Chapter 1274 The Arena Task

Liam was unaware that he wasn't alone in knowing the decision he had made.

The Lord of Rosefinch and Christos from the Sanctuary of Human Sovereign also knew Liam's choice.

"Good!"

Both of them were pleased with Liam making such a decision.

Their eyes shone with satisfaction and approval.

It appeared that Liam was not only a prodigy in his training but also a person of good character!

Meanwhile, in a planetary system at the edge of the Rosefinch Galaxy.

Liam instructed Emer to use the fragment of the Heart of Life to channel life energy into the embryo, speeding up its growth.

Emer was overjoyed.

This proved that it had chosen the right master.

Emer had never wanted its master to be a bad person who committed terrible deeds for personal gain.

Emer exerted all its power to harness the life energy.

A surge of vibrant life energy erupted from Liam's body and surged into his heart.

Liam noticed the heart before him swelling, and its beats grew louder and stronger.

The embryo was nearing maturity.

Liam felt a wave of joy and a slight thrill of anticipation.

He was eager to witness the miraculous birth of the World Lord.

Still, the birth of the World Lord was a long way off...

A month later.

As life energy flowed continuously through Emer, the embryo finally began to split.

Liam watched as the cracks on the heart's surface widened and quickened, feeling a spark of excitement.

Suddenly, a sharp sound echoed.

Liam watched as the heart shattered, releasing a blinding burst of light!

The World Lord of this planet finally came into being, thanks to Liam's assistance.

This new World Lord, similar to Lancy, transformed into a young girl.

She recognized that Liam was the one who had helped her.

As a result, she gazed at Liam with eyes full of gentleness, as if she were looking at a member of her family.

The World Lord bowed deeply to Liam as a gesture to thank him.

Suddenly, a World Power appeared right before Liam's eyes!

"Thank you!" Liam, delighted by this unforeseen reward, smiled broadly.

He then noticed the plants, which had previously had their life energy drained by the World Lord, were now rejuvenating. They visibly regained their lushness and strength at a rapid pace.

Liam watched in awe as the once lifeless herbs and plants sprang back to life, and he let out a relieved sigh.

His considerable expenditure of energy had indeed not been in vain this time.

With the revival of all the herbs, Liam successfully completed the special task he had been assigned.

He had also reached a full one hundred percent completion.

Liam earned 1000 points from the task, skyrocketing his total points. He was on the brink of unlocking level 3 authority!

The World Lord bowed to Liam once more, expressing her gratitude. "Thank you! Without your kindness, I might never have been born. You are my dearest friend!"

Liam responded with a gentle smile, accepting the World Lord's thanks. He then said, "I have done all that I needed to do on this planet. The rest is up to you. Goodbye!"

The World Lord responded with a sweet smile and a nod.

Under the World Lord's thankful gaze, Liam used the transmission array to return to the mission room in the main city.

After submitting his task, Liam was ready to explore and become more familiar with the Cosmic realm.

As Liam was about to exit the mission room, a voice called out to him.

"Hey! Don't you remember me?"

Liam turned to see a man hurrying toward him. He frowned slightly and asked, "Have we met before?"

The man gave an awkward smile and then explained, "I accompanied you to the No. 105 planetary system for the urgent task. You might not have noticed me back then, but that's okay. I don't mind. It's great to meet you. My name is Cecil Vaughn!"

Upon hearing Cecil's introduction, Liam sensed that Cecil wanted to discuss something, but he still responded politely, "I'm Liam Hoffman."

Cecil, full of enthusiasm, said, "Liam, it seems you didn't pick up the recent task. Have you just arrived in the Cosmic realm?"

Liam was puzzled about how Cecil connected these two things but understood that Cecil meant no harm, so he nodded and said, "Yes, I recently arrived in the Cosmic realm. I'm still getting used to some of the rules here. What's up?"

Cecil smiled. "No wonder! Liam, you are not aware of the arena task in the Network of Human Sovereign, right?"

Surprised, Liam asked, "Arena task? What is that?"

Cecil noticed the puzzled look on Liam's face and felt a sense of pride before he replied, "The tasks in the arena center on the arena match. Each participant can enter the competition once a month. When you do the arena task, your strength will be temporarily reduced to level ten with one star. You will then battle mirror opponents in the arena whose strength ranges from level ten with one star up to the peak of level ten. If you manage to defeat all your opponents in the arena, you will receive a substantial reward!"
