanwhile, in the No. 1 planetary system, the Lord of Rosefinch observed Liam's movements closely.

In truth, this special mission had been specifically arranged for Liam by him.
